2025 FOOTBALL MEDIA GUIDE

SMART. TOUGH.
COMPETITIVE.

KIDD BREWER STADIUM

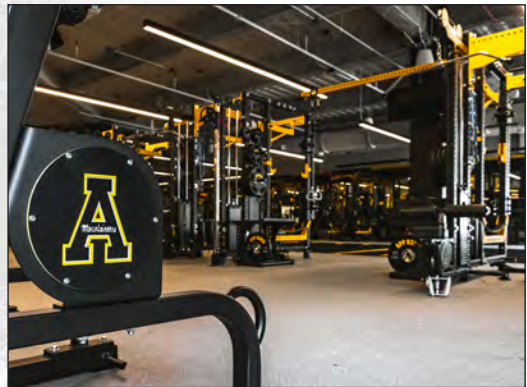

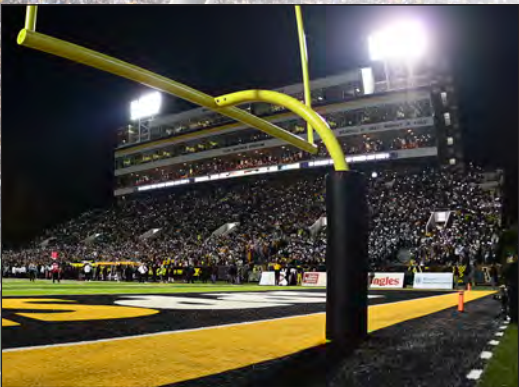

Nestled on the App State campus with towering Blue Ridge Mountain peaks rising around it, Kidd Brewer Stadium has always boasted one of the most picturesque settings in college football, with ESPN ranking it as a top-25 venue in the nation.

With the completion of the $50 million north end zone facility in 2021, The Rock also offers top-of-the-line modern amenities for Mountaineer student-athletes, fans and the university community.

The facility houses a football locker room, weight room, offices and team areas, as well as 1,000 club level seats, athletic training spaces, retail and dining service facilities. At the front entrance is the Jerry Moore Plaza and a statue of the Hall of Fame coach.

With 63 seasons completed in the stadium, which opened as Conrad Stadium on Sept. 15, 1962, App State entered the 2025 season with a 277-81-5 all-time record at The Rock.

ESPN'S COLLEGE GAMEDAY VISIT

The 2022 season featured an oversized share of historic moments for the App State football program, from a record-breaking home opener against North Carolina to a top-10 upset at Texas A&M to hosting ESPN College GameDay for the first time to a wild Hail Mary win over the eventual league champions.

WINNING TRADITION

TRADITION

Playing the 1,000th game in program history during the 2020 season, App State has proven itself as a championship-caliber program at both the FCS and FBS levels. The Mountaineers' run to three straight FCS national titles from 2005-07 included the historic 34-32 upset of No. 5 Michigan in 2007, and App State ended the 2023 season with a seventh bowl victory in eight appearances.

Joey Aguilar and the Mountaineers were presented with the 2023 Cure Bowl trophy after their rain-soaked 13-9 win over Miami.

App State rushed for 500 yards, including 317 from Cam Peoples, in a 56-28 win over North Texas in the 2020 Myrtle Beach Bowl.

Jordan Fehr (center) leads the celebration following App State's 45-38 win against Louisiana in the 2019 Sun Belt title game.

Led by interim head coach Mark Ivey, App State posted a 45-13 win against Middle Tennessee in the 2018 New Orleans Bowl.

Team captain MyQuon Stout lifts the trophy following a 30-19 win over Louisiana in the first-ever Sun Belt title game.

App State shut out high-scoring Toledo en route to a 34-0 victory in the 2017 Dollar General Bowl in Mobile, Ala.

The Mountaineers clinched a Sun Belt title by closing the regular season with a 63-14 win against Louisiana on Senior Day.

Thanks to a tiebreaking field goal with 5:41 left, App State won 31-28 against Toledo in a return trip to the 2016 Camellia Bowl.

In Las Cruces, Marcus Cox helped App State earn a share of its first FBS league title with a win at former Sun Belt foe New Mexico State.

Making its FBS postseason debut, App State kicked a 23-yard FG as time expired in a 31-29 win against Ohio in the 2015 Camellia Bowl.

SUN BELT CONFERENCE

The July 1, 2022 additions of four new members to the Sun Belt Conference - James Madison, Marshall, Old Dominion and Southern Miss - made the Sun Belt one of the premier conferences in college football. Traditions of excellence combined with passionate fan bases and regional rivalries give the league a distinct advantage.

The Sun Belt Conference was founded in 1976, began sponsoring football in 2001 and currently sponsors 18 NCAA sports. The conference currently includes App State, Arkansas State, Coastal Carolina, Georgia Southern, Georgia State, James Madison, Louisiana, ULM, Marshall, Old Dominion, South Alabama, Southern Miss, Texas State and Troy for the 2025 season. App State joined in its move up to the FBS ranks in 2014.

In July 2025, the Sun Belt announced that Louisiana Tech will join the Sun Belt Conference no later than July 1, 2027, replacing Texas State.

App State won the first two Sun Belt Championship Game titles in 2018 and 2019. Running back Darrynton Evans, posing with commissioner Keith Gill, won the MVP belt both times.

DR. HEATHER HULBERT NORRIS | CHANCELLOR

assumed her role as chancellor of Appalachian State University on March 1, 2025, upon being elected to the position by the University of North Carolina System Board of Governors.

Her career has been characterized by her strong, collaborative leadership and service to both App State and the greater community, and she brings more than two decades of academic leadership, vision and expertise to her role as chancellor.

Norris has overseen strategically managed enrollment growth at the university, with App State experiencing significant growth in both the Hickory campus and App State Online student populations for 2024–25, as well as a record enrollment of students for the spring 2025 semester. Her leadership at App State has demonstrated a strong emphasis on developing and advancing new models and markets for academic delivery and expanding access to education for more people in North Carolina.

She joined the university in 2003 as an experienced assistant professor in the Walker College of Business and rose steadily through the academic ranks to become the seventh dean of Walker College in 2016.

In recognition of her trusted leadership and her passion for advancing the success of App State, Norris was appointed interim provost and executive vice chancellor in February 2020, assuming full responsibilities in May 2021. In this capacity, she oversaw the strategic direction of academic affairs, ensuring continuity and resilience in academic operations during the pandemic.

Norris served as interim chancellor from April 2024 to March 2025. During this time, she increased fundraising, bolstered community relationships and led the university through its response and recovery efforts in the aftermath of Hurricane Helene.

Norris has built a reputation of leading by example, serving to inspire the faculty, staff and administrators who have worked alongside her, as well as the students she has taught and mentored. She is dedicated to community engagement, driving innovation, fostering key partnerships, and facilitating excellence in teaching, learning, research and student success.

DOUG GILLIN | DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Entering his 11th year in Boone, Doug Gillin has overseen the rise of App State Athletics as a nationally relevant program at the highest level of college sports.

Hired as Director of Athletics on Feb. 27, 2015 and officially beginning the role on April 6, 2015, Gillin has overseen progress in all facets of an athletics department that was in the beginning stages of its transition from FCS football and Southern Conference membership to FBS football and the Sun Belt Conference upon his arrival.

One of four national Under Armour Athletics Directors of the Year in 2019-20, Gillin has led the way for App State to be recognized as one of the hottest rising athletics departments thanks to Mountaineer student-athletes outpacing peers academically; major facility and game day experience enhancements; negotiating home football games against top-tier programs; record-setting donations and fan engagement; and raising the school's national profile with championship-winning programs and elevated media exposure.

Under Gillin, part of App State Athletics' stated mission is to "support the educational mission of the university," doing so by adhering to four core values:

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: App State student-athletes completed their 26th straight semester with a 3.0 cumulative GPA in the spring of 2025. The Mountaineers regularly lead Sun Belt schools in student-athlete grade point average and academic honor roll members.

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY: With 14,460 volunteer hours by its student-athletes in 2019-20, App State Athletics finished second overall in the NCAA Division I Team Works Community Service competition organized by Helper Helper. During the 2023-24 year, the Mountaineers once again ranked in the top 20 among all Division I schools in the charitable competition.

COMPETITIVE EXCELLENCE: Gillin has helped oversee one of the most successful transitions to the FBS level of football in history.

App State was the first college football program to win bowl games in each of its first six eligible FBS seasons and to earn a bowl berth in each of its first seven eligible seasons. The Mountaineers are 7-1 in bowl games, and the team's 93 wins from 2015-24 ranked in the top 10 nationally among FBS schools.

The Mountaineers won four straight Sun Belt championships from 2016-19 and added East division titles in 2021 and 2023. In 2022, App State followed a 17-14 win at No. 6 Texas A&M by hosting ESPN's College GameDay for the first time.

The 2019 squad became the first Sun Belt or North Carolina FBS school to win 13 games. It finished 18th and 19th in the national polls, the best by a Sun Belt school at the time.

In the 2023 calendar year alone, App State produced wins over top-25 teams in football (No. 18 James Madison), baseball (No. 8 Coastal Carolina and No. 16 Southern Miss), softball (No. 23 Louisiana), wrestling (No. 21 North Carolina) and field hockey (No. 8 Louisville).

While navigating the many challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020-21, the men's basketball team captured its first Sun Belt Tournament Championship and earned its first NCAA Tournament berth since 2000. The Mountaineers won the Sun Belt regular-season title in 2024 and entered the postseason with a 26-5 record.

Other team championships under Gillin's watch include 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2022, 2023, 2024 and 2025 SoCon wrestling; 2016 Sun Belt women's indoor track and field; 2016, 2018 and 2024 Sun Belt women's cross country; 2017, 2019, 2023 and 2024 Sun Belt men's cross country; 2019 Sun Belt women's tennis; 2023 and 2024 MAC field hockey; and the 2019 WBI tournament.

WORLD-CLASS EXPERIENCE: An emphasis on enhancing the health and well-being for App State student-athletes has seen the institution of the AppFuel nutrition program, the hiring of the department's first full-time dietitian (and then adding another) and first full-time sports psychologist

THE GILLIN FAMILY

(and then adding another) and a bolstering of the availability of team physicians, orthopedic care and physical therapists.

Thanks to record-breaking fundraising and innovative community partnerships, major facility projects that have been completed under Gillin's watch include the Kidd Brewer Stadium north end zone facility, the Randy Marion Track & Field Facility at Appalachian 105, the new Sywassink/Lloyd Family Stadium for softball at Appalachian 105, the App State Tennis Courts at Appalachian 105, the Mark E. Harrill Basketball Practice Facility, video boards at Kidd Brewer and the Holmes Convocation Center, and new AstroTurf fields at football, baseball and soccer. Ongoing upgrades are in the works for almost every App State sport as part of a current fundraising initiative that will help the Mountaineers continue to compete at a championship level in the improved Sun Belt Conference.

Gillin, who served on the NCAA Division I Football Oversight Committee from 2020-23, was previously the deputy director of athletics at the University of Missouri from 2012-15, playing a prominent role in the Tigers' transition to the Southeastern Conference. He also spent time early in his career on college campuses at Lehigh, New Mexico, Missouri and Syracuse, while holding senior leadership positions at ISP Sports/IMG College from 2002-12.

The Binghamton, N.Y., native was a four-year letterman in ice hockey at SUNY Cortland from 1987-91. He graduated from SUNY Cortland in 1991 with a B.S. in physical education (sports management concentration). He went on to earn a master's degree in physical education from Ohio University in 1993.

Gillin and his wife, Leslie, have three children: daughters Shea and Lia and son Chase.

DOWELL LOGGAINS

HEAD COACH
FIRST SEASON
ARKANSAS, 2003

A respected offensive play-caller at both the NFL and college levels, Dowell Loggains was named the head coach of App State Football on Dec. 7, 2024.

Hired at the age of 44, Loggains (pronounced LOG-ins) became the 23rd head football coach in program history. His five-year contract runs through the 2029 season.

Before serving as South Carolina's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the 2023 and 2024 seasons, Loggains was an assistant for two years at his alma mater, Arkansas, after spending 16 years in the NFL. That includes his time as an offensive coordinator or quarterbacks coach for the Tennessee Titans (2010-13), Cleveland Browns (2014), Chicago Bears (2015-17), Miami Dolphins (2018) and New York Jets (2019-20).

Loggains' offense during the 2024 season helped the Gamecocks reach the brink of the College Football Playoff with a 9-3 regular-season record that included wins over Oklahoma, Texas A&M, Missouri and Clemson. South Carolina had the third-best rushing offense in the SEC during the regular season at 188.9 yards per game while ranking top 50 in the country in scoring, yardage, rushing, first downs and completion percentage.

He developed redshirt freshman LaNorris Sellers into one of college football's most dangerous dual-threat quarterbacks. Under Loggains' watch, Sellers threw for 2,274 yards with 17 touchdowns while also rushing for 655 yards and seven scores against one of the country's toughest schedules. He ranked 20th nationally in passing efficiency, 14th in yards per attempt, 25th in yards per completion, 28th in total offense and 35th in completion percentage.

Loggains also found success utilizing Raheim "Rocket" Sanders, one of the SEC's best running backs, to form a dynamic rushing attack.

In his first season in Columbia, Loggains turned future NFL quarterback Spencer Rattler and a future NFL first-round draft pick, wide receiver Xavier Legette, into one of the most lethal pass-and-catch combinations in the country.

Loggains spent the 2021 and 2022 seasons as the Arkansas Razorbacks' tight ends coach, earning a reputation as a top-25 national recruiter there.

During his decade-plus as an NFL coordinator and quarterbacks coach, he mentored the likes of Sam Darnold, Jay Cutler, Mitchell Trubisky, Brian Hoyer and Vince Young at quarterback, as well as running backs Chris Johnson, Kenyan Drake and Jordan Howard.

Loggains graduated from the University of Arkansas with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 2003 and a master's degree in education in 2005. He walked on to the Razorback football program in 2000 as a quarterback and holder before earning a scholarship and becoming a four-year letterman, appearing in 50 games.

Loggains and his wife, Beth, have four children: daughters Reese, Aven and Conner, and son, Rynne.

In Columbia, Rattler set a school record by completing 68.9 percent of his pass attempts for 3,186 yards, the third-highest single-season total in school history. Legette caught 71 passes for 1,255 yards, the second-highest receiving yards mark in the South Carolina record books.

Before returning to his alma mater of Arkansas, Loggains served as the New York Jets' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2019 and 2020. During his first season with the Jets, he guided an offense that was among the league's most proficient on opening drives, scoring 40 first-possession points. Darnold's numbers improved from his rookie campaign, increasing his completion percentage, passing yards, touchdown passes and passer rating while also lowering his interceptions.

Loggains oversaw a Miami offense that averaged 4.68 yards per rush in 2018, the NFL's ninth-best mark. The Dolphins also ranked second in the league with 14 passing touchdowns of 20-plus yards. Drake became one of just nine players in the league to register at least four rushing and receiving touchdowns while producing over 1,000 total yards.

Loggains began a three-year stint in Chicago in 2015 as the Bears' quarterbacks coach, where he mentored Cutler to a career season, as the veteran posted then single-season bests in passer rating and yards per attempt, all while reducing his interception total by seven from the previous season.

Loggains was promoted to the Bears' offensive coordinator in 2016 and helped Howard finish sixth in the league with 1,313 yards rushing as a rookie. In 2017, he helped Trubisky, the second overall selection in the draft, transition to NFL starter and finish second among rookie passers in yards and passer rating in 12 starts.

Loggains also groomed another rookie, fourth-round pick Tarik Cohen, that season. The running back became the first rookie since 1965 and first player since 1975 to record a rushing, passing, receiving and punt return touchdown in the same season. Howard and guard Josh Sitton earned Pro Bowl selections under Loggains' watch during the year, as Howard again produced 1,000-plus yards rushing.

Loggains worked as the Cleveland Browns quarterbacks coach in 2014 under offensive coordinator Kyle Shanahan. He helped Hoyer to a career season, as the six-year veteran won seven games (in 13 starts) and threw for over 3,000 yards while the offense produced 31 passes of 25-plus yards, the 10th most of any team in the league.

Loggains began his coaching career with Tennessee in 2006 and spent eight seasons with the Titans in a variety of roles, ultimately serving as the offensive coordinator for part of 2012 and all of 2013. After head coach Mike Munchak elevated him to full-time offensive coordinator, he helped wide receiver Kendall Wright and Johnson become just the organization's fifth 1,000-yard receiving/rushing combo, as Wright brought in 94 catches for 1,079 yards and Johnson gained 1,077 rushing yards.

Loggains joined the Titans as a coaching administrative assistant (2006-07) and quality control coach (2008-09) before spending the next three seasons as the quarterbacks/passing game coordinator, helping Young achieve a career-high passer rating in 2010 and garner a Pro Bowl appearance.

Loggains' first professional experience came with the Dallas Cowboys as a scouting assistant in 2005. In that role, he helped the Cowboys with opponent film breakdown and statistical analysis to be used for game-plan preparation.

CLYDE CHRISTENSEN

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
1ST SEASON AT APP STATE
47TH SEASON OVERALL
ALMA MATER: NORTH CAROLINA, 1978

Clyde Christensen, who has coached the likes of Tom Brady, Peyton Manning, Andrew Luck, Marvin Harrison and Jameis Winston during his noteworthy career, was hired as App State's associate head coach in January 2025.

A two-time Super Bowl winner, with Manning and Brady ending those 2006 and 2020 seasons as Super Bowl MVPs, Christensen spent 27 years in the NFL before serving on staff at North Carolina from 2023-24, working closely with Drake Maye.

Christensen was a volunteer analyst at UNC in 2023 before becoming senior advisor to the head coach in 2024. He arrived in Chapel Hill following a four-year stint as the quarterbacks coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, whom he helped lead to the Super Bowl LV title following the 2020 season.

As his position coach for the final three years of Brady's legendary career, Christensen helped Brady reach some of the loftiest achievements in NFL history.

During the 2022 season, Christensen helped Brady lead the league in pass attempts (733) and completions (490) while finishing third in passing yards (4,694), fourth in passing yards per game (276.1) and eighth in passing TDs (25).

In 2021, Brady led the NFL in passing yards (5,316), passing touchdowns (43), pass completions (485) and pass attempts (719), joining Drew Brees (2008) and Manning (2013) as the only players to have led the league in all four categories in a single season since 1991. Brady also earned his NFL-record 15th Pro Bowl selection. His 5,316 passing yards marked a career high and were the third-most in NFL history. In addition, Brady's passing and yardage totals in 2021 each set new single-season franchise records. With Christensen's assistance, Brady also led the NFL in 2021 in passing first downs (269), completions of 20+ yards (75) and completions of 25+ yards (42) while tying for first in both 300-yard passing games (nine) and 400-yard passing games (three).

In 2020, Christensen coached Brady through his first year with Tampa Bay following 20 seasons with the New England Patriots. With Christensen's assistance, Brady led the Buccaneers to a Super Bowl LV victory, setting a franchise record with 40 passing touchdowns, which also broke the NFL record for the highest total by a player in his first season with a team. Brady tied for the second-most touchdown passes in the NFL in 2020 and he also ranked second in completions (401), third in passing yards (4,633), sixth in passing touchdown percentage (6.6) and seventh in touchdown-to-interception ratio (3.33). He was the only quarterback in 2020 to finish in the top three in both passing yards and passing touchdowns. As a team, Tampa Bay ranked third in the NFL in points scored per game (30.8), fourth in passing yards per game (298.5) and seventh in total offense (384.1).

The tandem's success carried over into the postseason, during which Brady's 10 touchdown passes, 1,061 passing yards and 81 completions all set franchise records for the most by a player in a single postseason.

In his first season with the Bucs in 2019, Christensen mentored Winston, who guided an offense that led the league in passing at 302.8 yards per game and ranked third in total offense at 397.9 yards per contest. Under Christensen's guidance, Winston set franchise records with 5,109 passing yards, 33 touchdowns and 380 completions. In 2019, Winston led the NFL in passing yards, ranked second in the league in passing touchdowns and finished tied for fifth with an 8.2 yards per attempt mark.

Christensen's NFL career also included a first stint with the Buccaneers (1996-2001) as well as time with the Indianapolis Colts (2002-15) and Miami Dolphins (2016-18). His first NFL coaching experience came with Tampa Bay, serving as the team's tight ends coach (1996-98) before he became the quarterbacks coach (1999-2000). In 2001, Christensen worked as the Buccaneers' offensive coordinator, helping wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson set a franchise record with 106 receptions.

Following his first stint with Tampa Bay, Christensen spent 14 seasons with the Indianapolis Colts and helped the team win Super Bowl XLI. He first worked as the wide receivers coach (2002-07) before adding assistant head coach (2008-09) to his title. During his time coaching the receivers, Christensen tutored Hall of Famer Harrison and perennial Pro Bowler Reggie Wayne, who rank first and second in nearly every receiving category in Colts history. During that time, Harrison was a two-time first-team AP All-Pro and earned five Pro Bowl berths, while Wayne earned four Pro Bowl berths and a first-team AP All-Pro selection. Wayne also earned Pro Bowl berths in 2009 and 2010.

Christensen spent two seasons as the Colts' offensive coordinator (2010-11), working with Manning in 2010, who set then-career-highs and then-single season franchise records for completions (450), attempts (679) and yards (4,700).

Christensen took over as quarterbacks coach for his final four seasons with the Colts (2012-15), coaching Luck, the No. 1 pick in the 2012 NFL Draft. Luck set NFL rookie records in passing yards (4,374) and 300-yard passing games (six) while breaking the league record for single-game passing yards by a rookie (433 vs. Miami). In 2014, Luck set the single-season franchise record for passing yards (4,761) and led the NFL in passing TDs, with 40, earning his third consecutive Pro Bowl selection and helping lead the Colts to the AFC Championship Game.

Christensen spent 17 years as a college coach before entering the NFL, working at Clemson (1994-95), Maryland (1992-93), South Carolina (1991), Holy Cross (1989-90), East Carolina (1986-88), Temple (1983-95), East Tennessee State (1980-82) and Ole Miss (1979).

A native of Covina, Calif., Christensen played at Fresno City Junior College before finishing his collegiate career at North Carolina (1977-78). He and his wife, Debbie, have three daughters (Rachel, Rebecca, Ruth) and six grandchildren.

DJ SMITH

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/LINEBACKERS
5TH SEASON AT APP STATE (1ST BACK IN BOONE)
ALMA MATER: APP STATE, 2010

App State alum DJ Smith, a championship-winning player and coach during his previous tenures on the mountain, was tabbed as the program's defensive coordinator and linebackers coach by head coach Dowell Loggains in December 2024.

One of the best linebackers in school history who also played four years in the NFL, Smith spent the previous five seasons on Elijah Drinkwitz's Missouri staff, including the last three as co-defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

Smith helped Mizzou make bowl appearances in each of his last four seasons there. The Tigers were led by a top-25 scoring defense in each of the last two years on their way to a 20-5 record entering the Music City Bowl.

In 2024, Smith's linebackers helped Missouri boast a top-20 scoring defense (19th, 20.1 points per game) and total defense (20th, 319.3 yards per game) as one of the SEC's best units.

Missouri's defense was 25th nationally allowing 20.8 points per game en route to an 11-2 season in 2023. Smith's pupil Ty'Ron Hopper earned All-SEC honors, was a Butkus Award finalist for the nation's best linebacker and was chosen in the third round (No. 91 overall) of the 2024 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers.

Smith also mentored one of the nation's best linebackers and one of the most decorated in Missouri history in his first year in Columbia. Nick Bolton led the SEC with 67 solo tackles in 2020 on his way to second-team All-America recogdition (from six different outlets) and first-team All-SEC honors. He was named a Butkus Award finalist, a Jason Witten Man of the Year semifinalist and a member of the SEC Community Service Team before being selected in the second round (No. 58 overall) of the 2021 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs.

Smith's two-year tenure as App State's outside linebackers coach coincided with two of the best seasons in school history. The Mountaineers won 24 of 27 games during that span under two different head coaches and defensive coordinators, with the defense ranking fourth in the country in scoring in 2018 (15.5 points per game) and 21st in 2019 (20 points per game).

Working under Drinkwitz in 2019, Smith helped lead the Mountaineers to a Sun Belt title with a 12-1 overall record and a No. 20 national ranking before being hired at Missouri prior to App State's win in the 2019 New Orleans Bowl.

Smith's outside linebackers were a big reason why App State won the first two Sun Belt Championship games in 2018 and 2019. Akeem Davis-Gaither, who was a team captain with Cincinnati before joining the Arizona Cardinals, was the 2019 Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year, while Noel Cook earned All-Sun Belt honorable mention. Davis-Gaither and Cook also earned all-league recognition in 2018.

Throughout his first four years after returning to the staff at his alma mater, App State amassed a 42-10 overall record, won or shared four-straight Sun Belt championships, and went a perfect 4-0 in bowl games. He joined Scott Satterfield's staff in 2016 as the director of recruiting relations and worked in 2017 as a senior defensive analyst.

Smith amassed 525 tackles as an App State linebacker from 2007-10 and played four NFL seasons.

A Charlotte native, Smith started the final nine games of App State's 2007 national championship run as a true freshman and had more than 120 tackles in each of his four college seasons, including two in which he earned first-team All-America recognition. He finished his career with 50 straight starts and ranks second behind only Dexter Coakley on the App State career tackles list.

A sixth-round draft pick by the Green Bay Packers in 2011, he made three starts in 16 games as a rookie and started six more games the following year. He totaled 82 tackles, two sacks and one interception with the Packers before spending time with the San Diego Chargers, Houston Texans, Carolina Panthers and Cleveland Browns from 2013-14.

Smith and his wife, Charla, are parents to a son, Carter.

JEFF CROSBY

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

ALMA MATER: NORTHERN ARIZONA, 2015

App State Football announced the hiring of Jeff Crosby as the Mountaineers' special teams coordinator in January 2025.

Crosby assisted with the Texas Longhorns' special teams from 2021-24 after similar stints at Washington and Southern Miss.

In his 10 years on staffs at the FBS level, Crosby has worked with two College Football Playoff teams and eight bowl teams, including appearances at the Cotton, Fiesta, Peach, Rose and Sugar Bowls.

In Texas' first season in the SEC and fourth under head coach Steve Sarkisian in 2024, Crosby worked with a Longhorns team that went 11-1 in the regular season and lost to Georgia in overtime in the SEC Championship Game before going 2-1 in the CFP with wins over Clemson and Arizona State and a loss to Ohio State in the semifinals. Kicker Bert Auburn broke the all-time school record for field goals made. The Longhorns' kick return defense led the SEC and ranked 13th nationally at 16.57 yards per return, while the punt return unit was fourth in the SEC and top 40 nationally at 10.5 yards per return.

In 2023, Auburn connected on a Big 12-record 19 consecutive field goals on his way to All-Big 12 first-team honors. He was joined on the first team by Xavier Worthy, who led the Big 12 and ranked second in the nation averaging 16.9 yards per punt return. As a unit, Texas also ranked 10th in the nation with three blocked kicks and was 16th in the nation with a net punting average of 41.76.

The 2022 season saw Auburn make 21 of 26 field goal attempts in his first season as the starting kicker. Texas blocked four kicks, the 10th-most in the nation, including three punts, the seventh-best mark in the FBS. The Longhorns were 14th in the nation in punt return defense (3.09 yards/return) and 22nd in kickoff return defense (17.23 yards/return).

In Crosby's first season in Austin in 2021, Texas tied for the FBS lead with four blocked punts while ranking fourth nationally with five total blocked kicks. Additionally, the Longhorns ranked 10th in the nation in punt return average allowed (2.86) and 38th in punt return average (10.13). Cameron Dicker was named a semifinalist for the Ray Guy Award while also being named first-team All-Big 12 as a punter and honorable mention as a placekicker after ranking ninth nationally in punting average (46.8 ypp) and 14th in field-goal percentage.

In his four seasons in Seattle with head coaches Chris Petersen and Jimmy Lake, Washington compiled a 31-13 record with three bowl appearances. In 2017, the special teams unit included a consensus All-American in Dante Pettis, who set an NCAA record for career punt return touchdowns.

Crosby earned his first FBS position as an offensive quality control coach at Southern Miss in 2015 before transitioning to special teams in 2016.

A quarterback at Bakersfield College and Cal Lutheran, Crosby graduated with a bachelor's degree from Northern Arizona University in 2015. He is married to Hanna Ralston.

CURTIS FULLER

DEFENSIVE PASS GAME COORDINATOR/DEFENSIVE BACKS

20TH SEASON OVERALL

ALMA MATER: TCU, 2000

Curtis Fuller joined Dowell Loggains' first App State staff as the defensive pass game coordinator and defensive backs coach in December 2024.

A former NFL player and coach, Fuller spent the previous two seasons in the Sun Belt Conference as the cornerbacks coach at Coastal Carolina, which totaled 25 interceptions and four pick-six touchdown returns in that time.

Fuller played four seasons as an NFL defensive back after being a fourth-round draft pick and worked in the NFL for more than a decade, winning a Super Bowl title with the Green Bay Packers following the 2010 season and working closely with App State alum Steve Wilks as members of the Carolina Panthers' defensive staff from 2013-17. After Wilks became the Arizona Cardinals' head coach in 2018, he hired Fuller, who later became a high school coach in North Carolina and returned to the college game as an assistant coach in 2022.

Fuller was the Panthers' assistant defensive backs/nickels coach during a 2015 season in which Carolina, which had an NFL-leading 24 interceptions, followed a 15-1 regular season with a berth in Super Bowl 50. He took over as the Panthers' defensive backs coach when Wilks vacated that spot to become the defensive coordinator in 2017.

During his time in the NFL, Fuller coached the likes of Charles Woodson, Patrick Peterson, Budda Baker, Josh Norman, James Bradberry, Captain Munnerlyn, Shaq Thompson, Michael Griffin, Cortland Finnegan, Colin Jones and Mike Adams.

After returning to Charlotte and coaching at Myers Park High School from 2019-21, including an 8-4 season with a share of a conference title as the head coach in 2021, Fuller went back to his home state of Texas and served as the safeties coach at Texas A&M-Commerce in 2022. The Lions led the Southland Conference in total defense, scoring defense and passing defense.

In Fuller's first season at Coastal Carolina in 2023, the Chanticleers ranked second behind App State in the Sun Belt with 14 interceptions, with their cornerbacks totaling 23 pass breakups. During the 2024 season, Coastal had 11 interceptions and 35 pass breakups.

A native of Fort Worth, Fuller began his collegiate career at Tyler Junior College and was a three-year starter at safety for TCU, where he served as the president of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He played in 32 games for TCU from 1998-2000, totaling 243 tackles and three interceptions before being a fourth-round pick of the Seattle Seahawks in 2001. Fuller also played for the Green Bay Packers and Carolina Panthers, concluding his career in 2004.

The path to a coaching career began with him joining the Dallas Cowboys and coach Bill Parcells as a volunteer scout in 2006. He joined the Oakland Raiders' staff as an assistant in 2007 and worked for the Packers from 2009-10, serving as an assistant special teams coach and defensive assistant for a team that won Super Bowl 45.

Fuller was an assistant with the Titans when Loggains was the franchise's passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2011. They both developed connections with James Franklin, who also was coaching in Nashville at Vanderbilt, and Fuller volunteered for Franklin at Vanderbilt during the 2012 season.

He and his wife, Rachel, have two children – Carolina and Anthony.

ANTHONY SHAKIR

DEFENSIVE RECRUITING COORDINATOR/EDGES
4TH SEASON AT APP STATE (1ST BACK IN BOONE)
12TH SEASON OVERALL
ALMA MATER: BREVARD, 2014

Anthony Shakir was hired as the defensive recruiting coordinator and edges coach in January 2025.

Shakir was a member of App State's defensive staff from 2018-20, serving as a defensive analyst during an 11-2 season in 2018, then a quality control assistant for the defense during a 13-1 season in 2019 and 9-3 season in 2020.

He has been a Division I defensive line coach in each of the previous four seasons, holding that role at ETSU (2021) and Chattanooga (2022-23) before elevating to an FBS defensive line coach at Ball State in 2024.

During Shakir's three seasons in Boone, including two working alongside new App State defensive coordinator DJ Smith, the Mountaineers allowed 15.5 points, 20.0 points and 20.0 points per game while going a combined 33-6 with two Sun Belt Conference titles and three bowl victories.

In 2018, App State ranked No. 4 nationally in scoring defense and set a Sun Belt record by allowing only 20 defensive touchdowns.

Shakir enjoyed success overseeing defensive lines after leaving Boone following the 2020 season.

ETSU's defensive line accounted for 128 tackles, 8.5 tackles for loss, 6.0 sacks, three fumble recoveries and three forced fumbles during a 2021 season highlighted by a SoCon title, an FCS quarterfinal appearance and an 11-2 final record.

Before ranking 11th nationally in sacks per game in 2023, when Chattanooga reached the second round of the FCS playoffs, the Mocs ranked fifth nationally at 3.18 in sacks per game in 2022 during a season in which they also led the SoCon in total defense (322.6 yards allowed per game), rushing defense (108.0 yards allowed per game), tackles for loss (7.4 per game) and fumbles recovered (11). All-America defensive lineman Devonsha Maxwell recorded eight sacks under Shakir's watch in 2022 before signing with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Ball State recorded 20 sacks during the 2024 season, led by 5.5 sacks and 8.5 tackles for loss from defensive lineman Riley Tolsma.

A native of Loganville, Ga., Shakir had a successful playing career at Division II Brevard College, starting all four years at the outside linebacker position and being named a defensive captain as a senior in 2013. He graduated from Brevard in 2014 from with a degree in psychology, minoring in business and organizational leadership.

He coached linebackers and special teams at his alma mater before spending two years as a high school coach and coaching linebackers at the University of Rochester in 2017.

Shakir and his wife, Teresa, have two daughters: Josie and Violet.

KEITH JONES JR.

DEFENSIVE LINE

5TH SEASON OVERALL

ALMA MATER: UT MARTIN, 2016

Keith Jones Jr. was hired as App State's defensive line coach in January 2025.

Jones arrived in Boone after spending the previous two seasons as a member of the New England

Patriots' coaching staff.

Jones assisted with coaching the Patriots' defensive line from 2023-24 after also assisting the defensive line groups in graduate assistant roles at Arkansas in 2022 and Arkansas State in 2021. Dowell Loggains and Jones worked together on staff with the Razorbacks during the 2022 season, when they led the SEC with a program-record 42 sacks.

Jones earned his first opportunity with the Patriots while working the 2022 training camp as part of the Bill Walsh Diversity Fellowship.

Following an award-winning playing career in college and the Indoor Football League, Jones got his coaching start overseeing the defensive tackles at Missouri Southern State University in 2020.

A native of Florissant, Mo., just outside of St. Louis, Jones was a standout defensive lineman at UT Martin, where he was a second-team All-Ohio Valley Conference selection as a senior by recording a team-high 10.5 tackles for loss and 4.0 sacks. He started 36 of his final 41 games with the Skyhawks.

After graduating from UT Martin with a bachelor's degree in health and human performance, he went on to star in the Indoor Football League. He was named first-team All-IFL and won a league title while playing for the Iowa Barnstormers in 2018. He spent the 2019 season with the Tucson Sugar Skulls.

Jones was a three-sport prep standout at McClellan North High School, where he competed in football, basketball and track and field.

AASHON LARKINS

RUNNING BACKS

23RD SEASON OVERALL

ALMA MATER: LEHIGH, 2003

App State Football announced the hiring of Aashon Larkins as the running backs coach in January 2025.

Larkins, whose first name is pronounced uh-SHAWN, has coached and worked on NCAA coaching staffs for the last two decades. That includes recent stints at Michigan (2019-21) and Ole Miss (2022) before two seasons as a secondary coach at Dartmouth in the Ivy League (2023-24).

After graduating from Lehigh in 2003 and joining the Philadelphia Eagles as a pro personnel intern, Larkins worked at the FCS level for Holy Cross, Wagner, The Citadel, Jacksonville State and Bethune-Cookman from 2004-2018. He joined Jim Harbaugh's staff at Michigan in 2019, serving as a defensive analyst before becoming a special teams analyst and working with Wolverine safeties during the 2020 season.

Larkins was Michigan's director of recruiting during a 2021 season in which the Wolverines made the College Football Playoff and finished 12-2. That year, in the summer of 2021, he also spent time in the Jacksonville Jaguars' scouting department after being a recipient of a Nunn-Wooten Scouting Fellowship.

He joined head coach Lane Kiffin's staff at Ole Miss for the 2022 season, serving as a lead analyst who worked with safeties during an 8-5 season for the Rebels.

Dartmouth went a combined 10-4 in Ivy League play with Larkins on its staff, as the Big Green followed a 6-4 season in 2023 with an 8-2 overall record during the 2024 season.

Larkins coached against App State in the SoCon as an assistant coach at The Citadel from 2006-13, a stretch in which he had two players drafted to the NFL: wide receiver/punt returner Andre Roberts (third round in 2010) and cornerback Cortez Allen (fourth round in 2011). Larkins spent the following season at Jacksonville State, mentoring All-American cornerback Jermaine Hough, before moving on to serve as Bethune-Cookman's recruiting coordinator and special teams coordinator from 2015-18.

Larkins was a double major in psychology and sociology at Lehigh. He and his wife, Jackie, have a daughter, Jorden.

ALLEN MOGRIDGE

OFFENSIVE LINE

ALMA MATER: NORTH CAROLINA, 1999

Allen Mogridge joined head coach Dowell Loggains' first App State staff in December 2024 as the Mountaineers' offensive line coach.

Mogridge served as the senior football advisor to the head football coach (for offense) at Georgia Tech during a 2024 season that culminated with the Yellow Jackets facing Vanderbilt in the Birmingham Bowl. Prior to that, the North Carolina alum compiled a coaching career resumé that has included stints as the offensive line coach at East Carolina, USF, FIU, Georgia Southern, UCF, Temple and Buffalo.

Mogridge, 48, has helped lead his teams to 14 bowl berths as a player and coach.

Reuniting with Georgia Tech head coach Brent Key in Atlanta after they had worked together at UCF, Mogridge helped the 2024 offense rank in the top 40 nationally and the top three in the ACC at 186.8 rushing yards per game. Those totals included 371 in a win at North Carolina, 271 in a win against Miami and 260 in the back-and-forth loss to Georgia.

Mogridge, who grew up about three hours west of Boone in Sevierville, Tenn., served as ECU's offensive line coach in 2023 after being the assistant head coach and offensive line coach at USF under Jeff Scott from 2020-22.

In 2022, the Bulls produced their first 1,000-yard back since 2018 while having 10 games with a 100-yard rusher, posting 25 rushing touchdowns and ranking 20th nationally at just 1.17 sacks allowed per game. In 2021, Jaren Mangham rushed for 15 touchdowns.

Mogridge was Butch Davis' assistant head coach and offensive line coach at FIU from 2017-19, when the Panthers went 23-16 with three bowl appearances. The 2018 and 2019 teams ranked among the top five nationally in fewest sacks allowed per game.

Before being Georgia Southern's offensive line coach in 2016, when the Eagles ranked second behind App State among Sun Belt schools at 224.2 rushing yards per game, Mogridge coached at UCF in 2012 and again from 2014-15 (with a stint as Temple's offensive line coach in 2013). He coached tight ends and H-backs at UCF in 2014 before returning to the offensive line in 2015.

UCF won the American Athletic Conference championship in 2014 and the Conference USA East Division title in 2012.

Mogridge worked at his alma mater in Chapel Hill from 2009-11 as a tight ends coach/special teams coach/recruiting coordinator after being at Buffalo from 2004-08, with a role as the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator from 2006-08. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Buffalo in 2002 and was a recruiting coordinator/defensive ends coach at Western Carolina in 2003.

A four-year letterwinner at North Carolina from 1996-99, he played four different positions (offensive tackle, tight end, fullback, defensive end) and won three bowl games with the Tar Heels before participating in a training camp with the Carolina Panthers. He graduated from UNC in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in history.

Mogridge and his wife, Jennifer, have three daughters – Liv, Izzy and Lola.

QUARTERBACKS/WIDE RECEIVERS

ALMA MATER: PITTSBURG STATE, 2022

Riley Watkins, who joined App State's football staff in December 2024, works with the Mountaineers' quarterbacks and wide receivers.

Watkins worked on SEC staffs at Arkansas, Missouri and South Carolina during the previous four seasons. He spent the previous two seasons before arriving in Boone as an offensive graduate assistant working with quarterbacks and wide receivers at South Carolina, where Loggains was the offensive coordinator in 2023 and 2024.

Loggains and Watkins also worked together at Arkansas in 2021, when Watkins was an offensive/recruiting undergraduate assistant. He was an offensive quality control coach at Missouri with former App State head coach Eliah Drinkwitz in 2022.

With Loggains and Watkins on the same offensive staff at South Carolina, wide receiver and future NFL first-round pick Xavier Legette teamed with future NFL quarterback Spencer Rattler in 2023 to form one of the most lethal pass-and-catch combinations in the country. Legette was a first-team All-SEC performer and third-team All-American during a season in which he caught 71 passes for 1,255 yards and seven touchdowns.

In 2024, No. 15 South Carolina ended the regular season with top-50 national rankings in scoring, yardage, first downs and completion percentage. LaNorris Sellers turned into one of college football's most dangerous dual-threat quarterbacks, with 10 players having at least one receiving touchdown.

Missouri averaged 214.1 passing yards per game in 2022. Arkansas finished the 2021 season with a final ranking of No. 20 in the AFCA Coaches Poll thanks to a 9-4 record that included an Outback Bowl win against Penn State.

A native of Republic, Missouri, Watkins was an all-region performer at Republic High School before spending time as a quarterback, running back and tight end at Pittsburg State in Kansas. He graduated from Pittsburg State in 2022 and has a wife, Kaylee.

Yurachek arrived in Boone after two seasons on staff with Dowell Loggains at South Carolina.

Yurachek also coached at Austin Peay and Arkansas following his playing career in the NFL and at Marshall University.

Yurachek spent the 2023 season as an offensive analyst for the Gamecocks and was the assistant tight ends coach in 2024, helping the team ascend to a top-15 national ranking. He mentored tight end Joshua Simon, who led the Gamecocks during the regular season in receptions (34), receiving yards (450) and touchdown catches (six) while helping South Carolina boast the SEC's third-best rushing attack.

He served the 2022 season as the tight ends coach at Austin Peay, where the Governors were crowned ASUN Champions.

Yurachek spent the 2020 and 2021 seasons on the Arkansas football staff – including the 2021 season alongside Loggains – as a graduate assistant working primarily with the offensive line.

A native of Myrtle Beach, S.C., Yurachek was a three-year starter and captain as a tight end at Marshall. Playing in 51 games, he compiled 143 receptions, 1,354 receiving yards and 26 receiving touchdowns and was a four-time All-CUSA performer. He holds the Thundering Herd record for consecutive games with a reception (42).

A 2018 undrafted free agent, Yurachek logged brief NFL stints as a fullback with the Saints, Raiders and Cowboys.

Yurachek earned a bachelor's degree in marketing and management from Marshall in 2017 and a master's in adult education from Arkansas in 2021.

Ryan is the son of Arkansas Director of Athletics Hunter Yurachek. His brother Jake, who was a four-year letterwinner as a linebacker for the Razorbacks, is an assistant director of athletics at SMU.

Ryan and his wife, Morgan, have one son, Trace.

MATT GREENHALGH

ASSOCIATE A.D. FOR ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE
6TH SEASON AT APP STATE (3RD BACK IN BOONE)
ALMA MATER: RHODE ISLAND, 2012

Matt Greenhalgh returned home to App State as Director of Athletic Performance to oversee the football program's strength and conditioning in December 2022.

Greenhalgh (pronounced GREEN-hall) was Assistant Director of Football Strength and Conditioning at Virginia Tech during the 2022 season after being Georgia Southern's Director of Football Strength and Conditioning from 2018-21.

That role as director came after he served as App State's Assistant Director of Strength and Conditioning from 2014-17, when the Mountaineers posted a record of 37-14 with two Sun Belt Conference championships and a 3-0 bowl record.

Georgia Southern made an eight-win improvement to go 10-3 during Greenhalgh's first season in Statesboro. The Eagles had winning records in each of the next two seasons, going 8-5 in 2020, and a coaching transition coincided with Greenhalgh relocating to Virginia Tech to work alongside first-year head coach Brent Pry in 2022.

Prior to his first stint in Boone, Greenhalgh was a strength and conditioning graduate assistant at The Citadel from 2013-14. A native of Chepachet, Rhode Island, he also worked as a strength and conditioning intern at Rhode Island, his alma mater, and South Carolina.

A four-year letterwinner on the offensive line for Rhode Island from 2008-12, Greenhalgh graduated with a degree in kinesiology. He served as a team captain during his senior season after earning a spot on the Allstate Good Works Team as a junior in 2011.

Greenhalgh holds a master's degree in sports management from Western Carolina. He and his wife, Emily, have two children: Mack and Beau.

KEVIN HIGGINS

CHIEF OF STAFF/PASS GAME SPECIALIST
1ST SEASON AT APP STATE
49TH SEASON OVERALL
ALMA MATER: WEST CHESTER, 1977

Former college head coach and NFL assistant coach Kevin Higgins joined App State's staff as Chief of Staff/Pass Game Specialist in April 2025.

Higgins has head coaching experience at Lehigh (1994-2000) and The Citadel (2005-13), was a position coach with the Detroit Lions (2001-04) and spent the last 11 years at Wake Forest, serving as associate head coach and wide receivers coach (2014-22) and general manager (2023-24).

Higgins brings a combined 48 years of coaching experience in high school, college and the NFL to Boone. During his time at Wake Forest, he helped the Demon Deacons earn seven straight bowl berths – with five wins – from 2016-22. Wake ranked as high as No. 9 in the polls in 2021 before completing just the second double-digit win season in program history with an 11-3 record and a Gator Bowl win.

The Demon Deacons were the only ACC team to average at least 30 points per game each year from 2017-22.

As a head coach, Higgins has been a four-time conference coach of the year honoree, winning the Patriot League's award three times (1995, 1998, 2000) while at Lehigh and claiming 2012 SoCon Coach of the Year while at The Citadel. That 2012 season included top-10 wins in back-to-back weeks when the Bulldogs beat No. 3 Georgia Southern on the road before winning at No. 8 App State the following week. His Lehigh teams made the Division I-AA playoffs in each of his final three years.

The Detroit Lions improved their record each year during Higgins' tenure as the team's quarterbacks coach (2001-03) and then wide receivers coach (2004).

Higgins got his start coaching high school at Emerson High School (1977-78) and North Warren High School (1979-80) before becoming a college assistant coach at Gettysburg (181-84) and then Richmond (1985-87). He was an assistant at Lehigh from 1988-93 before assuming the head coach role in 1994.

A 1977 graduate of West Chester, Higgins earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical education while playing free safety. He went on to receive his master's degree in physical education from East Stroudsburg in 1981.

Higgins and his wife, Kay, have three children: son Tim and daughters Meaghan and Katie Rose.

BOB SANDERS

SENIOR DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT
1ST SEASON AT APP STATE
50TH SEASON OVERALL
ALMA MATER: DAVIDSON, 1976

Bob Sanders joined the App State staff as the senior defensive assistant before the 2025 season.

Sanders has nearly 50 years of coaching experience, including 18 in the NFL. The native of Jacksonville, N.C., attended college in his home state

(at Davidson) and began his coaching career as a high school assistant in North Carolina at Southwest Onslow in 1976.

He worked in defensive roles at Georgia Tech, East Carolina, Richmond and Duke before following Steve Spurrier to Florida, where he worked from 1990-2000 and was the assistant defensive coordinator for a national championship team during the 1996 season.

Starting in 2001 and concluding with his 2022 role as the Tampa Bay Bucs' outside linebackers coach, Sanders coached for nearly two decades in pro football.

Sanders served as the Miami Dolphins' linebackers coach from 2001-04 and became the Green Bay Packers' defensive ends coach in 2005 before working as the Packers' defensive coordinator from 2006-08. He coached with the Buffalo Bills from 2009-2012 before serving as the Oakland Raiders' linebackers coach from 2013-14 and the Arizona Cardinals' linebackers coach from 2015-17.

Sanders worked in the Alliance of American Football in 2019, coordinating the defense for the Orlando Apollos, before reuniting with Bruce Arians in Tampa Bay in 2022. A defensive player at Davidson from 1972-75, Sanders earned a bachelor's degree in political science from the school in 1976. He and his wife, Kathie, have three children: Lindsay, Sarah and Rob.

MARK SPEIR

DIRECTOR OF HIGH SCHOOL RELATIONS/
OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT
12TH SEASON AT APP STATE (2ND BACK IN BOONE)
ALMA MATER: CLEMSON, 1990

Mark Speir returned to Boone in February 2024 for his third stint on App State's football staff to serve as senior assistant to head coach, and he has remained in Boone as a director of high school relations/offensive assistant.

Speir spent nine seasons as a title-winning assistant at App State from 2003-11 before becoming an FCS head coach, and he served as a senior analyst under Shawn Clark at App State in 2021. Over the last two seasons, Speir was Scott Satterfield's chief of staff at Louisville (2022) and Cincinnati (2023).

As a member of Jerry Moore's staff at App State late in the program's FCS era, Speir helped the Mountaineers win three straight national championships and six conference titles in nine seasons. That success led to him being hired as the head coach at Western Carolina, where he was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson National FCS Coach of the Year award during his 10 years with the Catamounts.

A Kannapolis, N.C., native, Speir has spent three decades in coaching. He and his wife, Paige, have maintained close ties to App State, where their son Zeb was a quarterback under Satterfield from 2015-18 and their youngest son, Jackson, is currently a student. Zeb is the tight ends coach at Chattanooga.

In addition to serving as App State's recruiting coordinator from 2004-11, Speir coached running backs (2003-04), defensive linemen (2005-08), defensive ends (2009-10) and inside linebackers (2011) in Boone. In 2009, he was named the national FCS Assistant Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association.

App State posted a combined record of 92-28 during Speir's nine seasons as an assistant, and he was the position coach for six All-Americans: DL Jason Hunter, DL Marques Murrell, DL Gary Tharrington, DL Anthony "Whopper" Williams, DL Jabari Fletcher and LB Jeremy Kimbrough.

Speir also coached as an assistant at Western Carolina, Presbyterian and Elon.

Off the field, Speir has made an incredible impact through his involvement in many charitable causes, including raising more than $100,000 to rebuild the Memorial Christian Hospital in Bangladesh. Part of the fundraising came through his participation in the 2008 Music City Marathon in Nashville, the 2009 Boston Marathon (which he completed in less than four hours) and the 2010 Flying Pig Marathon in Cincinnati.

NOLAN JONES
ASSOCIATE A.D. FOR FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
6TH SEASON AT APP STATE
ALMA MATER: ECU, 2003

Veteran administrator Nolan Jones was hired by App State in January 2020 as Associate Athletics Director for Football Operations.

A college football athletics administrator for the past two decades, Jones arrived in Boone after one year at Ole Miss. He coordinates the day-to-day internal and external operations for the Mountaineer football program.

Jones was the associate A.D. for football operations for the Rebels during the 2019 season after spending three seasons (2016-18) as director of football operations for the Kansas Jayhawks.

During his career, he has also served as director of football operations at Kent State (2015-16), director of football operations at Michigan (2013-14), director of football operations at Kentucky (2011-13), director of football operations at Northwestern (2005-11), director of football operations at Princeton (2004-05) and director of football operations/GA at Eastern Kentucky (2003-04).

At Northwestern, Jones coordinated operations for three bowl game appearances and a 2010 game at Wrigley Field against Illinois.

Jones was a finalist for FootballScoop's 2012 Director of Football Operations of the Year award while at Kentucky.

Jones earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in physical education with an emphasis in sport administration from Eastern Kentucky University.

While on staff at Eastern Kentucky, he also served as director of football operations and a graduate assistant coach during the 2003 season. Jones got his start as an operations and recruiting intern at Kentucky from 2002-03.

Jones and his wife, Lisa, have two sons, Brycen and Parker, as well as one daughter, Lauren.

GAME NOTES

App State won its 10th home opener in the last 11 tries.

The Mountaineers improved to 33-14-1 all-time against ETSU and won against an FCS team for the 11th time in 12 tries since moving up to the FBS ranks in 2014. It was App State's eighth straight win in the series against ETSU.

App State improved to 54-10 in home games since 2014, the seventh-best winning percentage nationally in that span (and best among Group of Five programs).

First-time starters for the Mountaineers included LG Griffin Scroggs, C Jack Hollifield, RT Thomas Shrader, DE Montez Kelley, NOSE Joshua Donald, DE Michael Fletcher, STAR Avarion Cole and CB Seth Robertson.

On the Mountaineers' second offensive play of the season and first passing play, Joey Aguilar connected with Christan Horn for an 83-yard touchdown, the longest throw and catch of their careers, respectively. Aguilar also threw a touchdown on his first pass of the season — and his first play overall — in last year's opener vs. Gardner-Webb.

Aguilar — the only returning FBS QB with 33+ touchdown passes and 3,700+ yards from last year — finished the day completing 22 of 37 passes for 326 yards and two touchdowns, while adding two more scores on the ground. It was his first game with multiple rushing touchdowns after scoring on the ground three times all of last season.

Kaedin Robinson had his fourth career triple-digit receiving yard outing.

App State's defense held the Buccaneers to just 122 passing yards and 305 total yards. ETSU converted only 3 of 13 third downs and 1 of 3 fourth downs.

Inside linebacker Kyle Arnholt led all players with a career-high 10 tackles.

App State Pulls Away For Decisive Win In Opener

BOONE, N.C. — Three consecutive scoring drives for App State to begin the 2024 opener and three straight touchdowns toward the end of it bookended a 38-10 victory against FCS neighbor ETSU with the third-largest attendance figure in Kidd Brewer Stadium history on hand.

The attendance figure of 36,232 ranks behind only the matching 40,168 totals from the 2022 home opener against North Carolina and the 2023 visit from East Carolina.

Despite leading 17-0 midway through the second quarter, App State (1-0) found itself clinging to a 17-10 advantage while facing a fourth-and-5 from the ETSU 34 late in the third quarter.

If the Bucs make a stop in that situation, they gain possession with a chance to tie the game or even take the lead. Instead, Joey Aguilar's 34-yard TD pass to Eli Wilson started a run of 21 straight points.

Aguilar threw for 326 yards and accounted for four touchdowns, including an 83-yard score to Christan Horn on his first pass attempt.

In addition to the touchdown passes to Horn and Wilson, plus a 47-yard connection to Kaedin Robinson as part of his eight-catch, 103-yard game, Aguilar rushed for two touchdowns. Outside receiver Makai Jackson accounted for a team-best 47 of App State's 174 rushing yards thanks to his touchdown run to open the fourth quarter.

Defensively, App State recorded three sacks over the final 18 minutes. Thomas Davis accounted for 1.5 of them on back-to-back plays late in the third quarter, with help from Kevin Abrams-Verwayne on one. The Mountaineers limited ETSU to 305 yards, with 80 coming on their only TD.

That score, plus a short field goal with 5:49 left in the third quarter, cut ETSU's deficit to seven points. Wilson's TD on the longest reception of his career turned the momentum back in the Mountaineers' favor.

Their defense came up big after that, as Davis backed up ETSU with a sack and then combined with Abrams-Verwayne for a punt-forcing sack that almost resulted in a safety. App State started its next drive with good field position, and Jackson scored on his 47-yard end-around.

Sept. 14 - Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium - Greenville, N.C. - 46,117

GAME NOTES

It was the Mountaineers' 36th road win since 2014, ranking fifth among all FBS schools behind only Boise State, Ohio State, Alabama and Clemson.

It was the Mountaineers' first win in Greenville since 1959, snapping a seven-game losing streak there from 1962-2012.

It was App State's largest comeback win – from down 16 points at 16-0 in the second quarter – since the 2017 game at Idaho when the Mountaineers overcame a 20-0 deficit to win 23-20.

Joey Aguilar completed 32 of 47 passes for 424 yards – all career highs – with two touchdowns and two interceptions. It was the third-most passing yards in a game in school history (and most ever in a road game), tied for the sixth-most completions and the 11th-most attempts.

Last year, Aguilar led the country with 15 touchdowns passes to either tie a game or give his team the lead. Against ECU, he did so for the second time in three games this season.

Aguilar has either thrown or rushed for a touchdown in 15 of 17 games as App State's quarterback, including in 11 straight regular-season contests.

The Mountaineers' defense racked up a season-high four sacks by four different players – Santana Hopper, Joshua Donald (first at App State), Cahari Haynes (first career) and Montez Kelley.

App State trailed 16-0 after one quarter, starting with a 65-yard touchdown pass from Jake Garcia on the third play of the game from the Pirates, who added a field goal and then missed the extra point after Shavon Revel Jr. returned an interception 50 yards for a touchdown. They had 110 yards of offense in the first quarter but managed 214 yards the rest of the way.

Inspired Rally Produces Dramatic Road Win At ECU

GREENVILLE, N.C. — App State Football's third straight win against East Carolina required a first-half rally and plenty of fourth-quarter resolve.

Traveling for their first FBS-vs.-FBS matchup against the Pirates in Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium, after a 2021 win in Charlotte and 2023 victory in Boone, the Mountaineers prevailed 21-19 despite falling behind 16-0 in the opening 10 minutes with a big crowd of 46,117 on hand.

Joey Aguilar threw for a career-high 424 yards and two TDs, including a 36-yard, go-ahead score to Makai Jackson late in the third quarter. Jackson finished with 86 yards, compared to 129 on seven catches from Kaedin Robinson and 108 on five receptions from Christan Horn.

A defense that recorded four sacks and recovered one fumble made another key stop when cornerback Seth Robertson intercepted a deep pass at the App State 31 and returned the ball 21 yards with the Mountaineers (2-1) holding a two-point lead in the final five minutes.

Jackson made a diving grab to beat a nearby defender to the ball on third-and-6 reception for 11 yards after the pass slipped through both hands of an interception-minded defensive back and popped high into the air. Eli Wilson moved the chains again with an 11-yard reception to set up the two-minute timeout, and the Mountaineers were able to kneel out the clock when Anderson Castle gained 10 yards on a second-and-10 rush after ECU had used its final timeout.

"I live and die with these kids, and tonight showed we have a very gritty football team," App State head coach Shawn Clark said. "It couldn't start off any worse than it did going down 16-0. We kept telling our team, 'One play at a time. One moment at a time.' "

Facing an up-tempo opponent that had run 89 plays a week earlier, App State possessed the ball for 39 of the game's 60 minutes and totaled 505 yards of offense, with 47 pass attempts and 36 runs for 83 total plays. Ethan Johnson forced a fumble that Jordan Favors recovered for the defense's first takeaway of the season, while Joshua Donald, Cahari Haynes, Montez Kelley and Santana Hopper produced sacks.

App State Drops Thursday Night Sun Belt Opener

BOONE, N.C. — App State opened its Sun Belt Conference schedule with a 48-14 home loss to South Alabama on a Thursday night. Five days removed from a low-scoring, hard-fought win at ECU, the Mountaineers (2-2, 0-1) fell behind in the opening minutes and had a nine-game winning streak in Sun Belt openers snapped by an opponent coming off an 87-point performance the previous Thursday. A crowd of 34,133 for the midweek ESPN game gave App State its seventh straight sellout at The Rock.

Joey Aguilar threw for 266 yards, with a Hail Mary touchdown to Dalton Stroman as the first half ended, and Kaedin Robinson led the offense with six catches for 85 yards. Maquel Haywood scored on a 2-yard run in the final minute and led the team with 47 rushing yards. Defensive end Santana Hopper forced a fumble on a sack for the second straight week, with Shawn Collins making the early recovery, and safety DJ Burks recorded a career-high 14 tackles in his first start. With App State trailing 14-0 in the second quarter, Conner Maynard's second punt inside the 10 backed up South Alabama's offense, but a 95-yard touchdown drive gave the Jaguars (2-2, 1-0) a 21-0 lead with 5:30 left before halftime.

App State, set to receive the ball to open the second half, had a chance to get back in the game thanks to a drive inside South Alabama's 10 in the final three minutes of the second quarter. Instead, Jordan Scruggs stepped in front of a pass at the goal line and sprinted 96 yards to the App State 4. Christan Horn's touchdown-saving tackle briefly kept the Jaguars from extending their lead, but they scored two plays later. The Mountaineers at least went into the break with momentum via Stroman's 47-yard touchdown grab on the Hail Mary heave from Aguilar on the last play of the half. App State received to begin the second half and approached midfield before a fourth-and-6 pass fell incomplete with the Mountaineers needing points to apply game pressure.

GAME NOTES

App State outgained Marshall in total yards, 473-365, and in first downs, 32-21. But the Mountaineers committed 15 penalties for 158 yards and lost the turnover battle, 2-0. The penalties and penalty yards were both third-most in a single game in school history.

Marshall's 52 points were the most allowed by App State to a Sun Belt foe since a 52-45 loss at ULM in 2017.

App State's losing streak at Marshall extended to four straight. The home team has won six straight contests in the series dating back to 2002.

The Mountaineers' opponent scored a touchdown on its first series for the fourth straight game.

App State fell to 0-2 in Sun Belt play for the first time since 2014, its first year in the league. That season, the Mountaineers went on to win their final six league games.

There were a lot of bright spots for App State's offense, including season highs in rushing yards (180), first downs (32), rushing touchdowns (three - tied) and passing touchdowns (two - tied). The offense was 6-for-6 on fourth-down conversions and 4-for-4 scoring in the red zone.

Joey Aguilar completed 26 of 44 passes for 293 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions, while rushing 10 times for a team-high 55 yards. He has either thrown or rushed for a touchdown in 17 of 19 games as App State's quarterback, including in 13 straight regular-season contests.

On his first career attempt, redshirt freshman kicker Jackson Moore nailed a 42-yard field goal for App State's first score of the contest. Moore was filling in for injured starter Michael Hughes. Moore finished the game 1-for-2 on field goals and 4-for-4 on PATs, while Cash McVay also kicked off once.

App State Falls At Marshall In Return To Competition

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. — Playing for the first time in 16 days, and just a little more than a week removed from the devastating arrival of Hurricane Helene in western North Carolina, App State lost 52-37 at Marshall.

Days of rains in advance of Helene's arrival, coupled with the storm's wide-ranging impact, led to the cancelation of a Sept. 28 home game against Liberty. With the long recovery process starting for many in Boone, Watauga County, the western part of the state and several surrounding states, the Mountaineers hit the road for Huntington on Friday. Several coaches wore "Mountain Strong" shirts during the game.

Joey Aguilar threw two touchdown passes to Dalton Stroman, and Ahmani Marshall had a pair of 2-yard touchdown runs in the final seven minutes. The offense went 6-for-6 on fourth-down conversions, but the Mountaineers committed 15 penalties for 158 yards.

App State (2-3, 0-2 Sun Belt) won the toss and elected to receive, but a three-and-out punt preceded an opening series touchdown drive from Marshall (3-2, 1-0 Sun Belt) — the fourth straight game an opponent had scored a touchdown on its first series.

The Mountaineers took a 10-7 lead thanks to a 42-yard field goal on the first career attempt from Jackson Moore, a redshirt freshman filling in for the sidelined Michael Hughes, and a 10-yard touchdown run from Kanye Roberts to open the second quarter.

Marshall regained the lead for good as back Jordan Houston scored a 75-yard touchdown after catching a short swing pass on the second play of the next series, and the Thundering Herd scored again 12 seconds later when a bobbled swing pass on the first play of the next possession resulted in a 13-yard interception return for a touchdown.

Oct. 12 - Cajun Field - Louisiana, La. - 14,058

GAME NOTES

In a series of streaks, Louisiana won for the fourth straight time after App State won the first eight meetings from 2014-19.

At 2-4 overall, the loss gave App State its worst record through six games since starting 1-5 in 2014, its FBS debut season that featured six straight victories to finish the year 7-5.

The Mountaineers fell to 0-3 in Sun Belt play for the first time and had their first 0-3 start in league play since 1972, their first year in the Southern Conference.

It was the second straight conference road game that App State outgained its opponent in total yardage but lost.

App State lost the turnover battle for the fifth straight game, with a 1-4 record in those contests.

Kanye Roberts rushed 26 times for a career-high 148 and caught a 15-yard touchdown pass for his first career receiving touchdown. It was the Mountaineers' first individual 100-yard rushing performance of the season.

For the sixth time in six games, Kaedin Robinson led the team in receiving yards, catching seven passes for 96 yards.

Joey Aguilar passed for 236 yards and three touchdowns, but he threw a career-high four interceptions. It was his first game as a Mountaineer throwing more than two picks.

App State's defense had one of its best showings of the season, holding the Cajuns to 364 total yards.

Jordan Favors snagged App State's first interception in league play this season.

Brendan Harrington led the team with six tackles, all solo, in his first start in a Sun Belt game since Nov. 27, 2021.

Comeback Attempt Falls Short On Road At Louisiana

LAFAYETTE, La. — App State fought back from a series of hard-to-believe developments in the fourth quarter to give itself a chance for a comeback road victory, but Louisiana pulled out a 34-24 win.

Kanye Roberts rushed for 148 yards on 26 attempts and caught a 15-yard TD pass. Kaedin Robinson had seven catches for 96 yards.

Jordan Favors made a critical interception deep in App State territory with the Mountaineers trailing by three points in the final six minutes, but their third turnover of the fourth quarter and fourth turnover of the game set up an outcome-sealing touchdown on quarterback Ben Wooldridge's 1-yard sneak with 1:03 left. The Ragin' Cajuns forced another turnover in the final minute, totaling five takeaways and four INTs.

Trailing 20-17 early in the fourth quarter, App State (2-4, 0-3) moved inside the UL 20 on a first-down run but lost a fumble that Justin Agu picked up and returned 68 yards to the Mountaineers' 17. With one half of the stadium closed because of construction and limited ability to see when the ball popped out from a large crowd, the on-field call of a fumble stood, and a penalty for a horse collar stop on the lengthy return gave the Ragin' Cajuns (5-1, 2-0) a first down at the App State 8.

Louisiana back Bill Davis mishandled the exchange, kicking the ball through traffic into the end zone, and offensive lineman Landon Burton split two defenders to fall on the loose ball for an improbable touchdown. The Ragin' Cajuns intercepted a 50-50 deep ball at the UL 28 on the very next play, capping a wild 26-second stretch.

App State's defense came up with a three-and-out stop, and Joey Aguilar completed three passes to Robinson to start a bounce-back drive that ended on Eli Wilson's 26-yard TD reception with 8:06 remaining.

The Mountaineers regained possession at their 16 with 5:36 left when Favors intercepted a deep throw, but a desperate heave on a third-and-4 from the App State 35 was tipped and intercepted by Tyrone Lewis.

Louisiana converted fourth-and-4 situation from the 26 with 2:11 left and scored a late touchdown to push the margin to double figures.

GAME NOTES

From fans flocking to King Street in support of local businesses, to App State alums Luke Combs and Eric Church headlining a Charlotte-based Concert for Carolina show that raised more than $24 million, the events of Saturday contributed to a bigger cause.

The Mountaineers improved to 11-0 against Georgia State, dating back to 2014.

Similar to the first home game following Hurricane Katrina for the New Orleans Saints, who scored an early touchdown on a blocked punt, App State opened its first home game after the storm with a blocked punt. The Steve Gleason block against a team from Atlanta occurred with 13:30 remaining in the first quarter. Ahmani Marshall's block gave App State a 2-0 lead with 13:27 remaining in the first quarter.

It was the first safety recorded by the Mountaineers since 2022 (vs. Troy, which took an intentional safety while backed up) and the first blocked punt since 2019 (Demetrius Taylor vs. Coastal).

After each of App State's first three touchdowns, Georgia State answered with a touchdown drive of its own. The defense made sure the Panthers didn't have a successful response for the fourth Mountaineer touchdown in a game featuring eight lead changes.

App State lost the turnover battle for the sixth straight game.

Kanen Hamlett's second career catch was a big one. His 4-yard touchdown from Joey Aguilar with 1:51 left in the game was the winning score. Hamlett entered the huddle late in the play clock to replace another tight end who was limping off the field.

Freshman cornerback Nick Taylor made his first career start. He is the only true freshman to have played to this point.

App State Rallies In Emotional Return To The Rock

BOONE, N.C. — A hardened football team reunited with its hungry fan base, eager to entertain a community with a long recovery effort ahead in the aftermath of Hurricane Helene.

A rainbow can be a reminder that storms end, giving way to hope for a brighter future. As a crowd of 33,783 departed Kidd Brewer Stadium following App State's 33-26 win, an actual rainbow appeared above The Rock. Excuse the Mountaineers for maybe being too eager to reconnect with their fans — Shawn Clark accepted blame for the wall-climbing celebration with students on Miller Hill following App State's first Boone touchdown in 37 days — but this was a long time coming.

With App State (3-4, 1-3) seeking its first Sun Belt victory following the back-to-back road losses that had occurred since a Sept. 28 home date with Liberty was canceled because of the storm damage from Helene, the Mountaineers scored a go-ahead touchdown on Joey Aguilar's 4-yard pass to Kanen Hamlett with 1:51 left and then made a defensive stand.

"Just like our community has battled their tails off for the last four weeks to get some kind of normalcy in their lives, our program is doing the same thing," said Clark, sporting a Mountain Strong sweatshirt. "Our community is behind us 100 percent, and we're behind our community 100 percent. It's still going to be a long haul for our community, and we're going to be there every step of the way. I'm just very proud of everyone involved in our program and hope today's win gave everyone in western North Carolina and Watauga County something to be proud of."

Aguilar passed for 299 yards and three TDs during an interception-free performance that included seven receptions for 121 yards by Kaedin Robinson. Aguilar threw for 245 yards in the first half, with Robinson going over the century mark before the break. Ahmani Marshall rushing for 115 yards with one score. He accounted for App State's first eight points thanks to an early safety on a blocked punt, and Santana Hopper had a hand in three sacks to lead the defense.

Defense Stands Tall In Dramatic Victory Over ODU

BOONE, N.C. — The main takeaways from App State's dramatic 28-20 win against ODU: the Mountaineers produced plenty of big ones.

App State's defense recovered three fumbles and sealed the victory with a fourth turnover via Zyeir Gamble's last-minute interception against the Monarchs, who led 17-7 in the second quarter but added only a field goal the rest of the way. A fourth-and-short stop also was part of a strong defensive effort that included five sacks from the Mountaineers (4-4, 2-3 Sun Belt) in front of 34,954 fans.

Joey Aguilar's four touchdown passes resulted in scores by Kaedin Robinson, Dalton Stroman, Kanen Hamlett and Max Drag — the final two to tight ends making their first career starts with two veterans sidelined. Drag flipped into the end zone with 2:29 left to score from 11 yards out on his first career catch, capping a drive in which workhorse back Ahmani Marshall rushed for 38 of his 120 yards.

The first takeaway came from sixth-year veteran Brendan Harrington, who had saved a touchdown by making one of his team-high nine tackles a few moments before recovering a fumble inside the 10.

Defensive tackle Joshua Donald recorded two sacks among his 3.0 tackles for loss and combined on a fourth-and-1 tackle for no gain with defensive end Michael Fletcher, who finished with 1.5 sacks. Defensive end Shawn Collins knocked the ball loose on a fourth-quarter sack, leading to a Thomas Davis recovery at the App State 36 with the Mountaineers holding a one-point lead to set up their final TD drive — a 10-play, run-based march that took more than five minutes.

From there, ODU (4-5, 3-2) picked up two first downs to reach the App State 42 with 1:13 remaining. Donald's second sack of the night, with Fletcher joining the party, put the Monarchs behind the chains and set up a fourth-and-11 scenario. Gamble intercepted an overthrown pass at the 22-yard line, putting the finishing touches on a half in which ODU managed only 24 rushing yards on 14 attempts.

App State followed a 33-26 win against Georgia State in its post-Helene return to The Rock with another home victory against an East Division opponent.

GAME NOTES

Falling to 4-5 overall, the Mountaineers would need to win their final two games to earn bowl eligibility.

App State lost the turnover battle (3-0) for the seventh time in the last eight games.

App State holds an all-time series lead of 7-4 against Coastal Carolina, but the Chanticleers have won four of the last five meetings, including three straight in Conway.

Elijah Mc-Cantos started at nickelback to earn a starting nod for the first time as a Mountaineer.

Ahmani Marshall rushed a career-high 28 times for a season-high 124 yards and two touchdowns, while adding a team-high six catches for 36 yards. It was his third straight 100-yard rushing effort and the fourth of his career. His 2-yard touchdown with 3:07 left in the second quarter cut the Mountaineers' deficit to one score at 17-10. His 2-yard score at the beginning of the fourth quarter turned a three-score deficit back to a two-score deficit at 31-17.

Joey Aguilar passed for 226 yards and a touchdown, with two interceptions, while running for 30 net yards (95 gained, 65 lost on four sacks). He had a career-long run of 49 yards.

Kaedin Robinson caught a pass for the 34th consecutive games. He entered the game ranked 10th nationally and first in the Sun Belt in receiving yards per game.

App State's defense held Coastal Carolina to just 353 total yards and 150 passing yards, but multiple turnovers by the Mountaineer offense gave the Chanticleers a short field.

Brendan Harrington had a season-high 10 tackles and 1.5 TFLs for his second consecutive season-best game.

Mountaineers Topped In Midweek Trip To Conway

CONWAY, S.C. — App State's winning streak against Sun Belt East Division opponents came to a close in a 38-24 loss at Coastal Carolina.

The Mountaineers, who arrived at Brooks Stadium for the ESPN midweek game with back-to-back division victories at home against Georgia State and Old Dominion, were led by 124 rushing yards on a career-high 28 attempts and two fourth-down rushing touchdowns from Ahmani Marshall. He posted his third straight 100-yard game and had a team-high six catches.

Joey Aguilar gained 95 yards on his positive runs, including a 49-yard keeper, but lost 65 yards on four sacks before finishing with 226 passing yards and one touchdown. Kaedin Robinson made five receptions for a team-high 76 yards and a score, suffering a season-ending injury at the end of the 25-yard touchdown.

Both halves started in forgettable fashion for the Mountaineers.

Coastal Carolina (5-4, 2-3) scored two TDs and a field goal on its first three drives, helped by a pair of App State turnovers on its first two possessions, including a lost fumble off a sack on a first-and-goal play from the 4. App State (4-5, 2-4 Sun Belt) fought back to within 17-10 at the break and received the ball to open the third quarter. Coastal followed a three-and-out punt with a 17-play, 87-yard touchdown drive that lasted nearly nine minutes, then free safety AJ Williams picked off a pass on the first play of the Mountaineers' next series and returned the ball 35 yards to the 1. Just like that, on quarterback Ethan Vasko's 1-yard scoring run, the Chanticleers had a 31-10 lead in the third quarter.

App State did answer with a 12-play, 75-yard touchdown drive that included Marshall's 2-yard touchdown run on a fourth-and-goal carry.

The Mountaineers forced a punt with 8:48 remaining and had a first down at the Coastal 20 with roughly five minutes left in a 31-17 game before a grounding penalty and back-to-back sacks created a turnover on downs with a combined three-play loss of 44 yards to the App State 36. The Chanticleers added an insurance touchdown with 2:26 left.

Nov. 23 - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 34,012

GAME NOTES

It was App State's 100th victory since moving to the FBS level in 2014. The only programs with more than 100 wins during that span are Alabama, Clemson, Ohio State, Georgia, Oklahoma, Notre Dame, Boise State and Oregon.

App State improved to 14-5 all-time against JMU and won for the second straight year. The Mountaineers have a 2-1 edge in the series since both programs moved up to FBS.

Attendance at Kidd Brewer Stadium was 34,012 for the Mountaineers' final home game of the season. App State's average home attendance of 34,622 was the second-highest average in school and Sun Belt Conference history behind last year's average of 34,734.

It was the 11th straight sellout at The Rock dating back to 2023, and that included the Sept. 28 contest that was canceled due to Hurricane Helene.

The Mountaineers finished the home season with a 4-1 record at The Rock, making it the ninth time in the last 10 seasons with one or fewer home losses.

App State won on Senior Day at Kidd Brewer Stadium for the 26th time in the last 27 years.

App State had its first penalty-free game since a Black Saturday win against Georgia State in 2018.

App State improved to 20-1 when winning the turnover battle during head coach Shawn Clark's tenure. The Mountaineers had a plus-two advantage against a team leading the nation in turnover margin.

Special guests at the game included retired NFL star and media personality, Jason Kelce, retired NFL player and App State alum, Daniel Kilgore, and MLB pitcher and App State alum, Jeffrey Springs.

Strong Finish Propels App State to Senior Day Win

BOONE, N.C. — A late-week snowstorm, plus a crowd-pleasing celebrity appearance, added to the storylines of Black Saturday and Senior Day. All those elements made a 34-20 win over James Madison even sweeter. The Mountaineers (5-5, 3-4 Sun Belt) improved to 3-0 in Kidd Brewer Stadium since returning to The Rock about one month earlier, overcoming a 14-0 deficit. App State turned a 17-10 deficit late in the first half into a 24-17 halftime lead thanks to two TDs in the final 83 seconds: Joey Aguilar's 64-yard TD pass to Makai Jackson immediately after a fourth-down conversion from the Mountaineers' own 34-yard line and Michael Hetzel's 9-yard return of a punt blocked by Cahari Haynes. A rousing, on-field halftime speech to the crowd from Jason Kelce, who was visiting Boone to support and help share the story of the area's resilient response to Hurricane Helene, bridged the gap between the dramatic end to the first half and a dominant second half in the program's 100th win as an FBS member. The Mountaineers' defense, which ignited the rally when Shawn Collins recovered the ball after forcing a second-quarter fumble on a strip sack of quarterback Alonza Barnett III, shut out the Dukes (8-3, 4-3) after allowing a 52-yard field goal midway through the third quarter. Ahmani Marshall pushed the lead to double digits by scoring on a 1-yard touchdown run late in the third, and the defense continued to come through over the final 15 minutes. A fourth-and-3 stop at the JMU 30 preceded Michael Hughes' 41-yard field goal, Jason Chambers' interception of a deep throw ended the Dukes' next drive and Michael Fletcher's fourth-and-goal sack with the Dukes attempting to cut into a 14-point deficit in the last three minutes. Students who had crowded together all afternoon at the top of a too-weathered-to-occupy Miller Hill joined the postgame celebration on the field, which had been completely covered by snow early that morning, prior to a concerted snow removal effort in the stadium.

GAME NOTES

The Mountaineers went 4-1 at home in 2024, including three straight home victories following their late-October return to Kidd Brewer Stadium, but App State finished 0-4 in Sun Belt road games.

With a 5-6 final record, App State finished a season below .500 for the first time since 2013, which was the Mountaineers' final season in the Southern Conference and FCS level.

In the 40th meeting between the two rivals, Georgia Southern won for the 17th time. App State leads the series 22-17-1 and has a 6-5 edge since both schools joined the Sun Belt and FBS level.

Playing his final game as the two-year starting quarterback, Joey Aguilar finished the season with 3,003 passing yards (sixth-most in school history) and 23 touchdown passes. He became the first player in school history to have multiple 3,000-yard passing seasons. His 6,759 passing yards in two seasons rank him No. 5 in school history behind only three- and four-year starters.

Ahmani Marshall rushed for 127 yards and a touchdown on 24 carries. He went over the century mark for the fifth straight game, the longest streak of 100-yard rushing efforts since Nate Noel had six straight between the 2022 and 2023 seasons.

Eli Wilson had his 12th career TD reception, which is tied for the 14th most of any player in school history and third-most among Mountaineer tight ends.

Nate Johnson registered his first two full sacks of the season and made a huge play in the fourth quarter with a strip sack in which he also recovered the fumble. Last year, he tied for the national lead among true freshmen with 7.5 sacks en route to Freshman All-America recognition.

Mountaineers End Season With Loss In Statesboro

STATESBORO, Ga. — App State kept working to erase an early deficit, finally gaining possession with a chance to take the lead in the fourth quarter, but Georgia Southern used a late touchdown to produce additional separation in a 29-20 home victory.

Needing a victory to become bowl eligible, the Mountaineers finished an 11-game season at 5-6 overall and 3-5 in the Sun Belt Conference. They had one home game canceled by the impact of Hurricane Helene in late September.

A Marshall loss at James Madison would have clinched a share of the Sun Belt's East Division title and a spot in the Sun Belt Championship Game against Louisiana for the Eagles (8-4, 6-2). Instead, the Thundering Herd overcame a 17-0 halftime deficit on the road and won in two over-times to finish 7-1 in league play.

App State running back Ahmani Marshall closed the season with his fifth straight 100-yard game, rushing for 127 yards and a touchdown on 24 carries, while Makai Jackson had eight catches for 157 yards and a score in his second straight game with 150-plus yards. Eli Wilson also caught a touchdown pass from Joey Aguilar, who finished a second straight 3,000-yard passing season with 290 yards on 19 completions.

Defensively, the Mountaineers recorded both of their takeaways shortly after miscues, including Joshua Donald recovering a fumble forced by Michael Fletcher after a third-quarter interception. Nate Johnson had 2.0 sacks, producing a key one to give the Mountaineers possession not long after a 38-yard field goal attempt ended with a high snap.

App State trailed 22-13 with 10:10 left in the fourth quarter at that point, but Johnson recovered a fumble after he forced a sack while converging with Donald on quarterback JC French. Jackson's 40-yard reception to the 1 on the next play set up Marshall's touchdown run to cut Georgia Southern's lead to 22-20 with 8:16 remaining.

A three-and-out punt gave App State possession with a chance to take the lead for the first time all night, but the Mountaineers were forced into a three-and-out punt of their own. Jalen White broke loose for a 35-yard touchdown run on a third-and-7 carry into the end zone with 1:05 left.

Jason Hunter (97) forced Furman QB Ingle Martin to fumble in the final minute of the 2005 NCAA Division I-AA national semifinal between App State and Furman. Omarr Byrom (95) recovered to seal App State's 29-23 victory and a trip to the program's first national championship game.

In one of the signature plays of his illustrious career and the storied App State-Georgia Southern rivalry, Armanti Edwards soared into the end zone on fourth-and-goal from the 1-yard line with 2:36 remaining to provide the winning points in App State's 37-36 win at Georgia Southern in 2008.

In a 28-27 home playoff win against James Madison to start the 2007 FCS title run, Jacques Roman (40) used his right hand to force a fumble after JMU, needing just a field goal, had moved inside the Mountaineers' 10-yard line in the final minute.

Nick Ross scored a tiebreaking touchdown when he returned a second-quarter interception 20 yards to the end zone in App State's 20-15 victory at South Carolina in 2019. The Mountaineers beat UNC and South Carolina on the road that year.

NCAA STATISTICAL POLICY

Before 2002, postseason games were not included in NCAA final football statistics or records. Despite the NCAA policy, App State previously recognized statistics from all games — regular season and postseason — in its single-season and career records. However, in order to maintain consistency with NCAA records, beginning in 2006, App State readjusted its single-season and career records, eliminating statistics compiled in 19 NCAA Division I-AA playoff games played before 2002. Many thanks to former associate sports information director Ty Patton for his assistance in this task.

NOTING APP STATE IN THE POSTSEASON

- App State was the first program to ever win three consecutive NCAA Division I FCS/Division I-AA national championships and remains one of only two programs to accomplish the feat.
- Only eight programs in NCAA football history boast three straight national titles, regardless of division. App State became the first Division I program (FCS or FBS) to accomplish the feat in 61 years when it won its third consecutive title in 2007.

NCAA PROGRAMS WITH THREE STRAIGHT NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Team (Division)	Years
Minnesota (I)	1934-36
Army (I)	1944-46
Augustana (III)	1983-86
North Alabama (II)	1993-95
Mount Union (III)	1996-98; 2000-02
App State (I-AA/FCS)	2005-07
Wisconsin-Whitewater (III)	2009-11
North Dakota State (FCS)	2011-15, 2017-19

- App State is the only school from the state of North Carolina to ever win an NCAA football national championship and the only public institution in the state of North Carolina to win a national title on any level of college football (private institutions Lenoir-Rhyne and Elon have won NAIA national championships).

Without starting quarterback Richie Williams, who was out with a severe ankle injury in the first half, App State fell behind, 16-7.

Murrell's counterpart on the defensive line, Jason Hunter, scooped up the loose ball at the UNI 15.

With Williams back at the helm, the Mountaineers cut the deficit to 16-14 on Kevin Richardson's one-yard touchdown run in the third quarter.

Hunter galloped untouched into the end zone to give App State a 21-16 lead with 9:14 left to play, setting off a wild celebration on the App State sideline and among the 12,000-plus Mountaineer fans in the stands.

With under 10 minutes left to play, Northern Iowa quarterback Eric Sanders dropped back to pass from his own 25 yard line.

Murrell and Hunter combined for two more sacks down the stretch to squelch the Panthers' final scoring opportunities.

App State defensive end Marques Murrell came off the left edge to strip the ball from Sanders.

Richardson's first-down run in the waning minutes sealed App State's first-ever national championship.

"It just feels so good that I could do something to leave a legacy like that because it's part of history. I'm glad to be a part of that."

— 2005 NCAA Division I-AA Championship MVP Jason Hunter

App State 7 • UMass 7 1:15 TO GO • FIRST QUARTER

Both teams moved the ball with relative ease in the first 10 minutes of the second quarter, but all they had to show for it were swapped punts and a UMass interception deep in App State territory. The Mountaineers got the ball for only the second time in the second period when they fielded a punt at their own 22 yard line with just over five minutes left to play in the opening half. On the first play of the series, Edwards connected with his favorite target, William Mayfield, for a 35-yard gain. From there, the Mountaineer trio of Richardson, Edwards and Devon Moore banged out the final 43 yards of the drive on the ground, capped by Richardson's six-yard scoring run off right tackle with 49 seconds to go before halftime. The Apps' 11-play, 78-yard drive took 4:19 off the clock and assured them of taking a seven-point lead into the locker room.

App State 14 • UMass 7 0:49 TO GO • SECOND QUARTER

After UMass knotted the contest at 14-14 with an 11-play, 81-yard scoring drive, App State got the ball back on its own 29 with 4:12 left to play in the third quarter looking to put together a lengthy scoring drive of its own. Thanks in large part to Richardson, who amassed 48 of the Mountaineers' 71 yards on the possession, the Apps did just that, marching 71 yards in 13 plays. Richardson punctuated the scoring drive by powering four yards through the heart of the line and into the end zone for his 29th touchdown of the season, tying the NCAA Division I FCS record set by Colgate's Jamaal Branch in 16 games in 2003. More importantly, Richardson's third scoring run of the evening gave the Mountaineers a seven-point lead with 13:22 remaining in the ballgame.

App State 21 • UMass 14 13:22 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER

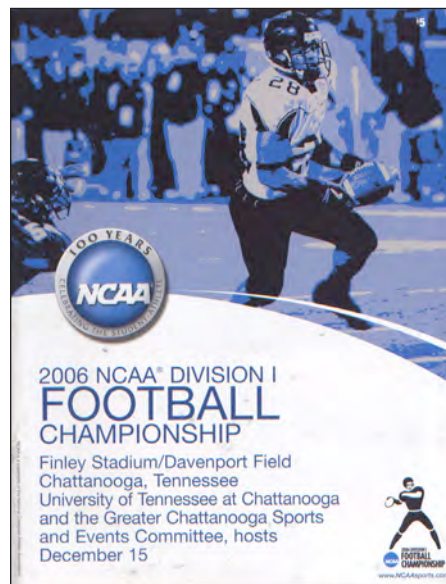

When UMass cut the Mountaineers' lead to 21-17 on a 42-yard Chris Koeplin field goal with 8:46 to go, App State head coach Jerry Moore told quarterbacks coach Scott Satterfield, "We've got to run eight minutes off that clock." Satterfield replied, "We've got to score." Moore agreed. "I didn't say don't score. But we need to run some time off the clock." Richardson, who ran 11 times for 48 of Appalachian's 80 yards on the drive, made sure the Apps accomplished both goals. In all, thanks to Richardson's running and a key third-down completion from Edwards to fellow freshman Josh Johnson, App State ran 6:46 off the clock on the victory-sealing drive, which culminated with Richardson's fourth touchdown of the evening. The two-yard dive was also Richardson's 30th TD of the season, setting a new NCAA Division I FCS single-season record. Following Richardson's score, UMass' last-ditch effort was thwarted when Corey Lynch picked off a Liam Coen pass with 42 seconds to play.

App State 28 • UMass 17 1:51 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER

"Mission accomplished. We came out this year with the target on our back, but we stayed focused and we came out and we played our game right to the very end."

— 2006 NCAA Division I Championship MVP Kevin Richardson

Delaware appeared to grab its first momentum of the evening when future first-round draft pick Joe Flacco tossed a 39-yard touchdown to Mark Duncan with 1:10 remaining before halftime, seemingly cutting Appalachian's lead to two touchdowns heading into the locker room. However, just 26 seconds later, the Mountaineers took the momentum back for good when Edwards found Dexter Jackson for a 60-yard touchdown that extended the App State advantage back to 21 points. Delaware would get no closer the rest of the evening.

Unlike its first two trips to Chattanooga for the national championship game, App State wasted no time in getting on the board in the 2007 title tilt, as it forced Delaware to punt after a three-and-out on the opening possession then promptly marched 58 yards in just six plays to take a 7-0 lead. Buoyed by spectacular downfield blocking from his offensive lineman, Richardson took a screen pass from Armani Edwards and needed to beat just one UD defender at the goal line.

6:02 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER

With Richardson and the majority of Appalachian's starters watching from the sideline, senior Trey Elder capped the rout with a 53-yard touchdown scamper that brought the Black and Gold contingent pouring out of the stands and onto the sidelines with more than three minutes still to play. In his last collegiate game, Richardson came up huge once again on FCS football's biggest stage, finishing with 145 total yards (118 rushing, 27 receiving) and three of Appalachian's nine touchdowns but the most memorable play of the evening was undoubtedly the touchdown run by Elder, who was Appalachian's starter behind center in the 2005 title-game victory over Northern Iowa but is best known for the selfishness that he displayed in backing up a pair of all-America signal-callers in Richie Williams and Armani Edwards during his four years in the Black and Gold.

App State 7 • OHIO 0
7:17 TO GO • FIRST QUARTER

However, the tide turned in the final 91 seconds of the half. On the first offensive play after Ohio's field goal, OU linebacker Quentin Poling picked off Lamb and returned the interception 20 yards for a touchdown to give the Bobcats a 10-7 lead. Things went from bad to worse five plays later when Lamb mishandled a snap and it was recovered by OU's Tony Porter at the App State 23 yard line. Two plays after the miscue, Ohio running back A.J. Ouellette rumbled in from seven yards out and, in the span of just 1:11, the Mountaineers' 7-0 lead had turned into a 17-7 halftime deficit.

OHIO 17 • App State 7
0:20 TO GO • SECOND QUARTER

App State's comeback began in earnest late in the third quarter when it started what would turn out to be an 11-play, 97-yard touchdown drive. The series was aided by an unnecessary roughness penalty on Ohio defensive back Toran Davis, who clocked wide-out Dante Jones several steps after Jones was overthrown by Lamb on a third-and-seven play from the App State 44 yard line. Six plays later, Lamb found junior tight end Barrett Burns for a 17-yard touchdown pass that cut the deficit to 24-14.

1:47 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER

The monstrous comeback seemed unlikely when the Mountaineers entered the final period facing a 17-point deficit but they quickly turned the tables, scoring three touchdowns in a 1:56 span and taking a 28-24 advantage barely three minutes into the quarter. After App State's three-touchdown flurry, it was Ohio's turn to rally, which it did with a safety and a 21-yard field goal to retake a 29-28 lead with 1:47 to go. However, sophomore quarterback Taylor Lamb calmly led the Mountaineers on a nine-play, 73-yard drive over the final 107 seconds that culminated with Matics' 23-yard game-winner. Lamb accounted for 51 of the 73 yards on the game-winning drive, including a 32-yard run that moved App State from its own 41 yard line all the way to the OU 27 with a minute left on the clock. The victory set a new record for victories by a team in its first season as a full-fledged member of NCAA Division I FBS (previously Division I-AA) after transitioning from Division I FCS (previously I-AA) and the first team to win a bowl game in its initial season as a full-fledged FBS squad.

App State 7 • TOLEDO 0
8:31 TO GO • FIRST QUARTER

App State forced a three-and-out to open the Camellia Bowl, then took its opening drive and marched 72 yards for a touchdown. Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Year Jalin Moore's 11-yard run on the first play got the Mountaineers going, and Zy Letman drew a pass interference penalty on third down to prolong a drive. App State scored when Deltron Hopkins took a forward flip from Taylor Lamb and raced 16 yards around right end.

6:03 TO GO • SECOND QUARTER

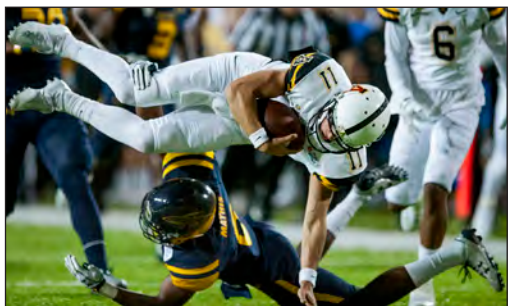

Toledo quickly answered App State's first touchdown, as junior quarterback Logan Woodside connected with Corey Jones for 58 yards on the first play of the next drive, setting up a 15-yard touchdown reception by tight end Michael Roberts.

Marcus Cox eclipsed 5,000 career rushing yards on a 20-yard carry to close out the first quarter, and his 52nd career touchdown came on a 13-yard sprint around left end to give App State a 14-7 lead with just over six minutes left to play until halftime.

App State 21 • TOLEDO 14
8:04 TO GO • THIRD QUARTER

Toledo's Woodside found Cody Thompson for 25 yards on a corner route that set up a 26-yard touchdown run by Kareem Hunt to knot the score at 14-14 a few minutes before halftime.

App State, which ran twice as many plays as the Rockets in the opening half and outgained them 242-172, moved ahead 21-14 when Lamb capped a nine-play, 69-yard drive by racing into the end zone from 13 yards out on a fourth-and-1 play. It was part of a 126-yard rushing performance on nine carries from Lamb, who gave App State two 100-yard rushers.

APP STATE 28 • TOLEDO 21
2:16 TO GO • THIRD QUARTER

Toledo's Woodside hit Thompson for a 4-yard touchdown to tie the game at 21-21 late in the third quarter, but true freshman Darrynton Evans returned the ensuing kickoff 94 yards for a touchdown.

It was the first college touchdown for the 2016 graduate of New Smyrna Beach High School in Florida. He was App State's primary kickoff returner, but he also spent time at running back and wide receiver for the Mountaineers.

App State 31 • TOLEDO 28
5:14 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER

Woodside found Thompson again on the next drive for 58 yards to set up Hunt's 1-yard TD leap in the last minute of the third quarter, creating the fourth and final tie at 28-28.

App State's Michael Rubino connected on a 39-yard field goal with 5:14 remaining, and Toledo moved inside the App 10 with less than two minutes left. Senior linebacker John Law and Montgomery native Josh Thomas made a stop for no gain on a third-and-2 play from the 8 to force a field-goal attempt, and Jameson Vest pushed the 30-yarder wide right after Toledo took a delay-of-game penalty.

Cox was 2 yards shy of posting his fourth straight 1,000-yard season when he sealed the outcome with a 10-yard gain on the first play of the final series.

APP STATE 7 • TOLEDO 0
4:06 TO GO • FIRST QUARTER

With five minutes left in the opening quarter, Toledo began its second drive at its own 38, and App State linebacker Anthony Flory intercepted Logan Woodside's pass near midfield before returning the ball 19 yards to the Rockets' 36.

Jalin Moore covered all 36 yards with four rushes, using back-to-back gains of 15 and 10 to set up a 7-yard touchdown that started a one-sided rematch.

APP STATE 14 • TOLEDO 0
13:51 TO GO • SECOND QUARTER

App State forced a three-and-out after its initial touchdown and responded with an eight-play, 64-yard march.

True freshman Daetrich Harrington's 16-yard run moved the Mountaineers into Toledo territory, and senior quarterback Taylor Lamb's 23-yard connection with Ike Lewis set up a first down from the 13. Runs of 6 and 7 yards by Moore pushed App State into the end zone once again.

HALFTIME

Another three-and-out helped by a quarterback hurry from Flory allowed App State to start its next possession at its 38, and a 35-yard run by Harrington moved the ball from near midfield to Toledo's 20.

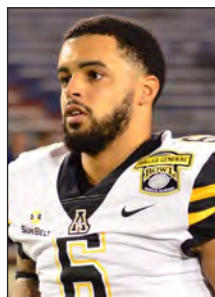

Chandler Staton converted a 29-yard field goal, and the Mountaineers quickly regained possession thanks to Kaiden Smith's forced fumble on a kickoff return.

Austin Exford recovered the ball at Toledo's 14, and Staton added a 23-yard field goal with 5:52 left in the half.

APP STATE 27 • TOLEDO 0
8:14 TO GO • THIRD QUARTER

Toledo, trailing by 20, threatened to get back into the game by driving to the App State 37 on the first series of the second half.

Desmond Franklin's interception of a deep throw near the end zone, followed by his 35-yard return, ended the Rockets' best scoring chance. Seven plays later, Moore raced into the end zone from 31 yards out to post his third touchdown and clinch the Dollar General Bowl MVP award.

APP STATE 34 • TOLEDO 0
14:54 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER

After Moore's third touchdown, the Mountaineers' defense put up two more three-and-outs, with Caleb Fuller and Eric Boggs combining on a sack that cause the Rockets to punt from their own 13. Freshman receiver Malik Williams opened the final period by scoring on a 3-yard run in which he had the option to pass to Lamb, who was covered.

Capped by Clifton Duck's sixth pick of the year, App State's defense forced Woodside into the first three-interception game of his career while recording four sacks and limiting Toledo to 146 total yards — 364 below its season average.

The Mountaineers notched their second postseason shut-out in the modern era while joining Clemson and Alabama as the only FBS programs with a bowl shutout since 2010.

MIDDLE TENNESSEE 3 • APP STATE 0
3:22 TO GO • FIRST QUARTER

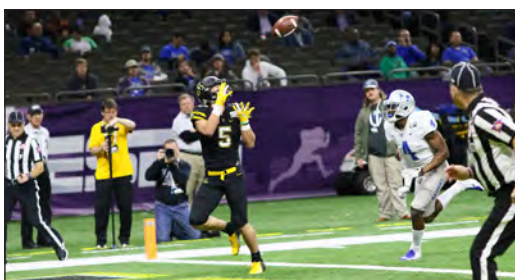

Middle Tennessee, which missed a 47-yard field goal to cap the game-opening series, followed a quick interception on App State's first series with a 24-yard field goal.

A fumble on the second play of App State's next series gave Middle Tennessee possession at the Mountaineers' 21, but Noel Cook's pressure contributed to an interception by Josh Thomas at the 15 as left-handed quarterback Brent Stockstill rolled right.

APP STATE 10 • MIDDLE TENNESSEE 3
10:06 TO GO • SECOND QUARTER

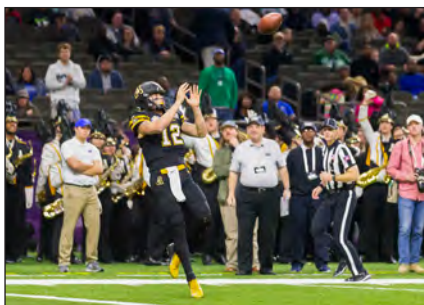

Zac Thomas' 35-yard pass to Jalen Virgil ignited App State's first scoring drive, which ended with a 22-yard field goal from Chandler Staton.

Tyler Bird, D'Marco Jackson, Caleb Spurlin and Thomas Hennigan helped stuff a fourth-and-2 rush on a fake punt from the Middle Tennessee 43 a few minutes later, and Hennigan gave the Mountaineers the lead for good with a 30-yard touchdown on an accurate deep throw on a wide receiver pass from Malik Williams, the former high school quarterback.

APP STATE 17 • MIDDLE TENNESSEE 3
6:38 TO GO • SECOND QUARTER

Williams' second TD throw of the game followed a Tae Hayes interception that resulted from Elijah Diarrassouba's quarterback pressure. With another aggressive play call from Shawn Clark, Williams took a reverse handoff from running back Darrynton Evans, rolled right and lofted an 8-yard touchdown pass back to Thomas, the quarterback, in the right side of the end zone.

The only other touchdown with an App State quarterback reaching the end zone on a pass play in recent memory occurred in 2010, when DeAndre Presley was credited with a TD "reception" on a play in which he recovered his receiver's fumble against Chattanooga and ran the final 33 yards with the ball.

APP STATE 31 • MTSU 6
11:06 TO GO • THIRD QUARTER

Evans' 62-yard run set up Henry Pearson's 1-yard touchdown reception in the final minute of the half, and App State took a 24-6 lead into the break before Corey Sutton opened the third quarter with the first of his two second-half touchdown catches.

The next drive included back-to-back sacks to force a punt, with Anthony Flory, Okon Godwin and Akeem Davis-Gaither working to bring down Stockstill.

APP STATE 38 • MIDDLE TENNESSEE 6
8:01 TO GO • THIRD QUARTER

Able to not lose a year of eligibility because he was playing in just his third game as a true freshman, running back Camerun Peoples entered the lineup to begin the next drive and gained 1 yard on his first carry before breaking free down the right sideline on his 63-yard score.

Middle Tennessee posted a third-quarter touchdown to cut into its deficit, but App State's defense applied constant pressure to Stockstill the rest of the way, and Sutton capped the scoring on an 11-yard TD with 13:06 remaining.

Chris Willis and Godwin recorded sacks on the next series, enabling App State's coaches to play senior quarterback Zeb Speir, senior receiver Brad Absher and many other reserves in the closing minutes.

UAB 14 • APP STATE 3
14:11 TO GO • SECOND QUARTER

Facing a quick two-touchdown deficit via a pair of 25-yard scoring passes by the Blazers, App State stayed the course and systematically worked its way back into the game.

Marcus Williams Jr. rushed for gains of 20 and 27 yards to set up a 34-yard field goal from Chandler Staton early in the second quarter, and UAB punted the ball back to the Mountaineers less than two minutes later.

UAB 14 • APP STATE 10
7:59 TO GO • SECOND QUARTER

Darrynton Evans raced to the UAB 24-yard line on a 57-yard run to begin App State's next possession after the Blazers' punt, and a UAB penalty for illegal leaping on a field goal attempt prolonged the possession.

Two plays later, Zac Thomas dropped the ball in to Thomas Hennigan on a fade route for a 17-yard touchdown in which Hennigan, for the first time in the game, outfought the UAB defensive back for the ball.

APP STATE 17 • UAB 14
12:14 TO GO • THIRD QUARTER

Opening the second half with possession and a four-point deficit, App State moved to the UAB 39 on a 24-yard pass to Jalen Virgil and kept its offense on the field for a fourth-and-1 play from the 30.

Thomas fumbled the ball on a QB sneak attempt, but Evans scooped up the loose ball in the backfield and ran untouched off right tackle for a 31-yard touchdown.

"I went to the sideline joking with Coach Clark that I'm going to tell everybody it was a designed play," Evans said. "It was just right place, right time."

APP STATE 24 • UAB 17
6:16 TO GO • THIRD QUARTER

UAB tied the game at 17-all by making a 49-yard field goal midway through the third quarter, but Nick Hampton and Trey Cobb combined for the biggest play of the game on the Blazers' next series.

Hampton knocked the ball loose on a sack of Tyler Johnston III, prompting Cobb to scoop up the loose ball and run 24 yards for a tiebreaking defensive touchdown.

It was App State's sixth defensive touchdown of the season.

APP STATE 31 • UAB 17
FINALAPP STATE 31 • UAB 17
0:44 TO GO • THIRD QUARTER

The Mountaineers forced a three-and-out punt and moved ahead 31-17 with a nine-play, 85-yard touchdown drive.

Facing a fourth-and-3, Thomas rolled right and threw a 27-yard touchdown pass to Hennigan, who again wrestled the ball away from the UAB defender in the end zone.

There were no points the rest of the way, and App State could begin celebrating when cornerback Shaun Jolly forced and recovered a fumble in the last two minutes.

Head coach Shawn Clark's first regular season win included a pair of 100-yard rushers and two defensive stands with an eight-point lead in the closing minutes.

Sept. 19 at Marshall L, 17-7

The loss snapped a 12-game winning streak against Group of Five conference teams from outside the Sun Belt.

Sept. 26 Campbell W, 52-21

Daetrich Harrington had career highs of 32 carries for 211 yards and four rushing TDs with App State missing more than 20 players because of COVID-19 protocols.

Oct. 22 Arkansas State* W, 45-17

Zac Thomas delivered a 60-yard TD run in addition to tying his career high of four touchdown passes.

Oct. 31 at ULM* W, 31-13

In the program's 1,000th game, App State had three INTs and allowed 222 yards (counting a game-ending TD).

Nov. 7 at Texas State* W, 38-17

App State got first-time TDs from TE Miller Gibbs, Brendan Harrington (INT) and DE Caleb Spurlin (short TD catch).

Nov. 14 Georgia State* W, 17-13

Jacob Huesman finished off a fourth-quarter TD drive in relief of injured Zac Thomas to give App State its first lead.

Nov. 21 at Coastal Carolina* L, 34-23

App State was ahead until a TD with 2:24 left, and Coastal added another TD on an INT return of a fourth-down pass.

Nov. 28 Troy* W, 47-10

App State built a quick 28-0 lead, Zac Thomas threw four TD passes and Steven Jones scored on an INT return.

Dec. 4 Louisiana* L, 24-21

App State cut into a 24-10 deficit but couldn't tie the game as regulation ended on a rainy Friday night.

Dec. 12 at Georgia Southern* W, 34-26

Overcoming a 14-point deficit, App State took its first lead on Jalen Virgil's 100-yard kick return early in the fourth quarter and then got a 70-yard TD run from Nate Noel.

Dec. 21 vs. North Texas W, 56-28

App State improved its bowl record to 6-0 by rushing for 500 yards in the Myrtle Beach Bowl, including 317 from Cameron Peoples (five rushing TDs on 22 carries).

Malik Williams, the former high school quarterback, threw the fourth trick-play touchdown pass of his career by hitting tight end Henry Pearson for a 22-yard score and a 7-0 lead in the opening five minutes.

Cameron Peoples capped a 13-play, 90-yard drive with a 3-yard touchdown to push App State's lead to 14-0 later in the first quarter.

APP STATE 35 • NORTH TEXAS 14
HALFTIME

Pearson scored for the second time on an 11-yard pass from Zac Thomas midway through the second quarter. Immediately after North Texas missed a 47-yard field goal with App State leading 21-7, Marcus Williams Jr. sprinted through a big hole for a 70-yard touchdown.

After the Mean Green cut its deficit to 28-14, App State took over at its 36-yard line with 22 seconds remaining before halftime and got a 64-yard TD run from Peoples on the next play.

APP STATE 42 • NORTH TEXAS 21
2:58 TO GO • THIRD QUARTER

After North Texas once again pulled within two touchdowns thanks to an 11-play, 74-yard drive midway through the third quarter, App State pushed its leadback to 21 points on a 62-yard touchdown run by Peoples.

Peoples entered the Myrtle Beach Bowl needing a whopping 193 yards to give the Mountaineers a 1,000-yard rusher for the ninth straight year — the nation's longest active streak at season's end — and his second long touchdown pushed him over 200 yards for the day.

A flag for a penalty well behind the play wiped out Williams' 79-yard touchdown run late in the third quarter, limiting the gain to 16 yards before a 15-yard penalty walkoff changed the line of scrimmage from the App State 21 to the 22.

Peoples rushed for a 76-yard gain to the North Texas 2 on the very next snap, setting up his fourth of five touchdown runs.

Peoples tied the school record for rushing touchdowns in a game, as John Settle posted five against Davidson in 1986. Peoples also tied six other players, including Barry Sanders, as the only ones to have scored five rushing touchdowns in a bowl game.

Steven Jones Jr. returned an interception 63 yards to the North Texas 6 to set up, following a post-return penalty, Peoples' final TD on an 11-yard run with 9:03 left.

Peoples set a school and NCAA bowl record with 317 rushing yards on 22 attempts.

The previous NCAA single-game bowl record belonged to Georgia Tech's P.J. Daniels, who rushed for 307 yards against Tulsa in the 2004 Humanitarian Bowl. Peoples also broke the school record of 313 yards from Armanti Edwards in a 2007 FCS semifinal win against Richmond.

APP STATE 3 • MIAMI 3
9:31 TO GO • FIRST QUARTER

Despite throwing an interception on the first rain-soaked play from scrimmage, App State gave up just a 34-yard field goal to the RedHawks, who brought an 11-2 record to the Cure Bowl after beating Toledo in the MAC title game.

After falling behind, App State tied the score when Michael Hughes kicked a 29-yard field goal to cap a 71-yard drive that included Joey Aguilar's 52-yard pass to Kaedin Robinson.

HALFTIME

After tying the game, App State moved ahead for good with a 13-play, 88-yard drive capped by Hughes' 22-yard field goal with 13:14 left before halftime.

Aguilar completed his first five passes on the drive for 69 yards, and Anderson Castle's 26-yard run on a third-and-23 play from the Miami 36 set up the score.

By halftime, Aguilar had thrown for 161 yards, with Robinson catching seven passes for 107 yards.

APP STATE 13 • MIAMI 3
4:46 TO GO • THIRD QUARTER

It took more than 40 minutes for a touchdown to be scored in a game with a combined 13 fumbles, but App State finally delivered on Aguilar's 9-yard keeper with 4:46 left in the third quarter.

Miami opened the second half with a drive to App State's 28 before EJ Jackson stopped a fourth-and-2 run for a gain of 1 yard.

Kanye Roberts had a pair of 14-yard runs leading up to a third-and-8 completion to Eli Wilson to set up Aguilar's score.

APP STATE 13 • MIAMI 9
5:50 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER

Miami scored its only touchdown with 2:05 left in the third quarter — it didn't convert the extra point — and the Mountaineers held a fourth-quarter lead of four points when the RedHawks gained possession from Mitchell Lake's 53-yard punt and marched from their own 9 into App State territory in the closing minutes.

Freshman outside linebacker Nate Johnson forced a fumble at the tail end of a run in which several defenders swarmed to the running back.

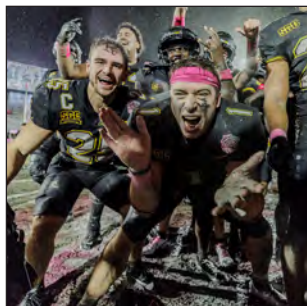

Safety Ronald Clarke picked up the unclaimed ball before Jackson took possession from his teammate.

2:39 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER

App State started its final drive at its 42 with 2:39 left, and five straight Castle runs — including gains of 10, 25 and 8 yards in the middle three — helped produce a pair of first downs to run out the clock.

Castle finished with a career-best 119 yards.

Yardage was hard to come by for both offenses — over an inch of rain fell during the 3-hour, 21-minute contest — but Aguilar and his teammates covered plenty of ground with open-field runs that preceded a slip-and-slide celebration on UCF's natural grass.

NO. 23 JOHN SETTLE

On Nov. 22, 1986, before his last regular-season game at Kidd Brewer Stadium, the legendary John Settle became the first App State football player to have his jersey (No. 23) retired.

At the time, Settle's career established him as App State's all-time leader in almost every rushing category. Settle displayed courage every step of the way. His pride and respect for the game set the standard of excellence by which all Mountaineer athletes, past, present and future, strive to perpetuate.

From 1983 through 1986, Settle graced the App State backfield with steadfast courage and determination. He finished his career as the school's all-time leading rusher with 4,409 yards and 43 touchdowns. At the time of his departure from Boone, he was the third-ranked rusher in NCAA Division I-AA football history.

Settle, a criminal justice major while at App State, was named the Southern Conference Player and Male Athlete of the Year as a senior, after rushing for 1,661 yards and 20 touchdowns. One of the highlights of his season was his five-touchdown day in the Homecoming victory over Davidson on Nov. 4, 1986.

The two-time All-American had a knack for rising to the occasion in the most important games. In App State's first NCAA I-AA Playoff game in school history, on Nov. 29, 1986, Settle dazzled the crowd with 236 yards on 37 carries and a touchdown in the 28-26 defeat to Nicholls State.

His excellence continued at the professional level with the Atlanta Falcons. In 1988, Settle became the first rookie free agent in NFL history to gain over 1,000 yards in a season. During that year, he gained 1,594 total yards (1,024 rushing and 570 receiving) and was voted to the Pro Bowl in Honolulu, Hawaii. His fabled playing days came to a close with the Washington Redskins. He was rewarded for his hard work with a 1991 Super Bowl championship ring with the Redskins.

Settle's career continued to evolve as his playing days paved the way for a future in coaching. He began his coaching career by assisting with running backs at App State in 1994. From 1995-1998, Settle served as an offensive assistant for the Cleveland Browns and later the Baltimore Ravens. His duties in the NFL involved coordinating the game plan and working with the running backs, special teams, and strength and conditioning. His experienced football mind was also used in the evaluation of personnel.

In 1998, Settle returned to the college game as the running backs coach at Fresno State. After eight seasons at FSU, he spent five seasons in the same position at the University of Wisconsin. In 2011, he returned to the NFL, spending two seasons as the Carolina Panthers' running backs coach (2011-12) and one with the Cleveland Browns (2013). In March 2021, he was hired as Kentucky's running backs coach/co-special teams coordinator after working previously at Wisconsin, and Rice hired him in 2023.

App State retired John Settle's No. 23 jersey on Nov. 22, 1986.

Currently the running backs coach at Rice, John Settle enjoyed a six-year NFL playing career.

Of his time in Boone, Settle says: "App State helped lay the foundation for who and what I am today. As time moves on, I appreciate the days I spent in Boone more and more. The people, the fans, the University and the family environment that surrounds the community are something that I have not encountered since my days in Boone. I hope that someday I will have the opportunity to give back to a place that has given so much to me."

NO. 32 DEXTER COAKLEY

Perhaps the most decorated player in the illustrious history of App State football, App State retired Dexter Coakley's No. 32 jersey on April 19, 2005.

From 1993-96, Coakley set or tied six school records, earned a slew of personal accolades and helped lead App State to 32 victories and two NCAA Division I-AA playoff appearances.

The Mt. Pleasant, S.C., native made an immediate impact on App State's squad and led the Mountaineers with 141 total tackles as a freshman in 1993, en route to Southern Conference Freshman of the Year honors.

Things only got better for the hard-hitting linebacker, both individually and for the Mountaineers. In 1994, he racked up 155 tackles to earn the first of three SoCon Defensive Player of the Year awards. Perhaps more importantly, he helped lead App State back to the I-AA playoffs after a one-year hiatus and a first-round, overtime victory over No. 7 New Hampshire before falling at second-ranked Boise State in the national quarterfinals.

As a junior, Coakley led his squad to a perfect 11-0 regular season, becoming just the ninth team in 30 years to claim the SoCon crown with an undefeated, untied league record (8-0). For the second straight season, Coakley hauled in SoCon Defensive Player of the Year and first-team All-America accolades after racking up 150 tackles. He also earned the inaugural Buck Buchanan Award, given to the top defensive player in I-AA.

Coakley capped his second-to-none collegiate career in 1996 by leading App State in tackles for the third time with 166. He earned SoCon Defensive Player of the Year and first-team All-America honors for the third time, while also claiming his second-straight Buck Buchanan Award. He was a two-time winner of I-AA football's most prestigious defensive honor and earned All-America status for three years.

Coakley remains App State's all-time career leader in total tackles (616), solo tackles (350), assisted tackles (266), double-figure tackle games (38) and 20-tackle games (seven). He is tied for the school mark with two-consecutive 20-tackle games, a feat he achieved twice, versus Georgia Southern and Marshall in 1995 and against East Tennessee State and Furman in '96.

Following the end of his career in the High Country, Coakley became the second-highest drafted player in App State history (at the time) when the Dallas Cowboys selected him in the third round (65th overall pick) of the 1997 NFL Draft.

His impact in the NFL was as immediate as his impact at App State, as he started all 16 games for the Cowboys as a rookie in '97. In 155 games as a pro, he registered 796 tackles, 13 interceptions, 9.5 sacks and six forced fumbles.

After spending the first eight years of his professional career in Dallas, Coakley spent the 2005 and '06 seasons with the St. Louis Rams. He retired from the NFL in 2007, earning Pro Bowl appearances in 1999, 2001 and '03.

In recognition of his outstanding collegiate career, Coakley was inducted into the Southern Conference Hall of Fame on May 24, 2011 and became the first Mountaineer inducted in the College Football Hall of Fame on July 16, 2011. He was inducted into the S.C. Athletic Hall of Fame in 2019.

An active member of the community, Coakley received the Cowboys Unsung Hero Award in 2002, as selected by his teammates and fans. He has been involved with many charitable programs throughout and following his professional football career, including the Salvation Army, the Children's Cancer Fund Fashion Show, Dallas Cowboys Courage House, and Let Us Play! Sports Camp for Girls.

App State retired Dexter Coakley's No. 32 jersey on April 19, 2005.

Dexter Coakley played eight of his 10 NFL seasons for the Dallas Cowboys and made three Pro Bowl appearances.

NO. 38 DINO HACKETT

App State Football retired its third jersey, Dino Hackett's No. 38, during homecoming festivities on Oct. 29, 2005.

"I've had a lot of honors in the NFL and college and I can honestly say having my number retired at App State is the greatest honor I've ever received," Hackett said.

A member of App State's 75th Anniversary Team, Hackett starred as a linebacker at App State from 1982-85. He set eight school records, including most solo (106), assisted (94) and total tackles (200) in a season, which he accomplished in 1985 en route to first-team All-America accolades. His 27 total tackles against East Tennessee State on Nov. 23, 1985 are still tops in App State's single-game annals, as are his 18 solo stops (tied for first) versus Furman on Oct. 26, 1985. In addition to the All-America recognition as a senior, Hackett was also an All-Southern Conference honoree in both 1984 and '85.

Following his standout collegiate career, Hackett was selected in the second round (35th overall) of the 1986 National Football League Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. He went on to enjoy a successful seven-year professional career, spending six seasons with the Chiefs and one with the Seattle Seahawks. One of only seven Chiefs to ever start all 16 games as a rookie, Hackett's 140 tackles in 1986 were the second-most by a rookie in team history. He went on to earn a spot in the Pro Bowl following the 1988 season, in which he was part of K.C.'s top-rated pass defense. His 16 tackles versus the Seahawks on Sept. 20, 1987 set a Kansas City record.

After retiring from the NFL following the 1993 season, Hackett returned to the Triad, where he and his brother, Joey, owned and operated Hackett Properties, a real estate development company. He first appeared on the ballot for the College Football Hall of Fame in 2025.

Dino Hackett played six of his seven NFL seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs and earned a Pro Bowl selection in 1988.

App State retired Dino Hackett's No. 38 on Oct. 29, 2005.

A graduate of Southern Guilford H.S. in Greensboro, Hackett has resided in Pleasant Garden, N.C., and his family has raised quarterhorses on their farm.

"Honoring Dino was a highlight of my first year at App State. To me, personally, Dino Hackett is what Mountaineer football is all about," App State athletics director Charlie Cobb said at the time. "Along with being one of the best football players in App State history, Dino is someone who embodies the spirit of App State and is a terrific ambassador for both the University and the athletics department. He is truly deserving of the honor."

NO. 71 LARRY HAND

App State retired the No. 71 jersey worn by All-American and NFL standout Larry Hand as part of homecoming festivities on Sept. 30, 2006.

Hand was a two-time All-American and three-time All-Carolinas Conference honoree as a tackle at App State from 1960-64. Hand was far from a top prospect coming out of Butler H.S. in Butler, N.J. In fact, he worked as a mason for two years before App State head coach Jim Duncan brought him to Boone, despite the fact that the 6-4, 225-pounder only played junior varsity high school football. However, after missing his freshman season due to injury, Hand made an immediate impact on the Mountaineers and put together the first of three straight all-conference campaigns in 1962.

In '63, he garnered All-America accolades for the first time, earning second-team NAIA honors. His breakout performance came in a 20-6 win over Lenoir-Rhyne, in which he led a Mountaineer defense that forced five fumbles and held the Bears to minus-22 yards rushing.

Following App State's first victory over Lenoir-Rhyne in nine years, Duncan called Hand "the best pro line prospect to come out of the Carolinas Conference."

Professional teams agreed, as Hand was drafted as a future selection by both the Detroit Lions (10th round — NFL) and New York Jets (21st round — AFL) prior to his senior season in 1964 (future selections could be used on players that had a year of college eligibility remaining but their class had graduated).

In '64, Hand showed why the professional teams jumped at the chance to draft him in the offseason, as he put together a monster season that culminated in first-team NAIA All-America plaudits and second-team recognition by the Associated Press. He was also awarded the 1964 Kirkland Blocking Award, established in 1957 by Catawba College in memory of Gordon A. Kirkland.

He signed with the Lions in 1965 and went on to play 13 seasons in Detroit. His 13 years of service were tied for the fourth-most in Lions history and his 164 games played were tied for the 11th-highest total in franchise history.

After being selected in both the NFL and AFL Drafts, Larry Hand played 13 seasons with the NFL's Detroit Lions.

App State retired Larry Hand's No. 71 on Sept. 30, 2006.

In his 13 professional seasons, Hand registered five interceptions as a defensive lineman, returning three for touchdowns. He was the Lions' defensive MVP in 1972 and tied for second in Lions history with two INT returns for touchdowns in 1967. Defensive statistics such as tackles, tackles for loss and sacks were not kept by the Lions until 1973 (and didn't become an official NFL statistic in 1983). However, it is known that he led Detroit in sacks in two of the five seasons that he played when those records were kept, with 11 in 1973 and seven in 1975 (both 14-game seasons).

App State retired Armanti Edwards' No. 14 jersey on Nov. 25, 2023. He was joined by his wife, Desiree, two children, Armanti Jr. and Langley, and coach Jerry Moore on the field.

NO. 14 ARMANTI EDWARDS

One of the most electric players in college football history, App State retired Armanti Edwards' No. 14 jersey on Nov. 25, 2023. A little over two months later, Edwards was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame, which honored him during its December 2024 induction ceremony.

A record-setting and title-winning quarterback for the Mountaineers from 2006-09, Edwards became the fourth official App State representative and second player from App State to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. The other player, linebacker Dexter Coakley, was inducted in 2011, followed by Edwards' head coach in Boone, Jerry Moore, who was inducted in 2014.

During his four years in Boone, Edwards was a four-time first-team All-American, the first two-time FCS National Player of the Year (Walter Payton Award) and a two-time national champion who went 42-7 as a starter, including the historic 34-32 upset of No. 5 Michigan to open App State's 2007 championship season. The Mountaineers went 28-2 in conference games with three unbeaten runs to league titles in his four seasons.

Edwards amassed 14,753 yards of total offense in his App State career (10,392 passing with 4,361 rushing) and 139 total touchdowns (74 passing with 65 rushing) while helping lead App State to back-to-back national titles in 2006 and 2007.

He spent 12 years in pro football after being a third-round selection in the 2010 NFL Draft, with stints as a wide receiver for the Carolina Panthers, Cleveland Browns and Chicago Bears before he enjoyed additional success as a CFL receiver who produced a 1,000-yard season in 2019. He wasn't eligible for Hall of Fame inclusion until he had officially retired from professional football.

Edwards became the first Division I player (FBS or FCS) with more than 10,000 passing yards and 4,000 rushing yards in his career and currently has only one other player (Colin Kaepernick of Nevada) as company on that list.

Edwards remains an FCS record holder for career rushing TDs by a quarterback and most seasons with 3,000-plus yards of total offense (four seasons, tied for first with Steve McNair) while ranking No. 2 in career rushing yards by a QB and No. 4 in career total offense.

His four first-team All-America honors from 2006-09 include first-team recognition from the Associated Press in 2008 and 2009.

Edwards posted single-game highs of 433 passing yards (still a school record) and 313 rushing yards (in a 2007 FCS semifinal win to currently rank No. 2 in single-game rushing yards by an FCS quarterback and No. 2 by any App State player, broken in 2020). In the upset of Michigan, he accounted for four touchdowns (three passing, one rushing) and 289 yards of total offense (227 passing, 62 rushing).

APP STATE ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

Founded in 1975 by the App State Former Athletes Association, the App State Athletics Hall of Fame recognizes former coaches and student-athletes for their athletic achievements at App State. To be considered for induction, a nominee must have completed their eligibility at least five years prior to his/her nomination while coaches are eligible for nomination five years after their last season of coaching at Appalachian.

Through 2024, 88 men representing the football program have been inducted into the Hall of Fame. The entire list of football representatives in the App State Athletics Hall of Fame is below.

D.J. Campbell (left), Pierre Banks (center) and Tony Washington are among the Mountaineers' top scholar-athletes of the past three decades. Campbell, who started every game at quarterback for the Mountaineers from 1989-92, was an Academic All-American, NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship recipient and National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete. Banks, who set an NCAA all-divisions record by playing in 62 games from 2004-08, was a National Academic All-Star and Draddy Award semifinalist. Washington led the Southern Conference in receiving yardage as a senior and joined Campbell as the only NFF National Scholar-Athlete Award winners in App State history.

Emmitt Hamilton was the first App State running back to earn All-Southern Conference recognition, doing so in 1975 and '77.

Rico Mack (99) and Avery Hall (94) combined to earn first-team All-SoCon plaudits seven times. Hall is App State's only four-time first-team All-SoCon selection.

Chip Hooks was a four-time all-SoCon honoree from 1991-94 — first-team as a freshman and junior, second-team as a sophomore and senior.

APP STATE 34, NO. 5 MICHIGAN 32
ANN ARBOR, MICH. • ATTENDANCE: 109,218

Thanks in large part to Dexter Jackson's two touchdown catches and Armanti Edwards' perfect first half (7-of-7 passing, 129 yards, 3 TD; eight rushes, 41 yards, TD), App State jumped out to a stunning 28-14 advantage late in the first half and led 28-17 at halftime.

Michigan came roaring back in the second half and took a 32-31 lead on a 54-yard touchdown run by Mike Hart with less than five minutes to play.

Things looked bleak for App State when the Wolverines intercepted a pass by Edwards on the first play after Hart's touchdown, but freshman Brian Quick blocked a U-M field-goal attempt to give the Mountaineers the ball back with 1:37 left to play.

Edwards engineered a seven-play, 69-yard drive over the next 1:11 to set up Julian Rauch's go-ahead 24-yard field goal with just 26 seconds remaining on the clock. Edwards completed 5-of-5 passes and accounted for all 69 yards on the drive (18 rushing, 51 passing).

After a 46-yard pass from Chad Henne to Mario Manningham, Michigan had an opportunity to win the ballgame on a 37-yard field goal. However, Corey Lynch made the "block heard 'round the world," scooped up the loose ball and returned it 62 yards as the clock expired.

THE AFTERMATH

• App State's shocking win over college football's all-time winningest program was the first ever for an NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision team over a nationally ranked D-I Football Bowl Subdivision opponent.

• A crowd estimated to be as large as 10,000 welcomed the Mountaineers back to Kidd Brewer Stadium later that evening.

• The Apps were the darlings of the national media for weeks to come, highlighted by a Sept. 2, 2007 press conference that was televised live by ESPNEWS and Dexter Jackson's appearance on the cover of the Sept. 10, 2007 edition of Sports Illustrated.

• The victory prompted the Associated Press to change its 71-year-old policy and allow all Division I teams, regardless of subdivision, to receive votes in its Top 25 poll.

• App State went on to post a 13-2 overall record and win its third-consecutive NCAA Division I Football national championship.

• Michigan went on to post an 9-4 overall record and No. 18 ranking in the final 2007 AP poll. The Wolverines finished second in the Big Ten standings and defeated defending BCS national champion Florida and Heisman Trophy winner Tim Tebow, 41-35, in the Capital One Bowl on New Year's Day.

MEMORABLE GAMES

DeAndre Dingle-Prince made a fumble recovery at the Texas A&M 29 on a second-quarter play in which Jalen McLeod stripped QB Haynes King of the ball twice, and running back Ahmani Marshall finished a five-play drive with a 4-yard TD run to open the second quarter.

Texas A&M answered to help force a 7-7 halftime tie. App State chewed up 6:22 of the third quarter with a 62-yard TD drive after Nick Hampton recovered a fumble forced by Dexter Lawson Jr. Chase Brice's fourth-and-1 keeper to the 13 set up a 9-yard TD pass to Henry Pearson.

Devin Achane's 95-yard kick return after Pearson's TD tied the game late in the third quarter. Michael Hughes capped a 16-play march that covered 9 minutes, 15 seconds with his first career field goal, a 29-yarder, to put App State ahead midway through the fourth quarter.

The Aggies moved into scoring range after Hughes' go-ahead kick but missed a 47-yard field goal with 3:43 remaining. The Mountaineers' offensive line went to work after that, paving the way for a clock-draining drive that included three straight Camerun Peoples runs to move the chains, including a tough third-and-1 conversion. Peoples followed that with a 48-yard run to the Texas A&M 12 with 1:36 remaining, and Brice was able to kneel out the win from there. "The key was belief," App State head coach Shawn Clark said. "You have to believe in yourself and believe in this program. I told them take the logo off of the helmet, take the logo off the field and let's go play football."

THE AFTERMATH

• It was App State's first victory against an AP Top 10 opponent since the 34-32 victory at No. 5 Michigan in 2007, but the Mountaineers were due for another headline-making win. Each of their previous six games against Power Five programs (including two wins) had been decided by seven points or less.

• ESPN had planned to air College GameDay from Texas A&M the following week, but the upset led to the location changing from College Station to Boone. Delayed on the airport tarmac for roughly three hours that Saturday night because of a tire issue with the charter plane bound for North Carolina, members of App State's traveling party departed their buses and learned of the GameDay news when head coach Shawn Clark gathered the team together for an impromptu announcement around 11:30 p.m.

• Unable to depart Texas that night, the team returned to its Friday night hotel and, without the necessary number of rooms available on short notice, members of the traveling party slept in conference rooms and main-floor hallways. After a 3:30 a.m. wake-up call, the team boarded a flight at 4:30 a.m. and landed in Charlotte around 8:30 a.m. Five team buses returned to an on-campus crowd of cheering fans before 11 a.m.

• With the Texas A&M win starting an eight-day stretch that included College GameDay's appearance and a Hail Mary win against Troy on Sept. 17, App State Athletics coordinated 185 football-related interviews in September. There was a 25-percent increase in applications to App State following the GameDay appearance, which provided $500 million in estimated advertising value.

OCTOBER 12, 2002
MIRACLE ON THE MOUNTAIN
 APP STATE 16, FURMAN 15
 ABC SPORTS RADIO CALL OF THE YEAR

MEMORABLE GAMES

The Mountaineers were trailing 9-7 in the fourth quarter after three Furman field goals and an interception return for a touchdown by the home side. With 5:39 left, Joey Hoover's 24-yard TD catch from Joe Burchette gave App State its first lead of the game, at 14-9.

Furman took the ensuing possession and marched 73 yards on 13 plays, converting a first down on third-and-18 and then retook the lead on third-and-goal from the App State 12 with 0:07 remaining when Billy Napier found Bear Rinehart for the go-ahead touchdown. Furman led 15-14.

Furman elected to go for two points on the point-after. Napier's pass on the two-point attempt was intercepted by Josh Jeffries at the App State 4. Jeffries darted toward the right sideline before lateraling the ball to Derrick Black at the App State 16.

With Jeffries and Nygel Rogers both running downfield to block, Black avoided two would-be tacklers on his way to score two points and give App State the lead in remarkable fashion, 16-15.

Rogers tackled Black in a celebratory hug in the end zone. The Mountaineers cleared the sideline to join the celebration.

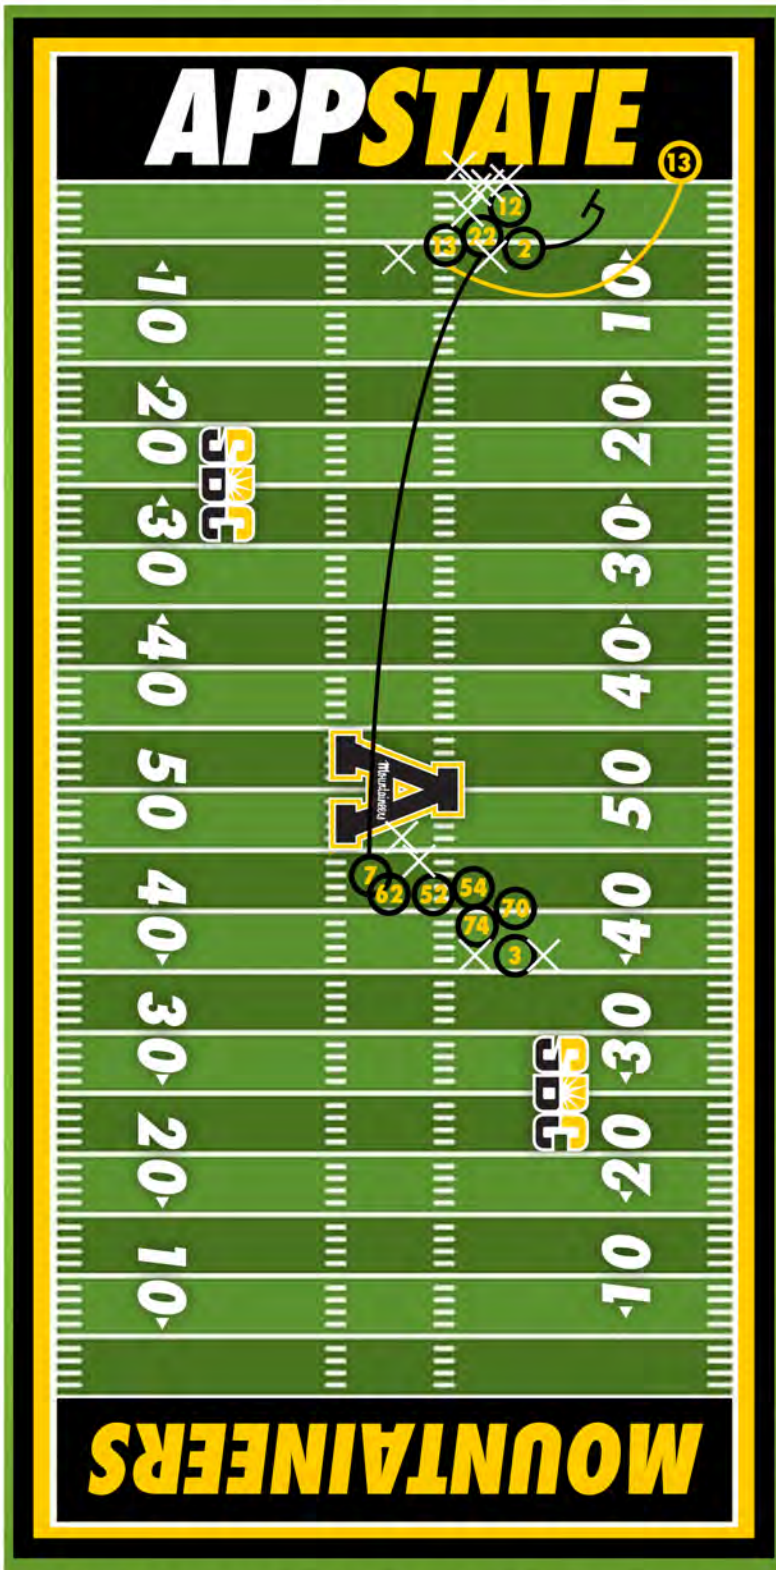

With much fanfare, Jeffries recovered Furman's on-side kick attempt to seal the Miracle on the Mountain.

SEPTEMBER 17, 2022
MIRACLE ON THE MOUNTAIN: PART II
APP STATE 32, TROY 28

DAY BEGINS WITH ESPN COLLEGE GAMEDAY IN BOONE, ENDS WITH HAIL MARY WIN

MEMORABLE GAMES

A fourth-and-goal incompleteness from the 2 gave Troy possession with 1:13 left and a 28-24 lead. After three plays — and two final timeouts from App State — the Trojans took a safety on purpose instead of punting from the end zone, leaving App State with 20 seconds to field a free kick and score. Troy executed a squibbed kick that Ahmani Marshall fielded at the 34 and returned 13 yards to the 47. Three straight incompleteness set up Chase Brice's heave with two seconds left.

With seven Troy defenders back and just four App State receivers downfield — Christian Horn was alone to Brice's left before the snap as Michael Hetzel, Dalton Stroman and Kaedin Robinson were all lined up to the right — the 6-foot-4 Stroman and Troy linebacker KJ Robertson went up to tip the 53-yard heave at the 5-yard line. Horn caught the tip at the 8-yard line and began circling toward the front-right pylon.

As soon as Horn gained possession of the tipped pass and began heading toward the end zone, Robinson turned at the 6-yard line and sealed the edge by blocking leading tackler Craig Slocum, who had 13 stops in the game. Several more Trojans briefly gave chase, but Horn crossed the goal line on his 12th step with the ball in his hands.

With fireworks going off and an improbable 53-yard TD secured, Horn released his grip on the ball as he spread both arms wide and raised both palms skyward to celebrate. Many in the crowd of 34,406 fans in Kidd Brewer Stadium stormed the field, capping an unforgettable day in which ESPN's College GameDay aired from Sanford Mall at the center of App State's campus for the first time.

"It was a surreal moment," Horn said.

2 Kaedin Robinson, 3 Ahmani Marshall, 7 Chase Brice, 12 Michael Hetzel, 13 Christian Horn, 22 Dalton Stroman

SEPTEMBER 9, 1972 APPS BREAK UP PAT ATTEMPT TO SAVE WIN APP STATE 7, WESTERN KENTUCKY 6

Registering three interceptions, four fumble recoveries, and a blocked punt, App State's stellar defense came up with the winning plays all afternoon in a defensive battle.

Midway through the third quarter, quarterback Steve Loflin hit Boone's homegrown hero Richard Agle for a 78-yard pass and catch for their only touchdown of the day.

Managing a shutout late in the fourth quarter, the Apps gave up a touchdown on Clarence Jackson's one-yard plunge with 1:52 left in the contest to lead by one, at 7-6.

The Hilltoppers decided to go for two and the win, which proved costly when the Mountaineer defense broke up the extra point pass attempt in the end zone to save the victory.

OCTOBER 20, 1973 BRAKEFIELD TAKES DOWN OLD TEAM APP STATE 28, WOFFORD 21

Backup quarterback Phil Cocciolletti not only replaced injured Roscoe Batts in the third quarter, but took over the Mountaineers' run-oriented "Y Offense" and converted it to a passing attack.

Down 21-7 late in the third quarter, Cocciolletti connected with split end Bob Steelman for a 35-yard touchdown.

On Cocciolletti's second drive, he stunned the Terrier offense with another long ball connecting with Charlie Haugabrook for a 36-yard strike. He finished the drive with a one-yard dive into the end zone.

Late in the fourth quarter, Cocciolletti drove App State deep in Wofford territory before Jim Tucker's 6-yard scamper for the go-ahead TD. The Mountaineers' balanced offense recorded 191 yards in the air and 190 on the ground.

Place kicker Greg Clark was 4-for-4 on extra point tries. Clark went on to establish an NCAA record with 56 consecutive good PAT kicks.

OCTOBER 19, 1974 HARMON TAMES WILD DOGS WITH 47-YARDER APP STATE 23, EAST CAROLINA 21

In a game that both teams entered undefeated, placekicker Jerry Harmon proved to be the difference, converting a 47-yard field goal with 32 seconds left for the 23-21 victory over East Carolina.

Sophomore Devon Ford worked his way through ECU's touted "Wild Dogs" defense, amassing 231 all-purpose yards.

App State carried a 20-0 advantage into the locker room. The Pirates quickly countered in the third quarter behind Ken Strayhorn who rushed for two touchdowns bringing the deficit down to six points, at 20-14.

ECU claimed the lead, at 21-20, midway through the fourth quarter when halfback Jimmy Howe scored on a 65-yard run.

Late in the game, the Mountaineers took advantage of a short Pirate punt that gave them the ball on their own 45. The Apps used a pair of passes to set the stage for Harmon's long field goal.

SEPTEMBER 20, 1975 DAVIS REDEEMS HIMSELF WITH LAST-SECOND, GAME-WINNING FIELD GOAL AT WFU APP STATE 19, WAKE FOREST 17

Separated by less than 100 miles, App State and Wake Forest did not meet on the gridiron for the first time until 1975. However, the wait proved to be worthwhile for the Mountaineers, who scored a program-defining 19-17 win over the Atlantic Coast Conference's Demon Deacons.

Highlighted by strong defensive performances by both squads, the contest was tied at 10-10 at halftime and remained knotted until App State quarterback Robbie Price's 32-yard touchdown run with 32 seconds left in the third quarter. However, Gary Davis missed the ensuing extra-point attempt and the Mountaineers led just 16-10.

The Apps' perilous six-point lead held up until a fumble deep in their own territory late in the fourth quarter. Appalachian's second turnover of the game set up a 15-yard touchdown drive that gave the Demon Deacons a 17-16 advantage with 4:20 to go in the ballgame.

The resilient Mountaineers responded by marching 61 yards in 11 plays and Davis made up for his missed PAT by splitting the uprights from 26 yards out with five seconds remaining to seal the 19-17 triumph.

NOVEMBER 8, 1975 PRICE IS RIGHT IN TRIUMPH AT USC APP STATE 39, SOUTH CAROLINA 34

Robbie Price put on an offensive show before 47,489 fans on hand at Williams-Brice Stadium, who saw seven scoring drives over 70 yards, four of which went longer than 80 yards in a 39-34 triumph over South Carolina.

After South Carolina scooped up a Price fumble and returned it for the first points of the day, App State got on the board with a 77-yard drive that was capped off by a John Craig score.

The touchdown was especially sweet for Craig who began his career with the Gamecocks two years earlier.

App State led at the half, 24-14, but South Carolina came out quick in the third quarter, and reduced the App State lead to four when Jeff Grantz scored from two yards out.

Price answered with a 32-yard touchdown pass. However, South Carolina scored late in the third quarter to make it 30-27.

The Gamecocks drove 81 yards take the lead, 34-30. However, the Mountaineers responded with a 16-yard touchdown pass from Price to a diving Donnie Holt.

Mike Staton sealed the win with an interception that led to a Mountaineer field goal to make the final score 39-34.

SEPTEMBER 24, 1979 MOUNTAINEERS PREVAIL BEHIND SURPRISE WISHBONE ATTACK APP STATE 35, WESTERN CAROLINA 27

Touted as an aerial display, quarterbacks Mike Pussey (Western Carolina) and Steve Brown (App State) drew 17,124 fans to Conrad Stadium for what was billed to be a passing thriller. The Mountaineers used an element of surprise by utilizing the rushing game in a 35-27 win.

Pussey connected on 16 passes for 231 yards and a touchdown, while Brown only put the ball in the air 13 times.

Trailing 27-14 at halftime, it was the newly constructed wishbone formation that sparked a rally. The Mountaineers totaled 266 rushing yards in the victory.

The Mountaineer defense allowed just 37 yards through the air and two first downs in the second half.

NOVEMBER 1, 1980 ROOKIE CARRIES APPS TO VICTORY APP STATE 27, WESTERN CAROLINA 24

With 15,850 fans on hand to witness the tandem of Steve Brown and Rick Beasley play in their final game at Conrad Stadium, it was freshman Alvin Parker who stole the show in a 27-24 come from behind win.

Beasley, who finished his career as the NCAA's fifth all-time leading receiver, went down in the first-quarter with an injury. Minus his top target, Brown was limited to 166 yards through the air.

Fullback Pete Carmelo went down in the second half, so it was the 5-11, 185-pound Parker who got the call and became the first 100-yard rusher of the season for App State.

John Craig (35), a transfer from South Carolina, scored App State's first touchdown and Robbie Price (5) threw for two touchdowns and ran for another in the Mountaineers' 39-34 win at Williams-Brice Stadium in 1975.

Down 24-20 in the fourth quarter App State drove 92 yards for the victory, which included 47 yards on the ground from Parker.

Parker's former Maury High School teammate Derek Jenkins scored the game-winning touchdown. Jenkins finished the day with five carries for 58 yards while Parker ran 15 times for 106 yards.

SEPTEMBER 3, 1983 BROWN RECORDS WIN NO. 1 AT WAKE FOREST APP STATE 27, WAKE FOREST 25

Making his head coaching debut on Fireworks Night at Groves Stadium, Mack Brown orchestrated a fireworks display of his own in an upset win over Wake Forest, 27-25.

Kicker Billy Van Aman notched his first collegiate field goal when he split the uprights from 54 yards out. Van Aman also kicked a 29-yarder late in the third quarter to put App State up 20-17.

The game looked one-sided on paper as Wake doubled up App State in total offensive yards (502-247). However, the App State defense recovered five Wake fumbles. Linebacker Joel Carter registered a pair of touchdowns on two interceptions, including a 48-yard scramble to the end zone on his first pick.

Wake completed a 39-yard touchdown and converted a two-point conversion with 1:39 left, but would not get any closer as App State ran the clock for the two-point win.

SEPTEMBER 8, 1984 4TH-AND-99 NO PROBLEM IN SPARKY'S FIRST W APP STATE 17, WESTERN KENTUCKY 16

Head Coach Sparky Woods received his first win with an amazing 99-yard, 12-play drive resulting in a 15-yard John Settle touchdown reception with five seconds remaining for the 17-16 victory.

Trailing 16-3 late in the fourth quarter, App State's Jimmy Armstrong intercepted a pass and returned it to the WKU 15 yard line. With 4:08 left, Mountaineer quarterback Randy Joyce connected for the first of two fourth quarter touchdown passes.

On the Mountaineers' final drive, Joyce converted a crucial fourth and 10 situation by completing an 18-yard pass to Troy Douglas. He followed with a 17-yard strike to Douglas.

Joyce rallied the Mountaineers by completing passes of 12, 17, and 19 yards before finishing the drive by connecting with Settle on a 15-yard screen pass in the waning moments.

NOVEMBER 29, 1986 APP STATE FALLS IN FIRST PLAYOFF APPEARANCE NICHOLLS STATE 28, APP STATE 26

App State rallied behind the arm of Todd Payton and the running abilities of John Settle to bring a 25-13 deficit to within two, at 28-26, but the Mountaineers' season came to a close when Bjorn Nittmo's 42-yard field goal sailed wide left with 18 seconds left in the fourth quarter.

Settle rushed for 236 yards on 37 carries, while Payton completed 18-of-35 pass attempts for 294 yards and two touchdowns in the losing effort.

Heading into the I-AA Playoffs, the Mountaineers were seeded No. 6. They held a 13-6 advantage with 11 minutes left in the third quarter, however Nicholls State quarterback Doug Hudson rallied his team and scored on three of their next four possessions to edge the Mountaineers.

SEPTEMBER 9, 1989 MELCHOR LEADS APP STATE TO VICTORY AT WFU APP STATE 15, WAKE FOREST 10

Facing standout receiver Ricky Proehl and a crowd of 30,200 fans at Wake Forest, first-year head coach Jerry Moore and App State pulled off a 15-10 victory.

Knotted at 3-3 at the intermission, running back Ritchie Melchor recorded 121 of his 139 yards on the ground in the second half, which included a 67-yard touchdown run.

On the ensuing Wake Forest possession, Proehl took a short pass and danced 28 yards for the touchdown. With the pressure on late in the fourth quarter, freshman Harold Alexander boomed a punt to Proehl, who fielded the ball cleanly, but could not manage to get out of bounds before time expired.

AUGUST 31, 1991 ALEXANDER KEYS WIN AT MARSHALL APP STATE 9, MARSHALL 3

It was a tale of two great defenses that led App State to a 9-3 victory in the season opener.

Harold Alexander kept the Herd at bay throughout the game. He set a Southern Conference-record by averaging 55.5 yards on eight punts.

Alexander came up big by booting a 67-yarder and a 51-yarder out of his own end zone against a 10-man rush.

Appalachian's defense started the scoring in the first half when Marshall quarterback Michael Payton was pressured into an intentional grounding call that resulted in a safety. The Herd managed a field goal after a fumble recovery that gave them the ball deep into Mountaineer territory.

Fullback J.K. Reaves plowed two yards through the middle of the Herd defensive line to record the only touchdown of the day.

OCTOBER 19, 1991 APPS TOP FURMAN IN SOCON'S FIRST OT TILT APP STATE 26, FURMAN 23

It took three overtimes and four Jay Millson field goals, but when it was decided, App State topped Furman, 26-23, in the first overtime game in Southern Conference history.

The first half was marred by mistakes, and Furman led 17-9.

Late in the fourth quarter, linebacker Brent David forced a fumble and put the Mountaineers on the Paladin 17. After Nate Abraham ran for the quick score, D.J. Campbell connected with A.J. Ellis for the two-point conversion to tie the score, at 17-17.

Knotted at the end of regulation, Millson and Burr traded field goals in the first two overtimes. In the third extra period, defensive back Steve Wilks blocked a Burr field goal attempt. Millson connected on his fourth field goal of the day to clinch the victory.

OCTOBER 10, 1992 THREE MINUTES, TWO SECONDS AND 20 POINTS APP STATE 27, JAMES MADISON 21

D.J. Campbell completed three touchdown passes in the final 3:02 of the game, including one to Craig Styron, who caught it on his back with no time remaining on the clock for the winning points.

JMU began the scoring with one of the most famous tricks in football lore. Early in the second quarter, the Dukes executed the fumblerooski for a 14-yard touchdown. Bitten by the turnover bug, the Mountaineers fell short of the end zone twice due to turnovers.

With the score 21-7, D.J. Campbell threw the first of three touchdown throws to make it 21-14, with 3:02 to play. Just 32 seconds later, it was tied, at 21-21 on another Campbell TD pass.

With JMU driving deep in App State territory, the Mountaineer defense intercepted a deflected pass, giving Campbell a chance at victory.

After two quick passes to get the ball to midfield, Campbell heaved the ball deep into the end zone, where it found Styron.

All-America punter Harold Alexander was integral in two of App State's most memorable victories. He sealed a 15-10 win over Wake Forest with a booming punt in the waning seconds and registered a SoCon-record 55.5 yards per punt in the Mountaineers' 9-3 win over Marshall in the 1991 season opener.

OCTOBER 22, 1994 MOUNTAINEERS TOP NO. 1 MARSHALL APP STATE 24, MARSHALL 14

With ominous weather and a matchup against the No. 1 team in the nation, 19,781 rain-soaked fans spurred App State to a 10-point victory and triumphantly tore down the goal posts.

A dominant performance by the Mountaineer defense keyed the win. Dexter Coakley led the Mountaineers with 15 tackles, three for losses, two pass breakups, and a forced fumble.

Johnny Smith, who spent his first three years at fullback, notched seven tackles, a fumble recovery, a sack, and an interception that he returned 70-yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

In only his second start, Scott Satterfield threw for 113 yards and ran for 30 more, including a score.

NOVEMBER 18, 1995 DIVING SNAG SAVES PERFECT SEASON APP STATE 28, THE CITADEL 24

Scott Satterfield proved his mettle as an all-Southern Conference quarterback by ignoring the pressure on fourth down and slinging the ball to the end zone, where Ron Gilliam's diving grab lifted App State to a 28-24 victory and saved the Mountaineers' perfect regular season.

Unbeaten entering the final game of the regular season, the Mountaineers had plenty of confidence traveling to face the winless Bulldogs. But App State needed everything it could muster, including the pass from Satterfield to Gilliam with 1:39 left in the contest for the comeback triumph.

Satterfield who ran for 80 yards and passed for 176, had no problem sending the ball to Gilliam who was a converted defensive back with only four catches on the season.

OCTOBER 19, 1996 BACKUP QB LEADS APPS OVER EAGLES APP STATE 35, GEORGIA SOUTHERN 28

Backup signal-caller Bake Baker was called upon in the fourth quarter at Georgia Southern to create what head coach Jerry Moore dubbed a "spark." A spark is what he got.

With just over 10 minutes left, Baker took over and led the Mountaineers on three touchdown drives, allowing them to rally from a 14-point deficit.

The Mountaineer offense was desperate for production and the defense was not much better, with five players sidelined with injuries. But in his 10-plus minutes of action, Baker converted three scoring drives, capped by a 68-yard pass to Otis Smith with 3:13 left to provide the winning points.

Baker ended the game 8-of-10 passing for 159 yards and two touchdowns. Prior to his showing in Statesboro, he had completed just three passes in his career.

OCTOBER 3, 1998 APP DOWNS WFU IN OT FOR MOORE'S 100TH WIN APP STATE 30, WAKE FOREST 27 (OT)

Daniel Jeremiah's one-yard touchdown run in overtime gave App State head coach Jerry Moore his 100th career victory, a 30-27 triumph over Wake Forest in Winston-Salem.

Moore's 100th win was his fourth over Wake in his 10 seasons.

App State jumped out to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter thanks to a 27-yard field goal by Stuart Jones and a 47-yard touchdown run by Terrence McCall. The Demon Deacons scored 17 of the game's next 20 points to take a 17-13 advantage into the fourth quarter.

After Jones' third field goal of the game cut the Mountaineer deficit to 17-16 early in the final period, Jeremiah hooked up with Joey Gibson for a 57-yard touchdown and a two-point conversion made it 24-17 App State with 5:28 to go. However, Wake Forest responded with a 13-play, 74-yard drive, capped by a seven-yard touchdown pass from Brian Kuklick to Jammie Deese that tied the contest with only 53 seconds left to play.

In overtime, App State held the Deacs to a field goal on the opening possession before clinching the win on Jeremiah's TD dive a series later.

SEPTEMBER 4, 1999 APP NEARLY PULLS OFF UPSET AT AUBURN AUBURN 22, APP STATE 15

For nearly three quarters, it seemed as though App State would pull off perhaps the biggest win ever by an NCAA Division I-AA school over a I-A opponent. But a 33-yard touchdown pass with just 38 seconds left to play gave perennial-power Auburn a narrow 22-15 win over the Mountaineers before 78,123 at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

After Auburn took a 7-0 lead less than seven minutes in, App State responded with 15-straight points to take an eight-point advantage deep into the third quarter. The Tigers evened the score at 15-15 late in the third period and marched 77 yards in just 1:04 to score the winning touchdown in the final minute.

App State out-gained Auburn 323-288 for the game and held AU to just 54 yard of offense in the first half.

OCTOBER 16, 1999 APPS HOLD ON FOR WIN OVER NO. 1 EAGLES APP STATE 17, GEORGIA SOUTHERN 16

App State forced four turnovers, including Corey Hall's second interception as time expired, to claim a 17-16 win over No. 1 Georgia Southern before 19,981 at Kidd Brewer Stadium. The triumph was Appalachian's second ever over a top-ranked team, almost five years to the day after it knocked off No. 1 Marshall at KBS.

Without the benefit of an offensive touchdown, the Mountaineers ran out to a 17-0 lead. Weslan Hunter returned a fumble 43 yards for a score and Luke Manuel fell on another Eagle cough-up and the Apps took the seemingly comfortable 17-point lead with less than five minutes to play in the third quarter.

However, the Eagles came back with a vengeance, scoring 16 points over a 12-minute span. Trailing by just a point, got the ball back with under 30 seconds to play, but Hall sealed the victory with his pick off at the Mountaineer 38 yard line.

AUGUST 31, 2000 WAKE GOES DOWN AGAIN APP STATE 20, WAKE FOREST 16

For the third time in four meetings, App State knocked off the ACC's Wake Forest, this time scoring a 20-16 triumph before 26,853 fans at Groves Stadium. The win evened App State head coach Jerry Moore's record versus the Demon Deacons at 5-5-1.

The Mountaineers dominated the first half, outgaining the Deacs 207-49, but trailed 10-7 at the break, thanks to an 88-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Wake's John Stone. The score remained 10-7 heading into the final period and things looked bleak for the Apps, who lost starting quarterback Daniel Jeremiah to a knee injury on the first play of the second half.

However, backup signal-caller David Reaves led App State on an eight-play, 66-yard drive, which he capped with a nine-yard touchdown pass to Rashad Slade on the first play of the fourth quarter to give the Mountaineers a 14-10 lead. Despite committing two turnovers in the final period, App State forced Wake into a pair of turnovers of its own, including a fumble on its own 10 yard line with just over three minutes to go. Three plays later, Karim Razzak found the end zone from 10 yards out to seal the triumph.

Daniel Jeremiah's one-yard touchdown plunge in overtime lifted App State to a 30-27 victory at Wake Forest in 1998. The Mountaineers' fourth win over WFU in 10 seasons was also head coach Jerry Moore's 100th victory at App State.

NOVEMBER 25, 2000 APP AVENGES LOSS IN PLAYOFF WIN AT TROY APP STATE 33, TROY STATE 30

After being handed a 34-28 setback in Boone by Troy State during the regular season, App State returned the favor on a much bigger stage, as it downed the fourth-seeded in the opening round of the I-AA playoffs.

App State outgained Troy State, 200-21, in the first half en route to a 19-9 lead. The Mountaineers extended their lead to 26-9 in the third quarter and withstood three fourth-quarter Troy touchdowns to hold on for the win.

It was just the second road playoff victory ever for the Mountaineers.

OCTOBER 9, 2004 WILLIAMS REWRITES RECORDS IN COMEBACK WIN APP STATE 30, FURMAN 29

Junior quarterback Richie Williams rewrote the NCAA record book with his performance in App State's home triumph over No. 2 Furman.

Williams set NCAA all-divisions records by completing 28 straight passes at one point and going 40-of-45 in the win.

Despite Williams' efforts, the Mountaineers found themselves trailing the Paladins by six points after Furman quarterback Ingle Martin connected with running back Cedrick Gipson on a 52-yard catch and run with 2:03 to go in the ball game. Williams accounted for 78 yards on Appalachian's final drive by completing 4 of 4 passes for 61 yards and running for 17 more, including a 13-yard keeper for the winning touchdown with 35 seconds left.

In all, Williams threw for 413 yards and two touchdowns and tacked on 27 more yards on the ground to spark the victory, just one week removed from missing the Apps' 41-34 win over Texas State with a sprained knee.

DECEMBER 10, 2005 ELDER, HUNTER LEAD APPS TO FIRST TITLE GAME APP STATE 29, FURMAN 23

Filling in for an injured Richie Williams, backup quarterback Trey Elder threw a touchdown pass on his first play and ran for the game-winning score with 2:17 remaining in App State's 29-23 victory over Furman in the NCAA Division I-AA semifinals.

Elder completed 12-of-17 passes for 165 yards and no interceptions and ran 12 times for 69 yards in relief of Williams, who left the contest mid-way through the first quarter with a left ankle injury.

On his first play, Elder connected with Dexter Jackson for a 45-yard touchdown pass that gave the Mountaineers a 14-0 lead. However, Furman scored 23 of the next 30 points to take a 23-21 lead into halftime.

The Paladins' slim advantage stood up until Elder led the Apps on an 11-play, 67-yard drive, culminating with his 1-yard touchdown plunge with just over two minutes to go.

Led by quarterback Ingle Martin, the Paladins drove inside the Mountaineer 40 with under a minute to play. But, on first-and-10 at the 36, App State defensive end Jason Hunter hit Martin from behind, forcing the ball loose. Defensive tackle Omarr Byrom picked up the ball and returned it all the way to the Furman 1.

NOVEMBER 24, 2007 ROMAN STRIPS JAMES MADISON OF UPSET BID APP STATE 28, JAMES MADISON 27

App State's magical season looked like it was going to end three games short of the ultimate goal, but the Mountaineer defense stepped up at the most critical moments of the 2007 playoff opener.

JMU led 27-22 late in the fourth quarter and faced third-and-1 at its own 32 yard line, needing only one first down to end the Mountaineers' run at a third straight national title. The Black and Gold defense stopped the Dukes for no gain on two straight plays, including a fourth-down rush, and got the ball back deep in Madison territory.

Two plays after Devon Moore made a diving catch on fourth-and-3 from the 25-yard line, Armanti Edwards scored his third touchdown to give App State a one-point lead with just 1:10 remaining on the clock.

JMU needed just four plays to drive 62 yards, setting itself up for an apparent chip-shot field goal to win the game. However, JMU head coach Mickey Matthews elected to run one more play and App State linebacker Jacque Roman stripped freshman running back Jamal Sullivan of the ball. The loose pigskin was smothered by Pierre Banks just feet from the App State sideline, triggering a wild celebration that would last straight through to the Mountaineers' 49-21 rout over Delaware in the national championship game.

SEPTEMBER 4, 2010 EPIC 4TH-QUARTER RALLY LIFTS MOUNTAINEERS APP STATE 42, CHATTANOOGA 41

App State came back from a pair of 21-point deficits to rally for a heart-stopping 42-41 victory at upstart Chattanooga in the 2010 opener.

App State trailed 28-7 with less than two minutes remaining in the third quarter and 35-14 just six seconds into the final period.

The Mountaineers scored a total of five touchdowns in a 10:12 span, including the middle three in just 2:54 and the final four over a 7:51 stretch after UTC had regained a 21-point lead on the first play of the fourth quarter.

App State took its first lead of the game at 42-35 with 6:05 to go on a bizarre 33-yard touchdown reception by quarterback DeAndre Presley. The Mocs jumped offside on a third-and-1 play from the UTC 29-yard line, giving Presley a free play. The junior threw a quick pass to Matt Cline, who was drilled by a Moc defender and fumbled. Presley picked up the loose ball and weaved his way through the UTC defense, picked up a number of key down-field blocks and scoring the go-ahead touchdown.

Chattanooga responded by driving 86 yards to cut the deficit to 42-41. With a pair of UTC kickers having already combined to miss three extra points, the Mocs elected to go for two points and the potential win, but Appalachian's Mark LeGree batted down a pass on the conversion attempt.

NOVEMBER 10, 2012 LATE PICK HELPS MOORE CLOSE WITH A TITLE APP STATE 33, FURMAN 28

Troy Sanders intercepted a pass at the 5-yard line as time expired and 12th-ranked App State clinched its record-tying 12th Southern Conference championship in the final regular-season game for coach Jerry Moore, whose team went 6-2 in the league despite dropping its league opener.

NOVEMBER 8, 2014 LAST-MINUTE FIELD GOAL EXTENDS STREAK APP STATE 31, ULM 29

Bentlee Critcher drilled a 39-yard field goal with 29 seconds left to lift App State to streak-extending win during its FBS debut in the Sun Belt.

After starting the year 1-5 (with a win over FCS Campbell), the Mountaineers closed the season with a six-game winning streak, as the ULM game improved App State's record to 4-5.

OCTOBER 31, 2015 MOUNTAINEERS WIN HALLOWEEN THRILLER APP STATE 44, TROY 41 (3OT)

Stephen Burns, Kennan Gilchrist and Doug Middleton combined to smother a fake field-goal attempt to start the third overtime, and Zach Matics followed with a 24-yard game-winner.

The contest was a tight affair throughout, featuring six ties and no lead of more than seven points. Despite being unable to put the pesky Trojans away, App State never trailed in regulation — its only deficit came when Troy scored first in the opening overtime.

Dale Jones celebrates after App State used a last-minute fumble recovery inside the 10-yard line to beat James Madison 28-27 in the 2007 playoffs.

OCTOBER 14, 2017 APP STATE OVERCOMES 20-0 HALFTIME DEFICIT APP STATE 23, IDAHO 20

App State mounted its biggest rally in seven years with a 23-20 victory at Idaho during the Vandals' final year in the Sun Belt Conference.

The Mountaineers trailed 20-0 early in the third quarter in the Kibbie Dome before coming back behind a sack-hungry, turnover-minded defense and three touchdown throws from senior quarterback Taylor Lamb. It was App State's biggest comeback since it erased a 35-14 deficit in the fourth quarter of a 42-41 victory at Chattanooga in the 2010 opener.

Lamb's 45-yard touchdown pass to Ike Lewis helped tie the game with 10:04 left, and Michael Rubino made a go-ahead field goal from 31 yards out with 7:24 remaining.

Idaho (2-4, 1-2) started its final drive by regaining possession at its 46-yard line with 2:23 remaining, and Tee Sims had a hand in two sacks leading up to a fourth-and-24 pass that was completed but stopped a yard short of the marker with 50 seconds left.

DECEMBER 1, 2018 MOUNTAINEERS WIN FIRST SBC TITLE GAME APP STATE 30, LOUISIANA 19

Hosting the first Sun Belt Conference Championship Game, App State won 30-19 against Louisiana in Boone to claim its third straight league title.

Darrynton Evans had an MVP-belt-hoisting performance in which his 218 all-purpose yards included 111 rushing yards and a 97-yard kickoff return. Quarterback Zac Thomas had two rushing touchdowns of at least 25 yards, and the Mountaineers allowed just one touchdown while forcing the Ragin' Cajuns to kick four field goals.

All three of Chandler Staton's second-half field goals for App State exceeded 40 yards, including a 43-yarder that pushed the lead to 11 points with 2:09 remaining.

SEPTEMBER 21, 2019 APP GETS FBS BREAKTHROUGH FOR P5 WIN APP STATE 34, NORTH CAROLINA 31

National defensive player of the week Demetrius Taylor forced two turnovers to help App State build a first-half lead on the road, and Darrynton Evans rushed for three TDs as the Mountaineers built a 27-10 lead before holding on to beat in-state ACC program North Carolina.

The Tar Heels reached App State's 39-yard line with five seconds left, and Akeem Davis-Gaither pushed through a gap in the line to tip a 56-yard attempt at a field goal as time expired.

The second-ever football meeting between the two schools and first since 1940 drew a spirited, sold-out crowd to Kenan Stadium, and the Mountaineers posted their first win against a Power Five conference team since the historic upset of Michigan in 2007.

Taylor led App State's defense by recording 2.5 sacks, forcing two fumbles, turning a post-sack recovery into a 20-yard fumble return for a touchdown and setting up another touchdown with an interception.

Akeem Davis-Gaither (24) blocked a 56-yard field-goal attempt as time expired in Chapel Hill to give App State its first win against a Power Five opponent since the Mountaineers joined the FBS level.

NOVEMBER 9, 2019 2ND P5 ROAD WIN OF '19 COMES IN SEC COUNTRY APP STATE 20, SOUTH CAROLINA 15

Becoming just the seventh Group of Five team since the Sun Belt was formed in 2001 to post two Power Five road wins in the same season, App State escaped Columbia with a win in front of 80,849 fans and an ESPN2 audience.

True freshman Nicholas Ross' 20-yard interception return for a touchdown with 1:51 left in the first half gave App State a 13-6 lead, and Zac Thomas' 1-yard TD run that gave the Mountaineers a 20-9 lead was set up by Jalen Virgil's 57-yard kickoff return following a South Carolina field goal.

After cutting into the 20-9 deficit on a touchdown with 2:58 left, South Carolina regained possession and faced a fourth-and-15 from the App State 35 with 19 seconds left. Ryan Hilinski completed a pass for 26 yards to the 9 before spiking the ball with nine seconds remaining.

Nick Hampton forced a holding penalty on a pass rush as George Blackstock batted down the throw, leading to a snap from the 19 with six seconds left. The Gamecocks committed holding against Akeem Davis-Gaither on a pass that didn't connect at the back of the end zone.

DECEMBER 7, 2019 MOUNTAINEERS WIN 2ND STRAIGHT TITLE GAME APP STATE 45, LOUISIANA 38

App State claimed its fourth straight league title and celebrated a Sun Belt Championship Game win on its home field for the second straight year.

Three early touchdowns from belt-winning MVP Darrynton Evans gave the 21st-ranked Mountaineers a 21-0 lead late in the first quarter, and captain Josh Thomas' first career interception return for a touchdown accounted for one of three turnovers forced by a senior on App State's defense.

The Mountaineers led 42-17 late in the third quarter thanks to Thomas' defensive touchdown and maintained at least a 14-point lead until the Ragin' Cajuns cut into a 45-31 deficit on a touchdown pass with 1:19 left.

SEPTEMBER 26, 2020 MOUNTAINEERS OVERCOME COVID ABSENCES APP STATE 52, CAMPBELL 21

A determined offensive line — sometimes with as many as seven linemen on the field at one time — led the way as App State rushed for 404 yards even though it was missing several skill position starters. A day earlier, App State and AppHealthCare announced that contact tracing had identified 18 players who were quarantining due to exposure to one of three then-active cases of confirmed COVID-19, with all three cases then recovering in isolation.

Daetrich Harrington had career highs of 32 carries for 211 yards and four rushing touchdowns for App State, which was missing five tight ends who had all played in the first two games of the season.

App State didn't play again until 26 days later, after the first two Sun Belt games were postponed, and it won 45-17 against Arkansas State.

DECEMBER 12, 2020 MOUNTAINEERS RALLY IN PAULSON WITH BIG TDS APP STATE 34, GEORGIA SOUTHERN 26

Overcoming an early 14-point deficit, the Mountaineers dominated the second half and ended the Eagles' 10-game home winning streak.

The Mountaineers still trailed 17-7 at the break but outscored the Eagles by a 24-3 margin in the first 17-plus minutes of the second half. Immediately after Georgia Southern made a 47-yard field goal to break a 17-all tie in the first minute of the fourth quarter, Jalen Virgil gave App State its first lead of the night with a 100-yard kickoff return.

Demetrius Taylor and Brendan Harrington combined for a stop to force a three-and-out punt, leading to a 70-yard touchdown run from Nate Noel on the first play of the next series, less than two minutes after Virgil had scored.

It was the first time App State played its regular-season finale against the Eagles.

SEPTEMBER 2, 2021 MOUNTAINEERS ROLL PAST PIRATES IN NFL VENUE APP STATE 33, ECU 19

Playing a home game at Bank of America Stadium, home of the NFL's Carolina Panthers, the Mountaineers used a 33-3 run to build a 33-9 lead in the Duke's Mayo Classic against ECU of the American Athletic Conference.

A crowd of 36,752 witnessed App State open the 2021 season on a Thursday night with an official home game win against East Carolina in Bank of America Stadium.

A record-setting crowd of 36,752 was on hand for the Thursday night season opener, with country music star and App State alum Luke Combs in attendance two days before he performed a stadium concert in Kidd Brewer Stadium. Combs led a singing of his hit song "Beer Never Broke My Heart" with the team in a victorious locker room.

SEPTEMBER 23, 2021 MOUNTAINEERS RALLY IN HERD'S RETURN TO KBS APP STATE 31, MARSHALL 30

Chandler Staton hit a go-ahead field goal from 45 yards out with 5:45 left, and the defense made a key stand before Nate Noel's open-field running clinched a comeback victory over longtime rival Marshall on a Thursday night in front of 28,377 fans at The Rock.

In Marshall's first visit to Boone since 1996, App State climbed out of a nine-point hole and erased a fourth-quarter deficit in a win for the first time since the 2017 season at Idaho.

The Mountaineers forced a punt to regain possession at their own 8 with four minutes left. Noel had gains of 11, 14, 41 and 22 yards on the final drive alone, smartly going down short of the end zone in the final two minutes to prevent Marshall from possibly regaining possession with an eight-point deficit.

Chandler Staton, kicking out of Clayton Howell's hold, made a 24-yard field goal as time expired against No. 14 Coastal Carolina, the highest-ranked opponent to ever visit Kidd Brewer Stadium. The Wednesday night game drew a crowd of 31,061.

OCTOBER 20, 2021 MOUNTAINEERS BEAT RANKED CHANTS ON KICK APP STATE 30, #14 COASTAL CAROLINA 27

Chandler Staton's 24-yard field goal as time expired lifted App State to a dramatic win against No. 14 Coastal Carolina on a Wednesday night in front of 31,061 fans at Kidd Brewer Stadium, putting the Mountaineers in the driver's seat to win a Sun Belt East Division title.

It was the biggest regular season crowd for a college football game on a Tuesday/Wednesday since 2011.

With the Chanticleers (6-0 entering Boone) as the highest-ranked FBS team to ever visit The Rock, which drew an above-capacity crowd for a mid-week game on ESPN2, the Mountaineers posted their second-ever win against a ranked opponent — and first since the 34-32 win vs. Michigan in 2007.

Defensively, the Mountaineers limited Coastal to 55 rushing yards — 208.5 below its season average — on 29 attempts. App State held the Chants to 16 offensive yards on 10 fourth-quarter plays, only one of which produced a first down. Coastal entered the game ranked No. 1 at the FBS level in points per game (48.8) and No. 2 in yards per game (554.2).

Malik Williams caught 10 passes for a career-high 206 yards as Chase Brice threw for a career-high 347 yards and two touchdowns. App State tied the game at 27-all on a 43-yard TD run by Camerun Peoples late in the third.

App State's defense came up huge in the fourth quarter, forcing three Coastal punts, the last one being fair-caught at the App State 38 with 3:53 remaining. Brice had back-to-back throws of 16 and 19 yards to Williams to get the Mountaineers in scoring range. With time on its side and timeouts lacking for the Chanticleers after a third-and-1 conversion to the 11 with less than two minutes remaining, App State milked the clock to set up a storm-inducing kick.

It was App State's first field goal to end a win at The Rock since the 44-41 victory against Troy in three overtimes in 2015.

Coastal Carolina jumped out to a 14-0 lead, but App State rallied to tie the game, with a surprise onside kick connection between Michael Hughes and a diving Milan Tucker playing a key role in the Mountaineers scoring two touchdowns in 42 seconds.

SEPTEMBER 16, 2023 MOUNTAINEERS WIN WITH RECORD-TYING CROWD APP STATE 43, EAST CAROLINA 28

Facing East Carolina in Boone for the first time since 1979, App State pulled away in the second half to claim a victory with a crowd of 40,168 rocking Kidd Brewer Stadium. That total matched the stadium record set in 2022 for North Carolina's season-opening visit to the High Country.

An action-packed day that started with Yosef ziplining from the seventh-floor tower onto the field while holding the American flag ended with App State scoring 33 of the final 40 points.

SEPTEMBER 30, 2023 54-YARD FIELD GOAL DELIVERS DRAMATIC WIN APP STATE 41, ULM 40

Michael Hughes' career-long 54-yard field goal as time expired — the longest game-winning field goal to ever end an App State victory — capped a six-play, 43-yard march after the Mountaineers had regained possession at their 20 with 1:02 left on the clock and no timeouts remaining.

With App State still stuck at its 19 with 24 seconds left, Joey Aguilar completed three straight throws to Kaedin Robinson for 14, 16 and 14 yards to move the ball to the ULM 37 with four seconds showing on the clock.

NOVEMBER 18, 2023 OT SCORE TOPS UNBEATEN GAMEDAY HOST JMU APP STATE 26, #18 JAMES MADISON 23 (OT)

Facing unbeaten and 18th-ranked James Madison with the Dukes serving as the hosts of ESPN's College GameDay, App State posted an overtime victory to beat an opponent with a record of 10-0 or better for the first time.

The Mountaineers prevailed on Joey Aguilar's 8-yard TD pass to Kaedin Robinson, who cut across the middle on third down, made a catch at the 5, broke one tackle, broke a second tackle attempt at the 3 and reached the ball across the plane as he avoided another tackle attempt at the front-left corner of the end zone. A review confirmed that Robinson had scored before losing control of the ball for a potential touchback and JMU victory.

The Dukes, who fell to 10-1, trailed by 12 points in the fourth quarter and were behind 20-12 before tying the game in the final minute. JMU completed a fourth-and-18 pass for 27 yards before throwing an 11-yard TD pass on the next play, tying the game with a two-point pass and kicking an OT field goal.

OCTOBER 26, 2024 POST-HELENE BOONE DEBUT ENDS IN WIN APP STATE 33, GEORGIA STATE 26

With App State seeking its first victory following back-to-back road losses that had occurred since the Sept. 28 home date with Liberty was canceled because of the storm damage from Hurricane Helene, which hampered western North Carolina on Sept. 27, the Mountaineers scored a go-ahead touchdown on Joey Aguilar's 4-yard pass to Kanen Hamlett with 1:51 left and then made a defensive stand to regain possession.

From fans flocking to King Street in support of local businesses, to App State alums Luke Combs and Eric Church headlining a Charlotte-based Concert for Carolina show that raised more than $24 million, the events of that Saturday contributed to a bigger cause, with coaches wearing "Mountain Strong" shirts to convey the message. App State went 3-0 at home after the storm with later wins vs. ODU and James Madison.

SEASON SUPERLATIVES

The Mountaineers became the first Sun Belt team and the first FBS team from the state of North Carolina to win 13 games.

App State became the first Sun Belt team to conclude a season in the Top 25 and claimed the top spot among FBS teams from North Carolina for the second straight year.

App State became the first FBS program to win five bowl games in each of its first five bowl-eligible seasons.

App State's team had 14 players that eventually appeared on regular season NFL rosters (the 2007 team had eight such players): Darrynton Evans, Shaun Jolly, Josh Thomas, Shemar Jean-Charles, Jalen Virgil, Akeem Davis-Gaither, Nick Hampton, Demetrius Taylor, D'Marco Jackson, Ryan Neuzil, Cooper Hodges, Anderson Hardy, Henry Pearson and Thomas Hennigan.

App State tied Ohio State for the third-best winning percentage among FBS teams, behind just LSU (15-0) and Clemson (14-1).

App State's 54-12 overall record from 2015-19 was the fifth-best mark in the country during that span, trailing just Clemson, Alabama, Ohio State and Oklahoma.

The Mountaineers finished as a statistical champion or co-champion in two categories: sole possession of first with a fourth-down conversion percentage of 81.3 and tied with Illinois for the FBS lead with six defensive touchdowns.

App State became just the fifth program in major college football history to send its fifth-year seniors out with five bowl wins and four conference titles, joining Nebraska (1969-73), Alabama (1975-79), Florida State (1991-95) and Marshall (1998-2002).

App State was the first Group of Five program to have two players picked in the 2020 NFL Draft, as running back Darrynton Evans went to the Tennessee Titans in the third round and linebacker Akeem Davis-Gaither was picked by the Cincinnati Bengals to open the fourth round.

App State led the nation in road wins en route to the only 6-0 road record by FBS teams. App State ranked No. 7 nationally and No. 1 among G5 programs with an average scoring margin of plus-17.5 points per game against FBS competition. The Mountaineers had a balanced team that ranked No. 9 nationally in scoring offense (38.8 points), No. 21 in scoring defense (20.0 points) and tied for No. 2 with five blocked kicks.

The fifth-year seniors finished their careers with a 7-0 postseason record that included two wins in the Sun Belt title game. Fourth-year seniors were on teams that went 43-10 with a Sun Belt title every season.

From 2015-19, App State improved to an FBS-best 24-0 in non-season-opening games in which it had more than a week to prepare.

App State set Sun Belt records for single-season points (543) and touchdowns (73).

With 13 wins, App State tied for the second-highest total by a Group of Five team since the Sun Belt was established in 2001. Boise State had a G5-record 14 wins in 2009.

App State set a program record for fewest turnovers committed in a season with nine and tied the program's single-season record for lost fumbles by losing only three.

App State set a then-program record with seven national television appearances in 2019.

App State led the Sun Belt in attendance for the third time in four seasons from 2016-19.

Mountaineers are listed alphabetically with numbers worn and years played. To be included in the all-time roster, a player must have played in a varsity game. Any additions, deletions, and/or corrections can be submitted with proper documentation to the App State strategic communications office.

HALL OF FAMER JERRY MOORE

HEAD COACH: 1989-2012
3 NATIONAL TITLES
10 CONFERENCE TITLES

The winningest coach in App State and Southern Conference history, Jerry Moore compiled a 215-87 record in his 24 seasons at App State from 1989-2012. That run included 10 SoCon championships, 18 postseason appearances and an unprecedented three straight FCS national titles from 2005-07.

Before the 2021 debut at Kidd Brewer Stadium, the Jerry Moore Plaza with a statue honoring the coach was unveiled.

In 31 years overall as a head coach, Moore was 242-135-2. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2014, adding that honor to recognition from the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame, the Southern Conference Hall of Fame and the App State Athletics Hall of Fame. In 2018, he was also awarded The Order of the Long Leaf Pine, which recognizes "exemplary service to the State of North Carolina."

While he enjoyed success at nearly every stop of his 51-year coaching career, the 24 seasons at App State cemented Moore's standing as one of college football's all-time great mentors.

In leading the Mountaineers to three consecutive national championships from 2005-07, he made App State the first program to ever win three straight titles at the FCS level and the first Division I institution (FCS or FBS) to accomplish the feat in 61 years. App State became the first institution from the state of North Carolina to ever win an NCAA football championship at any level when it defeated Northern Iowa 21-16 in the 2005 national title game, a feat it repeated with wins over Massachusetts (28-17) and Delaware (49-21) in the 2006 and 2007 NCAA Division I Football Championship finals.

Moore also led the Mountaineers to seven SoCon championships in an eight-year span (2005-

10, '12), making App State only the second program to achieve that feat since the league began crowning a champion in 1933. App State won 26 straight conference games from 2007-10.

Additionally, App State became a household name when Moore led his squad to perhaps the biggest and most prominent upset in college football history, a 34-32 triumph over Michigan in the 2007 season opener.

The victory over Michigan, which came into the contest ranked No. 5 in the Associated Press Top 25 poll, marked the first time that an FCS team had ever toppled a nationally ranked FBS opponent. The victory also compelled the AP to change its long-standing history of only accepting votes for FBS teams in its Top 25 poll, which allowed the Mountaineers to become the first FCS team to ever receive votes in the poll, which they did on three occasions in 2007.

Moore is no stranger to individual awards, as he is a three-time American Football Coaches Association Coach of the Year (2005, '06, '07).

He also won the 2006 Eddie Robinson Award (National Coach of the Year) from The Sports Network, is a six-time AFCA Regional Coach of the Year and an eight-time SoCon Coach of the Year.

In 2009, he was named the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year, which included $50,000 for Moore's favorite charities and $20,000 for the App State Alumni Association scholarship fund.

Under Moore, App State players earned all-conference recognition 257 times and received All-America honors on 99 occasions.

In addition to his nearly quarter-century tenure at App State, Moore also served as the head coach at North Texas (1979-80) and Texas Tech (1981-85) and spent 15 seasons on the staffs of legendary mentors Hayden Fry (1965-72 at SMU), Tom Osborne (1973-78 at Nebraska) and Ken Hatfield (1988 at Arkansas). Moore began his coaching career with four seasons as an assistant coach at Corsicana H.S. in Texas (1961-64).

A native of Bonham, Texas, Moore was one of the nation's top receivers at Baylor from 1958-60.

Kidd Brewer Stadium stakes claim to being one of the toughest but also most picturesque college football venues in the nation.

After "The Rock" was voted the top Group of Five stadium in the country by CFB Campus Tour in 2023 and 2024, ESPN named Kidd Brewer Stadium one of the top 25 stadiums in all of college football.

Entering the 64th season in the venue, which opened as Conrad Stadium on Sept. 15, 1962, App State had a 277-81-5 all-time record at The Rock.

The top four single-season average home attendance marks in App State and Sun Belt Conference history have been those reached by Mountaineer fans at The Rock in 2021, 2022, 2023 and 2024.

App State set single-season school and Sun Belt records with an average home crowd of 34,734 in 2023, with the 2024 average of 34,623 falling just short.

With a $50 million north end zone facility, removal of the track and installation of new turf, The Rock had a new look in 2021, as the end zone facility opened for fans before a 2020 game vs. Georgia State. Hall of Fame coach Jerry Moore was also honored before the 2021 opener with a plaza and statue in his name.

Kidd Brewer Stadium's official seating capacity was 16,650 in 2007, but several expansion projects, including construction of the 120,000-square-foot App State Athletics Center, have almost doubled the capacity. The new end zone facility houses the football locker room, weight room, offices and team areas, as well as 1,000 club level seats, athletic training spaces, retail and dining service facilities.

The 2023 home win against East Carolina matched the 2022 home opener against North Carolina by drawing a stadium-record 40,168 fans, and all 13 home games since the start of the 2022 season have had an attendance figure exceeding 30,000.

In 2023, App State set single-season school and Sun Belt records with an average home crowd of 34,734. The Mountaineers broke their own league and program records of 33,566 established in 2022, with that season breaking both records of 30,441 they had set in 2021.

App State's 53-10 record (84.1 win percentage) in home games from the 2014 transition to the end of 2023 ranked eighth nationally.

App State also led the Sun Belt Conference in home attendance in 2016, 2017 and 2019, averaging 25,787 fans in Boone during the 2017 season, 23,351 fans per regular-season home game in 2018 and 23,806 fans per home game during a 13-1 season in 2019.

Wake Forest's visit to Boone in 2017 attracted a then-record crowd of 35,126. The record was broken just one year after Miami's visit drew a crowd of 34,658.

Kidd Brewer Stadium's official seating capacity was 16,650 in 2007, but several expansion projects, including construction of the 120,000-square-foot App State Athletics Center, almost doubled the capacity.

Thanks to philanthropic funding through A Mountaineer Impact, Kidd Brewer Stadium had a new and improved look in 2017 and is now part of the of the Mark E. Ricks Athletics Complex. The video board display increased to three times the size of the previous board with 2,500 square feet to feature 13HD technology from Daktronics. It measures 50 feet high by 90 feet wide for the overall scoreboard, with the new LED display measuring more than 37 feet high by 67 feet wide.

Conrad Stadium opened in honor of former University trustee and R.J. Reynolds executive William J. Conrad and was originally constructed with 10,000 permanent seats.

Conrad Stadium was renamed on Sept. 3, 1988 in honor of Kidd Brewer, one of the most successful head coaches in App State football history. Brewer, a Winston-Salem, N.C., native who served as head football coach from 1935-38, compiled a 30-5-3 mark in four seasons.

Construction began in 1960 on Conrad Stadium (left) and what would become known as Owens Field House (right) in the stadium's north end zone. Conrad Stadium officially opened on Sept. 15, 1962 when App State hosted Emory & Henry.

In 1970, the natural grass playing field was removed from Conrad Stadium and replaced with an artificial surface, the first in the Carolinas.

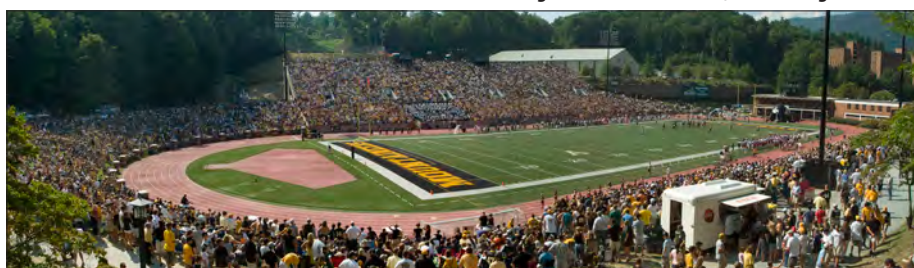

In 1978, the stadium underwent a massive renovation which included an 8,000-seat expansion and new press box/chancellor's suite on the stadium's west side.

Stadium capacity jumped to 18,000 following the extensive renovations in 1978. Another restoration project in 1995 dropped capacity to 16,650.

Re-named Kidd Brewer Stadium in 1988, much of the facility remained largely unchanged from 1978 until the beginning of the 21st century. However, additional renovations became necessary when App State began drawing crowds in excess of 20,000 on a regular basis.

Prior to the 2007 season, the press box was removed from the west side of the stadium to make way for the 120,000-square-foot App State Athletics Center. Following the '07 campaign, construction began on a 4,400-seat upper deck on the stadium's east side.

Extensive renovations in Kidd Brewer Stadium were completed in 2009.

Yosef is mountain talk for "yourself," with the idea being that if you are an App State alumnus, fan or friend and have a heart filled with black and gold, you are Yosef.

In preparing the layout for the 1942 edition of Appalachian's annual yearbook, The Rhododendron, editor James Storie and associate editor Elizabeth South (who later married in June 1942) were talking with freshman Lloyd S. Isaacs and Bill Mitchell of Observer Publishing about being one picture short of a perfectly balanced annual.

The result of their chatter was the creation of a character named Dan'l Boone Yoseff from Appalachian. He was presented as a member of the 1941-42 freshman class.

Each member of the foursome deflected credit for the creation of Yosef. Although called the Mountaineers, App State had no mascot prior to Yosef. There were no plans in 1942 for Yosef to continue and evolve into what he is today.

His initial publication was such a hit that students went so far as to want to order picture packages of Yosef instead of pictures of themselves. Undoubtedly, the caricature, the name and the idea appealed to App State students.

There is a controversy as to where the original image of Yosef came from and who was responsible for the picture. Accounts mention a bookstore staff member generating a sketch but an artist in Charlotte has also been credited with the creation of the mountain man.

The next mention of the fictional character came during the years of 1946-49 when Yoseff served as a guest editorial writer in the student newspaper (The Appalachian). He wrote using mountain colloquialism with a penchant for misspelled words.

Yoseff dropped the second "f" and became Yosef in January of 1947. On Nov. 22, 1947, the University sponsored a Mr. and Mrs. Yosef contest. Skills needed for the titles included hog and chicken calling.

The first mention of Yosef as the mascot of the Mountaineers is a picture in the March 12, 1948 edition of The Appalachian. The photo tabbed him as a perennial freshman.

In 1949, John Geffrich, a 48-year-old World War II veteran, was one of the first Yosef mascots. Geffrich helped establish a lineage of male undergraduates portraying a bearded man with coveralls, a pipe and a straw hat. The addition of a musket and a black-and-gold pick-up truck called the "Yosef Mobile" came along through the generations of Yosef.

Prior to the 1983-84 academic year, a committee comprised of University students, staff and faculty members modernized Yosef's look through a cartoon-type head and body. The Yosef mascot has undergone several overhauls over the past three decades, including one this offseason that gives the top Mountaineer a fresh new look as App State begins a new era in the Sun Belt Conference.

Responsible for providing school spirit, Yosef is an official member of App State's cheerleading squad. He was integral part of App State's 1986 and 1989 UCA Division I and 2008 Speed Squad, Inc. Large Squad national championships. Yosef goes to mascot instructional camp with the Mountaineers' cheerleaders each summer.

Yosef is also a fixture at community gatherings away from campus, including parades, school assemblies and private events. To request an appearance by Yosef at your event, email spirit@appstate.edu.

YOSEF THROUGH THE YEARS

The Rhododendron staff created Dan'l Boone Yoseff from Appalachian, Appalachian's first mascot.

1983-84

A committee comprised of App State students, faculty and staff developed the first costumed Yosef.

1949

A lineage of bearded male App State undergraduates donning coveralls, a pipe and a straw hat began portraying Yosef.

2001

"Touchdown Yosef" became a permanent part of the campus landscape when the statue donated by Irwin and Carol Belk was erected at the corner of Stadium Drive and Rivers Street.

The newest incarnation of Yosef was unveiled on July 1, 2014 in conjunction with App State's first official day in the Sun Belt Conference and NCAA Division I FBS.
