NOTES

Series	These teams have split four all-time meetings, all of which ended in shutouts. Last year, Madison Brege netted two goals in the first 8:19 for all the scoring in a 2-0 Kean win. Muhlenberg had a 22-13 advantage in shots but could not score. Oddly, this is the first time the teams will have played in back-to-back seasons.
Tuneup	This is the final tuneup for Muhlenberg before beginning Centennial Conference play at Swarthmore on Saturday. Swarthmore entered this week's NFHCA poll at No. 24 and is one of four nationally ranked CC squads, along with No. 5 Johns Hopkins, No. 8 Franklin & Marshall, and No. 13 Ursinus.
Transfer Tricks	Both of these teams have first-year transfers who have scored hat tricks this season. Kean's Ali Stoner netted three goals in a 6-5 win against Drew and currently ranks fifth in Division III in goals per game. She scored 13 goals for William Paterson last year. Jocelyn Morgan, a transfer to Muhlenberg from Kutztown, posted a hat trick against Moravian.
