LAST TIME OUT

New Haven football (2-6) lost to Central Conn. St. (4-3) 42-20 in a road game Saturday at Arute Field. New Haven threw for 304 yards and finished with 19 first downs but was held to two rushing yards and committed three turnovers.

Jake Tripptree (Sayville, N.Y./Sayville) completed 25 of 46 passes for 304 yards and one touchdown. Lasalle Rose Jr. caught four passes for 91 yards, D'Arious Reed (Nashville, Tenn.) added four receptions for 36 yards and one touchdown, and Frederick Borkey (Cleveland, Ohio/St. Thomas More) recorded nine tackles and recovered a fumble.

New Haven answered Central Conn. St.'s opening touchdown with two Liam Quigley (Berkeley Heights, N.J./Governor Livingston) field goals, the second a 41-yarder after Tyler Hammel (Coram, N.Y./Longwood) forced a fumble and Borkey recovered at the Central Conn. St. 35. Tripptree helped set up the first score with a 38-yard completion to Rose, and Quigley's second kick made it 7-6 with 2:06 left. Central Conn. St. had the ball in New Haven territory when the first quarter ended with New Haven down 7-6.

New Haven was held scoreless in the second quarter while Central Conn. St. scored two rushing touchdowns to move ahead 21-6 by halftime. New Haven's best offensive sequence came after Dre Kirton's (Uniondale, N.Y./Holy Trinity) 39-yard kickoff return, when Tripptree hit Matt Chandler (Oviedo, Fla./East Coast Prep) for 22 yards on third-and-18, but the drive stalled at the Central Conn. St. 46. Earlier, New Haven's defense forced a missed 52-yard field goal, but a blocked punt later set up Central Conn. St.'s first touchdown of the quarter.

Tripptree's 15-yard touchdown pass to Reed was New Haven's scoring answer, moving the score to 28-12 with 5:07 left in the third quarter. Earlier, New Haven drove to the Central Conn. St. 19 before Quigley's 36-yard field goal attempt was blocked. Late in the third quarter, Lucas Theriaque's (Woodstock, Conn./Putnam Science Academy) interception gave New Haven a takeaway, but a sack-fumble on the next play set up Central Conn. St.'s 22-yard touchdown pass that sent New Haven into the fourth trailing 35-12.

New Haven opened the fourth quarter by finishing an 11-play, 86-yard touchdown drive that stretched from late in the third quarter into the fourth. Tripptree hit Issac Glaudin (Queens, N.Y./Holy Cross High) for 30 yards to the 2 before Caleb Williams (Pearl Mississippi, Pa.) ran in a 2-yard touchdown at 10:41. Reed caught the 2-point conversion pass to make it 35-20, but New Haven's next two possessions ended on downs and an interception. Central Conn. St. added a late touchdown to close the scoring.

TOGETHER WE BUILD

The Blue & Gold entered the summer of 2025 with many unknowns. Among them were a first-time head coach in Mark Powell and a first-time starting quarterback in AJ Duffy. Powell, an interim, and Duffy, an unknown, endured ups (Duffy won three Offensive Player of the Week awards from the NEC, Powell was named the full-time head coach the day before the season finale at home against Merrimack) and downs (an 0-2 start to the 2025 campaign) throughout a very chaotic first year.

Now, armed with experience and the understanding of what it takes to win at their new level, Powell and Duffy look to build the Blue & Gold up to where they have been competing at for long—as their Athletic Director Devin Crosby has so often mentioned.

GOVERNING

Brodie Williams knows a thing or two because he's seen a thing or two. The graduate student defensive back can play all secondary positions and line up as a linebacker. Recently voted as a captain by his teammates, Williams and Coach Powell will make a homecoming trip this season.

On Oct. 3, New Haven will visit the Governors of Austin Peay State, where Williams played from 2021-24. Powell met his now wife, Stephanie, during his time with the Governors, which included Williams' first season.

WEST HAVEN WALL

Throughout the transition to Division I, Coach Powell has preached that opposing teams will have bigger, stronger, and faster players than the Blue & Gold.

And then Sean Pozniak arrived. And then Eliseo Polanco joined him. Tyler Kohler developed into a starter's role. Success Chikezie, one of the biggest players on last year's team, returns as another starter up front. All four will flank returning center Anthony Massa.

The rebuilt offensive line features more size and strength than most in New Haven Football history. With their superstar quarterback behind them, the West Haven Wall looks the part in keeping AJ Duffy out of harm's way.

LEADERSHIP IS EVERYTHING

In a vote of all active football student-athletes, the Blue & Gold named two Captains for the 2026 season. Brodie Williams and Ricky Encarnacion, two defensive anchors, will be two players the staff rely on the most to guide themselves to success this season.

HOME SWEET HOME

New Haven only lost once at home since 2023. Coincidentally, it was the Blue & Gold's last home game. Previously, New Haven had taken the last 10 straight matchups at Ralph F. DellaCamera Stadium for the win column, including a perfect 4-0 record at home since moving up to Division I last year.

With a full NEC schedule in the works for 2026, the Chargers will have their work cut out for them.

TRANSFERS

Coach Powell and staff hit the portal hard over the offseason and brought in some high-quality athletes to make the Blue & Gold better across the board.

In the backfield, Caleb Williams came over from Pitt and figures to be a core special teams player.

Out wide, LaSalle Rose Jr. (UAlbany), Nate Burleson II (Nevada), and Dom Grguric (Bowling Green) have stepped into roles vacated by last year's leading receiver in the NEC, Kevonne Wilder, and the Chargers' best big-play threat, Josh Tracey. Those three, combined with the returning Issac Glaudin and Matt Chandler, gives AJ Duffy plenty of targets for his final season.

Up front, Jeremiah Ndaiga (Akron) and Sean Pozniak (Tennessee Tech) have added some much-needed size and strength to the offensive line. Noah Eldridge (Holy Cross) will also provide depth throughout the year as Coach Powell describes the offensive line as the deepest he has ever seen.

On the defensive side of the ball, Chris Hudson (UConn) will help sure up the secondary. Nehemiah Burleson comes with his brother from Nevada, and will provide versatility along the defensive line.

WORLDWIDE LEADER IN SPORTS

New Haven will appear on ESPN+ three times throughout the 2026 season. The Chargers will be available to watch on the network when they travel to South Dakota State on Sept. 12, when they travel to Merrimack on Sept. 21, and when they host Duquesne on Oct. 31, which is also slated to be City of West Haven Day.

New Haven will also have its home games on NESN+ throughout the year.

COMMUNITY IS KEY

New Haven Athletics totaled a whopping 8,517 hours of service in the community, over 2,000 more than any other school in the NEC. With a goal of developing the entire human and taking the core value of New Haven Athletics into account (The Human Good), Powell's Chargers are showing up for the community when the community shows up for them every fall.

YOU'RE IN GOOD HANDS

Coach Powell was named one of 13 Good Works nominees from Allstate & the AFCA for his outstanding work in the community. A West Haven native, Powell has pledged to develop the whole person, not just the football player, throughout his time at New Haven.

Other nominees include Alex Golesh (Auburn), Jeff Lebby (Mississippi State), Ryan Day (Ohio State), Matt Campbell (Penn State), Bret Bielema (Illinois), and Pat Narduzzi (Pitt).

BIGGER THAN BALL

New Haven Football earned the Team GPA Award from the NEC for the highest GPA of all football programs in the conference in 2025.

MARK POWELL

HEAD COACH

SECOND SEASON

LAFAYETTE '14

Mark Powell enters his second year as the head football coach at the University of

New Haven in 2026. Powell's track record of defensive success will continue at New Haven, where he has overseen the team's defensive unit. A local product, Powell gained an up-close view of the world of coaching football from a young age as his grandfather, Carm Cozza, coached at Yale University for 32 years.

In a year where the Chargers were a perfect 4-0 at home under Powell's leadership, the defense was a main factor in the team's success. Among NEC schools, Powell's defense ranked second in sacks (28), fourth in interceptions (nine), third in rushing defense, and second in red zone defense. The Blue & Gold were also the least penalized team in the conference while drawing the second-most flags against opponents.

Powell's expertise helped Mississippi State earn the top defensive unit in the country in 2018. The Bulldogs reached the Outback Bowl, and under Powell's guidance, the Bulldogs defensive unit was the only one in the country to finish in the top 10 of all four major defensive categories, ranking first in total defense (263.1 yards per game), second in scoring defense (13.2 points per game), second in rushing defense (95.0 yards per game) and seventh in pass defense (168.0 yards per game). Powell coached All-SEC performer Jonathan Abram.

Before joining the Blue & Gold, he spent time at Fordham University, where he helped the school reach its first nine-win season and FCS playoff appearance since 2015. Among Patriot League teams, Fordham's defense ranked first in sacks and third-down defense. It also ranked second in tackles for loss and in the top 25 in the country in both sacks and interceptions.

From 2019-2021, Powell spent time at Austin Peay State University, where he coached the linebackers and served as the defensive and special teams coordinator. The Governors won the OVC in 2019 and ranked first in the conference in yardage defense rushing defense, pass defense, and scoring defense.

Powell also spent time at Christopher Newport University, where he coached the defensive line and outside linebackers along with being the special teams coordinator, Marshall University, where he was the defensive graduate assistant, Villanova University, where he coached tight ends, Yale University as a defensive assistant, and his alma mater, Lafayette College, where he was a defensive assistant.

Coach Powell graduated from Lafayette College in Easton, PA, where he played linebacker at for three years, with a bachelor's degree in history in 2014. He earned his master's in education from Mississippi State University in May 2021. Mark and his wife Stephanie have two sons, Hunter and Mason.
