READY TO BREAK THROUGH: EMU will be out to break its 0-7 MAC start when the Eagles travel to Toledo Thursday, Jan. 26. The last time EMU started 0-7 was the 2000-01 season when the Eagles were 0-10.

OFFENSIVELY IN CHARGE: The Eagles came up with two of their best offensive shooting nights of the season in two of their last three games. Eastern shot 54.8 from the floor (23-of-42) against Bowling Green (Jan. 18) and followed that up with a 52.3 percentage (23-of-44) at Akron (Jan. 21).

AT THE HALF: EMU has held the halftime lead in five of 15 games this season, but only one of those has resulted in a win. Eastern led at the half and won the California (Nov. 18) game. Eastern trailed at the half against Youngstown State (Dec. 7) and versus Tulsa (Dec. 22) and the Eagles captured both of those games. EMU was tied at the half against UWGB (Dec. 14) and trailed at the half and lost the other eight games.

PROTECTING THE BALL: The Eagles have been doomed by a failure to control the basketball on offense this season, with a season-high 24 turnovers in a 79-61 loss at Akron Saturday (Jan. 21) and 23 turnovers in a 79-72 setback to Bowling Green Wednesday (Jan. 18). Eastern has been in double-digit turnovers in every game this season except the Northern Colorado (Dec. 30) game when it had eight.

BOWLER PASSES THE "ICEMAN": Senior John Bowler (Chicago, Ill.-Notre Dame H.S.) has passed a legend on his way up the career scoring list. Bowler has moved into 20th spot on the EMU career scoring list with 1,154 points, passing George "Ice-man" Gervin's 1,044 points which ranks 22nd. The next stop for Bowler is EMU assistant coach Carl Thomas' 1,179. Bowler has played in 99 games for the Eagles and has started 70 times. In addition to his 1,154 points, Bowler has hauled down 645 rebounds for the ninth ranking, and he has made 336 free throws for the eighth spot. He has turned in 22 career double-doubles.

BOWLER EARNS ANOTHER MAC HONOR: Senior forward John Bowler has earned his second Mid-American Conference West Division Player of the Week Award and the fourth of his career with a pair of strong showings in games played last week. The 6-foot-9 Bowler turned in two double-doubles in the two EMU setbacks. He scored 16 points with 11 rebounds in a 75-63 loss to Ohio, Wednesday, Jan. 11, and followed that up with a 23-point, 14-rebound performance in a 74-64 setback to Kent State Saturday, Jan. 14. For the week he connected on 14-of-26 field goals, 10-of-15 free throws, grabbed 25 rebounds, scored 39 points, had six assists and recorded four steals. He earned his first MAC 2005-06 West Division Player of the Week honor after leading the Eagles to a 67-65 win over a visiting California team, Nov. 18. Through the first 12 games this year, Bowler has recorded 21 career double-doubles.

BOWLER-McELHINNY CAPTAINS: EMU Head Coach Charles E. Ramsey has named seniors John Bowler and Danny McElhinny captains for the 2005-06 season. Both players are in their fourth season of play with Bowler playing in 89 games while McElhinny has appeared in 87.

NEW FACE ON THE BENCH: EMU has a roster addition with Travis Lewis (Kalamazoo, Mich.-Loy Norrix) joining the team. The 6-foot-2 Eagles' wide receiver, dressed for the first time when EMU and Buffalo met, Jan. 4. Lewis, a third-year sophomore, played in all 11 football games in 2005 and started nine times. He caught 33 passes for 331 yards and recorded one receiving touchdown.

"BIG DUDE" HITS THE RAFTERS: When Kennedy McIntosh helped rule the front court for the then-Hurons from 1967-71 he had the nickname "Big Dude." In his four years he set standards in scoring and rebounding that have stood the test of time for 37 years. McIntosh holds the EMU career marks for points scored (2,219) and rebounds (1,426) and is the only EMU player to grab more than 1,000 rebounds. During his four years on the team, McIntosh led the team to four consecutive post-season national tournaments from 1968-71 with the best finish a national runner-up spot to Kentucky State in the 1971 NIAA Championship Game. McIntosh had his No. 54 jersey retired at halftime of Saturday's, Jan. 14, 2006 home game against Kent State. McIntosh became the third EMU player to have his jersey raised to the rafters. Former standout George "Iceman" Gervin (1971-72) had his No. 24 jersey retired Jan. 26, 1986 and Grant Long (1985-88) had his No. 43 jersey retired Dec. 2, 2003.

FOR THE 109th TIME: The 2005-06 season is the 109th of intercollegiate basketball for the Eastern Michigan University Eagles. Eastern played its first season in 1897-98 and split games with Detroit, losing a 2-0 decision before coming back for a 4-0 victory. The 2005-06 season will also be the 32nd for the Eagles in the Mid-American Conference. The first year of MAC play for EMU was 1974-75 when the then-Hurons went 12-14 overall and 4-9 in league play. EMU has won three Mid-American Conference titles: 1987-88, 1990-91, and 1995-96, and the Green and White captured MAC Tournament crowns in all three of those years in addition to winning the tournament title in 1997-98.

HALL OF FAME SET FOR FEB. 11: The 30th Annual EMU Athletic Hall of Fame, sponsored by the E-Club Alumni Chapter, will be held Saturday, Feb. 11, 2006, in the atrium of the Convocation Center. The Class of 2005 includes: Tommy Asinga (1994) track; Dan Boisture (1967-73) football coach; Ben Braun (1986-96) men's basketball coach; Hamilton Morningstar (1940) track and field; Dr. Waldomar Roeser (1970-present) team doctor; Dan Schmitz (1979) baseball; Sara Seegers (1995) softball; and Harold E. Simons (1968, 1970), basketball player and golf and basketball coach.

STEADY IMPROVEMENT: Senior John Bowler entered the 2006 season with a career field-goal percentage of 51.5 percent (301-of-585) and a free-throw percentage of 61.2 (260-of-425). He has made huge improvements on both of those marks and through 15 games is averaging 56.7 percent from the field (106-of-187) and 71.0 percent from the line (76-of-107).

VanSOLKEMA LEAVES: Redshirt sophomore guard Derek VanSolkema (Grand Rapids, Mich.-South Christian) has decided to transfer to Hope College. He will start school at Hope this semester and will be immediately eligible to play. The 6-foot-1 VanSolkema played in nine games this season and averaged 2.3 points and 0.4 rebounds. After redshirting as a freshman in 2003-04, VanSolkema played in 19 games in 2004-05 and finished the year with a 2.4 scoring average and a 0.7 rebound mark. He played in 28 games for the Eagles and scored 66 points with 18 rebounds and 24 assists.

FRESHMEN HAVE STRONG START: Two freshmen on the EMU squad have come up big in the early stages of the season. Point guard Carlos Medlock (Detroit, Mich.-Murray Wright) and forward Gino Smith (Milwaukee, WI-Harmony Comm.) have been called on for a lot of minutes this season and both rookies have responded. Medlock is averaging 9.4 points and 1.8 rebounds while averaging 28.4 minutes of action through the first 14 games. Smith has played an average of 28.1 minutes a game and is averaging 8.7 points and 3.5 rebounds. Medlock has started all 14 games while Smith has started 12 times.

EAGLES DEFEAT SAGINAW VALLEY, 71-63 IN EXHIBITION GAME

YPSILANTI, Mich.- - The Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team made the most of its only exhibition game of the 2005-06 season, handing Saginaw Valley a 71-63 setback here Tuesday, Nov. 8, in the Convocation Center.

The game was not only the first on-court action of the 2005-06 season but also marked the first for new EMU Head Coach Charles E. Ramsey.

Ramsey liked what he saw in the early going as his Eagles jumped out to a 38-29 halftime lead, making 14-of-35 shots for 40 percent from the field while holding Saginaw Valley to just 34.6 percent (9-of-26).

The Eagles came out in the second half and built the advantage to 14 points, 52-38, on a layup by Craig Cashen with 12:01 left in the game.

The visitors made a run after that, cutting the EMU lead to six, 55-49, with 8:32 remaining but the Eagles held the Cardinals at bay to record the win.

Senior John Bowler led the Eagles with 25 points and 14 rebounds while freshman guard Carlos Medlock scored 12 and freshman forward Gino Smith added 10.

EAGLES PULL OFF 67-65 UPSET OF CAL

YPSILANTI, Mich.- - The game was billed as a battle of The Teacher vs. The Pupil and in the end The Pupil proved to be a good student as the Eastern Michigan University Eagles recorded a 67-65 non-conference win over a visiting University of California-Berkeley Golden Bears team here Friday night in the Convocation Center.

The Pupil was EMU Head Coach Charles E. Ramsey, an Ypsilanti native and 1992 EMU graduate, who was an assistant coach under The Teacher, California Head Coach Ben Braun, at both EMU and California. Braun was returning to EMU where he became the winningest men's basketball coach in school history from 1986-96 with a 185-132 record. In addition, Braun was honored with induction into the EMU E-Club Athletic Hall of Fame in a brief pregame ceremony.

With all of those scenarios in place at the start of the game, the finish came down to a tough defensive stand as the Eagles clung to a two-point lead with five seconds remaining in the game. California junior Ayinde Ubaka had trouble getting a good look at the hoop, missing a jumper and sophomore DeVon Hardin was unable to convert the put back at the buzzer giving the Eagles the 67-65 victory.

"It's all about our five guys against their five," said EMU Head Coach Ramsey, who earned his first collegiate head coaching victory. "There is no greater time than this time of the year for me, I love college basketball."

"We had some opportunities [in the second half to get out, but we didn't do that very consistently]," said Cal's Braun. "If you want to look at something I think [the freshman are] a bright spot for this team."

The Eagles were led offensively by John Bowler (Chicago, Ill.-Notre Dame) who tallied a double-double with 19 points and 12 rebounds. Gino Smith (Milwaukee, Wisc.-Harmony Christian) chipped in with 16 points and Danny McElhinny (Hermitage, PA-Kennedy Catholic) posted 11 points, connecting on 3-for-5 from three-point range.

SECOND-HALF COLLAPSE DOOMS EAGLES

EMU outsored 52-29 in second half

FARGO, N.D.--The Eastern Michigan University basketball team could not finish what it started here Saturday, Nov. 26, as the North Dakota State University Bison handed the Eagles an 87-65 setback in non-conference action in the Bison Sports Arena.

Head Coach Charles Ramsey's Eagles turned in a strong first half of play, building a five-point lead, 31-26, with 4:59 left when Carlos Medlock (Detroit, Mich.-Murray Wright) cashed in a free throw.

That five-point advantage was whittled to one, 36-35, when North Dakota State's Lorenzo Riley hit a jumper at the buzzer.

That last-second bucket seemed to give the Bison new life as the home team came out ready to roll in the second half.

After claiming a 37-36 lead at the start of the final 20-minute stanza the Bison never looked back, building a 25-point advantage with 1:53 left and then cruising to the 22-point win.

Eastern connected on 44.8 percent in the first half (13-of-29) and shot a dismal 38.1 percent in the second half (8-of-21). North Dakota State came out in the second half and shot 76.4 percent from the field (16-of-21) and made 16-of-20 free throws (80.0 percent).

Senior John Bowler (Chicago, Ill.-Notre Dame H.S.) and Medlock were the only two Eagles in double figures with Bowler scoring 23 points with eight rebounds and Medlock accounting for 10 points.

EMU, now 1-1 on the year, will host the University of Detroit Mercy Tuesday (Nov. 29) at 7 p.m.

DETROIT HANDS EMU A 64-60 SETBACK

Eagles fall to 1-2 on the year

YPSILANTI, Mich.--For the second game this season Eastern Michigan University first-year Head Coach Charles E. Ramsey had to face one of his mentors.

And while the first time ended in a win over California in the Eagles' 2005 season opener, this time around it was the University of Detroit Mercy on the winning side with a 64-60 victory over EMU in a non-conference game played here Tuesday in the Convocation Center.

EMU's Ramsey worked for California head coach Ben Braun on staffs at EMU and Cal. Ramsey was also mentored by Watson during his early years in the coaching business.

The loss drops EMU to 1-2 on the season while Detroit evens its record at 3-3.

"I give University of Detroit all the credit for being a tougher team and making the tough plays down the stretch," said EMU Head Coach Charles Ramsey. "They came up with the big rebounds on both ends of the floor. We had 30 seconds to go and they missed two free throws and they came up with the big offensive putback. We have to be mature enough, and tough enough to come up with that ball."

"It's always nice to come back home and get a win," UDM Head Coach Perry Watson, a 1972 EMU graduate, said. "I thought Charles (Ramsey) and his staff did a real good job in getting his guys to compete and really give us all we could handle. We played four games in six days and we haven't had our legs. I thought we challenged them to have a difference in the paint. I think we outscored them in the paint, 34-20."

And the key play in the paint came in the waning moments of the game when Muhammad Abdur-Rahim missed two free throws with 45 seconds left only to have forward Chuck Bailey follow with a rebound and a putback to give Detroit a 62-57 advantage.

Danny McElhinny (Hermitage, PA-Kennedy Catholic) made a long three-point field goal at the buzzer to cut U-D's winning margin to four, 64-60.

John Bowler (Chicago, Ill.-Notre Dame) led the Eagles with 19 points and nine rebounds while McElhinny added 12, and Cashen scored 11 points.

EMU DROPS 79-63 DECISON TO NATIONALLY RANKED IU

Eagles come up with great effort in loss to Hoosiers

BLOOMINGTON, Ind.--The Eastern Michigan University basketball team overcame a lot of obstacles here Saturday night, but in the end the No. 16 ranked Indiana University Hoosiers just had too much firepower in a 79-63 IU win over the visiting Eagles.

EMU faced the tough task of playing a top 20 team, before a huge partisan crowd of 17,169, in one of the most venerable home facilities in the nation, and the Eagles gave it a strong effort for 40 minutes, their top overall effort of the season before falling by 16.

And after the host Hoosiers ran out to a 40-32 halftime lead, Head Coach Charles Ramsey's EMU crew did not back down, cutting Indiana's lead to five point, 52-47, with 14:25 left when Derek VanSolkema (Grand Rapids, Mich.-South Christian) hit the second of two consecutive three-point field goals.

The Eagles kept it close over the next five minutes before Indiana took charge and built a double-digit advantage that the Eagles could not crack.

EMU senior forward John Bowler (Chicago, Ill.-Notre Dame) led all scorers with a career-best 28 points and was the top rebounder with nine caroms. Bowler connected on 10-of-17 field goals and 8-of-10 free throws while tying his career-best with four assists.

Eastern, now 1-3, shot 43.8 percent for the game (21-of-48) and hit 8-of-21 three-point field goals (38.1 percent) while Indiana made 30-of-54 shots from the field (55.6 percent) and recorded 10-of-25 triple tries (40.0 percent). EMU held a 29-26 advantage on the boards.

Indiana, now 4-1, was led by forward Robert Vaden with 18 points.

EMU DEFEATS VISITING YOUNGSTOWN STATE, 77-71

Medlock notches career high with 21 points and Bowler also adds 21

YPSILANTI, Mich.—The Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team broke a three-game losing streak with a 77-71 non-conference win over Youngstown State here Wednesday night in the Convocation Center.

The Eagles, now 2-3 on the year, were led by freshman Carlos Medlock (Detroit, Mich.-Murray Wright), who scored a career-best 21 points hitting 6-of-10 from the field and connecting on 9-of-10 free throws. Senior John Bowler (Chicago, Ill.-Notre Dame) matched Medlock with 21 points and added nine rebounds. Freshman forward Gino Smith (Milwaukee, Wisc.-Harmony Comm.) chipped in 11 for the Eagles.

Youngstown State, now 1-5 on the season, was led by Keston Roberts with a game-high 25 points, including 3-of-7 three-point field goals.

The game was a tale of two halves as Youngstown State shot a blistering 60% from the field connecting on 15-of-25 shots in the first half while EMU kept it close connecting on 12-for-25 shots for a 48% clip. However, the second half was a different story as EMU opened up by outscoring the Penguins, 20-5, over the first 12 minutes and finished the half hitting 14-of-23 shots for a 60% clip while connecting on two-of-four three pointers. YSU cooled off in the game's final 20 minutes, shooting just 33% from the field.

EMU started to second half on a 9-3 run to regain the lead, 40-39, on a three-point bucket by Danny McElhinny (Heritage, Pa.-Kennedy Catholic). EMU never looked back as their run continued and the lead increased to, 53-42, after two technical free throws by Medlock and a James Matthews (Detroit, Mich.-Denby) layup at the 7:48 mark. The Eagles pushed the lead to, 68-54, with 2:20 remaining and closed out the game with a, 77-71, victory.

In the first half, Youngstown State came out hot from three-point land, connecting on four-of-seven shots from downtown to take a 20-9 lead at the 12:49 mark. Despite the hot shooting by the Penguins, EMU hung tough and pulled within seven points, 28-21, on a Bowler three point play with 6:30 left in the first half.

EMU EDGED BY UWGB

Bowler leads Eagles with 19 points, 13 rebounds, 7 assists

GREEN BAY, WI--The Eastern Michigan University basketball team could not hold on to a double-digit lead and lost a 77-71 non-conference decision to the University of Wisconsin Green Bay Phoenix here Dec. 14 in a game played in the Resch Center.

After battling to a 32-32 tie at intermission, the Eagles came out on fire in the second half, building a 14-point lead, 43-57, on a layup by James Matthews (Detroit, Mich.-Denby-Marquette U.) with 10:23 left in the game.

Head Coach Charles Ramsey's EMU crew continued to keep the offense rolling, holding a 12-point lead with just 4:58 left in the contest.

The Phoenix then clamped on a stifling full-court press and the young Eagles could not handle the pressure, allowing UWGB to get back into the game.

Eastern also failed to convert on the free-throw line late in the game, missing three straight charity tosses.

UWGB outscored the Eagles by a 17-1 count over the final 4:58 in the game to post its four win of the year against five losses.

EMU, now 2-4 on the season, was led by senior forward John Bowler (Chicago, Ill.-Notre Dame) who turned in a double-double with 19 points and 13 rebounds and also added a career-best seven assists. Sophomore Nick Freer (Stevensville, Mich.-Lakeshore) scored a career-best 10 points and junior forward Chris Knaub (South Bend, Ind.-St. Joseph's-Jacksonville (TX) J.C.) also added a career-best 10 points for the Eagles.

EAGLES RALLY IN SECOND HALF FOR 67-62 WIN OVER TULSA

Eastern uses 20-0 run to start the second half

YPSILANTI, Mich.—The Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team came back from a poor first half to out score Tulsa 45-39 in the final 20 minutes on the way to a 67-62 non-conference win here Thursday in the Convocation Center.

Head Coach Charles E. Ramsey's Eagles (3-4) shot just 28 percent in the first half of action, making 7-of-25 field goals and 5-of-10 free throws while also turning the ball over six times. That poor offensive showing ended in a 23-22 Tulsa (4-6) halftime lead.

The Eagles started the second half slowly, allowing Tulsa to score the first four points of the half to build a 27-22 lead.

At that point the Eagles' offense came alive, rolling off 20 unanswered points to build a 42-27 lead with 14:53 left.

The Golden Hurricane refused to give up, however, fighting back to pull within three points twice during the late stages of the game, but the Eagles managed to hit key free throws down the stretch to stave off the visitors.

Freshman point guard Carlos Medlock (Detroit, Mich.-Murray Wright) led the Eagles with 15 points and six steals while junior Craig Cashen (Cincinnati, Ohio-St. Xavier) also had 15 points and added six rebounds. Sophomore Nick Freer (Stevensville, Mich.-Lake Shore) scored a career-best 14 points and connected on 5-of-7 field goals, including 4-of-6 behind the three-point arc.

Tulsa was led by guard Brett McDade with 20 points.

MIAMI PREVAILS IN OVERTIME THRILLER

Eagles let chance slip away in regulation

OXFORD, Ohio --It came down to two misses of the easiest shots in basketball as the Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team lost a 64-59 Mid-American Conference overtime heartbreaker here Saturday, Jan. 7.

With the game tied at 50-all, EMU missed a driving layup with just 1:16 left. The Eagles also missed the front end of a 1-and-1 free-throw situation with 00:35 remaining and neither team was able to score over the final two minutes of regulation, forcing the overtime session.

During the extra minute minutes the home RedHawks outscored the visitors by a 14-9 margin.

EMU, now 3-7 overall and 0-2 in league action, was led by senior John Bowler (Chicago, Ill.-Notre Dame) who scored a career-best 31 points and added 10 rebounds for the 19th double-double of his outstanding career. Senior Danny McElhinny (Hermitage, Pa.-Kennedy Catholic) scored 12 points for the Eagles on four three-point field goals.

Miami, 6-5 overall and 3-0 in MAC play, was led by senior guard William Hatcher with 18 points.

Eastern opened the game with a flurry, racing to a 28-19 halftime lead, with McElhinny hitting all four of his threes in the early going.

Miami came right out with a vengeance at the start of the second half and actually took a one-point lead, 39-38, with 12:26 left in regulation.

The two teams traded baskets through most of the remainder of the game, ending in the thrilling final minutes.

EAGLES DROP MAC HOME OPENER

Quick Ohio start too much to overcome in 75-63 loss

YPSILANTI, Mich. --A visiting Ohio team was just too hot too early here Jan. 11 in the 2006 Mid-American Conference home opener for the Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team.

The Bobcats (9-2; 3-0) hit their first eight shots from the field, including their first three pointers, to build an early 15-point lead after just six minutes of the game and the visitors went on to post the 12-point win.

Eastern (3-8; 0-3) rallied in the late stages of the first half, cutting Ohio's lead to eight, 39-31, on a layup by John Bowler (Chicago, Ill.-Notre Dame), but a series of turnovers cost the Eagles and Ohio entered halftime with a 45-31 lead.

The second half was played evenly, with Eastern holding a slim 32-30 advantage in scoring.

Ohio finished the game hitting 17-of-38 shots for 46.6 percent and the Bobcats were 8-of-20 from the three-point arc for 40 percent. The Bobcats held a 39-37 rebounding edge.

EMU shot 41.3 percent from the field on 26-of-53 shooting, but the Eagles hit just 5-of-19 threes for 26.3 percent.

The Eagles were led in scoring by freshman guard Gino Smith (Milwaukee, WI-Harmony Comm.) who scored 18 while Bowler turned in the 20th double-double of his career with 16 points and 11 rebounds.

Ohio was paced by senior guard Sonny Troutman with 19 points while Leon Williams added 14 and Mychal Green 11.

EAGLES FALL TO KENT STATE, 74-64 ON SPECIAL NIGHT

Eagles retire former great Kennedy McIntosh's number 54 jersey at halftime

YPSILANTI, Mich. --On a night in which it honored one of the all-time greats in Eastern Michigan University men's basketball history, Kennedy McIntosh, the Eagles could not build on that tradition as a visiting Kent State University spoiled the show with a 74-64 Mid-American Conference win over the Eagles in the Convocation Center.

McIntosh, the all-time leading scorer (2,219) and rebounds (1,426) from 1967-71, had his No. 54 home jersey retired in a special halftime ceremony.

The Eagles (3-9; 0-4 MAC) could have used the 6-foot-7 McIntosh in the game, but in the end a second-half comeback fell just short as the Golden Flash posted the 10-point win.

After trailing at the half, 41-27, the Eagles managed to whittle away at the Kent lead, pulling to within one point, 61-60, with 3:44 left when Gino Smith (Milwaukee, WI-Harmony Comm.) scored on a layup.

Eastern would get no closer the rest of the way as the Golden Flashes picked up the pace on the offensive end.

EMU senior forward John Bowler (Chicago, Ill.-Notre Dame H.S.), the top scorer in the Mid-American Conference, continued his outstanding offensive play with the 21st double-double of his career with 23 points and 14 rebounds. Danny McElhinny (Hermitage, Pa.-Kennedy Catholic) added 11 points while Carlos Medlock (Detroit, Mich.-Murray Wright) and Nick Freer (Stevensville, Mich.-Lakeshore) scored 10 each.

Kent (10-5; 4-0 MAC) was led by Jay Youngblood with 23 points. The Golden Flashes hit 55.1 percent of their shots (27-of-49) while Eastern was at 42.3 (22-of-52).

MEN'S BASKETBALL DROPS 79-72 HOME DECISION TO BOWLING GREEN

Eagles out-shoot and out-rebound Falcons in home loss

YPSILANTI, Mich.—The Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team may have won the statistical battle, but the Eagles lost the war as a visiting Bowling Green State University team came up with a 79-72 win here Wednesday night in a Mid-American Conference game in the Convocation Center.

The Eagles (3-10; 0-5) shot 55 percent (23-of-42) from the field to Bowling Green's (7-8; 3-2) 51 percent (26-of-51). Eastern also held a 28-24 advantage in rebounds and tied the Falcons with seven three-point shots, but in the end it was too many turnovers and too much of junior Martin Samarco as the Eagles dropped their fifth straight league tilt.

Eastern committed 23 turnovers in the game to just 14 for the Falcons and the Eagles also failed to cool the hot hand of BGSU forward Martin Samarco who led all scorers with 35 points, hitting 10-of-13 shots from the field and 5-of-7 triple tries. To make matters even worse is the fact that the 6-foot-3 Samarco is a native of Ypsilanti who played his high school ball at Belleville before transferring to BG from Schoolcraft Community College.

Despite trailing by 10, 59-49, with nine minutes left, the Eagles managed to stay in the game and made several runs down the stretch.

The Eagles pulled with three several times in the late stages and were down by three, 72-69, with two minutes left on two free throws by John Bowler (Chicago, Ill.-Notre Dame) but the Eagles could not get over the hump and the Falcons went on to post the seven-point win.

Bowler paced the Eagles with 18 points while Gino Smith (Milwaukee, WI-Harmony Comm.) added 16, Carlos Medlock (Detroit, Mich.-Murray Wright) 11, and Nick Freer (Stevensville, Mich.-Lakeshore) had 10.

EMU TURNS OVER 79-61 LOSS AT AKRON

Eagles commit season-high 24 turnovers in MAC defeat

AKRON, Ohio --A failure to control the basketball spelled doom for the Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team here in the James A. Rhodes Arena Saturday night in a 79-61 Mid-American Conference loss to Akron.

The Eagles (3-11; 0-6 MAC) committed a season-high 24 turnovers as Akron (13-3; 6-0 MAC) rallied from a 37-36 halftime deficit to out score the visitors by a 43-24 count in the second half for the win.

For the Eagles it was a disappointing finish as they squandered an early 12-point first-half lead.

The EMU offense was paced early by the three-point shooting of Danny McElhinny (Hermitage, Pa.-Kennedy Catholic), who connected on three consecutive three-point field goals, and John Bowler (Chicago, Ill.-Notre Dame) who chipped in with eight points as the Eagles raced to several double-digit leads through the first 10 minutes.

Akron then found its offense, and cut EMU's halftime lead to one, 37-36.

The second half was all Akron as the Zips shot 57.7 percent (15-of-26) from the field while limited the Eagles to just 42.1 percent (8-of-19).

Bowler led the Eagles with 16 points and nine rebounds while Carlos Medlock (Detroit, Mich.-Murray Wright) added 13 and Danny McElhinny scored 12.

MEN'S BASKETBALL FALLS TO RIVAL WESTERN MICHIGAN

Freshman Zane Gay notches career high

YPSILANTI, Mich.— The Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team lost a tough contest to inter-state rival Western Michigan, 68-62, here Tuesday night in the Convocation Center in a Mid-American Conference tilt. With the loss, EMU falls to 3-12 (0-7 MAC) while Western improves to 6-11 (3-4 MAC).

The Eagles were led once again by John Bowler (Chicago, Ill.-Notre Dame) who recorded his 22nd career double-double with 15 points and 12 rebounds. Freshman Zane Gay (Olivet, Mich.-Olivet) notched a career-high nine points while grabbing seven boards. Junior Craig Cashen (Cincinnati, Ohio-St. Xavier) also added 15 points. Western was led by senior Brian Snider who tallied 23 points.

"We need to do a better job defending," Eastern Michigan University Head Coach Charles E. Ramsey said. "Sometimes when we need stops, guys have to step up and make them."

"I thought a crucial point in the game came in the first half when we made a run and got it back to 23-20 and then we gave them seven unanswered, just on missed assignments," Ramsey added.

Poor shooting from field and too many turnovers doomed the Eagles from the start as they could not overcome a 12-point halftime deficit to remain winless in the conference standings. For the game, EMU shot 38 percent hitting 21-of-54 shots from the field and committed 19 costly turnovers. On the other hand, Western used hot first-half shooting and held on to win their third conference game of the year. The Broncos hit a blistering 7-of-16 three-pointers for a 43 percent clip and also shot 23-for-53 from the field for a 43 percent pace.

EMU ANNOUNCES 2006-07 MEN'S BASKETBALL RECRUITING CLASS

Head Coach Charles E. Ramsey signs three top prospects

YPSILANTI, Mich.—Eastern Michigan University Head Men's Basketball Coach Charles E. Ramsey has backed up his first recruiting class with a strong second group of incoming student-athletes for the 2006-07 season.

The Eagles signed a versatile trio that includes 6-foot-8 forward Justin Dobbins (Cleveland, Ohio-Glenville), 6-foot-6 wingman William Cooper (Detroit, Mich.-Pershing-Bridgton Academy), and 6-foot-2 combo guard Devon Dumes (Indianapolis, Ind.-Decatur Central).

"I'm elated with this class for a number of reasons," stated Ramsey. "First, I think we landed three young men who are great people and will represent this program and this university in the proper manner. Second, I think this class complements our first recruiting group extremely well in the sense that we wanted to get bigger, more athletic players, which we did with Cooper and Dobbins. We're also more versatile on the perimeter with Dumes because he's equally adept at playing both backcourt positions."

Cooper was part of Ramsey's first recruiting class after averaging 11.5 points, 7.5 boards and 4.0 blocks as a senior at Pershing. Cooper decided to attend Bridgton Prep Academy in Bridgton, Maine, out of high school, but chose to re-sign with Eastern Michigan.

A versatile forward who can play inside and out, the 6-8, 235-pound Dobbins pledged to the Eagles after a successful summer playing for the King James Shooting Stars on the AAU circuit. Dobbins has been tabbed the No. 3 wing forward in the state of Ohio by the National Premier Scouting Service and as one of the top five players in Cleveland by Street & Smith Magazine.

The EMU staff rounded out the class with a key pickup in Dumes, a combo guard who can play both the point and shooting guard positions. Dumes will team with current Eagle freshman point guards to give EMU a potent backcourt for years to come. Dumes was named to the All-Marian County team as a junior, joining the likes of top 10 national recruits Greg Oden and Mike Conley in 2006 and Eric Gordon in 2007.
