GAME OVERVIEW

Geneva wraps up its season on Saturday trying to end on a high note after a challenging last month in which the Golden Tornadoes have lost four straight, three of which Geneva has led in the second half and the fourth, the Golden Tornadoes threw an interception in the end zone late that would have won the game. Injuries continue to play a huge part in Geneva's struggles, especially along the offensive line and in the wide receiver group. Saint Francis has had its challenges this year too as the program drops down to Division III from Division I. The Red Wolves have just 53 players on this year's roster after most of their squad transferred last year, and 33 of the players are freshmen. This game does not count in the PAC standings.

GENEVA GAME NOTES

-- Injuries continue to be a big theme of the season for the Golden Tornadoes. Geneva lost two more key players last week to injuries, and the lack of depth has shown as the Golden Tornadoes have been in position to win all four of their last four contests, only to see the game get away late.

-- The red zone, inside the opponent's 20-yard line, continues to be a challenge for the Golden Tornadoes. Geneva has moved the ball well, but the GTs have been unable to consistently convert their chances into points. In fact, Geneva has been in the red zone 38 times this year, which is tied for the second most of anyone in the conference. But the GTs have only scored on 19 of those trips, and their 50% conversion rate is second worst in the PAC, ahead of only winless Thiel. Geneva is still looking for its first field goal conversion of the year, as the GTs have missed all five attempts.

-- During its four-game losing streak, Geneva has actually outgained its four opponents by over 100 yards, 1,377-1,274, despite being outscored by 42 points in those four losses.

-- Senior Caleb Romano and Hiram's Sean Tejada are almost in a dead heat in passing yards going into the last game. Tejada has thrown for three more yards than Romano (2,481-2,478). Romano needs 197 yards to hit 7,000 career passing yards.

-- Freshman wide receiver Jerry Davis was putting up another huge game on Saturday against Waynesburg before he was knocked out of the game with an injury in the third quarter. He had posted five catches for 144 yards, including an electric 83-yard touchdown catch. He's now surpassed 100 receiving yards in four of his last five games, and his 46 catches and 784 yards receiving are tops in the PAC. His status for Saturday is uncertain.

-- Junior Noah Hutcherson finished Saturday with 12 tackles and 2.5 TFLs. He's now second in the PAC with 74 tackles and tied for second with 12.5 TFLs. Senior Coltin Hill added seven stops, and he's now up 227 career tackles. He needs six tackles on Saturday to become the top tackling defensive lineman on record in program history.

SAINT FRANCIS GAME NOTES

-- It has understandably been a challenging two seasons for Saint Francis and 17-year head coach Chris Villarial. Once Saint Francis announced the school would be dropping to Division III from Division I in March of 2025, the program saw a large portion of its roster transfer. The Red Wolves lost all 11 games last season, and this year the team has lost all seven contests and is relying on a lot of freshmen as the program works to rebuild itself. The Red Wolves have only had one competitive game this year, when they narrowly fell 17-14 to visiting Saint Vincent four weeks ago. Over the past two weeks, the Red Wolves have been outscored 114-7 by Bethany and W&J.

-- The Red Wolves have 13 freshmen listed as starters on their two-deep. The trenches have been a particular challenge, as multiple players are listed among the two-deep both on offense and defense, with the lack of depth requiring some players to play both ways at times.

-- Sophomore quarterback Ashton Walk has received the most playing time at QB over the season, though the Red Wolves have utilized three different quarterbacks at various times over the course of the season.

-- Saint Francis does have five seniors left on the roster, and most of them are making an impact. Senior running back Elijah Villarrial leads the team with 266 rushing yards, senior tight end Scott Raymond leads the team with 20 catches, and senior kicker Ian Palilla has done a solid job in the kicking game, converting three field goals and 7-of-9 extra points.

-- The defense has struggled to come up with turnovers. The Red Wolves have forced just two turnovers all year, one interception and one fumble recovery.

-- The plan is for the Red Wolves to be eligible for PAC postseason play at the beginning of the 2028-29 year after they finish their provisional period.

LAST MEETING (1988)

These two teams have not played since 1988. Geneva and Saint Francis played every year from 1980 to 1988, with Geneva winning all nine contests, most of them by fairly lopsided margins. The closest game actually came in 1987, the year Geneva advanced to the NAIA semifinals, when the Golden Tornadoes prevailed in a tight 9-7 victory over Saint Francis. The only other time these two schools have met was in their inaugural meeting in 1931.
