KEY STORYLINES

- South Dakota volleyball looks to extend its seven-match win streak this week when it welcomes Omaha and St. Thomas to the Sanford Coyote Sports Center this week.
- Since the calendar flipped to October, the Coyotes have been on a roll with a seven-match win streak to take sole possession of first place in the Summit League standings with a 7-1 record.
- Historically under Williamson, the month of October has been the Coyotes best month with an 80-21 record (79.2%) and have won 10 straight dating back to last October.
- The Coyotes seven match win streak started with the Tommies and Mavericks. The Yotes went on the road following a loss to SDSU to kick off conference play, before sweeping both Omaha and St. Thomas on the road.
- South Dakota ranks No. 5 in the NCAA in digs per set at 17.10 behind three Coyotes averaging 3.0+ digs/set in Sierra Pokharel (3.97), Avery Van Hook (3.37) and Lauren Medeck (3.33).
- Lauren Medeck set a new career-high with 25 kills in Friday's win at South Dakota State and has reached double-digit kills in every match during USD's seven-match win streak.
- The Coyotes rank No. 1 in the conference in points per set (17.73), assists per set (13.20), kills per set (14.00) and digs per set (17.80). Amanda Loschen paces the league with a .345 hitting percentage, Avery Van Hook is No. 1 at 11.32 assists/set and Sierra Pokharel is the only player averaging our four digs per set at 4.23.
- Since opening in 2016, the Sanford Coyote Sports Center has proven to be one of the toughest facilities in the Summit League for visiting teams. The Coyotes hold a 60-14 (81.1%) mark in league games in the SCSC and a 91-20 (82.0%) overall record.
- Pokharel's career high of 32 digs against Northern Iowa is tied for the 16th most in the NCAA in a five-set match and the Yotes' 97 digs vs UNI is tied for the 26th most digs in a five-set match.
- The Coyote middles, Morgan Bode and Amanda Loschen, have been red-hot during the Coyotes seven-match win streak. Bode's put away 66 at 2.44 kills per set with a .329 hitting percentage and 28 blocks. Loschen's tallied 53 kills at a .333 clip and has 26 blocks.
- There are plenty of familiar faces on the South Dakota squad again this year with zero players leaving through the transfer portal and with zero additions through the portal. The Yotes graduated just one senior (Kamryn Farris) from last year's roster.
- Leanne Williamson enters her 13th year leading the Coyotes and holds a 265-115 record. Williamson set Summit League records for overall career wins and conference wins in 2025.

What Portal?

- The South Dakota roster saw minimal turnover from last season's team, graduating its lone senior in back-to-back Summit League Defensive Player of the Year, Kamryn Farris.
- Zero Coyotes entered the transfer portal in the spring, and the Yotes did not make any additions through the portal.
- USD is one of a handful of programs (North Carolina, Navy, Santa Clara) to not lose a player to the portal and also to not sign a player through the portal this offseason (North Carolina, Navy, Santa Clara, Northern Iowa).
- The Coyotes did sign a pair of freshmen in Gabi Zachariasen and Chloe Kmiecik.

Returning Production

- The Coyotes return 92.3% of their points, 93.8% of kills and 97.8% of their blocks from 2025.

- In total, USD returns its top-six in kills from last year.
- Avery Van Hook is back to guide the Coyote attack after a stellar junior season where she dished out 1,153 assists (No. 32 in the NCAA) and held a 10.2 assists per set average (No. 36 in the NCAA).
- Morgan Bode (110 blocks) and Amanda Loschen (95.0 blocks) combined for over 200 blocks in 2025.
- The Coyote backrow retains 70.6% of its dig total from 2025, as now alum Kamryn Farris was responsible for 536 of USD's 1,885 digs. Farris was No. 24 in the NCAA in total digs in 2025.
- The Yotes, however, return plenty of experience at defensive specialist as Sierra Pokharel and Samantha Untiedt recorded 240 and 238 digs in 2025.

1,000-300-100 Club

- Avery Van Hook finished the 2025 campaign as one of five players in the NCAA to tally 1,000+ assists, 300+ digs and 100+ kills.
- Van Hook recorded 20 double-doubles in 2025 and has 53 total in her career at USD.
- She tallied five or more kills in 11 matches in 2025 and nearly recorded her first triple-double in a four-set match against Wichita State with 39 assists, 16 digs and seven kills.

LEANNE WILLIAMSON

HEAD COACH • 12TH SEASON • WISCONSIN-MILWAUKEE

Leanne (Felsing) Williamson was named South Dakota's head volleyball coach on April 9, 2014, becoming the ninth head coach in program history. She previously was the assistant coach from 2009-13 and helped the Coyotes transition into the Division I level.

South Dakota played its best volleyball at the end of the season in 2024 and secured its fifth Summit League Tournament Championship and made its fifth appearance in the NCAA Tournament. It was the Yotes fifth conference tournament championship in the last seven years. It was the 11th year in a row where the Coyotes won 15 or more games under Williamson's guidance and ninth straight season with 10 or more wins in Summit League play. South Dakota earned a single-season program best three wins over teams inside the top-50 RPI and the win over Missouri was the program's first top-25 RPI win. After ending the regular season with three straight losses, the Coyotes responded by becoming the first Summit League team to win three games in three days to secure the Summit League Tournament Championship. The Yotes avenged a pair of regular season losses to Omaha with a 3-0 sweep over the Mavericks in the semifinal round, before grabbing a 3-2 win over SDSU in the championship to punch their ticket to the NCAA Tournament. The Coyotes set a new Sanford Coyote Sports Center attendance record of 2,810 in a November 19 match against South Dakota State and ranked 50th nationally in home attendance on the year. USD earned two wins over Power 4 opponents with a 3-1 win over then RV Missouri (Sept. 8) and a 3-1 win over Iowa State (Sept. 14) at the South Dakota Classic. Kamryn Farris was named the Summit League Defensive Player of the Year, Kylen Sealock was a All-League First team selection for the second straight season and Avery Van Hook was an All-League Honorable Mention. The Coyotes secured their fourth Summit League regular season title in 2023 and second straight with a 12-4 conference record. South Dakota finished the regular with five straight wins, including four straight sweeps, but would fall in the first round of the conference tournament to NDSU 2-3. In the match against the Bison, Madison Harms became the Summit League's all-time career blocks leader, finishing her time as a Coyote with 666. USD won 15-plus matches for the 10th year in a row under Williamson and the Coyotes made their sixth straight postseason appearance, earning a spot in the National Volleyball Invitation Championship for the second time in program history. Madison Harms was named an AVCA All-American Honorable Mention, AVCA All-Region Honorable Mention and the Summit League Player of the Year. Kylen Sealock joined Harms on the All-Summit First Team, while Avery Van Hook was selected to the All-Freshman Team.

South Dakota had a historic season in 2022, including its third-straight Summit League tournament title and the Summit League regular season crown. It was the first time that the Coyotes captured both the regular season and tournament titles in the same season. South Dakota finished first in the regular season at 16-2 before sweeping both Denver in the semifinals and Omaha in the Summit League tournament championship inside the Baxter Arena in Omaha. The Coyotes made history in the first round of its fourth NCAA tournament appearance in the last five seasons when they took #23 Houston to five sets. The 29-4 season marked the ninth-straight 15-plus win campaign for Williamson led teams. Williamson was named Summit League Coach of the Year for the third time, while Elizabeth Juhnke was named Summit League Player of the Year for the first time and Lolo Weideman was named Summit League Defensive Player of the Year for the first time. Madison Harms joined Juhnke and Weideman on the All-Summit League team after becoming the rally scoring era leader for assisted blocks, solo blocks, and total blocks at South Dakota. She was just the second Coyote in program history to record 500 career blocks. Juhnke became the first Coyote and fourth Summit League player to reach 2,000 career kills and owns the South Dakota and Summit League record for kills in a single season (677). Williamson earned her 165th career win and became the all-time career wins leader at South Dakota with a 3-2 victory over Missouri in the Sanford Coyote Sports Center on August 28.

The Coyotes captured a second-straight Summit League tournament title during the 2021 season, giving them two titles in the same calendar year. South Dakota finished second in the regular season at 15-3 before defeating South Dakota State and top-seeded Omaha in the Summit League tournament inside the Sanford Coyote Sports Center. South Dakota lost to #11 Minnesota in a NCAA Tournament First Round contest. The 20-10 season marked the eighth-straight 15-plus win campaign for Williamson led teams. Elizabeth Juhnke was named to the AVCA All-Region team and the All-Summit League First Team for the third straight season. Madison Harms joined Juhnke on the All-Summit League team after setting a school single season record with a .409 hitting percentage, the 14th best in the nation. South Dakota led the Summit League and ranked 40th nationally in home attendance.

The 2020 season was pushed from the fall to the spring due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic that caused many leagues to move fall sports into the spring. The Coyotes captured their second Summit League tournament title in the last three seasons with a thrilling 3-2 win over Denver in which it won the final three sets after trailing 0-2. The 15-7 campaign concluded with a NCAA tournament loss to Missouri as the NCAA conducted its entire tournament, reduced down to 48 teams, inside the CHI Center in Omaha. Elizabeth Juhnke earned AVCA Honorable Mention All-American honors while also earning All-Summit League honors along with Sami Slaughter and Madison Harms.

The 2019 season was another banner year for the Coyotes as Williamson led the program to a school-record 31 wins, the highest winning percentage in Summit League history (.912), and was named Summit League Coach of the Year for the second time in her career. South Dakota finished a perfect 16-0 in winning its first outright Summit League regular season title. The Coyotes advanced to the title game of the National Invitational Volleyball Championships (NIVC) before falling at home to Georgia Tech. It was the first home loss of the season after 14 wins and snapped an 18-match home court win streak that was tied for the sixth longest in NCAA. Sophomore Madison Jurgens was named Summit League Setter of the Year while senior Anne Rasmussen repeated as Summit League Defensive Player of the Year. Elizabeth Juhnke was named Summit League Freshman of the Year.

Williamson earned her 100th career victory as South Dakota posted a 3-0 sweep over Murray State on August 31. She became just the second volleyball coach in school history to reach 100 career wins. South Dakota averaged 1,167 fans in 15 home contests, including setting a Sanford Coyote Sports Center record for volleyball when 2,431 were on hand for the NIVC title match against Georgia Tech.

Williamson led the Coyotes to their first-ever Summit League tournament championship following a five-set win over Denver in 2018. That victory earned South Dakota its first-ever NCAA Division I national tournament berth. Senior Hayley Dotseth was named Summit League Player of the Year while junior Anne Rasmussen was honored as the Summit League Defensive Player of the Year.

Williamson garnered Summit League Coach of the Year honors in her third season at the helm as the Coyotes captured the program's first conference title in history. The 2016 season also saw the debut of the Sanford Coyote Sports Center with more than 2,400 fans in attendance at the home opener on August 30. The Coyotes finished 10-1 inside their new home with the only loss coming at the hands of NCAA Tournament participant Iowa State. USD also set a program record for wins in a season with 25 victories in 2016.
