CAPITAL's HISTORIC SEASON

The 2022 season has been nothing but historic for the Capital University Women's Lacrosse team. So far this season, Capital has not only set loads of records, but they've also claimed the program's first bid to the NCAA Tournament after securing the OAC Regular Season and Tournament Championships for the first time. Along the way, the program has set numerous individual and team milestones and records featuring the program's 100th win, leading the country in scoring offense, a new program career points and assists leader, and much more.

This season, Capital battled for national recognition each week as the IWLCA announced their weekly rankings. It wasn't until the final rankings of the season on May 9th in which Capital made the list as a receving votes team, a feat accomplished for the first time in program history.

In addition to the history, Capital has rose to the occasion each time of asking. The team has played and defeated three teams that have qualified for the NCAA Tournament this year -- Transylvania, Washington & Jefferson, and Aurora. In addition, the team scrimmaged a fourth -- Kenyon -- during the preseason.

Simply put, this team has put together a season that has been dominant, record-breaking, and full of excitement. It is now time for the team to embark on their newest adventure -- the NCAA Tournament.

Capital University Women's Lacrosse

2022 OAC REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONS | 2022 OAC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS
NCAA PLAYOFFS: 2022

THE TALE OF THE GREEN HEADBAND
Capital's Brooke Delara is known for a lot on the field, but one of the most identifiable things is her trademark lime green headband. Noticeable for everyone in the crowd, Brooke has had a historic graduate season, currently sitting #2 in NCAA DIII with 151 points this year. Those points have come on 69 goals and 82 assists. In the process, she has become Capital's Career Point Leader, currently standing at 373. She also holds the Capital Career Assist record with 195. For her dominant midfield play this year, Brooke was named All-OAC First Team and the OAC's Midfielder of the Year.

FRESHMAN SENSATION
Not too many freshman make the impact on a team in their first year as Grace Osborn has for Capital women's lacrosse. Osborn announced herself to the college game with six goals in her first career game, and since then the rookie midfielder has gone on to lead all three NCAA divisions in scoring with 117 goals heading into the tournament. Already, Grace is 7th in program history in career goals and holds the record for most goals in a single game and single season. She's also assisted on 29 goals this year for 146 points, good for 3rd most in DIII. Elsewhere, she leads the team in ground balls (65), caused turnovers (40) and draw controls (121). Her draw control total has already surpassed the program record for most in a single season. She was named All-OAC First Team and Rookie of the Year.

ATTACK-MINDED FIREPOWER
Any other season, Luci Kanowsky would be having a school record breaking year, scoring 83 goals and dishing out 26 assists. Despite these totals, she is just 3rd on the team in points with 109. An even better trait for Luci to bring to the offense is her intensity that fires up the team and encourages the team to continue to light up the scoreboard. She was named All-OAC First Team and the conference's Attacker of the Year.

LOOK-A-LIKE, PLAY-A-LIKE
Molly and Hanna Searles are twins and are both defenders for the Comets. Both have been super impactful for Capital with Molly scoring two goals, picking up 49 ground balls, and causing 36 turnovers to be named All-OAC First Team and OAC Co-Defender of the Year. Hanna was an All-OAC Honorable Mention defender who scored twice, had one assist, picked up 40 ground balls and caused 20 turnovers.

LOCK THE CAGE
Bee Kuehn has not been called upon as much as her fellow OAC goalies, but when she has been called upon, she has been phenomenal, making 110 saves thus far in the season. She boasts a 7.58 GAA and a 43.3% save percentage. Much a testament to her defense, Bee has not been overly troubled this season, holding opponents to single-digit scoring 11 times this season. She was named All-OAC Honorable Mention.

CLEAR IT OUT
The Capital defense has done a great job of completing clears this season, thanks in large part to their solid group of defenders. As a unit, Capital has cleared successfully 81.6% of the time, thanks to the help of defenders Molly and Hanna Searles, Kori Barrett, Maddy Radanof and Rylee Jarvis.

CONTROL THE DRAW
In addition to Grace Osborn setting a new single-season record for most draws, graduate student and transfer, Katie Page has been a huge reason why Capital has won 351 draws this season. Page has reeled in 91 on her own, or been the direct cause of drawing fouls to give the team the draw control in contentious moments. Additionally, Page has scored 22 times with four assists.

CHAMPIONSHIP MENTALITY
From the beginning of the season, Capital has been playing with a championship mentality, immediately recognizing chemistry and talent on their team from day one. With six seniors and two graduate students on the team, Capital needed to look to their leaders and they certainly had a mentality that allowed the team to pull through in moments of need. This year, Capital battled snow, cold, rain, heat, and inconsistencies that have made playing conditions unpredictable. Ultimately, their ability to focus and have that hunger to win has allowed them to prevail through the most challenging of weather conditions.

GO WITH THE FLO-RENCE
Head coach Stacey Florence has been the Capital coach for nine seasons now, leading from the program's inception. With a win in the regular season finale, Coach Florence picked up her 100th career win and finally led her team to a OAC Regular Season and Tournament Championship in 2022. The team has played in three OAC Tournament finals in the past, falling all three times. As the team will be venturing into unchartered territory with their first appearance in the NCAA Tournament, Coach Florence will also be making her first career appearance as a coach or a player. Due to her efforts in leading Capital to a 19-0 record and to OAC glory, Coach Florence has been named the OAC Coach of the Year in 2022.

Ohio Athletic Conference

Capital University enters its 98th season as a member of the Ohio Athletic Conference in 2021-22. The OAC is the nation's third-oldest collegiate athletic conference and from its beginnings in 1902 has never wavered in its focus on the entire development of the student-athlete. The conference's unparalleled success of all its members on and off the playing field has made the OAC one of the nation's finest college conferences.

The OAC is predated only by the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (1888) and the Big Ten (1895). The OAC is older than the Rose Bowl, the World Series and even the NCAA itself. It has survived two world wars, the Great Depression, the Korean War and the Vietnam Conflict. From a modest beginning of six charter members in 1902, the OAC grew to as many as 24 members in the mid-1920s. Through the years a total of 31 colleges and universities at one time or another have been members of the OAC. Currently, the conference consists of 10 members: Baldwin Wallace University, Capital University, Heidelberg University, John Carroll University, Marietta College, the University of Mount Union, Muskingum University, Ohio Northern University, Otterbein University and Wilmington College.

Case Tech's football team won the OAC's first conference title with a 5-0-0 record. Outdoor track was added a year later and a third sport, cross country, became a conference sport in 1914. More sports were steadily added to the OAC's repertoire throughout the years, culminating in the addition of women's sports in 1984. The OAC currently sponsors championships in 21 sports, 11 men's and 10 women's. All 10 of the OAC institutions were founded in the 19th century and have long and outstanding academic reputations.

While maintaining these high academic standards, Ohio Athletic Conference teams and athletes consistently have enjoyed a great deal of success on a regional and national level. The athletic competition is viewed not as an end in itself, but as an extension of the educational programs, academic values that make the OAC one of the finest conferences in the nation.
