TOP STORYLINES

- App State closes the 2026 regular season at South Alabama as the Mountaineers attempt to reach eight regular-season victories for the first time since 2023 and the ninth time in 13 FBS seasons.
- The Mountaineers are positioned to make their 10th bowl appearance in 12 bowl-eligible FBS seasons this postseason.
- App State will be playing on Black Friday for the second time as an FBS program, with the previous time also being in the state of Alabama one day before an Iron Bowl matchup, as the Mountaineers won 48-13 at Troy on Nov. 29, 2019. App State is 3-1 in Friday games at the FBS level, including this year's win at Coastal Carolina and a victory over Charlotte last year.
- The Mountaineers hold a 4-2 lead in the series with South Alabama, including a 2-0 mark in Mobile. App State's 34-27 road win in a 2015 regular-season finale and its 30-3 road win in 2019 were both played off campus in Ladd-Peebles Stadium, and this will be the Mountaineers' first appearance in the on-campus Hancock Whitney Stadium, which opened in 2020.
- App State is 6-1 in one-possession games this season, including a 4-0 mark in games decided by three points or less. The Mountaineers were 3-4 last season in one-possession games, including 1-3 in games decided by three points or less.
- The Mountaineers' four Sun Belt wins have been decided by a combined 11 points.
- App State, after being a combined 2-9 on the road in 2024 and 2025, is 3-2 on the road this year with victories at East Carolina, Coastal Carolina and Marshall. The Mountaineers haven't won four road games in a season since the 2019 team went 6-0 on the road. In the FBS era, the 2015 team went 5-1 on the road, while the 2018 and 2016 teams were both 4-2.
- The Mountaineers' ground game has surged over the last two weeks with 186 rushing yards in a win at Marshall and 161 in last week's overtime win vs. ULM. Those wins came with the seventh and eighth different starting offensive lines for the injury-depleted position group.
- An opportunistic App State defense is T-2nd in the Sun Belt and T-16th nationally with 11 interceptions (by eight different players). A total of 15 takeaways ranks App State top 40 in the FBS.
- Special teams is heavily emphasized by Dowell Loggains and his staff. The results: tied for sixth nationally with 3 blocked kicks, 21st in punt return defense, top 50 in net punting.

MEDIA POLICIES/INFORMATION

During a standard week with a Saturday game, App State will have Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday media availabilities.

Head coach Dowell Loggains' appearances on the weekly Sun Belt coaches Zoom sessions are Mondays from 11:30 a.m. ET until about 11:37 a.m.

After his appearance on the Sun Belt Zoom session, Loggains will be available for an interview with in-person media members. Media members interested in participating should contact Joey or Bret by the end of the day Sunday to receive further information for that week's interviews.

During standard weeks, portions of Tuesday and Wednesday practices will be open to approved media members, with interviews conducted afterward.

If you plan to attend one or both open practices, communicate those plans and submit specific interview requests to Joey or Bret by noon on Monday (for Tuesday's practice) and noon on Tuesday (for Wednesday's practice). If you have more than one person from your organization planning to attend, the name of each attendee needs to be shared in advance.

Practices are closed to the public.

Media attending practice are forbidden from reporting (e.g. tweeting, blogging, etc.) on anything until after the post-practice interviews have been conducted. This includes media who leave practice early.

No videos or photos can be taken during practice without prior permission from the App State strategic communications office.

HOME GAME CREDENTIALS/MEDIA

Requests will be made on a game-by-game basis and can be accessed by filling out the form at appstatesports.com/2026FBCredentials.

App State Strategic Communications reserves the right to deny any request for a credential. The number of requests, coupled with the amount of press box and sideline space available to media members, will factor into credential approvals for each game.

Parking is not guaranteed with a credential, but App State Strategic Communications will do its best to provide at least one game day parking spot for each credentialed media outlet.

Head coach Dowell Loggains and select players will be made available for a postgame press conference on the third floor of the north end zone facility. Media members can attend by entering the north end zone facility and taking the elevator to the team room on the third floor.

On game days, please communicate with the visiting team's communications staff on the second row of the press box for info on their interview procedures.

MORE STORYLINES

- The Mountaineers are 5-0 this season when they rush for 100+ yards.
- For the first time in program history, App State has won multiple overtime games in the same season - James Madison (34-31 on Oct. 22) and ULM (17-16 on Nov. 21).
- Since 2015, when App State became a postseason-eligible FBS member, it has 105 wins, tied with Memphis for 12th most among all programs nationally in that span behind Alabama, Georgia, Ohio State, Clemson, Notre Dame, Oklahoma, Boise State, Michigan, Oregon, Iowa and Penn State.
- A former safety who moved to linebacker midway through the 2024 season, Colton Phares leads App State with 91 tackles (fifth most among Sun Belt players) to go with 5.0 TFLs and two interceptions a year after he was one of just three FBS players to post at least 100 tackles, 9.0 TFLs and three INTs. His 13-tackle, one-INT performance against JMU was rated by PFN a 99.0, its highest for an FBS linebacker this season. He is one of 20 semifinalists for the Jason Witten Collegiate Man of the Year award.
- Led by QB Malachi Singleton, App State's passing offense is fourth in the Sun Belt and 41st nationally, averaging 247.6 yards per game. Singleton has thrown for more than 200 yards in seven games and topped 250 in five. His 40 completions of 20+ yards are 18th-most in the FBS.
- In front of a sold-out Thursday night crowd at The Rock on Oct. 22, the Mountaineers came from behind to defeat previously unbeaten James Madison in overtime. Sun Belt Special Teams Player of the Week James London made a career-high four field goals, including the game-winning 40-yarder in OT. Team captain Colton Phares earned Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Week accolades after making a career-high 13 tackles and snagging a key fourth-quarter interception for the game's only turnover.
- RB Jaquari Lewis, who had a four-touchdown explosion at Coastal, ranks T-3rd in the Sun Belt and top 40 nationally with eight rushing touchdowns. The only other App State backs with at least four rushing TDs in the program's FBS era are Daetrich Harrington (four vs. Campbell in 2020) and Camerun Peoples (five vs. North Texas in the 2020 Myrtle Beach Bowl).
- QB Henry Hasselbeck stepped up at Coastal with 125 rushing yards and a 9-for-12 passing performance for 112 yards and his first career TD pass. He became the third App State QB to rush for at least 100 yards in a Sun Belt game, joining Zac Thomas (2020 against ULM) and Taylor Lamb (2015 against ULM). Lamb's 126 rushing yards against Toledo in the 2016 Camellia Bowl stand as the highest total by an App State quarterback in the FBS era.
- The Mountaineers went 3-1 in nonconference play before losing 10-3 against visiting ODU during a Sun Belt opener in which heavy rains and gusty winds from Hurricane Isaias created a defensive slugfest on a chilly, wet afternoon in Boone. The game was scoreless at halftime, and App State took a 3-2 lead into the fourth quarter before ODU scored the only TD.
- QB Malachi Singleton (offense), LB Colton Phares (defense) and DB Ammo Robinson (special teams) were voted team captains before the start of fall camp. Phares (LB), Aiden Benton (DL) and Tyriq Poindexter (OL) received preseason All-Sun Belt recognition from the league.
- In 2022, QB Malachi Singleton committed to an Arkansas staff that included Dowell Loggains, who ended up departing for South Carolina shortly before Singleton enrolled at Arkansas. Loggains was introduced as App State's head coach on Dec. 9, 2024, and Singleton (who had decided to leave Arkansas after the 2024 season) traveled to Boone four days later for the first set of official recruiting visits for the new coach. Singleton instead chose Purdue and played there in 2025 before re-entering the portal, but he couldn't take another official visit to Boone (per NCAA rules). Singleton did visit Tulane, but he committed to App State this time and has reconnected with Loggains, new OC Mike Anthony (an Arkansas quality control coach from 2020-22) and run game coordinator/TEs coach Ryan Yurachek (an Arkansas GA from 2020-21).
- QB Henry Hasselbeck is the son of former NFL QB Matt Hasselbeck. Matt played for the Tennessee Titans in 2011-12, when Dowell Loggains was their passing game coordinator and QBs coach. Hasselbeck, a four-star lacrosse recruit as a midfielder and three-star football recruit as a QB in Massachusetts, initially committed to Maryland's lacrosse program in 2022 before committing to UCLA's football program the following winter.

2021 RECAP

App State pulled away for a 31-7 win against South Alabama in front of 29,348 fans at Kidd Brewer Stadium. Trey Cobb's second interception of the day, a 100-yard return for a touchdown, capped the scoring on a day when South Alabama was limited to 284 yards of offense.

App State went 3-for-3 on fourth-down attempts, including a Chase Brice touchdown run and a fourth-quarter touchdown throw to Thomas Hennigan.

2019 RECAP

After warming up in a downpour at Ladd-Peebles Stadium, App State shut down South Alabama's offense in a 30-3 victory. The Mountaineers (7-0, 4-0) recorded three sacks as they limited the Jaguars to 139 yards of total offense — the second-smallest total against App State in a Sun Belt game.

Late in the third quarter, while holding a 23-0 lead on ESPNU, App State's defense had allowed just 43 yards on 32 plays.

2018 RECAP

App State took control with another first-half explosion, at one point scoring five consecutive touchdowns to claim a big lead in a 52-7 victory.

After the Jaguars responded to quarterback Zac Thomas' 54-yard touchdown run with a tying score midway through the first quarter, App State (3-1, 1-0) benefited from two Jalin Moore touchdown runs, another Thomas touchdown run and a pair of Thomas touchdown passes (to Corey Sutton and running back Marcus Williams Jr.) to take a 42-7 lead into halftime of its Sun Belt Conference opener.

2015 RECAP

App State earned its 10th win of the season with a heart-stopping 34-27 victory in a regular-season finale on the road. App State squandered a 24-7 halftime lead, fell behind 27-24, tied the game on a 50-yard field goal and regained the lead on Jalin Moore's 18-yard touchdown run with 1:16 left. South Alabama returned the ensuing kickoff 46 yards. Four plays later, Tae Hayes broke up a fourth-and-3 pass.

BOONE, N.C. — App State Football opened its Sun Belt Conference schedule with a 48-14 home loss to South Alabama.

Five days removed from a low-scoring, hard-fought win at East Carolina, the Mountaineers (2-2, 0-1) fell behind in the opening minutes and had a nine-game winning streak in Sun Belt openers snapped by an opponent coming off an 87-point performance the previous Thursday.

Joey Aguilar threw for 266 yards, with a Hail Mary touchdown to Dalton Stroman as the first half ended, and Kaedin Robinson led the offense with six catches for 85 yards. Maquel Haywood scored on a 2-yard run in the final minute and led the team with 47 rushing yards.

Defensive end Santana Hopper forced a fumble on a sack for the second straight week, with Shawn Collins making the early recovery, and safety DJ Burks recorded a career-high 14 tackles in his first start.

With App State trailing 14-0 in the second quarter, Conner Maynard's second punt inside the 10 backed up South Alabama's offense, but a 95-yard touchdown drive gave the Jaguars (2-2, 1-0) a 21-0 lead with 5:30 left before halftime.

App State, set to receive the ball to open the second half, had a chance to get back in the game thanks to a drive inside South Alabama's 10 in the final three minutes of the second quarter. Instead, Jordan Scruggs stepped in front of a pass at the goal line and sprinted 96 yards to the App State 4. Christan Horn's touchdown-saving tackle briefly kept the Jaguars from extending their lead, but they scored two plays later.

The Mountaineers at least went into the break with momentum via Stroman's 47-yard touchdown grab on the Hail Mary heave from Aguilar on the last play of the half.

WELCOME TO THE ROCK

ELEVATION 3,333 FT.

APP STATE RECORD AT KIDD BREWER STADIUM SINCE 2003: 130-28

Kidd Brewer Stadium stakes claim to being one of the toughest but also most picturesque college football venues in the nation.

After "The Rock" was voted the top Group of Five stadium in the country by CFB Campus Tour in 2023 and 2024, ESPN named Kidd Brewer Stadium one of the top 25 stadiums in all of college football, and The Athletic did the same in 2025.

Now in its 65th season in the venue, which opened as Conrad Stadium on Sept. 15, 1962, App State has a 284-86-5 all-time record at The Rock.

The top six single-season average home attendance marks in App State and Sun Belt Conference history have been those reached by Mountaineer fans at The Rock in 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024, 2025 and 2026.

App State set single-season school and Sun Belt records with an average home crowd of 34,734 in 2023.

With a $50 million north end zone facility, removal of the track and installation of new turf, The Rock had a new look in 2021, as the end zone facility opened for fans before a 2020 game vs. Georgia State. Hall of Fame coach Jerry Moore was also honored before the 2021 opener with a plaza and statue in his name.

Kidd Brewer Stadium's official seating capacity was 16,650 in 2007, but several expansion projects have almost doubled the capacity.

DOWELL LOGGAINS

A respected offensive play-caller at both the NFL and college levels, Dowell Loggains was named the head coach of App State on Dec. 7, 2024.

Hired at the age of 44, Loggains (pronounced LOGG-ins) became the 23rd head football coach in program history. His five-year contract runs through the 2029 season.

Before serving as South Carolina's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the 2023 and 2024 seasons, Loggains was an assistant for two years at his alma mater, Arkansas, after spending 16 years in the NFL. That includes his time as an offensive coordinator or quarterbacks coach for the Tennessee Titans (2010-13), Cleveland Browns (2014), Chicago Bears (2015-17), Miami Dolphins (2018) and New York Jets (2019-20).

During his decade-plus as an NFL coordinator and quarterbacks coach, he mentored the likes of Sam Darnold, Jay Cutler, Vince Young, Matt Hasselbeck, Mitchell Trubisky and Brian Hoyer at quarterback, as well as running backs Chris Johnson, Kenyan Drake and Jordan Howard.

In his head coaching debut, App State won 34-11 against Charlotte in Bank of America Stadium. The Mountaineers started 4-2 and closed the season with a JLAB Birmingham Bowl appearance. After his debut season, he led the efforts for App State to sign the highest-rated recruiting class in Sun Belt Conference history.

Loggains' offense during the 2024 season helped the Gamecocks reach the brink of the College Football Playoff with a 9-3 regular-season record that included wins over Oklahoma, Texas A&M, Missouri and Clemson. South Carolina had the third-best rushing offense in the SEC during the regular season.

He developed redshirt freshman LaNorris Sellers into one of college football's most dangerous dual-threat quarterbacks. Under Loggains' watch, Sellers threw for 2,274 yards with 17 touchdowns while also rushing for 655 yards and seven scores against one of the country's toughest schedules. He ranked 20th nationally in passing efficiency, 14th in yards per attempt, 25th in yards per completion, 28th in total offense and 35th in completion percentage.

Loggains also found success utilizing Raheim "Rocket" Sanders, one of the SEC's best running backs, to form a dynamic rushing attack.

In his first season in Columbia, Loggains turned future NFL quarterback Spencer Rattler and a future NFL first-round draft pick, wide receiver Xavier Legette, into one of the most lethal pass-and-catch combinations in the country.

Loggains spent the 2021 and 2022 seasons as the Arkansas Razorbacks' tight ends coach, earning a reputation as a top-25 national recruiter there.

A native of Abilene, Texas, Loggains graduated from the University of Arkansas with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 2003 and a master's degree in education in 2005. He walked on to the Razorback football program in 2000 as a quarterback and holder before earning a scholarship and becoming a four-year letterman, appearing in 50 games.

Before returning to his alma mater of Arkansas, Loggains served as the New York Jets' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2019 and 2020. During his first season with the Jets, he guided an offense that was among the league's most proficient on opening drives, scoring 40 first-possession points. Darnold's numbers improved from his rookie campaign, increasing his completion percentage, passing yards, touchdown passes and passer rating while also lowering his interceptions.

Loggains oversaw a Miami offense that averaged 4.68 yards per rush in 2018, the NFL's ninth-best mark. The Dolphins also ranked second in the league with 14 passing touchdowns of 20-plus yards.

Loggains began a three-year stint in Chicago in 2015 as the Bears' quarterbacks coach, where he mentored Cutler to a career season.

He worked as the Cleveland Browns quarterbacks coach in 2014 under offensive coordinator Kyle Shanahan. He helped Hoyer to a career season, as the six-year veteran won seven games (in 13 starts) and threw for over 3,000 yards.

Loggains began his coaching career with Tennessee in 2006 and spent eight seasons with the Titans in a variety of roles, ultimately serving as the offensive coordinator for part of 2012 and all of 2013. He joined the Titans as a coaching administrative assistant (2006-07) and quality control coach (2008-09) before spending the next three seasons as the quarterbacks/passing game coordinator, helping Young achieve a career-high passer rating in 2010 and garner a Pro Bowl appearance.

Loggains' first professional experience came with the Dallas Cowboys as a scouting assistant in 2005.

ALL-AMERICA CANDIDATE: LB COLTON PHARES (#10, SENIOR)

In-Season Awards Candidate:
— Jason Witten Collegiate Man of the Year (Semifinalist)

Preseason Awards Candidate:
— Chuck Bednarik Award (Top defender)
— Bronko Nagurski Trophy (Top defender)
— Allstate AFCA Good Works Team (Service)
— Allstate Wuerffel Trophy (Service & Leadership)
— Shriners Children's 1000 (East-West Shrine Bowl)

Additional Notes:
— Preseason All-Sun Belt (first team) via Phil Steele and the league
— Nicknamed "Captain America" within the team, named a team captain prior to the start of fall training camp
— Entering the South Alabama game, is tied for second among Sun Belt players with 68 tackles in league play. His 91 tackles over the entire season are fifth most among league players.
— Voted Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Week after 13 tackles, 1 TFL and a game-changing interception in the Oct. 22 win vs. JMU. His PFN rating of 99.0 for the JMU game is that outlet's highest rating for an FBS linebacker this season.
— Totaled 12 tackles against ODU, Georgia Southern and Marshall
— On the opening drive at NC State, stuffed a first-down run from the 5, ripped the ball out of back Duke Scott's hands and raced 49 yards the other way into Wolfpack territory, but officials ruled that the play was over because Scott's forward progress had been stopped
— Had an interception and a sack in the 2026 opener
— Moved from safety to linebacker midway through the 2024 season and has gained 40 pounds from the time he enrolled as a defensive back in 2023 to the start of the 2025 season
— Leading tackler for App State in 2025 with 101 tackles to go along with 9.5 tackles for loss, a team-leading three interceptions, two sacks, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery, three pass breakups and two quarterback hurries
— One of just three FBS players nationally with at least 100 tackles, 9.0 tackles for loss and three interceptions in 2025, joined by Texas Tech's Jacob Rodriguez and Central Michigan's Jordan Kwiatkowski
— The 2026 roster has 10 players who were on the Mountaineers' 2024 roster, including just four scholarship recruits: Kanye Roberts (App State freshman in 2022), Phares (App State freshman in 2023), Cayden Sweatt (App State freshman in 2023) and Nick Campbell (2024 arrival from NC State)
— Forced and recovered fumble on same play with 55 seconds left in App State territory to seal 26-24 victory against Marshall in 2025
— Had 10 tackles, a fourth-quarter interception in the end zone and an assisted tackle on fourth-and-goal stop from the 1 in the final two minutes of the Oregon State win in 2025
— In high school, a state champion in football and wrestling while also making the all-state team in track at Beaufort, which is pronounced BYOO-fert
— Prep safety had 69 tackles, four interceptions, nine pass breakups, two forced fumbles, one sack and five tackles for loss as a senior for a 13-1 team that won a Class 3-A state title (first state title since 1945)
— As a senior, also returned 11 punts for 363 yards with three touchdowns, returned 14 kickoffs for 388 yards with one touchdown, rushed 49 times for 598 yards with six touchdowns and caught 19 passes for 349 yards with four touchdowns
— Also kicked field goals for Beaufort as a senior

AIDEN BENTON (DL)

— Preseason All-Sun Belt via the league (first team) and Phil Steele (second team)
— Has been out with injury since ODU 10/10
— Ended the 2025 season with 41 tackles, 6.0 tackles for loss, 4.5 sacks (second place on the team) and 10 quarterback hurries while also forcing two fumbles

JUAN BERCHAL (DB)

— First career interception against ODU
— Career-high 10 tackles at Georgia Southern — Crushing hit led to last-minute App State INT that sealed Oregon State win in 2025
— 45-yard punt return on trick play at Boise State and 22-yard run on fake punt vs. Coastal Carolina last season

KEATON BRADDOCK (DL)

— Big hit from behind on QB CJ Bailey at NC State caused an interception and was part of a 107-second sequence in which App State turned a 31-17 deficit into a 31-all tie
— Totaled 43 total tackles and 17 sacks in two years at Louisburg College

JEHCHYS BROWN (DL)

— His overtime PAT block helped App State win 17-16 against ULM
— Member of Southeast Missouri's program from 2023-25, totaling 27 game appearances
— Had 24 tackles with 4.5 tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks in 11 games (one start) in 2025

NICK CAMPBELL (DL)

— Was a member of NC State's program from 2022-23 before transferring to App State, where he is in his third season

AARON CLARK (DL)

— Preseason All-Sun Belt (third team) via Phil Steele
— Key fumble recovery set up go-ahead TD in first half of win at ECU
— Fourth-quarter interception at NC State helped turn a 31-17 deficit into a 31-all tie in less than two minutes
— Had a sack and fumble recovery against ODU and a sack against ULM
— Member of Towson's program from 2024-25, recording 31 tackles and 6.0 tackles for loss in 12 games during the 2025 season

KHALIL CONLEY (DB)

— Preseason All-Sun Belt (fourth team) via Phil Steele
— Key interception at the Charlotte 27 (on a pass backed up in the 49ers' end zone) set up a third-quarter touchdown after Charlotte's defense had made a goalline stand in a 13-7 game
— Had two tackles in nine games as a redshirt freshman for North Carolina in 2025
— Ranked as a four-star prospect ranked by ESPN as a high school standout near Asheville and started prep career as a quarterback before switching to cornerback and wide receiver as a junior and senior

CAM FLEMING (DB)

— Member of Virginia Tech's program from 2023-24
— Tallied 16 tackles in 11 games last year

JAKOB GUDE (DB)

— Their father, Hunter, is the athletic director at Arkansas

FAST FACTS/GAME LOGS QUARTERBACKS (NUMERICAL ORDER)

MALACHI SINGLETON (#3, SENIOR)

— Unanimously named a team captain prior to the start of training camp
— Added to the Manning Award Watch List on Oct. 21
— Entering the South Alabama game, ranks No. 4 in the Sun Belt and 41st in the FBS with 225.0 passing yards per game, No. 5 in the league with 222.6 total offense yards per game, No. 5 with 7.64 yards per pass attempt and No. 5 with a 64.2 completion percentage.
— His 40 completions of 20+ yards are tied for 18th most in the FBS.
— Led App State to victory against previously unbeaten JMU when he completed 26 of 40 passes for 271 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions.
— Completed 12 of 14 first-half passes for 151 yards at Coastal before missing the second half due to injury
— Named the Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Week after completing 28 of 42 passes for 331 yards and two touchdowns in a win against Charlotte (also had one reception for 14 yards in the victory)
— Completed 22 of 24 passes for 291 yards and three touchdowns in less than three full quarters of work in his App State debut against Maine
— Singleton's performance ranked as the third-best completion percentage in school history (.917) by a passer with more than 10 completions (behind Zac Thomas' 14-for-14 game against Charlotte in 2018 and Logan Hallock's 20-for-21 game against Western Carolina in 2012)
— Appeared in 11 games for Purdue in 2025 after playing in five games as a redshirt freshman for Arkansas in 2024 and redshirting in 2023
— In 2022, committed to an Arkansas staff that included Dowell Loggains, who ended up departing for South Carolina shortly before Singleton enrolled at Arkansas
— Loggains was introduced as App State's head coach on Dec. 9, 2024, and Singleton (who had decided to leave Arkansas after the 2024 season) traveled to Boone four days later for the first set of official recruiting visits for the new coach. Singleton instead chose Purdue and played for the Boilermakers in 2025 before re-entering the portal
— Singleton couldn't take another official visit to Boone (per NCAA rules) despite again having strong interest in the Mountaineers. He did visit Tulane, which made the College Football Playoff following the 2025 regular season, but he committed to App State this time and has reconnected with Loggains as well as new offensive coordinator Mike Anthony (an Arkansas quality control coach from 2020-22) and run game coordinator/tight ends coach Ryan Yurachek (an Arkansas graduate assistant from 2020-21)
— Dual-threat quarterback completed 38 of 64 passes for 439 yards and five TDs while also rushing 202 yards and one score for Purdue in 2025
— Rushed five times for 73 yards and scored on a 40-yard run against Minnesota in 2025
— Completed 21 of 28 passes for 358 yards and one touchdown while rushing for three touchdowns at Arkansas in 2024, when he was named SEC Freshman of the Week after scoring the game-winning touchdown on an 11-yard run against No. 4 Tennessee

FAST FACTS/GAME LOGS QUARTERBACKS (NUMERICAL ORDER)

HENRY HASSELBECK (#8, JUNIOR)

— Second-leading rusher on the team with 309 rushing yards.
— Scored both of the Mountaineers' touchdowns in the 20-16 win at Marshall on runs of 1 and 37 yards - his first two touchdowns scored of his collegiate career.
— Split time with Malachi Singleton and then took over completely in the second half at Coastal Carolina, leading App State to victory with his legs and arm. He rushed for 125 yards on 21 carries — the second-most rushing yards by an App State QB in the FBS era — and completed 9 of 12 throws for 112 yards and a touchdown. His first career touchdown pass, a 31-yard connection to Sam Pickett III, pushed the Mountaineers' lead to 35-24 with 6:41 remaining.
— Became the third App State quarterback to rush for at least 100 yards in a Sun Belt game, joining Zac Thomas (2020 against ULM) and Taylor Lamb (2015 against ULM). Lamb's 126 rushing yards against Toledo in the 2016 Camellia Bowl stand as the highest total by an App State quarterback in the FBS era.
— Ran for a 75-yard touchdown on his first collegiate snap, but a holding penalty wiped out the play late in the third quarter vs. Maine
— Was a four-star lacrosse recruit as a midfielder and three-star football recruit as a quarterback in Massachusetts, initially committing to Maryland's lacrosse program in 2022 before committing to UCLA's football program the following winter and spending the 2024 and 2025 seasons at UCLA
— Is the son of former NFL quarterback Matt Hasselbeck, who played for the Tennessee Titans in 2011-12, when Dowell Loggains was the Titans' passing game coordinator and QBs coach

Sept. 5 - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 33,664

GAME NOTES

App State won its season opener for the seventh time in the last eight years (and the second straight under head coach Dowell Loggains) to move to 54-39-3 all-time in season openers.

The Mountaineers won their home opener for the fourth straight year and improved to 72-21-2 all-time in home openers. The only such loss since 2014 was the 63-61 shootout against North Carolina in 2022.

The 52-point margin of victory was App State's biggest since a 72-7 win against Gardner-Webb in 2018.

App State improved its all-time record against Maine to 1-2 … There are now no visiting teams that have played more than once in Boone and have an undefeated record. The Black Bears have the only program with a winning record in Boone in more than one visit.

The Mountaineers won against an FCS opponent for the 11th straight time and have not lost such a contest since 2014.

This was App State's 99th win since it became a postseason-eligible FBS member in 2015, tied for the 11th-most nationally in that span.

Attendance for the 16th sellout in the last 18 games at Kidd Brewer Stadium was 33,664.

App State's offense scored its most points since putting up 55 against Georgia Southern in 2023 and compiled its most yards (647) since the 2022 season opener against North Carolina.

In his first collegiate start after playing as a backup at Arkansas and Purdue, Malachi Singleton completed 22 of 24 passes for 291 yards with three TDs and no interceptions. His performance marks the third-best completion percentage in school history (.917) by a passer with more than 10 completions.

Mountaineers Roll Over Maine in Season Debut

BOONE, N.C. — App State opened the 2026 season with a dominant home win over Maine, recording a 55-3 victory in front of a sold-out crowd of 33,664 at Kidd Brewer Stadium.

Beginning their second season under the direction of head coach Dowell Loggains, with 73 newcomers on the roster, the Mountaineers posted the program's largest margin of victory since a 72-7 win against Gardner-Webb in 2018.

App State shut out Maine (1-1) until the final minute of the third quarter, building a 38-0 lead as Malachi Singleton completed 22 of 24 passes for 291 yards and three TDs in less than three full quarters of work.

App State's 10 possessions resulted in a turnover-capped march to the Maine 5-yard line on the opening series and then nine straight scoring drives, with seven touchdowns and two James London field goals. Sam Pickett III followed a Darrin Fugitt touchdown reception with two scores of his own, and the Mountaineers' four rushing touchdowns came from Treyaun Webb, Jaquari Lewis, Nate Branch and Jackson Grier. Branch and Grier, both receivers, scored on runs of 36 and 28 yards.

Caleb Sandstrom produced App State's first sack of the season right before edge rusher Caleb Pitts intercepted a pass that he tipped to himself late in the first half, setting up a touchdown drive that led to a 31-0 halftime advantage, and Colton Phares came down with another interception early in the third quarter. Phares also added a sack thanks to his pressure on a penalty for intentional grounding, part of the Mountaineers' eight tackles for loss.

Sept. 12 - Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium - Greenville, N.C. - 40,074

GAME NOTES

App State has started 2-0 in both years of the Dowell Loggains era

The Mountaineers have won all four matchups against the Pirates when competing as FBS peers. It was the second straight win in Greenville after losing seven straight to the Pirates there from 1962-2012.

This was App State's 100th win since it became a postseason-eligible FBS member in 2015, 11th-most nationally in that span.

App State won the turnover battle against ECU 2-0 and is now +3 in the turnover margin after two contests.

Kaleb Purdy led all Mountaineers with eight tackles (including a TFL) – the most in his college career, which includes previous stops at Kansas and Tennessee Tech.

James London went 2-for-3 on field goals with makes from 41 and 37 and a miss from what could have been a school-record 59-yarder. He also made all three PATs and kicked five of six kickoffs out of the end zone (with the sixth being called for a fair catch).

After not punting in his App State debut a week earlier, Jaxson Dunn punted seven times for a 44.4-yard average, landing four inside the 20.

The two in-state programs agreed to a four-game series nearly a decade ago, facilitating the first meeting with both schools competing as FBS members, and App State officially won home games in 2021 (at Charlotte's Bank of America Stadium) and 2023 (at Kidd Brewer Stadium). A victory at ECU in 2024 was App State's first win in Greenville since 1959,

Mountaineers Run Streak to 4 Straight Over ECU

GREENVILLE, N.C. — Why swab the deck when you can sweep it?

App State moved to 2-0 on the season and 4-0 in the FBS series with East Carolina by winning 27-24 at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium.

The Mountaineers built a 24-10 lead early in the second half and had a 27-17 advantage before ECU (0-2) scored a touchdown with 21 seconds left. App State could begin celebrating when the onside kick bounced into the Pirates' sideline without being recovered.

Caleb Sandstrom recorded two sacks, forcing a key turnover to set up a short-field touchdown that erased an early deficit, and cornerback Dre Walker's toe-tapping interception in the final three minutes halted an ECU drive when there was still enough time remaining for a viable comeback attempt. The Pirates completed only 21 of their 37 pass attempts, as five Mountaineers registered a pass breakup.

While ECU went only 2-for-13 on third down, App State had five third-down conversions, with quarterback Malachi Singleton showing poise in the pocket while benefiting from strong protection from his offensive line. In addition to running for a 4-yard TD, Singleton completed 20 of 28 passes for 267 yards to lead a turnover-free effort from the offense.

Jaquari Lewis (17 carries for 73 yards) and Treyaun Webb both had rushing touchdowns for the second straight week.

ECU opened the game with a 12-play, 60-yard drive and an eight-play, 83-yard drive, but that netted just seven total points because of a missed 33-yard field goal on the opening series. Singleton's 34-yard completion to Sam Pickett III helped set up a 41-yard field goal from James London, and Sandstrom recorded a strip sack on the first play of the next ECU series. Aaron Clark scooped up the loose ball, giving App State possession at the ECU 12, and the Mountaineers moved in front for good on Singleton's 4-yard keeper for a TD shortly after defensive pass interference in the end zone negated a third-and-12 incompletion.

Sept. 19 - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 28,296

GAME NOTES

App State improved to 3-0 for the first time since 2019, when it started 7-0 on the way to a 13-1 final record.

Following a three-plus-hour delay, the game featured the latest kickoff in Kidd Brewer Stadium history, officially at 9:32 p.m.

App State improved to 5-0 all-time against Charlotte, including 3-0 in Boone.

As an FBS program, the Mountaineers are now 11-0 against current American programs, including a 5-0 mark against Charlotte, 4-0 vs. East Carolina, 1-0 vs. North Texas and 1-0 vs. UAB. Some of those opponents were C-USA teams at the time of the matchup.

Malachi Singleton completed 28 of 42 passes for a career-high 331 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. He added 14 yards on the ground and even caught a 14-yard pass from fellow QB Henry Hasselbeck.

Jackson Grier's 7-yard score with 12:08 left in the contest was the first touchdown catch of his college career. He scored a rushing touchdown in the opener against Maine.

App State's defense limited Charlotte's offense to two touchdowns, 247 total yards and 36 rushing yards. The 49ers converted only 1 of 11 third-down attempts and 1 of 3 fourth downs.

Devin Henderson led the team with a career-high eight tackles.

Khalil Conley and Dre Walker had the Mountaineers' two interceptions. Walker picked off a fourth-quarter pass for the second straight contest.

Caleb Sandstrom – already the team leader in sacks – had another sack and 1.5 TFLs among his three total tackles.

App State Improves to 3-0 After Late-Night Start

BOONE, N.C. — Black Saturday turned to Black Sunday thanks to the latest kickoff time in Kidd Brewer Stadium history.

App State needed to weather several storms to remain unbeaten this season and unblemished against Charlotte.

Khalil Conley's interception deep in Charlotte territory set up the first of two second-half TD passes from Malachi Singleton as the Mountaineers gained separation before holding on for a 26-21 home victory.

App State (3-0) held a 26-7 lead midway through the fourth quarter, but Charlotte's 36-yard INT return for a TD with 1:58 left put the outcome in doubt. Darrin Fugitt recovered the onside kick, and the 49ers (0-3) had no timeouts left to prevent App State from kneeling out the clock.

Kickoff for Black Saturday was scheduled for 6 p.m., but frequent lightning delayed the start to 9:30 p.m., an hour later than a nationally televised App State-Louisiana matchup on a Friday night in 2020 set the previous record for the latest start at The Rock. At 12:32 a.m., the clock ran out on the Mountaineers' fifth win in five meetings with Charlotte.

Singleton completed 28 of 42 passes for 331 yards with second-half scores to receivers Chris Lofton and Jackson Grier. Conley's third-quarter interception at the Charlotte 27 occurred on a Cole Gonzales throw from his own end zone, shortly after App State's opening drive of the second half ended with an unsuccessful fourth-and-goal run from the 1.

Singleton threw a 3-yard TD pass to Lofton to push the lead to 19-7, and Grier's 7-yard touchdown reception gave App State a 19-point advantage. Khamani Alexander's second 1-yard touchdown run of the night cut the 49ers' deficit to 26-15, and the Mountaineers appeared to seal the victory when Dre Walker picked off a pass with 2:17 left. The Mountaineers took over at their 28, but Collin Gill intercepted a third-and-5 throw and scored a stunning defensive touchdown.

GAME 4						FINAL
APP STATE	0	10	7	14	—	31
NC State	14	14	3	10	—	41

Sept. 26 - Carter-Finley Stadium - Raleigh, N.C. - 56,919

GAME NOTES

NC State opened the game a 10-play, 75-yard touchdown drive, scoring on CJ Bailey's 5-yard keeper just two plays after Colton Phares stuffed a first-down run from the 5, ripped the ball out of back Duke Scott's hands and raced 49 yards the other way into Wolfpack territory. Instead of App State forcing a big turnover and flipping the field in the opening minutes, officials ruled that the play was over because Scott's forward progress had been stopped.

App State nearly had another momentum-swinging turnover in the second half, as Alex Mitchell joined a gang-tackling effort on a pass toward the NC State sideline, pulled the ball loose and then scooped it up. After an officials' review, it was ruled that the ball was touching the receiver when he was out of bounds, so the Wolfpack maintained possession again and settled for a 23-yard field goal to move ahead 31-17.

The Mountaineers trailed 28-7 with 39 seconds left in the second quarter before going outscoring the Wolfpack 24-3 to tie the game at 31-31 midway through the fourth quarter.

NC State improved its all-time record against App State to 7-0 (all in Raleigh).

Nine of the Mountaineers' last 10 contests against Power 4 opponents have been decided by 10 points or less.

The loss snapped App State's five-game winning streak against in-state foes dating back to 2022.

Freshman tight end Gavin Barber earned his first career start (and scored his first career touchdown).

Linebacker Carson Sloan had an impactful game with a season-high eight tackles, a sack, 2.0 TFLs and two pass breakups.

App State Rallies on Road, Falls Short in Raleigh

RALEIGH, N.C. — App State showed plenty of fight during a dramatic fourth-quarter rally on the road, but NC State responded to the Mountaineers' game-tying touchdown by regaining the lead for good with 5:08 left in a 41-31 victory.

App State, which fell behind 21-0 and 28-7 in its final nonconference game, trailed 31-17 entering the final quarter in a sold-out Carter-Finley Stadium. The Mountaineers, who had given up 10 of those points after potential forced fumbles and recoveries from Colton Phares and Alex Mitchell resulted in the Wolfpack offense maintaining possession, used a pair of undisputed takeaways to score back-to-back touchdowns in a span of 107 seconds to tie the game.

NC State (2-2) answered with a 75-yard touchdown drive to move ahead 38-31, then regained possession at the App State 33 with 3:59 left following incompletions on a third-and-2 throw and fourth-and-2 pass. The Wolfpack achieved important separation when it ended the next drive by making 35-yard field goal with 1:51 remaining.

With App State (3-1) trailing by 14 points early in the fourth quarter, Keaton Braddock drilled CJ Bailey as he looked to pass, propelling the ball forward. Aaron Clark caught it in a crowd for an I NT, and Sam Pickett III adeptly maneuvered around a defender in the end zone to haul in an 18-yard TD pass from Malachi Singleton with 11:28 remaining.

James London then caught the Wolfpack off guard by dribbling an onside kick straight ahead from the 50, and Joe Reddish's recovery gave App State possession at the Wolfpack 36. It faced a third-and-1 scenario when Singleton found freshman tight end Gavin Barber for a 9-yard TD with 9:41left. NC State running back Duke Scott's 17-yard TD run and Kanoah Vinsett's late field goal gave the Wolfpack a two-possession lead.

Oct. 10 - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 27,011

GAME NOTES

After three straight wins to open the season, App State dropped its second straight contests.

The Mountaineers lost their Sun Belt opener for the third straight season.

App State leads the all-time series with Old Dominion 4-3. The Monarchs have won three of the last four contests after the Mountaineers won each of the first three from 2015-22.

In a driving rain with gusty winds from Hurricane Isaias, there were six total turnovers in the game (three for each team), including three in a 25-second, four-play span to close the second quarter.

App State's defense received a boost with Devin Henderson playing big roles in two forced turnovers in the final 30 seconds of the half. Quinn Henicle was scrambling toward the right sideline on a first-down play from the 50 when Ja'Den McBurrows upended the dual-threat quarterback, who was airborne when Aiden Benton followed the initial contact with a chest shot that popped the ball straight into the air as Henicle fell into the sideline. Alertly, a nearby Henderson reached up with his left hand, kept his feet in bounds and swatted the ball back toward the playing field, leading to a recovery by Aaron Clark.

Old Dominion intercepted a downfield throw on the next play, returning the ball to the App State 42 with 11 seconds remaining before halftime, and the half ended when Henderson intercepted a second-and-10 attempt at a Hail Mary throw.

Joe Reddish blocked an ODU punt for App State's first punt block since 2024 (Cahari Haynes vs. JMU).

Colton Phares tied a career high with 12 tackles, including 1.5 TFLs and 0.5 sack.

ODU Edges Mountaineers in Rain-Soaked Slugfest

BOONE, N.C. — With heavy rains and gusty winds from Hurricane Isaias turning App State's conference opener into a defensive slugfest, Old Dominion gave up a third-quarter field goal to the Mountaineers before using a safety, touchdown and two-point conversion to pull out a 10-3 victory.

A sold-out Homecoming Saturday, with recognition for the 2006 national title team included, was on tap at Kidd Brewer Stadium prior to the storm's movement through the High Country. A crowd of 27,011 braved tough elements that included gusts of nearly 30 mph.

The Mountaineers (3-2, 0-1 Sun Belt) had three defensive takeaways thanks to interceptions from cornerback Juan Berchal and safety Devin Henderson, who also contributed to an Aaron Clark fumble recovery by alertly swatting a loose ball back into the field of play while tip-toeing the sideline.

ODU (2-4, 1-2) missed field goals of 41 and 39 yards during a scoreless opening half, the first in an App State game since its 17-3 home victory against Georgia State in 2016, and James London capped a 59-yard scoring drive to begin the second half with a 34-yard field goal.

Immediately after Berchal intercepted a deep third-and-long throw at the App State 6 to end ODU's next drive, an unsuccessful snap led to an end-zone recovery for a safety that cut the Mountaineers' lead to 3-2. ODU's first drive of the fourth quarter was a nine-play, 65-yard touchdown march that included a 17-yard completion on an early third-and-6 snap and Devin Roche's bounce-to-the-outside run for 32 yards on a third-and-3 carry from the 37.

Three plays later, on a third-and-goal play from the 2, Maurki James scored on a run up the middle, and a successful two-point pass gave the Monarchs a 10-3 lead that held up.

Clark, Caleb Sandstrom, Colton Phares and Kaden Ellis contributed to three first-half sacks by App State's defense, which allowed 304 yards on 81 offensive plays (61 of them rushes) from ODU, which finished with 38:50 in possession time. App State totaled 158 offensive yards on 55 plays, with the Mountaineers gaining 92 yards on 28 rushing attempts and completing seven of their 27 pass attempts.

GAME 6						FINAL
APP STATE	14	0	14	7	—	35
Coastal Carolina	7	17	0	8	—	32

Friday, Oct. 16 - Brooks Stadium - Conway, S.C. - 19,485

GAME NOTES

App State beat Coastal Carolina for the first time since 2021 and for the first time in Conway since 2018. The Mountaineers still maintain an 8-5 all-time lead in the series.

The Mountaineers improved to 2-1 in road games, marking the first time since 2023 they have won multiple true road games in a season.

This was the first 2026 game App State played outside the state of North Carolina.

App State's all-time record when playing on ESPN2 improved to 17-3.

App State's offense enjoyed its most points (35), total yards (516) and rushing yards (253) against an FBS opponent this season.

Jaquari Lewis rushed for a season-high 85 yards and a career-high four touchdowns, the most by a Mountaineer since Cam Peoples' school record-tying five in the 2020 Myrtle Beach Bowl also in Brooks Stadium.

A game-time-decision Malachi Singleton started and threw for an efficient 151 yards on 12-of-14 passing.

Henry Hasselbeck rotated snaps throughout the first half before playing the entirety of the second half in a standout performance. He completed 9 of 12 passes for 112 yards and his first career touchdown while rushing 21 times for a game-high 125 yards. Other than Matthew Wilson's rushing effort in last year's Birmingham Bowl, it was the first 100-yard rushing performance by an App State QB since Zac Thomas had 109 against ULM in 2020.

Devin Henderson made six tackles, broke up a pass and hauled in an interception for the second straight game.

Mountaineers Show Mettle With Comeback Win at Coastal

CONWAY, S.C. — Facing a double-digit halftime deficit on the road, App State used a dominant, all-around effort after the break to establish its own double-figure advantage before closing out a 35-32 Friday night win at Coastal Carolina.

Slicing through big holes created by the offensive line, Jaquari Lewis became the third App State back to score four rushing touchdowns in a game during the program's FBS era, gaining 85 yards on 13 carries as the Mountaineers (4-2, 1-1 Sun Belt) rushed for 253 yards as a team. A key interception in App State territory from safety Devin Henderson helped set up the go-ahead drive that ended with Lewis' fourth score in the nationally televised ESPN2 game.

A game-time decision due to an injury that sidelined him late in the previous game, starting quarterback Malachi Singleton split time with Henry Hasselbeck and completed 12 of his 14 passes for 151 yards before Hasselbeck played the entire second half. Hasselbeck rushed for 125 yards on 21 carries — the second-most rushing yards by an App State quarterback in the FBS era — and completed 9 of 12 throws for 112 yards and a touchdown. His first career touchdown pass, a 31-yard connection to Sam Pickett III, pushed the Mountaineers' lead to 35-24 with 6:41 remaining.

Ending a four-game losing streak in the series and a three-game skid at Brooks Stadium, the Mountaineers overcame a 24-14 halftime deficit by scoring the first 21 points of the second half. Coastal (2-5, 1-2) still had two timeouts left when it cut into its 11-point deficit by recording a touchdown and two-point conversion with 3:11 remaining, but App State chewed up the rest of the time with a seven-play series and was able to kneel out the clock.

GAME NOTES

App State improved to 5-2 on the season, its best record through seven games since starting 5-2 in 2021.

The Mountaineers' last two overtime games have both resulted in three-point wins against the Dukes. The 2023 matchup was a 26-23 App State win in Harrisonburg when JMU came into that contest with a 10-0 record and ranked No. 18 in the nation.

The Mountaineers are 15-6 all-time against JMU, with a 3-2 record as FBS opponents and now a 9-3 advantage in Boone.

This was the first time App State walked off with a win on a field goal since Michael Hughes' game-winning 54-yarder at ULM in 2023.

Henry Hasselbeck and Luke Douglas connected on a 4-yard touchdown that gave App State its first lead of the game at 31-24 with 5:52 left in regulation. It was the first collegiate touchdown for Douglas, a Florida State transfer in his junior year.

Team captain Colton Phares led all players with a career-high 13 tackles, including a TFL, and broke up a pass. But his most impactful play was a leaping interception with just over six minutes remaining in regulation that he returned 21 yards to set up a short go-ahead touchdown drive.

Ja'Den McBurrows only had two tackles in the stat books, but his 11-yard TFL was a big one on JMU's first offensive play in overtime.

James London had a perfect night, and App State needed all the points generated from his strong right leg. He made all four of his field goal attempts, capped by the game-winning 40-yarder in OT. He was also true from 48 (tied a season high), 27 and 36. He connected on both of his PATs, while all five of his kickoffs went for touchbacks.

London's OT Kick Caps Dramatic Win Over JMU

BOONE, N.C. — James London's 40-yard field goal in OT lifted App State to a 34-31 victory over previously unbeaten JMU, sending fans from the Thursday night sellout crowd of 33,322 at Kidd Brewer Stadium spilling onto the field.

London couldn't see out of his right eye as he took the field for the final play because a teammate had struck him in the face while waving his arms to signal no good on JMU's 47-yard attempt that clanged off the left upright to close the opening possession of overtime.

After Henry Hasselbeck gained 5 yards on a first-down keeper from the JMU 25 and fellow quarterback Malachi Singleton centered the ball on second down, App State's field goal unit departed the sideline to set up for a dramatic kick.

Everyone was in place but London, who jogged onto the field late because of his predicament, calmly slapped hands with holder Jaxson Dunn and then drilled the field goal following a clean snap from Parker Stone.

App State (5-2, 2-1 Sun Belt) handed an undefeated JMU team its first loss of the season with a walk-off score in overtime for the second time in the last four years, bringing back memories of a 26-23 victory over a 10-0 Dukes squad in Harrisonburg in 2023.

The Mountaineers fell behind 14-3 on Thursday, then stormed back to tie the game at 21-all and 24-all in the fourth quarter. One play after London's third field tied the score with 6:16 remaining, Colton Phares intercepted a JMU pass and returned the ball 21 yards to the Dukes' 25, setting up Hasselbeck's 4-yard touchdown pass to tight end Luke Douglas for a 31-24 lead with 5:52 left.

JMU (7-1, 4-1) forced overtime as Camden Coleman scored on a 6-yard quarterback draw with three seconds left in the fourth.

GAME NOTES

Georgia Southern won its fourth straight against the Mountaineers, but App State still holds a 21-20-1 edge in the all-time series.

This was the second time the Mountaineers and Eagles met on Halloween, with Georgia Southern also claiming a win in 2019. App State's all-time record on Halloween is now 11-5, while Georgia Southern is 5-0 all-time.

App State's 16:06 time of possession (to Georgia Southern's 43:54) was its lowest since 2004 vs. Northwestern State when it possessed the ball for 15:53.

App State lost the turnover battle (3-0) for the first time in 2026.

This was App State's first FBS contest of the season that was not a one-score game within the final two minutes.

Chris Lofton (five catches for 82 yards) and Sam Pickett III (four catches for 86 yards) accounted for 168 of quarterback Malachi Singleton's 215 yards through the air.

The Mountaineers' rushing total of 6 yards was their lowest since netting 1 yard in last year's loss to James Madison.

Team captain Colton Phares led all players with 12 tackles, his second straight double-digit tackle performance.

Covering Georgia Southern's quick-throw, outside passing attack, cornerback Juan Berchal compiled a career-high 10 tackles. Fellow starting corner Khalil Conley tied his career high with eight (including a TFL).

Mountaineers Fall to Eagles in First-Place Showdown

STATESBORO, Ga. – In a matchup of teams tied atop the Sun Belt Conference's East Division, App State fell 19-3 at Georgia Southern on Halloween night at Paulson Stadium.

Using one touchdown and three field goals to build a 16-3 lead early in the fourth quarter, those four possessions by the Eagles were scoring drives that required 14, 12, 10 and 14 plays, with each taking more than six minutes off the clock.

The Eagles pushed their lead to 16 points with 4:53 remaining on Tripp Bryant's fourth field goal of the night, a 48-yard kick, and the Mountaineers quickly had an opportunity to make it a one-score game with a first-and-goal scenario from the Georgia Southern 2 following receptions of 42 yards by Chris Lofton, 9 more yards by Lofton and 21 yards by Nate Branch. Chance Gamble intercepted a pass in the end zone with 3:02 remaining.

App State cut into a 10-0 deficit on James London's half-ending field goal but ran only eight offensive plays in the first 25 minutes of the second half. Now the only Sun Belt East team with one league loss, Georgia Southern finished with a 43:54 to 16:06 advantage in possession time against the Mountaineers, who played without left tackle Devon Manuel (season-ending injury vs. JMU) and right tackle Tyriq Poindexter (injury vs. JMU) before losing starting center Jayden Thomas to an injury that required medical attention late in the first half.

Max Johnson completed 35 of 46 passes for 323 yards to lead the Eagles, who limited App State to 6 rushing yards on 16 attempts, including nine scrambles or sacks involving quarterback Malachi Singleton. He completed 15 of 28 passes for 215 yards, with Pickett totaling 86 receiving yards and Lofton finishing with 82.

APP STATE	7	7	3	6	—	23

Nov. 7 - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 31,944

GAME NOTES

For the first time in 13 matchups, App State lost to Georgia State. The series had featured the Mountaineers' most wins against any opponent without a loss.

After not losing the turnover battle in any of its first seven games, App State lost that battle for the second straight game. The 3-0 margin was the same as the previous week at Georgia Southern.

A Mountaineer passing offense that entered the week second in the league and top 30 in the country outperformed its season average by passing for 297 yards on 35 attempts.

Team captain Malachi Singleton completed 23 of 34 passes for 241 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions, while wide receiver Chris Lofton added a 56-yard touchdown on a throwback pass. He was the Mountaineers' first receiver to pass for a touchdown since Dashaun Davis accomplished the feat against Troy in the 2022 Hail Mary game.

Lofton also led the receiving corps with six catches for a season-high 117 yards to become the first Mountaineer to surpass 100 receiving yards in a game this season.

Singleton's 3-yard touchdown to Dillon Galloway in the first quarter was the sophomore tight end's first career touchdown.

Freshman tight end Jamel Howse was the recipient of Lofton's touchdown pass for his first career score.

App State's defense produced three sacks on the day, including one from Caleb Sandstrom (his team-leading sixth of the season) and the first two of freshman Sawyer Arnold's college career.

Panthers Pull Away from Mountaineers

BOONE, N.C. — App State Football suffered its first loss to Georgia State, falling 39-23 at Kidd Brewer Stadium.

The first career touchdown receptions from tight ends Dillon Galloway and Jamel Howse gave App State (5-4, 2-3) a 14-13 lead early in the second quarter, but the Panthers (5-4, 2-3) scored 23 of the next 26 points to take control of the Sun Belt East Division matchup.

Georgia State arrived in Boone with an 0-12 record against the Mountaineers.

In addition to the first-half touchdown grabs, receiver Chris Lofton added a fourth-quarter score on a 4-yard touchdown pass from Malachi Singleton. Lofton actually threw the 56-yard touchdown pass to Howse, and Singleton connected with Galloway for a 3-yard touchdown that produced App State's first points of the afternoon.

Lofton led the way with 117 yards on six catches, and Singleton completed 23 of 34 passes for two touchdowns. He was intercepted twice and sacked five times as App State took the field without three offensive line starters. Jaquari Lewis led the team with 31 rushing yards on eight attempts.

Defensively, freshman Sawyer Arnold posted his first two career sacks, and Caleb Sandstrom recorded his team-leading sixth sack of the season.

Georgia State rushed for 265 yards on 52 attempts, while quarterback Ayden Pereira completed 10 of 17 passes for 115 yards and three touchdowns while filling in for injured starter Cameran Brown.

GAME 10						FINAL
APP STATE	3	3	7	7	—	20
Marshall	3	10	3	0	—	16

Nov. 14 - Joan C. Edwards Stadium - Huntington, W.Va. - 23,675

GAME NOTES

With its sixth win of the season, App State became bowl eligible for the 10th time in 12 bowl-eligible FBS seasons and for the first time during the regular season since 2023.

The Mountaineers won at Marshall for the first time since 1995, snapping a four-game losing skid in Huntington. Prior to Saturday, the home team had won all six meetings since the yearly rivalry renewed in 2020.

App State improved its all-time series lead to 18-11 and took a 4-3 advantage in matchups with both teams as FBS programs.

App State lost the turnover battle (3-2) for the third straight game but earned its first win this season in such a circumstance.

Running behind four offensive linemen who were not starters at the beginning of the season, the Mountaineers racked up 186 rushing yards, their second-most in a conference game and third-most in any game this season.

Backup QB Henry Hasselbeck scored both App State touchdowns in the contest, his first two touchdowns as a Mountaineer.

Jaquari Lewis rushed 23 times for a season-high 137 yards, the most by a Mountaineer this season.

App State's defense held Marshall to 16 points, its second-lowest total in a conference game this season. The Mountaineers had two takeaways and made three fourth-down stops in a standout bend-but-don't-break performance.

Colton Phares, Juan Berchal and Caleb Sandstrom all forced Marshall fumbles. Ricky Lolohea recovered the Phares force, while Berchal caused Marshall to fumble at the 1-yard line.

App State Clinches Bowl Eligibility with Win at Marshall

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. — App State Football traveled to Marshall needing a victory to clinch bowl eligibility. The Mountaineers headed home with an emotional win that delivered even more from a historical perspective.

Rallying behind a defense that came through with first-half takeaways and second-half stands, plus an offense that found its footing in the run game at an opportune time, App State won 20-16.

The Mountaineers had lost four straight games at Joan E. Edwards Stadium since last prevailing there in 1995, and App State (6-4, 3-3 Sun Belt) earned the right to end this FBS season with a 10th bowl appearance by picking up a sixth victory with two weeks remaining in the regular season.

Marshall (5-5, 2-4 Sun Belt) had a chance to move ahead 20-3 late in the first half, but Juan Berchal's forced fumble at the 1 for a momentum-swinging touchback, an App State drive for a half-ending field goal and then a 15-play, seven-minute touchdown drive from the Mountaineers to open the third quarter tied the game at 13-all.

The Thundering Herd responded with a go-ahead field goal, but Henry Hasselbeck's second rushing touchdown of the second half — a 37-yarder to follow his tying keeper from 1 yard out — gave the Mountaineers their first lead of the night with 12:55 remaining.

Already having limited the Thundering Herd to three short field goals, the Mountaineers' defense made fourth-and-1 stops on Marshall runs from its own 34 with 10:48 left and the App State 19 with 3:11 remaining. The Thundering Herd regained possession one more time, but a fourth-and-5 pass from near midfield with 1:12 left fell incomplete.

GAME NOTES

For the second straight meeting, App State defeated ULM by one point to improve its all-time series lead to 8-1. It was the Mountaineers' fifth straight victory in the series.

App State moved to 6-1 in one-possession games, including a 4-0 mark in games decided by three points or less.

For the first time in program history, App State has won multiple overtime games in the same season. The Mountaineers defeated James Madison 34-31 at The Rock on Oct. 22.

App State held a halftime lead (7-3) for the first time since Sept. 19 against Charlotte.

App State's defense allowed exactly 16 points for the second straight week. On four occasions in Sun Belt play, the Mountaineers have given up less than 20 points.

Kaleb Purdy picked off a pass for the first time as a Mountaineer. It was App State's 11th interception of the season (by eight different players), which ranks top 20 nationally.

Jackson Grier's overtime touchdown catch (that was followed by James London's game-winning PAT) was his second touchdown catch and third overall score of the year. He replaced Chris Lofton at an outside receiver position after Lofton was injured.

App State rushed for 161 yards and improved to 5-0 when eclipsing 100 rushing yards.

Other than scoring plays, Jehchys Brown may have had the most impactful play of the game. After ULM went ahead 16-10 in the first possession of overtime, Brown used Aaron Clark's push up front to lean through the middle and block the PAT attempt, which set up App State's winning score on its next play.

Blocked Kick, OT Touchdown Lift App State over ULM

BOONE, N.C. — A walk-off kick delivered another overtime win at The Rock in dramatic fashion.

The path to James London's latest game-ending conversion looked a lot different.

A month after beating JMU in an OT thriller at Kidd Brewer Stadium, App State rallied to claim a 17-16 overtime victory against ULM.

London's 22-yard field goal as time expired in the fourth quarter forced overtime, and up-the-middle rusher Jehchys Brown blocked the extra point with his extended right hand after ULM scored on a 1-yard touchdown run to move ahead 16-10. Malachi Singleton threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to Jackson Grier on the next play, and London's extra point enabled the Mountaineers (7-4, 4-3 Sun Belt) to improve to 6-1 this season in games decided by one possession.

The Mountaineers held a 7-3 lead on ULM (2-9, 2-5) until 6-foot-5 tight end Bryce Anderson made an incredible one-handed touchdown grab on Austin Carlisle's fourth-and-3 pass from the App State 18 with 6:23 remaining in regulation.

London was 0-for-3 on field goals Saturday with misses from 46, 53 and 46 yards before his game-extending kick, and he took the field again after Grier hauled in a catch at the right side of the end zone thanks to an accurate strike from Singleton as he rolled to his right.

Singleton completed 19 of 32 passes for 188 yards and two touchdowns, including a second-quarter connection from 3 yards out to Nate Branch. Treyaun Webb rushed 20 times for 93 yards in his first start for App State, which closes the regular season Friday at South Alabama.

Defensively, while helping limit ULM to 277 offensive yards, linebackers Carson Sloan and Colton Phares tied for the team lead with nine tackles apiece. Kaleb Purdy intercepted a pass late in the first half, and the Mountaineers benefited from sacks by Ricky Lolohea and Aaron Clark, whose up-front push on the overtime extra point contributed to freeing up Brown for the block.
