SINCE 2005 EVERYTHING BUT THE PREGAME MEAL

• Old Dominion travels to Atlanta on Saturday to take on Georgia State at Center Parc Stadium.

• ODU is coming off a 46-20 loss to James Madison in the TowneBank Royal Rivalry

• Georgia State defeated Northern Illinois 35-14 last week in Atlanta.

• Quarterback Ryan Huff made his first career start last week against the Dukes. He completed 20-of-39 passes for 261 yards, a touchdown and interception. His 261 yards were the most by an ODU quarterback making his first career start.

• Wide receiver TJ Johnson had a career day with five receptions for 105 yards. It was the first 100-yard game by an ODU receiver this season.

• Mario Easterly and Lucas struck each had 11 tackles. Easterly added a pass breakup, while Struck had a tackle for loss to go along with his career high 11 stops.

• For the first time in three years head coach Ricky Rahne had to hire a new coordinator. With offensive coordinator Kevin Decker departing for Memphis, Rahne promoted Kody Cook to offensive coordinator. Cook, who coached the wide receivers for two years, will coach the quarterbacks this season. Michael Smith comes from McNeese to coach the receivers, while Ryan Wilson was promoted to tight ends coach. Phil Serchia comes to ODU from the LA Chargers and will coach the offensive line. There were no changes on the defensive side of the ball.

• ODU Head Coach Ricky Rahne is in his seventh season overall and sixth on the field.

Old Dominion Football Head Coach Ricky Rahne enters his seventh season in charge of the Monarchs and is coming off their best finish in 10 years after leading ODU to a 10-3 record and a win over South Florida in the StaffDNA Cure Bowl.

The Monarchs began the 2025 season at Indiana, scoring on the first play of the game before falling to the eventual undefeated national champion, Indiana. The Monarchs followed with four-straight wins, including a 45-26 triumph at Virginia Tech, ODU's first victory at a Power Four opponent. Following a two-game losing streak the Monarchs ended the season with six-straight wins.

Rahne helped guide 11 Monarchs to All-Sun Belt Conference selections, including quarterback Colton Joseph to Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Year honors and Zach Barlev to first team honors on the offensive line. Joseph, Ryan Joyce and Jerome Carter received second team honors while Tre Brown, Kris Trinidad and Jeremy Mack Jr. earned third team honors. Stephon Dubose-Bourne, Na'eem Abdul-Rahim Gladding, Mario Easterly and Chris Forbes received honorable mention accolades.

ODU led the Sun Belt in total sacks, punt return average and red zone defense, finishing 12th in the country in total defense and sixth in sacks per game. The Monarchs finished third in the Sun Belt in scoring offense at 32 points per game and second in scoring and total defense, and total offense. ODU set a single season record with 3,098 rushing yards, finished second in the Sun Belt and seventh in the country with 238.3 rushing yards per game.

In 2024, Rahne led the Monarchs to a 5-7 record, including four wins over teams that played in a bowl game.

The Monarchs led the Sun Belt Conference in rushing offense, field goal percentage and red zone offense in 2024, while leading the country in Red Zone offense. ODU was 38-for-40 in the Red Zone, scoring at a 95 percent clip. ODU also ranked in the top-15 nationally in rushing offense (14th), blocked kicks (11th) and punt return defense (14th).

ODU went 6-7 in 2023 and clinched a bowl berth by winning its final two games of the regular season on the last play of each game. The Monarchs played Western Kentucky in the Famous Toastery Bowl in Charlotte, North Carolina and fell 38-35 in overtime.

To get to six wins, ODU exorcised a few demons, defeating App State and Georgia Southern for the first times in program history. ODU played in 11 one-score games and went 6-5 in those games. Six of those games were not decided until the final play of the game.

Old Dominion went 3-9 in Rahne's second season on the field but the wins were two of the biggest in program history and the accolades were aplenty throughout the season. ODU defeated Virginia Tech 20-17 in the season opener, marking the second win in program history over the Hokies. A few weeks later, the Monarchs defeated Arkansas State 29-26 in the first Sun Belt Conference game in program history. Two weeks later on national television, the Monarchs knocked off previously undefeated and eventual Sun Belt Division Champion Coastal Carolina, 49-21 in Conway, South Carolina.

In individual honors, linebacker Jason Henderson led the country in tackles and became ODU's first FBS All-American, earning the honor from five different publications. Wide receiver Ali Jennings finished third in the country in receiving yards, while right tackle Nick Saldiveri was selected to play in the Reese's Senior Bowl, just the third player in ODU history to play in the most prestigious college football all-star game.

ODU finished in the top-20 in the country in a handful of categories, including 12th in red zone defense, and in what has become a cornerstone of the program, special teams. ODU ranked 10th in the country in blocked kicks, 13th in punt return defense and 19th in net punting.

In his first season on the field in 2021, Rahne took a team that went 1-11 in 2019, and did not play in 2020, to a bowl game. ODU started the season 1-6 and won five-straight behind Rahne's 1-0 mentality, to earn a bid to the Myrtle Beach Bowl to play Tulsa. ODU became just the third team since 1936 (AP Poll era) to start the season 1-6 or worse and win six games.

Rahne helped lead Zack Kuntz to first-team All-Conference USA honors at tight end and 12 additional Monarchs to spots on the C-USA honorable mention team. Kuntz finished second in the country among tight ends with 73 receptions, while running back Blake Watson became the first ODU running back since 2016 to rush for over 1,000 yards and finished 22nd in the country with 101.1 yards per game.

ODU had its best scoring defense since 2016 and tied a school record by allowing 20 points or less five times. Linebacker Jordan Young broke the 100-tackle barrier for the first time in his career and set the ODU career record for tackles with 350. The Monarchs finished third in Conference USA and 35th in the country in rushing defense.

Rahne was the offensive coordinator at Penn State for two seasons and on the Nittany Lions coaching staff for six years.

Rahne (pronounced ronnie) developed an increasing national profile as a key component of Coach James Franklin's staff at both Penn State and Vanderbilt. The coaching staff guided those teams to bowl games in each of the nine years and won nine or more games in six of the last eight seasons.

Known as a terrific offensive mind that can adjust to his personnel, Rahne demonstrated that again in 2019. Despite the loss of the No. 2 overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft (Saquon Barkley), Penn State rushed for the most yards per game in the last 10 years at 204.9. PSU had nine players earn all-conference accolades, and the Nittany Lions led the Big10 with 42 red zone touchdowns, good for 16th in FBS.

Rahne was the quarterbacks coach in four of his six seasons at Penn State, as both of the quarterbacks he worked with were drafted into the NFL. In 2015, Christian Hackenberg (Jets, 2016) became the all-time leader in career yards passing with 8,457 yards. Three years later, Rahne guided Trace McSorely (Ravens, 2019) passed that mark in 2018 with 9,899 yards. He also coached the tight ends in 2016 and 2017, guiding Mike Gesicki who was drafted by the Miami Dolphins.

Penn State played in a bowl game in every year Rahne was there, including a 2016 Big10 Championship and 2017 PlayStation Fiesta Bowl win over Washington. In that time, Penn State has had four-straight seasons of at least nine wins, and the Nittany Lions are one of five teams to rank in the Top-15 of the College Football Playoff final rankings in each of the last four years.

Prior to joining Penn State, Rahne was the quarterbacks coach at Vanderbilt for three years.

Prior to Rahne's time at Vanderbilt, the program had been to four bowl games in 121 years of football, none in consecutive seasons. The Commodores were ranked in the Top-25 in the final polls in 2012 and 2013 marking the first time they were ranked in back-to-back seasons in program history.

He spent five years at Kansas State, starting as an offensive graduate assistant before coaching the running backs and tight ends. He helped the Wildcats to two bowl appearances.

Rahne started his coaching career on the defensive side at Holy Cross coaching the defensive line. The following year he coached the running backs at his alma mater, Cornell.

He was a three-year starter at quarterback at Cornell (2002), and graduated as the Big Red's all-time leader in completions (678), passing yards (7,710), touchdown passes (54) and total offense (7,994). He was inducted into the Cornell Hall of Fame in 2014.

Rahne and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Ryder and Jake.

Game 5 · Old Dominion at Georgia State

The Outcome
An ODU win would mean:

- Put ODU at 1-1 in Sun Belt play
- Stop ODU's three-game losing streak

The Meeting

ODU is 6-1 all-time against the Panthers, with the lone loss coming in 2022 when the Monarchs finished the season 3-9. ODU has won three-straight since then. The Monarchs beat Georgia State in 2023 on the final play of the game to become bowl eligible. Last season in Norfolk, GSU jumped out to a 10-0 lead, but ODU scored 27-straight to finish the regular season 9-3.

Captains
Head Coach Ricky Rahne named four captains for the 2026 season.

Quinn Henicle: Won the starting quarterback job not only for his ability but also for the leadership he provides. Henicle is 2-0 as a starting quarterback, earning Sun Belt Player of the Week honors in his first career start and Cure Bowl MVP honors in his second start.

Brayden Walker: The first transfer to be named captain without playing a down for ODU since Seamus Hall in 2024, Walker brings a toughness to a new offensive line group.

Mario Easterly: Primarily a wide receiver in high school that also played safety, Easterly has blossomed into one of the top safeties in the Sun Belt Conference. He led ODU in tackles last season with 80.

Koa Naotala: Former walk-on earned a scholarship in 2023. Earned second-team All-Sun Belt honors in 2024 after leading team in tackles. Third-straight season as a captain. Played in only one game last season.

Random Notes About Captains
Linebacker Koa Naotala is the first player under head coach Ricky Rahne to be a three-time team captain at Old Dominion. He becomes the first three-time team captain since Taylor Heinicke (2012-14), and the third ever, joining Craig Wilkins, who was a four-time team captain (2009-12).

Graduates
Eight current Monarchs have earned their undergraduate degrees. Four of them, Brendan Durkin, Zion Frink, Kendall Harris and Koa Naotala are currently working on Master's degrees while the other four are working on a second undergraduate degree.

Fifth and Final

Old Dominion has two players in their fifth season that have played at ODU their entire careers. Safety Mario Easterly and Koa Naotala.

Easterly led ODU in tackles last season with 80 and earned Sun Belt honorable mention honors. He has made 20 career starts at safety.

A former walk-on, Naotala missed all but one game last season but let ODU in tackles in 2024 with 88 and earned second team All-SBC.

Seven additional players are in their fifth year but have transitioned in from other institutions.

Huff Makes First Start

Quarterback Ryan Huff made his first career start last week against JMU, starting for an injured Quinn Henicle. Huff completed 20-of-39 passes for 261 yards, one touchdown and an interception.

His 261 yards were the most by an ODU making their first career start.

Henicle at the Controls

ODU quarterback Quinn Henicle fell to 3-2 as a starter after ODU's 20-17 setback to ECU.

Henicle's string of rushing touchdowns in his starts continued, as his 18-yard score made it five-straight starts with a rushing score.

He completed 8-of-20 passes for 94 yards and an interception against ECU. Henicle carried 16 times for 73 yards against the Pirates.

Johnson Emerges

TJ Johnson transferred to ODU last year from SW Mississippi but caught just four passes and had a touchdown in the win at Virginia Tech.

Johnson caught five passes for 105 yards against James Madison, both career highs. He had a 36-yard reception that set up ODU's fist touchdown, and then a 42-yarder that got ODU in field goal range.

In the season opener over Norfolk State, he had two catches and two more touchdowns.

His first TD was a sliding catch in the back of the end zone for a 14-yard score and second was an 11-yard cross over the middle that he finished in the corner of the end zone.

Johnson caught three passes for 23 yards at Virginia Tech to pass his season total for receptions from last season.

TJ Johnson Numbers

Year	Receptions	Yards	Touchdowns
2025	4	68	1
2026	10	153	2

New Weapons Outside

Old Dominion's top three receivers from 2025 transferred to LSU, Vanderbilt and Maryland and returned just 21 catches.

But ODU reloaded at the position and is still seeing big plays on the outside.

At Virginia Tech, Josh Rodriguez had catches of 34, 34 and 21 yards.

Harrell led ODU in receiving with three grabs for 51 yards in the season opening win over Norfolk State.

Haughton Getting a Chance

Coming into the season, tight end Leon Haughton Jr. had seven catches for 79 yards and a touchdown in his four years at Maryland. All he needed was a chance. In his first four games at ODU, Haughton has eight receptions for 104 yards and two touchdowns.

He had a career best four receptions for 49 yards and a 23-yard touchdown grab against JMU.

Running Back by Committee

ODU has rotated in three running backs in its first two games so far this season, with Devin Roche, Trey Hall and Ja'Varien Salter.

Roche had ODU's first 100-yard rushing game of the season with 102 yards on 18 carries against ECU.

ODU rushed for a program low -14 yards against JMU, primarily due to Ryan Huff being sacked nine times. The running backs combined for 16 carries for 31 yards. Maurki James did become the first ODU running back this season to score a touchdown with his one-yard plunge against the Dukes.

Continuity to Scarcity Up Front

Old Dominion started the same five offensive linemen for every game of the 2025 season, one of just eight teams to accomplish the feat. All of those starters have departed for the 2026 season.

For all five starters for ODU in the opener against Norfolk State, all five made their first career FBS starts.

Strucking Up

Safety Lucas Struck has improved each week, and totaled a career best 11 tackles against James Madison. With the 11 stops he moved into second on the team in tackles with 30.

Player	2025 Tackles	2026 Tackles
Lucas Struck	46	30

He Was Everywhere

Defensive tackle DeAndre Lynch made tackles on the first five plays against Norfolk State and finished with a career high 10 tackles.

The last ODU defensive tackle to have double-digit tackles is Chris Burnette, who had 13 in 2012 against Villanova.

Welcome Back

Linebacker Koa Naotala missed all but one game last season, the win at Virginia Tech, but in his return to the lineup on Saturday he responded with nine tackles and two tackles for loss in the win over the Spartans.

Welcome Back, Part Two

Like Naotala, Mario Thompson also missed a significant amount of time last season with an injury. He returned late last season but played sparingly.

In his return to the starting lineup in the win over Norfolk State, he recorded eight tackles, a sack and 1.5 tackles for loss.

Thompson led ODU with 11 tackles and half a TFL at Virginia Tech. He leads the Monarchs with 19 stops on the year. He had eight tackles all of last season.

For the second straight week Thompson led the Monarchs in tackles with nine stops, 1.5 tackles for loss and a sack.

Sack Attack

In 2025, ODU set a program record with 39 sacks. So far, ODU has 12 sacks on the year and ranks second in the Sun Belt and tied for 17th in the country.

Jackson Forrest leads the team with three sacks, while Javen Gibson has 2.5 on the year. DeAndre Lynch picked up his second career sack against James Madison.

Drummer Returns

Ja'Mez Drummer played for ODU in 2023 and 2024. In 2025, he played at Towson. He came back to ODU for 2026 and recorded his first start as a Monarch in the win over NSU. He finished the day with eight tackles and two tackles for loss.

Drummer had five tackles at Virginia Tech.

He is the first ODU player to leave in the portal, play for another school, and return to ODU.

Frink and Crutchfield With Play of the Game

On Norfolk State's first drive of the game, Jalyn Daniels was one yard away from a 36-yard touchdown run, when Zion Frink stripped the ball and Brandon Crutchfield recovered the fumble in the end zone. ODU went down and scored in six plays for a 7-0 lead.

What could have been a 7-0 deficit for ODU turned into a 7-0 lead in a game the Monarchs would never trail.

Easterly Makes Plays

Last year's leading tackler, Mario Easterly only had six stops in the win over NSU, but he intercepted a Deljay Bailey pass late in the game to stop a Spartans drive.

Easterly led the Monarchs with 80 tackles a season ago.

One of Two and One of One

Old Dominion and Illinois are the only two programs in the country to return their leading tacklers from both the 2024 and 2025 seasons.

Koa Naotala led ODU in tackles in 2024 with 88 and Mario Easterly led the Monarchs with 80 stops in 2025. They both return for their fifth years.

Defensive back Matthew Bailey led Illinois in tackles in 2024 and 2025 and returns to the Fighting Illini' in 2026.

Game 5 · Old Dominion at Georgia State

Opening Drive Struggles/Success

In four games ODU has had mixed success in the games opening possession. ODU's offense scored a touchdown in its opening drive against Norfolk State and went three and out at Virginia Tech. The ODU defense allowed Norfolk State to drive the field but Zion Frink forced a fumble that Brandon Crutchfield recovered. Virginia Tech also drove the field but ODU clamped down to force a field goal.

Quick Hits

- ODU Head Coach Ricky Rahne played quarterback at Cornell from 1998-2001 and is the Cornell Sports Hall of Fame. He completed 678-of-1226 passes for 7710 yards and 54 touchdown passes. All rank second in program history to Jeff Matthews, who briefly played in the NFL and CFL.
- ODU Defensive Coordinator Blake Seiler wrestled at Oklahoma State as a freshman on the Cowboys' National Championship team. He transferred to Kansas State the following year as a walk-on to the football team and was a starting defensive lineman and captain as a senior.
- ODU offensive coordinator Kody Cook also played at Kansas State, and also beginning his career with the Wildcats as a walk-on. He became an all-conference wide receiver and played one game at quarterback, helping the Wildcats become bowl eligible as all of their quarterbacks were injured.
- Wide receivers coach Michael Smith is the father-in-law of ODU offensive coordinator, Kody Cook.
- Cook and his wife Kylie, celebrated the birth of their son nearly two weeks ago. A baby boy named Kyler.
- Defensive lineman Javen Gibson goes by the nickname Gus. When he was a kid he was playing a basketball video game and created a player that was given the name Gus Gibson. His mom walked by and saw it and asked who was Gus Gibson. He explained and his mom started calling him Gus and the nickname has stuck.
- Safety Mario Easterly went to Bishop McDevitt High School in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. It is the same high school that former NFL standouts LeSean McCoy and Ricky Watters attended. His younger sister, Marcyana, was on the cheer squad at Old Dominion. Marcyana is one of seven of Mario's sisters. He also has one brother.
- ODU offensive line coach Phil Serchia was an assistant OL coach with the LA Chargers in 2024, where he worked with former ODU quarterback, Taylor Heinicke.
- Defensive backs Brandon Crutchfield and Jerome Carter's fathers both played in the NFL. Buddy Crutchfield played in six games over two years in 1998-99 for the Washington Redskins and New York Jets.
- Linebacker Talan Babin is the son of former NFL defensive lineman, Jason Babin. Jason was a first round pick of the Houston Texans and played 12 years in the NFL and was a two-time Pro Bowler. He finished his career with 64.5 sacks.
- Known as the 757 due to the area code, ODU has 10 players that are from the 757. Of the 10, five have played for the Monarchs.

Eichner From Deep

Kicker Nathaniel Eichner drilled a career long 51-yard field goal to close the first half at Virginia Tech. It was ODU's longest field goal since Ethan Sanchez make a 53-yarder at Bowling Green in 2024. Jarod Brown holds the school record, a 54-yarder in 2013 at Pitt. Brown's field goal was at the time the longest field goal in Heinz Field History.

Eichner went 2-for-2 against James Madison, including hitting a 49-yarder at the end of the first half. He also hit a 35-yard field goal in the third quarter.

Eichner is 6-for-6 on field goals to start the year and 9-for-9 on extra point attempts.

About Old Dominion University
Old Dominion University was founded in 1930 by the College of William & Mary, the second oldest university in the United States. Established as an extension of William & Mary in Williamsburg, Virginia, and Virginia Tech, Old Dominion began educating teachers and engineers. The two-year school rapidly evolved into a four-year institution, and was granted independence in 1962 as Old Dominion College.

Considerable growth in enrollment, the expansion of research facilities and preparation for the addition of graduate programs led the Board of Visitors to approve the name change to Old Dominion University. Now Old Dominion is a powerhouse for higher education with six colleges: Arts and Letters, Business and Public Administration, Education, Engineering and Technology, Health Sciences and Sciences. Old Dominion has offered master's degrees since 1964, became Old Dominion University in 1969 and Ph.D.s since 1971.

World's Largest Naval Base
Naval Station Norfolk is the largest Naval Base in the world and just minutes from Old Dominion University.

ODU Head Coach Ricky Rahne hosted his weekly coach's show from the USS Dwight D. Eisenhower (CVN 69) in 2024. The USS Eisenhower was deployed for nine months and returned to Naval Station Norfolk in July 2024 after a mission in the Middle East Region.

Big Blue
When ODU became independent from the College of William & Mary in 1962, while there was no official mascot, Old Dominion College took on a mace and crown as their symbols in publications and athletics.

Big Blue made his debut during a basketball game in December 1971.

Ironically, the first costume was more orange than blue, and when trying to dye the costume made it more grey-green than blue, the university had to hire a seamstress to sew on powder blue fake fur to approximate the school colors at the time. Through the 1970s and into the 1980s, Big Blue evolved from a fierce lion into a soft, friendly lion. By the 1990s and early 2000s, Big Blue has morphed into his current look with little changes over the years.

In 2011, Big Blue was voted as the Capital One National Mascot of the Year.

In October 2013, a seven-foot-tall bronze sculpture of Big Blue was unveiled in Webb University Center to start a new campus tradition. Students take their photograph with Big Blue at the start and end of their Monarch journey. The statue was conceived by the Student Government Association (SGA) and created by sculptor Richard Stravitz. Throughout their time at Old Dominion, students can rub Big Blue's belly for good luck and prosperity.

Why Monarchs
For many years, the athletic teams of the Norfolk Division of the College of William & Mary (as Old Dominion was formerly called) were known as the Braves. This was a derivation of the William & Mary nickname, the Indians. As Old Dominion achieved its own four-year status and saw its enrollment surpass that of its Williamsburg neighbor, it was no longer suitable or acceptable to have its teams called the Braves.

The name Monarchs evokes much of the history of the Commonwealth of Virginia and of Old Dominion's mother institution, the College of William & Mary. The nickname "Old Dominion" was first coined to the Virginia colony by King Charles II after Virginia's loyalty to the crown during the English Civil War. Furthermore, William III & Mary II, whose patronage helped found the College of William & Mary in Virginia in 1693, ruled England at the invitation of Parliament as "joint monarchs."

The Monarch used by Old Dominion has a royal crown on a lion's head, representing a rich history and a strong future.

ODU Defeats Norfolk State, 31-10

NORFOLK, Va. – Quinn Henicle accounted for four touchdowns and the Old Dominion defense held Norfolk State to 220 total yards as the Monarchs defeated Norfolk State, 31-10 in the season opener at Kornblau Field at S.B. Ballard Stadium on Saturday night.

Old Dominion wore camo jerseys on Saturday night to honor Lt. Col. Brandon Shah. The jerseys went on sale before the game and were sold out within an hour. All proceeds from the jersey sale go to the Lt. Col. Brandon Shah Leadership Foundation.

Old Dominion (1-0) led 17-0 until late in the second quarter and on its first drive of the third quarter Norfolk State (1-1) cut the lead to 17-10 on a 37-yard field goal by Marco Peery.

But the Monarchs responded with a 10 play, 76-yard drive capped by a Quinn Henicle to TJ Johnson 11-yard touchdown pass. ODU's Javen Gibson sacked NSU quarterback Deljay Bailey on the ensuing possession, forcing a fumble that Jackson Forrest recovered at the NSU 12. Two plays later Henicle went in from two yards out to make the score 31-10.

Norfolk State drove 93 yards in 11 plays to open the game, but Jalyn Daniels fumbled at the one on a force by Zion Frink that was recovered in the end zone by Brandon Crutchfield. ODU took over at its own 20 and quickly drove the length of the field highlighted by a 38-yard completion from Henicle to JJ Harrell and Henicle finished the drive with a 13-yard touchdown run to put ODU on top 7-0.

The Monarchs got a three and out on NSU's next possession. Devin Roche returned the punt 26 yards to the Spartans' 45 to set up the Monarchs with good field position. On third and 19 Henicle hit Leon Haughton Jr. for 38 yards to set up an 11-yard touchdown pass from Henicle to TJ Johnson to put the Monarchs up 14-0.

ODU made the score 17-0 with a 37-yard field goal from Nathaniel Eichner. Ja'Varien Salter started the drive with an 18-yard run and Henicle completed a 17-yard pass to Josh Rodriguez to set up the three points.

With two minutes remaining in the half, Henicle was intercepted by Josiah Davis at the ODU 20 and that set up a three-yard score from Deljay Bailey to put the Spartans on the board and cut the ODU lead to 17-7.

Henicle rushed for 68 yards and the two scores and completed 9-of-12 passes for 137 yards, with two touchdowns and an interception.

Devin Roche carried 13 times for 51 yards while Harrell caught three passes for 45 yards.

ODU Falls at Virginia Tech, 44-21

BLACKSBURG, Va. – Quinn Henicle had 270 total yards of offense and accounted for two touchdowns, but Virginia Tech took advantage of three ODU fumbles and to race out to a 34-6 halftime lead and defeated the Monarchs, 44-21 on Saturday afternoon at Lane Stadium.

Henicle passed for a career high 187 yards on 13-of-21 passing with a touchdown and rushed for 83 yards, including a 76-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter.

Marion Thompson had a game-high 11 tackles for the ODU defense, Brandon Crutchfield had eight tackles and his first career sack and Jackson Forrest also had eight tackles and a sack.

Virginia Tech (2-0) got on the board first with a 39-yard field goal from John Love. The Hokies drove to the ODU nine-yard line but Javen Gibson sacked Ethan Grunkemeyer on third and goal to force the field goal and put VT up 3-0 early in the first quarter.

Following an ODU three and out, the Hokies drove 77 yards in 14 plays as Marcellous Hawkins scored on a 20-yard touchdown to give the Hokies a 10-0 lead.

On the second play of ODU's next drive, Henicle was sacked and fumbled. Keon Wylie recovered but fumbled the ball at the three as TJ Johnson recovered the ball in the end zone, giving ODU the ball back. On the next play Henicle was sacked and fumbled again as Tyson Flowers recovered and returned it for a 14-yard Virginia Tech touchdown to make the score 17-0 Hokies.

Old Dominion (1-1) got on the board its next possession with a 32-yard field goal from Nathaniel Eichner. Back-to-back completions from Henicle to Josh Rodriguez picked up 55 yards and put the Monarchs in field goal range to cut the VT lead to 17-3.

The Hokies went back on top by 17 as Luke Reynolds caught a 10-yard touchdown pass from Grunkemeyer to put the Hokies on top 24-3.

ODU fumbled on the first play of its next possession that Virginia Tech recovered at the ODU 20.

Grunkenmeyer hit Reynolds again for a touchdown three plays later for a 16-yard score to make the score 31-3 midway through the second quarter.

A 79-yard punt return by Que'Sean Brown set up the Hokies at the three, but the ODU defense stiffened to force a 22-yard John Love field goal.

As the first half was ending, Grunkemeyer was sacked by Malachi Harris and fumbled, giving ODU the ball at the 33. Eichner drilled a 51-yard field goal on the next play as time expired to make the half-time score 34-6 Virginia Tech.

Love added another field goal, this time a 25-yarder, to push the Hokie lead to 37-6.

On the ensuing possession, the Monarchs had their best drive of the game, going 75 yards in 11 plays as Henicle hit Leon Haughton for a seven-yard touchdown pass. The touchdown was set up by a 34-yard completion from Henicle to Rodriguez.

Grunkenmeyer scored from a yard out on a QB sneak early in the fourth quarter but Henicle followed with a 76-yard touchdown run, his fourth career touchdown run of 50+ yards and second one against the Hokies, to make the final score 44-21.

ODU Drops Tight Contest to ECU, 20-17

NORFOLK, Va. – Old Dominion University Football led East Carolina 17-10 at halftime, but ECU scored on an Ayden Duncannon 67-yard interception return and Noah Perez kicked a 24-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter to give ECU a 20-17 win over Old Dominion on Saturday night at S.B. Ballard Stadium.

Old Dominion (1-2) received the second half kickoff and drove into ECU territory after a 41-yard run by Devin Roche. But on third and 18 Quinn Henicle was intercepted by Duncannon and he returned it for a touchdown to tie the score at 17.

The teams would trade punts before ODU had another promising drive going, aided by runs from Henicle and Roche, but Kieran Davis forced a fumble by Roche that Miles Parker recovered at the ECU 32.

East Carolina (1-2) followed with a 12 play, 77-yard drive, helped along by a defensive holding penalty on third and five. Perez kicked the field goal with 9:39 remaining for the eventual winning tally.

The Monarchs got the ball back twice but were only able to muster one first down and ECU ran out the clock.

ECU got on the board first midway through the opening quarter after the Monarchs dropped a punt snap at their own 28. On second down Jason Dickerson took a backwards pass from Emory Williams and found Ja'Keith Hamilton for a 25-yard touchdown to give the Pirates a 7-0 lead.

ODU responded early in the second quarter with a 38-yard Nathaniel Eichner field goal. The Monarchs took advantage of a roughing the passer penalty on ECU that wiped out an interception, and on the next play Henicle hit Zialis Blackmon for a 42-yard completion to set up the field goal. It was the first catch of Blackmon's career.

On the Pirates' next possession, Emory Williams completed a pass to Kanen Hamlett, but Justin Watts forced a fumble that Daevon Iles recovered and returned it for a 23-yard touchdown.

The ODU defense forced another punt, and Devin Roche returned it 38 yards to the ECU 35. Henicle connected with Kendall Harris for a first down and two plays later Henicle bounded in for an 18-yard touchdown run to give the Monarchs a 17-7 lead.

ECU ended the half by driving 56 yards and cut the lead to 17-10 with a 36-yard Noah Perez field goal.

Henicle completed 8-of-20 passes for 94 yards and the interception. He carried 16 times for 73 yards and a touchdown. Roche rushed for 102 yards on 18 carries.

Mario Thompson led the Monarchs in tackles for the second straight week, registering nine stops, 1.5 tackles for loss and a sack. Jack Forrest added 2.5 tackles for loss and a sack.

JMU Handles ODU, 46-20

NORFOLK, Va. – James Madison jumped out to a 30-7 first half lead on Old Dominion Football and held off the Monarchs, 46-20, on Saturday night at S.B. Ballard Stadium.

Old Dominion (1-3) trailed 30-7 after a Corey Scott touchdown grab with 11:42 remaining in the second quarter but a Maurki James one-yard plunge and a Nathaniel Eichner 49-yard field goal at the end of the first half drew the Monarchs to 30-17 at the break.

The Monarchs then got a three and out on JMU's (4-0) opening possession of the third quarter, but a penalty gave the Dukes the ball and they took advantage as Morgan Suarez would hit a 38-yard field goal to push JMU's lead to 33-17.

The teams began trading punts before Suarez delivered another field goal, this one from 27-yards, to give JMU a 36-17 advantage.

The Monarchs inched closer after a 42-yard reception by TJ Johnson put the ball at the JMU 17 to end the third quarter, but ODU was held to a 35-yard field goal from Eichner to cut the lead to 36-20.

Suarez added a fourth field goal, this one from 26 yards out, and JMU capped the scoring with a one-yard touchdown run from Seth Cromwell for the 46-20 final.

"They beat us in every phase, we were undisciplined and we lacked detail, which didn't allow us to play with enough consistency in order to win a game like that," ODU Head Coach Ricky Rahne said.

JMU forced a three and out on ODU's opening possession and proceeded to drive 53 yards in seven plays, as Camden Coleman hit Cole Keller for a three-yard touchdown pass to put the Dukes on top, 7-0.

The Dukes forced another ODU punt and drove 76 yards in seven plays on its second possession, as Camden hit Michael Scott for a 20-yard touchdown pass to increase the lead to 14-0.

Old Dominion cut the lead to 14-7 as Ryan Huff hit Leon Haughton Jr. for a 23-yard touchdown strike, the first of Huff's career. The Monarchs drove 75 yards in four plays, as Huff completed the first three passes of his career, hitting Kendall Harris for a gain of 13 and TJ Johnson down the right side for 36 yards.

Michael Scott returned the ensuing kickoff 72 yards to set up JMU at the ODU 18, but ODU forced a 28-yard Suarez field goal that pushed the JMU lead to 17-7.

Their next possession, the Dukes drove 60 yards in six plays capped by a 13-yard touchdown pass from Coleman to Jeremiah Harrison, but the PAT failed.

JMU forced an ODU fumble on its next possession and Coleman hit Corey Scott for an 18-yard touchdown reception make the score 30-7.

Brandon Crutchfield intercepted a Coleman pass on James Madison's next possession to set up ODU at the Dukes' 33. Huff found JJ Harrell at the three and two plays later Maurki James pounded it in from the one to make the score 30-14.

ODU forced a JMU punt to give themselves a chance before halftime and Huff hit TJ Johnson for 14 yards to convert a third down and set up a 49-yard Eichner field goal to make the halftime score, 30-17.

Ryan Huff made his first career start at quarterback, completing 20-of-39 passes for 261 yards, one touchdown and an interception. Johnson caught five passes for 105 yards. Mario Easterly had 11 tackles and a pass breakup, while Lucas Struck had a career high 11 tackles and a tackle for loss.
