IT'S PALADINS
We're the "Pala-dins", NOT "Pah-ladins", "Pah-ladians", or "Purple" Paladins, just as South Carolina isn't called the "Garnet" Gamecocks or Clemson the "Orange" Tigers.

WHAT'S A PALADIN?
A "Paladin" is a knight on a horse, a paragon of chivalry; a heroic champion; a strong supporter or defender of a cause; and any of the 12 peers of French emperor Charlemagne's court. While history reveals knights were not always mounted men-at-arms, the modern image of a knight, mounted and in full armor, has undoubtedly influenced the concept of Furman's mascot.

WE'VE BEEN PLAYING THIS SPORT A LONG TIME
The 2026 campaign marks the 121st season of football at Furman, which has played 1,209 games (656-515-38) in its history (began in 1889). Furman's 656 victories are tops among all current Southern Conference schools.

SETTING THE SCENE
Furman's challenging September schedule continues this Saturday when the Paladins (2-2) travel to Richmond, Va., to take on the FCS 19th-ranked Richmond Spiders (3-1) in a 2:00 p.m. game at Robins Stadium. The contest will mark the first clash between the two programs since 2005 when the Paladins and Spiders met in NCAA FCS (then known as I-AA) second round playoff action at Richmond's City Stadium, the Spiders' former home. Furman won that contest, 24-20, and has claimed the last three meetings in the series with its former Southern Conference rival. Richmond represents the fourth consecutive ranked opponent on Furman's September slate, which began on Sept. 5 at FBS 18th-ranked Tennessee and also includes a Sept. 12 contest at reigning SoCon champion and 14th-ranked Mercer and last Saturday's clash with reigning HBSU national champion and 16th-ranked S.C. State, a winner of 12 consecutive games (2nd longest streak in FCS).

SERIES NOTES
Saturday's contest will mark the 26th football meeting between Furman and Richmond and first clash since 2005, when the Paladins claimed a 24-20 verdict at Richmond in NCAA FCS (known then as I-AA) second round playoff action. The Spiders lead the all-time series 15-10 and are 7-6 versus Furman in games played in Richmond, though the Paladins have won the last two encounters in the Spiders' hometown, including a 17-7 verdict registered in 2002. The Paladins and Spiders are scheduled to play in Greenville in 2029.

LAST TIME OUT
GREENVILLE, S.C. (Sept. 19, 2026) — FCS No. 16 South Carolina State stopped Furman quarterback Connor Ackerley two yards short on a fourth and 10 play with 2:20 remaining in the game to hold off the 24th-ranked Paladins, 20-17, on Saturday night at Paladin Stadium.

After trailing 17-3 at the half, Furman's Nathan Chapman converted on field goals of 49 and 44 yards to trim the S.C. State lead to 17-9 with 13:57 to play.

Jett Jackson knocked thru a 28-yard field goal to extend the margin to 20-9 with 3:03 left, but the Paladins answered on their first play from scrimmage on the next drive as Ackerley found Luke Shields behind the defense for a 67-yard scoring strike. The two-point conversion pass to Daniel Haughton trimmed the margin to 20-17 with 2:47 remaining.

Furman (2-2) forced the Bulldogs into a three-and-out on the next possession to get the ball back at its own 28 yard line with 2:20 to go. After three consecutive incompletions, Jordan

Franklin and Roderick Kelly chased down Ackerley two yards short of the first down marker on a scramble to stop the Furman drive with 1:57 on the clock.

The Bulldogs (4-0) held Furman's offense to just 317 yards, including 53 on the ground.

South Carolina State quarterback Keely Watson connected with DJ Maultsby on a 65-yard touchdown toss on the game's first play from scrimmage, and Josh Shaw scored from nine yards out on the Bulldogs' next possession to push the lead to 14-0. Watson completed 12-of-25 passes for 186 yards as S.C. State compiled 332 yards of total offense.

Ackerley entered the game in the third quarter with the Paladins trailing 17-3 and sparked the offense. The junior went 10-for-18 for 184 yards and a touchdown. Braylon Peebles led the Paladin defense with 10 tackles and AK Burrell recorded an interception off a deflection in the second half.

LAST MEETING

RICHMOND, VA. (Dec. 3, 2005) — Ingle Martin passed for 249 yards and a touchdown, and Jerome Felton rushed for 92 yards and a pair of scores to propel nationally third-ranked Furman past 12th-ranked Richmond, 24-20, in NCAA I-AA quarterfinal playoff round action at University of Richmond Stadium.

Martin, whose 18-yard touchdown pass to Daric Carter in the first quarter established a new school career touchdown passes record (42), breaking the old standard set by head coach Bobby Lamb (41, 1982-85), also became the Paladins' all-time leading passer with 5,513 yards, surpassing Braniff Bonaventure (5,379 yards, 1992-96). The Nashville, Tenn., senior completed 17-of-25 passes in the contest, including a career high 11 to All-Southern Conference wide receiver Justin Stepp, who also racked up a career high 143 yards in receptions.

Furman outgained Richmond 443-348, rushing for 194 yards and passing for 249, and tallied a season best three quarterback sacks. William Freeman topped the Paladins' defensive effort with 10 tackles and 1.5 sacks, and Wallace Artis added eight stops, two tackles-for-loss, and a sack.

The Paladins fell behind 7-0 on the game's first possession when Richmond, on the strength of 42-yard run by Tutt to the Furman 18, covered 66 yards in five plays for a 15-yard touchdown strike from Tutt to Joe Stewart less than two minutes into the contest.

The Paladins answered by moving 77 yards in nine plays for a score, which came on Daric Carter's 18-yard catch and run into the end zone to knot the score a 7-7 at the 9:39 mark of the first quarter.

Richmond regained the lead on its second possession after Tutt dropped back to pass before scrambling off the right side into the end zone untouched to cap a 10-play, 60-yard drive.

2026 FURMAN FOOTBALL WEEKLY

FurmanPaladins.com (YouTube) — Tuesdays, 1:00 PM

Furman went up 17-14 in the second quarter, scoring 10 points on a 2-yard run by Felton and a 36-yard field goal by Scott Beckler.

Taking the second half kickoff, the Paladins moved 39 yards to the Richmond 23, but on a third-and-two play Felton's fumble was recovered by the Spiders' Dan Mangiero.

Richmond, however, failed to capitalize and could muster just 68 yards on its next five possessions against Furman's defense. The Paladin, offense, meanwhile, padded its advantage with a four-play, 63-yard drive in the third quarter, highlighted by a 46-yard completion from Martin to Patrick Sprague to the Richmond 17. Three plays later Felton bulled over from 1-yard out to make it 24-14.

Following a Richmond punt, Furman appeared set to take total control on the game by moving 68 yards to the Spider 10, but Daric Carter's 8-yard run to the 2 was nullified when the Paladins were penalized 10 yards for holding. After a Martin incompletion on third down, Beckler failed to convert a 38-yard field goal, and the Spiders regained possession and methodically moved 79 yards in 13 plays for a 13-yard touchdown pass from Tutt to Ben Teufel with 8:20 left. A bad snap from center on the PAT, however, allowed Furman to maintain a 24-20 lead.

The Paladins took the ensuing kickoff and notched three first downs and burned 4:33 of clock, but the drive stalled and a Martin pooch kick was downed at the UR 15 with 3:47 to go.

Richmond used seven plays to advance to the Furman 33, but a 15-yard run by Tim Hightower to the 18 was wiped out with a holding call, which gave the Spiders first-and-20 at the Furman 43. After two plays failed to advance the football, Tutt scrambled for 13 yards to the 30. The Paladins appeared to have halted Richmond's advance when, on a fourth-and-seven play, Tutt was tackled following a two-yard rush to the 28, but Furman was whistled for an offsides infraction, which moved to the ball to the 25. On fourth down, Tutt rolled left, but his pass to Matt Hale fell incomplete, and Furman took over on downs with 1:03 left.

CHALLENGING SEPTEMBER CONTINUES AT RICHMOND

Furman's challenging September continues this Saturday when the Paladins travel to face FCS 19th-ranked Richmond. In the Spiders Furman will face their fourth consecutive ranked foe this month, following FBS 18th-ranked Tennessee (Sept. 5), FCS 14th-ranked Mercer (Sept. 12), and FCS 16th-ranked S.C. State (Sept. 19). Only one previous time in Furman history has Furman faced four consecutive ranked regular season opponents — in Sept. of 2016: 12th-ranked Michigan State, FCS 15th-ranked The Citadel, FCS 4th-ranked Chattanooga, and 17th-ranked Coastal Carolina. Furman went 0-4 in those contests.

FURMAN VERSUS THE PATRIOT LEAGUE

Furman shares football history with seven current members of the Patriot League, though most of it was registered against schools who previously were members of the Yankee Conference, CAA, and in the case of William & Mary and Richmond, the Southern Conference. Furman is 10-2 is its last 12 games against current members of the Patriot League.

NEW QUARTERBACK

Junior Connor Ackerley is in line to make his first start as a Paladin this Saturday against Richmond after taking over for the injured Jake Garcia in Saturday's 20-17 loss to 16th-ranked South Carolina State. With Furman trailing 17-3, Ackerley came on in the third quarter against the Bulldogs and completed 10-of-18 passes for 164 yards and a touchdown — a 67-yard strike to Luke Shields — that pulled the Paladins to within 20-17 following a two-point conversion pass with 2:47 remaining. Ackerely spent the 2024 and '25 seasons at Western New Mexico, where he passed for 3,620 yards and 36 touchdowns.

SIMMONS, TARVER LOG FIRST STARTS

Sophomore linebacker Nick Simmons and graduate safety Joshua Tarver made their Paladin starting debuts on Saturday against 14th-ranked South Carolina State. Their insertion into the lineup marked the first change to the offensive and defensive starting corps this season. Simmons recorded three tackles, including one for loss, and Tarver had two stops, one of which was for loss.

BUCKLING DOWN

After surrendering 145 yards and two touchdowns to South Carolina State in the Bulldogs' first two possessions, Furman's defense buckled down the rest of the way, especially in the second half. Over the game's final 30 minutes, the Paladins surrendered only three points and 130 total yards.

DEFENSE KEYS VICTORY AT MERCER

Furman's defense keyed Furman's 20-13 victory over Mercer, registering five takeaways, including four interceptions, a fumble recovery, and four sacks, as well as limiting the Bears to just 2-for-16 on third down conversions. The four interceptions were the most by Furman since the Paladins picked off four passes in a 45-10 win over Tennessee Tech in Greenville in 2023, and the five takeaways represented the second most recorded by the Paladins since that same contest versus Tennessee Tech. Mercer's 2-for-16 third down conversion rate (.125) is the third lowest recorded by a Paladin foe in the Clay Hendrix era: .100 (1x10), Samford, 2020 (44-37 Furman OT win) and .111 (1x9), VMI, 2024 (21-17 VMI win).

EASTERLING LEADS INTERCEPTION PARADE

Caleb Easterling led the way in Furman's four-interception parade in the win over Mercer, picking off two Bear aerials to go along with seven tackles and a pass breakup. The performance netted him SoCon Defensive Player of the Week. His pass breakup came on third down and forced a punt, and his first interception halted a second quarter Mercer scoring threat at the Furman 31. With the Paladins trailing 6-3 late in the third quarter, he stepped in front of another pass to give Furman the ball at the Mercer 46, setting up a Paladin touchdown strike on the next play that put the Paladins up, 10-6. In four starts this season Easterling has tallied 20 tackles, two interceptions, a forced fumble and two pass breakups. A year ago he redshirted after appearing in four games and making his mark as a kickoff return specialist, which included a 100-yard kickoff return versus Mercer. He was named to the 2025 SoCon All-Freshman Team.

SHORT STEPS UP

Trevor Short fashioned a breakout performance in the win over Mercer, recording two sacks, a forced fumble, and a fumble recovery. The junior bandit's two quarterback takedowns were part of Furman's four-sack effort, and his recovery following his own forced fumble was part of the Paladins five takeaways — the most since the six recorded against Tennessee Tech in a 45-10 win in 2023.

TARVER PUNT RETURN PROVES CRUCIAL

Graduate transfer Joshua Tarver came through with one of the most crucial plays in Furman's 20-13 victory over Mercer, returning a fourth quarter punt 42 yards to the Mercer 34 to set up a Nathan Chapman 43-yard field goal that tied the game, 13-13. His interception on the game's final play — Furman's fourth of the game — sealed the triumph. Tarver played in 32 games at Yale, where he totaled 94 tackles, six interceptions, and 18 pass breakups in his Bulldog career, which included a 2025 Ivy League championship.

CHAPMAN DELIVERS CRUCIAL FIELD GOAL

Nathan Chapman came up big in the win over Mercer, converting 2-of-3 field goal attempts, including a game tying 43-yard fourth quarter conversion that tied the game at 13-13. He also registered effective work on kickoffs that saw the Bears register only 50 yards on four returns (12.5 avg.). His 50-yard field goal against Tennessee made him the 10th Paladin to connect from at least 50 yards.

TOP CROWD

The Paladins played in front of 101,915 fans at Tennessee — the most in Furman history. The previous standard was 92,554 vs. LSU in 2013.

100-YARD RUSHING PERFORMANCE

Isaiah Davis' 113-yard rushing performance (8 att., 1 TD) vs. Tennessee was the first 100-yard outing by a Paladin against a FBS opponent since 2014 (Hank McCloud vs. South Carolina, 13 att./106 yds./TD).

LIPSCOMB DELIVERS IMMEDIATE IMPACT

A highly regarded January enrollee, sophomore bandit Eli Lipscomb fashioned an impact performance in his Paladin debut, delivering a team high six tackles, three tackles for loss, a sack, and a fumble recovery in the 20-3 win over Anderson. He backed that up with a solid outing versus Tennessee, notching six tackles, including two for loss, a sack, and a fumble recover. He was credited with five stops in the road win over Mercer. Through four games he has 20 tackles and a team leading six stops for loss. A year ago the Kings Mountain, N.C., product registered 33 tackles, nine tackles for loss, and seven sacks as a true freshman at Wingate (N.C.) University.

PEEBLES ON THE RADAR

True freshman safety Braylon Peebles, a January enrollee, impressed Furman's coaching staff from day one, and it resulted in him earning the start and playing well (3 tack., 2 PBU) in the season opening win over Anderson. He followed that performance with a team high nine tackles versus Tennessee, and recorded another team high 10 stops versus S.C. State Peebles, who enjoyed an outstanding prep career at Raleigh, N.C.'s Cardinal Gibbons High School, where he was a Shrine Bowl selection, has an impressive family tree. His grandfather, Douglas Wilkerson, was a first round NFL Draft pick in 1970 by the Houston Oilers out of North Carolina Central and played many years with the San Diego Chargers, earning All-Pro three times and induction into the Chargers' Hall of Fame.

ROSTER NOTE

Following the recent adoption of the NCAA's new five-year, age-based eligibility model, Furman's football roster now reflects a player's current academic year from the five NCAA designations: Fr., So, Jr., Sr., 5th Year.

FIRST TIME STARTERS

Nine Paladins registered their first starts for Furman in its season opening, 20-3 win over Anderson. The five new starters on offense included guards Bryce Rainwater and Alofaletauia Maluia, wide receivers Luke Shields, and Daniel Haughton, and quarterback Jake Garcia. Defensively the four newbie starters included bandit Eli Lipscomb, inside linebacker Caleb Ellison, cornerbacks Caleb Easterling, and safety Braylon Peebles.

CORRALED 'EM

Furman held Anderson to only six rushing yards on 23 attempts. That's the second lowest total surrendered to a opponent in the Clay Hendrix era (2017-Present). The 160 total yards surrendered to Anderson is the third lowest tally by a foe in that same time span.

FEWEST RUSHING YARDS BY OPPONENT (2017-Present)

DEFENSIVE LINE DEPTH

Furman's most experienced and deepest position group this season is its defensive line, where 16 players representing the four positions of nose guard, tackle, end, and bandit include 10 letterman and seven performers who now own a combined 73 starts. The impressive profile is highlighted by consensus All-American and preseason Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Year defensive end Joshua Stoneking (79 tackles, 14.5 sacks, 23.5 TFL in '25), who leads a cast of three players named to the preseason All-SoCon squad that includes tackle Demetrius Baldwin, Jr., a SoCon All-Freshman Team pick a year ago, and bandit Eli Lipscomb (33 tackles, 7 sacks, 9 TFL in '25), a transfer from Wingate.

WELCOME BACK

Furman welcomed back tight end Jackson Pryor, who suffered a season ending ankle injury early in the 2025 campaign. As a true freshman in 2024, Pryor emerged as a quality performer, catching 16 passes for 239 yards and two touchdowns, including a game winning six-yard grab with a minute to go in a 17-16 road victory over The Citadel. Named to the Southern Conference All-Freshman Team, he was a preseason All-SoCon pick heading into the 2025 season.

BRAINS AND BRAUN

Defensive end Tanner Schuck excels on the field and off, as evidenced by the 41 tackles, including 3.5 for loss, he racked up in 10 starts a year ago, but that's just half his story. Shuck earned his bachelor's degree in business administration last spring after only three years, and that came after he took home Furman's Dr. John M. Block Award for the highest GPA (4.00) by a male student-athlete. He's a two-time CSC Academic All-District selection.

NEW FACES ON OFFENSIVE FRONT

Furman's starting offensive line features a pair of transfers in right guard Alofaletauia Maluia (pronounced Ah-loh-fah-lua-tau-EE-uh, Mah-lou-EE-uh) and right tackle Parker Peterson. Maluia spent the last two years at West Georgia, where made eight starts and helped lead the Wolves to an 8-3 record and No. 24 final ranking in the AFCA Poll in 2025. Peterson comes to Furman following three years at Memphis.

PRESEASON POLL

Furman was a preseason No. 6 pick in a poll of Southern Conference head coaches. The Paladins posted a 6-6 overall record and 4-4 league mark a year ago, tying for fifth in the league standings with Chattanooga.

GRADUATE ADDITIONS

Furman's 2026 roster includes nine graduate transfers, plus five homegrown (Furman) graduates. The veteran newbies include Aaron Davis (CB/Bucknell), Jake Garcia (QB/Michigan), Daniel Haughton (WR/Dartmouth), Alofaletauia Maluia (OG/West Georgia), Parker Peterson (OT/Memphis), Luke Shields (WR/Tennessee Tech), C.J. Stokes (RB/Charlotte), Joshua Tarver (S/Yale), and Dwartney Wortham (WR/UCF). The five Paladins who recently secured their Furman undergraduate degrees include Eli Brasher (OT), Ben Croasdale (RB), Ethan Harris (WR), Tanner Schuck (BAN), and Gram Smithson (WR).

FIVE UNDERGRADUATE TRANSFERS

Five undergraduate transfers have joined the Paladins this season. They include Connor Ackerley (QB/Western New Mexico), Dylan Gomez (PK,P/College of the Canyons), Eli Lipscomb (DE/Wingate), Nick Segarra (TE/Ohio), and Michael Woods, Jr. (CB/Northwood).

EIGHT PALADINS LAND PRESEASON ALL-SOCON RECOGNITION

Eight Furman Paladins were selected to the 2026 Preseason All-Southern Conference squad, as selected by the head coaches. Leading the way was senior defensive end Joshua Stoneking, who was tabbed as league preseason defensive player of the year. Stoneking, a consensus 2025 first team All-American, was joined on the first team defense by inside linebacker Raleigh Herbert. Six Paladins were named to the preseason second team, including center Chris Luna, defensive linemen Demetrius Baldwin, Jr., and Eli Lipscomb, defensive backs AK Burrell and Josh Tarver, and return specialist Caleb Easterling.

A LOOK BACK AT STONEKING'S 2025 SEASON

After appearing in one game as a true freshman in 2023 and playing in eight games as a reserve (13 tackles, TFL, 2 PBU) in 2024, defensive end Joshua Stoneking burst onto the national scene a year ago by totaling a team leading 79 tackles and FCS highs in sacks (14.5), tackles for loss (23.0), and tackle yards for loss (132). He also totaled nine quarterback hurries, two forced fumbles, two pass breakups, and a blocked kick on the way to being named first team All-American by seven organizations (Stats Perform, AFCA, AP, Walter Camp, FCS ADA, Football Central, Phil Steele) while also capturing FCS ADA National Defensive Player of the Year honors and finishing as runner-up in Buck Buchanan Award balloting administered by Stats Perform. His 14.5 sacks ranks fourth in Furman history and 23.5 TFLs the third highest tally by a Paladin.

THREE SCRUBBED GAMES IN HENDRIX ERA

Furman has had three games — all home contests — canceled in head coach Clay Hendrix's nine years as head coach. Games canceled during the Hendrix era include a Sept. 15, 2018, game versus Colgate (Hurricane Florence), a Apr. 17, 2021, contest versus Wofford after the Terriers opted out of the pandemic spring finale, and a Sept. 28, 2024, game against Samford (Hurricane Helene). The canceled Colgate game was likely very costly, because the Paladins claimed a share of the 2018 SoCon championship in a 6-4, 6-2 SoCon campaign, but the six wins all but crushed their chances to earn an at-large playoff bid.

NFL PALADINS

Furman has three players on NFL rosters — wide receiver Ryan Miller '23 of the Miami Dolphins, cornerback Micah Robinson '23 of the Tennessee Titans, and long snapper Julian Ashby '24 of the New England Patriots.

Miller, a three-time All-America selection for the Paladins, played in 54 games and made 43 starts during his Paladin tenure (2019-22) on the way to recording 151 receptions (4th in FU history) for 2,146 yards (5th in FU history) and a school career standard 28 touchdown catches. He spent three years with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2023-25) before a brief stint with the New York Giants before recently signing with the Miami Dolphins.

Robinson was a four-year letterman (2020-23) for the Paladins who saw playing time in 42 games and made 22 starts while registering 103 tackles, five interceptions, and 21 passes defensed. As a senior he tallied 34 tackles and two pickoffs in helping the Paladins to a 10-3 record, SoCon championship, and quarterfinal round appearance in the FCS playoffs. After securing his undergraduate degree in communications from Furman, he played the 2024 season at Tulane. He was selected by the Green Bay Packers the seventh round of the 2025 draft and later signed with the Titans.

Ashby was also a four-year letterman (2020-23) for Furman and one of the school's most highly decorated student-athletes. He received the Dr. John M. Block Academic Award, which is presented to the male senior with the highest highest GPA, and the Dr. Gary Clark Student-Athlete Achievement Award that "recognizes a senior, female or male, who has embodied throughout their entire Furman career what it truly means to be a Paladin student-athlete through academics, athletics, campus involvement, and community service." After earning his undergraduate degree in physics, Ashby played the 2024 season at Vanderbilt and was a seventh round pick of the Patriots in 2025.

A summa cum laude graduate with a 3.96 grade point average in physics, he landed both Phil Steele All-America honors and College Sports Coordinators Academic All-America laurels for Division I, encompassing both Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) and Football Championship Subdivision (FCS). He handled snapping duties for all Furman PATs, field goals, and punts over his four seasons, successfully executing 412 snaps. He also played a key role in Furman's 10-3 campaign in 2023 that was highlighted by the Paladins' SoCon championship and quarterfinal round appearance in the FCS playoffs. Furman finished the campaign ranked sixth in the AFCA FCS Poll. Ashby played the 2024 season at Vanderbilt.

FURMAN-DAVIDSON ANNOUNCE FUTURE GAMES

Furman and Davidson are set to renew their football series with a pair of games scheduled for the 2029 and 2030 seasons. The Paladins and Wildcats will meet on Sept. 1, 2029, in Davidson, N.C., and play Aug. 31, 2030, in Greenville. The two former Southern Conference foes last played in 1987 in Greenville, in a game won by Furman, 58-3. The Paladins have captured the last 11 meetings and lead the all-time series, 39-15.

FURMAN FUTURE FBS GAMES

Furman has three future games scheduled against FBS foes beyond the 2026 campaign:

Introduced as Furman's new head football coach on December 19, 2016, Clay Hendrix is entering his 10th season at the helm and 31st year with a Paladin program he has represented with distinction as a player, assistant coach, and now head mentor.

Furman's results under Hendrix reflect a winning legacy, evidenced in the fact that in now 44 years of collegiate football, he has been part of 35 winning teams that have combined to go 342-194-3 (.637).

The latest evidence of Hendrix's successful work came in 2023 when Furman posted another 10-win season, reeled off eight straight victories, and claimed the program's Southern Conference best 15th championship, thereby clinching the league's FCS playoff berth and first-round bye. After knocking off Chattanooga, 26-7, in a round of 16 clash, the Paladins dropped a 35-28 overtime decision at second-ranked Montana, the eventual national runner-up. Furman completed the season ranked No. 6 in the AFCA final poll — the Paladins' highest finish since 2005.

The FCS playoff appearance in 2023 marked the fourth for the Paladins under Hendrix, who has compiled a 60-43 overall (.583) record and 46-25 (.648) SoCon worksheet as a head coach.

Furman's success under Hendrix, honored in 2023 as SoCon and AFCA Region II Coach of the Year, has been the product of many factors, including solid recruiting and player development/retention. That season five Paladins earned All-America honors and 19 players landed All-SoCon laurels, led by league offensive player of the year, quarterback Tyler Huff, and Jacobs Blocking Award recipient, offensive guard Jacob Johanning. In addition, two Paladins — Johanning and tight end Mason Pline — signed NFL free agent contracts. In 2025 two other program graduates, long snapper Julian Ashby and cornerback, Micah Robinson, were seventh round draft selections of the New England Patriots and Green Bay Packers, respectively.

In addition to on-the-field accolades, Furman registered impressive performances in other areas, including Huff capturing the prestigious Armed Forces Merit Award, as selected by the Football Writers Association of America. Approximately 60 percent of the program's student-athletes over the last three years have earned SoCon Academic Honor Roll recognition, and Paladin football has remained a major factor in ranking among the nation's best in NCAA Academic Performance Rating (APR) and Graduation Success Rate (GSR) metrics. In addition, the last three recipients of Furman's Dr. John M. Block Academic Award, presented annually to the male student-athlete with the highest GPA, have been football players — the most recent honoree being Tanner Shuck, a two-year starter who graduated this past spring with a 4.00 GPA.

Hendrix returned to his alma mater in Dec. of 2016, following a decade as an assistant coach at the United States Air Force Academy. In his first season at the helm, he engineered Furman to an 8-5 campaign and FCS playoff appearance, improving on a three-win 2016 season and defying a preseason No. 7 SoCon tab by playing for a share of the league title in the regular season finale en route to finishing as a consensus No. 20 in two major FCS polls — a body of work that netted him SoCon Coach of the Year honors.

In 2018 Furman took another step under Hendrix's guidance, overcoming an 0-3 start and having its home opener against Colgate canceled due to Hurricane Florence by winning six of its final seven games, including a 34-14 triumph over FCS No. 4 Wofford. The Paladins' 35-30 road victory over Mercer in the regular season finale secured a 6-4 record and share of the program's then-14th SoCon championship — the most by any school in league history.

In 2019 the Paladins delivered again, posting an 8-5 record and earning an at-large bid to the FCS playoffs and AFCA No. 19 final national ranking.

After navigating through the pandemic season of 2020, Hendrix's 2021 squad won its final two games to finish 6-5 and set the stage for the 10-3 campaign in 2022 — the program's best since 2005. Furman paced the FCS in turnovers gained (29) and blocked kicks (10) in 2022, and produced the first three-time All-American in program history in All-American tight end Ryan Miller, now a four-year NFL veteran.

That Hendrix has orchestrated an impressive rebound of Paladin football was just what Furman football supporters envisioned when he was named the 23rd head coach in program history, which dates from 1889.

While at Air Force, where he coached the offensive line and served as offensive coordinator for five seasons, as well as associate head coach over the final seven campaigns, Hendrix played a pivotal role in the Falcons producing some of the top rushing attacks in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS). That productivity translated into a 77-53 record (.592), nine bowl game appearances, and four Commander-in-Chief Trophies, which is awarded annually based on head-to-head results among the three service academies.

Air Force led the Mountain West Conference (MWC) in rushing and ranked in the top 10 nationally eight times in the last 10 years due, in part, to the quality work of Hendrix-directed offensive lines. All told 19 Falcon offensive linemen garnered all-conference recognition and 21 players under Hendrix's guidance landed Academic All-MWC honors during his tenure in Colorado Springs.

In 2016 Air Force posted a 10-3 record and 5-3 mark in the MVC, won its fourth Commander-in-Chied Trophy in the decade, and defeated Alabama in the Arizona Bowl following a 27-20 win over 19th-ranked Boise State on Nov. 25. The Falcons ranked third nationally in rushing offense (322.8 ypg), seventh in FBS in third down conversion percentage (51.4), and averaged over 451.4 yards per game in total offense along with 34.3 points per game.

The victory over Boise State represented the final win in an impressive list of Air Force triumphswith Hendrix on staff. In 2014 the Falcons defeated 21stranked Colorado State (27-24) during the regular season and knocked off Western Michigan (38-24) in the Idaho Potato Bowl to complete a 10-3 campaign. In 2010 Air Force downed Georgia Tech (14-7) in the Independence Bowl, a year after beating 25th-ranked Houston (45-20) in the Armed Forces Bowl. In his first season there, the Falcons handed Notre Dame its biggest setback (41-24) to a service academy since 1963.

Hendrix paved his way to Air Force with an exemplary 19-year record of accomplishment as an assistant coach at Furman, where he served as offensive line coach each year, recruiting coordinator for three seasons, and assistant head coach over his final five campaigns. From 1988-2006 he helped the Paladins post a 155-77-1 record (.667), including a 100-45 Southern Conference mark (.690) that led to six league championships, 11 NCAA FCS (formerly I-AA) playoff appearances, a national runner-up finish in 2001, and the 1988 national championship — the first by a SoCon member school and a private university in FCS history.

Over his final eight seasons on the Paladin staff (1999-06), Furman registered a 73-28 record (.723) and 47-14 worksheet (.770) against SoCon competition en route to three league championships, seven FCS playoff berths, 2001 national runner-up campaign, and seven top 10 final national rankings.

Hendrix-directed offensive lines and powerful rushing attacks were central in one of the greatest eras in Furman history. In 1999 Furman knocked off North Carolina (28-3) on the strength of a 177-yard rushing performance by tailback Louis Ivory, and in 2000 averaged a school record 307.1 yards per game rushing to spearhead Ivory's run to the Walter Payton Award, the FCS equivalent to the Heisman Trophy. The next year a Paladin line featuring three All-Americans keyed a 12-3 campaign, highlighted by a 24-17 playoff semifinal road win over Georgia Southern that halted the Eagles' NCAA record 39game home winning streak.

In 2005 a potent Paladin ground game was central to Furman scoring 64 touchdowns and averaging 470.0 yards per game — both school standards.
In recognition terms, 25 Hendrix-coached players earned first team all-conference honors and 13 garnered All-America laurels during his Paladin assistant coaching tenure. In addition, five products — center Steve Duggan (1990), guard Ben Hall (1999), tackle Josh Moore (2000), tackle Donnie Littlejohn (2001), and tackle Ben Bainbridge (2004) — captured the SoCon's Jacobs Blocking Award. A sixth recipient, tackle Joel Bell, who was recruited and developed by Hendrix, garnered the award in 2008 and was inducted into the university's athletic hall of fame in 2022. Tackle Matthew Schmidt became the seventh Hendrix player to land the prestigious Jacobs Blocking Award in 2017, and guard Jacob Johanning selection in 2023 made it eight honorees.

The Hendrix Family: Cal, Clay, LeeAnn, and Mac

Four of Furman's SoCon leading 15 Academic AllAmericans — guards Eric Walter (1990 & '91), Adi Filipovic (2006), and Julian Ashby (2023) — are Hendrix products.

A native of Commerce, Ga., where he was a threesport standout in football, wrestling, and golf as a prep, he starred as an offensive guard on the gridiron, helping Commerce High School to a 13-1 record and 1981 Class 2A state championship.

He came to Furman in 1982 on scholarship under head coach Dick Sheridan and over the next four years, including three seasons as a starter under the tutelage of offensive line coach Robbie Caldwell, played a role in the Paladins posting a 39-10-1 record, winning SoCon championships in 1982, '83, and '85, and finishing as national runner-up his senior year — a season that netted him all-state recognition. Furman also recorded impressive wins over South Carolina (1982), Georgia Tech (1983), and North Carolina State (1984 & '85) during his playing tenure.

Following graduation in 1986, he joined Sheridan's staff at N.C. State for the 1986 and '87 seasons — the first of which featured a Peach Bowl appearance. The Wolfpack beat ACC regular season champion Clemson and the seventh-ranked Tigers again the following year.

He returned to Furman in 1988 as offensive line coach under head coach Jimmy Satterfield, and his influence quickly led to success as Furman registered a 13-2 record and claimed the NCAA FCS championship with a 17-12 triumph over Georgia Southern — the first national title by a SoCon school and first by a private institution in division history.

He and his wife, LeeAnn Hedgpeth '90 of Taylors, S.C., have two sons, Cal and Mac.
