OPENING TIP

2026-27 ROSTER - Presbyterian returns 11 letterwinners from its 2025-26 squad, which advanced to the Big South Conference Tournament semifinals for the first time in school history. Leading the returning group are preseason First Team All-Big South selections Jaylen Peterson and Carl Parrish, along with Second Team selection Triston Wilson. Other returners include senior guard Khalon Hudson; junior guards Iverson King, Erik Taylor, and Luke Allison; junior forward Chidi Chiakwelu; sophomore guards JD Bowden and Amare Anderson; and sophomore forward Augustine Ayelyine. The Blue Hose also welcome four newcomers to the roster: junior guard EJ Smith, freshman guards Nehemiah Young and Wade Marsh, and freshman forward Langston Hackworth.

EARLIEST SEASON OPENER IN SCHOOL HISTORY – Presbyterian's season opening game against St. Thomas on Monday, November 2, marks the earliest date that the Blue Hose have began a season. Last season, Presbyterian played Navy on November 3, which was the previous earliest season opener.

HOME OPENER – Presbyterian is 16-2 in their home opening game while a member of Division I.

PC COACH QUINTON FERRELL - Quinton Ferrell is in his eighth season as the head coach of his alma mater, Presbyterian College. Ferrell, a former Blue Hose team captain and a 2007 PC graduate, is one of 51 coaches in the NCAA Division I ranks who are coaching their alma maters.

PRESEASON BIG SOUTH HONORS - A school-record three Presbyterian Blue Hose earned preseason All-Big South honors, while the team was picked second in the preseason coaches' poll. Fifth-year forward Jaylen Peterson and senior guard Carl Parrish were named First Team All-Big South, while junior guard Triston Wilson earned Second Team recognition. Presbyterian's preseason pick of second in the Big South is the highest preseason ranking in the program's history. The Blue Hose previously highest preseason ranking was fourth-place ahead of the 2010-11 season.

2026 BIG SOUTH HONORS - Jaylen Peterson was named Big South Defensive Player of the Year and was an Honorable Mention All-Big South selection. Carl Parrish was named Honorable Mention All-Big South.

The 10 overall wins tied for seventh in the PC DI record book for total victories, and the seven conference wins, tied for fourth. PC experienced a five-game winning streak during the season, which tied for the longest winning streak since the 2017 season.

In his second season (2020-21), which came during the COVID-19 pandemic, Rayshon Harrison was named Big South Conference Freshman of the Year, Second Team All-Big South Conference, as well as being a CollegeInsider.com Freshman All-American. Owen McCormack earned Big South Conference All-Academic team honors.

In his third season (2021-22), the Blue Hose defeated VMI, New Orleans, and Central Arkansas to capture the University of New Orleans Classic title. Rayshon Harrison was named Second Team All-Big South Conference and earned Second Team NABC All-District 3 honors. Owen McCormack garnered the Big South Scholar-Athlete of the Year award while being named to the Big South Conference All-Academic team. Marquis Barnett was named to the Big South All-Freshman team. Owen McCormack and Jack McMahon were recognized for their hard work in the classroom by being selected for the NABC Honors Court. McCormack also earned College Sports Communicators Academic All-District honors.

In his fourth season (2022-23), Jalen Forrest was named to the Big South All-Freshman team. Owen McCormack claimed the Big South Scholar-Athlete of the Year award for the second straight season while being named to the Big South Conference All-Academic team for the second time. McCormack also earned College Sports Communicators Academic All-District honors again.

In his fifth season (2023-24), he guided the Blue Hose to the program's second postseason tournament bid in the Division I era with a berth in the CBI. Presbyterian began the season with a road victory at SEC foe Vanderbilt. The Blue Hose tied for fifth in the Big South, which was tied for the highest Big South finish in school history. Marquis Barnett was a Second Team All-Big South honoree. Kory Mincy earned Big South All-Freshman team accolades. Trevon Reddish-Rhone was recognized for his hard work in the classroom with a Big South All-Academic team selection.

In his sixth season (2024-25), he guided the Blue Hose to the program's third postseason tournament berth in the DI era with a trip to the CBI. The Blue Hose recorded seven Big South Conference wins, which was tied for the fourth most Big South wins in school history. Presbyterian earned the fifth seed in the Big South Tournament, which was the highest Big South Tournament seed in the program's history. Presbyterian was recognized for its hard work in the classroom by earning the NABC Team Academic Excellence Award for the first time in school history. Kobe Stewart was a Second Team All-Big South selection. Mincy was an Honorable Mention All-Big South honoree. Iverson King made the Big South All-Freshman team. Kaleb Scott was a Big South All-Academic Team selection.

In his seventh season (2025-26), Presbyterian recorded seven Big South Conference wins, while advancing to the Big South Tournament semifinals for the first time in school history. In the 2025-26 season, the Blue Hose also won 10 games at home in the Templeton Center, which was the second most home wins in Presbyterian's DI era. Jaylen Peterson was named Big South Defensive Player of the Year, becoming the first Blue Hose to earn that honor. Jonah Pierce was a First Team All-Big South selection, while Peterson and Carl Parrish were named Honorable Mention All-Big South. Josh Pickett garnered Big South All-Academic team accolades.

PREVIOUS COACHING EXPERIENCE

Ferrell returned to PC after five seasons as an assistant coach at the College of Charleston, where he had a major responsibility in recruiting, scouting, and developing perimeter players.

Before CofC, Ferrell served as an assistant coach at Army for one season under head coach Zach Spiker. The Black Knights recorded a program-best 10 conference wins in the Patriot League in 2013-14 and also turned in back-to-back winning seasons in league play for the first time in school history. He mentored unanimous First Team All-Patriot League selection Kyle Wilson and Patriot League All-Rookie Team member Tanner Omlid.

During the 2012-13 season, Ferrell served as an assistant coach at The Citadel under head coach Chuck Driesell. He worked with the Bulldogs' perimeter players while holding major responsibility for recruiting, opponent scouting, and monitoring players' academic progress. Ferrell worked with developing Citadel point guard Marshall Harris III, who handed out the second-most single-season assists (155) in program history, and recruited Southern Conference All-Freshman Team member Brian White.

Before his tenure at The Citadel, Ferrell spent five years as an assistant coach at PC. In addition to working with both perimeter and post players, he was responsible for a wide variety of tasks including recruiting, scouting, team travel, equipment, and academics.

In 2007-08, Ferrell helped the Blue Hose transition from NCAA Division II status into the NCAA Division I ranks and was part of a staff that engineered victories over Auburn, Wake Forest, and 20th-ranked Cincinnati during his time in Clinton, S.C. He recruited the top two scorers in school history in Khalid Mutakabbir (1,576 points) and Al'Lonzo Coleman (1,501 points), who went on to earn All-Big South Conference honors twice.

COLLEGIATE PLAYING CAREER

Ferrell joined the Blue Hose coaching staff the first time around after a productive four years on the PC men's basketball team. A three-year starter at point guard for PC, Ferrell is regarded as one of the best defenders to ever play at PC under former head coach Gregg Nibert.

Ferrell was on the 2005-06 Blue Hose basketball team that advanced to the NCAA Division II South Atlantic Regional Semifinals. He was also a senior captain on the 2006-07 Blue Hose squad that finished with 20 wins for the second consecutive season, leading the Blue Hose in assists and steals in each of his final two seasons, and was twice named the program's Most Valuable Defensive Player.

EDUCATION

Ferrell graduated from Presbyterian with a degree in accounting in 2007.

FAMILY

Ferrell is married to the former Kimberly Turner, of Augusta, Ga., and they have four children: two sons, Qaiden Mauricio (10) and Qémuel Mauricio (born May 2026), and two daughters, Keziah Renata (8) and Kelsie Riel (2).
