TOP STORYLINES

- App State begins Sun Belt play on Homecoming Saturday at The Rock against ODU, which already has played two league games (against James Madison and Georgia State). On Saturday, App State and Louisiana Tech become the last two Sun Belt teams to open league play in 2026.
- Saturday's game will include an on-field recognition for the 2006 FCS national championship team, which was in the middle of a title three-peat from 2005-07. The 2006 squad went 14-1, following a season-opening loss at NC State with 14 straight wins, including a 13-0 mark with true freshman Armanti Edwards as the starting quarterback. The Mountaineers outscored their opponents 528-223, using a dominant defense to allow just 14.9 points per game. App State held six opponents to 10 points or less and capped a 4-0 run through the playoffs with a 28-17 victory vs. UMass in the national title game, where RB Kevin Richardson scored four TDs.
- Saturday caps a stretch of App State's first five games being played in the state of North Carolina. The Mountaineers leave the state next week for a Friday night game at Coastal Carolina.
- For the fifth consecutive year, App State has sold out of football season tickets. The top five single-season average home attendance marks in App State and Sun Belt history have been those reached in 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024 and 2025 at The Rock, which has been named one of the top 25 stadiums in all of college football by ESPN, The Athletic and CFB Campus Tour.
- With both October home games being sold out, that makes 19 sellouts in the last 21 games at The Rock. Since the start of 2022, 22 of the stadium's top 25 crowds have occurred, and 24 of the 26 home games in that span have drawn 30,000-plus fans. The lone exceptions were a Thanksgiving weekend game vs. West Division foe Arkansas State to close the 2025 regular season and the sold-out Charlotte game that started at 9:30 p.m. after a delay of 3 hours, 30 minutes on Sept. 19.
- After the lengthy delay caused by heavy rain and frequent lightning pushed back the start time of App State's game against Charlotte in the last home appearance, the game ended at 12:32 a.m. It was the latest start to an App State home game in program history but still behind a 2003 road game that began at 6:05 p.m. in Hawaii (or after midnight for fans in Boone). A week later, App State rallied to tie NC State at 31-all in the fourth quarter before falling 41-31 in Raleigh.
- Malachi Singleton ranks among the FBS leaders in passing yards per game (No. 7 FBS, No. 1 Sun Belt at 301.5), completions per game (No. 9 FBS at 24.0), completion percentage (No. 11 FBS at 72.7) and yards per pass attempt (No. 21 FBS at 9.14). Singleton has seven TD passes, two rushing TDs and just one INT after appearing in 11 games for Purdue in 2025 and five games as a redshirt freshman for Arkansas in 2024.
- Entering the bye week, App State ranked among the national leaders in offensive plays of at least 10 yards (T-8th with 73) and offensive plays of at least 20 yards (T-16th with 25).
- App State began this week tied with Louisiana for the league lead and tied for 11th nationally with six INTs. That contributes to an FBS ranking of 19th in turnover margin at 1.0+ per game.
- DL Caleb Sandstrom has 4.0 sacks, putting him in a tie for 8th in the FBS and a tie for 2nd in the Sun Belt with an average of 1.0 per game.

APP STATE OFFICIAL MARKSMEDIA POLICIES/INFORMATION

During a standard week with a Saturday game, App State will have Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday media availabilities.

Head coach Dowell Loggains' appearances on the weekly Sun Belt coaches Zoom sessions are Mondays from 11:30 a.m. ET until about 11:37 a.m.

After his appearance on the Sun Belt Zoom session, Loggains will be available for an interview with in-person media members. Media members interested in participating should contact Joey or Bret by the end of the day Sunday to receive further information for that week's interviews.

During standard weeks, portions of Tuesday and Wednesday practices will be open to approved media members, with interviews conducted afterward.

If you plan to attend one or both open practices, communicate those plans and submit specific interview requests to Joey or Bret by noon on Monday (for Tuesday's practice) and noon on Tuesday (for Wednesday's practice). If you have more than one person from your organization planning to attend, the name of each attendee needs to be shared in advance.

Practices are closed to the public.

Media attending practice are forbidden from reporting (e.g. tweeting, blogging, etc.) on anything until after the post-practice interviews have been conducted. This includes media who leave practice early.

No videos or photos can be taken during practice without prior permission from the App State strategic communications office.

HOME GAME CREDENTIALS/MEDIA

Requests will be made on a game-by-game basis and can be accessed by filling out the form at appstatesports.com/2026FBCredentials.

App State Strategic Communications reserves the right to deny any request for a credential. The number of requests, coupled with the amount of press box and sideline space available to media members, will factor into credential approvals for each game.

Parking is not guaranteed with a credential, but App State Strategic Communications will do its best to provide at least one game day parking spot for each credentialed media outlet.

Head coach Dowell Loggains and select players will be made available for a postgame press conference on the third floor of the north end zone facility. Media members can attend by entering the north end zone facility and taking the elevator to the team room on the third floor.

On game days, please communicate with the visiting team's communications staff on the second row of the press box for info on their interview procedures.

MORE STORYLINES

- App State LB Keyshawn Thomas, who had seven tackles at NC State, was a member of ODU's program in 2025. ODU's roster includes former App State defensive lineman Bucci Farmer.
- LB Alex Mitchell has forced two fumbles this season, increasing his career total to eight counting his time at Chattanooga (five from 2022-24) and Middle Tennessee (one in four games in 2025). He is tied for sixth place among active NCAA defenders with his eight forced fumbles.
- Since 2015, when App State became a postseason-eligible FBS member, it's tied for 13th place nationally with 101 wins. The teams ahead of App State on that list are Alabama, Georgia, Ohio State, Clemson, Notre Dame, Oklahoma, Michigan, Boise State, Oregon, Penn State, LSU and Iowa.
- App State started 4-2 in 2025. Four of the final five regular season losses were by 14 total points.
- App State's roster features 75 newcomers, including 45 transfers and 30 freshmen. Of the 45 transfers, 42 are from four-year schools and three came from the JUCO ranks. Of the 42 transfers from four-year schools, 26 were at FBS programs last season and 11 were at FCS schools.
- The first full signing class for Dowell Loggains was the highest-rated class in App State and Sun Belt history via 247Sports, which had the Mountaineers with a top-60 national ranking on signing day. App State's class ranked higher than 10 programs from Power Four conferences.
- The 2026 coaching staff includes seven new faces: Mike Anthony (OC), Tyler Zielenske (special teams), Aaron Fierbaugh (safeties), Justin Harper (WRs), Antonio James (DL), Tyler Kelley (RBs) and Ryan Pugh (OL).
- QB Malachi Singleton (offense), LB Colton Phares (defense) and DB Ammo Robinson (special teams) were voted team captains before the start of fall camp. Phares (LB), Aiden Benton (DL) and Tyriq Poindexter (OL) received preseason All-Sun Belt recognition from the league.
- A former safety who moved to linebacker midway through the 2024 season, Colton Phares recorded a sack and picked off a pass in his 2026 debut after standing out in 2025 as one of just three FBS players (along with Texas Tech's Jacob Rodriguez and Central Michigan's Jordan Kwiatkowski) to post at least 100 tackles, 9.0 TFLs and three INTs.
- The 2026 roster has 10 players remaining from the 2024 roster, including scholarship recruits Kanye Roberts (App State freshman in 2022), Colton Phares (App State freshman in 2023), Cayden Sweatt (App State freshman in 2023) and Nick Campbell (2024 arrival from NC State). Campbell was a member of NC State's program from 2022-23.
- In 2022, QB Malachi Singleton committed to an Arkansas staff that included Dowell Loggains, who ended up departing for South Carolina shortly before Singleton enrolled at Arkansas. Loggains was introduced as App State's head coach on Dec. 9, 2024, and Singleton (who had decided to leave Arkansas after the 2024 season) traveled to Boone four days later for the first set of official recruiting visits for the new coach. Singleton instead chose Purdue and played there in 2025 before re-entering the portal, but he couldn't take another official visit to Boone (per NCAA rules). Singleton did visit Tulane, which had just made the College Football Playoff, but he committed to App State this time and has reconnected with Loggains as well as new offensive coordinator Mike Anthony (an Arkansas quality control coach from 2020-22) and run game coordinator/TEs coach Ryan Yurachek (an Arkansas grad assistant from 2020-21).
- QB Henry Hasselbeck, who had a 75-yard TD run on his first collegiate snap wiped out by a penalty vs. Maine, is the son of former NFL QB Matt Hasselbeck. Matt played for the Tennessee Titans in 2011-12, when Dowell Loggains was their passing game coordinator and QBs coach. Hasselbeck, a four-star lacrosse recruit as a midfielder and three-star football recruit as a QB in Massachusetts, initially committed to Maryland's lacrosse program in 2022 before committing to UCLA's football program the following winter. He spent the 2024 and 2025 seasons at UCLA.
- With 326 receiving yards and three touchdowns through four games, WR Sam Pickett III ranks No. 2 in the Sun Belt with an average of 81.5 receiving yards per game.
- Of App State's six scholarship running backs, only returner Jaquari Lewis didn't deal with a significant injury last season. Florida transfer Treyaun Webb dealt with injuries late in the 2024 season and didn't appear in any 2025 games, and Arkansas State transfer Ja'Quez Cross suffered a season-ending injury after the 2025 opener. Kanye Roberts suffered a season-ending injury in the 2025 preseason after missing the final three App State games of 2024.
- Treyaun Webb scored App State's first touchdown of the season on his first game carry since Sept. 21, 2024, and it was his first TD since he reached the end zone as a Florida back against Miami on Aug. 31, 2024. Kanye Roberts, meanwhile, returned to the field for the first time since Nov. 2, 2024 and gained 19 yards on his first carry against Maine.
- The primary offensive starters from 2025 who returned are offensive linemen Cayden Sweatt and Trent Ramsey (who started the first seven games before suffering a season-ending injury). Defensively, Colton Phares and Aiden Benton were primary starters who returned. Ja'Den McBurrows started the first three games before suffering a season-ending injury.
- Tyriq Poindexter, a redshirt senior on the 2025 roster, started the season opener at right tackle but missed the rest of the year as he recovered from injury. He played in 26 games as a member of VMI's program from 2021-24 and made the All-SoCon first team in 2024.

SCORING SUMMARY

	1	2	3	4	F
MOUNTAINEERS	7	7	0	14	—
MINUTEMEN	7	0	3	7	—

ATTENDANCE: 22,808

App State 7 • UMass 7 1:15 TO GO • FIRST QUARTER

Both teams moved the ball with relative ease in the first 10 minutes of the second quarter, but all they had to show for it were swapped punts and a UMass interception deep in App State territory. The Mountaineers got the ball for only the second time in the second period when they fielded a punt at their own 22 yard line with just over five minutes left to play in the opening half. On the first play of the series, Edwards connected with his favorite target, William Mayfield, for a 35-yard gain. From there, the Mountaineer trio of Richardson, Edwards and Devon Moore banged out the final 43 yards of the drive on the ground, capped by Richardson's six-yard scoring run off right tackle with 49 seconds to go before halftime. The Apps' 11-play, 78-yard drive took 4:19 off the clock and assured them of taking a seven-point lead into the locker room.

App State 14 • UMass 7 0:49 TO GO • SECOND QUARTER

After UMass knotted the contest at 14-14 with an 11-play, 81-yard scoring drive, App State got the ball back on its own 29 with 4:12 left to play in the third quarter looking to put together a lengthy scoring drive of its own. Thanks in large part to Richardson, who amassed 48 of the Mountaineers' 71 yards on the possession, the Apps did just that, marching 71 yards in 13 plays. Richardson punctuated the scoring drive by powering four yards through the heart of the line and into the end zone for his 29th touchdown of the season, tying the NCAA Division I FCS record set by Colgate's Jamaal Branch in 16 games in 2003. More importantly, Richardson's third scoring run of the evening gave the Mountaineers a seven-point lead with 13:22 remaining in the ballgame.

App State 21 • UMass 14 13:22 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER

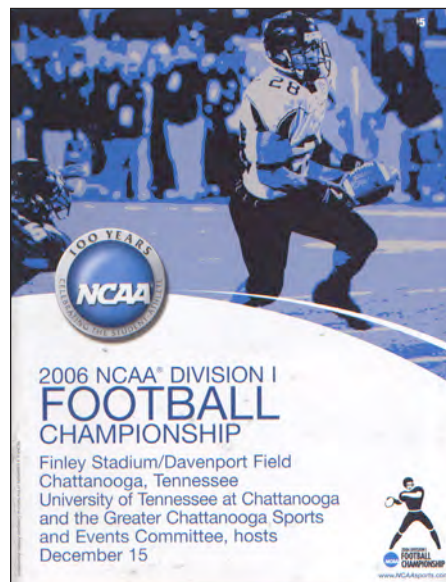

When UMass cut the Mountaineers' lead to 21-17 on a 42-yard Chris Koeplin field goal with 8:46 to go, App State head coach Jerry Moore told quarterbacks coach Scott Satterfield, "We've got to run eight minutes off that clock." Satterfield replied, "We've got to score." Moore agreed. "I didn't say don't score. But we need to run some time off the clock." Richardson, who ran 11 times for 48 of Appalachian's 80 yards on the drive, made sure the Apps accomplished both goals. In all, thanks to Richardson's running and a key third-down completion from Edwards to fellow freshman Josh Johnson, App State ran 6:46 off the clock on the victory-sealing drive, which culminated with Richardson's fourth touchdown of the evening. The two-yard dive was also Richardson's 30th TD of the season, setting a new NCAA Division I FCS single-season record. Following Richardson's score, UMass' last-ditch effort was thwarted when Corey Lynch picked off a Liam Coen pass with 42 seconds to play.

App State 28 • UMass 17 1:51 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER

"Mission accomplished. We came out this year with the target on our back, but we stayed focused and we came out and we played our game right to the very end."

— 2006 NCAA Division I Championship MVP Kevin Richardson

2006 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS RECAP

Twenty years removed from a dominant run to a second straight national title, App State's 2006 championship team will be honored and celebrated Saturday.

The second step in a national title three-peat under Hall of Fame coach Jerry Moore from 2005-07, the 2006 squad went 14-1 by following a season-opening loss at NC State with 14 straight wins, including a 13-0 mark with freshman Armanti Edwards as the starting quarterback.

The Mountaineers outscored their opponents 528-223, using a stout defense to allow just 14.9 points per game. App State held six opponents to 10 points or less and capped a 4-0 run through the playoffs with a 28-17 victory against UMass at the national championship game in Chattanooga, Tenn., where Kevin Richardson closed a record-setting season by scoring four rushing touchdowns.

Edwards, Richardson, Kerry Brown (OL), Matt Isenhour (OL), Corey Lynch (DB), Marques Murrell (DE) and Jeremy Wiggins (DB) received first-team All-America recognition that season, while Daniel Bettis (TE) was a third-team All-American.

Mario Acitelli (OL), Pierre Banks (LB), Omarr Byrom (DL), Dexter Jackson (WR/RET), William Mayfield (WR), Julian Rauch (K), Jeremy Robertson (OL), Monte Smith (LB), Scott Suttle (OL), Gary Tharrington (DE) and Jerome Touchstone (DB) also earned All-SoCon recognition.

Moore received multiple national coach of the year awards, Richardson was a finalist for the Walter Payton Award for national player of the year and Murrell was a finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award that goes to the national defensive player of the year.

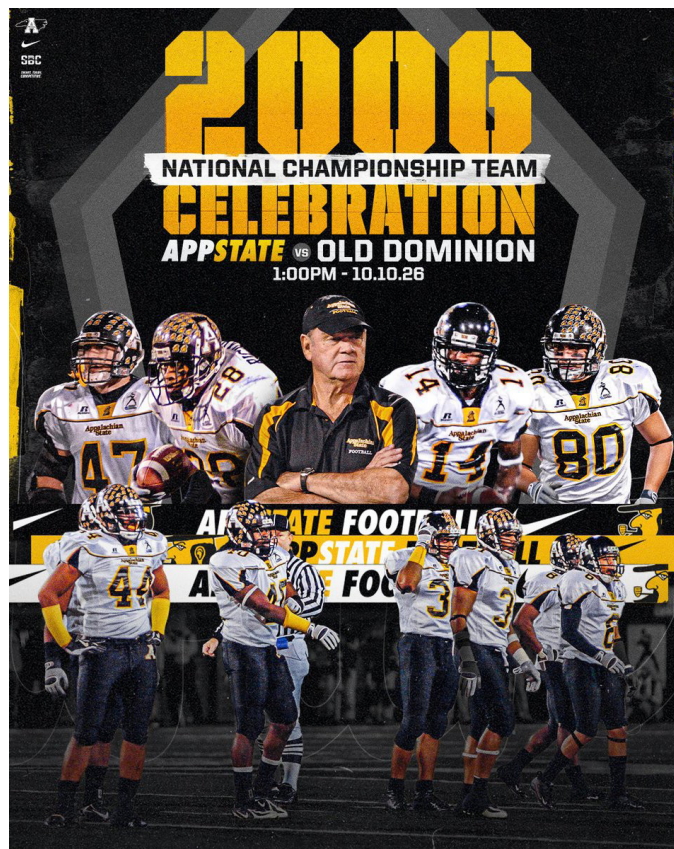

Remembering the 2006 National Title Run:

Moving forward from the program's first national title in 2005, App State needed to replace key contributors from the previous season, including standout quarterback Richie Williams. Trey Elder, one of the heroes during the 2005 playoff run for how he ran the offense when an injured Williams was sidelined, started the 2006 opener in what turned out to be a defensive-minded game at NC State. The two teams combined for just 375 yards of offense, and the Wolfpack held a 16-10 lead before capping the scoring on a touchdown with 5:14 left in the third quarter of a 23-10 victory.

Sill ranked No. 1 at the FCS/I-AA level, App State faced No. 12 James Madison in Boone the following weekend and prevailed 21-10. Elder was shaken up by a late hit in the first quarter of that game, leading to another appearance from Edwards, who had worked his way up the depth chart during the preseason as a true freshman (contributing to fellow freshman CoCo Hillary's move from quarterback to receiver) and played briefly in Raleigh. Edwards rushed for a 7-yard touchdown on his first snap at The Rock.

Edwards made his first start a week later in a 41-0 shutout of Mars Hill, beginning a string of wins by margins of 41, 35, 24 and 35 points. The Mountaineers built a 14-0 lead in the first quarter of a 14-7 victory against Wofford, then needed two overtimes to win 27-20 at Georgia Southern. The Mountaineers had lost five straight games in Paulson Stadium, but they traded overtime field goals with the Eagles before Richardson scored on a double-overtime run and the defense kept Georgia Southern's offense out of the end zone.

App State followed up that dramatic win with a 40-7 thumping of Furman in a top-10 matchup, then closed the regular season with decisive wins over The Citadel and Western Carolina to wrap up an outright SoCon title.

App State opened the playoffs by scoring the first 31 points in a win against No. 13 Coastal Carolina and led 24-17 entering the fourth quarter of a 38-17 victory against No. 18 Montana State, with Richardson scoring two of his four touchdowns in the last 12 minutes. The Mountaineers advanced to another national championship game with Richardson and Edwards both rushing for more than 100 yards in a 49-24 home victory against No. 5 Youngstown State.

Facing No. 3 UMass in Chattanooga, App State broke a 14-all tie early in the fourth quarter on Richardson's third touchdown run of the night. The Mountaineers' defense forced UMass to settle for a 42-yard field goal on the next drive, and App State clinched a second straight championship by going on a 14-play, 80-yard touchdown march that took nearly seven minutes off the clock.

Richardson powered into the end zone on a 2-yard run with 1:51 left, capping a season in which the former walk-on set a I-AA single-season record with 30 rushing touchdowns and set an App State single-season record with 1,676 rushing yards.

Edwards rushed for 1,153 yards with 15 touchdowns and threw for 2,251 yards with 15 touchdowns as Mayfield led the receiving corps with 1,129 yards.

Banks led the way defensively with 110 tackles, and Murrell posted 13.0 sacks among his 17.0 tackles for loss. Tharrington had 15.0 tackles for loss, followed by Byrom with 11.5, while Lynch and Wiggins tied for the team lead with five interceptions apiece.

APP STATE RECORD AT KIDD BREWER STADIUM SINCE 2003: 128-26

Kidd Brewer Stadium stakes claim to being one of the toughest but also most picturesque college football venues in the nation.

After “The Rock” was voted the top Group of Five stadium in the country by CFB Campus Tour in 2023 and 2024, ESPN named Kidd Brewer Stadium one of the top 25 stadiums in all of college football, and The Athletic did the same in 2025.

Now in its 65th season in the venue, which opened as Conrad Stadium on Sept. 15, 1962, App State has a 282-84-5 all-time record at The Rock.

The top five single-season average home attendance marks in App State and Sun Belt Conference history have been those reached by Mountaineer fans at The Rock in 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024 and 2025.

App State set single-season school and Sun Belt records with an average home crowd of 34,734 in 2023.

With a $50 million north end zone facility, removal of the track and installation of new turf, The Rock had a new look in 2021, as the end zone facility opened for fans before a 2020 game vs. Georgia State. Hall of Fame coach Jerry Moore was also honored before the 2021 opener with a plaza and statue in his name.

Kidd Brewer Stadium’s official seating capacity was 16,650 in 2007, but several expansion projects have almost doubled the capacity.

DOWELL LOGGAINS

A respected offensive play-caller at both the NFL and college levels, Dowell Loggains was named the head coach of App State on Dec. 7, 2024.

Hired at the age of 44, Loggains (pronounced LOGG-ins) became the 23rd head football coach in program history. His five-year contract runs through the 2029 season.

Before serving as South Carolina's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the 2023 and 2024 seasons, Loggains was an assistant for two years at his alma mater, Arkansas, after spending 16 years in the NFL. That includes his time as an offensive coordinator or quarterbacks coach for the Tennessee Titans (2010-13), Cleveland Browns (2014), Chicago Bears (2015-17), Miami Dolphins (2018) and New York Jets (2019-20).

During his decade-plus as an NFL coordinator and quarterbacks coach, he mentored the likes of Sam Darnold, Jay Cutler, Vince Young, Matt Hasselbeck, Mitchell Trubisky and Brian Hoyer at quarterback, as well as running backs Chris Johnson, Kenyan Drake and Jordan Howard.

In his head coaching debut, App State won 34-11 against Charlotte in Bank of America Stadium. The Mountaineers started 4-2 and closed the season with a JLAB Birmingham Bowl appearance. After his debut season, he led the efforts for App State to sign the highest-rated recruiting class in Sun Belt Conference history.

Loggains' offense during the 2024 season helped the Gamecocks reach the brink of the College Football Playoff with a 9-3 regular-season record that included wins over Oklahoma, Texas A&M, Missouri and Clemson. South Carolina had the third-best rushing offense in the SEC during the regular season.

He developed redshirt freshman LaNorris Sellers into one of college football's most dangerous dual-threat quarterbacks. Under Loggains' watch, Sellers threw for 2,274 yards with 17 touchdowns while also rushing for 655 yards and seven scores against one of the country's toughest schedules. He ranked 20th nationally in passing efficiency, 14th in yards per attempt, 25th in yards per completion, 28th in total offense and 35th in completion percentage.

Loggains also found success utilizing Raheim "Rocket" Sanders, one of the SEC's best rushing backs, to form a dynamic rushing attack.

In his first season in Columbia, Loggains turned future NFL quarterback Spencer Rattler and a future NFL first-round draft pick, wide receiver Xavier Legette, into one of the most lethal pass-and-catch combinations in the country.

Loggains spent the 2021 and 2022 seasons as the Arkansas Razorbacks' tight ends coach, earning a reputation as a top-25 national recruiter there.

A native of Abilene, Texas, Loggains graduated from the University of Arkansas with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 2003 and a master's degree in education in 2005. He walked on to the Razorback football program in 2000 as a quarterback and holder before earning a scholarship and becoming a four-year letterman, appearing in 50 games.

Before returning to his alma mater of Arkansas, Loggains served as the New York Jets' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2019 and 2020. During his first season with the Jets, he guided an offense that was among the league's most proficient on opening drives, scoring 40 first-possession points. Darnold's numbers improved from his rookie campaign, increasing his completion percentage, passing yards, touchdown passes and passer rating while also lowering his interceptions.

Loggains oversaw a Miami offense that averaged 4.68 yards per rush in 2018, the NFL's ninth-best mark. The Dolphins also ranked second in the league with 14 passing touchdowns of 20-plus yards.

Loggains began a three-year stint in Chicago in 2015 as the Bears' quarterbacks coach, where he mentored Cutler to a career season.

He worked as the Cleveland Browns quarterbacks coach in 2014 under offensive coordinator Kyle Shanahan. He helped Hoyer to a career season, as the six-year veteran won seven games (in 13 starts) and threw for over 3,000 yards.

Loggains began his coaching career with Tennessee in 2006 and spent eight seasons with the Titans in a variety of roles, ultimately serving as the offensive coordinator for part of 2012 and all of 2013. He joined the Titans as a coaching administrative assistant (2006-07) and quality control coach (2008-09) before spending the next three seasons as the quarterbacks/passing game coordinator, helping Young achieve a career-high passer rating in 2010 and garner a Pro Bowl appearance.

Loggains' first professional experience came with the Dallas Cowboys as a scouting assistant in 2005.

FAST FACTS/GAME LOGS LB COLTON PHARES (#10, SENIOR)

Preseason Candidate:

- Chuck Bednarik Award (Top defender)
- Bronko Nagurski Trophy (Top defender)
- Allstate AFCA Good Works Team (Service)
- Allstate Wuerffel Trophy (Service & Leadership)
- Shriners Children’s 1000 (East-West Shrine Bowl)
- Jason Witten Collegiate Man of the Year

Additional Notes:

- Preseason All-Sun Belt (first team) via Phil Steele and the league
- Nicknamed “Captain America” within the team, named a team captain prior to the start of fall training camp
- Had an interception and a sack in the 2026 opener
- On the opening drive at NC State, stuffed a first-down run from the 5, ripped the ball out of back Duke Scott’s hands and raced 49 yards the other way into Wolfpack territory, but officials ruled that the play was over because Scott’s forward progress had been stopped
- Moved from safety to linebacker midway through the 2024 season and has gained 40 pounds from the time he enrolled as a defensive back in 2023 to the start of the 2025 season
- Leading tackler for App State in 2025 with 101 tackles to go along with 9.5 tackles for loss, a team-leading three interceptions, two sacks, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery, three pass breakups and two quarterback hurries
- One of just three FBS players nationally with at least 100 tackles, 9.0 tackles for loss and three interceptions in 2025, joined by Texas Tech’s Jacob Rodriguez and Central Michigan’s Jordan Kwiatkowski
- Accounted for 10.5 percent of App State’s team’s tackles in 2025, and nine teammates combined for the other 121 tackles from a returning player
- The 2026 roster has 10 players who were on the Mountaineers’ 2024 roster, including just four scholarship recruits: Kanye Roberts (App State freshman in 2022), Phares (App State freshman in 2023), Cayden Sweatt (App State freshman in 2023) and Nick Campbell (2024 arrival from NC State)
- Forced and recovered fumble on same play with 55 seconds left in App State territory to seal 26-24 victory against Marshall in 2025
- Set career high with 12 tackles in the 2025 JLab Birmingham Bowl
- Had 10 tackles, a fourth-quarter interception in the end zone and an assisted tackle on fourth-and-goal stop from the 1 in the final two minutes of the Oregon State win in 2025
- In high school, a state champion in football and wrestling while also making the all-state team in track at Beaufort, which is pronounced BYOO-fert
- Prep safety had 69 tackles, four interceptions, nine pass breakups, two forced fumbles, one sack and five tackles for loss as a senior for a 13-1 team that won a Class 3-A state title (first state title since 1945)
- As a senior, also returned 11 punts for 363 yards with three touchdowns, returned 14 kickoffs for 388 yards with one touchdown, rushed 49 times for 598 yards with six touchdowns and caught 19 passes for 349 yards with four touchdowns
- Also kicked field goals for Beaufort as a senior
- Scored two touchdowns while rushing for 198 yards, made seven tackles and broke up one pass in a 41-31 victory in the state championship game as a senior

FAST FACTS/GAME LOGS QUARTERBACKS (NUMERICAL ORDER)

MALACHI SINGLETON (#3, SENIOR)

— Unanimously named a team captain prior to the start of training camp

— Ranks among the FBS leaders in passing yards per game (No. 7 FBS, No. 1 Sun Belt at 301.5), completions per game (No. 9 FBS at 24.0), completion percentage (No. 11 FBS at 72.7) and yards per pass attempt (No. 21 FBS at 9.14).

— Named the Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Week after completing 28 of 42 passes for 331 yards and two touchdowns in a win against Charlotte (also had one reception for 14 yards in the victory)

— Completed 22 of 24 passes for 291 yards and three touchdowns in less than three full quarters of work in his App State debut against Maine

— Singleton's performance ranked as the third-best completion percentage in school history (.917) by a passer with more than 10 completions (behind Zac Thomas' 14-for-14 game against Charlotte in 2018 and Logan Hallock's 20-for-21 game against Western Carolina in 2012)

— Appeared in 11 games for Purdue in 2025 after playing in five games as a redshirt freshman for Arkansas in 2024 and redshirting in 2023

— In 2022, committed to an Arkansas staff that included Dowell Loggains, who ended up departing for South Carolina shortly before Singleton enrolled at Arkansas

— Loggains was introduced as App State's head coach on Dec. 9, 2024, and Singleton (who had decided to leave Arkansas after the 2024 season) traveled to Boone four days later for the first set of official recruiting visits for the new coach. Singleton instead chose Purdue and played for the Boilermakers in 2025 before re-entering the portal

— Singleton couldn't take another official visit to Boone (per NCAA rules) despite again having strong interest in the Mountaineers. He did visit Tulane, which made the College Football Playoff following the 2025 regular season, but he committed to App State this time and has reconnected with Loggains as well as new offensive coordinator Mike Anthony (an Arkansas quality control coach from 2020-22) and run game coordinator/tight ends coach Ryan Yurachek (an Arkansas graduate assistant from 2020-21)

— Dual-threat quarterback completed 38 of 64 passes for 439 yards and five TDs while also rushing 202 yards and one score for Purdue in 2025

— Rushed five times for 73 yards and scored on a 40-yard run against Minnesota in 2025

— Completed 21 of 28 passes for 358 yards and one touchdown while rushing for three touchdowns at Arkansas in 2024, when he was named SEC Freshman of the Week after scoring the game-winning touchdown on an 11-yard run against No. 4 Tennessee

Sept. 5 - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 33,664

GAME NOTES
App State won its season opener for the seventh time in the last eight years (and the second straight under head coach Dowell Loggains) to move to 54-39-3 all-time in season openers.
The Mountaineers won their home opener for the fourth straight year and improved to 72-21-2 all-time in home openers. The only such loss since 2014 was the 63-61 shootout against North Carolina in 2022.
The 52-point margin of victory was App State's biggest since a 72-7 win against Gardner-Webb in 2018.
App State improved its all-time record against Maine to 1-2 ... There are now no visiting teams that have played more than once in Boone and have an undefeated record. The Black Bears have the only program with a winning record in Boone in more than one visit.
The Mountaineers won against an FCS opponent for the 11th straight time and have not lost such a contest since 2014.
This was App State's 99th win since it became a postseason-eligible FBS member in 2015, tied for the 11th-most nationally in that span.
Attendance for the 16th sellout in the last 18 games at Kidd Brewer Stadium was 33,664.
App State's offense scored its most points since putting up 55 against Georgia Southern in 2023 and compiled its most yards (647) since the 2022 season opener against North Carolina.
In his first collegiate start after playing as a backup at Arkansas and Purdue, Malachi Singleton completed 22 of 24 passes for 291 yards with three TDs and no interceptions. His performance marks the third-best completion percentage in school history (.917) by a passer with more than 10 completions.

Mountaineers Roll Over Maine in Season Debut

BOONE, N.C. — App State opened the 2026 season with a dominant home win over Maine, recording a 55-3 victory in front of a sold-out crowd of 33,664 at Kidd Brewer Stadium.

Beginning their second season under the direction of head coach Dowell Loggains, with 73 newcomers on the roster, the Mountaineers posted the program's largest margin of victory since a 72-7 win against Gardner-Webb in 2018.

App State shut out Maine (1-1) until the final minute of the third quarter, building a 38-0 lead as Malachi Singleton completed 22 of 24 passes for 291 yards and three TDs in less than three full quarters of work.

App State's 10 possessions resulted in a turnover-capped march to the Maine 5-yard line on the opening series and then nine straight scoring drives, with seven touchdowns and two James London field goals. Sam Pickett III followed a Darrin Fugitt touchdown reception with two scores of his own, and the Mountaineers' four rushing touchdowns came from Treyaun Webb, Jaquari Lewis, Nate Branch and Jackson Grier. Branch and Grier, both receivers, scored on runs of 36 and 28 yards.

Caleb Sandstrom produced App State's first sack of the season right before edge rusher Caleb Pitts intercepted a pass that he tipped to himself late in the first half, setting up a touchdown drive that led to a 31-0 halftime advantage, and Colton Phares came down with another interception early in the third quarter. Phares also added a sack thanks to his pressure on a penalty for intentional grounding, part of the Mountaineers' eight tackles for loss.

GAME NOTES
App State has started 2-0 in both years of the Dowell Loggains era
The Mountaineers have won all four matchups against the Pirates when competing as FBS peers. It was the second straight win in Greenville after losing seven straight to the Pirates there from 1962-2012.
This was App State's 100th win since it became a postseason-eligible FBS member in 2015, 11th-most nationally in that span.
App State won the turnover battle against ECU 2-0 and is now +3 in the turnover margin after two contests.
Kaleb Purdy led all Mountaineers with eight tackles (including a TFL) – the most in his college career, which includes previous stops at Kansas and Tennessee Tech.
James London went 2-for-3 on field goals with makes from 41 and 37 and a miss from what could have been a school-record 59-yarder. He also made all three PATs and kicked five of six kickoffs out of the end zone (with the sixth being called for a fair catch).
After not punting in his App State debut a week earlier, Jaxson Dunn punted seven times for a 44.4-yard average, landing four inside the 20.
The two in-state programs agreed to a four-game series nearly a decade ago, facilitating the first meeting with both schools competing as FBS members, and App State officially won home games in 2021 (at Charlotte's Bank of America Stadium) and 2023 (at Kidd Brewer Stadium). A victory at ECU in 2024 was App State's first win in Greenville since 1959,

Mountaineers Run Streak to 4 Straight Over ECU

GREENVILLE, N.C. — Why swab the deck when you can sweep it?

App State moved to 2-0 on the season and 4-0 in the FBS series with East Carolina by winning 27-24 at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium.

The Mountaineers built a 24-10 lead early in the second half and had a 27-17 advantage before ECU (0-2) scored a touchdown with 21 seconds left. App State could begin celebrating when the onside kick bounced into the Pirates' sideline without being recovered.

Caleb Sandstrom recorded two sacks, forcing a key turnover to set up a short-field touchdown that erased an early deficit, and cornerback Dre Walker's toe-tapping interception in the final three minutes halted an ECU drive when there was still enough time remaining for a viable comeback attempt. The Pirates completed only 21 of their 37 pass attempts, as five Mountaineers registered a pass breakup.

While ECU went only 2-for-13 on third down, App State had five third-down conversions, with quarterback Malachi Singleton showing poise in the pocket while benefiting from strong protection from his offensive line. In addition to running for a 4-yard TD, Singleton completed 20 of 28 passes for 267 yards to lead a turnover-free effort from the offense.

Jaquari Lewis (17 carries for 73 yards) and Treyaun Webb both had rushing touchdowns for the second straight week.

ECU opened the game with a 12-play, 60-yard drive and an eight-play, 83-yard drive, but that netted just seven total points because of a missed 33-yard field goal on the opening series. Singleton's 34-yard completion to Sam Pickett III helped set up a 41-yard field goal from James London, and Sandstrom recorded a strip sack on the first play of the next ECU series. Aaron Clark scooped up the loose ball, giving App State possession at the ECU 12, and the Mountaineers moved in front for good on Singleton's 4-yard keeper for a TD shortly after defensive pass interference in the end zone negated a third-and-12 incompletion.

Charlotte	0	7	0	14	—	21
APP STATE	3	10	6	7	—	26

Sept. 19 - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 28,296

GAME NOTES
App State improved to 3-0 for the first time since 2019, when it started 7-0 on the way to a 13-1 final record.
Following a three-plus-hour delay, the game featured the latest kickoff in Kidd Brewer Stadium history, officially at 9:32 p.m.
App State improved to 5-0 all-time against Charlotte, including 3-0 in Boone.
As an FBS program, the Mountaineers are now 11-0 against current American programs, including a 5-0 mark against Charlotte, 4-0 vs. East Carolina, 1-0 vs. North Texas and 1-0 vs. UAB. Some of those opponents were C-USA teams at the time of the matchup.
Malachi Singleton completed 28 of 42 passes for a career-high 331 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. He added 14 yards on the ground and even caught a 14-yard pass from fellow QB Henry Hasselbeck.
Jackson Grier's 7-yard score with 12:08 left in the contest was the first touchdown catch of his college career. He scored a rushing touchdown in the opener against Maine.
App State's defense limited Charlotte's offense to two touchdowns, 247 total yards and 36 rushing yards. The 49ers converted only 1 of 11 third-down attempts and 1 of 3 fourth downs.
Devin Henderson led the team with a career-high eight tackles.
Khalil Conley and Dre Walker had the Mountaineers' two interceptions. Walker picked off a fourth-quarter pass for the second straight contest.
Caleb Sandstrom – already the team leader in sacks – had another sack and 1.5 TFLs among his three total tackles.

App State Improves to 3-0 After Late-Night Start

BOONE, N.C. — Black Saturday turned to Black Sunday thanks to the latest kickoff time in Kidd Brewer Stadium history.

App State needed to weather several storms to remain unbeaten this season and unblemished against Charlotte.

Khalil Conley's interception deep in Charlotte territory set up the first of two second-half TD passes from Malachi Singleton as the Mountaineers gained separation before holding on for a 26-21 home victory.

App State (3-0) held a 26-7 lead midway through the fourth quarter, but Charlotte's 36-yard INT return for a TD with 1:58 left put the outcome in doubt. Darrin Fugitt recovered the onside kick, and the 49ers (0-3) had no timeouts left to prevent App State from kneeling out the clock.

Kickoff for Black Saturday was scheduled for 6 p.m., but frequent lightning delayed the start to 9:30 p.m., an hour later than a nationally televised App State-Louisiana matchup on a Friday night in 2020 set the previous record for the latest start at The Rock. At 12:32 a.m., the clock ran out on the Mountaineers' fifth win in five meetings with Charlotte.

Singleton completed 28 of 42 passes for 331 yards with second-half scores to receivers Chris Lofton and Jackson Grier. Conley's third-quarter interception at the Charlotte 27 occurred on a Cole Gonzales throw from his own end zone, shortly after App State's opening drive of the second half ended with an unsuccessful fourth-and-goal run from the 1.

Singleton threw a 3-yard TD pass to Lofton to push the lead to 19-7, and Grier's 7-yard touchdown reception gave App State a 19-point advantage. Khamani Alexander's second 1-yard touchdown run of the night cut the 49ers' deficit to 26-15, and the Mountaineers appeared to seal the victory when Dre Walker picked off a pass with 2:17 left. The Mountaineers took over at their 28, but Collin Gill intercepted a third-and-5 throw and scored a stunning defensive touchdown.

GAME 4					FINAL
APP STATE	0	10	7	14	—	31
NC State	14	14	3	10	—	41

Sept. 26 - Carter-Finley Stadium - Raleigh, N.C. - 56,919

GAME NOTES

NC State opened the game a 10-play, 75-yard touchdown drive, scoring on CJ Bailey's 5-yard keeper just two plays after Colton Phares stuffed a first-down run from the 5, ripped the ball out of back Duke Scott's hands and raced 49 yards the other way into Wolfpack territory. Instead of App State forcing a big turnover and flipping the field in the opening minutes, officials ruled that the play was over because Scott's forward progress had been stopped.

App State nearly had another momentum-swinging turnover in the second half, as Alex Mitchell joined a gang-tackling effort on a pass toward the NC State sideline, pulled the ball loose and then scooped it up. After an officials' review, it was ruled that the ball was touching the receiver when he was out of bounds, so the Wolfpack maintained possession again and settled for a 23-yard field goal to move ahead 31-17.

The Mountaineers trailed 28-7 with 39 seconds left in the second quarter before going outscoring the Wolfpack 24-3 to tie the game at 31-31 midway through the fourth quarter.

NC State improved its all-time record against App State to 7-0 (all in Raleigh).

Nine of the Mountaineers' last 10 contests against Power 4 opponents have been decided by 10 points or less.

The loss snapped App State's five-game winning streak against in-state foes dating back to 2022.

Freshman tight end Gavin Barber earned his first career start (and scored his first career touchdown).

Linebacker Carson Sloan had an impactful game with a season-high eight tackles, a sack, 2.0 TFLs and two pass breakups.

App State Rallies on Road, Falls Short in Raleigh

RALEIGH, N.C. — App State showed plenty of fight during a dramatic fourth-quarter rally on the road, but NC State responded to the Mountaineers' game-tying touchdown by regaining the lead for good with 5:08 left in a 41-31 victory.

App State, which fell behind 21-0 and 28-7 in its final nonconference game, trailed 31-17 entering the final quarter in a sold-out Carter-Finley Stadium. The Mountaineers, who had given up 10 of those points after potential forced fumbles and recoveries from Colton Phares and Alex Mitchell resulted in the Wolfpack offense maintaining possession, used a pair of undisputed takeaways to score back-to-back touchdowns in a span of 107 seconds to tie the game.

NC State (2-2) answered with a 75-yard touchdown drive to move ahead 38-31, then regained possession at the App State 33 with 3:59 left following incompletions on a third-and-2 throw and fourth-and-2 pass. The Wolfpack achieved important separation when it ended the next drive by making 35-yard field goal with 1:51 remaining.

With App State (3-1) trailing by 14 points early in the fourth quarter, Keaton Braddock drilled CJ Bailey as he looked to pass, propelling the ball forward. Aaron Clark caught it in a crowd for an INT, and Sam Pickett III adeptly maneuvered around a defender in the end zone to haul in an 18-yard TD pass from Malachi Singleton with 11:28 remaining.

James London then caught the Wolfpack off guard by dribbling an onside kick straight ahead from the 50, and Joe Reddish's recovery gave App State possession at the Wolfpack 36. It faced a third-and-1 scenario when Singleton found freshman tight end Gavin Barber for a 9-yard TD with 9:41 left. NC State running back Duke Scott's 17-yard TD run and Kanoah Vinsett's late field goal gave the Wolfpack a two-possession lead.
