Last Time Out

Last Saturday, Minnesota avenged its 2022 loss to Minnesota Duluth in the NCAA regional with a 3-0 shutout of UMD to advance to the Frozen Four. After a back-and-forth first period in which neither team could pull in front, defender Madeline Wethington went coast to coast to give the Gophers their first lead in the second period. Early in the third, Abbey Murphy delivered a highlight-reel goal to double the lead before Catie Skaja scored on a breakaway to add some insurance. The 30-save shutout was Skylar Vetter's seventh of the season – the tenth-most in a single season in program history.

Border Battle on the Big Stage

The Gophers and Badgers will meet for the sixth time this season in the NCAA Frozen Four semifinals. Minnesota went 1-2-2 against Wisconsin this season, but won the most recent matchup, 4-2, in the WCHA Final Faceoff semifinals. The last time these two teams met in the Frozen Four, Wisconsin defeated Minnesota 2-0 in the 2019 National Championship. The Gophers have a 4-4 all-time record against the Badgers in the Frozen Four.

HEAD COACH BRAD FROST

The 2022-23 season marks head coach Brad Frost's 16th season at the helm of Gopher women's hockey. Frost has brought the program to the pinnacle of the collegiate hockey world by advancing to six-straight NCAA Women's Frozen Fours from 2011-12 to 2016-17. Frost's Gophers won four national titles in six years, including back-to-back titles in 2012 and 2013 and again in 2015 and 2016. After joining the program in 2001 as an assistant coach and later holding the interim head coach title during the 2007-08, Frost was named the program's second head coach on April 16, 2008.

BRAD FROST
16TH YEAR AT MINNESOTA
BETHEL, 1996

In 16 seasons leading the Gophers, the Bethel University graduate has guided the Gophers to four NCAA national championships, ten NCAA Frozen Four appearances, seven WCHA regular season titles, and five WCHA Final Faceoff championships. Frost ended the 2021-22 season with a career record of 442-93-36 (.806) and has not had a team finish lower than fourth in the WCHA.

COACHING EXCELLENCE

Frost, who has won four national titles, is considered one of the best and most respected coaches in college hockey. In his 15 seasons, he has been named an AHCA Coach of the Year Finalist nine times and has won the national honor twice (2013 and 2014). Frost has been named WCHA Coach of the Year four times (2008, 2009, 2013, and 2014). Under his tutelage, the Gophers have tallied seven seasons with 30 or more wins. In 2013, Frost led the Gophers to the NCAA's first-ever perfect season (41-0-0).

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Over the last 15 years, Frost has coached some of the top talent not only in the nation but also in the world. He has seen 12 players (Megan Bozek, Hannah Brandt, Dani Cameranesi, Mira Jalosuo, Amanda Kessel, Gigi Marvin, Abbey Murphy, Kelly Pannek, Noora Rätty, Anne Schleper, Lee Stecklein, and Grace Zumwinkle) represent their respective countries in the Olympics. He also aided the development of former Gophers and Olympians Natalie Darwitz, Kelly Stephens, Lyndsay Wall, and Krissy Wendell while a Minnesota assistant coach. Frost has coached a total of 15 players to a combined 25 All-American honors. Among those All-Americans is 2022 Patty Kazmaier Memorial Award winner Taylor Heise. A total of 14 Minnesota student-athletes have been named Top-10 Patty Kaz finalists 22 times under Frost's tutelage.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Under Frost's guidance, the Gophers have recorded a 3.0 or higher grade point average and increased the team's Academic Progress Rating (APR). Minnesota has accumulated 174 WCHA All-Academic Team awards (15 in 2020-21), 77 WCHA Scholar Athlete honors (13 in 2020-21) and three WCHA Outstanding Student-Athlete of the Year award recipients (Alex Woken, 2020; Gigi Marvin, 2009; Kelly Terry, 2014) since Frost took reign.

INTERNATIONAL COACHING EXPERIENCE

Frost has served USA Hockey by working development camps and serving as a coach for various U.S. teams. In 2006, he was an assistant coach of the U.S. Under-22 Team, and from 2008-09, he was an assistant coach for the U.S. National Team.

PERSONAL LIFE

Frost grew up in Burlington, Ontario, and attended Aldershot High School. After graduating from Aldershot, he decided to attend college at Bethel University, which is where his parents originally met. While at Bethel, he studied Physical & Health Education and was a two-sport athlete, competing in hockey and golf. Frost was a four-year letterwinner in hockey and completed his career ranked eighth on Bethel's career scoring list. In 1994 and 1995, he was voted the team's Most Valuable Player and Most Inspirational. He also captained the Royals his junior and senior seasons. At Bethel, Frost met his wife Dayna. They now reside in Cottage Grove, Minn., and have three sons: Micah, Jonah and Josiah.
