Today's Matchup

NEXT UP FOR THE EAGLES: After picking up a trio of victories last weekend in a quad meet, the EMU wrestling team returns to the mats this afternoon with a 2 p.m. match against No. 6 ranked Central Michigan University. The meet will be held in EMU's Bowen Field House. The Eagles sport a 5-6 mark in dual matches this year, while the Chippewas are 8-4 after sweeping Lock Haven and Ashland last weekend at the Wendy's Duals.

LOOKING TO SNAP THE STREAK: The Eagles will look to end a 14-match winless streak against Central Michigan today in Ypsilanti. The Chippewas have defeated Eastern Michigan in 14 consecutive duals, as the Eagles' last win over CMU was a 17-16 verdict during the 1990-91 season.

EMU OPENS NEW WRESTLING FACILITY: Last weekend Eastern Michigan University dedicated "The Rock", its new Dean L. Rockwell Wrestling Facility in a ceremony Saturday, Jan. 21, in Warner/Bowen Field House honoring EMU Hall of Famer Dean Rockwell and Eastern's 24 former All-American wrestlers. The ceremony preceded a triple-dual meet where the Eagles celebrated by defeating Eastern Illinois, Duquesne, and Olivet College.

The new facility is located in a remodeled portion of Warner Gymnasium and includes a new wrestling room that features two full mats with 18 workout circles, as well as an equipped cardiovascular and training area. The facility also includes a new suite of coaches offices adjacent to the practice room. Later this year, new locker room facilities will also be added.
