Liberty Clinches Big South Regular Season Title

- With a 7-1 win over Coastal Carolina on Friday, Liberty captured the 2014 Big South regular season title and clinched the No. 1 seed for the upcoming Big South Baseball Championship in Rock Hill, S.C., May 20-24.
- Liberty has captured their third Big South regular season title in program history and their first since 2000.
- Liberty has also won the conference's regular season title in 1998 and 2000.
- In addition, the Flames have won a program record 22 Big South games this season. The mark eclipses the 19 Big South wins by the 2010 Flames.

Closing in on 40 Wins

- Liberty enters the week with 38 wins, two shy of 40.
- Liberty has won 40 or more games in a season four times in program history. Three of the four have come under head coach Jim Toman.
- Under Toman, the Flames posted back-to-back 40 win seasons in 2011 and 2102. The Flames posted a school record 43 wins during a 43-18 season in 2011, while posting a 41-19 mark in 2012.
- The only other time, the Flames collected 40 wins was in 1983 under Liberty's first head coach Al Worthington. The Flames posted a 40-17 record during their run to an appearance in the NAIA National Tournament.

Recognizing the Seniors

- This past Saturday, the Liberty baseball program recognized the five seniors who are playing in their final regular season home game in a Liberty uniform, this evening.
- Pitchers Brett Fulghum, Trey Lambert and Matt Marsh, along with catcher Danny Grauer and outfielder Nick Lacik were honored for their contributions to Liberty baseball during their time with program.
- In addition, managers Matt Bonferraro and Dan Forbes were recognized for their efforts.

Pitching Making Mark

- Liberty enters the week with the seventh-best winning percentage in the nation (38-11, .766). One of the key elements of head coach Jim Toman's team's success has been its mound corps, this season.
- The Flames enter the week with a Big South-leading 2.54 ERA. Liberty is also ranks 11th nationally in the category.
- Liberty pitching also ranks 10th nationally with eight shutouts. The Flames recorded six consecutive shutouts in Big South contests from March 28 - April 6. Liberty did not allow a run in a sweep of a three-game series at Presbyterian College, March 28-30, and during a three-game sweep of a series against VMI at Liberty Baseball Stadium, April 4-6.
- Liberty pitching has held opponents to .220 batting average and allowed opponents 2.9 runs per game this season, the eighth fewest in the nation.
- Over their last 30 games, the Flames have a 2.17 ERA and held opponents to a .213 batting average. Liberty is allowing 2.5 runs per game during the span.

Average Attendance

- Liberty enters its final home game of the season on Tuesday, the Flames have averaged 1,473 fans per home date this season.
- The mark ranks 42nd in the nation on the latest NCBWA Attendance Report for games through May 11.
- Liberty has drawn 36,835 fans (46th in total attendance) over 25 games at Liberty Baseball Stadium, this season.
- Since opening Liberty Baseball last season, the Flames have averaged 1,191 fans per game.

Perritt Named to Midseason NCBWA Stopper Watch List

- Liberty reliever Ashton Perritt is one of 50 relief pitchers named to the midseason watch list for the 10th annual National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) Stopper of the Year Award. The honor is annually given to the top relief pitcher in NCAA Division I.
- Perritt, who also starts in the outfield for the Flames, has posted a 1-1 record with a 1.80 ERA and 11 saves in 17 appearances this season. The junior right-hander has struck out 24 and walked three in 25 innings.
- Perritt's 11 saves are a career-high for the right-hander and are the second most in a season in school history behind 16 by Josh Brey in 2000.
- He enters the week with 21 career saves, ranking second on the all-time program list behind Brey, who posted 27 from 1999-2001.

Lambert Named to National Pitcher of the Year Watch List

- Senior right-hander Trey Lambert has been selected as one of 47 pitchers listed on the first watch list for the 2014 National Pitcher of the Year Award.
- The Pitcher of the Year Award, sponsored by Diamond, will be presented during the National College Baseball Hall of Fame's annual Night of Champions on June 28 in Lubbock, Texas.
- Lambert enters the week with a 10-1 record with a 2.17 ERA over 87 innings. The senior leads the Big South Conference and is second in the nation in wins. He has struck out 56 and walked 15 in 12 starts this season.
- The right-hander Lambert also has pitched three complete games, two of which were shutouts, and has held opponents to a .215 batting average.
- After pitching a one-hit shutout in a 5-0 win at Presbyterian College on March 28, Lambert was named Big South Conference Pitcher of the Week for March 31. He also received several national honors, as he was selected an NCAA.com Top Performer for Week 7 and an ECAC Player of the Week.

Close, Lambert Selected to CoSIDA Academic All-District 3 Team

- Liberty Flames pitcher Trey Lambert and first baseman Alex Close have been selected to the Capital One Academic NCAA Division I All-District 3 baseball team for their excellence in the classroom and on the baseball diamond.
- Lambert, a senior, leads the Big South Conference in wins with a 10-1 record in 2014. A member of the National Pitcher of the Year watch list, the right-hander has posted a team-leading 2.17 ERA over 87 innings, striking out 56 and walking 15. The team captain has pitched three complete games and two shutouts in 2014.
- Off the field, Lambert is slated to graduate in May with an undergraduate degree in health promotion and is currently maintaining a 3.94 cumulative GPA. A two-time Big South Presidential Honor Roll member, the pitcher was recently named the recipient of the 2014 Rock Royer/Mac Rivera Award, honoring the top graduating senior student-athlete at Liberty University who best exemplifies the standards and lives of both of these great Christian men. In addition, he is active in various community projects.
- Close, a junior, has hit .330 with 29 runs scored and a team-high 41 RBIs in 48 games this season. The team captain has belted six home runs and posted a .497 slugging percentage. The Hoover, Ala., native and team captain has collected 15 multiple-hit game and leads the Flames with a .422 batting average in 2014.
- Academically, Close has maintained a 3.84 cumulative GPA, while pursuing an undergraduate degree in business administration: finance. A member of the Big South Presidential Honor Roll, the first baseman serves a representative on Liberty's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and is involved in several community outreach programs.
- Both Lambert and Close recently helped Liberty's baseball program win the athletics department's Darius Dixon Service award, given to the individual or team who unselfishly gives of their time to make a difference in the greater Lynchburg community.
