LAST TIME OUT

For the first time since the 2022-23 season, NM State and UTEP clashed on the hardwood in non-conference action, with the Aggies traveling down I-10 to El Paso. In the Aggies' first road contest of the season, a standout night from the field paved the way for a 69-50 victory. Junior guard Raina Tomasicka led all scorers with 26 points, burying four 3-pointers while going 8-8 from the charity stripe. As a team, the Crimson & White made 11 3-pointers, the most in a single game since Dec., 28, 2021 against SAGU.

Stout defense by the Aggies saw the Miners record just one assist - the fewest by an Aggie opponent since Nov, 6, 2018 against Division II UT Permian Basin - while holding UTEP to 0-8 shooting from 3-point range.

THE MAN IN CHARGE

NM State enters the 2026-27 season with the 13th Head Coach in program history, Adeniyi Amadou, leading the way. Joining the Crimson & White following seven seasons on staff at Rhode Island.

With the Rams, Coach Amadou helped the program reached new heights in 2026 - notching a new program record in wins (28), while securing its second-ever regular season A10 title and first A10 Tournament championship - along with URI's first NCAA tournament appearance in 30 years.

Ahead of his time in Kingston, Amadou served as an assistant coach at multiple 'Power Four' programs. Across five seasons with Syracuse and Kentucky, the teams made five NCAA Tournament appearances, including a run to the 2016 NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 with the Wildcats.

Coach Amadou began his assistant coaching career at Dayton, working under Head Coach Jim Jaber. Over four seasons with the Flyers, the team achieved their first-ever A-10 Tournament title, making four NCAA appearances in that time - including their highest seeding ever (No.6) in 2014.

MEET THE STAFF

Associate Head Coach and Recruiting Coordinator Asami Morita was most recently the head coach at Westminster University, a DII program in Salt Lake City, Utah. Upon her hiring at Westminster, Morita made history as the first Japanese-born head coach in collegiate basketball and as the first person of full Japanese nationality to be named the head coach of an NCAA basketball program, men's or women's.

Associate Head Coach Vonn Read leads the NM State defense, adding to the Aggie staff following a season with the Memphis Tigers. In his lone year with the program, Memphis experienced one of the biggest defensive turnarounds in the country. The Tigers' overall defensive efficiency ranking improved from 341st in the nation to 86th in just one season.

Assistant Coach Adeola Okomolafe enters her first season as an assistant coach following a pair of seasons on staff with the TCU Horned Frogs. She was a key figure in the Horned Frogs' ability to sign the nation's most touted transfer portal classes, including 2025 Big 12 Player of the Year Hailey Van Lith, fellow All-Americans Olivia Miles, Sedona Prince, Marta Suarez and 2025 WNBA Draft pick Madison Conner.

THE LATVIAN LASER

Junior guard Raina Tomasicka arrived in Las Cruces this season, transferring in from South Florida and has provided an instant impact for the Aggies.

In NM State's 2026-27 opener, Tomasicka tallied 24 points - the most by an Aggie in her debut since at least 2014. In the Aggies' first road contest of the season against rival UTEP, she set new career highs with 26 points, four 3-pointers made, going a perfect 8-for-8 from the free-throw line.

The Jekabpils, Latvia, native leads Conference USA in mutliple categories, including points per game (22.0), total points (66), free throws made (20), 3-pointers made (8), 3-pointers per game (2.7), 3-point percentage (50.0%). made field goals (19) and free throw percentage (95.2%).

Tomasicka also ranks among the nation's best in scoring prowess, ranking 22nd in the country with 22.0 points per game, while also in the top-60 nationally for free throws made (37th), free throw percentage (37th) and 3-point percentage (59th).

ALLEZ, STACY!
Freshman and first-year Aggie Stacy Chovino made her first appearance in a collegiate basketball game and her first start on Nov. 2 against San Diego, posting six points, nine rebounds, two steals, one assist and one block in 31 minutes.

Chovino would follow up with an astounding performance against Southern Utah, tallying a career-high 25 points - including 12 in the fourth quarter, along with the game-winning basket with just two seconds remaining - while adding eight rebounds and two steals.

Named Conference USA Freshman of the Week on Nov. 9, Chovino ranks second in single-game points by a CUSA student-athlete this season (25, behind teammate Tomasicka), while also ranking as the lone CUSA student-athlete to tally 10 or more field goals in a game this season (12).

She currently ranks among the leagues best, ranking fifth in field goal percentage (45.9%), sixth in field goals made (17), seventh in assists per game (3.0), ninth in rebounds per game (7.0) and 12th in steals per game, averaging 2.3 per contest.

CONSISTENT PRESENCE
Upon her arrival in Las Cruces, sophomore forward Aimeé Michel has been a key member of the Crimson & White program. The Albi, France, native has started in each of the Aggies' first three contests, averaging a team high 34 minutes per contest. She is also one of two Aggies (Tomasicka) to tally double-digit points in every contest. Against UTEP, Michel tallied new career highs in points (17), made field goals (7) and tied her high in 3-pointers made (3).

RHODE TRIPPIN'
A trio of Aggies made the move from Kingston, Rhode Island, to Las Cruces, with Eva Agba, Lily Fontcha and Aimeé Michel set to represent the Crimson & White in 2026-27.

Agba is the longest tenured member of the Rams' transfers, spending a pair of seasons with Rhode Island, making 10 appearances last season - including the Ram's NCAA Tournament game against Alabama.

Fontcha and Michel recorded one season in Kingston.

Fontcha also spent time at INSEP, the National Institute of Sport, Expertise, and Performance (Institut national du sport, de l'expertise et de la performance), with notable alumnus including four-time NBA Champion Tony Parker, Evan Fournier, Boris Diaw and Clint Capela.

THINKIN' WITH PORTAL
NM State dipped into the transfer portal and secured a trio of Divison I transfers in Head Coach Amadou's debut season. Talia Kavoka makes the move from College Station to the City of Crosses after spending one season at Texas A&M.

Junior guard Raina Tomasicka brings a valuable scoring touch to the Aggies, earning AAC Player of the Week honors in 2025. She has previously represented Latvia on numerous occasions, including at the 2024 FIBA Women's EuroBasket, averaging 16.3 points, 4.5 rebounds and 3.0 assists per game.

Jana Vesic adds to the NM State guard lineup from Seattle of the West Coast Conference. In her lone season with the Redhawks, she made 30 appearances and 14 starts, leading the team with 75 assists - the most by an individual in a single-season since the 2023-24 campaign.

FIRST-YEAR AGGIES
NM State brought in 14 first-year Aggies for the 2026-27 season, including nine who would be making their collegiate debuts. To date, 10 of the newcomers have played in a contest: Aissatou Keita, Talia Kavoka, Eva Agba, Imane Loubibet, Eva Hamlil, Aimeé Michel, Lilyana Fontcha, Raina Tomasicka, Julia Saillard and Stacy Chovino.

NM TRUE
The lone returner from the 2025-26 roster, senior guard Emma Christiano is a Las Cruces native, playing her high school ball for Las Cruces High School. Spending her first two seasons at NM Highlands, Christiano returned to the City of Crosses last season, making her presence felt over the duration of the 2025-26 season. Playing in all 30 contests, Christiano made 18 starts, leading the team in assists (2.7 per game; 12th in CUSA).

YEAR FOUR IN STORE
Joining Conference USA in July of 2023, NM State enters its fourth season as members of CUSA. Following the additions of Delaware and Missouri State in 2025-26, the conference continues to see change for the 2026-27 sesaon with the departures of LA Tech and UTEP.

CONFERENCE ROUNDUP
The 10-team league will see an 18-game conference schedule, culminating in the 2027 Air National Guard Conference USA Championships, held at Propst Arena in Huntsville, Ala., from March 9-13th.

On Oct. 8, CUSA announced its Women's Basketball Preseason Awards, where senior guard Kaemyn Bekermeier of Missouri State was selected as the Preseason Player of the Year.

Missouri State was selected as the preseason favorite, earning eight of a possible 10 first-place votes and 90 total points.

The Aggies were selected eighth, with 31 total points.

SCOUTING THE ROOS
From 2013-2020, the Roos and Aggies were members of the now defunct Western Athletic Conference. Following the 2020 campaign Kansas City moved to the Summit League, and in 2023 NM State made the move to Conference USA. The two programs play for the first time since the 2020 campaign - with the Aggies on a two game losing streak, though the Crimson & White won the previous 13 meetings between the teams.

Head Coach Candi Whitaker leads the charge for Kansas City, sporting an 86-94 record across two stints with the Roos. This season, Kansas City is 3-1, with their lone loss coming in an 89-81 contest against the SEC's Arkansas Razorbacks.

Sisters and teammates Emani and Eluani Bennett lead the Roos in multiple categories including points per game (Emani, 13.0), rebounds per game (Eluani, 7.0), and field goal percentage (Eluani, 69.7%).

HEAD COACH • ADENIYI AMADOU
FIRST SEASON • INDIANA UNVIERSITY (PA) '08

On March 11, NM State announced the hiring of Adeniyi Amadou as the 13th head coach in program history. The first-time head coach brings with him over 15 years of experience at the Division I level, with stops at Rhode Island, Syracuse, Kentucky and Dayton. This also represents the first head coach hiring for NM State Director of Athletics Joe Fields.

"We are proud to announce Adeniyi Amadou as our new head coach," said Director of Athletics Joe Fields. "I had the opportunity to meet him at Syracuse University during his time working with the women's basketball team, and it didn't take long to see the kind of person he is. Adeniyi is a tremendous teacher of the game and is widely regarded as the best recruiter in college basketball. He truly cares about developing student-athletes both on and off the court. He's a tremendous leader, and I know Aggie Nation and our student-athletes are going to love him."

"I am honored and truly grateful for the opportunity to lead the women's basketball program at New Mexico State University." said Coach Amadou. "I want to thank Joe Fields and the university leadership for the trust they have placed in me and for believing in the vision we share for this program. This opportunity is deeply aligned with my values, my passion for developing student-athletes and my belief in what a strong culture can build over time.

I'm excited to join the Aggie community and to build the program defined by hard work and discipline, relationships, and the constant pursuit of improvement.

Our team and our staff, all together, we will work relentlessly, every single day, to be the pride of this university and the city of Las Cruces."

Rhode Island | 2019-26 | Associate Head Coach
Spending seven seasons on staff with the Rams, the 2025-26 season saw Coach Amadou and URI achieve one of their most successful seasons in program history - a program-record 28 wins, the second-ever regular season championship and the first confrence tournament title, along with Rhode Island's first appearance in the NCAA tournament in 30 years. The team's 28-5 record was the fourth 20+ win season for the Rams under Head Coach Tammi Reiss, all with Amadou on staff. For the first time in program history, Rhode Island was represnted on the A10 First Team, Second Team, Third Team, Defensive Team, Rookie Team and Academic Team, as well as winning Coach of the Year (Reiss), and Sixth Woman of the Year (Vanessa Harris).

Syracuse | 2016-19 | Assistant Coach
Beginning his coaching career as an assistant DOBO and video coordinator under Head Coach Quenton Hillsman, Amadou would return to Syracuse as an assistant coach on Hillsman's staff in 2016. In his first season back with the Orange, the team tallied a 22-11 record, advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament before falling to UCONN. The following year, a 22-9 record saw the Orange return to the NCAA Tournament. The Orange's best season with Amadou on staff came in 2019, when the team reached the ACC Tournament semifinals and advance to their third straight NCAA Tournament, finishing with a 25-9 record.

Kentucky | 2014-16 | Assistant Coach
After continued success at Dayton, Amadou would make the jump from the A10 to the SEC, adding to Head Coach Matthew Mitchell's staff at Kentucky. A 25-10 record in year one included a trip to the NCAA Tournament and a win over Tennessee State, while the team achieved a trip to the 2016 NCAA Tournament Sweet Sixteen.

Dayton | 2010-14 | Asisstant Coach
Coach Amadou took his first assistant coaching job under legendary Head Coach Jim Jabir at Dayton. In each of his four seasons with the Flyers, the team made the NCAA Tournament, winning at least 21 games across four seasons - with a program record of 28 wins in 2012-13, reaching as high as No. 11 in both the AP and USA Today Coaches Polls. This would earn the Flyers their highest seed in the NCAA Tournament (No. 6) - their fifth consecutive NCAA Tournament berth.

Syracuse | 2009-10 | Assistant Director of Basketball Operations/Video Coordinator
Following a collegiate career of basketball with the United States Military Academy at West Point and Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Amadou would join the Orange of Syracuse as an assistant Director of Basketball Operations and Video Coordinator. That season, the Orange posted a 25-11 overall record, which included a trip to the WNIT quarterfinals - the furthest the program had advanced in postseason play in its history to that point.

Personal Life
A native of Paris, France, Amadou started his collegiate career playing for the Black Knights of the United States Military Academy at West Point. He transferred to Indiana University of Pennsylvania and led his team in offensive rebounding his senior year.

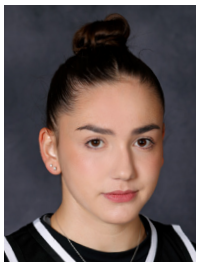

He received a bachelor's degree in journalism and political science from IUP and earned a master's degree from the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse.
