- Diongue added seven points and two blocks, while Jae'Coby Osborne contributed seven points, three rebounds, two assists and two steals.
- Gabe Pickens dished out a team-high four assists and knocked down both of his three-point attempts to finish with six points.
- The Aggies outrebounded the Miners, 37-34, collecting 16 offensive boards and holding a 16-8 advantage in second-chance points.

A MARCH REMATCH
NM State and San Diego State last met on March 20, 2014, in the NCAA Tournament in Spokane, Wash., where the fourth-seeded Aztecs edged the 13th-seeded Aggies, 73-69, in overtime. Kevin Aronis knocked down a three-pointer with six seconds remaining to force the extra period, while Daniel Mullings led NM State with 18 points.

WE'RE ROCKIN' WITH MARK
Mark Lavrenov tallied a double-double in the Aggies' win over Western New Mexico to become the first Aggie with a double-double in a season opener since 2022. After leading NM State with 19 points at Gonzaga, Lavrenov added 14 points and eight rebounds at UTEP, shooting 4-of-8 from the field and 2-of-4 from beyond the arc. He has scored in double figures in all three games and leads the Aggies in scoring (16.7 ppg), rebounding (7.3 rpg) and free throws made (19).

WASHINGTON HEATS UP
Jermaine Washington provided a spark off the bench at UTEP, leading the Aggies with 16 points while connecting on four three-pointers. Washington added three rebounds and two assists in 30 minutes, accounting for 16 of NM State's 20 bench points.

DIALING UP THE DEFENSE
NM State limited UTEP to 38.2% shooting from the field and 26.7% from three-point range. The Aggies recorded seven steals, led by Jae'Coby Osborne's two, while Adrame Diongue supplied both of the team's blocked shots.

WORKING THE GLASS
The Aggies collected 16 offensive rebounds at UTEP, helping produce a 16-8 advantage in second-chance points. Mark Lavrenov grabbed five offensive boards, while Adrame Diongue added four as the duo finished with eight rebounds apiece.

BEYOND THE ARC
Five Aggies connected from three-point range at UTEP as NM State finished 10-of-26 from deep. Jermaine Washington led the way with four triples, while Mark Lavrenov and Gabe Pickens added two apiece. Jae'Coby Osborne and Omarr Smith each knocked down one.

PICKENS SETS THE TABLE
Junior guard Gabe Pickens continues to lead the Aggies' distribution efforts, following consecutive five-assist performances with a team-high four assists at UTEP. Pickens has totaled 14 assists against six turnovers through three games, posting a 2.3 assist-to-turnover ratio. He also connected on both of his three-point attempts against the Miners, finishing with six points and three rebounds.

DUDLEY'S DEBUT
First-year Aggie DJ Dudley made quite the impression in his first game as an Aggie, finishing with 22 points on 7-of-14 shooting. In his debut, the senior went 4-of-8 from beyond the arc and also added five rebounds and three assists. His scoring outburst marked the first time that he logged 20-plus points in a game since scoring 20 against FIU on Feb. 28, 2026, while playing for LA Tech. In total, Dudley scored 20 or more in eight games as a Bulldog during the 2025-26 season.

YEAR FOUR
Head Coach Jason Hooten gears up to lead the Crimson & White for his fourth season at helm. Last season, he helped the Aggies to the quarterfinals of the Conference USA Championship after knocking off Jax State 68-63 in the opening round of the tournament held in Huntsville, Ala.

In total, Hooten now holds a career collegiate coaching record of 308-219, incluxding a 47-50 mark as the leader of the NM State program. Across his coaching career, he has guided his teams to a postseason appearance a total of six times, including a pair of trips to the NIT amid his 13-year stint as the head coach of Sam Houston.

RETURNING AGGIES
The Aggies return just three players from last season's roster, as much of the 2025-26 squad either graduated or transferred. Juniors Gabe Pickens and Jae'Coby Osborne both return for their third season with the program after seeing their roles increase tremendously during their sophomore seasons. Sophomore Omarr Smith also returns for another year in Las Cruces, however, the Baltimore native did not see any action during his first season with the Aggies.

Last season, Pickens appeared in 31 games and made 24 starts for the Crimson and White. As a sophomore, he averaged 4.5 points and was the Aggies' top distributor as he dished out a team-high 3.0 assists per game.

Osborne returns after seeing action in all 32 games, including making 20 starts. He now serves as the Aggies' leading returning scorer (6.0 ppg) and rebounder (4.9 rpg) and will once again look to be a key piece in the Aggies' quest for success.

NEW PIECES TO THE PUZZLE
After losing more than 80% of both its scoring and rebounding from the 2025-26 season, NM State made it a priority this offseason to reload its roster with players capable of producing immediately.

In the offseason, the Aggies brought in several proven scorers as DJ Dudley, KK Robinson, Gabe Warren and Jermaine Washington all averaged over 10 points per game at their most recent stop. In fact, both Dudley and Robinson led their teams in scoring as Dudley led LA Tech last year with 13.8 points per game, while Robinson paced all Trojans at Little Rock, averaging 15.6 points during the 2023-24 season.

Additionally, Gabe Warren served as Holy Cross' second-leading scorer, posting 12.5 points per contest last year. This also excludes Mark Lavrenov who averaged 9.9 points during his freshman season at Sacramento State.

Meanwhile Lavrenov, Leopold Levillain, Stephon Payne and Robinson each averaged five or more rebounds with their most recent squads. This is highlighted by Lavrenov who averaged 7.0 boards for the Hornets and Payne who pulled down a career-best 6.5 rebounds per game last year and averages 5.9 rebounds across his four-year collegiate career.

LEANING ON EXPERIENCE
This season, the Aggies' roster will include a total of eight players who started 20 or more games at the Division I level during the 2025-26 season, including both Pickens and Osborne who each did so at NM State last season for Head Coach Jason Hooten.

In addition, both KK Robinson and Adrame Diongue started 20-plus games during their most recent season of action at the DI level.

PRESEASON RECOGITION
Senior guard DJ Dudley was named to the 2026-27 CUSA Preseason All-Conference Team. A transfer from LA Tech joins the Aggies following a standout season in which he averaged 13.8 points, 2.8 rebounds and 1.97 assists per game. He also helped the Bulldogs reach the Conference USA Championship game.

JASON HOOTEN

HEAD COACH | FOURTH SEASON | TARLETON, '93 | CAREER RECORD: 308-221 (.584)

On Friday, March 24, 2023, Jason Hooten was introduced as the 28th head coach in Aggie men's basketball history. Hooten arrived in Las Cruces with more than 30 years of coaching experience, including an impressive 13 years of experience as a head coach.

Last season, Hooten guided the Aggies to a 16-16 record, including a 10-5 mark inside the Pan American Center. During the 2025-26 season, the Aggies had one of the top shot-contesting defenses in Conference USA as it held opponents to just 41.0% from the floor to rank 35th in the nation. Additionally, NM State paced its league in three-point percentage defense, limiting opposing shooters to a 31.3% clip from beyond the arc.

In their third season with Hooten at the helm, the Aggies saw Jemel Jones earn Second Team All-CUSA honors and finished the year averaging a team-high 17.8 points per game to go along with 2.4 assists and 1.3 steals per contest. Hooten also helped Julius Mims become one of Conference USA's top rebounders as Mims averaged 8.4 boards per game to rank second among all CUSA players.

In his second season leading the Crimson & White, he led NM State to a 17-15 record, improving by four wins from his first year while tying for the second-best road conference record in CUSA at 6-3. He guided the Aggies to signature road wins, including a sold-out overtime thriller over I-25 rival New Mexico - who went on to win the Mountain West and reach the NCAA Tournament's Round of 32 - and a historic victory at I-10 rival UTEP, marking NM State's largest win in El Paso since 1937 and the third-largest home loss in UTEP history. Under his leadership, the Aggies became one of the nation's top defensive teams, ranking sixth in three-point percentage defense (29.1%), 11th in field goal percentage defense (39.6%), and 32nd in scoring defense (65.9 ppg).

Hooten embarked on one of the most unique challenges throughout college basketball in the 2023-24 season. NM State was the only team in Division I that returned zero points, rebounds, or assists. With 15 newcomers to Las Cruces, only Tarleton, Hooten's alma mater, had more new faces around the gym.

In his first year at helm, Hooten led the Aggies to a win over I-10 rival UTEP, a 23-point second half comeback to defeat the future CUSA Tournament Champions Western Kentucky and a 12-3 record inside of the Pan American Center. The Aggies also ranked first in all CUSA programs in average home game attendance, totaling 5,638 fans per contest.

In 13 seasons as the head coach at Sam Houston State University, Hooten displayed a track record of success as he compiled 261 wins, posted a .607 win percentage and helped the Bearkats to six postseason appearances, including a win in the first round of the 2023 NIT. Hooten's ability to build a winning program guided him to become the Bearkats' winningest coach in program history. Hooten and his staff helped lead the SHSU program to six 20-plus win seasons, including four in the last six seasons.

In 2023, Hooten led the Bearkats to a program-tying record of 26 wins en route to earning the No. 1 seed in the 2023 WAC Tournament. On the heels of one of Sam Houston State University's best seasons in program history, Hooten was named one of 20 finalists for the Hugh Durham Award, which is presented to the top Division I mid-major coach in the country. Hooten also appeared on the list of 25 finalists for the Skip Prosser Man of the Year Award – an award honoring success on the court while also displaying moral integrity off the court.

Under Hooten, the Bearkat program produced 36 all-conference honorees, including 2023 WAC Player of the Year Qua Grant who was one of four conference players of the year to take the court for Hooten. The Killeen, Texas, native also coached nine first team all-conference selections, four all-defensive team members and one Southland Conference Defensive Player of the Year.

Hooten's defensive philosophies helped build the program into one of the stingiest defenses in the country this season as the Bearkats held teams to just 59.3 points per game to rank fourth in the country and first in the conference. SHSU opponents also combined to shoot just 39.1% from the field in 2022-23 – a mark that was good for fifth in the nation and tops in the WAC.

Hooten's Bearkat teams also gave NM State fits during their two-year stint as conference foes. Sam Houston knocked off the Aggies twice in two meetings, including handing NM State a 25-point loss to end a 10-game winning streak during the 2021-22 season. The 2022-23 season was also highlighted by a pair of wins over Power Five programs as they defeated both Oklahoma and Utah during non-conference play.

Prior to being appointed the head coach at Sam Houston, Hooten served as an assistant on the Bearkats' staff from 2004 to 2010 and was a member of the coaching staff during one of two NCAA Tournament appearances in program history when SHSU reached the Big Dance in 2010. In five seasons as an assistant with Sam Houston, the Bearkats reached 20 wins four times and posted an overall record of 127-59. In 2009, RecruitingRumors.com named Hooten as one of the top 100 NCAA assistant coaches while CollegeInsider.com named him to the Mid-Major Top 25 assistant coaches honorable mention list.

Ahead of his time with Sam Houston, Hooten appeared on Lonn Reisman's staff at Tarleton from 1993 to 2004. While coaching with his alma mater, Hooten helped the Texans construct a combined record of 204-111. Hooten's stint at Tarleton blossomed from his time as a student-athlete at TSU where he played for two seasons under Reisman (1989-91). As a guard, Hooten helped lead the Texans to a record of 52-10 while leading Tarleton in assists with 123 in 1990-91.

Hooten received his undergraduate degree from Tarleton State University in 1993 before earning his master's from Tarleton in 1995. He is married to Kristen Hooten and the two have a daughter, Jadyn, and a son, Jayce..
