GAME OVERVIEW

Geneva wraps up the home portion of its slate on Saturday with Senior Day, trying to break a three-game losing streak. The Golden Tornadoes were in good position to win all three of those games, losing by one to Westminster, three points to Saint Vincent, and on Saturday Geneva held a 20-6 lead going into the fourth quarter before the Allegheny closed the game with 28 straight points. Waynesburg is coming off a dramatic 40-39 victory at Hiram on Saturday. The Yellow Jackets overcame a 13-point deficit in the final four minutes of the game, winning on a touchdown with just over a minute to go to stun the Terriers. Backup quarterback Luke Hudson led Waynesburg to victory after starter Dominic Hickman was knocked out due to injury.

GENEVA GAME NOTES

-- Geneva has been hit hard this season by injuries, and the lack of depth has started to show up late in games over the past three weeks. On Saturday, the Golden Tornadoes were without three starting offensive linemen, their top three wide receivers entering the season, and down their starting running back, all due to injuries. On the defense side of the ball, the GTs finished Saturday's game without four defensive starters.

-- One bright spot from Saturday was the play of freshman running back Jayvon Burrus, who saw his first significant action of the season. He responded with 67 yards on 18 carries, along with two touchdowns.

-- The most consistent performer in Geneva's wide receiver group this year has been freshman Jerry Davis, who had another big day against Allegheny, grabbing eight catches for 109 yards. Over his last four games, he's averaging 8.5 catches and 128 yards. For the season, he's hauled in 41 catches for 640 yards and four touchdowns. He's tied for the lead in the PAC in catches, and he's third in receiving yardage.

-- Caleb Romano threw for 208 yards on Saturday, moving into fifth place in program history with 6,531 career passing yards.

-- One area where the offense has struggled is in the red zone. In 33 trips inside the opponents' 20-yard line, Geneva has scored on just 18 of those trips, all touchdowns. It's 54.5% conversion rate is second-to-last in the PAC.

-- Geneva's defensive line of senior Coltin Hill and juniors Chidima Iziogo, Ry'Shaun Johnson and Wyman Shaheen rarely come off the field. It's the one position on Geneva's roster that has largely avoided injuries this year, and the quartet composes one of the stronger defensive lines in the PAC.

-- A result of so many injuries along the offensive line is that Geneva has allowed the most sacks in the PAC this season at 31. Waynesburg has struggled as well, giving up 30 sacks this year.

WAYNESBURG GAME NOTES

-- Waynesburg had its first offensive explosion of the year on Saturday at Hiram. Prior to their game with the Terriers, the Yellow Jackets were averaging just 12.6 points per game before erupting for 40 points to defeat Hiram 40-39. Junior backup quarterback Luke Hudson was a big reason for the outburst, passing for 241 yards and four touchdowns.

-- Hudson is currently listed as the starter for this week's game with normal starter Dominic Hickman going down with an injury against Hiram. Hickman is still listed on the depth chart, though, so his status for Saturday is uncertain. One area where the pair has struggled this year is with turnovers, with the duo combining for 15 interceptions. As a team, Waynesburg has thrown a league-high 17 picks, to go with just eight touchdowns.

-- Junior wide receiver Isaiah Fields is the biggest threat among the pass catchers. He's totaled 39 catches, more than double anyone else on the roster, to go with 400 yards and three touchdowns.

-- A pair of brothers, senior Zayne Cawley and sophomore Luke Cawley, power the rushing attack. Zayne leads with 388 yards rushing, averaging 5.5 yards per carry, while Luke leads the team with four rushing touchdowns.

-- Junior defensive lineman Isshak Cipoletti has been Waynesburg's most disruptive player, leading the team with 9.0 TFLs and 3.5 sacks. Senior linebacker Joanes Polynice has also been a key defensive player. He leads the team with 48 tackles, three interceptions and four pass breakups.

-- Waynesburg's punter, Jeremiah Mick, played the last two seasons for Geneva before transferring to Waynesburg over the offseason. He punted three times for Geneva last season. This year he's punted 28 times for the Yellow Jackets, averaging 35.5 yards per punt, including a 58-yarder in the season opener against Capital.
