ITHACA COLLEGE GYMNASTICS RESULTS
ECAC Championships
Springfield, Mass.
March 19, 2005

Top-ranked Ithaca finished first of eight schools at the ECAC Championships. It is the Bombers first conference title since 2001 and their 13th overall. It is also the 22nd consecutive year that Ithaca has placed in the top three of the ECAC Championships. Four different Bombers earned All-ECAC honors in individual events, including sophomores Kelly Stevison (Osborn Park/Manassas, Va.) and Chelsie Veilleux (Nashua/Nashua, N.H.) who each earned All-Conference honors in two different events. Stevison earned honors in the all-around competition and the balance beam, placing sixth and third, respectively. She entered the meet ranked in the top in all five events. She is ranked fifth in the all-around, fourth in the floor exercise, fifth on the vault, 18th on the uneven bars, and 19th on the balance beam. Veilleux earned All-ECAC honors on the vault and the uneven bars, finishing third in both events. Freshman Aubree Lewis (Oswego/Oswego) earned All-Conference honors by placing eighth in the all-around competition. Lewis was also the Bombers best finisher in the floor exercise, finishing eighth. Senior Devon Malcolm (Athenian School/Alamo, Calif.) earned All-ECAC honors on the balance beam by placing fifth. Ithaca, along with Brockport and Cortland, advance to the National Collegiate Gymnastics Association (NCGA) Division III Championships on Friday and Saturday, April 1-2, at the University of Wisconsin-Lacrosse. The Bombers won the event in 1998.
