Renaud LaVellenie

It was good for me to take the win today and for me to be here because it was a crazy atmosphere.

You don't see this any other place, but the thing is it's quite difficult because people are very close to us and to the runway and the mat. So we have to stay focused on what we have to do and don't look around.

This was my second time that I competed in this competition in the United States and I feel very happy. Today it was great to compete against some of the best in the world. I respect them all. I'm very happy to be here. I like the environment and the people and the competition.

This was my fourth time here, so it's always exciting coming here and I always enjoy it. There's people lining the runway and just clapping and cheering. Everything was so great. I took a lot of jumps tonight, but it's also exciting for me because I took a lot of jumps. I was really tired and that's always a good sign for later in the year when I'm on bigger poles. I love it here, every year.

It was awesome to get a win and tie out with Renaud. It gives me good confidence for the season – this is my second competition back and I didn't compete indoors so this was like a little taste of an indoor season for me, which is awesome. The atmosphere is electric like last year, but this year I knew what to expect and it was a really good time.
