2004 Women’s Lacrosse Schedule
BC
The Ithaca College women’s lacrosse program is entering its 17th year of competition on Carp Wood Field (formerly Upper Terrace Field). Before 1988, the Bombers spent 10 years playing home games at Allen Field.

In 2002 the facility was renamed for Carlton “Carp” Wood, a 1939 Ithaca graduate and member of the school’s Athletic Hall of Fame who coached three sports at his alma mater. Wood, who passed away in February, led Ithaca to the NCAA playoffs in baseball, men’s basketball and men’s soccer, becoming the first NCAA coach to accomplish that feat.

The Bombers posted a 6-0 record at home last spring, running their home winning streak to 22. Ithaca is 30-3 at home over the past five seasons, collecting eight postseason victories in that span. Since moving to Carp Wood Field, Ithaca has compiled a record of 85-31 (.718), beginning with a 12-7 win over Hartwick on March 31, 1988.

Jennifer MacKenzie paced the Bombers in their first game at their new home, scoring four goals and adding two assists. Ithaca finished 5-0 at Upper Terrace Field that year, the program’s third undefeated season at home since 1981.

From 1980 to 1984 the Bombers won 20 straight home games, including three straight seasons with perfect marks in 1981 (6-0), 1982 (2-0) and 1983 (4-0).

Since 1975 the team has won over seventy percent of its home games, posting a record of 140 wins and 55 losses.

In 1998 the NYSWCAA semifinals and championship game were held at Upper Terrace Field. Ithaca placed third, after beating Union, 21-10, in the consolation game. Jenna Gruben led the way, scoring nine goals.

In 2000 Ithaca recorded quarterfinal home wins over St. Lawrence and Frostburg State in the NYSWCAA and ECAC playoffs, respectively.

In 2003 the Bombers hosted the inaugural Empire 8 tournament, defeating Hartwick and Nazareth to claim the conference’s automatic bid to the NCAA playoffs. Ithaca repeated the feat last spring.

Carp Wood Field is also home to the men’s and women’s soccer teams and has hosted Empire 8 and NCAA playoff games in both sports.

Since its installation as a varsity sport in 1969, the women’s lacrosse team has been a steady contributor to Ithaca College’s athletic tradition. Entering its 36th season, the program owns a 295-166-2 overall record, good for a .639 winning percentage. Only six Division III schools have won more games than the Bombers, and in 1999 Ithaca became the third Division III school to play as many as 400 games.

The first four lacrosse seasons at Ithaca were extremely successful. The team posted three consecutive 4-0 records during the 1969, 1970 and 1971 seasons. The Bombers then won their first three games in 1972 before falling to eastern power Lock Haven. Coach Nancy Hicks guided the team to a perfect record during the inaugural season and again in 1971, and Joan Silken coached the 1970 team.

Sarah Rich took over in 1973 and coached the team until 1978. She led the Bombers to their first two New York State Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (NYSIAIWA) tournament appearances, and Ithaca finished second in 1977 and fourth the following year.

In 1980 the Bombers had one of their most successful years. Coach Pat Quinn guided Ithaca to a 13-2 record and the program’s first New York State women’s lacrosse title. The 13 victories marked the beginning of three straight seasons of double-figure win totals and set a record for wins in a season that stood for 21 years.

The 1980 season was the beginning of six straight winning seasons. In 1981 coach Andrea Golden’s initial season included a 12-2 record and a trip to the program’s first AIAW Division II championship playoff. In 1982 Golden led the Bombers to an 11-3 mark and the team’s second New York State title in three years. The team also placed fourth at the AIAW Division II tournament, where Shawn Benoliel scored an AIAW tournament record 10 goals against Northeastern.

The team had an overall mark of 65-8 from 1980 to 1985, a winning percentage of .890. During that six-year stretch, some of the program’s greatest players were on the field. Benoliel, a 2003 inductee into Ithaca’s Athletic Hall of Fame who held the program’s career scoring record for 20 seasons, and all-Americans Janet Eppinger and Leslie Murphy paced the offense, while goalies Paula Majeski and Andrea Norton anchored the defense. Majeski still ranks third in career save percentage (.678) and ninth in season save percentage (.720) among Division III players. Norton is 16th in career saves.

In 1988 and 1989 the team captured back-to-back ECAC championships. The Bombers went on to participate in their first NCAA playoff in 1989. Amy Ayers, Debbie Deaver, and Mary Kelly Rayel, who still rank among the program’s top goal-scorers, consistently led the offense during those championship runs.

In 1993 Golden guided the team to a 10-4 mark and another appearance in the NCAA tournament. The team was led by two-time academic all-American Kenja Ackerman and all-Americans Lisa Feinstein and Julie Stone, with Stone setting a school record with 84 points that season. Following her graduation, she became the first Ithaca player to earn a spot on the U.S. Developmental Team.

Golden left following the 1995 season, with a career record of 123-86.

Piep van Heuven took over as head coach in 1996 and led Ithaca to postseason play in each of her six seasons. In 1996 the Bombers placed third in the NYSWCAA tournament and reached the ECAC title game. That team was led by JoAnn Binko, who posted the program’s second-best single-season scoring total (71 points). She ranks fourth in career points (171).

Lisa Feinstein scored 145 goals in three seasons.

Andrea Norton ranks among the Division III national leaders with 549 career saves.

ECAC = Eastern College Athletic Conference
In 1997 Ithaca returned to the NCAA tournament for the first time in four years, after dropping a one-goal decision to William Smith in the NYSWCAA finals. A year later, the Bombers made a second straight trip to the NCAA playoffs. Seniors Allison Doyle (159 points) and Heather Stafford (151 points) finished their careers third and fourth, respectively, on Ithaca’s career scoring list.

In 1998 all-Americans Jenna Gruben and Brooke Andrews helped lead the Bombers to the championship game of the ECAC Mid-Atlantic playoffs. The following spring Hicks, Rich and Leslie (Murphy) Jones were inducted into Ithaca’s Athletic Hall of Fame. In 2000 the defense of all-Americans Andrews and Becky Karver led Ithaca to a record-tying 13 wins and the program’s third ECAC title.

In 2001 Andrews and Karver led Ithaca to a school-record 15 wins, the Empire 8 title and the program’s first state title since 1982. Competing in the NCAA playoffs for the first time since 1998, Ithaca topped St. Mary’s (Md.), 9-8, in the first round—the school’s first win in NCAA playoff competition—before losing to eventual runner-up Amherst in the quarterfinals. In 2002 the Bombers won their second ECAC title in three years.

In 2003, first-year Bomber coach Karen Hollands (a 2001 inductee into the Hall of Fame) led Ithaca back into the NCAA playoffs behind the play of all-American Jessica Welch (who became the school’s career scoring leader). All-Americans Dayna Johnson and Michelle Schlegel (who broke Welch’s career scoring record) helped the Bombers back to the NCAA playoffs last spring.

Karen Hollands, a member of the Ithaca College Athletic Hall of Fame, has enjoyed a successful run as head coach at her alma mater. Hollands, who was named head women’s lacrosse coach and assistant field hockey coach at Ithaca in 2002, led the Bombers to the Empire 8 title and a spot in the NCAA playoffs in her first year. She earned Empire 8, NYSWCAA and IWLCA New York Region coach of the year for her efforts. Last year’s team repeated as Empire 8 champions and made the program’s seventh trip to the NCAA playoffs.

Hollands, a 1994 Ithaca graduate, had served as head coach of the field hockey and women’s lacrosse teams at Hamilton College for four years. She coached Hamilton’s women’s lacrosse team to quarterfinal appearances in the NCAA playoffs in 2000 and 2001. She earned Upstate Collegiate Athletic Association, IWCLNA New York region and NYSWCAA coach of the year honors in 2000 after leading the Continentals to the UCAA title and the NCAA playoffs for the first time.

Before working at Hamilton, Hollands spent two years at Hartwick College as an assistant coach with the field hockey and women’s lacrosse programs. The Hawks reached the NCAA semifinals in field hockey (1996) and women’s lacrosse (1998) during her tenure.

A goalie for the Ithaca field hockey and women’s lacrosse teams, Hollands helped both teams to NCAA playoff berths (including quarterfinal appearances in 1991 and 1992 for the field hockey team). She was a two-time first-team all-American in field hockey and set school records with 550 career saves and a career save percentage of .896. Hollands participated in the 1994 U.S. National Field Hockey Team tryouts. She graduated in 1994 with a bachelor’s degree in physical education and received her master’s degree from Cortland in 2002.

She lives in Ithaca with her life partner, Azure Davey.

6 Women’s Lacrosse 2005
Assistant Coaches

TARA RUCKH

Tara Ruckh is in her first season with the Bomber staff.

Ruckh has been an assistant coach with the women’s basketball team for the past five years, helping Ithaca to NCAA playoff bids each season. She also served as an assistant coach with the women’s track and field program for four years.

A 1999 graduate of Cortland, Ruckh played four years of basketball for the Red Dragons. She was a two-year team captain and helped the Red Dragons to their first NCAA playoff appearance as a senior.

RENEE CARLINEO

Carlineo joins the Ithaca staff this year. A 2004 Ithaca graduate, she was part of the Bomber program for a season after transferring from Penn State. Carlineo has coached at Corning East High School as well as helping to establish the Gold Coast youth lacrosse program in Australia. She is pursuing a master’s degree in exercise and sport sciences.

BRIDGETTE ROUN

Roun is in her first year with the Bomber coaching staff. She comes to Ithaca, where she is pursuing a master’s degree in exercise and sport sciences, after 17 years at Lock Haven. She spent nine years as the Bald Eagles’ head women’s lacrosse coach and was named IWLCA Coach of the Year in 1991. Roun was also an assistant coach with Lock Haven’s field hockey team, helping the Bald Eagles to four national titles. She is a graduate of Trenton State (now the College of New Jersey) and earned a master’s degree from West Chester.

ECAC Mid-Atlantic
The Ithaca women’s lacrosse team is coming off nine straight postseason appearances, including three trips to the NCAA playoffs in the past four years. The Bombers, who have won 68 games over the past five years, feature five starters among their 12 returning letter winners.

2004 Recap: The Bombers finished 12-5 and posted their second straight undefeated season in conference play. Ithaca hosted and won the Empire 8’s championship tournament to claim the league’s automatic bid to the NCAA playoffs for the second year in a row. The NCAA appearance was the program’s seventh. Senior midfielder Michelle Schlegel broke the school’s scoring record and earned all-America honors as well as the Empire 8’s Player of the Year award. She also earned first-team all region accolades and was joined on the all-region team by defender Dayna Johnson (first team) and midfielder Mariah Casserly (second team). All three were Empire 8 all-stars, as were midfielder Meredith Achilles, defender Meaghan Light, goalkeeper Angela Marathakis and attack Kursin Meehan. Karen Hollands was named conference coach of the year for the second straight season.

Key Losses: Schlegel was a two-time all-American and a three-time Empire 8 all star who scored a school-record 248 points. Johnson, another all-American, was a three-time first-team all-region selection who started all 72 games in her career. Marathakis earned all-conference recognition both of her years as the starter in goal after joining the program in 2003. Attack Lauren Smith was an all-state pick last spring and finished her career with 107 goals (ninth on the program’s all-time list). The Bombers also lose Tamara Payn, an all-conference midfielder who missed last season with an injury, and Molly Dempsey, who saw time as a goalkeeper and defender during her career.

Attack: The Bombers bring back six letter winners from a team that recorded five 15-goal efforts. Senior Jenni Bryant, a former all-conference selection, has started all but two games over the past two years. With 73 career points, she’s 27 shy of becoming the fifth Bomber in four years to reach the 100-point total. Fellow senior Lindsey Breese is another three-year letter winner and a returning starter.

Sophomore Khrista Trerotola was Ithaca’s top scorer off the bench last spring, netting 13 points. Classmates Vanessa Brunette, Emily Munn and Danielle Sicignano combined to score 10 points last year in limited action.

Midfield: A pair of seniors heads the list of four returning letter winners. Casserly, a two-time Empire 8 all-star, was a second-team all-region pick last spring. A starter in 51 games over the past three seasons, she’s recorded career totals of 38 draw controls and 30 caused turnovers while scoring 109 career points. She ranks 19th on the school’s career scoring list and is nine goals away from becoming the 12th Bomber to reach 100. Light, a two-year starter, joined Casserly on the all-conference team last year. Her career total of 41 caused turnovers is the most of any active Bomber.

Sophomores Asti Kutzer and Johanna Young also return. Kutzer, a part-time starter, led the team’s newcomers with 11 draw controls. Young scored three goals while playing in nine games off the bench.

Three new members will see playing time in the midfield: freshmen Meagan Howell, Kim Medla and Suzanna Lull.

DEFENSE: Ithaca’s defense, which has limited opponents to fewer than seven goals per game for four straight seasons, is the team’s least experienced area. Senior Lesley Graham, the only letter winner back, is a returning starter who has collected 50 ground balls, 19 caused turnovers and 14 draw controls in her career.

Freshmen Sarah Knauf and Eryenne Printz will also see playing time on defense.

GOALIE: Sophomore Lindsay Mayfield saw action in nine games as the Bombers’ backup last season. She recorded a goals-against average of 7.29, and in four of her nine appearances she allowed two goals or fewer.

Freshman Emily Brooks will also push for playing time.

THE SCHEDULE: Ithaca opens the season against Ohio Wesleyan and Wesleyan in Panama City, Fla. For the third year in a row, the Empire 8 will award its automatic bid to the NCAA playoffs to the winner of the championship tournament (hosted by the regular-season champion). The Bombers will also compete in William Smith’s Heron Draw tournament, playing Colorado College and the host Herons (both were NCAA playoff teams a year ago). The team will play two other 2004 NCAA playoff teams this spring: Cortland and Nazareth.
LINDSEY BREESE
Attack, Sr., 5-8; Geneva

2004: Breese joined the starting lineup and posted her highest career point total. She collected a personal-best two assists in the season-opening win over Gordon and notched goals in the regular-season victories over Elmira and Hartwick. 2003: Breese was one of the team’s top offensive reserves. She recorded her first career two-goal game in the win at St. John Fisher. Breese had a goal and an assist in the victory at Utica, and also picked up a goal in the season-opening win over Rensselaer. 2002: Breese played in nine games as a freshman. Her first collegiate point was an assist in the Empire 8 win at Elmira. Breese recorded her first career goal in a conference victory against Alfred. She scored a season-best two points in Ithaca’s league win over Hartwick. High School: At Geneva High School, Breese was coached by Cynthia Muffley. Personal: A health and physical education major, she is the daughter of Gary and Kathleen Breese. She was named to the Empire 8 Presidents’ List for the spring 2004 and fall 2004 semesters.

JENNI BRYANT
Attack, Sr., 5-5; Concord, Mass.

2004: Bryant started every game and was the team’s fifth-leading scorer. She recorded a pair of three-point performances, collecting two goals and an assist in wins over RIT and Alfred. Bryant’s six other multiple-point efforts included two-goal games against Rochester, St. John Fisher and #20 Cortland. She was credited with the game-winning goal in Bomber victories over Alfred and St. John Fisher. 2003: Bryant earned honorable mention to the Empire 8 all-star team after a 60 percent increase in her scoring. She tallied 16 points and 28 ground balls in Empire 8 games, ranking third on the team in both categories. She posted career-best totals of four assists and six points in the Alfred win. Bryant notched three-goal games against Colorado College and RIT. She recorded four-point efforts in back-to-back games against Hartwick, scoring the game-winning goal in the regular-season victory. She also scored the game-winner against Utica. 2002: Bryant played in all but one game and made six starts (second among Bomber freshmen). She scored a pair of goals in her first collegiate game to help beat Denison and matched that total in the Utica win. She collected season-best totals of two assists (against Colorado College) and three goals and four points (against Hartwick). High School: At Concord-Carlisle High School, Bryant was coached by Jennifer Greeley. Personal: An art history major, she is the daughter of Robert Bryant and Susan Duggan.
MARIAH CASSERLY
Midfield, Sr., 5-5; Canton

2004: Casserly earned first-team Empire 8 all-star honors and was a second-team selection to the all-state and all-region teams. She was the team’s second-leading scorer and ranked second in goals, third in draw controls and fourth in ground balls. Casserly recorded three four-goal performances, including two in the season’s first four games. She also scored four goals against #14 Hamilton; in that game she became the 19th Bomber to reach 100 career points. She collected a career-best two assists in the win over Elmira and matched that total in the Utica victory. She picked up a season-high six ground balls against #8 William Smith. Casserly was named Empire 8 Player of the Week after opening the season with 14 points and 12 ground balls in Ithaca’s first four games. 2003: Casserly earned second-team all-Empire 8 honors after ranking second on the team and fifth in the conference in ground balls. She was Ithaca’s third-leading scorer and led the Bombers with four game-winning goals. Casserly scored three goals, including the game-winner, against Cortland (her second straight three-goal performance) and collected a season-best four goals at RIT. She scored a goal in all but one game and recorded multiple goals 12 times, including a stretch of seven straight games to close out the regular season. Casserly notched a goal, an assist and a career-high nine ground balls in the Empire 8 title game against Nazareth. 2002: Casserly was the only Ithaca freshman to start every game and led Bomber newcomers in scoring (31 points), ground balls (39) and caused turnovers (10). She scored a season-high five goals against Nazareth and recorded back-to-back performances of three goals against Geneseo and four against Drew in the ECAC playoffs. She assisted on the game-winning goal against Colorado College. High School: At Canton High School, Casserly was coached by Steve Shields. Personal: A health and physical education major, she is the daughter of John Casserly and Linda Canton.

FACILITIES
Ithaca has close to 70 modern buildings, including science facilities with state-of-the-art laboratories, music center with concert and recital halls, health sciences center, and observatory plus 26 residence halls and two apartment complexes offering a variety of living accommodations. The library contains 400,000 materials in various formats. Academic computing is available in over 15 general-access and over a dozen program-specific computer labs. Athletic facilities include a 2,600-seat gymnasium and a 5,000-seat football stadium. The new fitness center houses two smaller gyms as well as aerobics and exercise rooms with cardio machines, stair-steppers and treadmills.

ADMISSION AND FINANCIAL AID
Admission to Ithaca College is based on high school record, personal recommendations, SAT or ACT scores, and, for some programs, auditions or portfolios. Candidates should submit an application by March 1. The application deadline for early decision candidates is November 1. Over 80 percent of incoming students receive some form of financial assistance. Applicants seeking financial aid must submit the FAFSA (free application for federal student aid), available from high school guidance offices. The FAFSA form should be sent directly to the address indicated on the form; the submission deadline is February 1. Early decision candidates interested in seeking institutional and federal financial aid should submit the Profile application with the College Scholarship Service by November 1 and the FAFSA with the U.S. Department of Education by February 1.

CAMPUS VISITS AND INTERVIEWS
Prospective students and their families are strongly encouraged to visit Ithaca for a campus tour, interview or open house program. Please call the Office of Admission at least two weeks in advance to schedule an appointment. For additional information about any aspect of Ithaca College, please contact the Office of Admission, Ithaca College, 100 Job Hall, Ithaca, N.Y. 14850-7020; phone: (607) 274-3124 or (800) 429-4274. Ithaca College’s home page is www.ithaca.edu.

INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS
Ithaca teams have won three national championships in football and wrestling, two each in baseball and women’s soccer and one each in women’s crew, field hockey, gymnastics and softball. Bomber teams have also produced individual national champions in gymnastics, men’s and women’s swimming, wrestling and track and field. Ithaca is sponsoring 25 varsity sports during the 2004-05 school year—13 for women and 12 for men. During the 2003-04 academic year, Bomber teams were a combined 255-120-10 (.675), and 15 were represented in the NCAA playoffs. Ithaca won 17 Empire 8 championships and finished 11th in the Division III NACDA Directors’ Cup standings. A total of 25 Ithaca student-athletes earned all-American recognition or academic all-American recognition.

NCAA PHILOSOPHY STATEMENT
Colleges and universities in Division III place highest priority on the overall quality of the educational experience. In so doing, they seek to strengthen the integration of objectives and programs in athletics with academic and developmental objectives and to ensure the integration of athletes with other students.

ATHLETIC TRAINING
Injury prevention and care of Ithaca’s student-athletes are overseen by a staff of six full-time athletic trainers, plus a graduate assistant and over 65 undergraduate students in the athletic training major. Several fully equipped facilities are devoted to athletic training.
PEGGY R. WILLIAMS
President

Peggy R. Williams assumed the presidency of Ithaca College on July 1, 1997. She is the College's seventh president and its first female president.

Since taking the helm, President Williams has led a collaborative effort to pursue the vision of making Ithaca "the standard of excellence for residential comprehensive colleges." To that end, she launched a campus-wide strategic planning process that culminated in a blueprint for achieving the College's essential priorities and goals. Since the adoption of the Institutional Plan in 2001, progress has been made in a number of areas. For example, initiatives such as the Martin Luther King Jr. Scholar Program and the Center for the Study of Culture, Race, and Ethnicity further the College's commitment to diversity and to interdisciplinary education. The Campus Master Plan provides a road map for major facilities and land use for the next two decades. The academic profile of the student body has been strengthened, and the Center for Faculty Research and Development encourages faculty to pursue innovative teaching and research projects. In addition, President Williams's strong interest in community service, evinced by the establishment of such annual programs as the Celebration of Service and Community Plunge, has resulted in an increase in campus volunteerism.

Williams came to Ithaca from Lyndon State College, where she had been president since 1989. She had previously worked at Trinity College in Burlington, Vermont, as associate academic dean, chair of the business and economics department and associate professor. She also held various positions within the Vermont State Colleges system. Before entering the field of higher education, Williams was a social worker for the Medical Center Hospital of Vermont and the Monroe County Department of Social Services in New York.

In 1990 the publisher of Creating Excellence magazine named Williams one of Vermont's "top 10 achievers." She was the first recipient of the Jackie M. Gribbons Leadership Award in 1984 from the American Council on Education (ACE). The organization also established an honor in her name—the Margaret R. Williams Emerging Professional Award—to recognize the accomplishments of young female professionals in higher education.

Active in community and professional organizations, President Williams currently serves on the NCAA Division III Presidents Council and on the boards of directors of the Canada-U.S. Foundation for Educational Exchange, the Academic Search Consultation Service, the Council of Independent Colleges and the Tompkins Trust Company. She is also a member of the Commission on Women of the American Council on Education (ACE) and an honorary member of the Rotary Club of Ithaca. She previously served on the ACE board of directors and its executive and nominating committees, the board of directors of the Sacred Heart School of Montreal (past chair) and the Policy Advisory Group for Outcomes and Assessment and Institutional Effectiveness for the New York State Education Department.

Williams holds a bachelor of arts degree in psychology from St. Michael's College of the University of Toronto; a master of education degree from the University of Vermont; and a doctorate in administration, planning and social policy from Harvard University.

A native of Montreal, Williams has lived in the United States since 1968 and is a citizen of both the United States and Canada. She has many interests beyond higher education—sailing, skiing, bicycling, wilderness expeditions, music, reading and photography. She and her husband, David, reside at Two Fountain Place, the home of Ithaca College presidents since 1938.

KEN KUTLER
Director of Intercollegiate Athletics

Ken Kutler is in his second year as Ithaca’s director of intercollegiate athletics and recreational sports.

Kutler came to Ithaca after serving as director of athletics at two other Division III institutions; Frostburg State University (1978 to 1986) and Hartwick College (1986 to 2003). At Hartwick, he oversaw a 24-sport intercollegiate athletic program (including two sports that competed at the Division I level).

He is a past president of the Empire 8 athletic conference. Kutler spent 10 years as women's soccer coach at Hartwick (1986 to 1993 and again in 2001 and 2002) and guided the Hawks to five appearances in the NCAA championship tournament including two trips to the national quarterfinals.

He is a 1964 graduate of East Stroudsburg University, where he was an all-region soccer player. Kutler holds a master's degree in education from Temple University and a doctorate in education from West Virginia.
