THE OPENING TIP

University of the Pacific men's basketball team (5-1) is set to compete in the Resorts World Classic, facing off against Jacksonville State (3-3) at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 25 at Resorts World.

Pacific enters Feast Week in Las Vegas on a three-game winning streak and is coming off a narrow 63-62 victory over Bradley at home last Saturday at the Alex G. Spanos Center to complete the season sweep of the Braves.

For the second straight game, Damarion Vann-Kelly led Pacific offensively, scoring a game-high 16 points in 21 minutes off the bench. Vann-Kelly connected on 60 percent (6-for-10) of his attempts and led the Tigers with three three-pointers. He also added one steal to help guide the team defensively.

Coming off the bench in all five appearances this season, Vann-Kelly ranks eighth in the West Coast Conference in bench points per game at 8.8. Pepperdine's Alex Constanza leads the conference at 12.3 points per game in seven appearances off the bench.

CJ Jones continued his consistent start to the campaign, scoring 14 points on 5-of-9 shooting, and led the team with five assists, his third straight game with at least five assists. Jones is first on the team and fourth in the WCC in assists per game at 4.2 and is one of only five players in the league averaging 4.0 assists per game through six games.

A force underneath the rim, Gavin Ripp secured 10 rebounds, recording double-digit boards for the third time, while adding eight points on 57.1 percent (4-of-7) shooting. Following a solid performance on the glass, Ripp increased his season rebound total to 56, tied for second most in the conference.

Adriel Nyorha leads Pacific in scoring, averaging 14.7 points per game. Nyorha has totaled four double-digit scoring performances while reaching the 20-point threshold once. In the game against Bradley, Nyorha recorded eight points on 3-of-11 shooting and knocked down two three-pointers.

SEASON NOTES

THE TURNAROUND UNDER SMART:

The direction of the Pacific men's basketball program has changed dramatically since Dave Smart took over before the start of the 2024–25 season. Pacific finished Smart's first season 9-24 overall and 4-14 in West Coast Conference play beforejumping to 18-15 overall and 8-10 in the WCC last season, doubling both overall and league win totals from Smart's first season at the helm. Pacific's scoring margin improved from -6.2 points per game in 2024–25 to +3.9 in 2025–26; an improvement of 10.1 points per game. The team also improved offensively from 69.5 points per game to 72.7 while reducing their opponent scoring average from 75.8 to 68.8 points per game.

14 NEWCOMERS, ONE TEAM:

Pacific will have to blend one of the newest rosters in the WCC in 2026–27, as Jaion Pitt and Noah Budu are the only two players back from last year's 18-win team, leaving Head Coach Dave Smart with 14 newcomers on the 16-man roster. With 87.5 percent of the roster new to the program, the Tigers look to replace the production from the 2025-26 roster, including Elias Ralph's team-leading scoring, rebounding, and defensive production from last season.

A GLOBAL ROSTER:

The 2026–27 Pacific men's basketball roster features players from six countries. The Tigers have players from the United States, Canada, Croatia, Ireland, North Macedonia, and Spain, with seven total joining the program from outside of the United States. Canada is represented by Jaion Pitt, Nishayne Sharpe, and Adriel Nyorha, while Ivan Matlekovic (Croatia), Vincent Osazee (Ireland), Andrej Mitrevski (North Macedonia), and Jorge Carot (Spain) are featured from countries across the Pacific Ocean.

CANADIAN CONNECTION:

Jaion Pitt, Nishayne Sharpe and Adriel Nyorha are native Canadians, while Dave Smart spent his successful coaching career at Carleton in Ottawa. Nyorha is from Ottawa itself, creating a direct hometown connection to Smart's previous program. During his tenure as head coach at Pacific, Smart has had a total of 11 players come through the the program, including former WCC All-Conference First Team honoree Elias Ralph.

PROTECTING HOME COURT:

Pacific will look to continue rebuilding its home-court advantage in 2026–27. The Tigers recorded an 11-3 record at the Alex G. Spanos Center in 2025–26. The Tigers' home wins included victories over Life Pacific, Long Beach State, Sacramento State, Simpson, Nicholls, Oregon State, Pepperdine, San Diego, Portland, Seattle U, and LMU. Pacific has played its home games at the Alex G. Spanos Center since the arena opened in 1981. Pacific is set to host six nonconference games at the Alex G. Spanos Center during the 2026-27 campaign, including Bethesda, Air Force, Pacific Union, Bradley, Utah Valley, and Southern.

POWER 4 EXPERIENCE:

Five incoming players bring experience from Power 4 conferences to the program, including CJ Jones (Kansas State - Big 12), Dominck Harris (UCLA - Big Ten), Jacob McFarland (Houston - Big 12), Jaylen Thompson (Stanford - Pac-12/ACC), and Ivan Matlekovic (North Carolina - ACC).

THOMPSON REMAINS IN NORCAL:

Jaylen Thompson enters his first season as a member of the Pacific men's basketball program after spending the last four seasons at Stanford. The Oakland, Calif., native attended St. Joseph Notre Dame in Alameda before finishing his prep career at Southern California Academy. 247Sports ranked him No. 67 nationally and as the No. 19 small forward in his recruiting class and was also rated a four-star prospect by ESPN and Rivals.

RIPP KNOWS THE LEAGUE:

Gavin Ripp joins the program in Stockton following two seasons at San Diego. Ripp appeared in 26 games with seven starts in 2025–26, averaging 4.1 points and 2.5 rebounds per game. He started each of the Toreros' final five games and averaged 7.8 points while playing 31.8 minutes per contest during the stretch. In one game in the WCC Championship last season, in his redshirt freshman season, Ripp played a season-high 36 minutes, recording 12 points and five assists against Seattle U.

PITT ON THE INTERNATIONAL STAGE:

Jaion Pitt, one of two players returning from the 2025-26 roster, has competed in four international tournaments during his youth career. Representing Canada on the national stage, Pitt has competed in the 2022 FIBA U17 Basketball World Cup, 2023 FIBA U19 Basketball World Cup, 2024 FIBA U18 Americas Championship, and 2025 FIBA U19 Basketball World Cup.

SEASON NOTES

In the 2024 U18 Americas Championship in Buenos Aires, Argentina, Pitt averaged 9.0 points, 6.7 rebounds, and 1.8 assists in six games, highlighted by an 11-point, six-rebound performance against the Dominican Republic in the bronze medal game. In 27 career games during his youth international career, Pitt is averaging 6.6 points, 5.7 rebounds, and 1.1 assists per game.

POTENTIAL INSTANT OFFENSE:

Damarion Vann-Kelly enters his first season with Pacific following a stint at Northwest Florida State. Van-Kelly native averaged 12.0 points per game with the Raiders last season while shooting 44 percent from the field, 37.2 percent from three and 81.8 percent at the free throw line. He scored in double figures 17 times and reached 20 points six times.

HARRIS' WCC RETURN:

Dominick Harris returns to the West Coast Conference in 2026–27, joining Pacific for his last season of collegiate basketball. The Murrieta, Calif., native began his career at Gonzaga before transferring to LMU. Following a one-year stint at Loyola Chicago, Harris returns to the WCC for his first season with the Tigers. During his collegiate career, Harris has averaged 5.7 points, 1.4 rebounds, and 0.6 assists per game. His best season came in 2023-24 at LMU, where he posted a career-best 14.3 points and 3.3 rebounds per game.

NEW MEMBERS TO THE COACHING STAFF:

Mike Kelly joins the Pacific men's basketball coaching staff as an assistant coach for the 2026-27 season. In his most recent coaching stop prior to Pacific, Kelly was a head coach in China's Chinese Basketball Association, the country's top professional league, where he led the Shenzhen Leopards to a semifinal appearance in 2026. On the international stage, he took the Australian National Team to the 2022 FIBA Asia Cup. He delivered the country its second-ever title after going 6-0 and edging out Lebanon by two points in the final. He also played a role in helping Australia qualify for the 2023 FIBA World Cup, going 3-0 in his three games leading the club during the qualifying matches.

Howard Washington also joined the staff before the 2026-27 season as the Director of Player Development/Assistant Coach. Washington joins the program following a three-year playing career at Syracuse from 2017-20, where he appeared in 41 games. Following his collegiate career, he played two seasons with the Buffalo eXtreme of the American Basketball Association (ABA), receiving an All-ABA honorable mention after leading the team in assists during the 2023–24 season. After once again leading the team in assists during the 2024–25 season, Washington was named to the All-ABA Second Team.

NCAA TOURNAMENT EXPERIENCE:

Ivan Matlekovic was part of a successful High Point team as a freshman in 2024–25. The Panthers compiled a 29-6 overall record and finished first in the Big South Conference at 14-2. Following a Big South Tournament title, defeating Winthrop, 81-69, High Point advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in program history. Matlekovic appeared in five games that season and scored a season-high nine points while adding four rebounds and two blocks against Carolina University. Dominick Harris also has NCAA Tournament experience, appearing in four total games while at Gonzaga, including the national championship game against Baylor in 2021.

TIGERS ON NATIONAL TELEVISION:

For Pacific, the program is set to be featured on a national network five times during West Coast Conference play, including four games on CBS Sports Network and one contest on the ESPN networks. The team will first appear on ESPN on Tuesday, Jan. 12, when it travels to take on LMU at Gersten Pavilion. The Tigers will also face off against Saint Mary's and San Francisco twice on CBS Sports Network during the season. The Tigers have appeared on national televsion three times during the Dave Smart era, dropping games on ESPN2 to Saint Mary's and Santa Clara and on CBS Sports Network to San Francisco last season.

THANKSGIVING IN VEGAS:

Pacific is set to compete in the Resorts World Classic in Las Vegas, Nev., a three-day tournament on Wednesday, Nov. 25 - Friday, Nov. 27. The team is slated to take on Jacksonville State, Omaha, and UC Davis throughout the torunament. The Tigers will compete in a November MTE for the fourth time in the last six years and have compiled a 6-1 record during that span. Last season, the program competed in the Sunshine Slam in Daytona Beach, Fla., and won the Ocean Bracket with a 68-53 victory over Jacksonville.

SEASON NOTES

PERFECT FROM THE FIELD:

Jaion Pitt and Gavin Ripp were perfect from the field in the win over Bethesda, with Pitt going 6-for-6 for 14 points while Ripp knocked down all five of his attempts for 12 points. Pitt and Ripp became the third duo in the last 23 years to connect on all attempts from the field in a single game with at least five attempts. The last time two Tigers totaled a perfect field goal percentage in a game was against Stony Brook on November 24, 2025, when Jaden Clayton and KC Ibekwe combined to shoot a perfect 11-for-11. Christian Maraker and Tim Johnson also went 11-for-11 on January 25, 2003, against Long Beach State.

CAREER NIGHT FOR JAYLEN:

Jaylen Thompson paced Pacific on both sides of the court in the win over Bethesda, recording a career-high 21 points on 70 percent (7-for-10) shooting, seven rebounds, two steals, and one block. Thompson also added three three-pointers while shooting 50 percent (3-for-6) from beyond the arc. He reached the 20-point threshold for the first time in his career and surpassed his previous scoring record of 15 points set while at Stanford against NC State.

STIFLED THE BRAVES:

As a team, Pacific put on an impressive performance, holding Bradley to 28.8 percent shooting, the Braves' lowest team shooting performance since connecting on only 26.8 percent of their attempts at Memphis on December 3, 2019. Through the first two games of the season, Pacific ranks tied for ninth in the nation in scoring defense (49.5) and sixth in field goal percentage defense (28.2).

SHOW OUT FOR US, AD:

Adriel Nyorha totaled career-highs across the board as he led Pacific with 29 points, eight rebounds, and seven assists in 39 minutes of action in the win over Air Force. He shot 57.8 percent (11-of-19) from the field in the and connected on five of his nine attempts from beyond the three-point line. Nyorha is the fourth player in the WCC to score 29 or more points in a single game this season as he fell three points shy of surpassing the single-season scoring mark set by Portland's Jaxon Olvera.

KELLY BROKE OUT:

Damarion Vann-Kelly led all scorers in Pacific's 96-41 win over Pacific Union, recording a season-best 20 points on 7-of-5 shooting and connected on four of his five three-point attempts. Along with his efficient scoring, Vann-Kelly added six rebounds and tied Jaylen Thompson for the team lead in steals with three. His scoring performance marks the sixth time a player has reached the 20-point threshold in a game this season.

Widely regarded as the most successful Canadian college basketball coach of all time, Dave Smart was named head coach of the Pacific men's basketball program in March 2024.

Doubling the team's win total in 2025-26, Smart led Pacific to an 18-15 overall record, the program's first winning season since the 2019-20 campaign. The program also compiled an 8-10 West Coast Conference record and finished in a tie for fifth place in the league standings. Pacific built a true home-court advantage throughout the season, recording an 11-3 record at the Alex G. Spanos Center while earning victories over Life Pacific, Long Beach State, Sacramento State, Simpson, Nicholls, Oregon State, Pepperdine, San Diego, Portland, Seattle U, and LMU.

Smart also coached Elias Ralph to an All-WCC First Team selection, the Tigers' first All-Conference First Team nod since Jahlil Tripp in 2020. Ralph paced the program in multiple statistical categories, including points (16.7), rebounds (6.8), total points (551), three-point percentage (.409), and blocks (32). Smart collected his first victory at the West Coast Conference Championship at Orleans Arena in Las Vegas, defeating Seattle U 61-58 on March 7, 2026 to advance to the quarterfinal round against eventual NCAA Tournament bound Santa Clara.

WCC All-Conference Selections
2025	Lamar Washington	Second Team
2026	Elias Ralph	First Team

In his first season at the helm in 2024-25, Smart began his rebuild and coached Pacific to a 9-24 overall record, while earning four West Coast Conference victories, including a season sweep of Washington State.

Smart arrived at Pacific after serving as an assistant coach at Texas Tech during the 2023-24 season. He previously served as the head coach at Carleton University for 19 seasons, becoming the winningest coach in program history, with 591 career victories.

Smart's background comes from a country that has represented the most NBA players outside the U.S. for 10 consecutive seasons, per basketballnews.com. Furthermore, Canada ranked top-five in last year's final FIBA World Rankings. At the collegiate level, 135 Canadians were on Division I rosters this season and 21 competed in the NCAA Tournament. It included NCAA Naismith Player of the Year Zach Edey (Purdue), a native of Toronto, Ontario.

In 2023-24 at Texas Tech, Smart helped the Red Raiders advance to the NCAA Tournament and finish 23-11 overall and 11-7 in a loaded Big 12 Conference. It came after Texas Tech ended 16-16 overall and 5-13 in conference the year prior to his arrival.

At Carleton, Smart racked up a 591-48 record against U SPORTS (the primary governing body for collegiate athletics in Canada) competition during that time and earned the Stuart W. Aberdeen Memorial Trophy as U SPORTS Coach of the Year a record 10 times.

Smart guided Carleton to 13 U SPORTS Men's Basketball National Championships in 2003-07, 2009, 2011-15, 2017 and 2019. It included 11 OUA Conference Championships, the most by any coach in conference history.

Smart's Carleton teams recorded wins during summer tours against numerous top NCAA programs including Wisconsin, Baylor, Wichita State, Cincinnati, Ole Miss, Providence, Vanderbilt, Alabama, Memphis, TCU, Siena, South Dakota State, Northeastern, and Northern Colorado.

Prior to the 2019-20 season, Smart moved into the role of Director of Basketball Operations at Carleton. He helped the Ravens win another national championship that season.

Along with collegiate coaching experience, Smart was named the assistant coach of the Canadian Senior Men's Basketball National team by Head Coach Jay Triano. In June 2013, the Development Men's National Team (DMNT) completed a sweep of the Four Nations' International Invitational Tournament with a perfect 9-0 record in registering three victories over each of the United States, Latvia, and host-nation China.

Smart was also the assistant coach of the Senior Canadian Men's National Basketball team that finished third at the FIBA Americas Championship in Mexico City. Smart helped Canada to an 8-2 record, including a one-point victory over Mexico in the bronze medal game. At the 2016 FIBA Rio Olympic Qualifying Tournament in Manila, Philippines, coach Smart continued in his role as assistant coach of the SMNT.

He has a record for producing pro-level talent with his collegiate players transitioning to professional basketball, including: Paul Larmand, Josh Poirier, Osvaldo Jeanty, Aaron Doornekamp, Stu Turnbull, Ryan Bell, Kevin McCleery, Willy Manigat, Tyson Hinz, Thomas Scrubb, Philip Scrubb, Guillaume Payen Boucard, Kaza Kajami-Keane, Connor Wood, Ryan Ejim and Joe Rocca.

Smart was named recipient of the Pat O'Brien Award as Ravens' Coach of the Year on six occasions (2003, 2005, 2008-2009, 2015, and 2019).

A graduate of Queen's University, Smart was inducted into the Ottawa Sports Hall of Fame in 2021. He was also a coaching consultant for the Ottawa Senators of the National Hockey League, focusing on defensive mindsets and player attitude, and was the general manager of the Ottawa BlackJacks of the Canadian Basketball League.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

Dave Smart won 92 percent of his games against Canadian opposition between 1999 and 2019. He led Carleton to a Canadian men's record of 87 consecutive wins in league and playoff games, from 2002 to 2005.

2x

Smart doubled Pacific's win total from his first season in 2024-25, winning nine games, to 18 last season in 2025-26. The last time a Pacific team doubled its win total was in 2013-14, when Bob Thomason led the Tigers to a 23-12 record and an NCAA Tournament berth following an 11-19 mark in 2011-12.

11

Smart's 11 OUA championships are the most by any coach in conference history, and his teams also beat a collection of NCAA Division I programs during exhibition/summer competition, including Wisconsin, Baylor, Wichita State, Cincinnati, Ole Miss, Providence, Vanderbilt, Alabama, Memphis and TCU.

7

Consecutive Carleton national championships from 2011–17, matching Victoria's Canadian university record. Smart coached six of those seven championship teams, missing 2016 while on sabbatical.

To establish a coach's challenge on called out of bounds plays, called basket interference/goaltending plays, and restricted area plays throughout the game. Coaches will be permitted one challenge provided they have at least one legal timeout remaining. If the challenge is successful, the coach will be awarded a second, and final, challenge and will retain their timeout. If the challenge is unsuccessful, the coach will lose their challenge and timeout. In the last two minutes of the game and any overtime period, no challenge is needed on all called basket interference goaltending plays and restricted area plays as officials will review those plays as they currently do now.

Pacific is one of just 47 schools in college basketball history to produce a No. 1 overall NBA Draft pick. The Tigers are also the lone WCC school to have a No. 1 overall selection. Michael Olowokandi achieved the milestone when the Los Angeles Clippers selected him first overall in the 1998 NBA Draft.
