The Hampton University 2006 Football Media Guide has been designed for use by local and national media and Pirate fans. Additional information including press releases, photos, and video footage is available by request to accredited media outlets. Any questions not covered in this publication can be directed to the Hampton University Sports Information Office.

CREDENTIALS

Credentials for Hampton University home games are issued to working media only and must be visible at all times for access to the press box. Requests should be made as soon as possible, in writing and on company letterhead to Jamar Ross, Director of Sports Information at 194 Holland Hall, Hampton, Virginia 23668 or via fax at (757) 727-5813. Season credentials will be granted only to daily newspapers and television/radio stations that cover the Pirates on a regular basis. Other media outlets will be granted credentials on a single-game, space available basis at the discretion of the Sports Information Office. Requests for single-game credentials should arrive no later than 48 hours prior to the day of the game.

Credentials will be mailed if time permits or can be picked up at the Sports Information Office, Room 194 Holland Hall, until 5:00 p.m. the day before the game. Otherwise, they will be left at the press will-call booth at Armstrong Stadium.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE

Hampton University football practices are open to the media. Coach Taylor will meet with interested media 15 minutes prior to or immediately following practice. Please contact the Sports Information Office if you plan to attend. A member of the Pirates Sports Information staff will assist in gathering requested players for interviews.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Coach Taylor plays host to a weekly media conference on Wednesday's at 11:00 a.m. in the Team Room of Armstrong Stadium. He will highlight the previous week's contest and also preview the upcoming opponent. In addition, Pirate student-athletes will also be in attendance and available for one-on-one interviews.

INTERVIEWING COACH TAYLOR

All media outlets that are unable to attend the weekly press conference may arrange an interview with Coach Taylor through the Sports Information Office. Please arrange all interviews at least 24 hours in advance. Interviews will be conducted either prior to or at the conclusion of practice; no interviews will be conducted during practice.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Players are available for interviews in person or via telephone throughout the week. All player interviews should be arranged through the Sports Information Office and at least 24 hours in advance. Telephone interviews will be conducted when the players' schedules allow. Hampton University players will not accept calls from the media in their rooms.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following a brief cooling-off period, Coach Taylor and requested HU players will be brought to the interview area in Armstrong Stadium. Requests for players will be collected in the press box, midway through the fourth quarter. The locker room and training area are closed to the media.

PRESS PARKING

Press parking passes are available upon request on a limited basis and must be picked up at least 24 hours in advance of the weekly contest. Press parking is located in Lot #3 adjacent to the tennis stadium or Lot #11 adjacent to the Hampton University Convocation Center. Press parking credentials must be visible in the front window at all times. Passes cannot be transferred or replaced.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Programs, flip cards, statistics and game notes will be provided before each game. A play-by-play will be distributed at the conclusion of each quarter. Halftime statistics also will be available. Complete team and individual statistics and scoring summary will be provided after the game. A light meal will be served during halftime of each game and soft drinks are available throughout the contest.

Hampton University

President

*Dr.
William
Harvey*

Dr. William R. Harvey is President of Hampton University and 100% owner of the Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company of Houghton, Michigan. A native of Brewton, Alabama, he is a graduate of Southern Normal High School and Talladega College. He earned his doctorate in College Administration from Harvard University in 1972. Prior to assuming his current position, he served as Administrative Vice President at Tuskegee University; Administrative Assistant to the President of Fisk University; and as Assistant for Governmental Affairs to the Dean of the Graduate School of Education at Harvard University.

As the President of Hampton University since 1978, Dr. William R. Harvey has introduced innovations which have solidified Hampton's stellar position among the nation's colleges and universities. His innovative leadership is reflected in the growth and quality of the University's student population, academic programs, physical facilities, and financial base.

His commitment to expansion and innovation in academic programs has resulted in 45 new academic programs. Some of these new thrusts include undergraduate programs in Physical Therapy, Marine Science, Chemical and Electrical Engineering, Airway Science, Emergency Medical Assistance Management; graduate programs in Business Administration, Applied Mathematics, Chemistry; and Ph.D. programs in Physics, Pharmacy, Physical Therapy, and Nursing. These new programs, together with existing ones, have placed and kept Hampton on the cutting edge of higher education.

An astute businessman, Dr. Harvey initiated a university-owned commercial development consisting of a shopping center and 246 two-bedroom apartments. All after tax profits from the Hampton Harbor Project are primarily utilized for student scholarships. Additionally, the Project creates jobs, provides services, increases the number of African-American entrepreneurs, and expands the tax base in the City of Hampton.

His achievements have been recognized through inclusion in Personalities of the South, Who's Who in the South and Southwest, Who's Who in Black America, Who's Who in American Education, International Who's Who of Intellectuals, Two Thousand Notable Americans, Who's Who in Business and Finance, and Who's Who in America. He is also the recipient of American Biographical Institute's Twentieth Century Achievement Award.

Dr. Harvey is married to the former Norma Baker of Martinsville, Virginia, and they have three children—Kelly Renee, William Christopher, and Leslie Denise.

Hampton University

The Standard of Excellence

Hampton University, a dynamic, progressive institution of higher education, is a privately-endowed, nonprofit, non-sectarian, co-educational, historically black university. It is located in southeastern Virginia and boasts one of the loveliest campuses in the nation, with a picturesque waterfront and historic buildings and landmarks.

Through global scientific collaborations, cutting edge research projects and increased technological enhancements on the campus, Hampton University continues to emerge as a leading research institution of higher education. The growth of Hampton University's academic reputation has brought unprecedented opportunities for university scientists to collaborate on worldwide research projects, including launching satellites, helping to detect breast cancer, developing a fiber-optic nerve system for artificial limbs, probing the earth's atmosphere and learning about the basic formation of the universe.

Named to the Honor Roll for Character Building Colleges for four consecutive years (1996-2000) by the John Templeton Foundation, Hampton University offers its students an education for life. The University was founded in 1868 by General Samuel Chapman Armstrong as Hampton Normal and Agricultural Institute, designed to educate the newly emancipated African Americans, and has grown into a comprehensive University offering a broad range of technical, liberal arts, pre-professional, professional and graduate degree programs. The University employs 400 faculty and maintains an enrollment of about 6,000 students.

The University is comprised of seven schools, the schools of Business, Engineering and Technology, Liberal Arts and Education, Nursing, Pharmacy, Science and the Scripps Howard School of Journalism and Communications, a Graduate College, the College of Continuing Education and the College of Virginia Beach. The University offers 38 bachelor's degree programs, 14 master's degree programs, and the doctoral or professional degree in nursing (Ph.D.), physics (Ph.D.), physical therapy (DPT), and pharmacy (Pharm.D.). Hampton was the first historically black college or university to offer the Ph.D. in nursing. The University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and the Department of Education of the Commonwealth of Virginia. Various schools and departments within the University also maintain specialized accreditations of their own. The University holds membership in the Council of Graduate Schools, the Council of Independent Colleges in Virginia, and the American Council on Education.

Hampton University is among the leaders in higher education, and has been ranked among the top (No. 29) southern universities in the regional university category of the 2004 U.S. News and World Report Best Colleges rankings. Hampton also was ranked No. 3 in Black Enterprise magazine's 2004 list of the leading colleges and universities for African American students. Hampton's commitment to technological advancement was recognized when the University was listed No. 6 among the "Most Connected Campus," in the country according to a 2003 survey conducted by The Princeton Review available exclusively on Forbes.com. HU, the only historically black college listed in the top 50, tied for sixth with three other universities. And, Hampton continues to be ranked among the top 10 in graduating African Americans with biology, business management, communications, English, journalism and psychology degrees by Black Issues in Higher Education magazine.

Hampton University's cultural achievements are equally as impressive. The University Museum, founded in 1868, is the oldest African-American museum in the United States and one of the oldest museums in Virginia. A recent $5 million renovation of an existing structure now houses the Museum's more than 9,000 objects, including traditional art from Africa, Asia, Native America and the Pacific; African-American fine arts; and objects relating to the history of the University. The Museum also includes archival holdings, which now total 10 million documents including works by 10 U.S. presidents; and the nation's first African American Poetry Archive, created in the summer of 1998. In addition, in 1996, the Museum acquired management and operation of The International Review of African American Art, the only publication devoted primarily to African-American art.

The Department of Athletics

Athletic Administration

Keshia Campbell

Associate Director of Athletics for Administration/Senior Woman Administrator

KESHIA CAMPBELL is entering her third year with the Hampton University Department of Athletics. Her primary responsibility is the oversight of the day-to-day operations of the department. She also provides direct supervision to the sports of sailing, softball, track and field, and volleyball. Campbell is one of twenty recent graduates of the NCAA's inaugural Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Females. The institute was designed to prepare diverse leaders in athletics through a rigorous twelve-month leadership training and skills development experience.

Campbell arrived at Hampton University July 2004 from her alma mater, South Carolina State University (SCSU), where she served as the Head Women's Basketball Coach for seven years. She was selected MEAC Coach-of-the-Year in 2001 after leading her team to a second place conference finish subsequent to a tenth place completion the previous season. Campbell served as the league's women's basketball coaches conference captain for three years. Prior to being named head coach, Campbell served as an assistant coach with the Lady Bulldogs for two seasons.

During her stint at S.C. State, Campbell, along with her players and coaching staff, participated in numerous mentoring programs at elementary and middle schools throughout the area. Through her organization and encouragement, her basketball program conducted basketball skills clinics for many young people at no charge. Campbell also played an integral role in establishing the Orangeburg Fastbreak Club – a club that recognizes area basketball student-athletes and coaches during the season at weekly luncheons. The proceeds that were collected through this club were used to fund the annual basketball banquet for SCSU.

Prior to arriving at SCSU, Campbell served as head varsity and junior varsity girls' basketball coach at Richland Northeast High School in Columbia, South Carolina and Orangeburg-Wilkinson High School in Orangeburg, South Carolina, respectively.

A native of Bennettsville, South Carolina, Campbell was valedictorian of her graduating class at Blenheim High School in 1987. Recruited by many schools, Campbell accepted a full basketball scholarship offer to play at S.C. State. She concluded her senior campaign by leading her team in scoring and rebounding which earned her the MEAC Player-of-the-Year accolade in 1991. While at SCSU, Campbell earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Physical Education in 1991 and a Master of Arts degree in Rehabilitation Counseling in 2003.

Campbell is a member of Sixth Mount Zion Baptist Temple in Hampton. She also holds membership in the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators (NACWAA).

Paul Bowden

Associate Athletic Director/Compliance Coordinator

PAUL BOWDEN is in his fifth year as the Associate Athletic Director and Compliance Coordinator at Hampton University. Bowden oversees the Pirates compliance with Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) and NCAA rules in the areas of recruiting, financial aid and student eligibility. His responsibilities also include supervision of the Olympic sports where under his guidance the Pirates have captured 12 MEAC championships in his first three years. In addition, Bowden has also been instrumental in the renovation of the Hampton University weight room, the development of a basketball coach's show, obtaining corporate sponsorships and supervising game-day operations.

Prior to accepting his current position, Bowden, a 1991 graduate of Hampton University, spent seven years as a business systems analyst at T. Rowe Price. The Baltimore, Maryland, native is married to the former Jillian Hawthorne, and they are the proud parents of two beautiful children, Cameron (9) and Sydney (7).

Athletic Administration

Novelle Dickenson

Faculty Athletic Representative

NOVELLE J. DICKENSON is currently Assistant to the Dean of the School of Liberal Arts and Education, Interim Chairperson of the Department of Sociology and Assistant Professor/Pre-Law Advisor in the Department of Political Science at Hampton University. He also currently serves as Hampton University's Faculty Athletics Representative to the National Collegiate Athletic Association, and the Mid East Athletic Conference. Additionally, he serves as the Chairperson of the MEAC Post-Graduate Scholarship Committee.

His academic experience includes serving as Chair and Acting Chair of the Department of Political Science, and Interim Chair of the Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation. He is the recipient of the Christian R. and Mary F. Lindback Distinguished Teaching Award.

Professor Dickenson has served as an advisor and member on numerous university committees including the Chair of the Instructional Committee and Faculty Representative to the Hampton University Board of Trustees. He is also very active in local politics and holds membership in several civic organizations.

He is a graduate of Hampton University and Howard University.

Edwina L. H. Simmons

Coordinator of Academic Support for Athletics

EDWINA SIMMONS enters her fifth year as the Coordinator of Academic Support for Athletics, assigned with the task of monitoring and ensuring that all student-athletes are meeting levels of academic progress set forth by the NCAA and the University's standards of excellence. Prior to her joining the Department of Athletics, Ms. Simmons served as Coordinator of Student Affairs/Academic Counselor and Recruiter for the Hampton University School of Pharmacy. Before that she worked as the Administrative Assistant to the Dean of Liberal Arts and Education for over 10 years. All in all, Ms. Simmons has been employed by the University since 1987.

In addition to her responsibilities as academic coordinator, Ms. Simmons also teaches a University 101 course through the Freshman Studies division; serves as an advisor for the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (S.A.A.C.) and the Virginia Delta Chapter of the National College Athlete Honor Society; and coordinates the NCAA Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success (CH.A.M.P.S.)/Life Skills Program.

Ms. Simmons serves on university committees for High School Day and Ceremonial Occasions. She is a member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) and the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) Athletic Academic Support Association.

A native of Hampton, Virginia, Ms. Simmons is also a graduate of Hampton University where she earned her B.S. degree in business management and her M.A. in counseling.

Omar Banks

Athletic Business Manager

OMAR BANKS is entering into his second year with the Hampton University Department of Athletics as the Business Manager for all Pirate sports. In addition to his role as the Business Manager, he also serves as the Ticket Manager for the Department of Athletics, and is responsible for supervising the game-day event staff.

Prior to accepting his current position, Banks served as a Project Manager and Data Consultant for IBM, and was also a Financial Analyst for Fidelity Investments.

Omar Banks is a graduate of the University of Richmond, where he was a three-year letterman on the Spiders' football team. He is also a graduate of North Carolina Central University, where he obtained a Master of Business Administration, and Virginia Commonwealth University, where he obtained a Master of Science in Sport Leadership.

Academic Support for Athletics

HAMPTON UNIVERSITY has a proud tradition of athletic excellence. In fact, Hampton's success on the playing field would not be possible without the student-athlete's success in the classroom. Due to the importance of academics at the university, the Department of Athletics implemented the Athletic Academic Support Program in 1998. The program is headed by Edwina Simmons, Coordinator of Academic Support for Athletics. Ms. Simmons and her staff are responsible for monitoring the academic progress of all student-athletes to ensure that they are meeting NCAA and university rules and regulations. The AAS program also provides study hall, tutorial services, and academic support for the student-athletes.

In its effort to provide the student-athlete with the very best tools for success on and off the field, the AAS program adopted the NCAA CHAMPS/Lifeskills program. Hampton's version of the program is called "Student Athletes Involved in Learning, Leadership and Service" (S.A.I.L.L.S.).

The S.A.I.L.L.S. program is geared towards the total development of the student-athlete through athletics, academics, career development, personal development, and community service. The program's commitment is also to provide an effective study hall program, which facilitates the development of student-athletes as critical thinkers with a variety of integrated learning skills. Student-athletes are given the opportunity to acquire appropriate communication skills and decision-making skills that will enable them to manage their personal and professional lives. The program also assists student-athletes with opportunities to develop the foundation for a lifelong commitment to volunteerism. S.A.I.L.L.S. is committed to the goal of assisting in developing the total person.

The S.A.I.L.L.S. program has provided various seminars that range from preparing for success in life to time management and drug awareness and responsibility. The program also reaches out to the community through Pirates Conquest—Pirates Conquering the Community. Student-Athletes visit area elementary and middle schools to speak about the challenges of balancing athletics and academics.

"S.A.I.L.L.S. is the key to Hampton's student-athletes present and future achievements, both on and off the field and in the classroom. This program sets out to accomplish the Hampton University mission of an education for life which is to ensure the future success of the student-athlete in both his or her personal and professional lives."

Armstrong Stadium

HOME OF THE PIRATES

Department of Athletics

Poised as one of the best facilities in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC), Armstrong Stadium is the home site for the Pirates football and men and women's track teams.

Initially constructed in 1928 by William E. Lee, a graduate of Hampton's Building and Construction program, Armstrong Stadium was completed by HU students with a seating capacity of 1,500.

The stadium was dedicated on October 6, 1928 and the inaugural game was played against Virginia Seminary with the Pirates taking their first home victory 13-0. The 1928 team compiled an 8-1 record including six shutouts while winning the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) crown.

Prior to the present renovation, the stadium seating capacity saw many changes over the years. In 1948, the stadium was expanded when additional seats were added in the west (home) side of the field. The enlargement raised the stadium's capacity to 4,400.

Under the administration of Dr. William R. Harvey, President, a number of renovations have been completed. In 1978, a new press box was completed on the west side. New bleachers were installed on the west side in 1985 and the east (visitor's) side in 1986. Stadium lights for night games, along with a new track, were added in 1988. In 1991, a new press box on the east side was added, along with TV towers to accommodate cameras for televised games. Ready rooms underneath the west side stands were completed in 1992. In 1998, the press box was renovated, the stadium was bricked, the playing field was resurfaced and a new scoreboard with the Pro Star Video Screen was added.

During the spring of 1999, additional seating in the North end zone was added, along with a complete new look to the main entrance of the stadium. The new additions also house nine offices, a conference room, three multipurpose audio/visual team rooms (Offense/Defense/Team), a locker room, reception and waiting areas and a team lounge. With the addition of the end zone seats, Armstrong Stadium's capacity is over 17,000, including standing room.

Hampton Facts

Hampton, Virginia

Located on the southeastern tip of the Virginia peninsula on the Chesapeake Bay, Hampton is the oldest continuously settled English community in the United States. As an Indian village called Kecoughtan, it had been visited by the first English colonists before they sailed up the James River to settle in Jamestown.

In 1610 the construction of Fort Henry and Fort Charles at the mouth of Hampton Creek marked the beginnings of Hampton. In 1619, the settlers chose an English name for the community, Elizabeth City. The settlement was known as Hampton as early as 1680, and in 1705 Hampton was recognized as a town. The City of Hampton was first incorporated in 1849 and classified as a city of the second class in 1908. In 1952 Hampton, the independent town of Phoebus and Elizabeth City County, encompassing Buckroe and Foxhill, were consolidated under one municipal government and classified as city of the first class.

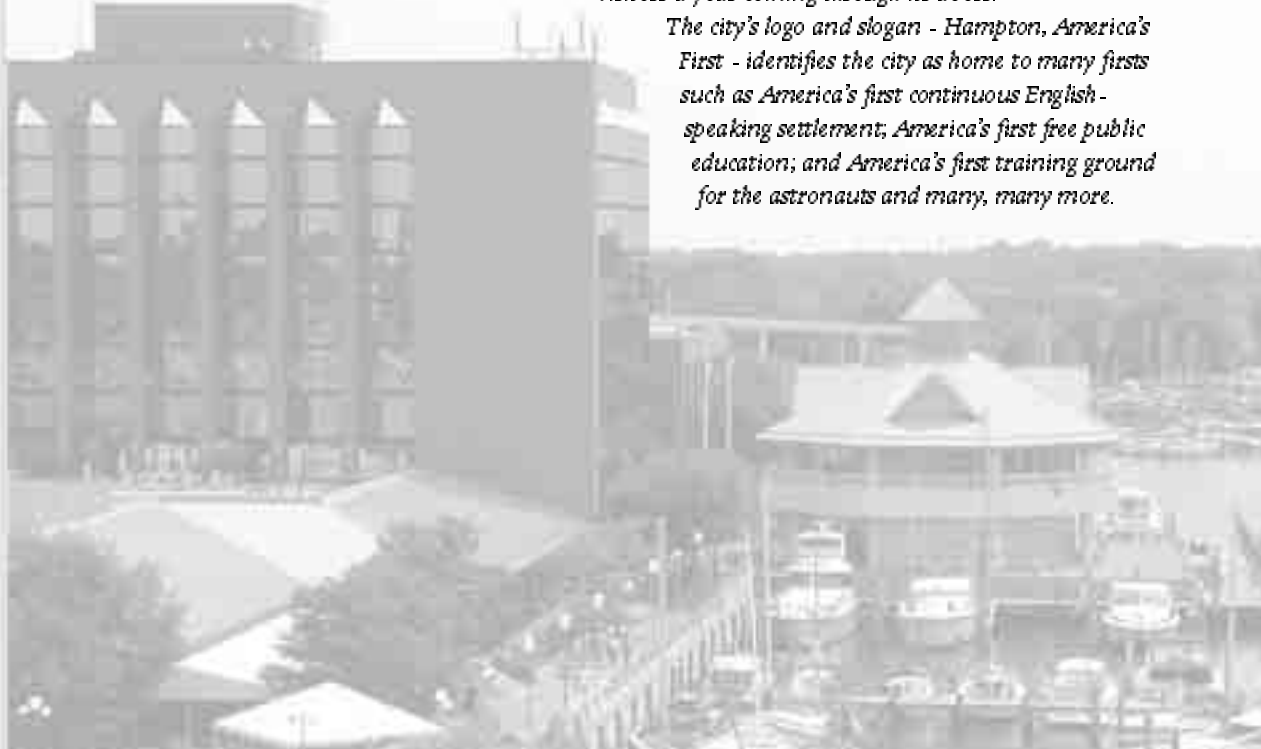

The first free public schools in the United States were founded in Hampton by Benjamin Syms and Thomas Eaton and are commemorated in the Syms-Eaton Museum. Hampton is the site of Hampton University, established in 1868 to educate freed slaves, and Thomas Nelson Community College. St. John's Episcopal parish was founded in 1610, making it the oldest in the country.

Fort Monroe, the only active moat-encircled fort in the country, dates from 1819. For a long period during the American Civil War the fort was the only Union outpost in the Confederacy. The famous battle between the first ironclad battleships, the Monitor and the Merrimac, was fought just offshore.

During the Civil War the city was burned down by its own troops rather than surrender to Federalist troops in 1861. Before the fire, Hampton had 30 businesses and over 100 homes. Fewer than six buildings remained intact after the fire. In 1884 fire again besieged Hampton and almost completely destroyed the downtown business district.

Today Hampton is a thriving city of over 141,000 residents. Major industries are NASA and high-tech firms, including the recently expanded Gateway computer manufacturing facility, seafood processing, military and tourism. In 1992, the Virginia Air and Space Center opened on the downtown waterfront with almost 300,000 visitors a year coming through its doors.

The city's logo and slogan - Hampton, America's First - identifies the city as home to many firsts such as America's first continuous English-speaking settlement; America's first free public education; and America's first training ground for the astronauts and many, many more.

HAMPTON UNIVERSITY STRENGTH and CONDITIONING

PRINCIPLES of ATHLETIC DEVELOPMENT

1. Ground-Based Movements:

Sport skills such as running, jumping or throwing are initiated by applying force against the ground. You need to select lifting exercises and conditioning drills that apply force with feet against the ground such as squat and hang clean, hang snatch or push jerk. The more force your athletes can apply against the ground, then the faster they will run and more effective they will be in sports skills. Other exercises will do little to improve performance.

2. Train Movements, Not Individual Muscles:

Our strength and conditioning program is based on exercises and drills involving multiple joint actions to improve athletic performance. Athletic skills such as running, jumping and throwing require multiple joint action times in the proper neuromuscular recruitment patterns. Otherwise, an individual has no coordination and lacks the ability to generate explosive force. Also, sport skills involve movements in the three planes of space simultaneously: sagittal, frontal and transverse. Our strength program improves functional strength with exercises approximating these skills. Free weights allow movement in three dimensions simultaneously. This makes the transfer of strength and power easier to merge with the development of sport skills. Free weights require the assistance of stabilizing and fixating muscles. Machines have a path that is dictated where an individual does not have to stabilize the load over the duration of the lift, thus not allowing sufficient work to the stabilizer and fixator muscles.

3. Training Explosively:

The amount of force required for a given activity is regulated by the use of two different types of motor units found in the body, fast twitch and slow twitch which vary greatly in their ability to generate force. Football players are interested in developing fast twitch fibers while cross-country runners are interested in developing their slow twitch muscles. The number of fibers a fast twitch fiber innervates is greater than a slow twitch fiber and the contractile mechanism of fast twitch muscle fibers are much larger. That is why all this adds up to a fast twitch fiber generating a force being four times greater than a slow twitch fiber. In most cases, football players are born with a higher ratio of fast twitch fibers which allows them the potential to be powerful if they train correctly.

4. Principle of Variety:

The load or amount of weight lifted for each exercise is the most fundamental component of a strength-training program. The application of the load has a crucial impact on maximizing performance and keeping injuries to a minimum. Overload happens when the body responds to training loads greater than normal. The overload causes the muscle of the body to go into a catabolic state or break down. The body then adapts, through good nutrition and rest, by compensating through the development of more strength or endurance. Intensity and volume are the key factors used to progressively increase the overload. The use of heavier loads increases the intensity. Adding more repetitions increases the volume. Each method causes specific adaptations. Increasing the weight and keeping the repetitions and keeping the weight lighter causes improvement in work capacity and muscular size.

“We become champions by investing in the community”

Giving back to the Hampton Roads community is as much a part of the Pirates football program as winning a championship. Led by Head Coach Joe Taylor, the Pirates make sure they take the time to reach out and give back to the same community that has supported them.

Over the years, the Pirates have offered free youth clinics at their annual “Meet the Pirates Day.” During the past year, the Pirates football gospel choir performed at the Newport News Homeless Shelter, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA), and the Veterans Affairs Medical Center’s annual graduation, for which they received a special certificate.

The Pirates have also sponsored many seminars over the past year, including speakers such as the following:

- Mayor of Hampton, Mamie Locke
- City Manager, George Wallace
- Hampton Circuit Court Judge, Judge Will Taylor
- Hampton University Dean of Men, Dean Woodson Hopewell
- Director of Gourmet Services, Alvin Branch

Hampton University student-athletes make numerous appearances throughout the year at various functions in the community. Whether it’s visiting classrooms, speaking at banquets, or working with the department’s community service programs, the Pirates continue to provide a positive role model throughout the City of Hampton. Pirate Pride!

SEASONED FOR THE CHALLENGE

On the heels of back-to-back Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) championships and I-AA playoff appearances, the Hampton University Pirates enter the 2006 campaign looking to take their program to another level. While the Pirates have enjoyed an enormous amount of success the past few years, they are still fighting to join the ranks of the elite programs in the country. Coach Joe Taylor's squad returns a stellar senior class and a host of four-year starters who are hoping to become the first team to win three straight MEAC championships since South Carolina State accomplished the feat with four titles from 1980-83.

QUARTERBACKS

The Pirates have a complimentary mix of veterans and youth at the quarterback position, but it all begins with senior Princeton Shepherd who is back for the third year as the starter. Shepherd will be the first HU quarterback to start three consecutive seasons since Roy Johnson (1996-99), and he's poised to have a breakout year with the Pirates switching to a more wide open offense. A proven winner with a record of 21-5 as a starter, Shepherd is fifth all-time at Hampton in passing yards (3,366) and fourth in touchdown passes (31).

Several times last season Shepherd and the HU offense found themselves needing a change of pace and backup

Antwan Smith provided just that. With Hampton trailing 10-0 against 19th ranked South Carolina State, he came in and tossed two touchdowns to lift the Pirates to a 14-0 victory. The senior Smith bettered that effort in the season finale against Richmond in the I-AA playoffs when he completed a school playoff record 15 passes (27 attempts) for 221 yards and a score.

The future of the program could lie in the hands of West Virginia transfer TJ Mitchell or incoming freshman Herbert Bynes. Mitchell has the advantage of having played under new offensive coordinator Chris Beatty when the pair led Landstown High School in Virginia Beach to the 2003 state championship game. That year Mitchell set a state record with an incredible 46 touchdown passes. He left Landstown ranking in the Top 10 in the state's record books for career, single season and single game passing yards and touchdowns. Bynes drew interest from I-A programs such as Wisconsin, Louisville and Bowling Green, but he chose Hampton for a chance at taking over a celebrated program. At 6-foot-4, 220 pounds, he possesses a very strong arm and can make any throw on the field and at the same time, he can also make plays with his feet.

RUNNING BACKS

If it's one phase of the game that the Pirates do not have to worry about, it would have to be the ground attack. When you return a three-year starter who has rushed for more than 1,000 yards each year since arriving on campus, it tends to put you at ease. Walter Payton Award candidate and All-American Alonzo Coleman is back and he has his eyes set on a record breaking year. Coleman needs just 242 yards to become Hampton's all-time leading rusher and 546 yards to break the MEAC career rushing record. In addition, he's also looking to become just the eighth Division I player to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons. Last season he split time with Ardell Daniels as the duo became just the third pair of backs to each rush for more than 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. After sharing carries during his first three years, Coleman should surpass the 1,326 yards he amassed in 2005 now that he is the sole feature back. If there is any downside to the reigning MEAC Offensive Player of the Year it's that he only has 24 career receptions. However, look for Coleman to see a lot more touches via the passing game in 2006.

Juniors Kevin Beverly and Van Morgan will split time as the No. 2 running back. Another Kent State transfer who departed as the Flashes' starting running back, Beverly showed a lot of promise during spring drills. He's a physical north-south runner who can also catch the ball coming out of the backfield. Morgan has seen limited time during his first two years, but when called upon he has answered the bell, evident by his 6.9 yards per carry average.

Fullback Curtis Lewis has been the other half of the Pirates' bruising ground game the past three seasons. An excellent blocker at the point of attack, his willingness to take on linebackers and defensive linemen of any stature has made things easy for Coleman and the rest of the Hampton running backs over the years. Junior Qutrell Payton saw plenty of action last season as well and he will remain in the rotation at fullback. The better of the two fullbacks when it comes to carrying the ball, Payton averaged nearly seven yards per carry on nine attempts last season and he also caught three passes for 22 yards and a score.

WIDE RECEIVERS

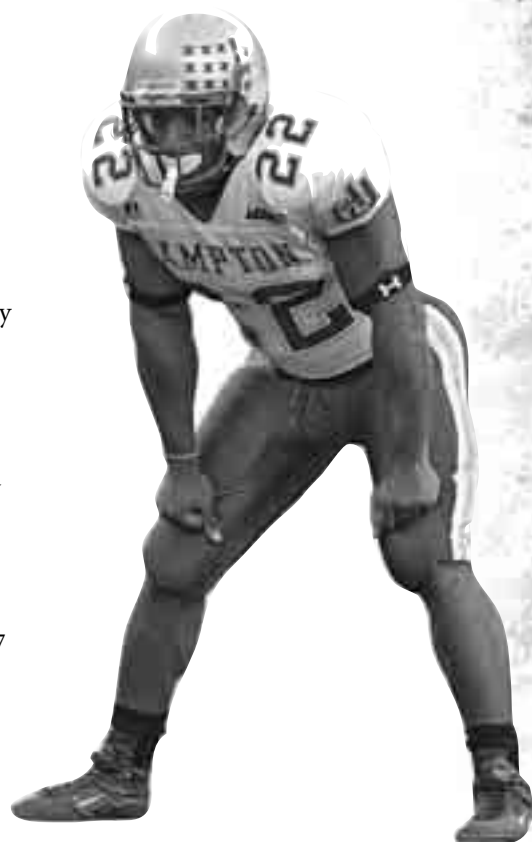

This may very well be the Pirates' best corps of receivers to take the field in quite some time. In the past, Hampton has had one game-breaker complimented by a group of role playing receivers. However, this year the Pirates have numerous individuals at the position who can take it the distance at any given time and the new offensive scheme is designed to capitalize on that. A trio of veterans return in seniors Marquay McDaniel, Onrea Jones and Dereck Faulkner.

McDaniel and Jones both set career-highs in receptions and receiving yards with McDaniel hauling in a team-high 42 passes and six touchdowns. His combination of speed and his excellent route running will again make him the primary target for the HU quarterbacks. Jones came into his own a year ago, particularly in the playoffs when he broke the Pirates' playoff records with 11 catches for 192 yards and a touchdown. He packs 205 pounds on a 6-foot-2 frame, making him a big target underneath and over the middle. However, he also has the speed to vertically stretch the field, something he showed last season when he averaged a team-high 19.7 yards per catch.

Dereck Faulkner is back from a nagging leg injury that sidelined him for the final five games of last season and if he can stay healthy he should have a solid year as well. At 6-foot-4, 225 pounds, he has the body of a prototypical NFL receiver and he put every inch on display against Morgan State in the New York Urban League Classic. Against the Bears he was virtually unstoppable, tearing the secondary apart to the tune of five catches for 113 yards and a 38-yard touchdown.

Several others will also see plenty of action in the Pirates' new spread offense. Virginia Tech transfer Jeremy Gilchrist joined the team in January and had a great spring campaign. However, it came as no surprise to offensive coordinator Chris Beatty who also coached Gilchrist at Landstown High School. As a senior Gilchrist caught 87 passes for 1,399 yards and 18 touchdowns, departing as the Virginia High School league's second all-time leading receiver in receptions (198) and yards (3,230). He redshirted the 2004 season at Tech and caught one pass for nine yards last year.

Darius Mullen and Kevin Teel round out the top six receivers for the Pirates. Teel turned in the Pirates' fastest 40-yard dash this spring and he should see several touches via the pass or on reverses to take advantage of his speed. A local product out of Bethel High School in Hampton, Mullen was signed as an athlete, but will make his mark at wide receiver. He was an all-district performer as a senior and also his team's most valuable player.

TIGHT ENDS

The Pirates have the luxury of returning both players who saw a majority of the time at tight end last season. Starter Ernie Lomax brings athleticism to the position that the Pirates haven't had in recent memory. He can play inside and make the tough catch across the middle, or he can spread out wide and matchup against defensive backs. He averaged 12.5 yards per catch in 2005 after hauling in 11 receptions for 137 yards and a touchdown.

The more physical of the two tight ends, senior Weston Hill will back up Lomax. While he didn't catch a pass last season, he was a great run blocker who could seal the edge, allowing Pirate backs and quarterbacks to get outside.

OFFENSIVE LINE

For the second consecutive year the Pirates have taken a huge hit along the offensive line where they lost three starters, including MEAC Offensive Lineman of the Year Gerell Golightly. Success this season could hinge on how quickly some viable replacements are found.

Nevin McCaskill and Brandon Walker are the two returning starters and they will be called upon early to anchor the offensive line. McCaskill has been a mainstay at left tackle for the past two seasons, starting 24 straight games since his sophomore season. His superior footwork and agility have been assets for the HU quarterbacks who have the utmost confidence in McCaskill protecting their blindside. A Second Team All-MEAC performer in 2005, he is looking to become the fifth Hampton lineman in as many years to capture Offensive Lineman of the Year honors in the league.

Senior Brandon Walker will make the transition to right guard from right tackle where he started all 12 games last season. Walker played a large part in helping the Pirates rush for nearly 240 yards per game a year ago and his move inside should be beneficial to Hampton's ground game and pass protection.

The other three positions along the offensive front will all be manned by first-year starters. Terrance Smith takes over at center for the departed Charles Huff and junior college signee Adam Herald will begin the season at right tackle. After a good showing this spring, Dennis Conley is ready to show the coaching staff that he can handle the starting duties at left guard.

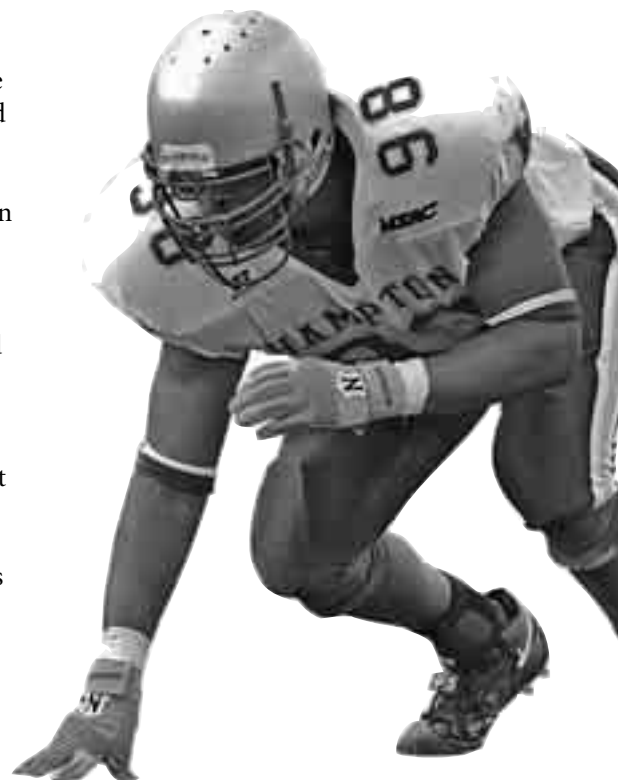

DEFENSIVE LINE

A pair of bookends who have been tabbed the "Twin Towers" by the Pirates' coaching staff lead an experienced group along the defensive front. The first half of the talented duo is 6-foot-6, 290 pound Kendall Langford who was an all-conference selection in 2005. Langford was second on the team in tackles from his defensive end position, registering 65 total stops and a league-high 15.5 tackles for loss. He has the speed to go around and the power to fight through offensive tackles, which led to his 4.5 sacks. Not to be outdone, Marcus Dixon displayed talent that should have him battling for a spot on the all-conference team as well. At 6-foot-4, 280 pounds, Dixon has seen time at defensive tackle and end, excelling at both. He added 33 tackles and seven tackles while playing opposite of Langford, making it extremely hard for offensive line coaches to focus on shutting either down.

While the "Twin Towers" are bringing the pressure from the edge, senior Vernon Bryant controls the middle of the defensive line. Bryant has the responsibility of taking on double teams and allowing the Pirate linebackers to roam free and make plays. He worked his way into the rotation as the season progressed and had possibly his best game against Richmond in the first round of the playoffs. If he can pick up where he left off, the Pirates should have a stout first unit.

Another key performer along the defensive line is senior Alden Blizzard who tied for the team lead among defensive linemen last year with 4.5 quarterback sacks. The North Carolina transfer is in the similar mold of Langford and Dixon and likewise, he can take a game over at any given time. Last year against South Carolina State he dominated up front to the tune of nine tackles (5 solo) and two tackles for loss.

LINEBACKERS

All-American Justin Durant spearheads the Pirates' defensive unit from his inside linebacker position. The two-time MEAC Defensive Player of the Year, Durant possesses the instincts and range that helped him register a team-high 124 tackles last season, including 15 behind the line of scrimmage. His performance was recognized nationally when he finished third in the voting for the Buck Buchanan Award, given annually to the top defensive player in Division I-AA. Another solid season and Durant will definitely put himself in the position to play at the next level.

Kensley Dougan and Rudolph Foye are gone, along with their 110 tackles, 12 tackles for loss and five sacks. Playing behind them last year, Jimari Jones and Charles Robinson will man the outside linebacker positions for the HU defense. Jones showed that he is more than capable of making the big hit with his 13 solo stops, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries, while Robinson brings added athleticism and range. Former safeties Ray Lewis and Henti Baird have made the switch to linebacker where they will provide added depth along with Demarius Sapp.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Three of four starters return in the secondary, led by two shutdown corners in Travarous Bain and Calvin Bannister. Both members of Hampton's 4x100 meter relay team, they have exceptional closing speed that will allow the Pirates to take more chances in bringing pressure defensively. Filling in for Bannister who was injured in week four, Bain not only held his own, but developed into one of the top cover corners around. He earned all-conference honors after leading the MEAC and ranking fourth in the country with 14 breakups for an average of 1.56 per game.

Despite missing four games with an ankle injury, Bannister still managed to finish second on the team with nine breakups and an interception. He led the league in passes defended as a sophomore with 19 and has 42 for his career. If he can remain healthy he should garner the all-conference honors that have been mysteriously avoiding him for the past three years.

The hard-hitting Marlon Fair is the only returning starter at safety. A member of what has been a dominant senior class, Fair came into his own a year ago. He finished fifth on the team with 50 tackles (27 solo) and his interception at Bethune-Cookman played a large part in helping the Pirates repeat as conference champions. Supporting the run has always been his strength, but he has improved dramatically in his pass coverage.

While Fair secures the free safety spot, former walk-on Jermaine Mallory comes into camp as the No. 1 strong safety. Mallory's experience thus far was mainly on special teams, but he showed during spring drills that he deserved a chance to be in the lineup. A devoted student of the game, he always seems to be in the right place at the right time and gives the Pirates another coach on the field.

Darius Swinton and Vaughn Mansfield should also see plenty of time at both safety positions. A part-time starter in 2005, Swinton has been a major contributor since arriving at HU and this year should be no different.

SPECIAL TEAMS

All-American placekicker Andrew Paterini is back for his final go around and he's looking to add to his school records for field goals made and points by a kicker. Last season he made a Division I-AA best 20 field goals, including a school record 55-yard kick against Norfolk State. His leg strength and accuracy give the Pirates another added dimension to their offense.

Hampton did lose several key elements of their special teams unit with the loss of punter Cameron Muro and long snapper Kensley Dougan. Freshman Jahmal Blanchard will take over for Muro and if he can maintain his 42-yard average from high school, then the Pirates should be in good shape. If not, Paterini may be called upon to handle both.

The return game is sound once again with Marquay McDaniel handling the punt returns and Calvin Bannister and Travarous Bain the kickoffs. McDaniel averaged a career-high 14.6 yards per return as a junior, ranking 12th in the country in that category. Bannister and Bain combined to average better than 26 yards per opportunity, but look for speedster Kevin Teel to also see some touches from back deep.

Head Coach

H

Joe Taylor

...a tough disciplinarian who is convinced that an intelligent athlete will make the right decision on the field and in life.

The 2004 and 2005 MEAC Coach of the Year, Joseph Taylor, is entering into his 15th season at the helm of the Pirates' football program and his 24th season overall as a head coach. Taylor, who also serves as Hampton's interim Director of Athletics, continues to show that while offensive strategies and defensive schemes can win games, true professionalism and great work ethic are the foundation for successful programs.

The winningest coach in Hampton University football history, Taylor has reached peaks never before seen by the Pirate program. Since his arrival, he has guided the Pirates to four Black College Championships, seven conference titles, a Heritage Bowl Championship and six trips to the NCAA playoffs. As overseer of the Pirates, Taylor has compiled a 14-year record of 120-42-1. His career mark of 181-71-4 (.707) places him on the national level as the fourth winningest active coach in NCAA Division I-AA football when ranked by total victories and winning percentage.

Coach Taylor's hard work, determination and commitment to excellence has made him a pioneer amongst his peers as evident by his multiple leadership positions. A member of the Board of Directors for the Black Coaches Association, Taylor was most recently recognized by Sports Illustrated as one of four finalists for the Eddie Robinson Coach of Distinction Award. The 2001 President of the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), he is the chairman of the AFCA Minority Issues Committee and the Board of Directors of the American Football Coaches Foundation. In addition, Taylor also acts as a member of both the Advisory Board for the Wilson Sporting Goods Corporation and the NCAA Division I-AA All-American Selection Committee. He has been selected as the Coach of the Year by several professional organizations such as the Washington, D.C. Pigskin Club, the Norfolk Sports Club, the American Football Coaches Association, and the Atlanta, Florida and Richmond Touchdown Clubs. In 2000 Taylor was honored with the Johnny Vaught Lifetime Achievement Award by the All-American Football Foundation, and a year later he was inducted into the Western Illinois University Hall of Fame. His community involvement has also been plentiful, currently serving on the Citizens Unity Commission, a subsidiary of the Hampton City Council.

Taylor began his professional career as a physical education instructor with the District of Columbia school system. He also served as an assistant football coach at H.D. Woodson High School where he helped the program win two city championships. In addition, as the head wrestling coach his teams won four consecutive city championships. Taylor also served as an assistant baseball coach on a team that won three city championships.

His collegiate career began as offensive line coach at Eastern Illinois in 1978. That same season the Panthers captured the Division II National Championship.

In 1980 he moved on to become the offensive coordinator at Virginia Union University and served in that capacity for two years. In 1982 he joined the Howard University staff as the defensive coordinator and was named head coach the following season.

Taylor returned to Virginia Union as head coach in 1984, guiding the Panthers to an undefeated regular season and a Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) Championship in just three short years.

He continued his winning ways when he joined the Hampton University family in 1992, leading the Pirates to three consecutive CIAA titles and two consecutive NCAA playoff appearances.

In 1993 Taylor led the Pirates to an undefeated regular season and the quarterfinal round of the national playoffs, becoming the first CIAA team in history to win 12 games in a season, finishing the year with an overall mark of 12-1.

In their last season of Division II competition, the 1994 Pirates added yet another milestone with a 10-1 finish and the Sheridan Broadcasting Network's (SBN) Jake Gaither Trophy, the prestigious honor recognizing the Historical Black College National Champion. The 1994 Pirates also broke the CIAA total offense record with 5,575 yards, becoming the first CIAA team to finish the season averaging more than 500 yards of total offense per game. Hampton dominated its final seven opponents as the Pirates averaged 54.2 points per game while limiting their opposition to a mere 14.2 points per game, extending their CIAA winning streak to 23 games. The Pirates were recognized as the NCAA Division II statistical champion for scoring offense (46.4 ppg) and rushing defense (66.0 ypg).

THE Joe Taylor ERA

Debuting in the NCAA Division I-AA and the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) in 1995, the Pirates faced just four conference opponents, finishing 3-1 in those contests. They led the MEAC in both total offense (396.3 ypg) and total defense (122.3 ypg). Led by Coach Taylor the Pirates finished their first season of Division I-AA competition with an impressive 8-3 record.

The 1997 season saw Hampton win its first MEAC title, also earning the Pirates their first bid to the I-AA playoffs with a 10-2 record. The

Pirates were also crowned SBN National Champions for the second time in four years. In 1998 Hampton repeated as MEAC Champions and made its second consecutive appearance in the I-AA playoffs. The 2004 season saw Hampton climb back atop the MEAC standings thanks to an astonishing defense and solid offensive and special teams play. The Pirate defense led the country in turnovers forced with 43, while they also led as Jerome Mathis set a national record with five kickoff returns for touchdowns. Offensively, Hampton featured the second highest scoring unit in the nation at better than 43 points per game, including four 50-point efforts.

I-AA in kickoff return average

Taylor, a 1972 graduate of Western Illinois University and a native of Washington, D.C. is married to the former Beverly Richardson and they are the proud parents of Aaron Joseph (27) and Dennis Anthony (23).

What They're Saying About Coach Taylor

Fisher DeBerry

Head Coach, Air Force Academy

"There is no coach in America finer than Coach Taylor. No one loves the game of football more and that's evident by his service to various organizations such as the American Football Coaches Association and by what his players have been able to accomplish over the years. If I had a son I'd love for him to play for someone like Coach Taylor. He's an individual who has his priorities right, caring about the student-athlete as a whole and players respond to that. There is not a man I respect more than Joe Taylor."

Ken Hatfield

Head Coach, Rice University

"Coach Joe Taylor is a true coaches' coach, a gentleman in every sense of the word. He is a highly professional individual who has a great passion for building solid character among his student-athletes. His focus remains on graduating student-athletes in addition to winning football games. Coach Taylor has been consistent and faithful throughout his career. He's just an all-around great football coach."

John Teerlink

Defensive Line Coach, Indianapolis Colts

"I played against Joe every day in practice [at Western Illinois], and he was a fierce competitor then, and he still is to this day. His successful record as a coach is a reflection of the great work ethic and drive that he possessed as a player. And when you go back and look at Joe's career, you'll see that while he has produced a host of outstanding players, he has also developed a solid group of young coaches and that's what he's about."

Grant Teaff

Executive Director, American Football Coaches Association

"Joe Taylor is to me the epitome of what a college football coach should be. His coaching talent is recognized across the nation as one of the best. To me, he is also one of the great leaders of our generation."

Floyd Keith

Executive Director, Black Coaches Association

"I know Joe Taylor as an educator, a professional and a person, and he embodies everything that the word coach means. He touches every aspect of the student-athlete through a strong concern for academics, graduation rates and the religious component of an individual. Coach Taylor is about everything that is good in college athletics and Hampton University is blessed to have someone of his caliber."

Assistant Coaches

CHRIS BEATTY

Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks

CHRIS BEATTY is in his first season with the Hampton football program where he will serve as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He joins the Pirate coaching staff after spending the past eight years establishing himself as one of the top high school coaches in the state of Virginia, posting a record of 78-18.

In his most recent stop at Landstown High School, Beatty led the Eagles to a remarkable record of 40-2, making three consecutive appearances in the Virginia AAA championship game. Known primarily for his high powered offenses, Beatty and the Eagles won the 2004 state championship behind the play of a pair of highly touted receivers in future Florida recruit Percy Harvin and Florida State signee Damon McDaniel.

Prior to his stint at Landstown Beatty also made stops at Salem High School and North Stafford High School where he helped turn both programs into contenders. At Salem he posted a two-year mark of 16-5, leading the Sun Devils to a Beach District championship and the school's first playoff appearance in 2001. While at North Stafford Beatty's team won back-to-back district titles in 1998 and 1999, earning playoff bids in both seasons.

Beatty was named district and regional Coach of the Year on several occasions, and in 2004 he was recognized as the Virginia High School League's (VHSL) AAA Coach of the Year after guiding Landstown to the state championship. In addition, he was instrumental in the development of numerous athletes who finished their careers ranked among the best ever in the state of Virginia. Not only did he coordinate the offense that produced the top four passes in VHSL history, but he has also guided the only two teams in state history to have a 3,000-yard passer, a 1000-yard receiver, and a 1,000-yard rusher in the same season. Twelve of his former players are state record holders, including six of the top 10 receivers.

A native of Centreville, Virginia, Beatty is a graduate of East Tennessee State University where he earned his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education in 1995. He was a four-year starter at wide receiver for the Buccaneers, earning All-Rookie Team honors as a freshman and All-Southern Conference honors as a senior. When he departed from ETSU Beatty was the school's all-time leader in receiving yards and second in career receptions. He then went on to play in the Canadian Football League with the Baltimore Stallions (1995) and the Hamilton Tiger-Cats (1997)

JERRY HOLMES

Defensive Coordinator / Linebackers

JERRY HOLMES enters his second season as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Hampton University. Prior to joining the Pirates' staff, Holmes spent five years coaching defensive backs for the San Diego Chargers (2002-03), the Washington Redskins (2001) and the Cleveland Browns (1999-00).

As a coach, Holmes embodies the same characteristics that he demonstrated as a player in the NFL and the USFL, physical play and aggressive football. His coaching prowess has transferred successfully to his players on the field everywhere that he has been. In 2001 his Redskins secondary boasted the NFL's sixth leading defense against the pass. The team's 23 interceptions were the fifth most in the league. During Holmes' tenure with the Browns, Cleveland ranked 11th and 12th in the league against the pass.

Holmes began his coaching career as the linebackers coach and co-defensive coordinator at Hampton University from 1992 to 1994. During those three seasons with the Pirates, Hampton posted a remarkable record of 31-4-1, winning three consecutive CIAA championships, making two trips to the NCAA playoffs and capturing the 1994 Black College National Championship. After leaving Hampton, Holmes spent the next four seasons (1994-98) as the defensive backs coach at his alma mater West Virginia University. In 1996 the Mountaineers featured the nation's top-ranked defense that included a No. 5 national ranking against the pass. He has also completed coaching internships with the Detroit Lions, the Jacksonville Jaguars and Boston University.

Assistant Coaches

Since his return to Hampton in 2004, Holmes has continued his previous success by guiding linebacker Justin Durant to consecutive MEAC Defensive Player of the Year honors, while also helping the Pirate defense lead the country in turnovers forced with 43 in 2004. Last season his unit finished the year ranking second in Division I-AA in points allowed at 14 points per game, while also ranking sixth in total defense.

As a player, Holmes' professional career spanned 12 seasons as a cornerback and included stops with the NFL's Green Bay Packers (1990-91), Detroit Lions (1988-89) and New York Jets (1980-83, 86-87), as well as the USFL's New Jersey Generals (1985) and Pittsburgh Maulers (1984). His NFL totals included 25 interceptions, two of which he returned for touchdowns.

Holmes began his collegiate career at Chowan Junior College where he earned an associate degree in business administration before transferring to West Virginia. There he was a two-year letterman in football, earning his degree in business administration in 1979. As the captain of the Mountaineers during his senior campaign, Holmes was honored with the Ira A. Rodgers Award as the team's most valuable player.

A native of Newport News, Holmes and his wife Patricia Ann have one daughter, Natasha Nicole (10).

CHARLES W. BANKINS

Running Backs

CHARLES W. BANKINS is entering his sixth season as the running backs coach for the Hampton University Pirates. In his second stint with the program, Bankins spent the 2005 season as the assistant special teams coach with the St. Louis Rams, helping them improve from an NFL low of a 32nd ranking to number 17 by season's end.

Coach Bankins made an immediate impact with the Pirates backfield upon his arrival in 2000. During that season, he guided Montrell Coley to a record shattering season in which Coley won the Division I-AA scoring title with 172 total points, led the MEAC in rushing with 1,582 yards and became Hampton University's all-time leading rusher. Coley ended his Hampton career by breaking nine school records and participating in the 2001 Hula Bowl where he scored the final touchdown of the contest. The Hampton University backfield was also represented in the 2003 Super Bowl as Darian Barnes, another Bankins product, started at fullback for the World Champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

In his most recent season at Hampton (2004), Bankins directed Pirate running backs Alonzo Coleman and Ardell Daniels as they became the only pair of backs in Division I-AA to each rush for more than 1,000 yards. The duo repeated that performance a year later, marking just the third time ever that a pair of running backs each surpassed the 1,000-yard mark in consecutive seasons.

Prior to his appointment with the Pirates, Coach Bankins served as the wide receivers/tight ends coach at Indiana University of Pennsylvania. During his stay at IUP, Bankins helped to steer the Indians to the 1999 Division II Northeast Regional Championship and a trip to the Division II Semifinals. Two of his players were named all-conference and the Baltimore Ravens signed his tight end as a free agent. Bankins went to IUP after spending the 1998 season at his alma mater, James Madison University, where he coached the wide receivers.

Before his stint at James Madison, Bankins mentored the wide receivers at Eastern Kentucky during the 1997 campaign. The Colonels ended the season with an 8-3 record and an Ohio Valley Conference Championship. Two of his receivers were named to All-OVC, including a future Atlanta Falcons' seventh round selection and a third round draft pick by the Seattle Seahawks.

Coach Bankins earned his bachelor's degree in speech communication with a minor in political science from James Madison University in 1994 and received his master's degree from Eastern Kentucky University in sports administration in 1998. He lettered as a running back at JMU. After graduation, Bankins worked as a marketing coordinator for the JMU athletic department and coached at Leonardtown (MD) High School before moving on to Eastern Kentucky. He has worked numerous camps, including those at the Ohio State University and the University of Maryland. Bankins spent the 2002 summer as a minority-coaching intern for the Green Bay Packers and was recently named to the 2004 NCAA Expert Coaching Academy.

Bankins is married to Dr. Katrina L. Brown and they reside in Hampton.

TIMOTHY
EDWARDS
Defensive Line

TIMOTHY EDWARDS is in his fourth season at Hampton University serving as the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator. Since his arrival in 2003, the football program has had one of the best three year runs in school history. HU is presently the back-to-back Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference Champions, back-to-back Sheridan Broadcasting Network (SBN) National Champions, and back-to-back NCAA play-off participants.

Edwards joined the Hampton University coaching team after spending one season with the Carolina Rhinos (AFL2) as the defensive coordinator and Pearl River Community College as the defensive line coach. He joined the Carolina Rhinos' coaching staff after spending four years at Kentucky State University where he held several positions throughout his tenure including linebackers, defensive line coach and pro liaison. His days on the sidelines have helped to develop the professional careers of several former players including: Cletidus Hunt (Green Bay Packers, NFL), Kitwana Jones (Saskatchewan Rough Riders, CFL), Dewayne Woods (Georgia Force, AFL) and Chris Avery (Grand Rapids Storm, AFL). In addition, Edwards has coached two All-Americans in Hunt at Kentucky State, and linebacker Kitwana Jones at Hampton.

Since 2003 when Edwards arrived, the Hampton University defense has been ranked in the top ten in several defensive categories. As the linebackers coach in 2003, HU defense finished the season ranked 7th in total defense. Edwards then moved to coach the defensive front in 2004 and the defense led the nation in turnovers (43) as well as finished 2nd in the nation in turnover margin. With another strong defensive front in 2005, the HU defense ended the season ranked 2nd in scoring defense and 6th in total defense.

A 1991 graduate of Delta State University where he earned a bachelor's degree in Aviation Management, Edwards was a two-time First Team All-Gulf South selection as a defensive lineman. He was also honored as an All-American by the Football Gazette (1989, 1990) and by the Associated Press (1990). At the conclusion of his senior season Edwards participated in the Blue-Gray All-Star Game as well as the Senior Bowl and as a result of his performance, he was selected in the 12th round of the 1991 NFL draft by the New England Patriots. Edwards played three seasons with the Patriots before signing a free agent contract in 1995 with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders of the Canadian Football League, with whom he also spent three years.

A native of Philadelphia, Mississippi, Edwards recruits Georgia, Mississippi, Tennessee, and Virginia. He's a member of the NFL Retired Player's Association, the CFL Player's Association and the American Football Coaches Association (Minority Issues Committee). He is married to the former LuAnn Shockency of Louisville, Kentucky, and they have two children Halena and Timothy II.

HARRY GALBREATH
Offensive Line

HARRY GALBREATH is in his second season as offensive line coach at Hampton University after spending five years in the same capacity at Tennessee State. While at TSU, Galbreath's offensive line helped pave the way for the Ohio Valley Conference's leading rusher, All-American running back Charles Anthony.

A nine-year NFL veteran, Galbreath enjoyed a solid professional career with three teams as an offensive guard and center. He was an eighth round draft pick by the Miami Dolphins in 1988, earning All-NFL Rookie Team honors that season. Galbreath played with the Dolphins through the 1992 season, before moving on to Green Bay (1993-95) and the New York Jets, where he retired in 1998.

The Clarksville, Tennessee, native was one of the top players in the nation coming out of high school and signed with the University of Tennessee in 1983. Galbreath starred for the Vols from 1984 to 1987, before graduating with a degree in human services in 1988. He received the prestigious Jacobs Award during his senior campaign as the top offensive lineman in the Southeastern Conference. He was also a Playboy and Sporting News All-American, in addition to being named All-SEC by the AP and the UPI. In 1991, Galbreath received the additional honor of being named to Tennessee's 100 Year All-Time Team as an offensive guard.

At the conclusion of his playing career, Galbreath entered the coaching field as the offensive line coach at Austin Peay State University, where he remained for two seasons before making the move to Tennessee State University.

He has two sons, Jon Michael and Dejuan.

GREG HOWELL
Kickers

GREG HOWELL is in his seventh year as a member of the Pirate coaching staff, working exclusively with punters and placekickers. Since his arrival here at Hampton, Howell has helped the Pirates develop one of the most respected kicking units in the country. He has coached seven all-conference honorees in addition to two All-American selections in punter Cameron Muro (2003) and placekicker Andrew Paterini (2004, 2005). In 2003 Muro set a school record with an average of 42.1 yards, while last season Paterini shattered his own school record with 20 field goals, including a conference record 55-yard kick.

A 1999 graduate of Norfolk State University, Howell was an All-America placekicker at Central State University in Ohio, where he helped to lead the Marauders to the 1995 NAIA national championship.

Howell is a native of North Lewisburg, Ohio, and he is currently employed with Newport News Public Schools. He is the proud father of one daughter, Christiana.

DONOVAN
ROSE
Assistant Head Coach /
Secondary

DONOVAN ROSE is entering his 16th season on the Pirate coaching staff, his fourth as assistant head coach. Rose will be responsible for the defensive secondary while also continuing to direct Hampton University's JET (Job Education Training) Corps and H.O.P.E. (Hampton Opportunity Program for Enhancement) programs.

As an impressive walk-on at Hampton University in 1975, Donovan played defensive back and kicker for the Pirates. However, by his senior year he was voted the CIAA Defensive Player of the Year, named as an All-American and was selected as a starter and captain in the 1978 Black College All-Star game at the New Orleans Super Dome.

He later signed with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1980 and also played for several championship teams in the Canadian Football League, winning the Grey Cup with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers in 1984. In 1986, he joined the Miami Dolphins and led the team in interceptions. After Donovan's retirement in 1988, he was recognized as a Distinguished Hamptonian at his alma mater. He and his wife developed a sports agency, Silro Sports Enterprises, where they advised athletes regarding professional football tryouts, contracts, youth camps and life after football.

Since his return to Hampton in 1991, Rose has aided in the development of 13 All-Conference players, four All-Americans, two National Players of the Year and four professional athletes, the latest being Travis Coleman (1998-01) who went on to sign a free-agent contract with the Chicago Bears. As a secondary coach, Donovan's philosophy and coaching style has also attracted attention not only from the collegiate ranks, but from the NFL as well. He has served internships with the Miami Dolphins, San Diego Chargers (two years) and New York Giants, and in 2003 he was honored as the Division I-AA Assistant Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association and the Mike Campbell Top Assistant Coach by the All-American Football Foundation.

He is married to the former Miss Hampton University (1981) Sylvia Woody, a native of Tampa, Florida, and they are the parents of two children: Deja (18) and Donovan, Jr. (10).

COREY SULLIVAN
Wide Receivers

COREY SULLIVAN is entering his second season as the wide receivers coach at Hampton University. A four-year letterman at Tennessee State, Sullivan was a two-time All-Ohio Valley Conference receiver for the Tigers. During his senior campaign, the Miami, Florida, native was an All-American and Spirit Award candidate. Following his days at TSU, he went on to spend the 2000 season as a free agent wide receiver with the Buffalo Bills, in addition to playing with several Arena League teams. Sullivan, who earned his bachelor's degree in psychology in 2002, returned to his alma mater in 2004 to coach the wide receivers.

DEVAN HILL
Defensive Backs
Graduate Assistant

DEVAN HILL is in his fourth season working as a graduate assistant with the Hampton defensive backs. During his previous three seasons, Hill coached three all-conference safeties and a Pirate defensive unit that finished third in Division I-AA in interceptions in 2004. A four-year letterman (1996-99) and two-year starter at cornerback for Joe Taylor and the Pirates, Hill was a member of a Hampton squad that claimed back-to-back MEAC championships in 1997 and 1998. This 2004 graduate earned his bachelor's degree in sports management and is currently pursuing his master's degree in communicative disorders.

AARON
TAYLOR
Tackles/Tight Ends

AARON TAYLOR is entering his sixth season on the Pirates' coaching staff where he will work with the tight ends and tackles after coaching running backs in 2005 and the defensive line the four years prior to that.

During his tenure on the defensive side of the ball, Taylor worked with numerous all-conference performers to lead a Hampton defense that ranked amongst the best in the country. With the Pirates' defensive unit leading Division I-AA in turnovers forced in 2004, Hampton was able to capture its third MEAC championship. Last year in his first season overseeing the running backs, he aided Alonzo Coleman and Ardell Daniels in becoming just the third duo to rush for 1,000 yards each in consecutive seasons.

The Charleston, Illinois, native and oldest son of head coach Joe Taylor is a graduate of Phoebus High School (Virginia) where he was a four-year letterman in football. In 2001 he earned his bachelor's degree in history/political science from Virginia State University where he also was a member of the Trojans' football team. His outstanding senior campaign as an offensive guard garnered him All-CIAA honors.

SAMUEL MURPHY
Defensive Line
Graduate Assistant

SAMUEL MURPHY is entering his second season as a graduate assistant working with Timothy Edwards and the defensive line. A four-year letterman and captain at Hampton University (2000-03), Murphy was an All-MEAC selection during his senior campaign after registering 11.5 tackles for loss and six quarterback sacks. The 2004 graduate earned his bachelor's degree in entrepreneurship and will be working towards a master's degree in community counseling.

KISSIE PETTAWAY
Office Manager

MS. KISSIE PETTAWAY is entering her sixth year at Hampton University. A Tarboro, North Carolina, native, Ms. Pettaway is the office manager for Pirate football. Her enthusiasm, compassion and pleasant personality have helped to promote a highly successful football program. Ms. Pettaway is a resident of Hampton and is the mother of two sons, Tyrese (5) and Omari (3).

JAMAR
ROSS
Director of Sports Information

This will be the fifth year for JAMAR ROSS serving in his current position of Director of Sports Information at Hampton University. As well as the day-to-day operations of any sports information office, Ross serves as the primary contact for all men's athletics and women's golf, in addition to all fundraising, marketing and promotions activities for all HU athletics.

Before coming back to Hampton University, where he served for one year as the Assistant Sports Information Director during the 2000-01 athletic year, Ross held a one-year stint at his alma mater—Winston-Salem State University—as the Director of Sports Information in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. At WSSU, he was responsible for promoting and publicizing all of WSSU varsity athletics, including the University's nationally respected Men's Basketball and Football programs competing on the Division II athletic level of the historic Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA). In his only year at WSSU, Ross created the best football media guide in the school's history for the 2002 playing season. He was also the primary contact for the CIAA Football Championship game held at Bowman-Gray Stadium, home of the WSSU Rams.

Ross had been a student assistant in the Office of Sports Information at WSSU for two years with Adrian Ferguson, current Director of Sports Information at Livingstone College in Salisbury, North Carolina. After graduation, Ross headed to the mid-west to Southern Illinois University, where he served a one-year internship in the Athletic Media Relations Department during the 1999-2000 athletic season.

Jamar Ross is a 1999 graduate of Winston-Salem State University, earning a Bachelor's Degree in Sports Management from the school's nationally accredited program. He is a native of Cleveland, Ohio, where his family still resides today.

LA TOYA SIVELLS

LA TOYA SIVELLS enters her second year as the Assistant Director of Sports Information at Hampton University. While at HU her duties include serving as the primary contact for all women's athletics, as well as sailing, and men's tennis.

Prior to joining the HU staff full-time, Sivells served as a student assistant in the Sports Information Office for four years. Her duties included the input of statistics into filing systems, on and off campus promotions, assisting with pre-and post-game preparations for home football and basketball games, and editing and proofreading materials.

Before arriving back at Hampton University, Sivells spent a year as an elementary school teacher in the Newport News Public School System.

Sivells is a 2003 graduate of Hampton University, earning her bachelor's degree in english arts. She will begin pursuing her master's degree in sports administration at Old Dominion University this fall. She is a native of Washington D.C., but currently calls Newport News home. She is the proud daughter of Reverend Edward and Sharon Sivells.

The Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference, a NCAA Division One Conference, is in its 37th year of operation heading into the 2006-2007 academic school year. Located in the Towne Center in Virginia Beach, Virginia, the MEAC is made up of 11 outstanding, historically black institutions across the Atlantic Coastline: Bethune-Cookman College, Coppin State University, Delaware State University, Florida A&M University, Hampton University, Howard University, University of Maryland-Eastern Shore, Morgan State University, Norfolk State University, North Carolina A&T State University and South Carolina State University.

The MEAC has enjoyed great success over the years in athletics. Currently, the league has automatic qualifying bids for NCAA postseason play in baseball (since 1994), men's basketball (since 1981), women's basketball (since 1982), I-AA football (since 1996), softball (since 1995), men and women's tennis (since 1998), and volleyball (since 1994).

HISTORY

In 1969, a group of innovators long associated with intercollegiate athletics met in Durham, North Carolina, to discuss the feasibility of organizing a new conference based along the Atlantic coastline. A number of representatives from different institutions joined the steering committee in a two-day discussion about the new conference. Seven of these institutions agreed to become the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference: Delaware State College, Howard University, University of Maryland-Eastern Shore, Morgan State University, North Carolina A&T State University, North Carolina Central University and South Carolina State University. The MEAC headquarters remained in Durham, North Carolina, until 1981, moving to Greensboro on March 26, 1982. In August 2005, the MEAC relocated to its current location in Virginia Beach, Virginia.

The league was confirmed in 1970, kicking off its first season of competition in Football in 1971. In 1978, the MEAC selected its first full-time commissioner, Kenneth A. Free and the following year, expanded to nine schools with the admissions of two Florida schools: Bethune-Cookman College and Florida A&M University. The MEAC operated with nine schools until 1985 when Coppin State College was admitted. The final expansion occurred in the 90's with the inclusion of Hampton University in 1995 and Norfolk State University in 1997.

On June 8, 1980, the MEAC was classified Division One by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and the following month, received an automatic berth in the NCAA Division I Basketball Championship.

HIGHLIGHTS

- In Basketball, the MEAC had two teams featured in the ESPN Sport-center Top 10 All-Time upsets in the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament. No. 15 seed Coppin State defeated No. 2 South Carolina 1997 and No. 15 Hampton, defeated No. 2 Iowa State 2001.

- MEAC Football has produced many NFL and professional football greats, including nine pro football Hall of Famers: Marion Motley (1968); Roosevelt Brown (1975); Len Ford (1976); David "Deacon" Jones (1980); Willie Lanier (1986); Art Shell (1989); Larry Little (1993); Leroy Kelly (1994); and Elvin Bethea (2003). In 2005, the MEAC had four players drafted in the first five rounds of the NFL draft.
- Volleyball - Florida A&M became the first MEAC school to win a match in the NCAA Tournament, with a win over Winthrop in the first round of the 2003 Tournament. In 2004 the Lady Rattlers became the first HBCU ranked in the Top 25 American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) national poll.
- Softball - Bethune-Cookman earned the league's first-ever At-Large bid into the NCAA Softball Tournament in 2005. The Lady Wildcats went on to defeat Florida, Central Florida (UCF) and South Florida to win the Florida Regional in Gainesville, the first time any MEAC school has won a NCAA Regional. B-CC ended its remarkable 2005 season with the leagues' first-ever rankings in the final softball polls, reaching No. 18 in the NFCA/USA Today Coaches poll and No. 23 in the USA Softball/ESPN.com Poll.

2005 Game Recaps

Game #1 – Hampton 20, Jackson State 7

September 3, 2005 – Detroit, Michigan

Ford Field (21,130)

Ardell Daniels rushed for 109 yards and two touchdowns as the Offensive MVP, and Justin Durant led a stingy Pirate defense as Hampton University defeated Jackson State 20-7 to win the 2005 Detroit Labor Day Classic at Ford Field. The win marked the second straight year the Pirates (1-0) opened their season with a win over the Tigers.

Showing little or no signs of opening day jitters, the Tigers (0-1) came out of the locker room and immediately embarked on the longest drive of the afternoon. Led by quarterback Steve Haren who was 4-of-4 to begin the game, Jackson State put together a 16-play, 80-yard drive on their opening possession. The Tigers had three third down conversions and a fourth down conversion during the nine-minute drive that ended on a 1-yard run by Curtis Hayes at 5:51 in the first quarter.

Calvin Bannister would jump start the Hampton faithful on the ensuing kickoff by coming out of his own end zone for a 51-yard return. From there the Pirates needed just eight plays to tie the game at seven as Daniels ran in from a yard out.

Both offenses struggled as the game continued on, but the Pirates were able to take a 10-7 lead into the half behind a 25-yard field goal by junior kicker Andrew Paterini with 33 seconds to play in the first half.

The third quarter was a defensive showdown with the Pirates and the Tigers combining for seven total yards in the period. Special teams provided Hampton's best opportunity to put points on the board after Marquay McDaniel's 76-yard punt return gave the Pirates the ball at the Jackson State 13-yard line. However, on the next play from scrimmage Daniels and quarterback Princeton Shepherd had trouble with the handoff and Anthony Dillon recovered the fumble for the Tigers to halt the Hampton scoring threat.

McDaniel began the fourth quarter with a 24-yard reception from Shepherd and Daniels and Alonzo Coleman (17 att, 99 yds) pounded out yard after yard on the ground to put the Pirates in position for another Paterini field goal (33 yards) and a 13-7 lead with 10:12 to play.

Hampton sealed the game when Daniels ran off the left side, broke the tackles of three Tiger defenders, and cut across the field for a 41-yard touchdown run - his second of the afternoon.

With nine tackles (5 solo) and one sack on the day, Justin Durant earned Defensive MVP honors after heading a Pirate defense that surrendered just 82 total yards in the final 51 minutes of the ball game. Fellow linebacker Rudolph Foye also had a solid game with eight tackles and two tackles for loss, as did Kyle Whitehurst who posted seven tackles, one interception and a tackle for loss.

In a game that saw both teams combine for 14 total punts and five turnovers, it was Hampton's rushing attack that proved to be the difference. The Pirates out gained the Tigers 232-31 on the ground.

Game #2 – Hampton 22, Howard 12

September 10, 2005 – Washington, D.C.

Greene Stadium (10,500)

Hampton University scored 15 unanswered points in the second half, including a record-setting interception return by Kyle Whitehurst to post its second come-from-behind victory in as many weeks with a 22-12 win over Howard. With the victory the Pirates (2-0, 1-0 MEAC) not only won their ninth straight contest over the Bison, but they also recorded their ninth consecutive conference-opening win.

The Bison (1-1, 0-1 MEAC) jumped out to an early 12-0 first quarter lead behind the running back duo of Antoine Rutherford and Keon Coleman, and a controlled passing attack. Following a missed field goal by Hampton, Howard needed just six plays to march 80 yards, capping the drive on a 12-yard touchdown pass from Ronald Venters to Jarahn Williams. The extra point attempt was blocked, but the Bison held a 6-0 lead with 6:25 remaining in the opening period.

A 40-yard kickoff return by Ardell Daniels gave the Pirates excellent field position at the Howard 25-yard line on the ensuing possession. However, a mysterious intentional grounding call and a delay of game penalty ended any hopes of a Pirate score.

Howard used its next possession to embark on another 80-yard drive with 49 yards coming courtesy of Rutherford and Coleman. The senior Coleman raced up the middle for a 20-yard gain to the Hampton 8-yard line and took it in from there on the next play from scrimmage to increase the Bison lead to 12-0 at the end of the first.

Led by backup quarterback Antwan Smith who replaced starter Princeton Shepherd after an apparent problem with his eye contacts, the Pirates finally put together a scoring drive with their first possession of the second quarter. Playing his first collegiate game in front of his mother Clarice, Smith completed 4-of-5 passes for 40 yards on the drive before Alonzo Coleman (15 att, 51 yds, 1 TD) ended it with a 20-yard run around the left end to provide the 12-7 halftime score.

Special teams and defense sparked the Pirates in the third quarter as the defending MEAC champions gained momentum. Paced by middle linebacker Justin Durant (13 tackles) and defensive end Kendall Langford (7 tackles, 1 sack), Hampton held Howard to -16 yards of total offense during the quarter. Punt returner Marquay McDaniel's 37-yard return to the Howard 24 set up a 36-yard field goal by Andrew Paterini that brought the Pirates to within two at 12-10. A miscue by Bison long snapper Joshua August tied the score at 12 apiece when his snap sailed over the head of punter Noam Dror who was forced to kick the ball out of the back of his own end zone for a safety.

The Pirates went ahead for good on Paterini's second field goal of the afternoon, a 42-yard attempt on the first play of the fourth quarter, as the scoreboard read Hampton 15, Howard 12.

Held under wraps for most of the second half, the Bison offense found its rhythm and began to move the ball down the field for at least a field goal that would tie the game. Rutherford (18 att, 116 yds) reeled off runs of 13, 5 and 10 yards, while Venters had a pair of 14-yard completions to lead Howard to within four yards of a go-ahead touchdown. However, on 3rd-and-goal from the Hampton 4-yard line Venters' pass attempt to Williams was stolen by safety Kyle Whitehurst who returned it 99 yards for a touchdown to give Hampton the 22-12 win. The return by Whitehurst set a new Pirate record, breaking the old mark of 98 yards set back in 1992 by Michael Robinson against Virginia State.

Game #3 – Hampton 31, North Carolina A&T 14

September 15, 2005 – Greensboro, North Carolina
Aggie Stadium (14,831)

Alonzo Coleman ran for 140 yards and two touchdowns, and Princeton Shepherd tossed two more scoring passes to Marquay McDaniel to lead the 12th ranked Pirates of Hampton University to a 31-14 victory over North Carolina A&T in ESPN's Thursday Night Game of the Week.

Averaging 21 points per game coming into Thursday night, the Pirates erupted for four touchdowns on their opening four possessions to take a 28-0 advantage into the locker room at the half.

Coleman ignited the Pirate offense with a 14-yard carry on the first play from scrimmage and he ended the 13-play drive with a 3-yard touchdown run. Hampton marched 73 yards on its next possession, taking a 14-0 lead on Coleman's 36th career touchdown which vaulted him into second place in the Pirates' record book for career touchdowns. He now trails only Montrell Coley, Hampton's all-time leading rusher who departed with 53 career touchdowns.

Quarterback Princeton Shepherd and the Hampton passing game accounted for the next two Pirate touchdowns. After a slow start in the first two games of the season, Shepherd found his rhythm early in the second quarter against the Aggies. After connecting on a 21-yard completion to Onrea Jones, Shepherd found McDaniel on a 19-yard crossing route for Hampton's first passing touchdown of the season and a commanding 21-0 lead with 13:01 to play in the first half.

Senior cornerback Michael West made things worse for the Aggies when he intercepted backup quarterback Rico Watkins at the A&T 42-yard line minutes later. From there the Pirates needed just one play to push their lead to 28 points on a flea-flicker. Coleman took the handoff and pitched it back to Shepherd who found a wide open McDaniel behind the A&T secondary for the 42-yard score.

"After we got the interception we wanted to come back and make a quick strike," said Shepherd who completed 9-of-15 passes for 156 yards and two touchdowns in the first half. "After some kind of turnover, when the defense gets the ball back, we want to strike quick."

North Carolina A&T found life in the third quarter on two bizarre plays. The first came when Watkins mishandled the snap from center on fourth-and-1 and Chaz Truesdale picked it up and raced 44 yards to the Hampton 12-yard line. Two plays later Watkins hit Douglas Brown for a 16-yard touchdown to make the score 28-7 with 6:11 remaining in the third.

The Pirates were forced to punt on the ensuing possession, but snapper Kensley Dougan sailed the ball over the head of punter Cameron Muro who kicked the ball out of the back of the end zone for an apparent safety. However, a penalty for illegal kicking gave the Aggies the ball at the 6-yard line and Ortiz Green ran it in two plays later to trim the Hampton lead to 28-14.

That would be as close as the Aggies would get as Shepherd directed a 9-play, 34-yard drive in the fourth quarter that ended with a 28-yard field goal by Andrew Paterini to provide the final score, 31-14.

Game #4 – Hampton 44, Morgan State 14

September 24, 2005 – East Rutherford, New Jersey
Giants Stadium (42,738)

The Hampton University offense, powered by quarterback Princeton Shepherd and running back Alonzo Coleman, racked up some handsome numbers in the Pirates' 44-14 mauling of Morgan State in the New York Urban League's 35th Annual Whitney Young Jr. Memorial Classic on Saturday at Giants Stadium.

But it was the defensive unit's performance that put the widest smile on coach Joe Taylor's face.

"With nine of our 11 guys (2004 starters) returning on defense, that's where it all starts," Taylor said. "I don't care what sport it is. If you can play defense, you've got a chance."

Hampton (4-0 and top-ranked in the SBN Sports Black College football poll) built a 41-7 lead by the early moments of the third quarter and Taylor let his backup units close out the fourth. Howard (a 22-12 loser September 10) is the only Hampton foe to keep the final score within 10 points.

"I don't think there's any pressure on us now," Shepherd said. "Coach (Taylor) is a winning coach, and he's had a lot of winning teams. The main thing he preaches to us is to stay humble."

2005 Game Recaps

Morgan State (1-3) was totally outclassed on both sides of the ball. Morgan QB Byron Selby was held to 10-of-28, and the Morgan ground game was limited to a net 144 yards in 38 attempts.

Middle linebacker Justin Durant led the Pirates' defense with eight solo stops and two assists; tackle Marcus Dixon contributed seven more stops plus a sack.

Meanwhile, Shepherd was clicking on 9-of-15 for 186 yards and TD tosses to Dereck Faulkner and Ardell Daniels. Coleman barreled for 126 yards on 11 carries.

"They (the Pirates) weren't doing anything we weren't expecting," Morgan safety Choo Choo Davis said. "It was nothing we couldn't handle. We just weren't up to the challenge."

It was Hampton's third consecutive conquest of Morgan and the most one-sided game in the annals of the Classic since the Pirates' 55-14 rout of Virginia State in 2001. Saturday's game was played before an announced crowd of 58,738, though it seemed many in the number simply participated in the huge tailgating party outside Giants Stadium, an Urban League Classic tradition.

It took just 1:31 for Hampton to get on the board as Coleman whirled 42 yards through the Morgan defense.

Six minutes later, Andrew Paterini's 29th career field goal, a 32-yarder, tied the Hampton career record, and he'd later add field goals of 42 yards and 25 yards for sole possession of the mark (while missing attempts from 47 and 36.)

Shepherd's 27-yarder to Ernie Lomax set the stage for Daniels' 1-yard score for a 20-0 lead with 11:28 left in the second quarter. Morgan at last got on the board 6:38 before halftime, with Kelvin Dickens squirming down the right sideline with a Selby toss for a 26-yard TD.

Hampton stretched the gap to 27-7 42 seconds before intermission on Shepherd's 32-yard screen pass to Daniels.

Selby's fumble, grabbed by Hampton's Kensley Dougan, gave the Pirates another golden opportunity early in the third. On first down, Shepherd clicked to Faulkner for a 32-yard strike and a 34-7 lead.

Coleman rushed for a 32-yard TD a little more than a minute later to ice the game.

Craig Nelson's 12-yard bolt for the second Morgan score, completing an 80-yard march, was achieved against HU backups.

Game #5 - Hampton 26, Delaware State 8

October 1, 2005 - Hampton, Virginia

Armstrong Stadium (10,130)

The Hampton University defense limited Delaware State to just 116 total yards, including a meager 17 in the first half, to lift the ninth ranked Pirates to a 26-8 victory in their home opener. With the win Hampton remains undefeated on the season at 5-0, 4-0 in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC), while the Hornets slipped to 2-3 overall, 1-1 in conference play.

Travarous Bain got the Pirates off to what appeared to be a great start, returning the opening kickoff 92 yards for an apparent touchdown. However, an illegal block in the back cancelled out the play and the Pirate offense was forced into action.

Behind the rushing attack of Alonzo Coleman (96 yds, 1 TD) and Ardell Daniels (84 yds) Hampton embarked on an 18-play, 79-yard drive that ended with a 20-yard field goal by Andrew Paterini to give the Pirates a 3-0 lead and the end of the first quarter. The Pirates dominated the statistics in the opening frame with 104 yards to Delaware State's three, but held just a slight advantage.

Hampton's Micah Littlejohn recovered a fumble by Hornet running back Rodney Roy at the start of the second quarter to give the Pirates great field position at the Delaware State 12-yard line. However, the Pirates couldn't advance the ball any further and were forced to settle for another Paterini field goal.

Under constant pressure from the Pirate defense throughout the night, Delaware State quarterback Vashon Winton and the Hornet offense had their own share of trouble as they totaled just 14 yards in the second quarter.

Pirate backup quarterback Antwan Smith entered the game early in the second quarter and on his second possession under center he guided the Pirates down the field for another score. Smith connected with Marquay McDaniel for a 16-yard strike and the Hornets were hit with two personal fouls that helped move the ball inside of the Delaware State 20-yard line.

However, the Pirate offense would stall there as well and settle for a 36-yard kick by Paterini and a 9-0 lead with 7:04 to play before the half.

Hampton starter Princeton Shepherd re-entered the game with a spark, finding McDaniel (3 rec, 62 yds) for a 29-yard pass play down to the Delaware State 19-yard line. Shepherd then found fullback Qutrell Payton in the flats for an 8-yard scoring toss and a 16-0 lead.

The Hornets finally got on the scoreboard in the third quarter after starting in superb field position at their own 49-yard line. A Winton completion to Emmanuel Marc for 14 yards and a pass interference call on Hampton cornerback Michael West gave the Hornets the ball at the Pirates' 7-yard line. Marc took it in from there on the ensuing play and a two-point conversion from Winton to Rashod Coleman cut the Hampton lead in half, 16-8.

Paterini tied his own school record set last season against Howard, with his fourth field goal (37 yards) early in the final period to put the Pirates ahead 19-8.

Coleman added his sixth rushing touchdown of the season to provide the final margin and give the Pirates their 11th consecutive regular-season win.

Sophomore Kendall Langford led the Pirates defensively with nine tackles, five tackles for loss and three sacks on the night. Not to be outdone, Delaware State's Jarrod Wallace posted a game-high 13 stops.

Game #6 – Hampton 52, Gardner-Webb 21 October 8, 2005 – Boiling Springs, North Carolina Spangler Stadium (2,750)

In a Division I-AA showdown between the country's second ranked offense of Gardner-Webb and the second ranked defense of Hampton University, defense won the war as the No. 8 Pirates cruised to a 52-21 win to remain the only undefeated team in the Top 25. Defensively the Pirates (6-0) limited the Runnin' Bulldogs (2-3) to 272 total yards and forced six turnovers, while on the offensive end Alonzo Coleman rushed for 172 yards and a school record five touchdowns.

The Pirates jumped out to a quick 3-0 as Ardell Daniels' 53-yard return of the opening kickoff gave Hampton the ball at the Gardner-Webb 12-yard line. The Pirate offense stalled and was forced to settle for a 22-yard field goal by Andrew Paterini.

Hampton increased its lead to 10 early in the second quarter on Coleman's first score of the night, an 8-yard burst with 10:38 to play. Defense would set up Hampton's next score when Kendall Langford forced a fumble by GWU quarterback Nick Roberts and Ray Lewis recovered giving the Pirates solid field position once again. This time it was Daniels with a 6-yard touchdown run and a 17-0 Pirate lead as the clock read 7:26 before the half.

On the ensuing Gardner-Webb possession, Lewis made his presence felt once again, this time intercepting Roberts and returning it 37 yards to the Gardner-Webb 3-yard line. Coleman's 3-yard plunge up the middle increased the Hampton lead to 24-0 and all but dashed any hopes of a Runnin' Bulldogs victory.

However, a special teams miscue by Hampton helped Gardner-Webb get on the board before the break. Long snapper Kensley Dougan sailed a snap over the head of punter Cameron Muro and the -44 yard fumble gave Gardner-Webb the ball inside the Hampton 20-yard line. The Pirate defense kept the Runnin' Bulldogs out of the end zone, but Hunter Smith's 28-yard field goal got GWU on the board.

After trading possessions early in the third quarter both teams were able to force turnovers, but only the Pirates could take advantage. Gardner-Webb's J.P. Weaver recovered a fumble by Hampton wide receiver Onrea Jones (2 rec, 40 yds) at the Pirate 42-yard line, yet the Runnin' Bulldogs promptly returned the favor. On the ensuing snap, Travarous Bain intercepted a Nick Roberts' pass at his own 20 and returned it 72 yards down to the Gardner-Webb eight. One play later, Alonzo Coleman had his third touchdown and the Pirates a commanding 31-3 lead midway through the third.

With Roberts struggling against the Hampton defense, GWU coach Steve Patton turned to backup quarterback Devin Campbell for a spark. Campbell came in and guided the Runnin' Bulldogs to an 11-play, 84-yard scoring drive, ending with a 25-yard touchdown strike to tight end Matt Skeen to bring Gardner-Webb to within three touchdowns, 31-10.

The Pirates would go on to add three more touchdowns, including scoring runs of 33 and 71 yards by Coleman, and nine yards by Daniels.

The performance by Coleman and Daniels (18 att, 133 yds, 1 TD) marked the third time that the duo has rushed for 100 yards in the same game, but the victory rests primarily on the shoulders of the Pirate defense.

A Gardner-Webb offense that came into the game averaging 530 yards and 44 points per game, was forced to punt or turned the ball over on its first seven possessions thanks to a Hampton defense that blitzed nearly every play early on. With linebacker Justin Durant (11 tackles) leading the way, the Pirates held GWU to 79 yards at the half and 272 for the entire game. Other sound defensive efforts were turned in by Ray Lewis who picked off a pass and recovered a fumble, and Kyle Whitehurst who also had an interception and a forced fumble to go along with six tackles.

Game #7 – Hampton 55, Norfolk State 14 October 15, 2005 – Norfolk, Virginia Dick Price Stadium (21,151)

The seventh ranked Pirates of Hampton University scored 21 points in a span of just under five minutes in the first quarter to all but end the game before it started, as Hampton sailed to a 55-14 victory over Norfolk State (1-5, 0-4 MEAC) Saturday night. With the win the Pirates not only remained the only undefeated team in I-AA at 7-0 (5-0 MEAC), but they also extended their regular season winning streak to 13 games, setting up a pivotal matchup next week against last year's Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) co-champion, No. 21 South Carolina State.

The spirited play of the Hampton defense led to all three first quarter touchdowns, as the Pirates took advantage of working with a short field by not having to drive longer than 50 yards on either possession.

After getting the ball at the Norfolk State 47-yard line, Hampton quarterback Princeton Shepherd hit Onrea Jones for a 19-yard gain on the Pirates first play from scrimmage. The Pirate ground attack took it in from there, ending the drive on a 5-yard run by Ardell Daniels to put Hampton ahead 7-0 with 7:12 on the clock. The run was Daniels' 24th career touchdown in just one and a half seasons, moving him into 10th place all-time at Hampton in career touchdowns.

Entering the day ranked third in I-AA, the Pirate defense promptly set up another score when defensive end Marcus Dixon picked off NSU quarterback Brandon Brooks on a pass that ricocheted off the hands of Spartan receiver

James Callaham and gave the Pirates a 1st-and-goal at the Spartan 10. A 1-yard quarterback sneak by Shepherd pushed the HU lead to 14-0.

Held in check once again, the Norfolk State offense could muster just three yards on the ensuing possession, forcing the Spartans to punt from deep in their own territory. However, punter Antonio Gomez managed just a 23-yard kick which gave Hampton the ball at the Spartans 44-yard line. A 15-yard gain by Daniels and 20 more by Alonzo Coleman, the last 11 coming on 3rd-and-inches, had the Pirates staring at a commanding 21-0 lead with 2:26 to play in the first.

Princeton Shepherd's arm accounted for the Pirates next score, moving the senior quarterback up in the Hampton record books in the process. On their third possession of the second quarter Shepherd connected with Coleman on a 17-yard screen play before finding Marquay McDaniel in the back of the end zone on a 26-yard post pattern that not only gave Hampton a 28-0 advantage, but also put Shepherd over the 3,000-yard mark in career passing yards.

Unfortunately for the Pirates a miscue by Shepherd would lead to a score for Norfolk State as well. Spartan linebacker Phillip Brown intercepted another attempted screen pass by Shepherd at midfield and returned it to the Hampton 43. Riding the momentum shift the Spartans got an 11-yard run by Daryl Jones, and then Brooks connected with Emery Sammons who made a spectacular diving catch for a 29-yard gain to the Hampton 2-yard line. A 1-yard dive by Monte' Anthony put the Spartans on the board with 14 seconds to play before halftime, and a two-point conversion from Brooks to Callaham made the score Hampton - 28, Norfolk State - 8.

It appeared that score would be carried into the locker rooms, but special teams play did not allow it. Norfolk State punter/kicker Antonio Gomez left the game with an injury early in the second quarter, forcing the Spartans to use Cory Decker as their backup kicker. Two penalties made NSU kickoff from its own 25-yard line and Decker could only manage a 14-yard kick to the Spartan 38. Pirate placekicker Andrew Paterini, who earlier this season set a school record for career field goals, calmly trotted onto the field and set another school mark with a 55-yard boot to end the half. The kick also tied a MEAC record set by Cody Vasquez of Morgan State against Norfolk State in 1998.

The second half presented much of the same as the Pirates pounded the ball on the ground for 204 rushing yards, primarily behind the tandem of Daniels and Coleman who each surpassed the 100-yard mark for the second consecutive game with 123 yards and 132 yards respectively. Coleman also reached a career milestone early in the third quarter by passing the 3,000-yard mark to become just the fourth back at Hampton to accomplish that feat. In addition, the junior also overtook Dennis Mahan (3,064) for third place in career rushing yards with 3,086.

Norfolk State's Daryl Jones also passed the century mark, rushing for 143 yards on the night, 102 coming against the Hampton reserves in the fourth quarter.

Defensively the Pirates turned in another outstanding performance, holding the Spartans to just 86 total yards through three quarters. Led by sophomore defensive end Kendall Langford and Justin Durant, the Pirates also held Norfolk State to just 39 yards passing on two completions. Langford, named Hampton's Most Valuable Player on the evening, recorded seven tackles, three tackles for loss and a sack, while Durant turned in five tackles, two tackles for loss and a sack in one half of play.

Game #8 - Hampton 14, South Carolina State 10

October 22, 2005 - Hampton, Virginia

Armstrong Stadium (16,306)

Hampton linebacker Rudolph Foye sacked South Carolina State quarterback Cleveland McCoy on 4th-and-2 at the Hampton 26-yard line late in the fourth quarter to preserve a 14-10 lead and help the No. 4 Pirates down the No. 19 Bulldogs on homecoming at Armstrong Stadium. With the win the Pirates remain the only undefeated team in both I-AA at 8-0 and in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) at 6-0, giving Hampton the inside track on the 2005 MEAC championship.

The Pirates found themselves in very unfamiliar territory early on, staring at a 10-0 deficit in the first quarter. Hampton had not trailed an opponent since falling behind 12-0 in the first quarter at Howard back on September 10.

Led by running back DeShawn Baker, the Bulldogs (5-2, 3-1 MEAC) came out and scored on their first two drives of the ball game behind an overpowering ground game. On their first possession the Bulldogs drove 81 yards, 40 coming from Baker, before Jonathan Woods ran for an 8-yard score off left tackle to give the SCSU a 7-0 lead with 9:13 to play in the first.

Hampton went three and out on the ensuing possession and the Bulldogs pushed their lead to 10 on a 29-yard field goal by Stephen Grantham with 3:09 remaining.

With the Hampton offense stuck in neutral for most of the first two quarters, Pirate coach Joe Taylor inserted backup quarterback Antwan Smith who promptly took the team full speed ahead. With 4:16 to go before the half, Smith walked under center for his first play from scrimmage. He dropped back to pass and hit Marquay McDaniel in the seam of the Bulldog secondary for a 52-yard touchdown to bring the Pirates to within three.

Hampton got the ball back with 2:27 on the clock and looked to either tie the game at 10 with a field goal or take the lead with a touchdown before the half. Smith connected with Onrea Jones (4 rec, 46 yds) for gains of 19 and 12 yards, before finding McDaniel on a crossing route for a 9-yard score and a 14-10 Hampton lead.

Neither team would score for the remainder of the game, but the second half was far from uneventful.

Forced to punt on their first possession in the second half, the Bulldogs called a fake on 4th-and-9 from their own 18-yard line. However, punter Coby Brandyburg was tripped up short of the first down by Hampton's Kyle Whitehurst to give the Pirates the ball at the 20.

South Carolina State's Terrance Bennett (11 tackles) recorded two tackles for loss, and David Broome added another to force the Pirates to settle for a 40-yard field goal attempt by Andrew Paterini. The kick sailed wide left and the Bulldogs were able to breathe a sigh of relief.

2005 Game Recaps

The remainder of the third quarter consisted of great defensive play on both sides of the ball. The Bulldogs recovered two fumbles and Justin Durant intercepted McCoy for Hampton's only forced turnover of the game, but neither team could capitalize and the score remained 14-10 going into the final quarter.

After exchanging possessions early in the quarter the Pirates were forced to punt and Cameron Muro, who had four punts of better than 50 yards on the day, pinned SCSU back at their own 5-yard line with a 48-yard kick. Trailing by four the Bulldogs had 7:17 to put together a game-winning drive.

DeShawn Baker (22 att, 106 yds) reeled off runs of 19 and 15 yards respectively to move the Bulldogs out from under the shadow of their own goal post. However, the Hampton defense held its ground and the Bulldogs were looking at 4th-and-5 from their own 49. Yet South Carolina State did not need to run a play as the Pirates were penalized for having too many men on the field giving the Bulldogs a first down.

Another penalty on Hampton's Michael West for pass interference moved the ball to the Hampton 45-yard line. Following three consecutive runs by Jonathan Woods the Bulldogs were again faced with a 4th-and-4. South Carolina State answered the call as McCoy connected with Chris Burgess who held on to the ball and picked up five yards despite a jarring hit from Hampton cornerback Travarous Bain. Three plays later and with 1:31 to play in the game, the Bulldogs came to the line following a timeout needing two yards to extend their drive and keep their chances alive. However, Rudolph Foye came from McCoy's blind side and recorded his second sack of the game to seal the win for Hampton.

Antwan Smith finished the game with 131 yards passing and two touchdowns on seven completions for the Pirates, while Alonzo Coleman turned in his third straight 100-yard game with 101 on 19 carries. Defensively Hampton was led by Justin Durant and Kensley Dougan who recorded 15 and 12 tackles respectively.

Game #9 - Hampton 24, Bethune-Cookman 10

November 5, 2005 - Daytona Beach, Florida

Municipal Stadium (8,954)

Hampton forced two fourth quarter turnovers to break open a 10-10 tie and give the third ranked Pirates their second consecutive Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) championship with a 24-10 win over Bethune-Cookman in Daytona Beach. With the victory the Pirates (9-0, 7-0 MEAC) extended the nation's longest winning streak to nine games, while also earning an invitation to the I-AA playoffs.

Bethune-Cookman took an early lead on a 47-yard field goal by Jesus Cortez, but it was the legs of quarterback Jimmie Russell that set up the opportunity. On 2nd-and-10 from his own 31, Russell turned a broken play into a 37-yard gain down to the Hampton 32-yard line where the drive would stall. And with 5:20 to play in the opening period the Wildcats held a 3-0 lead.

The excitement was short lived for Wildcats fans however, as Alonzo Coleman broke free for an 80-yard run off the left tackle on the ensuing play from scrimmage to put the Pirates ahead 7-3. The run was the longest of Coleman's career and moved him into second place in career rushing yards at Hampton, surpassing Carl Painter (3,223).

Russell and the Bethune-Cookman offense responded with a 12-play, 72-yard drive that ended with an 8-yard run by Chauncey Hampton to put the Wildcats back on top, 10-7.

Backup quarterback Antwan Smith entered the game for Hampton and promptly hit Marquay McDaniel for a 31-yard gain to the Wildcat 17. The Pirates could manage just a single yard from there and were forced to settle for a 33-yard kick from Andrew Paterini.

The two teams went into the locker rooms with the game tied, and a scoreless third quarter set the stage for a dramatic finish.

With the score knotted at 10 going into the fourth quarter, the Hampton defense and power running attack came alive. After the Pirates were stopped on a 4th-and-4 at the Wildcat 31-yard line, Bethune-Cookman's Richard Woodbury fumbled an option pitch from Russell and Hampton linebacker Justin Durant recovered at the 25.

From there the Pirates offensive line and running back tandem of Coleman and Ardell Daniels took over. Daniels picked up 15 yards on the first play from scrimmage, and three plays later Coleman took it in from five yards out to give Hampton a 17-10 advantage with 6:48 remaining.

Following a deep kickoff and limited return, the Wildcats (6-3, 3-3 MEAC) started their next possession at their own 4-yard line, needing 96 yards for a game tying touchdown. Russell created some breathing room when he connected with Darius Butler for a 26 gain on 3rd-and-10. However, under constant duress from the fourth ranked defense in the nation, Russell attempted to throw the ball away on the ensuing play and was picked off by safety Marlon Fair who couldn't have chosen a better time to come up with his first career interception.

Daniels solidified Hampton's back-to-back MEAC championships with a 6-yard scoring run through the middle of the Wildcat defense. Coleman (163 yds, 2 TD) and Daniels (110 yds, 1 TD) rushed for 100 yards each for the third time this season, with many of the yards coming during a fourth quarter that saw the Pirates rush for 113 yards on 24 consecutive rushing attempts. With his effort Coleman also passed the 1,000-yard mark for the third straight season, with 1,063 through the first nine games.

Defensively, Durant and the Hampton defense held Bethune-Cookman in check in the second half, allowing just 76 total yards after intermission. A Wildcat offense that came in averaging 38 points per game, 55 over the last two contests, was held scoreless over the final 44 minutes of the game. The Buchanan Award candidate Durant recorded a team-high 11 tackles, while Kyle Whitehurst posted 10 stops of his own.

Game #10 – Hampton 34, Florida A&M 14

November 12, 2005 – Hampton, Virginia
Armstrong Stadium (7,013)

The second ranked Pirates of Hampton University used 24 unanswered points to break open a 7-7 first quarter tie, and cruise to a 34-14 win over visiting Florida A&M. With the victory the Pirates (10-0, 8-0 MEAC) captured the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference title outright and extended their regular season winning streak to 16 games.

Special teams led to Hampton's first score as the Pirates took over at the FAMU 28-yard line following a blocked field goal by Alden Blizzard. Princeton Shepherd found Marquay McDaniel on a 19-yard swing pass down the right sideline to put the Pirates in front 7-0.

The Rattlers (5-5, 4-3 MEAC) tied the score two possessions later behind the arm and legs of quarterback Albert Chester. The sophomore signal caller opened the drive with a 12-yard run, connected with Roosevelt Kiser (8 rec, 90 yds) on a 19-yard completion, and capped the drive with a 3-yard touchdown run with 3:32 remaining in the first quarter. However, that would be the only bright spot for Florida A&M for quite some time.

Utilizing a steady ground attack which led to multiple play-action passes, the Pirates scored the next 24 points of the game. A pair of touchdowns by Alonzo Coleman (125 yds) and a 47-yard field goal by Andrew Paterini increased the Hampton lead to 24-7 before fullback Curtis Lewis scored his first career touchdown on a 1-yard run with 10:22 to go in the game.

Florida A&M took the ensuing possession and drove 80 yards in 13 plays in just over five minutes and Chester tossed a 5-yard strike to Aubrey Parrish (5 rec, 61 yds) to provide the Rattlers 14 points.

Ardell Daniels (114 yds) and Coleman each ran for 100 yards for the fourth time this season, and quarterback Princeton Shepherd turned in his best outing of the season by completing 11-of-14 passes for 115 yards and a touchdown. McDaniel was the recipient of 11 of Hampton's 19 completions on the day, as the senior posted career-highs in receptions (11) and yards (149). His 11 receptions were just two shy of the Pirate record of 13 set by Zurriel Smith against South Carolina State in 2001.

Coming into the game as the nation's top ranked pass defense, the Pirates did surrender 281 yards passing and 470 total yards. However, Hampton countered with 543 yards of offense to snap a five-game losing streak to Florida A&M and record its 11th straight win at Armstrong Stadium.

Game #11 – Hampton 44, Savannah State 6

November 19, 2005 – Hampton, Virginia
Armstrong Stadium (1,917)

The matchup between the undefeated Pirates of Hampton and the winless Tigers of Savannah State went pretty much as expected, with the Pirates cruising to a 44-6 victory Saturday afternoon at Armstrong Stadium. With the win Hampton remains undefeated and in perfect position to host a first round game in the Division I-AA playoffs.

Coming into the game Hampton running back Ardell Daniels needed 110 yards to join his backfield mate Alonzo Coleman at the 1,000-yard mark. Daniels wasted little time in getting what he needed, as he rushed for 133 yards in the first quarter. In reaching the 1,000-yard mark, Daniels and Coleman became just the third pair of backs in Division I-AA to run for 1,000 yards each in consecutive seasons. The duo also accomplished the task in 2004.

From that point on the Pirates continued to rack up the numbers. Coleman ran for 104 yards and two touchdowns on just seven carries, surpassing Montrell Coley for the Pirates' all-time record in rushing touchdowns with 50. He needs just one more touchdown to match Coley's school record of 53 career touchdowns.

With Daniels and Coleman controlling the ground, the Pirates finally went to the air and Princeton Shepherd found Onrea Jones for a 69-yard scoring strike which was the first of Jones' career.

Red-shirt freshman Jerry Cummings got into the mix in the second quarter as well, registering his first career score with a 19-yard run off tackle that gave the Pirates a 34-0 lead midway through the second period.

A muffed punt by Michael West led to the Tigers' first score as they took possession at the Hampton 20-yard line. Six plays later, Garrett Williams found Clyde Tullis in the end zone for a 5-yard touchdown. The extra point attempt was blocked and the teams headed to the break with the Pirates holding a hefty 34-6 advantage.

2005 Game Recaps

Van Morgan who ended the day with a career-high 133 yards, opened the third quarter with a 79-yard carry that set up Antwan Smith's 19-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ernie Lomax. The touchdown was also a career first for Lomax.

Hampton ended the day with 548 total yards, 415 coming on the ground as the Pirates set a record with three backs going over 100 yards. Defensively, the Pirates held the Tigers to just 80 yards rushing, but Savannah State quarterback Garrett Williams did manage to pass for 250 yards on the day.

Game #12 - Richmond 38, Hampton 10

November 26, 2005 - Hampton, Virginia
Armstrong Stadium (5,343)

The University of Richmond scored 28 unanswered points in the second half, breaking open a 10-10 halftime tie and cruising to a 38-10 victory over No. 2 Hampton in the first round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. The loss by Hampton ended the Pirates' 11 game winning streak and 12-game winning streak at Armstrong Stadium.

The first two minutes of the ball game proved to be pretty eventful as the Pirates (11-1) went three and out on their first drive, but re-gained possession when Richmond's Ryan Mace fumbled the punt. Jimari Jones recovered giving Hampton a first down at the Spiders' 29-yard line. However, on the ensuing play Princeton Shepherd was intercepted by Richmond's Joe Mallory, brother of Hampton defensive back Jermaine Mallory.

Hampton failed to capitalize on its next possession as well, driving 54 yards in just over four minutes, but coming away with nothing as Andrew Paterini's 20-yard field goal attempt sailed wide left.

The Spiders (9-3) responded with a power rushing attack led by David Freeman and Tim Hightower. The duo combined for 55 rushing yards on the next drive that ended with a 1-yard run by quarterback Stacy Tutt to put Richmond ahead 7-0 with 2:28 to play in the first quarter.

Replacing Hampton starter Princeton Shepherd under center, Pirate backup Antwan Smith entered the game and immediately sparked the Pirate offense. He completed passes of 39 and 15 yards to Onrea Jones, while also rushing for a 17-yard gain. Yet the drive stalled on the Richmond 27-yard line and the Pirates were again forced to settle for a 44-yard field goal by Paterini. This time the kick was good as the scoreboard read Richmond - 7, Hampton - 3, early in the second quarter.

After connecting with Jones for a 44-yard pass play, Smith put the Pirates ahead with a 7-yard strike to Jones with 7:58 to play in the half as Hampton led 10-7.

A 22-yard field goal by Richmond's Joseph Fore knotted the game at 10 apiece and the score would remain tied heading into the break.

The Spiders came out in the second half determined to wear down the Pirates with their ground game and they did just that, led by Tutt from his quarterback position. After a 25-yard punt return by Mace gave Richmond the ball at its own 49-yard line, Tutt rushed four consecutive times for 48 yards to set up a plunge by Hightower from three yards out. The extra point gave the Spiders a 17-10 lead, but they would add to that in a matter of minutes.

The Pirates failed to field the kickoff and Richmond recovered at the Hampton 37. Four plays later Freeman ran in from two yards out and the Pirates were facing their largest deficit of the season, 24-10.

With the Pirates' ground game under wraps, wide receiver Onrea Jones did his best to keep Hampton in the ball game. Jones set a new Hampton playoff record with 11 receptions for 192 yards and a touchdown, but he had little help from the rest of his offensive unit. Alonzo Coleman and Ardell Daniels, Hampton's pair of 1,000-yard backs were held to just 46 yards on 20 attempts, while the Pirate quarterbacks were sacked five times.

Hightower and Freeman each added fourth quarter touchdown runs to provide the final 38-10 margin. Freeman finished with a game-high 117 yards and Hightower added 73 as the Spiders ran for 251 yards against a Hampton defense that came in allowing just 124 yards a game. The loss was the fourth straight in the I-AA playoffs for the Pirates who are 0-4 all-time in the postseason since moving up to Division I-AA in 1995.

1985 Playoffs - Quarterfinals

Bloombsburg 38, Hampton 28

November 30 • Redman Stadium • Bloombsburg, Pennsylvania

Hampton	13	9	0	6	28
Bloombsburg	7	10	0	21	38

Coming in as the Pirates' leading rusher, Carl Painter got Hampton on the board early with an 80-yard touchdown run in the opening quarter. Painter would gain just 31 more yards on the ground for the remainder of the game, but he did make an impact in other ways.

The Huskies answered quickly thanks to quarterback Jay DeDea who found Joe Dowd in the back of the end zone for his first of two touchdown passes on the day, a 5-yard toss to knot the score at seven apiece.

Eager to prove his poise in the pocket as well, HU quarterback Marco Stacy helped the Pirates regain the lead with a 77-yard strike to receiver Darryl Skinner. The extra point was missed, but the Pirates were holding on to a 13-7 advantage at the end of the first quarter.

Once again, Bloombsburg wasted little time returning the favor, as Tom Martin's 4-yard run and Sullivan's extra point boosted the Huskies back in front, 14-13.

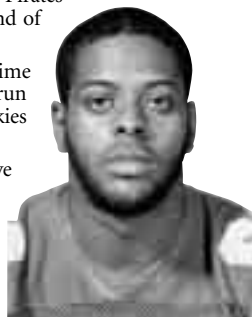

Hampton proceeded to run off nine consecutive points on a 33-yard field goal by Craig Barber and a 77-yard touchdown reception by Painter.

Bloombsburg added a field goal of its own just before the half to cut the Pirate lead to 22-17.

After a scoreless third quarter, the Huskies seized control of the contest by scoring on three consecutive drives in the final period, two of which ended in touchdown runs by Martin.

Stacy added a late touchdown pass to Todd Galliard to provide the final score: Bloombsburg 38, Hampton 28.

Martin ended the contest with 203 yards and 40 carries with three scores to help the Huskies advance. Marco Stacy completed just 5-of-14 passes for the Pirates, but he finished with 232 yards behind two 77-yard scoring tosses.

Hampton	0	0	7	14	21

UNA's top rusher Tyrone Rush broke the game open early as he scampered in from the Pirate 20 with 9:46 left in the opening quarter. In the second quarter, North Alabama kicked its running game into high gear utilizing an option offense that drove 90 yards in 12 plays, culminating on a 27-yard run by freshman quarterback Cody Gross. UNA scored once more before the end of the first half on a 1-yard plunge by Brian Satterfield, pushing the halftime score to 20-0.

The Pirates got on track late in the third quarter, driving 86 yards in seven plays and scoring on a Matthew Montgomery to Craig Rainey pass from five yards out.

North Alabama got its fourth score of the game when Cody Gross trotted in from the one, increasing the UNA lead to 27-7. However, despite the margin the Pirates were determined that this game was far from over.

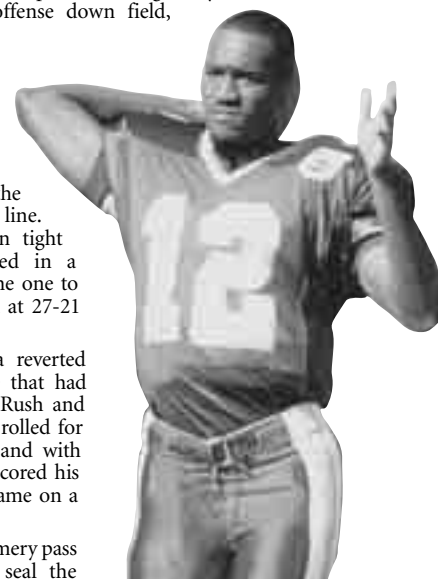

Utilizing a variety of short passes, Montgomery directed the Hampton offense down field, setting up a 1-yard touchdown run courtesy of running back Todd Harvey. It only got better for Hampton on the ensuing kickoff as the Pirates' special teams recovered a wild kick at the North Alabama 35-yard line.

Five plays later Hampton tight end Craig Rainey hauled in a Montgomery pass from the one to trim the UNA lead to six at 27-21 with 8:21 left in the game.

However, North Alabama reverted back to its ground game that had been so strong early on. Rush and backfield mate Satterfield rolled for the tough short yardage and with 3:38 to play, Cary Gross scored his third touchdown of the game on a 2-yard option keeper.

UNA picked off a Montgomery pass with 1:58 remaining to seal the contest.

1993 Playoffs - First Round

Hampton 33, Albany State 7

November 20 • Armstrong Field • Hampton, Virginia

Hampton	13	7	13	0	33
Albany State	0	0	7	0	7

The Pirates rushed for more yards and scored more points in the first quarter alone than Albany State generally allowed in an entire game during the course of the season. That fact set the tone for Hampton's first win in the NCAA playoffs. Hampton led 13-0 after scoring drives of 10 plays and one play. By then the Pirates had rushed for 73 yards and passed for 37 more. The Golden Rams' defense came into the game yielding per game averages of just 59 rushing yards, 142 passing yards and 8.2 points. Hampton rolled up 24 first downs, rushed for 149 yards, passed for 238 yards and scored more points (33) than Albany State had surrendered during any game this season. The Golden Rams trailed 20-7 after scoring on their first possession of the second half. On second-and-seven from their own 43, Albany State quarterback Johnny Gilbert tossed a swing pass to running back Antonio Leroy. He caught the ball just as linebacker Josef Manley delivered a vicious hit. When the ball popped loose, cornerback Johann Fuller scooped it up and dashed 41 yards to give Hampton a 27-7 advantage, closing the door on any hopes of an Albany State rally.

UNA's Cody Gross, Brian Satterfield and Tyrone Rush each ran for more than 100 yards as the Lions outlasted the Pirates in the quarterfinals of the NCAA playoffs. This was the second year in a row that UNA stopped Hampton in the playoffs. The Lions scored the first two touchdowns before Malcolm Benson's 2-yard run got the Pirates on the board. The Lions scored the only touchdown of the second quarter, then held off a Pirate run with two goal line stands that protected a 28-14 lead. After a late third quarter score, which gave the Lions a 35-14 lead, the Pirates Kevin White responded with an 80-yard touchdown return on the ensuing kickoff to make it 35-20. On the Lions next possession they sealed the victory on Gross' 2-yard run and Jamie Stoddard's 23-yard field goal. The Pirates Matt Montgomery completed 16-of-40 passes for 204 yards and a touchdown, but the Pirates were held to just 110 yards rushing, their lowest output of the season.

1997 Playoffs - First Round

Youngstown State 28, Hampton 13
November 29 • Arnold D. Stambaugh Stadium • Youngstown, Ohio

Hampton	0	0	7	6	13
Youngstown State	0	21	7	0	28

Hampton's first I-AA playoff appearance got off to a rough start as Youngstown State, led by current Ohio State coach Jim Tressell, scored 14 points off of two Pirate turnovers and took a 21-0 lead into the half. The Pirates found themselves down 28-0 before getting on the board in the third quarter on an 8-yard run by quarterback Roy Johnson. Charles Jackson added a 13-yard run to trim the Penguin lead to 28-13. Hampton racked up 357 yards of total offense to 290 for Youngstown State, but the Pirates turned the ball over six times (4 fumbles, 2 interceptions) to seal their own fate. Jackson rushed for 98 yards and a score for the Pirates, while Johnson completed 13-of-26 passes for 152 yards. Deon Hunt's 11 tackles led the defensive effort for Hampton.

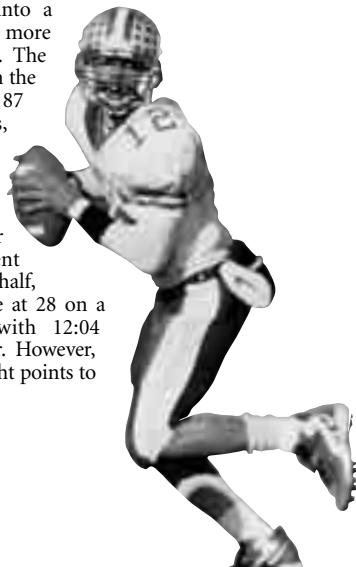

1998 Playoffs - First Round

UConn 42, Hampton 34
November 28, Memorial Stadium, Storrs, Connecticut

Hampton	7	10	3	14	34
Connecticut	7	14	7	14	42

This playoff matchup turned into a shootout as both teams put up more than 400 yards of total offense. The Pirates pounded out 227 yards on the ground, led by Montrell Coley's 87 yards and two touchdowns, including a 40-yard run to open the scoring. The Huskies primarily used an air attack as quarterback Shane Stafford threw for 294 yards and four touchdowns to four different receivers. Down 21-17 at the half, Hampton rallied to tie the game at 28 on a 2-yard run by Mike Jones with 12:04 remaining in the fourth quarter. However, UConn answered with 14 straight points to escape with the victory.

2004 Playoffs - First Round

William & Mary 42, Hampton 35
November 27 • Zable Stadium • Williamsburg, Virginia

Hampton	13	0	8	14	35
William & Mary	0	7	14	21	42

Led by senior wide receiver Jerome Mathis, the Hampton University Pirates put forth a valiant effort before coming up just short of their first Division I-AA playoff win, falling 42-35 to William & Mary. Mathis' record 394 all-purpose yards were countered by Lang Campbell's 294 passing yards and three touchdowns for The Tribe.

After going three plays and out on their first series, the Pirates (10-2) opened their second drive with a play-action pass and Princeton Shepherd found Mathis for a 45-yard gain down to the William & Mary 6-yard line. Three plays later Ardell Daniels plunged into the end zone from a yard out to give the Pirates a 7-0 advantage.

The Tribe (10-2) answered with a 10-play, 70-yard drive of their own later in the first quarter, but Greg Kuehn's 23-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right.

One play later Shepherd once again found Mathis, who had gotten behind William & Mary cornerback Stephen Cason, for an 80-yard touchdown strike. The touchdown was the longest scoring play allowed by The Tribe this season and it gave the Pirates a 13-0 lead as the extra point attempt was blocked.

Atlantic 10 Player of the Year and Tribe quarterback Lang Campbell (23-of-37, 294 yds., 3 TD) quickly cut into the Hampton lead by directing an 8-play, 80-yard drive. Campbell was 5-of-5 for 58 yards on the drive, including an 8-yard touchdown pass to Adam Bratton with 9:23 to play in the second quarter as the scoreboard read Hampton 13, Tribe 7.

Both defenses held their own for the remainder of the half with William & Mary controlling Hampton's running game, and the Pirates intercepting Campbell twice in the first half after the senior had thrown just one interception all year.

The second half began with an explosion as William & Mary raced 74 yards in just under two minutes to take a 14-13 lead on Campbell's second touchdown pass of the afternoon, a 27-yard strike to Dominique Thompson.

Unfortunately for The Tribe, scoring means you must kick off to Jerome Mathis, the country's leading kick returner. Kuehn tried to angle the ensuing kickoff but it rolled out of bounds forcing William & Mary to kick again. This time The Tribe kicked deep to Mathis who fielded the ball at his own 7-yard line. Two cuts and 93 yards later, the Pirates were back on top 21-14 and Mathis had the Division I-AA record for kickoff returns for touchdowns in a season with five.

William & Mary took little time evening the score at 21. Taking over possession at their own 44-yard line, The Tribe needed just three plays to put themselves into scoring position. Thompson highlighted the drive with a 27-yard reverse down to the 4-yard line where Jon Smith took it in from there to knot the score at 21 apiece at the end of the third quarter.

Mathis registered his third touchdown of the day on Hampton's first possession of the fourth quarter on a 43-yard reception that put the Pirates back ahead 28-21.

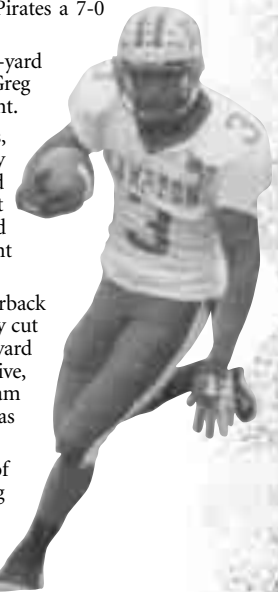

Wearing a #3 jersey like his counterpart Mathis, William & Mary's Dion Thompson imitated the Hampton speedster by returning the ensuing kickoff 92 yards to tie the score again.

The Pirate offense was held to three plays and out again by The Tribe and on the first play from scrimmage, Thompson (7 rec., 188 yds., 2 TD) ran by Hampton safety Derius Swinton and Campbell found him for a 45-yard score that would prove to be the game winner.

Jon Smith put William & Mary ahead 42-28 with his second rushing touchdown with 1:56 remaining.

The Pirates added a late score on a 7-yard run by Shepherd, but were unable to come away with the onside kick and the victory.

Shepherd's 242 yards passing and two touchdowns were a Hampton playoff record, as were Mathis' six receptions, 188 receiving yards, three touchdowns, 80-yard touchdown reception, 93-yard kickoff return and 394 all-purpose yards.

Richmond 38, Hampton 10

November 26 • Armstrong Stadium • Hampton, Virginia

Richmond	7	3	14	14	38
Hampton	0	10	0	0	10

The University of Richmond scored 28 unanswered points in the second half, breaking open a 10-10 halftime tie and cruising to a 38-10 victory over No. 2 Hampton in the first round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. The loss by Hampton ended the Pirates' 11 game winning streak and 12-game winning streak at Armstrong Stadium.

The first two minutes of the ball game proved to be pretty eventful as the Pirates (11-1) went three and out on their first drive, but re-gained possession when Richmond's Ryan Mace fumbled the punt. Jimari Jones recovered giving Hampton a first down at the Spiders' 29-yard line. However, on the ensuing play Princeton Shepherd was intercepted by Richmond's Joe Mallory, brother of Hampton defensive back Jermaine Mallory.

Hampton failed to capitalize on its next possession as well, driving 54 yards in just over four minutes, but coming away with nothing as Andrew Paterini's 20-yard field goal attempt sailed wide left.

The Spiders (9-3) responded with a power rushing attack led by David Freeman and Tim Hightower. The duo combined for 55 rushing yards on the next drive that ended with a 1-yard run by quarterback Stacy Tutt to put Richmond ahead 7-0 with 2:28 to play in the first quarter.

Replacing Hampton starter Princeton Shepherd under center, Pirate backup Antwan Smith entered the game and immediately sparked the Pirate offense. He completed passes of 39 and 15 yards to Onrea Jones, while also rushing for a 17-yard gain. Yet the drive stalled on the Richmond 27-yard line and the Pirates were again forced to settle for a 44-yard field goal by Paterini. This time the kick was good as the scoreboard read Richmond - 7, Hampton - 3, early in the second quarter.

After connecting with Jones for a 44-yard pass play, Smith put the Pirates ahead with a 7-yard strike to Jones with 7:58 to play in the half as Hampton led 10-7.

A 22-yard field goal by Richmond's Joseph Fore knotted the game at 10 apiece and the score would remain tied heading into the break.

The Spiders came out in the second half determined to wear down the Pirates with their ground game and they did just that, led by Tutt from his quarterback position. After a 25-yard punt return by Mace gave Richmond the ball at its own 49-yard line, Tutt rushed four consecutive times for 48 yards to set up a plunge by Hightower from three yards out. The extra point gave the Spiders a 17-10 lead, but they would add to that in a matter of minutes.

The Pirates failed to field the kickoff and Richmond recovered at the Hampton 37. Four plays later Freeman ran in from two yards out and the Pirates were facing their largest deficit of the season, 24-10.

With the Pirates' ground game under wraps, wide receiver Onrea Jones did his best to keep Hampton in the ball game. Jones set a new Hampton playoff record with 11 receptions for 192 yards and a touchdown, but he had little help from the rest of his offensive unit. Alonzo Coleman and Ardell Daniels, Hampton's pair of 1,000-yard backs were held to just 46 yards on 20 attempts, while the Pirate quarterbacks were sacked five times.

Hightower and Freeman each added fourth quarter touchdown runs to provide the final 38-10 margin. Freeman finished with a game-high 117 yards and Hightower added 73 as the Spiders ran for 251 yards against a Hampton defense that came in allowing just 124 yards a game. The loss was the fourth straight in the I-AA playoffs for the Pirates who are 0-4 all-time in the postseason since moving up to Division I-AA in 1995.
