FLYERS' QUICK HITS

• Dayton enters the 2026 season under the direction of fourth-year head coach Trevor Andrews, who has guided the Flyers to a 17-16 record since his return to his alma mater. Andrews was a three-year letter winner at defensive back for the Flyers. He was a member of three Pioneer Football League championship teams that had Mike Kelly as the head coach, and Andrews' predecessor at Dayton , Rick Chamberlin, as the then-defensive coordinator. The Flyers were a combined 37-5 over Andrews' four years. That includes Dayton's undefeated (11-0) team in 1996.

• The Flyers return a veteran group on offense including their top passer in senior quarterback Bryce Schondelmyer, rusher in senior Luke Hansen, and receiver/all-purpose player in senior Gavin Lochow. UD brings back four of its top five receivers that totaled 19 touchdowns in 2025 as well as the bruising back duo of Hansen and fellow senior Mason Hackett, who accounted for 200 carries, nine touchdowns, and did a consistent job of moving the sticks for the Flyers.

• The defense will be anchored by a talented defensive line led by seniors Collin Ansel and Mirko Jaksic. Behind them sit the experience linebacker duo of Sam Schmiesing and Joe Kingsbury, both making 11 starts last season. The secondary will have some new faces this year, but junior Javawn Brooks made huge strides in the offseason and will bring the firepower on the back end for the Flyers.

• The special teams unit returns kickers Cameron Stoltz, Robby Smart, and David Maurer while junior Trevor Henkle has put his name in the mix as well this offseason.

TODAY'S OFFICIALS
Today's officials are:

The University of Dayton football team will finish up the regular season Saturday, Nov. 21 at 1 p.m. at Presbyterian College in Clinton, S.C.

Dayton needs a win to clinch their first Pioneer Football League Championship since 2015, sitting at 6-1 in league play and 9-1 overall. The Flyers are currently on a six-game winning streak, but their lone loss did come on the road this season, back on Oct. 3 at Drake.

As a team, Dayton is averaging 33.3 points per game while holding opponents to just 19.7 points each outing. The Flyers are earning 156.0 yards per game from the ground, 225.5 yards per game in the air, for 381.5 yards per game total. UD has controlled the time of possession, 33:09 to 26:41.

Dayton's offense is led by senior Bryce Schondelmyer with 22 passing touchdowns to eight interceptions and 2,175 yards in 10 starts. Senior running backs Luke Hansen and Mason Hackett have rushed 111 times and 110 times respectively and combined for 1,039 yards and 11 touchdowns.

Senior receiver Gavin Lochow recently moved into second all-time in Dayton history in all-purpose yards and already has the most receptions in school history. This season, he has 525 yards and eight touchdowns on 61 catches. Fellow senior Michael Mussari has chipped in six scores as well.

The defense is anchored by senior linebackers Joe Kingsbury with 68 tackles and four quarterback hurries and Sam Schmiesing with 43 tackles. Safety Ross Coppock has provided 67 tackles in the secondary in support.

SCOUTING THE OPPONENT

Presbyterian hosts Dayton with a 4-6 record on the year and 3-4 PFL mark. The Blue Hose are currently on a three-game losing streak, but are 3-1 at the friendly confines of Bailey Memorial Stadium this year. That loss did come in Presbyterian's last home game, a 27-10 Halloween loss to Butler.

Head coach Matt Rahl is in his first year in charge of the Blue Hose after 24 years of assistant coaching experience across multiple levels.

Presbyterian is scoring 25.3 points each outing and giving up 36.3 points to opposing teams. The Blue Hose are have a balanced attack with 167.5 yards per game rushing and 225.5 yards per game passing. Presbyterian ranks third in the nation in fumbles recovered and 28th in red zone defense.

Quarterback Landon Sharpe is also Top 20 in the country in total offense with 1,676 passing yards for 12 scores and 464 rushing yards for four more touchdowns. Running backs Damion Moate and Jackson Burleson have added six and seven rushing touchdowns respectively while leading receiver Caleb Johnson has 432 yards and three touchdowns.

Defensively, reigning PFL Freshman of the Week Tymaries Durant has three sacks, three quarterback hurries, 54 tackles, and three forced fumbles, which ranks 13th nationally. Ryan Largin leads the way with 71 total tackles while Noah Taylor has 10 pass breakups, second in the PFL.

NEXT UP

Dayton finished up the regular season Saturday and will see what postseason opportunities follow on Sunday.

HACKETT, MCDOWELL EARN 70TH ZULLI AWARD
• Dayton seniors Mason Hackett and Zachary McDowell were this year's recipients of the 70th annual Lt. Andy Zulli Memorial Award, the most prestigious honor for the UD football program. The award goes to the Flyer senior who best exemplifies the qualities of Zulli, a former UD football player who was killed in a military vehicle accident while serving in the Army in Germany shortly after his graduation in 1954. Zulli was not a star football player at Dayton, but his qualities of sportsmanship, scholarship and leadership were so exceptional that this award was created in his memory shortly after his death. This is the fourth time that two recipients have been chosen and the first time since 1984.

MORE PFL HONORS FOR UD DUO
• Senior receiver Gavin Lochow had three touchdowns vs San Diego to pick up PFL Offensive Player of the Week honors on Oct. 25 while teammate junior LeRoy Lewis IV earned PFL Special Teams Player of the Week after his 97-yard kick return touchdown.

• UD became only the third school (now there are four) to have two alumni coach Super Bowl winners. The others are San Jose State (Bill Walsh and Dick Vermeil), Arkansas (Jimmy Johnson and Barry Switzer), and Eastern Illinois (Mike Shanahan and Sean Payton).
• UD has ties to 24 Super Bowl rings. In addition to Chuck Noll's four with the Steelers and Jon Gruden's one with the Buccaneers, seven former members of the Dayton coaching staff own a total of 18 Super Bowl rings between them. They are the late Len Fontes (New York Giants, Super Bowl XXI), Jon's father Jim Gruden (San Francisco 49ers, Super Bowls XXII & XXIV), the late John McVay (49ers, XVI, XIX, XXII, & XXIV), Tom Moore (Pittsburgh Steelers, XIII & XIV, Indianapolis Colts, XLI and Tampa Bay Buccaneers, LV), George Perles (Steelers, IX, X, XII & XIV), Joe Lombardi (New Orleans Saints, XLIV) and Scott Boyer (New England Patriots, XLIX, LI, LIII). McVay was the Flyers' head coach from 1965-72.

WELCOME TO THESE HALLOWED HALLS

• Former Dayton tight end and current Denver Bronco Adam Trautman '19 was chosen for this year's 2027 UD Athletics Hall of Fame Class. Adam Trautman was named to six different All-America teams as a senior tight end for the Flyers in 2019. Trautman came to Dayton as a quarterback in 2015, but transitioned to tight end early that season. He redshirted his first year on campus, and was named UD's Scout Team Player of the Year while learning his new position.

DAYTON

HEAD COACH TREVOR ANDREWS' COMMENTS ON POSITION GROUPS

OFFENSE

QUARTERBACKS

• Bryce Shondelmyer- Is 100% healthy and has taken almost every single rep with the first unit during spring practice sessions and throughout fall camp.

Senior Liam Poronsky & Sophomore Luke Pennington have been competing for the QB2 position since last spring. It has been a close and competitive race. Both have shown tremendous growth.

Sophomore Patrick McLaughlin: Due to some depth injuries at the corner position and his athletic ability and skill-set. We moved Pat over to defense during training camp. He should provide us with quality depth at Corner and be a factor on special teams for us this fall. See corner backs below

RUNNING BACKS

• Seniors Luke Hansen and Mason Hackett have proved to be a dynamic 1-2 punch for the Flyers since their freshman year in 2023. They both return in great shape. Their relationship is really something to see. While they both want to play all the time and be the top guy they have become each other's biggest fan over their time here at UD. Running back is a position that you need 2, 3, or 4 guys to get you through the season and these guys have really learned to feed off of each other.

The rest of the RB depth chart has been very competitive. Juniors Tyler Brown and Dillon Fitzpatrick along with sophomores Mikey Hess and Noah Spencer have all been competing and challenging for game reps. All 4 of them look to be major contributors on special teams as well.

RECEIVERS

• We have a crowded wide receiver room led by returning senior starters Gavin Lochow and Mike Mussari. Fellow Ethan Thulin and Junior LeRoy Lewis have also had excellent preseason camps. Junior Paul Kelly has really been coming along with a strong training camp and is looking to expand upon his Punt and Kick Off returner role. Senior Ryan Martin put together a great summer and will challenge for playing time on offense and out special teams units. Sophomore Brevin Holubar had a breakout performance in our spring game and has been very solid throughout preseason camp.

TIGHT ENDS

• Returning Starters and seniors Donnie Weatherly and Carson Labensky have very different skill sets that compliment each other very well. Emerging talent junior Bryce Cowgill will also push for playing time. Sophomores Harrison Forestal and Andrew Verbancic both have tremendous upsides. Vrbancice has made significant strides since the spring and has also come along as a long snapper for our special teams units.

OFFENSIVE LINE

• Three starters return in this group. While the 5th year senior Center/Guard is still a few weeks away from returning to full time action he has been a tremendous asset to our younger players and has really taken to his leadership role in his second go around as a Captain. Senior Zach McDowell has slid into the Center spot and has looked great. Left Tackle Matt Barnes returns and is looking to improve on a very solid junior campaign. Stepping into full time starting roles for the first time will be junior Guards Charlie Olds and Alex Walton. Both have had strong preseason camps.

Others challenging for playing time will be experienced senior Center/Guard Lucas Shallal, junior Tackle Matt Appel, sophomore Lazar Babic, junior Brady Courtney. Shallal who has started games at center has been working his way back after a post season knee procedure a year ago. He has been given the green light for full contact and should factor in this season. Appel has also flashed in a good way during training camp and could see time early on this fall.

DEFENSE

DEFENSIVE ENDS

• Senior Collin Ansel returns as the top starter. He is physical and relentless. Newcomer Jace Schafer used preseason camp to build upon the foundation he laid in the spring and has emerged as the starter opposite Ansel. Sophomore Griffin Suren earned playing time as a freshman last season and has added strength and good weight to his long frame Suren along with junior Josh Grambo, who has returned from injury and has been working himself back into the rotation for his Junior season will provide rotational depth. Graduate Senior Andrew Yanoshack should emerge from a minor injury setback in the coming days to challenge for playing time after seeing significant reps last fall

DEFENSIVE TACKLE

• Senior captain Mirko Jaksic is looking forward to building on last season where he turned in All PFL honors and has developed into a leader along the defensive line. Junior Gus Dammann moves into a starting role after playing significant reps in the DT rotation his sophomore year. Senior Owen Trick has returned after having off season shoulder surgery and is the healthiest he has been in the past 2 years. Juniors Zane Plattner and Vito Paonessa will look to fortify the position as they should both see increased playing time this fall. Both have ideal size and length to bolster the unit and have shown significant growth over the past year.

LINEBACKERS

• Both starters return for 2026 in Sam Schmiesing and Joe Kingsbury. They took the lion's share of the reps at linebacker last season as first year starters. They feed off of each other and really play well together. Sophomore David Curl has solidified himself as the top reserve of the unit and should see an increased roll on defense this season in addition to his special teams duties. Junior Jack Yenichek and Sophomore Ryan Schapker have also been working with the second unit and will provide depth.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Juniors Javawn Brooks and Ross Coppock along with sophomore Paul Knapke have emerged as the top guys in a new look safety room this fall. All 3 of them have flashed throughout the preseason and should factor in for us this fall. Providing depth in the back end will be sophomore Talen Hulvey who will also be involved on the special teams units. The Star Safety position will feature junior Parker Chaney and sophomore Jordan McKie. Both will also factor in on special teams units as well.

At corner, three players have emerged from the pack in Juniors Steve McCalmont and Emmanuel Hardrick and Senior Jaz Boykin. It has been a very competitive preseason for all three and all three should see significant time.

Sophomore "athlete" Patrick McLaughlin moved over to corner a couple weeks ago to compete with Freshman Kolyn Ogletree for the fourth corner spot. Pat's athleticism and his ability to help us on special teams definitely played into the decision. Pat can catch punts, is an excellent long snapper and he can also run and cover. It's been impressive to see how fast he has been catching on at corner.
