Alabama Agricultural and Mechanical University is pleased to be nationally recognized and our most successful graduates are proud to cite AAMU as a major factor in preparing them for their achievements in life and in the workplace.

DISCOVER ALABAMA A&M

SERVICE IS SOVEREIGNTY

Alabama A&M is building an involved community of learning one person at a time.

AAMU defines the ideal public university. You will find an array of opportunities to pursue your interests and passions in the best tradition of a small land-grant university with the resources of a national research institution.

Just the Facts

Alabama A&M University was organized in 1875 as a result of an 1873 state bill that established a "State Normal School and University for the Education of the Colored Teachers and Students" and from the efforts of ex-slave William H. Councill who, in 1869 founded its predecessor, The Lincoln Normal School. The doors were opened as The Huntsville Normal School and, after undergoing many changes in curriculum due to the vision of Councill, rose in ranks from a junior college to a fully accredited university in 1963. Then, in 1969, our school became known as Alabama Agricultural and Mechanical (A&M) University.

Did You Know?

▶ Alabama A&M University combines the uniqueness of a traditional land-grant university with professional, vocational, and liberal arts pursuits?

▶ The original mission of a land-grant university such as AAMU was to focus on teaching agricultural sciences and engineering in response to the Industrial Revolution. AAMU has expanded its curriculum to other areas such as the liberal arts to stay current with the times.

▶ The University is a center for substance and excellence providing a setting for the emergence of scholars, thinkers, leaders and other contributors to society?

AAMU is committed to:

Excellence in education.
Educating students for effective participation in local, state, national, and international societies, searching for new knowledge through research.
Providing a comprehensive outreach program designed to meet the changing needs of a larger community.
Developing programs necessary to adequately address the major needs and problems of capable students who have experienced limited access to education.
The integration of state-of-the-art technology into all aspects of University functions.

. . . that AAMU prepares students to do good AND to do well?

Alabama A&M University was founded in the waning years of the Reconstruction Period after the Civil War. The nation was dealing with rebuilding the South, as well as reconstructing the lives of people who had long been enslaved. AAMU's motto, "Service Is Sovereignty" returns power and nobility to those who devote their lives freely to the service of others. AAMU's motto is the perfect complement to the University's land-grant mission of teaching, research, and outreach.

...that Alabama A&M University offers programs in agriculture, environmental science, liberal arts, business, education, and engineering as well as graduate, post masters, and doctoral degrees?

AAMU is distinguished by its small size complemented by the large number educational resources and undergraduate majors offered. Undergrads can choose from 51 different majors.

. . . that the community atmosphere is as rich in diversity as the University itself, and the beautiful campus on the hill are two things you'll notice right away?

When you choose a university, you choose a home for 4 years. AAMU is a place where you'll enjoy living and learn-

MISSION

Alabama Agricultural and Mechanical University is a public, comprehensive 1890 Land-Grant institution, committed to access and opportunity, and dedicated to intellectual inquiry. The application of knowledge and excellence in teaching, research and service is responsive to the needs of a diverse student population and the social and economic needs of the state and region. The University offers contemporary baccalaureate, master's, educational specialist and doctoral level degrees to prepare students for careers in the arts, sciences, business, engineering, education, agriculture and technology. As a center of excellence, the University is dedicated to providing a student-centered educational environment for the emergence of scholars, scientists, leaders and critical thinkers, who are equipped to excel through their contributions and leadership in a 21st century national and global society.

VISION

The vision of Alabama Agricultural and Mechanical University is to be recognized as the premier Land-Grant institution of choice for students, faculty, staff, and future employers of its students. The University will be recognized nationally and internationally for excellence in teaching, research, outreach, exceptional academic programs and globally competitive students.

CORE VALUES

STUDENT CENTERED
The University strives to promote the intellectual, physical, social, and emotional development of students in all facets of University life.

EXCELLENCE
The University is committed to excellence in all aspects of operations.

INTEGRITY
The University maintains the highest standards of ethical professional practices in all that we do.

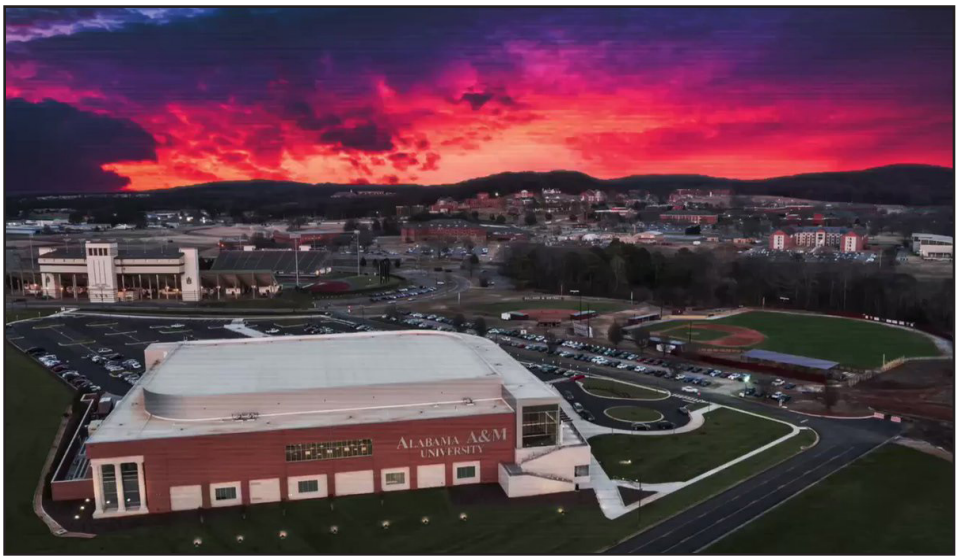

ENGAGEMENT
The University extends its reach and impact through partnerships and collaboration with individuals, public and nonprofit agencies, community activist groups, educators, and businesses.

CUSTOMER SERVICE
The University provides respectful, polite, and consistently excellent service to our internal and external constituents.

GLOBAL
The University prepares globally aware and astute students for the 21st century.

DIVERSITY
The University respects and embraces diversity and actively supports efforts that create an inclusive learning environment.

ACCOUNTABILITY
The University is a responsible steward of the public's resources and public trust.

ing. AAMU's hometown, Huntsville, Alabama, known as the "Rocket City" from its early history in the development of the defense and space industries, is a dynamic, culturally rich, and growing city of about 370,000 in the metro area. Huntsville is home to NASA's Marshall Space Flight Center and Redstone Arsenal.

. . . that the University's student/faculty ratio is 14:1?

49% of the classes at AAMU have fewer than 20 students. This ration allows for more personalized learning and interaction in the classroom.

. . . that 78% of Alabama A&M University's fulltime undergraduate students receive need based financial aid?

The University's financial aid program allows students to enroll regardless of their financial situation.

. . . that AAMU is home to one of the largest graduate schools among historically black colleges and universities?

The graduate program at the University is comprised of 1300+ students or 20% of the student body.

. . . that the A&M campus houses the State Black Archives Research Center and Museum?

A unique addition to the University's diverse culture if learning, the State Black Archives opened in 1990 to encourage greater awareness of the achievements and contributions of African Americans and the role they played in American society and the world". The center is housed in the historic James H. Wilson building and contains several impressive permanent exhibits as well as traveling exhibits.

OUR HISTORY

The Alabama Agricultural and Mechanical University is a land-grant University. Its support comes from the State of Alabama and federal funds appropriated to assist in carrying on work stipulated by the Morrill Acts 1862 and 1890. The University is under the control of a board of trustees appointed by the Governor, who serves as ex officio Chairman.

The university was organized in 1875 as the result of a bill passed in the State Legislature in 1873 and through the continued efforts of its first principal and president, William Hooper Councill, an ex-slave. The school opened on May 1, 1875, as the Huntsville Normal School with an appropriation of $1,000 per year, 61 students, and two teachers.

Industrial education was introduced around 1878. It attracted wide attention, and the school was assisted financially by the Slater and Peabody Funds and by private contributors. The work in industrial education was so successful that the State Legislature authorized the name to be changed to the "State Normal and Industrial School at Huntsville." The appropriation was increased by the State to $4,000 per year.

In 1891, the school became the recipient of a part of the Federal Land-Grant Fund provided by an act of Congress, approved August 30, 1890. The purpose of this fund was to further training in agricultural and mechanical arts in the various states at the college level.

The name of the school was changed again to "The State Agricultural and Mechanical College for Negroes," and a new location was provided at Normal, Alabama, where the school would have ample room for the development of its trades and agricultural programs. In 1919, the institution became a junior college, and its name was changed to "The State Agricultural and Mechanical Institute for Negroes."

In 1939, by authority of the State Board of Education, the Institute was permitted to offer work on the senior college level. The first graduation class since 1920 received the bachelor's degree in 1941, and on January 14, 1948, the name was again changed to "Alabama Agricultural and Mechanical College." On June 26, 1969, the Alabama State Board of Education, the governing body of the institution, adopted a resolution changing the name of the institution to "Alabama Agricultural and Mechanical University."

The University received a "Class A" rating by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools in August 1946 and became a fully accredited member of the Association in December 1963.

Alabama A&M University is a dynamic and progressive institution with a strong commitment to academic excellence. The picturesque campus is situated on what many alumni and friends fondly refer to as "The Hill", only a few miles from downtown Huntsville. Serving about 6,000 students, the institution is a diverse and vibrant microcosm of the larger world around it, attracting visits of 19 Nobel Laureates. Alabama A&M University offers numerous degree programs, including the Ph.D. degrees in Applied Physics, Food Science, Plant and Soil Science and Reading/Literacy.

VICE PRESIDENT & DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS DR. PAUL A. BRYANT

DR. PAUL A. BRYANT

Vice President & Director of Athletics
Alaska Pacific University, 1989

Dr. Paul A. Bryant was named Alabama A&M Director of Athletics on August 20, 2022, bringing with him an established track record as a champion of academics, a fundraiser and developer of championship programs and facilities. In addition to the Director of Athletics title, he was named Vice President on June 27, 2025.

He is also someone who is extremely familiar with the culture of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU's), having led four such departments over the course of eight years. He became just the fourth full-time AD in the program's 25-year NCAA Division I history.

Bryant was hired as the Director of Athletics in 2022 and continues to be a trailblazer in pushing Alabama A&M to new heights.

Over the past three years, Bryant has led the charge to have NCAA Sanctions removed after a five-year Probationary Period and oversaw the change from having nine teams on NCAA APR Restrictions to only threw within one year.

Bryant implemented the Southwestern Athletic Conference's (SWAC) first Mental Health Support Initiative within the athletics department and built a strategic partnership with Yapit. He oversaw the addition of the Dog Kennels Kommunity at Louis Crews Stadium and video boards at all athletic venues.

Under Bryant's leadership, Alabama A&M basketball attendance rose from an average of 1,576 fans during the 2022-23 season to 2,871 in 2023-24.

Basketball broke a single-game attendance records during the 2024-25 season.

The men's basketball surpassed the single-game mark of 6,389 set in 2024 with a new mark of 6,589 set on Jan. 18 against rival Alabama State, while the women's program also set a new single-game record against the Hornets at 5,981.

The Bulldogs, under the leadership of Bryant, also set the football single-game mark at Louis Crew Stadium of 26,391 during their 2023 Homecoming game.

In addition to the records, Bryant celebrated his first national championship during the Fall of 2024. The Alabama A&M women's tennis team captured the HBCU National Championships, giving the Bulldogs a championship for the first time in his tenure.

Prior to Alabama A&M, Bryant served as the Associate Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics at Edward Waters from 2019-2022

In his three years at EWU, Bryant led the program to a successful beginning of a transition to NCAA Division II, backed by significant facility upgrades that helped change the trajectory of Tigers Athletics along with bringing in new programs to expand the program's footprint with both fans and recruits.

Efforts such as those increased the Department's profile to the point Edward Waters hosted multiple conference championships and had one sport claim its first league title. In that span nearly every facility would see improvements made to it, including locker room and stadium renovations at James P. Small Memorial Baseball Park and J. Gardner "Nip" Sams Softball Park and renovations to the Adams-Jenkins Community Sports & Music Complex, home of men's and women's basketball and women's volleyball.

One of those facility projects benefitted both EWU's most high profile sport and one of its newest as Community Field & Stadium, home to football and the new women's soccer program (2021), now has 5,000 seats, a pair of grand stands, two press boxes, a large video board and State-of-the-Art artificial turf designed to provide a cooler surface in the Florida heat.

In addition to women's soccer, the Tigers also added men's volleyball to the spring slate in 2022, making it the only such program in the State of Florida.

The Gulf Coast Athletic Conference (GCAC) would also become very familiar with Edward Waters during Bryant's time in Jacksonville as they hosted the 2021 track & field and basketball championships. The latter would produce the first GCAC title for women's basketball since joining the league in more than a decade prior in 2010.

Before Edward Waters, Bryant spent two years as the Director of Athletics at Grambling State University where he produced numerous Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) championships while successfully navigating financial challenges, facility needs and pre-existing NCAA sanctions.

Those efforts would be highlighted by a 2017-18 campaign that would see football and both men's and women's basketball claim league titles. For men's basketball it was their first such championship in 30 years while women's soccer also reached the SWAC Championship that year.

A proven fundraiser, those skills would be on display during Bryant's three years at South Carolina State from 2014-17. While in Orangeburg, South Carolina he doubled the number of donations to the program over the first two years on campus while generating significant increases in single game and season ticket sales, attendance and alumni engagement.

That would help lead to the Bulldogs' football program earning a share of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) regular season title and men's tennis qualifying for the NCAA Tournament.

That success would continue in 2015-16 with men's and women's tennis MEAC Championships, a runner-up finish for men's basketball and the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Athletic Director's Association Most Improved APR Award. He would also be one of just 15 recipients of the FCS ADA Stipend Award nationwide that year.

S.C. State would also produce generational talent in that three-year span as Javon Hargrave earned MEAC Defensive Player of the Year twice and would go on to be drafted in the third round of the 2016 National Football League (NFL) Draft. Darius Leonard, a star linebacker with the Indianapolis Colts, would then continue the trend with 2016 MEAC Defensive Player of the Year honors before embarking on an illustrious pro career.

In one season at then Division II Stillman in 2013-14 Bryant changed the culture with the creation of the Athletic Director's Honor Roll, Athletic Hall of Fame and a Fifth-Year athletic work program.

He also raised funds for an on-campus fitness center as well as initiating upgrades to the baseball and track & field facilities and increasing department staff in key areas. All of these efforts led to division and tournament championships for men's and women's tennis and baseball and eight track & field student-athletes earning berths in the NCAA Division II Outdoor Championships.

Bryant got his first full-time opportunity at the AD level with Eureka College from 2008-13 where he led an 18-sport program. While there he aided in the development of the institution's strategic plan, instituted branding guidelines and oversaw a record number of student-athletes making the AD Honor Roll.

A men's basketball coach by trade early in his career, he served in that capacity as well as Associate Director of Athletics at Urbana from 2004-08. He would go on to earn American Mideast Conference (AMC) and South Division Coach of the Year honors as a result of his direct work with student-athletes, one of whom garnered league Player of the Year recognition.

An impressive coaching career would begin in 1997 at Sinclair Community College and would see Bryant earn Ohio Community College Athletic Conference (OCCAA) and Great Lakes Region Coach of the Year honors over his six seasons. Those would include four trips to the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) and a National Runner-Up finish in 1998.

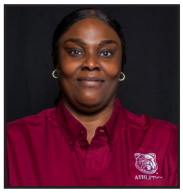

In addition to his administration acumen and knowledge on the court, Bryant was also sought after for a number of positions of leadership outside the institutional level.

While with Edward Waters he served as a member of the NAIA Athletic Director's Association Board of Directors and chairman of the Gulf Coast Athletic Conference Athletic Directors and was on the Hillcrest Golf Course Commission during his time in Orangeburg.

Additionally, he was a featured speaker at Emerging AD in Morrow, Georgia in 2014. The latter is a well-established organization founded on helping individuals eventually reach the head AD chair through interactions with successful individuals throughout the collegiate athletic landscape.

Bryant holds a bachelor's degree from Alaska Pacific, earned his Masters from Urbana and a Doctorate of Education in Athletic Administration from North Central University in 2020.

Brian Howard (brian.howard@aamu.edu), Assistant AD for Athletic Communications, will serve as the primary contact for Alabama A&M football. His contact information is listed below:

MONDAY MEDIA PRESS CONFERENCES

Each game week during the football season, Alabama A&M will hold a media press conference at 11 a.m. in the George Hobson Field House reception area, located on the side of the field house. Head coach Sam Shade will speak at 11 a.m. and requested players will be available at that time. In the event of special games (Gulf Coast Classic and Magic City Classic), the press conference may change due to other press conferences and travel obligations. Players will only be available upon request at least 48 hours prior to the Tuesday's press conference. Contact the Athletic Communications Office for more details. AAMU will not hold and conduct interviews during the open weeks of the season.

Shade's portion of the news conference will be available each week on www.aamusports.com on Tuesday afternoons.

MEDIA PRESS CONFERENCE PARKING & ENTRY

Parking for AAMU's Monday's media press conference is located at the George Hobson Field House. Members of the media should enter through the side doors.

PLAYER INTERVIEW AVAILABILITY

All interviews with Alabama A&M student-athletes should be coordinated through the Athletic Communications Office. During the season, AAMU players are available after the weekly Monday Press Conference and after practice on Mondays and Tuesdays. This also includes during the week of the Gulf Coast Challenge, Magic City Classic, SWAC Championship Game and Celebration Bowl, players will only be available on Monday and Tuesday only. Telephone interviews may be arranged by contacting Brian Howard in the Athletic Communications Office. ALL interview requests should be made at least 48 hours in advance. AAMU's first-year players (true freshmen) are not available for interviews.

COACH INTERVIEW AVAILABILTY

Interviews with head coach Sam Shade should also be arranged through the Athletic Communications Office. Head Coach Sam Shade is available at AAMU's weekly media press conference on Mondays during the season. Telephone interviews with the head coach can be arranged by contacting the Athletic Communications Office. As with the student-athletes, interview requests should be made at least 48 hours in advance.

SWAC CONFERENCE CALL

Head coach Sam Shade is available via teleconference on Mondays as part of the SWAC Conference call. Contact the SWAC Conference communications staff for more information.

SEASON MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Season credentials for Alabama A&M must be requested through AAMU's official website. To begin the process, visit www.aamusports.com/media. Only media covering the Bulldogs on a consistent basis and on assignment will be considered for season credentials. A lost season credential will result in credentials being issued on a game-by-game basis as available.

The deadline for requesting season credentials is Friday, August 15. No season credentials will be issued after that date.

SINGLE-GAME MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Credentials for individual games should be requested at least one week (seven days) in advance. Credentials will not be mailed, but will be available to be picked up at least 24 hours prior to kickoff in the office of athletic communications in Elmore Gymnasium. Parking passes will be issued to media who covers the team on a consistent basis. Those requests should also be made at www.aamusports.com/media.

Credentials will only be granted to media on assignment and to those who cover the Bulldogs or their opponent on a regular basis.

Approved passes will be available beginning on Wednesday of game week. If you cannot pickup the credentials, the media will call is located at Louis Crews Stadium.

CREDENTIAL TYPES

--- MEDIA ---

This credential is for writers. It includes press box access and a press box seat, as well as access to postgame
Interview rooms. It does not allow sideline access until postgame. The media pass is also good for visiting radio network/television crew members who do not require sideline access.

--- PHOTO ---

This credential includes sideline access, interview room access, as well as access to the press box and the photo/video work room. Photo credential holders will not have a reserved seat in the press box. Photographers wishing to obtain a media credential must submit ALL gameday photos within 24 hours after the completion of the game. Failure to do so will result in having the credential revoked from any future games.

--- RADIO ---

This credential is for institutional radio members only. It includes press box access and a radio booth seat, as well as access to postgame interview rooms. Each institution will be given up to six (6) radio credentials, which will include two (2) sideline credentials for working radio/sideline reporters. Radio members who do not carry the game on their flagship stations will be subjected to one (1) credential which will allow press box access only during the game. That credential will allow one (1) press box seat and access to postgame interview rooms. It does not allow sideline access until postgame.

--- PROFESSIONAL SCOUTS ---

This credential is for NFL and Canadian Football League scouts. It includes press box access and a press box seat, as well as access to postgame interview rooms. It does not allow sideline access until postgame.

--- TELEVISION ---

This credential includes press box access, sideline access and interview room access. The television broadcasters will have three (3) seats in the press box television booth.

--- VIDEO ---

This credential includes sideline access, interview room access, as well as access to the press box and the photo/video work room. Video credential holders will not have a reserved seat in the press box.

MEDIA PARKING ON GAMEDAY

Media parking for AAMU home games is located on the visitors side and is unreserved. The press box will be available to the media at least two (2) hours prior to kickoff.

UPLINK TRUCK PARKING

Media outlets looking to park an uplink truck should notify Dexter Williams (dexter.williams@aamu.edu) or Michael Morns (michael.morns@aamu.edu) no later than Monday the week of the game. Uplink trucks that have made arrangements will be parked in an area designated by Dexter Williams on a first-come, first-served basis.

MEDIA CREDENTIAL PICKUP ON GAMEDAY

Media members wishing to pick up credentials on gameday will need to visit the will call booth at the AAMU Event Center. The credentials will remain at will call until kickoff.

ENTERING THE STADIUM ON GAMEDAY

Working members of the media should enter Louis Crews Stadium from Gate 8 located on the southeast cordner of the stadium. Once you enter from Gate 8, follow the track to the home side blechers, climb the stairs and enter the door for the suites and press box. Take the second floor entrance off the elevators to the Ronald & Patricia McCalep McIntosh Sr. Press Box.

THE RONALD & PATRICIA McINTOSH SR. PRESS BOX

The Ronald & Patricia McCalep McIntosh Sr. Press Box is located in front of the main entrance to Louis Crews Stadium and opens two hours prior to kickoff on gamedays. The media meal will be served at least a half hour prior to kickoff. After entering the press box, make a right off the elevators and the working press box will be on your left.

ANY FOOD SERVED IN THE MEDIA PRESS BOX IS STRICTLY FOR MEDIA MEMBERS ONLY.

VISITING RADIO

The visiting radio booth is located in the press box. Upon leaving the elevator, make a right and then an immediately left to enter the press box. The visiting radio booth is located on the left side of the press box with the approriate gameday signage. Only the official radio network of the visiting school will have access to the booth. Contact the Athletic Communications Office for more information.

FIELD ACCESS

To access the field at Louis Crews Stadium, you will need to take the elevator to the first level, and follow the stairs to the playing surface. Media credentials do not permit field access until postgame. Photographers are the only members of the media allowed on the field before and during the game.

SIDELINE POLICIES

Photographers are the only members of the media permitted on the sidelines during games. Shooting areas at Louis Crews Stadium are limited to the outside of the 25-yard lines and in the end zones. The designated areas allow space for working media. The AAMU Athletic Communications Office will have a representative on the field to assist the media in their game-day efforts.

The bench areas of both sidelines are off-limits to media. While passing through from one end of the field to the other, members of the media should walk behind the bench areas without stopping in that space.

Members of the media should not approach Bulldog players or coaches until the designated time for interview availability after the game.

GAMEDAY INTERVIEW AREAS

The visiting team locker room and interview room are located in the south side of Louis Crews Stadium. A member of the visiting team will be able to assist you following the conclusion of the game.

Interviews with Bulldog coaches and players take place in the George Hobson Field House in the reception area follwing the conclusion of the game. AAMU will provide an escort to that location as well.

Sam Shade's postgame news conference will be available in the George Hobson Field House (football fieldhouse) inside the reception area after the NCAA 10-minute cooling off period. AAMU players will be available upon request.

Members of the media should not approach AAMU players or coaches for comments on the field. The AAMU locker room is closed.

PRACTICE AVAILABILITY

Alabama A&M's football practices are primarily closed to the public and media with limited exceptions (media will be notified in advance of those dates). The first portion of the workouts (generally the first 15-20 minutes) is open to photographers. Again, media will be notified in advance of those opportunities.

Members of the media planning to shoot practice should contact the AAMU Athletic Communications Office in advance to confirm arrangements and practice times.

PRACTICE LOCATION

The Bulldogs practice on the practice field across from the George Hobson Field House or inside Louis Crews Stadium.

ACCESSING INFORMATION

In addition to the Alabama A&M Athletics website (www.aamusports.com), the latest news, weekly releases, updated depth charts, rosters and season and single-game statistics can be sent on a daily or weekly basis via e-mail. Contact Brian Howard to request to be added to the football e-mail list.

WE ARE ALABAMA A&M

When referring to Alabama A&M University, please only use the terms ALABAMA A&M or AAMU. Please refrain from acronyms of the name A&M, Bama A&M, ALA A&M or AAM. In addition, Alabama A&M plays in the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC).

SWAC WEEKLY HONORS

Each week during the regular season, the SWAC will name an offensive, defensive, newcomer and special teams player of the week.

SWAC WEEKLY TELECONFERENCE

The SWAC football head coaches will be available on a weekly teleconference Mondays from August 25 -November 24 from 10:00 am until noon central time. Each coach will be available for 8-10 minutes each week for questions and reviews.

Media representatives who wish to participate should consult the conference weekly release. For credible media members only who wish to participate in the weekly coaches teleconference, the call in number is 1.800.356.8278. You will be prompted for a participant code and dial: 298779#. Media Members are asked to mute your line until you have a question. To Mute and Unmute your line, please us 4*.

A replay of each teleconference will be available each Monday on the conference's website: www.swac.org.

ON THE HILL LIVE

On the Hill Live is a College Football Game Day produced show straight from The Hill and comes to the fans Saturdays before kickoff.

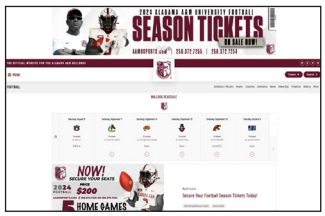

Fans are accustomed to watching College Game Day on ESPN or Big Noon Kickoff on Fox and in 2023, Alabama A&M University Director of Athletics, Dr. Paul A. Bryant, brought that college atmosphere to The Hill. There is no doubt the show took off as fans had the opportunity to see interviews with Alabama A&M coaches, as well as one who made a significant impact on The Hill - John Stallworth.

This season, fans are in for another exciting slate of games, including the 14th Annual Louis Crews Classic and of course, the wonderful pageantry of Homecoming.

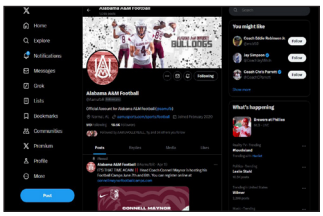

You don't want to miss the show and fans can either tune in before kickoff or catch the replay on Bulldogs All-Access.

SAM SHADE

Head Coach | First Season
Alabama, 1995

@Coach_Sam_Shade

Sam Shade begins his first season as the head football coach at Alabama A&M University.

Before coming to The Hill, Shade spent three seasons as the head coach at Miles College where he compiled an 18-15 overall record and a 15-7 mark inside the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SIAC). In addition, his 2024 team won the conference title and reached the second round of the NCAA Division II playoffs, falling to top-ranked Valdosta State in the second round.

In 2023, the Golden Bears finished 7-3 overall, 6-2 in the SIAC. The season included the program's first win over Division I FCS opponent Alabama State and a 9.2 average margin of victory. It was a marked improvement over his first season in Fairfield, where Miles went 1-9 overall, 1-5 in the SIAC Western Division.

Shade came to Miles after spending two years as head football coach at Pinson Valley High School, where he won an Alabama High School Athletic Association Class 6A state championship in his first season in 2020.

Prior to coaching, Shade played eight years in the NFL for the Cincinnati Bengals (1995-98) and Washington Redskins (1999-02). He was the Bengals' leading tackler in 1997 while ranking second on the team in 1998, and then he led the Redskins in 1999.

During his NFL career, his defensive coordinators included NFL Hall of Fame coach Dick LeBeau as well as Mike Nolan, Ray Rhodes and Marvin Lewis. In April 2000, Shade received the Redskins' Unsung Hero Award for commitment and community service involvement.

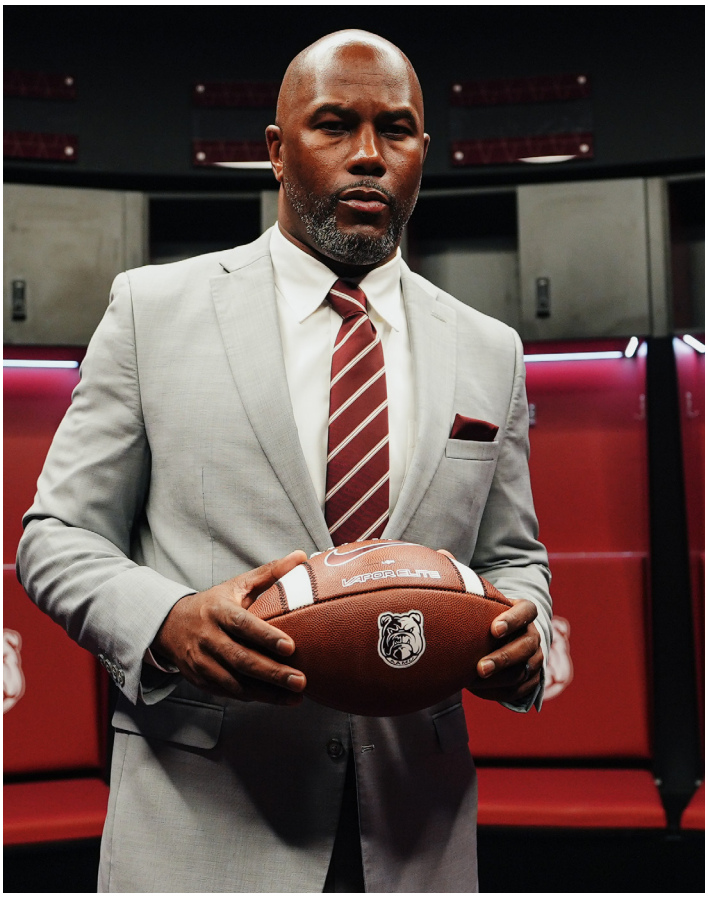

Shade played collegiately at Alabama, where he was a member of the Crimson Tide's 1992 national championship team and was named a team captain as a senior in 1994. He was selected by the Bengals in the fourth round of the 1995 NFL Draft.

Following his retirement from the NFL, Shade began his coaching career as a volunteer coach at Briarwood Christian School in Birmingham, Ala., from 2004-08 before spending eight years at Samford, coaching the secondary and special teams. He would then move to Georgia State, where he coached cornerback. His career would send him back to the NFL as an assistant special teams coach for the Cleveland Browns before returning home to coach at Pinson Valley.

Shade is a Birmingham native who attended Wenonah High School, where he was the recipient of the prestigious Bryant Jordan Scholar Athlete Award, given to the state's top student-athlete. He earned his bachelor's degree from Alabama in business administration and finance.

He and his wife Jacquetta have four children: sons Justin and Jacoby, and daughters Jaila and Jamyia.

CHRIS SHELLING

Assistant Head Coach / Defensive Coordinator | First Season
Auburn, 1995

Chris Shelling returns back to The Hill and begins his first season as the defensive coordinator at Alabama A&M.

Shelling spent the previous two seasons at Miles College as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach.

In 2024, Shelling's defense was among the best in NCAA Division II as he helped Miles win the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SIAC) title. His defenses ranked in several categories, including tops in turnovers gained (first), passes intercepted (second), defensive touchdowns (fourth), fumbles recovered (fourth) and team sacks (eighth). Keith Green, who transferred to Alabama A&M after the season, ranked second in fumbles recovered, while Lashon Young was second in interceptions per game.

In his first season at Miles, Shelling's defense ranked 13th nationally in red zone defense, 17th in fumbles recovered and 21st in defensive touchdowns. JaMichael Rogers ranked among the best in NCAA Division II in sacks at 10th in the country, while Jeffrey Scott and Chris Ware 22nd in fumbles recovered .

Prior to Miles, Shelling had his first stint at Alabama A&M from 2018-22 where he served as the outside linebackers and safeties coach.

Before Shelling came to The Hill, he served as an assistant coach at Holmes Community College in Goodman, Miss., from 2014-15 and as the defensive coordinator for two seasons.

During Shelling's final two seasons at Holmes, he served as the program's defensive coordinator, where he established a reputation for sending players to Division I programs.

Before taking a position at Holmes, Shelling worked at Kossuth High School in Cornith, Miss., where he was the program's defensive coordinator and Director of Strength and Conditioning.

Prior to his time as Kossuth, Shelling worked as a defensive assistant coach at Northeast Mississippi Community College for the 2008-2009 seasons. He was a graduate assistant for the 2007 season at Troy, where the Trojans finished as the Sun Belt co-champions.

While at Troy, Shelling graduated with a master's degree.

Shelling graduated with a bachelor's degree from Auburn, where he played four seasons for former coach Terry Bowden from 1991-1994. In 1994, Shelling was named a First Team All-American and was runner-up for the Jim Thorpe Award. Also, he received Second Team All-SEC honors during the 1993 and 1994 seasons.

After graduating from Auburn, Shelling played with the Cincinnati Bengals and the Atlanta Falcons from 1995-1997, and he then played two seasons with the Rhein Fire in Europe. In addition, he also played in the Canadian Football League (CFL) with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats (1998-2000; 2001-2003), Birmingham Thunderbolts (2001).

During his professional career, Shelling won the World Bowl (1998) and Grey Cup (87th) championship, and was a CFL East All-Star (2000, 2001) and a CFL All-Star (2001).

Shelling originally is from Columbus, Ga. His wife, Karen, is from Canada, and they have two sons, Elijah and Jonah.

DENNIS ALEXANDER

Offensive Coordinator / Offensive Line | First Season
Alabama, 2003

Dennis Alexander begins his first season as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Alabama A&M University.

Alexander comes to AAMU after spending the 2024 season in the same capacity at Miles College.

While at Miles, he helped the Golden Lions to the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SIAC) championship as the running back Javonta Leatherwood ranked 33rd nationally and tops in the conference in rushing touchdowns. Leatherwood also was 43rdin the country in total touchdowns.

Prior to coming to Miles, Alexander spent eight seasons as an assistant football coach at East Central Community College. He serves as offensive line coach and run game coordinator.

Prior to joining the ECCC coaching staff, the former University of Alabama football standout served as offensive line coach and run game coordinator at Shades Valley High School in Irondale, Ala.

Alexander served from 2010-13 as head football coach and head track coach at Bessemer City High School in Bessemer, Ala.

He served a brief stint in 2009 as offensive line coach for the semi-pro Birmingham Wildfire.

Alexander began his coaching career as offensive line assistant coach and substitute teacher at Jess Lanier/Bessemer City High School, from 2007-10.

A standout lineman, Alexander played professional football on two teams – first with the NFL's Tennessee Titans in 2004 followed by a stint with Cologne Centurions in the NFL Europe league from March 2005 to December 2006.

Alexander won numerous honors as a member of the University of Alabama Crimson Tide squad from 1999 to 2003.

He was named to the Freshman All-American and Freshman All-SEC teams for the 2000 season and received the "Jerry Duncan's Like to Practice Award" the same year.

Alexander served as co-captain in 2002-03 and was awarded the "Paul Crane Most Improved Offensive Lineman Award" for the 2003 campaign.

The Memphis native received a four-year athletic scholarship to attend the University of Alabama following a stellar career at Westwood High School in Memphis, where he received First Team All-Metro, First Team All-State and Second Team All-South honors.

Alexander received a bachelor's degree in family financial planning from the University of Alabama in 2003. He completed additional coursework in 2004.

He is currently pursuing a bachelor's degree in kinesiology at the University of Montevallo.

He is married to the former Niva King of Columbus. They have three sons, Dennis Alexander III, Javin King and Jemarcus King.

MARCO COLEMAN

Defensive Line / Recruiting Coordinator | First Season
Flagler, 2015

Marco Coleman begins his first season as the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Alabama A&M University.

Coleman comes to Alabama A&M after serving as the defensive line coach the past two seasons at his alma mater, Georgia Tech.

A Georgia Tech Athletics Hall of Famer and two-time first-team all-American, Coleman, who played 14 seasons in the National Football League (1992-2005) after his hall-of-fame career at Georgia Tech (1989-91), previously spent the 2019-21 seasons as the Yellow Jackets' defensive ends/outside linebackers coach. He returned to The Flats after one season as defensive line coach at Michigan State (2022).

In Coleman's first coaching stint at Georgia Tech, the Yellow Jackets' sacks and tackles for loss climbed from 1.3 and 4.2 per game in the season before his arrival (2018) to 2.1 and 6.2 per game in his second season coaching the Jackets' defensive ends and outside linebackers (2020). In his lone season at Michigan State, the Spartans ranked among the top 45 teams in the nation and the top six in the Big Ten in both sacks (2.4/game) and TFL (6.3/game).

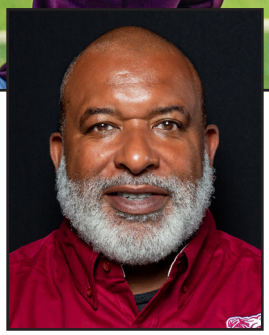

A Dayton, Ohio native, Coleman racked up 27.5 sacks and 50 tackles for loss in just three seasons as an outside linebacker for the Yellow Jackets, which were both school records at the end of his playing career and remain ranked fourth in the program's all-time annals despite the fact that he played in only 34 collegiate games. He was named first-team all-America and all-Atlantic Coast Conference as a sophomore (1990) and junior (1991). As a sophomore in 1990, he led the ACC with 13 sacks and helped Georgia Tech claim its fourth national championship with an 11-0-1 campaign and a convincing 45-21 win over Nebraska in the Florida Citrus Bowl.

He left Georgia Tech following his junior season and was selected No. 12 overall by the Miami Dolphins in the 1992 NFL Draft. He went on to play 14 seasons in the NFL with the Dolphins (1992-95), San Diego Chargers (1996-98), Washington Redskins (1999-2001), Jacksonville Jaguars (2002), Philadelphia Eagles (2003) and Denver Broncos (2004-05). He was named Sports Illustrated's 1992 NFL Rookie of the Year after tallying 84 tackles and six sacks and went on to record 610 tackles, 65.5 sacks and 18 forced fumbles in 14 pro seasons. He earned a spot in the Pro Bowl after registering a career-high 12 sacks for the Redskins in 2000.

After retiring from the NFL following the 2005 campaign, Coleman began a career in finance, eventually becoming managing partner at Matador Financial. He returned to the NFL on a full-time basis in 2018 as the Raiders' assistant defensive line coach. His coaching experience also includes stints as a coaching fellow with the Philadelphia Eagles and defensive coordinator at Mandarin H.S. in Jacksonville, Fla., both in 2017.

Coleman majored in management as a student-athlete at Georgia Tech and completed coursework for a bachelor's degree in business from Flagler College in 2015. He was inducted to the GT Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001, his first year of eligibility. He and his wife, Katrina, have three children: Kabrione, Kennedy and Kenneth.

RONALD MCKINNON

Linebackers | First Season
North Alabama, 1995

Ron McKinnon begins his first year as the linebackers coach at Alabama A&M University.

McKinnon comes to The Hill after spending 10 seasons at Miles College, where he helped the program win the 2024 Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SIAC) championship. A National Football League stalwart, McKinnon, brings a wealth of experience in as former player, as well as in coaching and business experience.

Last season, the Golden Bears' defense was among the best in NCAA Division II as he helped Miles win the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SIAC) title. His defenses ranked in several categories, including tops in turnovers gained (first), passes intercepted (second), defensive touchdowns (fourth), fumbles recovered (fourth) and team sacks (eighth). Keith Green, who transferred to Alabama A&M after the season, ranked second in fumbles recovered, while Lashon Young was second in interceptions per game.

In 2023, the Miles defense ranked 13th nationally in red zone defense, 17th in fumbles recovered and 21st in defensive touchdowns. JaMichael Rogers ranked among the best in NCAA Division II in sacks at 10th in the country, while Jeffrey Scott and Chris Ware 22nd in fumbles recovered.

McKinnon, was a four-year starter for the University of North Alabama from 1992-95 and one of the most honored athletes in NCAA Division II football history. A four-time, first-team All-Gulf South Conference selection, McKinnon is one of a handful that has been named a consensus All-American three times in NCAA Division II history. McKinnon was selected the winner of the 1995 Harlon Hill Trophy, the Division II equivalent of the Heisman Trophy, as the National Player of the Year and is the only defensive player ever to win the award. He helped lead UNA to a combined 48-5-1 record during his career, winning three straight Gulf South Conference championships and three straight NCAA Division II National Championships.

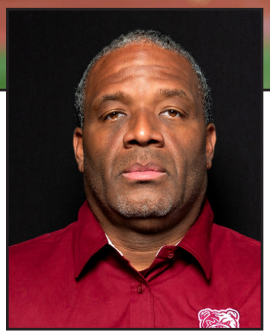

He parlayed his collegiate success into a NFL opportunity. McKinnon signed a free agent contract with the Arizona Cardinals following his senior season and spent 10 seasons in professional football. McKinnon played in 157 NFL games, playing for the Cardinals from 1996-2004 and one season with the New Orleans Saints. He finished his professional career with more than 1,000 tackles, 12 sacks and 10 interceptions.

McKinnon closed his career as the leading tackler at the University of North Alabama and in Gulf South Conference history; with 621 total stops and 407 primary stops. He had 29 career tackles-for-loss, seven sacks, 11 interceptions and recovered five fumbles. As a senior he had 139 tackles, 11 tackles-for-loss, four interceptions and four sacks. He was named to the Gulf South Conference "Team of the Quarter Century" for 1971-95, was selected the "Gulf South Conference Defensive Player of the Quarter Century" for 1971-95 and was named to the NCAA Division II "Team of the Quarter Century" for 1973-97. McKinnon was selected for the 50th Anniversary University of North Alabama Football Team for 1949-98, the Gulf South Conference Team of the 1990s and was named by the Alabama Sports Writers Association State Professional Athlete of the Year for 1998.

As a coach at Miles, McKinnon has helped the program to previously unforeseen success. He has been a part of a staff that has won two Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference championships and the school's first Division II playoff appearance. In 2017, he coached All-SIAC performer Austin Stephens.

McKinnon is a native of Elba, Alabama and earned his Bachelor's Degree in General Studies from the University of North Alabama in 1995. McKinnon was one of the elite athletes in the history of the state to be inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame in 2010. He was also inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2008. He is married (LaShana) and they have four children, Guiliana, Raven, Rya and Rocky.

KENYATTA MCCOY

Defensive Backs | First Season
Chattanooga, 2001

Kenyatta McCoy brings more than 20 years of coaching experience to Bethune Cookman University, including two as a defensive coordinator on the collegiate level and three stints as a special teams coordinator. He also was a Bill Walsh Minority Intern two times in the NFL.

McCoy makes the trip from Bethune-Cookman to The Hill where he will serve as the defensive backs coach.

While at Bethune-Cookman, McCoy served as the special teams and defensive backs coach for two years. Before coming to BCU, he also served in the same capacity at Georgia Military College where he oversaw the development of Ichmael Joseph who signed with Rice University, Robert West who signed with University of Texas El Paso and JaQuan Jackson who signed with Southeast Missouri State.

Prior to Georgia Military, McCoy was at Alabama A&M the 2020 HBCU National Champions and SWAC Champions, where he served as the Cornerbacks Coach and Special Teams Coordinator. In his second year with the Bulldogs in 2020 working with the team's specialists, McCoy helped Spencer Corey garner All SWAC honors. The punting unit was also in the Top 3 in the conference in net yards.

McCoy also oversaw the development of true freshmen Cornerback Joseph Narcisse Jr who started the first game of the Season versus South Carolina State and played in every game of the year while also developing true freshman Punter Troy Lendvay into a starter who averaged 37.90 yards per punt.

Prior to going to Alabama A&M, McCoy served as the Cornerbacks Coach and Recruiting Coordinator for three-time Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference Champion North Carolina Central. McCoy took over a youthful and inexperienced cornerback room at North Carolina Central, as five different underclassmen, including three freshmen, started, and played in the defensive backfield for the Eagles during the 2014 season. Two of the mainstays in the lineup was sophomore Mike Jones Jr and junior Ryan Smith. Jones finished the season with 40 Tackles 13 PBU's, and five interceptions en route to being named to several All-American teams and the All-MEAC first team. Ryan finished the season with 58 Tackles, 7 PBU's and one fumble recovery. Their development continued over the next couple of seasons with Smith being drafted in the fourth round by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Jones going on to play in the CFL.

Prior to North Carolina Central, McCoy served as the Running Backs coach and Special Teams Coordinator at the University of Pikeville. McCoy spent one season at UPIKE, where he helped develop Grayson Quick into a First Tam All Mid-South Conference Kicker; Grayson averaged 51.6 yards per kickoff with five touchbacks and was a perfect 32/32 in PAT's.

Prior to UPIKE, McCoy served several roles at Kentucky State University from 2008-2011. He helped lead the Thoroughbreds to several national rankings in all phases of the game.
McCoy went to Kentucky State as a Secondary Coach; in that first year he developed Derrick Addai into a Second Team All Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Safety, while developing Sirjo Welch into an undrafted Free Agent of the New Orleans Saints.

In 2009, McCoy was promoted to the Defensive Coordinator and switched the defense from a 4-3 to a 4-2-5 scheme. Under the new scheme, Kentucky State saw a much-improved defense moving from the bottom of the nation's statistics to the top half including a top 20 total defense averaging 282.73 yards per game; a top five pass defense averaging 121.09 yards per game; and a top 20 red zone defense. By changing the scheme, he was able to move Tyrell Henderson to the three technique which allowed Henderson to utilize his speed and strength to garner all American Honors while Derrick Addai improved to a First Team All-Conference performer and an undrafted free agent of the Cleveland Browns.

After two years directing one of the top defenses in the nation, McCoy moved over to serve as the Wide Receiver Coach and Special Teams Coordinator for Kentucky State. In this new role he developed Raphael Amey into an First team all SIAC Wide Receiver and a Second team all SIAC Punt Returner and an undrafted free agent of the Montreal Alouettes. He also developed Keith Massey into a First team All SIAC Kick Returner and Cade Berryman into a second team All SIAC Kicker.

McCoy has served as the Recruiting Coordinator at three different stops Lincoln University (MO), Kentucky State University and North Carolina Central University where they had the #2 recruiting class in HBCU football. A strong recruiter McCoy has signed several three and two Star Athletes from the Southeast especially in the Metro Atlanta and Southeast Florida areas.

Prior to Kentucky State, McCoy switched back to defense at Murray State developing the cornerbacks. He joined Murray State from Lincoln (MO) where he was the Quarterbacks, Wide Receivers Coach and Pass Game Coordinator. While at Lincoln he developed Dwight Johnson into an All-Conference Performer.

McCoy started his coaching career in Chattanooga, TN with the Boys Club coaching all Football, Basketball and Baseball. His successes in mentoring young people led to him taking an Offensive Coordinator Defensive Secondary position at Memphis Ridgeway in 2002 where they won a Class 3A State title. That team produced several All City, Region and State performers. After two years of success at Memphis Ridgeway he moved across town to Memphis Westwood to assist in resurrecting a once proud program.

McCoy has two children, Deuce and Winter.

KENTON EVANS

Quarterbacks | First Season
Tennessee State, 2003

Kenton Evans begins his first season as the quarterbacks coach at Alabama A&M University.

Evans comes to Alabama A&M after serving in the same capacity at Miles College in 2024.

During the 2024 campaign, Evans was part of the staff that coached the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SIAC) championship team. Quarterback Kamren Ivory was among the best in the conference, ranking third in points responsible for per game, third in passing yards per completion, fourth in passing touchdowns, fourth in points responsible for, fifth in passing yards and fifth in passing yards per game.

Prior to coming to Miles, Evans helped develop elite young quarterback talent with the Jenkins Elite Quarterback Academy for one year.

Before working with the Jenkins Elite Quarterback Academy, Evans spent one season as the tight ends coach at Morehouse College (2023). Prior to Morehouse, Evans served as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Mississippi Valley State.

Evans spent a season as the quarterbacks coach at Arkansas-Pine Bluff during the 2020-21 campaign. Evans spent two seasons as offensive coordinator at Central Methodist University, where WR Katavious Taylor was a two-time NAIA All-American and was one of three players to earn all-conference honors in 2019. Evans has also served as the quarterbacks coach at NCAA Div. III Brevard College in North Carolina and Valparaiso in Indiana as well as an extensive career in the high school ranks.

In 2013, Evans spent a season as quarterbacks coach at Valparaiso. QB Eric Hoffman finished with almost 3,000 passing yards and threw for 22 touchdowns. Hoffman also broke single game records for completions (36) and passing yards (495).

Evans also has extensive experience in the high school ranks. Evans had two different stints as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Martin Luther King HS (Lithonia, Ga.), generating among the top offensive in the DeKalb County (2014-15).

In his first stint between 2010-12, Evans helped guide the Lions to three straight regional championships. The program produced the second-leading passer in Georgia high school football history, as well as six receivers who earned Division I football scholarships.

Evans also coached at Cedar Grove High (Ellenwood, Ga.), Towers High (Decatur, Ga.) and Georgia Prep Sports Academy (also in Decatur).

On the playing field, Evans excelled as a quarterback. He spent three years Memphis before spending his final season at Tennessee State University. In his senior campaign, Evans threw for nearly 2,000 yards and 19 touchdowns, earning OVC Newcomer of the Week recognition twice. After a 451-yard, four-touchdown performance against Murray State, he was named ESPN/USA Today I-AA Player of the Week .

After his college playing days, Evans spent eight years in the Arena Football League. He threw for 54 touchdowns and over 2,500 yards during his professional career.

Evans finished a legendary prep career at Westwood High in Memphis as the fourth-leading passer in Tennessee high school history with 10,519 career passing yards, as well as 115 touchdowns. He also was named the Gatorade Player of the Year for Tennessee among numerous prep honors.

Evans is a 2003 graduate of Tennessee State University with a bachelor's degree in psychology.

JAMAAL FOBBS

Running Backs | First Season
Oklahoma State, 2001

Jamaal Fobbs begins his first season as the running backs coach at Alabama A&M.

Fobbs comes to The Hill after serving as the wide receivers coach at the University of Louisiana in Monroe (ULM) in 2024.

While at ULM, Fobbs' receivers had more than 130 catches for just over 1,600 yards, producing six 100-yard receivers. He had two receivers, Jake Godfrey and Davon Wells, who amassed 265 yards and 262 yards, respectively. The receiving corps finished with 11 touchdowns and averaged 134.7 yards per game.

Prior to coming to ULM, Fobbs spent two years as the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Miles College.

During the 2023 season, Travaunta Abner, who transferred to Alabama A&M, and Geordon Pollard ranked sixth in the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SIAC) in receiving touchdowns and quarterback Edwin Kleinpeter was third in the league in yards per pass attempt.

Before his stint at Miles, Fobbs spent six seasons as the running backs coach for Tulane.

In 2021, Fobbs coached Tyjae Spears, who ranked nationally in many categories, including rushing touchdowns (third), rushing yards (fifth), rush yards per carry (fifth) and rushing yards per game (14th).

In five years directing the Green Wave running back unit, Tulane's ground attack has posted five of the program's Top 10 single-season performances under Fobbs' watchful eye.

During the 2020 campaign, Fobbs oversaw the American Athletic Conference's No. 1 rushing attack, as the Green Wave averaged 217.1 yards per game. Tulane's ground game also found the endzone 32 times - a figure that ranked tied for seventh nationally.

Following the year, running back Stephon Huderson earned Second Team All-AAC honors.

In 2019, the Green Wave rushed for the most yards in Tulane football history with 3,162. The 243.2 rushing yards per game ranked second in program history. The Olive and Blue's rushing attack ranked second in The American and 11th nationally.

Fobbs led the Tulane running backs to 2,386 yards on 428 carries and 20 touchdowns. The running backs caught 55 passes for 657 yards and five touchdowns in the 2019 season. Tulane was the only team in The American to sport five different running backs with 200 yards or more on the season.

The offense ranked second in program history in rushing yards per game (243.2), rushing touchdowns (33) and rushing first downs (166). Fobbs helped the Olive and Blue rush for over 200 yards in nine games in 2019 and over 300 times four times.

Under Fobbs' direction in 2018, Tulane featured one of the top rushing attacks in the AAC, as the Green Wave rushed for 2,836 yards - the second-highest single season total in program history.

Tulane averaged 218.2 yards per game on the ground, which ranked 23rd among Football Bowl Subdivision teams and fifth in The American. The Green Wave also rushed for 29 touchdowns, which ranked third all-time in program history.

Fobbs also mentored running back Darius Bradwell, who rushed for a single-season career high 1,134 yards on the ground and 11 touchdowns. Bradwell became just the sixth Tulane running back to surpass 1,000 yards rushing in a single season. Bradwell also earned Most Valuable Player honors in the 2018 AutoNation Cure Bowl.

Tulane's rushing attack also proved to be one of the most explosive in the country as the Green Wave was tied for sixth nationally in rushes of 30 yards or more.

In 2017, Tulane excelled, rushing for 2,778 yards, 31 touchdowns and averaged 231.5 yards per game, which ranked fourth in the AAC and 20th in the nation. Fobbs' rushing attack also featured four players who totaled over 350 yards on the ground.

Dontrell Hilliard led the way for Tulane, as he totaled a single-season best 1,091 yards on the ground and finished with 12 touchdowns en route to earning All-AAC honors.

In his first season at Tulane, Fobbs guided the Green Wave's running game to more than 2,700 yards and 25 touchdowns. Tulane rushed for three or more touchdowns in a game four times, including a season-high seven in the team's first win of the season over

ASSISTANT COACH – JAMAAL FOBBS

Southern.

A New Orleans native and graduate of St. Augustine High School, Fobbs came to Tulane from Liberty University, where he served as the running backs and special teams coach for the last four seasons. He also has coaching stops at Tennessee, North Carolina A&T, Southeastern Louisiana, LSU and Chattanooga.

At Liberty, Fobbs worked under Turner Gill and helped lead the Flames to a 29-19 overall record, a Big South Conference regular season title in 2012, a pair of co-championship finishes in 2013 and 2014 and a trip to the second round of the FCS playoffs.

During his first season at Liberty, Fobbs helped coach All-Big South running back Aldreakis Allen, who finished the year ranked No. 2 in the conference and No. 26 in the country in rushing.

Allen became the ninth player in program history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season, finishing the year with 1,019 rushing yards and 10 rushing touchdowns. Allen also was the seventh player in program history with 1,000 yards and 10 rushing touchdowns in the same year.

As a team, Liberty finished the year ranked No. 35 in the country in rushing offense (175.82 yards per game) and No. 40 in total offense (402 yards per game).

Fobbs' running backs helped play a part in Liberty winning six of its last seven games of the year en route to the program's fifth Big South title in seven seasons.

Fobbs came to Liberty after having two highly successful seasons as running backs coach at Chattanooga, where he helped the Mocs nearly double their rushing output prior to his arrival.

Chattanooga, which had rushed for 85 yards per game in 2009, averaged 148.6 rushing yards per game the past two years and rushed for 35 touchdowns.

In 2010, Fobbs was part of an offensive attack at Chattanooga that ranked No. 11 nationally in total offense (430.0 yards per game) and No. 17 in scoring offense (31.55 points per game).

Under his instruction, Mocs rookie running back Keon Williams earned Southern Conference All-Freshman honors in 2010.

Prior to his days at Chattanooga, Fobbs spent one year at Tennessee as the Vols' offensive quality control staff member. Tennessee closed out the 2009 season by winning four of its last five games and a Chick-fil-A Bowl matchup with Virginia Tech.

Fobbs was a standout running back at Oklahoma State, having earned All-Big 12 honors as an all-purpose player during his senior season in 2000.

As a return specialist, Fobbs twice finished seasons with a 20-plus yard kickoff return average, doing so as a sophomore (24.3 average in 1998) and as a junior (21.3 average in 1999). As a senior, he led the Big 12 with 22 kickoff returns, averaging 17.0 yards per return.

Fobbs graduated from Oklahoma State in 2001 with a degree in sports administration. His father, Lee, retired this offseason after 47 years of coaching, while his brother, Broderick, was the head coach at Grambling State.

ANTONIO CARTER

Wide Receivers | First Season
Alabama, 2002

Antonio "AC" Carter begins his first season as the wide receivers coach at Alabama A&M University.

Carter comes to Alabama A&M after serving in the same capacity at Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) foe Florida A&M, where he helped the Rattlers capture the 2023 Celebration Bowl championship and a Black College Football National title.

Last season, Carter coached Jamari Gassett, who was fourth in the conference in multiple categories, including receiving yards, receiving yards per game and receptions per game, while also third in receiving touchdowns. He had 11 receivers with more than 100 yards, including Gassett, who amassed 737 yards on 52 catches, averaging 14.1 yards per catch and 61.4 yards per game. In addition, Gassett had seven of the team's 24 touchdowns from the air.

In his first season, the Rattlers had the top passing attack in the SWAC and 33rd in the nation, averaging 236.5 yards per game. Carter played a pivotal role in the success of wide receivers Marcus Riley and Jah'Marae Sheread, who were both named to the All-SWAC Second Team. Riley went on to sign with the New York Jets.

Carter came to Florida A&M after spending the 2022 season as a wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at Miles College after spending years away from football. Carter started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at UTEP from 2005-2007 before returning to his alma mater Alabama as a wide receivers graduate assistant in 2007. Carter got his first full-time coaching position at Appalachian State in 2008 as the wide receivers coach and was a member of the team that upset Michigan in the Big House. After Appalachian State, Carter moved to Eastern Michigan for the 2009 season. Carter also coached the wide receivers at Samford for the 2010 and 2011 season. In 2012, Carter was part of the Indianapolis Colts wide receiver room as an intern working with Colts all-time greats such as Reggie Wayne and T.Y. Hilton.

Carter has also coached at Amos P. Godby High School, Gadsden County, and Alabama Prep Sports Academy.

Carter played collegiately at the University of Alabama from 1999-2001 before suffering a career-ending injury. Carter was a three-year starter and finished with 106 receptions for 1,294 yards and five touchdowns. Carter was also named an All-SEC Freshman in '99.

Carter graduated from the University of Alabama with a Bachelor of Science in Human Environmental Science. Carter is married to Latoye Carter.

LAWANN LATSON

Tight Ends | First Season
Northwestern State, 1993

Lawann Latson is entering his first season as the tight ends coach at Alabama A&M.

Latson, who brings more than 15 years of coaching experience to AAMU, comes to the Hill after serving as the wide receivers coach for one season at Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) foe Arkansas-Pine Bluff.

While at Arkansas-Pine Bluff, he helped transform the offensive attack as wide receiver JaVonnie Gibson received SWAC First-Team honors. Gibson was among the best of the best in FCS during the 2024 season, ranking tops in the conference in receiving yards (fourth nationally), receiving yards per game (fourth nationally), receptions per game (22nd nationally) and second in receiving touchdowns (22nd nationally). In addition, Gibson was a FCS All-American and was the top receiver in the conference as he transfered after the season to the University of Oklahoma. Also, Latson coached a wide receiver who transfered to UTEP.

A former NFL player, Latson coached/trained over 10 wide receivers who played in the NFL, and six are currently on a roster. (Tank Dell (Houston Texans), Kavonta Turpin (Dallas Cowboys), Trent Taylor (Chicago Bears), John Stephens (Dallas Cowboys), Calvin Jackson (New York Jets), Terrace Marshall (Carolina Panthers), and Tyler Hudson (L.A. Rams).

Prior to Arkansas-Pine Bluff, Latson was the wide receivers coach at Miles College for the 2023 football season, where he played a key role in Miles College's offensive development offense, going 7-3. Under Latson's leadership at the wideout position, Miles College had seven different receivers that scored at least one touchdown, three different receivers with 30 or more catches, and four or more touchdowns.

Latson developed two all-conference receivers (Jaih Andrews and Jalen Peterson) during his tenure at Miles.

Before coming to Miles College, Latson coached receivers in 2022 at the University of Arkansas-Monticello, where he helped develop LaCedric Smith, who put up 653 yards receiving and five touchdowns. Smith was the only player on the Boll Weevils team to make the all-conference in 2022.

In 2019, Latson aided the development of Tank Dell (Houston Texans) and Calvin Jackson (New York Jets), who were all-conference and playing in the NFL.

In 2017, Latson coached Terrance Marshal at Parkway H.S. in Louisiana, who was rated the #1 player in the nation, went on to play at LSU, and currently plays for the (Carolina Panthers).

Latson, a proud graduate of Northwestern St., was a star football player who was a preseason all-conference and went on to play his professional career in the NFL with the New York Giants, New Orleans Saints, the CFL (Ottawa Rough Riders), and Europe League (London Monarchs).

In 2022 and 2023, Laton was named one of the "rising-star assistants you need to know" by Rising Star of Minority Coaches in America.

Latson is a proud father of three children, and his number one fan is his mother, Ora Anderson.

AMOS JONES

Special Teams Coordinator | First Season
Alabama, 1982

Amos Jones begins his first year as the special teams coordinator at Alabama A&M University.

Jones has more than 40 years in the coaching business at the high school, college and professional level.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Alabama, in 1981-82, serving the Crimson Tide as a graduate assistant before going to Temple from 1983-1988. While at Temple, Jones coached the special teams, along with both the tight ends (83-85) and defensive line (86-88).

Jones came back to the State of Alabama, serving as an assistant coach at Shades Valley High School in 1989, before joining the Crimson Tide as the special teams coordinator under Gene Stallings. It's at this time back at Alabama that Jones met and coached a young player named Sam Shade.

In 1992, Jones joined the University of Pittsburgh as the special teams coordinator. Jones would go to Eau Gallie High School in Florida from 1993-94 where he helped the program to back-to-back winning seasons.

Jones got back to his collegiate roots for the 1995-96 seasons, serving in the capacity of linebackers coach at Tulane.

In 1997, Jones reached the professional ranks as an assistant coach of the BC Lions in the Canadian Football League for one season, where the Lions won the Western Conference and made the CFL playoffs.

He spent the 1998 season as an assistant coach at East St. John High School in Louisiana, helping the program advance to the third round of the Louisiana high school playoffs.

His next three spots were back in college football, first serving as the running back coach and special teams coach at the University of Cincinnati from 1999-2002. Jones left Cincinnati and moved to FCS member James Madison during the 2003 season as the tight ends and special teams coach. He spent the next three years in Starkville, Miss. where he served as the special teams coordinator and linebackers coach for Sylvester Croom for three seasons.

Jones then began his NFL coaching career as an assistant special teams coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers under Mike Tomlin. He had previously worked with Tomlin as well as former Steelers offensive line coach Larry Zierlein in the late 1990s at the University of Cincinnati. Other connections with the Steelers staff included serving under (former) offensive coordinator Bruce Arians when he was head coach at Temple in the 1980s and playing and coaching at Alabama during the late 1970s and early 1980s when Steelers assistant head coach John Mitchell served at the Tide's defensive line coach.

Jones spent six total seasons (2007-2013) in Pittsburgh, including the final season as the special teams coordinator. The Steelers went to two Super Bowls while Jones was there, winning one and losing the other.

Jones then left the Steelers to join Bruce Arians during the 2013-2017 seasons for the Arizona Cardinals. While at Arizona, Jones helped the Cardinals win 50 games in five years.

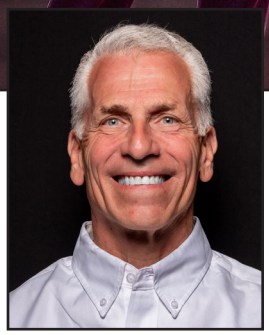

In 2018, Jones became the special teams coordinator for the Cleveland Browns under head coach Hue Jackson, this is where Jones' path crossed with now coach Sam Shade. Jones hired Coach Shade as his special teams assistant.

Jones then joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as an assistant special teams coordinator after just one season in Cleveland and concluded his NFL stint as special projects and situations for the New York Giants (2020-21) under Joe Judge (jones had coached judge at Miss state).

Jones, who is a native of Aliceville, Ala., played for Pickens Academy High School as a safety and running back where he graduated in 1978. After high school, Jones continued his playing career at the University of Alabama under legendary head coach and hall of famer Paul "Bear" Bryant. He was a two-time National Champion with the Crimson Tide, winning the title in 1978 and 1979. He graduated from Alabama with his bachelor's degree in 1982, and later earned a master's degree from Alabama.

Jones and his wife Stacey, have four children. Samantha (Corey), Joshua (Ashley), Nathan and Jeremy and granddaughter Evy.

RICHARD WILSON

Kickers | 17th Season
North Alabama, 1984

Richard Wilson returns to Alabama A&M as the Bulldogs' kicking coach.

Wilson is no stranger to "The Hill." He has spent thirteen seasons as Alabama A&M's kicking coach, coaching three All-SWAC kickers: Chance Wilson, Jeremy Licea, and Spencer Corey. He also coached All-SWAC punter Rashad Cylar.

A Huntsville, Ala. native, Wilson has spent most of his life involved with sports in the Rocket City. In high school, Wilson was a standout tennis player at Lee High School, and in 1993, he returned to his alma mater to work as an assistant football and tennis coach.

After spending eight seasons as Alabama A&M's kicking coach from 2007-2014, Wilson returned to Lee High School as an assistant football and tennis coach for three seasons.

Wilson returned to the Alabama A&M football staff during the offseason after Connell Maynor was hired as the Bulldogs' new football coach.

LARON WHITE

Chief of Staff | First Season
Alabama, 1997

Laron White begins his first season as the high school relations and chief of staff on the Alabama A&M University football program.

White, who amassed a 182-60 career record, is no stranger to the State of Alabama as he won two Class 2A State Championships (2012 and 2013) in 14 seasons at Tanner High School.

White's teams qualified for the playoffs in each season and won a minimum of seven games. He led the Rattlers to eight region titles during the span (2003, 2008, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2016). During that time, Tanner went 29-12 in the playoffs and amassed a 91-6 mark in region play. White took over at Sparkman HIgh School in 2017 and led a resurgence by taking them to their first playoff appearance and winning season since 2006. Sparkman went to the playoffs four of the six years under White.

Prior to taking the head coaching position at Sparkman, White won 45 regular season games in a row between 2009-14 at Tanner. They also had a 59-game region winning streak.

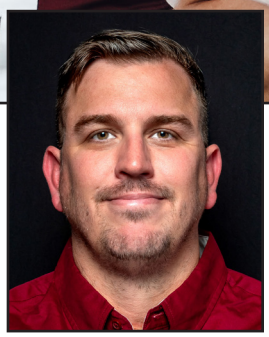

White played on the offensive line at Courtland High School, earning All-State honors as an honorable mention during his junior season and was named to the first team in 1991 as a senior. He was named to the ASWA Super 12 team and Super All-State team by the Birmingham News. In addition, White played in the Alabama All-Star game in Tuscaloosa following his senior season.

After graduating from Courtland, White played football at the University of Alabama under head coach Gene Stallings from 1992-96, where he was a part of three Southeastern Conference (SEC) Western Division championships and a 1992 National Champion for the Crimson Tide.

White served as the offensive line coach for Alabama in the 25th Annual Mississippi-Alabama All-Star Game in 2011. His father, Louis White, was a successful coach at Courtland and won four state championships. His father and uncle, Hoover White are in the AHSAA Hall of Fame. His brother, Kelvis, is the head coach at Bob Jones High School.

White is married to Kathy White and the couple have three children, KaRon, Karsen and Kaden.

JASON MAI

Senior Offensive Assistant / Director of Football Operations | Eighth Season
Southwest Missouri State, 2005

Jason Mai begins his eighth season at Alabama A&M University and his first as the Senior Offensive Assistant and Director of Football Operations.

Mai, who spent the previous seven seasons on The Hill serving as the quarterbacks coach, has more than 20 years of coaching experience.

While at Alabama A&M, he coached All-American quarterback Aqeel Glass, who holds numerous school records, including touchdown passes in a single season (36), set in 2021.

Prior to coming to Alabama A&M, Mai served as the running backs coach and director of football operations at Hampton University in 2017 and was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Saint Augustine's in 2016.

Before going to St. Augustine, Mai spent five seasons as the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator at Winston-Salem State, where he helped develop one of the top offensive units in Division II football. While at Winston-Salem State, Mai was part of a program that amassed a 51-11 overall record and reached the 2012 Division II national championship game.

During his tenure at Winston-Salem State, Mai coached 18 all-CIAA players and developed 2 All-American quarterbacks. He also was part of team that led the CIAA in total offense five times, and was in the top 10 nationally three times.

Mai spent four seasons as the offensive line coach at Virginia Union from 2008-2011. During that tenure, he helped develop an offense that averaged 24.6 points per game while averaging 312.2 yards and 158.3 rushing yards per game.

Before going to Virginia Union, Mai spent two seasons as quarterbacks coach at Johnson C. Smith University where he was a part of a team that logged the best single season turnaround in the NCAA and he mentored the schools all-time leading passer.

Mai started his career as wide receivers coach at his alma mater, Southwest Minnesota State.

ALABAMA A&M OPENS SEASON WITH ROAD LOSS TO AUBURN

AUBURN, Ala. | The Alabama A&M University football team opened its season on Saturday night and could not recover from three early quick scores as the Bulldogs fell, 73-3, to Auburn at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

Auburn (1-0) needed just four plays on the opening drive as Jarquez Hunter scored on a 34-yard touchdown run as the Tigers capped a 70-yard drive in just 47 seconds.

After an Alabama A&M punt, Payton Thorne connected with KeAndre Lambert-Smith for 67 yards as the Tigers extended the lead to 14-0 with 12:47 remaining in the first quarter.

The Bulldogs unable to move the ball were forced to punt on their second possession as Thorne found a streaking Cam Coleman for 44 yards as Auburn pushed the advantage to 21-0 with 11:39 left in the period.

Alabama A&M (0-1) had a chance to score on its third possession as Cornelious Brown IV got a great bounce off an Auburn defender as Keenan Hambrick caught the deflection for a 56-yard completion as he was dragged down at the Tiger 1. However, a penalty backed the Bulldogs up and had to settle for a 29-yard field goal attempt by Christian Silverstein as the kick was wide right.

Auburn put the final touches of the quarter with exactly two minutes remaining in the first as Lambert-Smith caught a 4-yard pass from Thorne as the Tigers increased the margin to 28-0.

The Tigers got a 32-yard field goal by Towns McGough and Thorne connected with Perry Thompson for a 70-yard score to extend the lead to 38-0 with 10:10 remaining in the second.

The Bulldogs broke the shutout with six minutes in the first half as Austin McCready booted his first-ever field attempt, a 43-yarder — as Alabama A&M closed the gap to 38-3.

Auburn tacked on one more score right before the break as the Tigers took a commanding 45-3 lead into the half.

The Tigers cruised in the second half, scoring 14 points in the third and added one final score in the fourth for a 73-3 victory.

MAYNOR EARNS 100TH CAREER WIN AS AAMU ROLLS PAST KSU

THE HILL | Cornelious Brown IV threw for 278 yards and four touchdowns as the Alabama A&M University football team gave head coach Connell Maynor his 100th career victory on Saturday with a 49-7 win in the 14th Annual Louis Crews Classic against Kentucky State at Louis Crews Stadium.

"I'm just happy for the players," Maynor said. "One hundred wins means I am probably getting old, been coaching a long time. But I had a lot of great coaches and a lot of great football players to make it to 100 wins. It ain't just me. It's always the staff and the players."

Alabama A&M (1-1) forced Kentucky State to punt on its first possession and the Bulldogs went to work, scoring on its opening drove, going 59 yards in 12 plays and taking just over four minutes off the clock.

AAMU used a balanced offense in scoring its first touchdown of the season, mixing in four passes and eight rushes as Xavier Lankford scored on a 1-yard keeper to camp the drive and give the Bulldogs a quick 7-0 lead with 9:38 remaining.

It didn't take long for the second Bulldog score of the night as AAMU started at the KSU 43 after a Thorobred punt.

Cornelious Brown IV found a wide-open Duke Miller down the left sideline for a 38-yard score as the Bulldogs pushed the lead to 14-0 with 6:36 left.

Alabama A&M took advantage of a Kentucky State turnover and marched 60 yards in six plays as Jacolby Hewitt caught an 8-yard touchdown pass from Brown as the Bulldogs increased their advantage to 21-0 just five seconds into the second quarter.

After stopping the Thorobreds on fourth down, the Bulldogs went right back to work, taking more than four minutes off the clock as Barry White caught a 20-yard touchdown pass from Aveon Smith to complete the 72-yard drive as Alabama A&M stretched its lead to 28-0 with exactly two minutes left in the half.

The Bulldogs took the opening kickoff of the second half, mixing the run and pass as Brown connected with Ryan Morrow for an 18-yard touchdown as AAMU extended its advantage to 35-0 with 12:47 remaining.

Alabama A&M put the game out of reach midway through the third quarter as Brown threw his fourth touchdown of the night, a 16-yard pass to Miller, capping a 9-play, 89-yard drive as the Bulldogs pushed the margin to 42-0 with 8:17 left in the period.

AAMU added a Kolten Nero 4-yard touchdown run with just over 10 minutes to play, extending the margin to 49-0.

Kentucky State (0-2) got into the scoring column midway through the final period as Jaun Gainious found Jaden Hale for eight yards as the Thorobreds trailed, 49-7, with 7:15 remaining.

SMITH SPARKS BULLDOGS IN HOME VICTORY

THE HILL | Aveon Smith came off the bench to provide a spark as the junior quarterback threw one touchdown pass and ran for another as the Alabama A&M University football team pulled away in the fourth quarter to defeat Georgetown College, 24-16, on Saturday night at Louis Crews Stadium.

AAMU's defense was put to the test on the opening kickoff as Georgetown moved the ball with a mix of passes and runs. The Tigers drove 54 yards in nine plays as Drew Rader's 40-yard field goal attempt was wide left as the Bulldogs took over with 9:54 left in the first period.

Alabama A&M (2-1) went right to work after the missed field goal as the Bulldogs went 67 yards in eight plays to grab the first score of the game.

Ryan Morrow picked up a first down on a 20-yard rush and Xavier Lankford connected with Keenan Hambrick for 34 yards, setting up the Bulldogs at the GC 18. However, the Tigers' defense forced a stop as Austin McCready booted a 27-yard field goal as AAMU grabbed a 3-0 advantage with just under six minutes to play in the quarter.

Georgetown (1-2) answered on its next drive as Gehring Slunaker connected with Jamarcus Robinson for a 34-yard completion and two plays later, the pair connected again, this time a 31-yard touchdown strike, capping a 5-play, 75-yard drive as the Tigers took a 7-3 advantage with 3:05 remaining.

Back came Alabama A&M as the Bulldogs picked up a fourth-down conversion on the 10-play, 75-yard drive as Donovan Eaglin rumbled 11 yards up in the middle for the score as AAMU grabbed a 10-7 lead just 15 seconds into the second quarter.

Georgetown responded by driving to the AAMU 18 as the Bulldogs forced the Tigers to attempt a 35-yard field goal. This time Rader's kick hit the right upright with 10:06 left.

On the next ensuing Bulldog drive, Cornelious Brown IV picked up a 38-yard gain on second down, but was picked off by Justin Richardson on the very next play, turning the ball over to Georgetown at the Tigers 42 with 9:12 remaining.

After forcing a Georgetown punt, Alabama A&M started its drive backed up at its own 2. The Bulldogs marched 89 yards in 12 plays but was forced to attempt a field goal. McCready's 27-yard field goal attempt was blocked and returned to the AAMU 41 with just over two minutes to play in the half.

A turnover led to three points as Georgetown tied the game at 10 with exactly 10 minutes left in the third.

The Tigers were forced to punt on their first possession of the second half but Myles Parker fumbled the ball and was recovered by Ryan Burke at the AAMU 37. However, the Bulldog defense didn't bend, forcing a field-goal attempt. Rader's 39-yard kick was good, tying the game at 10.

Alabama A&M answered with a scoring drive of its own and breaking the 10-all tie.

The Bulldogs marched 75 yards in 10 plays, taking more four minutes off the clock as Aveon Smith ran 31 yards untouched for the score as AAMU took a 17-10 lead with 3:26 remaining in the third.

Georgetown got a big completion from Slunaker to Clayton Davis, 56 yards, on its next offensive series, setting up another Rader field goal after a Cortez Andrews sack. Rader's 33-yard field goal split the uprights, cutting the Bulldog lead to 17-13 with eight seconds left.

Alabama A&M got some distance as the Bulldogs completed a 6-play, 75-yard drive as Smith connected with DeQuadrion Welch for 19 yards as AAMU stretch the advantage to 24-13 with 12:48 remaining.

Georgetown closed the gap to 24-16 after a 36-yard field by Nate Craft with 25 seconds left, but the Tigers could not get any closer as the Bulldogs earned their second win of the season.

ALABAMA A&M DROPS ROAD TILT TO AUSTIN PEAY

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn. | The Alabama A&M University football team fell behind early and could not recover as the Bulldogs fell, 59-16, to Austin Peay on Saturday night at Fortera Stadium in the final tune up game before opening Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) play next week in Tallahassee, Fla. against Florida A&M.

Alabama A&M (2-2) got the ball to begin the game, but on the very first play from scrimmage, Cornelious Brown IV was picked off by Sammy Anderson Jr. at the AAMU 31 and returned it eight yards.

Austin Peay (1-3) took advantage of the turnover as the Bulldog defense stepped up a forced a 41-yard field goal by Carson Smith as the Governors grabbed a 3-0 advantage with 13:33 remaining in the opening quarter.

Back came Alabama A&M as the Bulldogs put together an 8-play, 44-yard drive as Austin McCready booted a career-best 48-yard field goal, tying the game at 3 with just over nine minutes to play in the first.

The Governors got a great return by Romon Copeland Jr. on the kickoff and Austin Peay took advantage of a short field. Four plays after the return, Copeland hauled in a 10-yard touchdown pass from Austin Smith, breaking the tie and giving the Govs a 10-3 lead with 7:24 remaining.

On the very next offensive possession, Jesse Johnson III scooped up a fumble by Aveon Smith and returned in 21 yards for the score as Austin Peay extended the lead to 17-3 with 6:44 left.

Alabama A&M was forced to punt on its next possession as McCready booted a 55-yard bomb, but Copeland found the seam and returned it 82 yards for the score as the Govs stretched their lead to 24-3 with 4:48 remaining.

After stopped the Bulldogs on fourth down, Austin Peay needed just one play as La'Vell Wright went straight up the middle for a 53-yard touchdown run, pushing the margin to 31-3 with just over 12 minutes left in the half.

Wright added his second touchdown score with 1:53 remaining in the second on a 6-yard touchdown scamper, capping a 12-play, 95-yard drive as Austin Peay took a commanding 38-3 lead into the break.

The Governors opened the third quarter strong as Wright went 62 yards up the middle for his third score on the night as Austin Peay extended its lead to 45-3 with 14:52 left in the period.

Austin Peay put the game out of reach with 4:10 left as Kaden Williams capped a 7-play, 46-yard drive, stretching the advantage to 52-3 with 3:10 remaining.

Alabama A&M responded with a 13-play, 79-yard drive as Brown connected with Donovan Price on a 7-yard touchdown pass, trimming the deficit to 52-9 as the extra point was blocked with 13:29 left.

Austin Peay responded with a 75-yard drive as Corey Richardson found the left side and darted 13 yards into the end zone for the touchdown as the Govs increased the lead to 59-9 with 8:41 remaining.

After a Bulldog punt, the AAMU defense forced an interception as Delvon Gulley picked off Austin Peay quarterback Jake Johnson down the left sideline and returned it 33 yards, setting up a DJ Moffett 1-yard touchdown as Alabama A&M trimmed the margin to 59-16 with 5:27 left.

GAME FIVE

ALABAMA A&M	3	7	14	14	-	38
JACKSON STATE	21	17	7	0	-	45

Oct. 5 | Ladd-Peebles Stadium | Mobile, Alabama | 4:00 p.m. | Att. 14,956

RALLY COMES UP SHORT AT GULF COAST CHALLENGE

MOBILE, Ala. | Xavier Lankford threw for 245 yards, with four touchdowns (three passing, one rushing) as the Alabama A&M University football team nearly rallied from a 28-point deficit in falling short, 45-38, to Jackson State in a Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) game in the Gulf Coast Challenge on Saturday at Ladd-Peebles Stadium.

Alabama A&M (2-3 overall, 0-1 SWAC) trailed by as many as 28 points (38-10) entering the half, but held Jackson State to just one touchdown over the final two quarters. Meanwhile, the Bulldogs nearly pulled off the rally, scoring 28 points before the Tigers picked up a first down with under two minutes to play to seal the win.

Jackson State (4-2, 2-0) took the opening kickoff, going 75 yards in six plays as Irv Mulligan scored on a 6-yard touchdown run up the middle as the Tigers grabbed a quick 7-0 lead with 12:17 remaining in the first quarter.

Alabama A&M quickly establish the game plan early on by running the football despite not picking up a first down on the opening series as the Bulldogs went three-and-out.

JSU got a 44 punt return by Travis Terrell Jr., and three plays later, Mulligan found the endzone for his second score, a 10-yard touchdown scamper as the Tigers pushed the lead to 14-0 with 9:13 left.

The Bulldogs put together a nearly seven minute drive on their next series, going 54 yards in 13 plays as Austin McCready booted a 34-yard field goal, closing the gap to 14-3 with 2:20 remaining.

However, on the ensuing kickoff, Terrell, who came into the game ranked inside the top five in FCS returns, broke loose for a 96-yard kickoff return as the Tigers stretched their advantage to 21-3, with just over two minutes to play.

Jackson State continued to flex its muscle in the opening half, this time Joanes Fortilien hauled in an 12-yard touchdown pass from Jacobian Morgan as the Tigers extended the margin to 28-3 with just under 13 minutes left in the second.

Alabama A&M responded with a time-consuming drive as Lankford punched in a 1-yard run, cutting the deficit to 28-10 with 5:54 remaining.

However, Jackson State added two more scores before halftime as Fortilien caught an 18-yard touchdown pass and Gerardo Baeza booted a 23-yard field goal as the Tigers took a 38-10 lead into the break.

Alabama A&M converted a huge fourth down play as Donovan Payne caught a 20-yard touchdown from Lankford, capping a 12-play, 67-yard drive as the Bulldogs trimmed the margin to 38-17 with just under 10 minutes to play in the third.

However, Jackson State answered as I Spencer broke past the AAMU secondary and hauled in a 58-yard touchdown from Morgan as the Tigers extended the advantage to 45-17 with 6:44 left.

The Bulldogs continued to play from behind as Dion Nelson Jr. capped an 11-play, 90-yard drive with a 7-yard touchdown reception, cutting the margin to 45-24 with 1:14 remaining in the third.

A 12-yard Lankford touchdown to DeQuadrion Welch continued the comeback attempt with just under 11 minutes to play as AAMU closed the gap to 45-31.

DJ Moffett's 4-yard touchdown run capped a 95-yard drive in 12 plays with 2:46 remaining, but the Bulldogs never got the ball back as Jackson State ran out the clock.

LANKFORD'S FOUR TOUCHDOWN'S CARRY BULLDOGS TO WIN

THE HILL | Xavier Lankford rushed for three touchdowns and threw for another as the Alabama A&M University football team ended a two-game losing streak on Saturday with a 56-12 Homecoming victory over Bethune-Cookman in a Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) game at Louis Crews Stadium.

Alabama A&M (3-3 overall, 1-1 SWAC) took the opening kickoff and wasted little time putting points on the board. The Bulldogs, aided by a 40-yard completion to Keenan Hambrick, as Lankford punched in a 2-yard touchdown, capping an 8 play, 73-yard drive as AAMU grabbed a quick 7-0 lead with 11:31 remaining in the first quarter.

The Bulldogs doubled their lead, nearly going the length of the field to push the advantage to 14-0, with just over 12 minutes remaining in the half. Alabama A&M went 94 yards in 13 plays, taking 5:46 off the clock, as Lankford scored on a 2-yard keeper to extend the margin.

Bethune-Cookman (0-6, 0-2) answered with a 10-play, 68-yard drive as Cam Ransom scored on a 15-yard touchdown run, cutting the deficit to 14-6 as the extra point was blocked with 7:05 left in the second.

Back came the Bulldogs, going 88 yards as Lankford found a wide open DeQuadrion Welch down the left sideline for a 44-yard touchdown as Alabama A&M stretched the advantage to 21-6 with 2:44 remaining in the half.

Alabama A&M took advantage of a BCU miscue on the ensuing kickoff as the ball bounced off Amarie Jones and Mohamed Bakyoko recovered the ball at the Wildcat 30. On the very next play, Donovan Eaglin broke free for a 30-yard touchdown run as AAMU extended the advantage to 28-6 with 2:34 left.

The Wildcats had an opportunity to chip away at the deficit as Ransom tossed a 49-yard touchdown pass to Omari Stewart, but the score was wiped away as Bethune-Cookman was flagged for offsides. Instead of the score, BCU was forced to punt the football on its first series of the second half.

Alabama A&M responded with a 6 play, 72-yard drive as Bulldog offensive lineman Christian Anderson got his first career touchdown when he recovered an Eaglin fumble in the endzone, stretching the advantage to 35-6 with 9:13 remaining in the third.

With the Bulldogs drive, Lankford was picked up by Johnny Harris III, who went 91 yards down the left sideline for the pick six. However, the extra point was no good as the Wildcats trailed, 35-12, with 5:12 left.

Alabama A&M answered with a 9 play, 68-yard drive as Lankford rushed for his third touchdown of the day, a four-yard score, as the Bulldogs increased the lead to 42-12 with 1:30 remaining in the period.

AAMU put the game away early in the final quarter as Ryan Morrow capped a 75-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run as the Bulldogs stretched the advantage to 49-12 with just over 13 minutes to play.

After a defensive stop on fourth down, the Bulldogs offense went right back to work as Isaiah Nwokenkwo broke loose for 65 yards and two plays later, Cornelious Brown IV rushed seven yards for the score as AAMU extended the margin to 56-12 with 9:36 remaining.

After a Bulldog punt, the AAMU defense forced an interception as Delvon Gulley picked off Austin Peay quarterback Jake Johnson down the left sideline and returned it 33 yards, setting up a DJ Moffett 1-yard touchdown as Alabama A&M trimmed the margin to 59-16 with 5:27 left.

RALLY COMES UP SHORT HORNETS DEFEAT BULLDOGS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. | The Alabama A&M University football team turned the ball over four times and nearly rallied from a big deficit as Alabama State won the 83rd Annual McDonald's Magic City Classic, 27-19, in a Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) game on Saturday at Legion Field.

Alabama State (5-3 overall, 2-1 SWAC), which scored 13 of its 17 points off turnovers, led 17-3 at the half, but nearly let the lead slip away for an interception, along with a big third-down conversion sealed the victory and gave the Hornets their third straight victory in the series.

A 32-yard Ajai Harrell punt return set up the first score of the game as Alabama State took advantage of a short field.

The Hornets started at the AAMU 42 and just two plays after the punt return, Kareem Keye connected with Asa Gregg on a slant for 31 yards as Alabama State took a 7-0 advantage with 10:11 remaining in the opening quarter.

ASU forced Alabama A&M to punt on its next possession and the Hornets capped a 10-play, 68-yard drive with a 35-yard field goal Brandon Gilliam as Alabama State extended its lead to 10-0 with 2:47 left.

Alabama State took advantage of the first AAMU turnover, going 28 yards in six plays as Derek Harden hauled in a 6-yard touchdown pass from Keye as the Hornets stretched the margin to 17-0 with 2:50 remaining in the first half.

The Bulldogs (3-4, 1-2) responded with a two-minute drive as Cornelious Brown IV connected with DeQuadrion Welch for 30 yards and Victor Barbosa capped an 8-play, 61-yard drive with a 27-yard field goal with two seconds left in the period, closing the gap to 17-3.

Alabama A&M put together a solid drive on its second series of the third quarter, but Brown was picked off by Keane Lewis, returning the ball to the Bulldogs 45 to halt a potential scoring drive.

The Hornets capitalized off the turnover, the second time in the game. Driving inside the red zone, Marvin Smith sacked Keye as Alabama State got a 33-yard field goal by Gilliam, pushing the advantage to 20-3 with 3:16 remaining in the period.

Alabama State continued to cash in on miscues as Lankford was picked off by Terrell Lightfoot Jr., who went 70 yards for the pick six score as the Hornets extended the lead to 27-3 with 1:01 left in the third.

The Bulldogs got into the endzone midway through the final quarter as Lankford found Keenan Hambrick streaking down the left sideline for the 65-yard touchdown. The two-point conversion, Lankford to Donivan Wright was good as Alabama A&M trimmed the deficit to 27-11 with 9:52 remaining.

Alabama A&M continued to rally, capping a 6-play, 65-yard drive as Lankford found Hambrick again, a 31-yard touchdown pass, and scored on a two-point conversion as the Bulldogs closed the gap to 27-19 with 5:03 remaining.

The Hornets were forced to punt on their next possession and Welch returned the kick 19 yards to the ASU 47. However, after an incompletion, Lankford was picked off by Anon Scarbrough with 2:32 left.

The Bulldogs stopped ASU on first and second down. Right after the two-minute timeout, on third-and-9 from the ASU 22, Daquon Kincey broke free for 61 yards as Alabama State ran out the clock to pick up the victory.

LATE DRIVE LIFTS JAGUARS PAST BULLDOGS

THE HILL | The Alabama A&M University football team suffered a heartbreaking 25-20 loss on Saturday as Southern used a late drive to pick up the road Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) win at Louis Crews Stadium.

Alabama A&M (3-5 overall, 1-3 SWAC) led 20-13 after a Xavier Lankford 8-yard touchdown run with 3:42 remaining. However, Southern (5-4, 4-1) put together an 9-play, 75-yard drive as Dupree Fuller hauled in a one-handed 14-yard touchdown pass from Czavian Teasett, giving the Jaguars a 25-20 lead with 1:12 left.

The Bulldogs nearly rallied, moving the ball to the Southern 29, but Lankford's pass to Keenan Hambrick in the endzone was batted away as time expired, giving the Jaguars the victory.

In the opening quarter, Alabama A&M and Southern traded punts to begin the game.

The Bulldogs took advantage of a short field, marching 50 yards in five plays as Lankford punched in a 1-yard scoring, giving AAMU the 7-0 advantage with 8:48 remaining in the first quarter.

Alabama A&M's defense forced a punt, but Lankford was picked off by Herman Brister III at the Bulldog 40. However, Southern couldn't get much going offensively and were forced to attempt a field goal. Joshua Griffin's 48-yard kick sailed left, keeping the Jaguars scoreless with 2:16 left.

A 28-yard Donivan Wright punt return put the Bulldogs deep into Southern territory at the Jaguar 25. However, Alabama A&M could not get into the end zone and settled for a 21-yard field goal by Victor Barbosa with 8:43 remaining in the half.

Southern responded with three big plays on its next drive as Teasett connected with Darren Morris for an 11-yard touchdown strike, capping an 8-play, 70-yard drive as the Jaguars closed the gap 10 -6 with exactly five minutes left in the second.

The Jaguars continued to close the deficit, putting together a 62-yard, 11-play drive right before halftime as Griffin booted a 36-yard field goal, cutting the margin to 10-9 with 23 seconds remaining.

After a punt backed Southern to its own 1, the Jaguars quickly moved the football 99 yards in seven plays as Teasett found Darren Morris for a 36-yard touchdown as the Jaguars grabbed a 16-10 advantage with 8:29 left in the third.

After another AAMU punt, the Jaguars moved the football to the Bulldog 16. But an official review pushed the ball back to the 17 for fourth down. SU elected to kick the field goal instead of going for it on fourth and short and Griffin booted a 32-yard attempt as the Jaguars stretched the lead to 19-10 with 43 seconds remaining.

Alabama A&M responded with a 6-play, 50-yard drive, aided by a 32-yard run by Lankford as Barbosa drilled a 39-yard field goal, closing the gap to 19-13 with 13:27 left in the final quarter.

The Bulldogs grabbed the lead with less than four minutes remaining as Lankford scored on an 8-yard touchdown run as AAMU took a 20-19 advantage, which set up a wild finish.

After a defensive stop on fourth down, the Bulldogs offense went right back to work as Isaiah Nwokenkwo broke loose for 65 yards and two plays later, Cornelious Brown IV rushed seven yards for the score as AAMU extended the margin to 56-12 with 9:36 remaining.

After a Bulldog punt, the AAMU defense forced an interception as Delvon Gulley picked off Austin Peay quarterback Jake Johnson down the left sideline and returned it 33 yards, setting up a DJ Moffett 1-yard touchdown as Alabama A&M trimmed the margin to 59-16 with 5:27 left.

EAGLIN, DEFENSE LEAD BULLDOGS IN ROAD VICTORY

PINE BLUFF, Ark. | Donovan Eaglin rushed for five touchdowns and the Alabama A&M University defense forced three turnovers as the Bulldogs snapped a three-game road losing streak on Saturday with a 52-24 rout of Arkansas-Pine Bluff in a Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) game at Simmons Bank Field.

Eaglin powered his way to five rushing touchdowns and 145 yards on 24 carries. Meanwhile, the defense forced three turnovers three turnovers in the first half as the Bulldogs led 35-17 at the break and didn't look back.

With the win, Alabama A&M (4-5 overall, 2-3 SWAC) ended a three-game road losing streak, which dated back to Oct. 14, 2023 when the Bulldogs spoiled Grambling State's homecoming with a 45-24 victory.

Arkansas-Pine Bluff (3-7, 2-4) took advantage of a short field, going 47 yards in seven plays as Trey Glymph booted a 32-yard field goal, giving the Golden Lions a 3-0 lead with 12:34 remaining.

UAPB nearly doubled the lead as Xavier Lankford was picked off on the Bulldogs' first offensive series. However, Braden Ducharme's 45-yard field goal attempt hit the left upright, keeping the Bulldogs within a field goal at 3-0.

Alabama A&M quickly answered the missed field goal as the Bulldogs went 72 yards in four plays with Lankford connecting with Keenan Hambrick down the right sideline for 48 yards as AAMU took a 7-3 advantage with just over 10 minutes remaining in the opening quarter.

On the next UAPB possession, Mekhi Hagens completed a pass to BJ Curry, who fumbled the ball as Steven Parker came up with the football at the Golden Lions 43.

But as the Bulldogs were going in for a score, Lankford coughed up the football and UAPB took advantage.

Arkansas-Pine Bluff used the ground game, going 80 yards in six plays as Curry broke past the AAMU defense for a 14-yard score as the Golden Lions grabbed a 10-7 lead with 4:01 left.

The Bulldog defense stopped the Golden Lions on fourth down and took over at the UAPB 49.

Alabama A&M used the ground game as Donovan Eaglin broke free for a 17-yard touchdown run as the Bulldogs took a 14-10 lead with 13:38 remaining in the first half.

AAMU's special teams played a factor in setting up the next score as Donivan Wright return a punt 38 yards and Lankford connected with Donovan Payne for a 2-yard touchdown as the Bulldogs stretched their lead to 21-10 with 9:13 left.

Back came the Golden Lions, cashing in a turnover.

After the AAMU defense forced another UAPB turnover, the Bulldogs drove to the Golden Lion 33 before Lankford was picked off by Tayvon Hardwick, who return the interception for 67 for the pick six, as Arkansas-Pine Bluff cut the deficit to 21-17 with 5:20 remaining.

Alabama A&M responded to the UAPB touchdown with an 11-play, 81-yard drive as Eaglin went off the right side 18 yards for the score as the Bulldogs extended their lead to 28-17 with 1:28 left.

The Bulldog defense continued to force turnovers as Cortez Andrews picked off Hagens and Alabama A&M cashed it into point as Eaglin scored on a 2-yard touchdown, capping a 6-play, 39-yard drive with nine seconds remaining in the first half.

Alabama A&M started the second half with excellent field position as the Bulldogs marched 46 yards in eight plays as Eaglin added his fourth rushing touchdown, a 3-yard score in extending the margin to 42-17 with 10:41 remaining.

After an Arkansas-Pine Bluff punt, Alabama A&M put the game away with a time consuming 14-play, 80-yard drive, taking more than six minutes off the clock as Eaglin punched it in from three-yards out as the Bulldogs pushed the advantage to 49-17 with 2:53 left in the third.

Victor Barbosa capped a 13-play, 79-yard drive with a 21-yard field goal as Alabama A&M extended its lead to 52-17 with 6:36 remaining.

The Golden Lions got one final score with just 54 seconds left as Hagens connect with JaVonnie Gibson for a 17-yard score.

EAGLIN POWERS SECOND-HALF SURGE IN VICTORY

THE HILL | Donovan Eaglin rushed for 123 yards, including 111 in the second half as the Alabama A&M University football team used a dominate second half to pull past Grambling State, 22-17, in a Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) game on Thursday night at Louis Crews Stadium.

Alabama A&M (5-5 overall, 3-3 SWAC) trailed 17-3 in the second quarter and scored 19 unanswered points to storm from behind to earn the win. Grambling State (5-6, 2-5) suffered another setback, with five one-score losses this season.

GSU quarterback Myles Crawley was picked off on his first pass attempt but Alabama A&M could not get anything going off the turnover and was forced to punt on its second offensive possession.

The Tigers started at its own 9, and after a 7-yard run by Ke'Travion Hargrove, Crawley connected with Jalen Johnson for 67 yards to the Bulldog 7. However, the AAMU defense forced a stop and Reed Harradine booted a 23-yard field to cap the 7-play, 77-yard drive as Grambling State took a 3-0 advantage with 8:31 remaining in the opening quarter.

The Bulldogs responded with a 13-play, 47-yard drive, taking more than six minutes off the clock as Victor Barbosa tied the game at 3 with a 45-yard field goal with 2:12 left.

Grambling State took advantage of an AAMU turnover as Cornelious Brown IV was stripped as he was throwing the ball by Jalen Rudolph and the ball was returned for a score by Andrew Jones for 25 yards as the Tigers grabbed a 10-3 advantage with 12:06 remaining in the half.

After an Alabama A&M punt, the Tigers marched 60 yards in just five plays as JR Waters hauled in a 10-yard touchdown pass from Crawley as GSU extended the advantage to 17-3 with 7:24 left.

The Bulldogs closed the gap to 17-6 right before the break as Alabama A&M drove 74 yards in seven plays, helped by a personal foul targeting and offsides call, as Barbosa booted a 38-yard field goal as time expired.

Grambling State got the ball to begin the second half, but quickly turned it over as Dedrick Talbert coughed the ball up as Dimitris Biamby forced the fumble, setting the Bulldogs up with great field position at the Tiger 34.

All it took was one play as Brown connected with Keenan Hambrick over the middle for a 34-yard touchdown with 13:46 remaining. Brown converted the 2-point conversion as Alabama A&M trimmed the deficit to 17-14.

The Bulldogs continued to rally, using a 12-play, 47-yard drive as Barbosa booted a 44-yard field goal, tying the game at 17 with 7:04 remaining.

Alabama A&M grabbed its first lead of the night as Grambling State gift-wrapped two points on a safety as a snap on a Tiger punt when over the head of the punter and into the back of the endzone as the Bulldogs took a 19-17 advantage with 46 seconds left.

The Bulldogs, who took more than eight minutes off the clock, took advantage of a roughing the passer personal foul penalty on its next offensive drive. AAMU marched 80 yards in 14 plays, helped by a huge Donovan Eaglin 18-yard carry, as Barbosa kicked a 19-yard field goal as Alabama A&M extended the lead to 22-17 with 7:20 remaining.

Grambling State had an opportunity, but Javon Robinson dropped a wide-open pass on fourth down, turning the ball over to Alabama A&M with 3:22 left.

After a defensive stop by the Tigers, Kaleb Dawson sealed the Alabama A&M victory with an interception with 1:35 remaining.

BROWN TOSSES FIVE TOUCHDOWNS AS BULLDOGS TOP MVSU

ITTA BENA, Miss. | Cornelious Brown IV tossed five touchdown passes as the Alabama A&M University football team won its third straight game, rolling past Mississippi Valley State, 49-35, on Saturday at Rice-Totten Stadium in a Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) game.

Brown threw two touchdowns in the opening half of 29 and 14 yards, and adding three more in the second half of 35, 9 and 13 yards as Alabama A&M (6-5 overall, 4-3 SWAC) racked up 508 total yards of offense.

Mississippi Valley State (1-11, 1-7) got the ball to begin the game, moving to the AAMU before quarterback Ty'Jarian Williams was picked off by Kaleb Dawson and returned to the Delta Devils 37.

The Bulldogs needed just four plays as Cornelious Brown IV connected with Devin Herring for a 29-yard touchdown as Alabama A&M jumped out to a 7-0 lead with 11:21 remaining in the opening quarter.

The Delta Devils responded with a 12-play, 73-yard drive as Jakobe Thomas scored on a 12-yard run, tying the game at 7 with just over six minutes left in the first.

Back came Alabama A&M, mixing the run and pass as Donovan Eaglin burst through the MVSU defense for a 37-yard touchdown run, capping a 5-play, 68-yard drive, as the Bulldogs grabbed a 14-7 advantage with 4:22 left.

Mississippi Valley State took advantage of a fumble as the Delta Devils tied the game at 14.

With the Bulldogs in MVSU territory, Brown connected with Herring, who fumbled the ball at the Delta Devils 25.

Mississippi Valley State cashed the turnover into seven points as Williams connected with Nathan Rembert for a 38-yard touchdown, tying the game, with 13:10 left in the half.

Alabama A&M turned it over on downs on its next offensive series and MVSU went right back to work.

The Delta Devils went 54 yards in six plays as Williams scored on a 9-yard keeper as Mississippi Valley State grabbed a 21-14 lead with just over six minutes remaining.

The Bulldogs answered with a 5-play, 50-yard drive as Brown found Herring on a 14-yard touchdown pass, tying the game at 21 with 4:38 left.

Mississippi Valley State quickly responded as Williams connected for DePhabian Fant for a 66-yard touchdown as the Delta Devils took a 28-21 advantage with 2:40 remaining.

The Bulldogs closed the first half strong, tying the game at 28, as Eaglin scored on a 23-yard touchdown run, capping a 6-play, 60-yard drive.

Alabama A&M got the ball to begin the second half, but Brown was picked off. However, MVSU turned the ball over on downs at their own 38 and the Bulldogs capitalized.

After an Eaglin 3-yard run and an incomplete pass, Brown hooked up with DJ Nelson for a 35-yard touchdown as AAMU grabbed a 35-28 advantage with just under 12 minutes remaining in the third.

A Donivan Wright 26-yard punt return set up Alabama A&M's next score as Donovan Payne hauled in a 9-yard touchdown pass from Brown as the Bulldogs extended their lead to 42-28 with 8:25 left.

Brown tossed his fifth touchdown pass, this time connecting for 13 yards with Keenan Hambrick as Alabama A&M stretched the margin to 49-28 with 3:15 remaining in the third.

The Delta Devils added a touchdown with less than two minutes remaining, but could not get any closer.

BULLDOGS COME UP SHORT IN SEASON FINALE

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. | The Alabama A&M University football team came up just a bit short in the season finale, falling 28-20, to Florida A&M in a Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) game on Friday night at Bragg Memorial Stadium.

Florida A&M (7-5 overall, 5-3 SWAC) got the ball to begin the game and needed just 32 seconds to score as Thad Franklin Jr. scored on a 25-yard touchdown up the middle with 14:28 remaining in the opening quarter.

A 41-yard punt return by Myles Parker set up the first Bulldog points.

AAMU (6-6, 4-4) got an 8-yard touchdown pass from Cornelious Brown IV to Devin Herring, but the score was wiped out as the outstanding catch in the back of the endzone was incomplete. The Bulldogs settled for a 24-yard field goal by Victor Barbosa, closing the gap to 7-3 with 10:32 left.

Back came the Rattlers, going 76 yards in 11 plays as Daniel Richardson connected with Kolby Gross for a 6-yard touchdown as FAMU extended its lead to 14-3 with 5:13 remaining.

Alabama A&M took advantage of a turnover as Barbosa booted a 39-yard field goal as the Bulldogs trailed, 14-6, with just under 14 minutes remaining in the first half.

Florida A&M capitalized off a Brown interception by going 58 yards in just three plays as Lovontai Summersett scored on a 20-yard touchdown run, extending the advantage to 21-6 with 2:55 remaining.

However, the Bulldogs put together a 13-play, 86-yard drive right before the break as Brown found Donovan Eaglin over the middle for a 23-yard touchdown, closing the gap to 21-13 with 13 seconds left in the quarter.

Alabama A&M opened the second half with the football and pulled off a fake punt as Austin McCready connected with Isaiah Nwokenkwo for 14 yards. However, the Bulldogs turned the ball over on downs and Florida A&M capitalized.

The Rattlers went 75 yards in five plays as Daniel Richardson found Quan Lee for a 19-yard touchdown as FAMU stretched the lead to 28-13 with 5:50 left in the third.

Alabama A&M refused to go away quietly, taking advantage of a short field and a costly pass interference penalty as Xavier Lankford connected with Barry White down the left sideline for an 18-yard score as the Bulldogs trimmed the deficit to 28-20 with just over 14 minutes to play.

The Bulldogs were forced to punt the football with 2:35 remaining and never got the ball back as Florida A&M ran out the clock to pick up the win.

LOUIS CREWS STADIUM

HOME OF THE BULLDOGS – OPENED IN 1996

ALABAMA A&M is 84-50 ALL-TIME AT LOUIS CREWS STADIUM

Louis Crews Stadium is a 21,000 seat football stadium, a state of the art press box, 19 luxury suites, and the George Hobson Field House, which houses the football coaching offices, a weight room, and the Robert Mathis locker room. The stadium opened in 1996 and was named in honor of Louis Crews, who served as the team's head coach from 1960 to 1975.

Built at a price of $10 million, Louis Crews Stadium has a current capacity of 21,000, and is the tenth largest stadium in Alabama. The home-side grandstands have a capacity of 14,000 and the visitors' side holds 7,000.

The stadium features a two-level press box which can accommodate up to 30 sportswriters. In addition, there are 19 sky-boxes that can seat 16 to 50 people each. An all-weather, 8-lane running track surrounds the football playing surface. The track portion of the facility contains a high jump competition area, and multi-directional long/triple jump and pole vault runways. The stadium hosted the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) Outdoor Track & Field Championships in 2015, 2016, and 2017, and several AAU Track Meets during the summer months.

FieldTurf was originally installed in October 2012, and replaced with an all new state of the art FieldTurf surface in May 2023, one uses coconut husks instead of the traditional rubber pellets, which cools field temperatures.

The stadium is also host to cultural events such as concerts and general assemblies and serves as the site for A&M's commencement exercises.

The first game played in Louis Crews Stadium was a 20-17 loss to Clark Atlanta, which also marked the first game played on campus since 1971. The first win was a 36-22 victory over Miles College in 1996.

ALABAMA A&M IN THE NFL

Alabama A&M University's football history is not short on talent as some of the sport's brightest stars have donned the Maroon and White.

Since the program's beginning in 1912, a total of 20 Bulldogs have been drafted by NFL franchises with 18 players combining for 85 seasons at the highest level.

Among those individuals who began their careers at A&M, none are more accomplished than Pro Football Hall of Famer John Stallworth who won four Super Bowls with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

He is joined by Howard "House" Ballard and Robert Mathis, both of whom were Pro Bowl selections during their pro careers, with the latter winning a Super Bowl in 2006.

Most recently, offensive tackle Carson Vinson was selected in the 2025 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens. Defensive tackle Anthony Lanier played four years in the NFL with the Washington (2016-18) Franchise and Los Angeles Chargers (2018-20) and is currently a member of the Canadian Football League's (CFL) Saskatchewan Roughriders.

Stallworth (14), Mathis (13) and Ballard (11) are joined by fellow Super Bowl winner Mike Hegman (12) as the only Bulldogs to play at least a decade in the NFL.

The other Alabama A&M players that have reached the NFL are Johnny Baldwin (2007), Ricky Blake (1991), Ronnie Coleman (1974-81), Ernest French (1982), Reginald Gipson (1983-85), Thomas Hopkins (1983), Frank Kearse (2011-15), Bill Kindricks (1968), Wayne Mosley (1974), Joe Patton (1994-98), Oliver Ross (1973-76), Franky Smith (1980), Barry Wagner (1992) and Mike Williams (1982-84).

Patton is the highest draft pick in program history, going in the third in 1994 (97th) with Stallworth in the fourth in 1974 (82nd).

ALABAMA A&M ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

The origin of the Alabaman A&M University Athletic Hall of Fame can be traced to the efforts of Erskine McKinnon, Tommie Summerville, Condredge Holloway, Sr., and George "Hoss" Hobson in 1989. These efforts stemmed from earlier discussions focusing on the establishment of an association to honor the achievement of selected individuals affiliated with the University's various athletic programs.

Organizers gathered as early as September 1988 and continued to meet on such occasions as the Magic City Classic and Founder's Week to garner additional support for the athletic association. Mrs. Bernice Williams joined the group in 1990 and served as its first secretary.

A group met on December 2, 1991 to draft the initial constitution and bylaws that would govern the association, later to become known as the "Alabama A&M University Athletic Hall of Fame" (AHOF). Consultation and direction was offered to the group as it was modeled after the Tuskegee University Football Hall of Fame. Coach Haywood Scissum (Tuskegee Head Football Coach) along with McKinnon Mr. Jerome Saintjones, then a Tuskegee employee. Some of the original organizers were Robert Bell, Louis Cunningham (then athletic director), George Hobson, Condredge Holloway Sr., John Humes, Arlester McBride, Erskine McKinnon, Erskine Valrie, Georgia S. Valrie and Bernice Williams.

The group made plans to conduct the first induction ceremony and set the date for the night before the Homecoming game in September 1992. Erskine McKinnon was selected to spearhead the first induction ceremony, which was held September 25 in the T.M. Elmore Building on the AAMU campus. Thirteen persons were inducted during the inaugural ceremony.

The induction ceremony has been held annually since the inception. The second event was also held in the Elmore Building, while the third, fourth and fifth AHOF induction ceremonies were conducted in banquet style and moved to the Mamie Labon Foster Complex on the AAMU campus. In 1997, the program was moved to the newly constructed West Campus Living/Learning Complex in a banquet area later named for AAMU 1953 alumnus Ernest L. Knight. Currently, there are over 100 members of the AAMU Athletic Hall of Fame. The first ten years of the organization's operation were administered by Dr. Arlester McBride. In 2002, Erskine Valrie, the long-time treasurer of AHOF, became Chairperson. Elected in 2010 and leading the AAMU Athletic Hall of Fame serving as Chairperson is Randolph Flakes was elected in 2010 as Chairperson, while Sandra Lyles-Jackson currently serves as the chair.

The AAMU Athletic Hall of Fame aims to establish and maintain a permanent location at the University for the preservation of artifacts, memorabilia and historical information about the distinguished athletes, coaches/administrators and special contributors who support AAMU's athletic programs and has contributed to the recognition of the University as an outstanding educational institution. Additionally, the Athletic Hall of Fame stimulates students, particularly those with exemplary athletic skills, to seek higher educational pursuits at AAMU.

HISTORY AT A GLANCE

In 1920, athletic officials from six Texas HBCUs — C.H. Fuller of Bishop College, Red Randolph and C.H. Patterson of Paul Quinn College, E.G. Evans, H.J. Evans and H.J. Starns of Prairie View A&M, D.C. Fuller of Texas College and G. Whitte Jordan of Wiley College — met in Houston, Texas, to discuss common interests. At this meeting, they agreed to form a new league, the SWAC.

Paul Quinn became the first of the original members to withdraw from the league when it did so in 1929. When Langston University of Oklahoma was admitted into the conference two years later, it began the migration of state-supported institutions into the SWAC. Southern University entered the ranks in 1934, followed by Arkansas AM&N (now the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff) in 1936 and Texas Southern University in 1954.

Rapid growth in enrollment of the state-supported schools made it difficult for the church-supported schools to finance their athletics programs and one by one they fell victim to the growing prowess of the state-supported colleges. Bishop withdrew from the conference in 1956, Langston in 1957 and Huston-Tillotson (formerly Samuel Huston) in 1959, one year after the admittance of two more state-supported schools: Grambling College and Jackson State College.

The enter-exit cycle continued in 1961 when Texas College withdrew, followed by the admittance of Alcorn A&M (now Alcorn State University) in 1962. Wiley left in 1968, the same year Mississippi Valley State College entered. Arkansas AM&N exited in 1970 and Alabama State University entered in 1982.

Arkansas–Pine Bluff (formerly Arkansas AM&N) rejoined the SWAC on July 1, 1997, regaining full-member status one year later. Alabama A&M University became the conference's tenth member when it became a full member in September, 1999 after a one year period as an affiliate SWAC member. Most of the former SWAC members that have left the conference are currently a part of the Red River Athletic Conference of the NAIA.

Current championship competition offered by the SWAC includes competition for men in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track, outdoor track & field and tennis. Women's competition is offered in the sports of basketball, bowling, cross country, golf, indoor track, outdoor track & field, soccer, softball, tennis and volleyball.

THE MISSION AND PURPOSE OF THE SWAC

The Southwestern Athletic Conference, Inc. (the "SWAC", the "Conference") is organized exclusively for the purpose of encouraging, promoting, advancing, and conducting intercollegiate sports activities and other recreational and not-for-profit activities among the members of the Conference. Its purposes are:

- To uphold the principles of institutional control of, and responsibility for all collegiate sports conducted by the members of this organization in conformity with the Constitution and Bylaws hereof;
- To stimulate and improve intercollegiate athletic sports;
- To comply with satisfactory standards of scholarship and amateur standing and good sportsmanship;
- To preserve and maintain the collegiate athletic records of the members of the Southwestern Athletic Conference, and make them available upon request;
- To cooperate with other amateur athletic organizations in the promotion and conduct of intercollegiate athletic contests;
- To maintain fiscal management; and
- To legislate through Bylaws or Resolutions on subjects of general concern to the membership.

The members of the conference are committed to the philosophy of maintaining intercollegiate athletics as an integral part of the overall educational program. To this end, the conference believes in and subscribes to the fundamental principles of amateurism, institutional control, sound academic standards, financial aid, recruiting, and ethical conduct that governs intercollegiate athletics, and the enforcement of rules and regulations as adopted by the National Collegiate Athletic Association.
