GAME NOTES - NOV. 14 VS. VILLANOVA

The Holy Cross football team returns home for the final two games of the regular season, starting with a matchup against Villanova on Saturday, Nov. 14. Kickoff at Fitton Field is set for 12 p.m.

LAST TIME OUT:

- A trick play for a touchdown and game-sealing interception lifted the Holy Cross football team to a 27-24 come-from-behind victory over Georgetown in Patriot League action on Saturday, Nov. 7.
- After trailing by 10 points midway through the third quarter, the Crusaders completed the comeback when sophomore running back Joseph Williams completed a 17-yard touchdown pass to sophomore receiver Lincoln Fisher with 27 seconds remaining to give the Crusaders their first lead of the day. Junior safety Braden Haas then picked off a pass on Georgetown's final drive to secure the victory.
- The Crusaders earn their third straight win overall and their fifth consecutive Patriot League victory to improve to 5-2 in conference play. Holy Cross has now won 11 straight games against the Hoyas.
- Williams had an all-around day for the Crusader offense, with the 17-yard touchdown pass, 51 rushing yards and a score on the ground, and 26 receiving yards. Junior receiver Ty Curran finished the day with 73 receiving yards and a touchdown on six receptions.
- The Crusader defense held the Hoyas scoreless in the second half. Senior linebacker Adam Due had a team-high nine tackles; in addition to his interception, Haas finished the day with seven tackles and a pass breakup. Junior linebacker Jalen Rambert had seven tackles, and junior safety Juju Tackie had two pass breakups and six tackles, including one for a loss.
- For his efforts, Haas was named the Patriot League Defensive Player of the Week.

UPSET VS. RICHMOND:

- Holy Cross cruised to an upset over No. 19/21 Richmond on Oct. 31, earning a 33-14 win at Fitton Field.
- The win marked Holy Cross' first victory over a ranked opponent since the 2022 season, and their first over a higher-ranked opponent since 2021. Prior to Saturday, the Crusaders most recently defeated a ranked opponent in a 2022 FCS playoff game against #15 New Hampshire. This marked the first regular-season win over a ranked opponent since a victory over #22 Fordham in 2022, and the first upset over a higher-ranked opponent since defeating #20 Monmouth on the road in 2021.
- Holy Cross recorded a season-best 323 rushing yards, led by a career-best 206-yard showing from sophomore Joseph Williams, who also scored three touchdowns en route to earning Patriot League Offensive Player of the Week honors. He nearly single-handedly outgained the Spiders, who had 209 yards of total offense on the day.
- Junior running back Jake Croce scored two touchdowns, and junior running back Datrell Jones finished the game with 80 yards on 14 carries.
- Holy Cross rushed for over 300 yards as a team for the first time since the 2023 season.
- The Crusader offense line did not concede any sacks, quieting a Richmond defense that entered the game as the national leader in sacks (31).
- Holy Cross shut out the Spiders across the final three quarters, with senior captain Adam Due again leading the Crusader defense with 14 tackles and a half sack. Junior cornerback Juju Tackie had his first interception as a Crusader and finished the day with six tackles. Junior defensive end Cooper Ackerman totaled six tackles and had a sack, while senior safety Garrett Baldwin recorded seven tackles on the day. Senior captain Carlo Crocetti had four quarterback hurries.

JOJO'S MOJO:

- Williams has hit a rhythm in recent weeks, with four consecutive games of 100+ rushing yards between Oct. 3 and Oct. 31 and new career highs in the final three weeks of that stretch. He has five 100-yard rushing games this season.
- Williams' performance vs. Richmond was the first 200-yard rushing game by a Crusader since a 228-yard showing by Jordan Fuller at Lehigh in the 2023 season.
- Williams is one of five individuals in Holy Cross history to rush for 100+ yards in four straight games, and the first since Jerome Fuller did so in five straight games in 1991.
- He ranks second in the Patriot League with 901 rushing yards this season, which sits in the top 20 nationally. Williams ranks seventh nationally in all-purpose yards, averaging 138.6 per game.
- Against Harvard on Oct. 17, Williams totaled 249 all-purpose yards, with 123 rushing yards, 87 receiving yards and 49 kick return yards.
- In games against ranked opponents this season, Williams is averaging 121.25 rushing yards per contest.

RENT'S DUE:

- Due has been a leader on defense for the Crusaders this year, with a team-best 92 tackles, nine tackles for loss and four quarterback hurries.
- He ranks in the top 20 nationally in total tackles, also ranking fourth in the Patriot League.
- Due had an all-around day on defense in the Crusaders' win at Lafayette on Sept. 26, with three tackles for loss, including a seven-yard sack, a forced fumble, a quarterback hurry and a fourth-quarter interception.
- Due earned Patriot League Defensive Player of the Week honors for his performance against #19 Yale on Sept. 19; he totaled a career-high 17 tackles, a 10-yard sack and three quarterback hurries. Due's 17 tackles are a Patriot League single-game high this season, and the fourth-highest single-game mark in the FCS so far this year. Due's efforts helped hold the nationally ranked Bulldogs to just seven first-half points.

LYNCH LEADS THE WAY:

- Lynch earned Patriot League Offensive Player of the Week honors for his efforts in Holy Cross' first victory of the year, a 38-30 win at Lafayette on Sept. 26. In the win, he passed for four touchdowns with 230 yards on 22 completions, becoming the first Crusader quarterback to pass for four touchdowns since the 2024 season, when Joe Pesansky did so against Colgate.
- In his Holy Cross debut vs. #11 Lehigh, Lynch completed 25 of his 40 passes for 313 yards and a touchdown — the first 300-yard passing game by a Crusader since 2024. Lynch is the third Crusader quarterback to pass for more than 300 yards in their first career start, joining Tom Ciaccio (9/9/1989 — 449 yards vs. Villanova) and Joe Pesansky (10/28/2023 — 337 yards vs. Fordham). Lynch's 313 passing yards also rank as the most ever by a quarterback in their first appearance at Holy Cross.

- Curran has now scored four touchdowns in his last two games.
- Junior running back Datrell Jones recorded a season-best 77 yards on the ground and his first touchdown of the year.
- The Crusader defense had its best outing of the year with 10 tackles for loss, including six sacks, and two forced fumbles; Holy Cross held the Tribe to just 31 yards on the ground. Junior defensive end Cooper Ackerman had 2.5 TFLs, including 1.5 sacks, with five total tackles on the day. Junior linebacker Jalen Rambert recorded a team-high six tackles; sophomore linebacker Tyler Georgs and junior defensive lineman Brady Fodor each finished with five tackles and a TFL. Senior Garrett Baldwin had a pair of fumble recoveries and a pass breakup.
- Sophomore Owen Saraceno connected on a pair of field goals, with a 40-yarder and 39-yarder — the two longest field goals of his career.

CAMPBELL TROPHY:

- Fifth-year captain Cam Nolan of the Holy Cross football team was named a semifinalist for the 2026 William V. Campbell Trophy, as announced on Sept. 23 by the National Football Foundation.
- Now in its 37th year being presented, the Campbell Trophy recognizes an individual as the absolute best football scholar-athlete in the nation for his combined academic success, football performance and exemplary leadership.

- Raymond caught a 41-yard touchdown in a Monday Night Football matchup between the Bears and Philadelphia Eagles on Sept. 28, and totaled 90 yards on six receptions.
- Benton Whitley '21 recently signed with the New England Patriots practice squad and appeared in a Thursday Night Football matchup against the Bears on Oct. 22.
- Holy Cross currently has six former student-athletes on NFL rosters or practice squads, the most of any Patriot League program.

MATCHUP NOTES & HISTORY:
- This will mark Holy Cross' first regular-season matchup against Villanova since the 1989 season and the first-ever Patriot League matchup between the two teams.
- The Crusaders and Wildcats have played twice in the FCS Playoffs since then, with Villanova earning victories in 2009 and 2021.
- This is also the first time Villanova has visited Fitton Field since that 1989 season, when the Crusaders earned a 38-17 season-opening win.
- Saturday marks Holy Cross' Military Appreciation Game; all active and reserve military and veterans can claim free tickets to the contest.
- Villanova enters Saturday's matchup as the winners of four straight games and tied with Holy Cross for second place in the Patriot League standings (5-2).

- Holy Cross' 10 outright titles are the most of any Patriot League team.
- The Crusaders also played in the 1946 Orange Bowl, losing to host Miami on the game's final play.

CRUSADER COACHING NOTES:
- Dan Curran was named the 29th head coach in the history of the Holy Cross football program in December 2023. In his first season at the helm, Curran helped Holy Cross earn a share of the Patriot League Championship, becoming the first coach since Mark Duffner (1986) to win a conference title in their first season as head coach at Holy Cross.
- Curran previously spent 11 seasons as the head coach at Merrimack, guiding the program through its transition to Division I. He is the all-time winningest coach in Merrimack history with 53 victories, and led the Warriors to the Northeast Conference championship game in 2022 and 2023. Curran's 2022 team also tied the school single-season record with eight victories, while posting a seven-game winning streak and receiving votes in the top 25 for four consecutive weeks in just the program's third full season at the Division I level.
- Throughout his career, Curran has recruited and mentored nine All-Americans, 70 all-conference players and 10 NFL free agents.
- Curran began his coaching career after playing eight years of professional football. He spent time with the Seattle Seahawks and New Orleans Saints of the National Football League, as well as the New Orleans Voodoo and Georgia Force of the Arena Football League.
- A graduate of the University of New Hampshire, Curran earned All-Atlantic 10 honors after rushing for over 1,000 yards and scoring 16 touchdowns in his senior season for head coach Sean McDonnell and offensive coordinator Chip Kelly. The Chelmsford High School Hall of Famer was the Boston Globe Player of the Year as a senior after leading his team to a Super Bowl victory and its fourth consecutive Merrimack Valley Conference title.
- The Crusader staff features a number of promotions and new faces entering the 2026 season. Matt Schell, who previously coached the tight ends, was promoted to offensive coordinator for this year, while Bryan Robbat, the Crusaders' associate head coach, takes over as defensive coordinator. Jimmy Walsh will serve as the team's special teams coordinator in 2026.
- Joe Kreinsen joins the staff as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator, while Mikal Myers will serve as the defensive tackles coach.

LAST TIME THEY MET - DEC. 3, 2021 AT VILLANOVA

The Holy Cross football team came up just short against fifth-seeded Villanova in a second-round matchup of the NCAA D-I football championship subdivision (FCS) playoffs, falling by a score of 21-16 on Friday, Dec. 3 at Villanova Stadium.

Less than a week after earning its first playoff win in program history, Holy Cross (10-3) rallied from a 14-0 deficit to cut within four points midway through the third quarter, and after the Wildcats (10-2) regained a two-score lead late in the third, the Crusaders again cut within 21-16 in the fourth quarter. However, sitting within a score on their final drive, Holy Cross could not orchestrate another comeback triumph — with the Crusaders eventually turning the ball over on downs at the Villanova 39-yard line.

Sophomore quarterback Matthew Sluka passed for 169 yards and rushed for 106 yards and touchdown to pace the Holy Cross offense. Sophomore wide receiver Jalen Coker had 70 receiving yards for the Crusaders, while junior tight end Sean Morris hauled in a seven-yard touchdown reception.

The loss concluded the season for Holy Cross, and the result snapped a seven-game win streak for the Crusaders, who recorded their first 10-win season since 1991.

Justin Covington rushed for a pair of touchdowns in the second quarter for Villanova, helping the Wildcats build a 14-0 lead with 1:12 left in the first half.

Coming out of halftime, Sluka orchestrated a 12-play, 68-yard drive that concluded with freshman running back Jordan Fuller lofting a pass up to Morris for a touchdown. The Wildcats fumbled the ensuing kickoff, with freshman Frankie Monte forcing the ball out and sophomore Terrence Spence recovering it at the Villanova 25-yard line; senior kicker Derek Ng connected on a 22-yard field goal to bring the Crusaders within four points with 6:10 left in the third.

Villanova responded with a 55-yard kickoff return, and went on to score on a 14-yard touchdown rush, giving the Wildcats a 21-10 lead with 4:37 left in the third.

Sluka capped off a long drive with a three-yard touchdown rush, but two-point conversion was unsuccessful, bringing Holy Cross within 21-16 with 6:22 to go.

The Crusader defense forced the Wildcats to punt on their next drive, and Holy Cross took over with 3:43 left in the contest. Sluka connected with freshman wide receiver Justin Shorter for a 27-yard gain, and had a six-yard carry followed by a five-yard pass to junior wide receiver Ayir Asante. After three incomplete passes, a three-yard rush by Sluka on fourth down was not enough to complete the comeback.

PATRIOT LEAGUE NOTES

The Patriot League unveiled its football-specific brand identity and slogan, "The Power of 10," marking the beginning of A New Era of Patriot League Football as the League enters the 2026 season with 10 football-playing institutions for the first time in its 41-year history.

The campaign celebrates Patriot League football's recent expansion with the additions of associate members Richmond for the 2025 season and Villanova and William & Mary for the upcoming 2026 season.

"The Power of 10" campaign reflects both the strength coming with expansion and the collective success that has long defined Patriot League football. Beginning with the 2026 season, Patriot League Football will feature Bucknell, Colgate, Fordham, Georgetown, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh, Richmond, Villanova and William & Mary, creating one of the nation's premier FCS conferences.

The expanded membership brings together programs with rich football traditions and a history of postseason success. Collectively, the Patriot League's 10 football members have won two FCS national championships, advanced to 12 FCS national semifinals and reached the quarterfinal round 22 times, earning 42 FCS postseason wins.

With an increased national profile, the 10 football members share the Patriot League's defining commitment to developing well-rounded student-athletes who excel on the field, in the classroom and in the community.

Now in its fourth decade as an all-sport conference combining academic and athletic excellence, the Patriot League sponsors championships in 24 men and women's sports. Initially started as an NCAA Division I-AA football conference in 1986, the Patriot League became an all-sport conference in 1990. The Patriot League's mission is simple: to provide successful competitive athletic experiences while maintaining high academic standards, and to prepare its student-athletes to be leaders in society.
