ITHACA COLLEGE GYMNASTICS RESULTS
National Collegiate Gymnastics Association (NCGA) Championships
La Crosse, Wis.
April 1, 2005

In their 19th straight year of competition in the NCGA Championships, Ithaca placed fifth of six teams. Two Bombers qualified for the individual competition to take place on Saturday. Sophomore Kelly Stevison (Osbourn Park/Manassas, Va.) will compete on the vault and in the floor exercise. She is currently in seventh place on the vault and 11th in the floor exercise. Stevison also placed 10th in the all-around competition, earning her All-American honors for the second consecutive year in the event. She entered the meet ranked fifth in the all-around competition, fourth in the floor exercise and fifth on the vault. Stevison also recorded the top score by a Bomber on the balance beam, placing 15th. Sophomore Chelsie Veilleux (Nashua/Nashua, N.H.) will compete on Saturday on the uneven bars. Veilleux is currently in 10th place. Competition continues at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse Saturday at 4 p.m.
