ON THE HILL

THE GAME

Mercyhurst heads to Pittsburgh on Saturday to face Duquesne at Rooney Field. Kickoff is noon ET, and the game streams on NEC Front Row. The Lakers are still looking for their first NEC win and their first road win of the year, having dropped all seven road games (0-7). Their lone victory came at Saxon Stadium, a 49-20 win over Glenville State on Sept. 19. The Dukes have won the last two meetings, 31-24 in Pittsburgh in 2024 and 37-0 in Erie last season.

ABOUT THE LAKERS

Mercyhurst is 1-9 overall and 0-5 in the NEC after a 33-28 loss to Wagner at Saxon Stadium. Jason Woods gave the Lakers a spark in the return game, taking a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown and returning a punt 54 yards for another, this earned him FCS National Recognition as Special Teams player of the week as well as NEC Special teams POTW honors. Alex Gevaudan threw for 195 yards and two touchdowns, but the Lakers managed only 13 rushing yards on 14 carries, and Wagner held the ball for nearly 42 minutes. Jake Miller and Jeff Leavell each made 14 tackles. Four of the Lakers' five NEC losses have come by six points or fewer: 3 at LIU, 3 vs. Central Connecticut, 6 at Stonehill and 5 vs. Wagner. Gevaudan has 2,192 passing yards and 19 touchdowns, and Dylan Evans leads the receivers with 562 yards and six touchdowns.

TEAM NOTES

NEW ROLES, NEW FACES
Mercyhurst welcomed a few new faces to the sideline for the 2026 season. The Lakers welcomed Kellen O'Neill from Division II Tiffin University to serve as tight ends coach and special teams coordinator, Michael Forman from Division III Tufts University as defensive backs coach and pass game coordinator, and JD Williams from Murray State as wide receivers coach.

The Lakers also made two in-house promotions, with offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator Michael Waring now serving as general manager and Bryce Dempsey taking over as defensive coordinator after serving as the Lakers' linebackers coach in 2025.

HISTORY MADE
Mercyhurst fell 51-14 at New Mexico State, but the Lakers made program history in the process, scoring their first-ever touchdown against an FBS opponent — even holding a brief 14-13 lead in the second quarter before the Aggies took over.

TOP TARGETS RETURN
The Lakers return two of their top receivers in 2026 in senior Dylan Evans and junior Evan Van Dyke. The duo combined for 84 receptions and 966 receiving yards during the 2025 season.

HEAVY AIR TRAFFIC
Alex Gevaudan has taken firm control of the Mercyhurst offense. He left the New Mexico State game with an injury and sat out the trip to New Mexico. He returned for the Glenville State win and threw two touchdown passes, including a 64-yard strike to Dylan Evans, in the 49-20 home-opener rout.

He has been even better in NEC play. Gevaudan threw for 237 yards and three touchdowns without an interception at LIU, then put up a season-best 409 yards and four touchdowns against Central Connecticut. That was the third-highest passing total in the FCS that week and earned him NEC Offensive Player of the Week honors. At Stonehill he set season highs with 54 attempts and 28 completions, and the Lakers totaled 344 passing yards and three touchdowns. Through nine games he has thrown for 2,192 yards and 19 touchdowns, averaging 243.6 yards per game.

The receiving corps has produced alongside him. Against CCSU, Lattimore (an NEC Prime Performer) caught eight passes for 131 yards and two touchdowns, and Evans added five catches for 136 yards and a score, including a 52-yard grab.

Tight end Sha'lik Hampton caught a touchdown pass on the opening drive, and Evan Van Dyke added a 52-yard touchdown run. Lattimore kept his hot streak alive at RMU with two touchdown receptions. Evans leads the team with 35 catches for 562 yards and six touchdowns, and Hampton has five touchdown catches. In the 33-28 loss to Wagner, the Lakers threw for 195 yards and two touchdowns, including a 67-yard scoring strike.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

PLAYING IT RISKY
Mercyhurst has kept its aggressive streak in 2026 after going for it on fourth down 39 times last season, more than any other FCS team. The Lakers have gone for it 23 times through ten games and converted five. They went for it five times at Western Kentucky, four at LIU, and three each against Central Connecticut, at Robert Morris and at Stonehill, and they converted two at WKU and one each at LIU, RMU and Stonehill. The same mindset carried over to two-point attempts against Central Connecticut. Emanuel Fincher's rushing conversion capped the Lakers' opening score, and Evan Van Dyke's pass conversion after Dylan Evans' touchdown with 1:51 left cut the deficit to 43-40. Mercyhurst is 2-for-2 on two-point tries this season.

THE WOODS ARE WIDE OPEN
Jr. WR/KR Jason Woods had a career day in the 33-28 loss to Wagner, returning both a kickoff and a punt for touchdowns. He became the first FCS player this season to score on both a kickoff return and a punt return in the same game. He took a kickoff 99 yards to the house in the second quarter, then returned a punt 54 yards for a score that helped put the Lakers ahead in the fourth quarter. Woods finished with 170 return yards and five receptions for a career-high 68 receiving yards, totaling 238 all-purpose yards. The performance earned him Stats Perform FCS National Special Teams Player of the Week honors and NEC Special Teams Player of the Week.

FRESHMAN LEGS, BIG PLAYS
The Lakers have gotten consistent help from the kicking game, which is built around two true freshmen. Kicker Rocco Marcantonio scored the first points in Division I football this season with a 24-yard field goal at Youngstown State. He later drilled a 43-yarder as the first half expired at LIU to tie the game, and he added a 38-yarder against Central Connecticut. He has also yet to miss an extra point. Punter Thomas O'Neill, a 6-foot-7 Rochester native, was named NEC Special Teams Player of the Week after averaging 49.2 yards on six punts at Western Kentucky, with a long of 58.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

A NEW DIRECTION ON DEFENSE

The Lakers will look to improve defensively in 2026 under new defensive coordinator Bryce Dempsey. One of the key returners for the Mercyhurst defense is senior Jeff Leavell, who led the team in 2025 with 80 total tackles, including 42 solo stops.

PRESSURE ON THE DEFENSIVE SIDE

The Mercyhurst defense has been effective at creating negative plays in 2026, recording 50 tackles for loss and 16 sacks through ten games. The Lakers turned in their best performance against Glenville State, totaling nine tackles for loss, including two sacks, while forcing two fumbles, recovering both, and recording three interceptions in a 49-20 victory. Those five takeaways account for half of the Lakers' 10 on the season. The unit has kept the pressure on in recent weeks, with seven tackles for loss at Stonehill and eight against Wagner. Teddy McDuffie leads the team with 8.0 tackles for loss and 4.0 sacks, and Zacchaeus Dixon has 6.5 tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks.

HEAD COACH
THOMAS SYDESKI

Sydeski enters his first season with the Lakers ahead of the 2026 season with him acting as the Offensive Coordinator and Quarterbacks Coach.

Sydeski has two seasons already under his belt as Mercyhurst's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, during which the Lakers produced two of the most productive offensive campaigns in program history. In 2025, Mercyhurst ranked third in the NEC in total offense (331.4 yards per game) and second in passing offense (196.7 yards per game).

Prior to his time in Erie, Sydeski began his time on the sidelines in 2018 when he joined the coaching staff at Old Dominion, acting as the team's Offensive Quality Control Coordinator for Quarterbacks where he assisted the QB coach as well and running Ron Whitcomb's QB School during the summer.

He then took his talents to south beach in July of 2018 where he served as the Offensive Quality Control Coordinator for the Offensive Line at Florida International University. From there, he became the Quarterbacks Coach at Bryant University in January 0f 2019, serving in that positions for four years before moving on on the University of West Georgia in February of 2023.

Sydeski helped FIU to a superb season in the trenches with the team allowing the third fewest sacks in the nation while their tackles for a loss was third with the team's passing efficiency coming in at 155.16 for the 13th-best in the country.

His success continued at Bryant in 2021 where the team set a program record for points in a game while having 50 or more points in back-to-back games for the first time ever.

Sydeski helped lead the team to being one of the better offenses in the NEC that season as they came in first in total offense while coming in second in scoring offense.

In 2022, Bryant finished within the top 10 nationally in passing offense, third down conversion rate, and passing touchdowns while their quarter back, Zevi Eckhaus set program records for total offense in a season, passing yards in a game, and total offense in a game.

Sydeski earned his Bachelor's in Business Administration in 2017 from Hartwick College and currently resides in Erie, Pa.

Before his collegiate journey, Sydeski had a standout high school career at Brockport in Connecticut, Sydeski began his collegiate career at quarterback for Stonehill, which was an NCAA Division II program in the NE-10 at the time. He appeared in five games during his time with the Skyhawks, throwing for 1,166 yards and seven touchdowns.

Sydeski transferred to NCAA Division III Hobart in New York in 2015, where he appeared in seven games and threw for 346 yards and three touchdowns.

He concluded his playing career at Division III Hartwick College in New York from 2016-17, seeing action in five games at quarterback and throwing three touchdown passes before beginning his coaching career.
