GAME OVERVIEW

Geneva hosts Allegheny for Hall of Fame night as the Geneva Athletics Department inducts its 2026 class prior to the game. The Golden Tornadoes come in with their first losing streak of the season after two last-second losses to Westminster and Saint Vincent in the last two weeks. Geneva outgained both opponents, including outgaining Saint Vincent by 156 yards on Saturday, but turnovers and special teams mistakes have really hurt the GTs in the last two weeks. Allegheny comes in off a 46-29 victory over Bethany, and the Gators are off to their best start to a season since 2009 when Allegheny started the year 7-1. The Gators have been led by a strong defense, giving up just 275 yards per game, second best in the PAC.

GENEVA GAME NOTES

-- Saturday was another frustrating result for the Golden Tornadoes, their second straight close loss. Geneva controlled stretches of the game, outgaining Saint Vincent by 156 yards, but special teams mistakes, including a blocked punt that was returned for a touchdown, as well as an interception in the end zone in the closing seconds, were too much to overcome.

-- Quarterback Caleb Romano had his most prolific day of the season, passing for 441 yards, which is the fifth highest total in program history. Romano now owns three of the top five biggest single game passing marks in history. He's leading the conference with 1,988 yards passing this season, and he's up to 6,323 yards passing for his career, needing less than 200 yards to move into the top five in program history.

-- Two freshmen have emerged at wide receiver in Jerry Davis and Kamden Wright, after injuries to a couple veteran wide receivers have hurt the depth chart. Davis had another huge game at Saint Vincent, finishing with 11 catches for 170 yards, both career highs. Wright also had a good game on Saturday in his first real playing time of the season, catching five passes for 53 yards and a score.

-- Another freshman, running back Darius Hollie, saw his first extended action of the season on Saturday, carrying the ball nine times while also grabbing four catches.

-- Safety Noah Hutcherson led the team again in tackles at Saint Vincent, finishing with 11 tackles, including 2.5 TFLs. He leads the PAC in tackles (58) and is third in TFLs (10.0). Defensive lineman Coltin Hill added 2.0 sacks to the defensive effort, bringing his season total to five, seventh in the PAC.

-- The Golden Tornadoes are still trying to find consistency in their kicking game. Freshman Filip Kauzlaric got his first attempt of the season on Saturday, but Geneva is still looking for its first successful field goal, missing all four of its attempt this year.

-- Geneva is honoring its 2026 Hall of Fame inductees at halftime, which includes three former players and current assistant coach Keith "Kiki" Humphries.

ALLEGHENY GAME NOTES

-- Allegheny is off to its best start to a season since 2009. The Gators have posted PAC wins over Waynesburg, Saint Vincent, Thiel and Bethany. The only blemish is a 56-3 loss to first place W&J.

-- Offensively, junior quarterback Carson Colucci leads the passing attack, averaging 193.7 yards per game, throwing for 14 touchdowns. He's also rushed for four touchdowns. Junior running back Malik Jefferson has been a strong compliment to Colucci, rushing for 429 yards and six touchdowns, averaging 5.2 yards per carry. He's totaled at least 60 yards rushing in all five games he's played. Allegheny's offense hasn't racked up a ton of yardage, averaging 316.4 yards per game, which is ninth in the PAC, but the Gators have been very effective at the chances they get.

-- The Gators don't have one primary receiver that Colucci focuses on. Instead, Allegheny has eight different receivers who have caught at least nine passes, led by sophomore Remington Rossow, who leads the team with 20 catches for 277 yards and four touchdowns. Seven different receivers have caught at least one touchdown.

-- Allegheny's defense is second in the league in yardage allowed, giving up just 275.1 yards per game. The Gators' biggest strength is their rushing defense, having allowed just 89.6 yards per game, also second in the PAC.

-- Allegheny has received a boost from its special teams. The Gators are second in the PAC in kick return average (23.3 yards) and first in punt return average (11.1 yards). Sophomore kicker Ian Shiffler is 4-of-6 in field goal attempts and 22-of-24 in extra points.

-- Allegheny is still looking for its first win over Geneva since rejoining the PAC in 2022. The Golden Tornadoes have won all four contests with the Gators over that timeframe, including last year's 28-16 Geneva win in Meadville.

LAST MEETING (2025)

Geneva won at Allegheny last year, scoring 28 straight points over the first, second and third quarters after the Gators opened the game with a touchdown. The win was Geneva's fourth straight over Allegheny since the Gators joined the conference prior to the 2022 season. Caleb Romano had another big day to lead the offense, finishing with 354 yards and accounting for all four Golden Tornado touchdowns. In fact, four different receivers caught Romano's four touchdown passes. The defense came up big, sacking the quarterback seven times for a loss of 41 yards, led by Coltin Hill's two sacks and 3.5 TFLs. The defense also picked off two passes as Geneva harassed Allegheny's two quarterbacks, Nick Barker and Carson Colucci, all game long.
