TODAY'S GAME
The Bombers (11-12, 7-5 Empire 8) host the Hartwick Hawks (10-13, 4-8 Empire 8) in an Empire 8 contest. The Bombers have clinched a spot in the Empire 8 Championship Tournament.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT
The Bombers are honoring five seniors today; Brian Andruskiewicz, Jim Bellis, Matt Bozzone, Uzma Rawn and Jonathan Whetstone.

Andruskiewicz has appeared in 86 games with 63 starting assignments. He has totaled 738 points and 469 rebounds throughout his four-year career. An honorable-mention Empire 8 all-star in 2005, he led the team in rebounds his junior season. He pulled-down a personal-best 16 rebounds against Oneonta this season and is currently tied for the team lead in rebounding. As a junior, Andruskiewicz scored a career-high 26 points against Nazareth.

Bellis has seen action in 96 games, starting 76 with Ithaca. Earlier this year, he became the 15th Bomber to record 1,000 career points. Bellis is 11th on Ithaca's all-time scoring list (1,145) and sixth in steals (132). A second-team Empire 8 all-star his junior season, Bellis leads the team in scoring and steals this season. He recorded the third-highest point total by a Bomber in Empire 8 play, scoring a career-high 31 points against Alfred.

Bozzone has served as a student assistant his final season. During his first three years with the Bombers, he compiled 100 points and 68 rebounds in 53 games.

Rawn is a four-year student assistant. She has assisted in all aspects of the team’s basketball operations, which includes traveling with the team and keeping the official scorebook during games. A sport management major, Rawn is a member of the Sigma Iota Epsilon National Honor Management Fraternity and is a Dean's List student. She was also named the American Advertising Federation’s Most Promising Minority Student.

Whetstone has appeared in 86 games with the Bombers, starting 64. He is one of only six Bombers to record 300 career assists.

Whetstone ranks fifth all-time at Ithaca in assists (338) and eighth in steals (125). The team leader in assists his sophomore and junior season, Whetstone ranks second in the Empire 8 with 5.5 assists per contest. He also is leading the team with 5.5 rebounds per game.

ABOUT HARTWICK
The Hawks are led by freshman guard Jan Cocoziello, a five-time recipient of the Empire 8 Rookie of the Week award. He leads the team with 15.0 points per game and 69 assists. Freshman center Anthony Brown adds 8.9 points per contest and a team-high 7.7 rebounds.

ABOUT THE SERIES
In a series that dates back to the 1929-30 season, the Bombers hold a 54-41 all-time advantage over the Hawks. The Bombers have won the last three contests and nine of the last 10, including a 67-58 victory earlier in the season. Bellis led all scorers with 21 points.

NEXT UP
The Bombers host Elmira on Tuesday at 8 p.m. in their final regular season game.

Ithaca College asks fans to follow these rules:

We encourage all spectators to display good sportsmanship; this would include cheering in a positive manner and showing respect for athletes, coaches and officials. Profanity and objectionable cheers or gestures are offensive and may lead to removal from the competition site. Please refrain from encroaching on the playing area, taunting in any manner and making disparaging comments which include the identification of players by name or number.

We thank you for your cooperation.
