NOTES

Series Muhlenberg holds a 15-6 all-time series lead but has not beaten Lebanon Valley since the final game of the 1991-92 season. The teams have played each other only twice since then.

Last Year Already ahead by 10 points at halftime, Lebanon Valley outscored Muhlenberg 30-11 in the third quarter to blow the game wide open en route to a 68-44 win. Abbie Reed recorded a double-double (13 points, 12 rebounds) for LVC, while Veronica Dawson scored 14 points for the Mules on 7-of-12 shooting.

Honored Keira Dougherty was named Centennial Conference player of the week after averaging 18.0 points and 4.0 steals in a pair of wins. The first Muhlenberg player in 14 years to open a season with back-to-back 20-point games, she scored all 15 of her points vs. Susquehanna on threes, going 5-for-8 from long range. The first Mule freshman to be named CC player of the week in 18 years, Dougherty is one of only eight freshmen in Division III who has has played at least three games and is averaging 20 points.

Debuts Both teams in this game are led in scoring by first-year players. Kenzie Eckart, whose older sister Kailey earned all-conference recognition after last year's 18-8 finish, shot 63.2 percent from the field in her first two games, scoring 21 in a loss to Moravian.
