PICK SIX

1 Saturday marks NM State's first-ever meeting with Delaware and represents the second time this season they see a new opponent after previously playing Mercyhurst for the first time.

11 James Jones enters the weekend ranked first among CUSA players and 11th in the nation in rushing yards per game, averaging 109 yards per game. He also ranks 21st nationally in yards per carry (6.1).

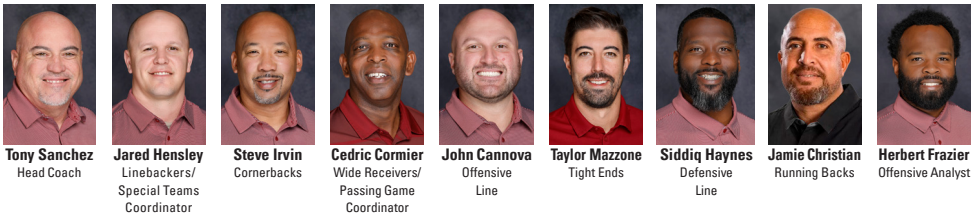

8.5 Tory Gethers has now recorded 8.5 tackles for loss during CUSA play. This is tied with Missouri State's Tim Brantley for the most during league competition.

4.9 Entering Saturday, safety Nick Session ranks 13th in the nation in solo tackles per game, averaging 4.9 per contest. This season, Session has recorded five or more solo tackles five times.

64 Brody Richter's 64-yard punt against Missouri State on Saturday marked the longest punt by an Aggie since 2021.

100 With both James Jones (150) and TJ Washington Jr. (107) rushing for over 100 yards, this marked the first time a pair of Aggie backs eclipsed the century mark since 2024 when Mike Washington Jr. (152) and Seth McGowan (119) did so.

LAST TIME OUT: MISSOURI STATE 27, NM STATE 21 (OT)

NM State battled Missouri State into overtime but came up short, falling 27-21 after the Bears scored in the final minute of regulation and sealed the win with a pick-six in the extra period. The Aggies controlled much of the game, outgaining Missouri State 383-292 and piling up a season-high 253 rushing yards while holding a 21-14 lead midway through the fourth quarter.

James Jones led the ground attack with 150 yards and a touchdown on 25 carries, recording his sixth 100-yard rushing game of the season and surpassing 1,000 rushing yards for the year. TJ Washington Jr. added a career-high 107 rushing yards and a touchdown, marking the first time since 2024 that two Aggie rushers eclipsed the 100-yard mark in the same game.

After trailing 14-7 at halftime, NM State rallied behind touchdowns from Jones and Washington Jr., while De'Marcus Peters' interception helped the Aggies score 14 unanswered. However, Missouri State answered with a late touchdown drive to force overtime before escaping with the victory.

JONES & WASHINGTON ECLIPSE 100

On Saturday at Missouri State, running backs James Jones (150) and TJ Washington Jr. (107) both eclipsed 100 yards rushing, marking the first time that a pair of Aggie backs did so since Nov. 9, 2024, when Mike Washington (152) and Seth McGowan (119) against Western Kentucky. This is also just the second time a pair of Aggies has gone over 100 yards on the ground since 2016.

BOOMIN' BRODY

On Saturday, Brody Richter put together his best performance of the season, recording eight punts for an average of 46.75 yards per kick.

Five of his eight punts finished inside the 20-yard line, the most by any CUSA punter in Week 11, while four traveled 50 or more yards, also the highest total in the league this week.

Richter helped the Aggies control field position throughout the afternoon, placing four punts inside the opponent's 10-yard line. His final three punts of the game each pinned the Bears inside the 10, putting punts at the 6-yard line, 3-yard line and 4-yard line during the fourth quarter.

Additionally, his 64-yard boot in the third quarter marked the longest kick by an Aggie punter since a 67-yard punt from Josh Carlson against San Diego State on Sept. 4, 2021.

The performance marked the second time this season Richter has recorded five punts inside the 20-yard line, previously doing so on Oct. 21 at Sam Houston. Through conference play, Richter's 16 punts inside the 20-yard line rank first among all Conference USA punters, with the next closest player recording 13.

LIVING IN THE BACKFIELD

Entering Saturday's game, the Aggies have recorded 5.9 tackles for loss per game. This is good for first in the conference and 41st in the nation. Individually, the Aggies are led in this department by Sone Aupiu (9.5) and Tory Gethers (9.5) who are both tied for fourth in the conference in tackles for loss this season. In conference play alone, Gethers has logged 8.5 tackles for loss to rank tied for first among all CUSA tacklers. Meanwhile, Aupiu ranks fifth in this category with 7.0 tackles for loss since the start of league action.

NM STATE AIR TRAFFIC CONTROL

Following another interception on Saturday at Missouri State, the NM State defense remains having more interceptions (9) than passing touchdowns it has allowed (8) this season. With this, they are the lone team in Conference USA to fall in this category.

The Aggie defense has also yet to allow an opposing team to throw multiple touchdown passes in a single game this season. This will be put to the test this weekend as the Aggies will face off against a Delaware offense that is led by Nick Minicucci who has thrown multiple touchdown passes in six of the eight games he has played in this year.

AJ ALWAYS OPEN

Senior wideout AJ Williams III put together another big day in the Aggies' last home outing, finishing the night with eight catches for 150 yards and two touchdowns. With this performance, it marked the second time this season Williams III hauled in two touchdown passes in the same game after also doing so against Sam Houston on Oct. 21.

In Saturday's game, Williams surpassed his career high in receiving yards during the first drive as he amassed 64 receiving yards and a touchdown on three catches to help the Aggies take an early lead.

His 150 receiving yards are the sixth-most in a single game by a CUSA player this season and is the fourth-most in a game during CUSA play this year. After his fourth consecutive game with multiple receptions, he is currently the Aggies' leading receiver with 447 total receiving yards.

CONTROLLING THE LINE OF SCRIMMAGE

In 2026, the NM State offense is averaging 4.3 yards per carry against FBS opponents after averaging 2.6 last season. The 1.7 yard increase is tied for the largest among all FBS programs this year.

Largest Improvement in Yards per Rush (FBS Games)

Team	2025	2026	Diff.
NM State	2.6	4.6	+2.0
Troy	2.5	4.2	+1.7
South Carolina	3.3	4.8	+1.5
Oklahoma State	3.6	5.1	+1.5
Wyoming	3.9	5.3	+1.4

RESTRICTING THE RUSH

Entering Saturday, the Aggie defense ranks third among all Conference USA teams in rushing yards allowed per game at 134.0 per contest. Additionally, the Aggies rank third in rushing yards allowed during CUSA play, giving up 122.2 yards per game across their first six league matchups.

Earlier this season, the Aggies limited Sam Houston to just 11 rushing yards to mark one of four times this season that the Aggies allowed fewer than 75 rushing yards. This serves as the first time since at least 1994 that the Aggies have kept their opponents under 75 rushing yards four times in a single season.

CUSA AT HOME

This Saturday, the Aggies will return home and look to secure ther third home win of the season. Thus far, CUSA teams now hold a 34-15 (.694) on their home turf. This marks the third best home record among all FBS conferences behind the Big 12 (.787) and Pac-12 (.714).

Meanwhile, CUSA teams are now a combined 12-39 on the road.

KEEPING UP WITH JAMES JONES

After yet another monster performance, James Jones continues to prove why he is appearing on more and more NFL draft boards and is one the top running backs in Conference USA and in the nation. Against Missouri State, Jones rushed for 150 yards and one touchdown to record his sixth 100-yard game of the season. This marks his fourth 100-yard game of league play after also doing so against Western Kentucky (155), Sam Houston (178) and Jax State (112).

Through 10 games, Jones has totaled 1,090 rushing yards on 179 carries to average 109.0 yards per game. He leads Conference USA and ranks 11th nationally in both rushing yards per game and total rushing yards. His 6.1 yards per carry also ranks second in the league and 21st nationally.

With 1,090 yards, he sits just 41 yards shy of tying Chris Barnes (2000) for 10th-most rushing yards in a single season in Aggie program history.

With two games remaining, Jones is on pace to become the first Aggie since Larry Rose in 2015 to average more than 100 rushing yards per game for a season. In conference play, he has been even better, leading CUSA with 122.5 rushing yards per game.

He also ranks fourth among FBS backs in runs of at least 20 yards with 12, including rushes of 31 yards and 25 yards against Missouri State on Saturday.

Jones' production extends beyond this season. Dating back to his time at Delaware State, he has surpassed the 100-yard mark in nine of his last 14 games and has recorded 16 career 100-yard rushing performances. His six 100-yard games this season are the most by an Aggie since Larry Rose III accomplished the feat seven times during the 2015 season.

PRESSURING THE PASSER

The Aggie defense has now recorded multiple sacks in five of its last seven games and have notched 14 sacks in CUSA play to rank tied for most in the conference. This charge is led by defensive end Gabe Peterson as he paces the Aggies and ranks tied for third among all CUSA defenders with a career-best 5.5 sacks for the season. This includes a league-best 4.0 sacks in conference action.

In the Aggies' CUSA opener against WKU, the Aggie defense recorded six total sacks to mark the program's most sacks in a single game since a seven-sack performance against FIU on Oct. 4, 2023.

The Aggies will look to continue this trend on Saturday as Delaware has allowed the third-most sacks (14) of any CUSA team this season.

In total, seven different Aggies have at least one sack this season, including six players with multiple sacks.

LEADERS IN THE MIDDLE

The tone of the NM State defense is set by linebackers Tory Gethers and Sone Aupiu who currently rank first and third, respectively, in tackles among the Aggie defense.

Aupiu is in his fifth year with the program and fourth as a starter. In total, Aupiu has now made 46 starts to lead all Aggies and currently ranks third among NM State defenders in tackles with 45. He is also tied for the lead among all Aggies with 9.5 tackles for loss and ranks second on the team in sacks with 4.0. Aupiu also has one interception and one forced fumble this season.

After a breakout season in 2025, Tory Gethers is alongside Aupiu once again. Currently, Gethers leads the Aggies in tackles with 75, including two sacks, 9.5 tackles for loss and seven quarterback hurries. Against Missouri State, Gethers had another strong showing as he logged nine tackles, including two tackles for loss, while also tallying a pair of quarterback pressures.

BRICK WALLING THE BEARKATS

In the win over Sam Houston on Oct. 21, the Aggie defense allowed just 11 total rushing yards to mark the fewest rushing yards in a single game by an NM State opponent since Oct. 4, 2008, when the Aggies held Alcorn State to -13 rushing yards. The performance against the Bearkats also marked the 19th fewest rushing yards an FBS defense has allowed in a single game this season.

This is also the fewest allowed by a CUSA team since UTEP held LA Tech to seven yards on Oct. 22, 2024.

TALLYING TURNOVERS

After finishing 14th in the nation in turnovers forced in 2025, the Aggie defense has continued to produce takeaways. With another interception on Saturday against Missouri State, the Aggies have now forced at least one turnover in 24 of the last 26 games. During this stretch, the Aggies have recorded an interception in 19 of the 26 contests.

CUSA PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

Several Aggies have produced standout performances this season as NM State has garnered a total of eight Conference USA Player of the Week awards, including one award this past week.

Most recently, Brody Richter was recognized as the CUSA Special Teams Player of the Week following the Aggies' Week 11 game at Missouri State.

Additionally, James Jones (offense), Trey Hedden (offense), Gabe Peterson (defense), Nick Session (defense), Ma'Kyi Lee (offensive lineman), Carson Su'esu'e (freshman) and Xavier Rucker (freshman) have also earned weekly honors for the Aggies this season.

CONSISTENCY IS KEY

This season, the NM State defense has seen consistency throughout the year as nine Aggies have started all nine games this year. This includes Brad Vislisel, Henry Davis III, Gabe Peterson, Tory Gethers, Sone Aupiu, Josiah Charles, De'Marcus Peters, Lorenzo Smith and Nick Session.

This group brings experience to the Aggie defense as the nine of them have combined to play in 332 games at the collegiate level, including 275 for the Aggies.

Games Played (FBS and FCS included)

Name	At NM State	Career
Sone Aupiu	51	51
Gabe Peterson	48	52
Josiah Charles	40	40
Nick Session	33	52
Henry Davis III	27	27
Brad Vislisel	22	33
Lorenzo Smith	22	22
Tory Gethers	22	22
De'Marcus Peters	10	33
TOTAL	275	332

STAGNANT STICKS

Against Sam Houston on Oct. 21, the Aggie defense allowed the Bearkats to gain just nine first downs. This marked the first time in over 20 years that NM State's opponent gained fewer than 10 first downs. The Aggies last accomplished this when it limited UL Monroe to nine first downs on Oct. 25, 2003.

QUICK STRIKES

In the win over Sam Houston on Oct. 21, the Aggie offense put forth some of its most efficient offense of the 2026 season as three of its five scoring drives were two plays or less and 45 seconds or less.

The Aggies' first touchdown drive was set up by an interception by Josiah Charles that was returned to the 1-yard line. James Jones then punched the ball into the end zone on the very next play to mark a one-play, six-second scoring drive.

NM State then produced a touchdown on a two-play, 43-yard drive that spanned just 18 seconds just before the end of the first half.

The Aggies' final scoring drive of the night was also just two plays long and took just 45 seconds after a forced fumble and recovery from Kaian Roberts-Day set the Aggies up with the ball at the Sam Houston 27-yard line.

This season, NM State has now produced nine scoring drives of five plays or fewer.

DEFENSE TO OFFENSE
Against WKU on Oct. 1, De'Marcus Peters' pick-six marked his second touchdown of the season and the third for the Aggie defense this season. With this, NM State ranks tied for seventh in the country in defensive touchdowns and is one of just 15 FBS teams in the nation with three or more defensive touchdowns this year.

LIBMAN'S TWO-TOUCHDOWN DAY
Against New Mexico on Sept. 26, wide receiver Myles Libman found the end zone twice in the second half, recording his first touchdowns with the program.

MORE COWBELL
Against New Mexico on Sept. 26, a total of 25,024 fans were in attendance. This marked the highest recorded attendance for a game at Aggie Memorial Stadium since Nov. 16, 2019, when 25,804 fans were on hand to watch the Aggies take on Incarnate Word.

SPREAD THE LOVE
Entering the 10th game of the year, a total of six different Aggies have caught passes for touchdowns this season as AJ Williams III (5), TK King (3), Myles Libman (2), Brodie Malone-Bradford (1), James Jones (1) and Terrione Graves (1) have all notched receiving touchdowns.

Similarly, a total of 17 different Aggies have caught at least one pass this season, including seven different players with 10 or more receptions.

THE AGGIES IN CUSA
The Aggies are now in their fourth year as members of Conference USA. NM State made quite the splash in its debut campaign - going 7-1 in league play on its way to an appearance in the CUSA Championship Game in addition to being one of only 27 FBS programs to reach the 10-win mark in 2023. NM State has now won 12 games across its first four seasons in the new league and will continue conference play this Saturday against Delaware.

With one more CUSA win this season, the Aggies will eclipse their conference win total from the first two seasons under Head Coach Tony Sanchez.

CLASS IS IN SESSION
One of the biggest plays in the Aggies' win over Mercyhurst earlier this season came from safety Nick Session who intercepted a pass on the first play of the game and returned it 26 yards for a touchdown.

Prior to his interception in the season opener, Session had just one interception in his collegiate career with his first coming as a member of the Oklahoma State defense in 2021.

Session has also been flying around on the back end this season as he currently ranks second among Aggies in total tackles with 74, including 49 solo tackles.

Additionally, his 4.9 solo tackles per game ranks 13th in the nation and third among CUSA defenders.

YEAR THREE FOR TONY SANCHEZ
NM State is in its third season under the leadership of Head Coach Tony Sanchez. Last year, the Aggies tallied four wins, increasing their win total by one game from the 2024 campaign. This marks Sanchez's eighth season as a head coach at the FBS level after previously spending five seasons at the helm of the UNLV program (2015-19).

In total, Sanchez holds a career record of 30-64 and a record of 10-24 as the leader of the Crimson and White.

With his 10th victory, Sanchez tied DeWayne Walker for 15th all-time among Aggie Coaches.

During Sanchez's tenure, the Aggies have seen 15 individuals earn all-conference honors, including a pair of First Team All-CUSA selections in 2025.

EMPHASIS ON EXPERIENCE
With 15,176 combined snaps in FBS competition entering the year, the Aggies' roster ranked fourth among CUSA teams in career FBS snaps played, sitting only behind Liberty (21,490), Kennesaw State (17,153) and Western Kentucky (15,607).

Additionally, with 215 combined FBS starts prior to the start of the season, NM State ranked second among CUSA programs with only Liberty (279) having more combined starts.

Team	Career Snaps	Career Starts
Liberty	21,490	279
Kennesaw State	17,153	210
WKU	15,607	197
NM State	15,176	215
FIU	14,781	158
Delaware	14,010	187
Jax State	11,098	142
Missouri State	10,938	125
Sam Houston	9,283	114
MTSU	8,795	101

As it stands, a total of 18 Aggies have made at least 10 starts at the FBS level, including Sone Aupiu (46), Gabe Peterson (31), Nick Session (26) Brad Vislisel (22), James Williams (22) and Josiah Charles (21) who have each started 20 or more games during their FBS careers.

BRODIE ON THE BIG STAGE
Wide receiver Brodie Malone-Bradford made his name known in the season opener at Doak Campbell Stadium. The sophomore from Houston finished the night with six catches for a team-high 96 yards and one touchdown against Florida State. With this performance, Malone-Bradford logged new career highs in receptions and receiving yards.

DYNAMIC DUO
Against ACC foe Florida State, the duo of Brodie Malone-Bradford and TK King combined to record 174 receiving yards. This marked the most by any receiving duo during Week 0 action. Additionally, King and Malone-Bradford were the only pair of teammates to each finish with 75 or more receiving yards during the first slate of college football games.

NEW FACES ON THE FIELD
In the Aggies' season opener, a total of 27 Aggies made their debut with the program, including nine starters as James Jones, Trey Hedden, Myles Libman, Luke Moise, Tyler Keinath, James Williams, Armond Owens, De'Marcus Peters and Kaian Roberts-Day all took the field in Crimson and White for the first time.

RETAINING THE ROSTER
For the first time since the transfer portal was introduced, the spring portal window no longer exists. For Head Coach Tony Sanchez and the Aggies, this could prove to be a difference maker.

This season, 92 of the 105 on the Aggies' roster were with the program during the spring. Last year, the Aggies lost 18 players to the transfer portal following the spring semester in 2025. This included seven starters - one of which was running back Seth McGowan who landed at Kentucky before becoming a seventh-round NFL Draft pick by the Indianapolis Colts. Additionally, by the end of the 2025 season, only one of the Aggies' starting offensive linemen was with the program during the spring.

MAKING THE SWITCH
A pair of notable Aggies began their careers on the opposite side of the ball. Defensive tackle Kaian Roberts-Day first started his career as a running back and tight end at Baylor. Coming out of high school, Roberts-Day was rated a four-star prospect by 247Sports and ESPN and was named the No. 6 tight end prospect in the country according to ESPN. Roberts-Day made the switch to the defensive line while still at Baylor. He then played one season at UTSA before transferring to NM State this offseason.

On the other side of the ball, running back Jalen Brown enters his fourth season with the Aggie program, but will be playing offense for the first time. Across his first three years in Las Cruces, Brown appeared in 11 games, made seven tackles and recovered a fumble against New Mexico last season. In high school, Brown starred on both sides of the ball at Glenbard South High School in Chicago. As a senior, Brown ran for 1,418 yards and 18 touchdowns while averaging 157.6 rushing yards per game.

Lastly, Xavier Rucker also recently made the switch to the other side of the ball as the running back now suits up as a safety for Joe Morris' defense after spending the first four weeks of his freshman campaign as a running back.

YEAR TWO WITH YOST
While the Aggies brought in a new quarterback, NM State does enter its second season with Offensive Coordinator David Yost on the headset.

Yost boasts more than 30 years of experience, including stints in well-respected conferences such as the SEC, Big 12, Pac-12 and Mid-American. He maintains a reputation of being one of the top quarterback developers in college football and has helped the growth of several NFL-bound passers, including Justin Herbert (Oregon), Jordan Love (Utah State), Blaine Gabbert (Missouri) and Chase Daniel (Missouri).

COACHING STAFF CONTINUITY
Once again, NM State enters the season with continuity on its staff as nine full-time coaches return for the 2026 season. Only Siddiq Haynes (Defensive Line) and Jamie Christian (Running Backs) are among their first season with the program.

CLOSE CALLS
Finishing games was an emphasis for Head Coach Tony Sanchez this offseason after he saw his squad come up short in four games that came down to the wire. In 2025, the Aggies fell twice in overtime games and twice missed potential game-tying field goals in the final minute of play.

In total, the Aggies played in six one-score games, but only emerged victorious twice. This marked the most games decided by eight or fewer points in one season since 2017, when the Aggies played in seven one-score games.

The Aggies have now played in two one score games during the 2026 season. This includes a 30-24 victory over Sam Houston and a 27-21 overtime defeat at Missouri State.

FREQUENT FLYER MILES
This season, the Aggies will be near the top of the nation in movies downloaded as they are set to take on a schedule which includes trips to Tallahassee, Honolulu and Miami. According to CFBMap.com, the Aggies' schedule features the seventh most travel miles among all FBS programs. In total, the Aggies are slated to travel a total of 17,763 miles to rank behind only Hawaii, Stanford, Sacramento State, North Dakota State, Arizona State and California.

AGGIE ADDITIONS
In the offseason, the Aggies brought in a total of 49 newcomers, including 33 transfers with 11 coming from the FBS level. Some of the notable newcomers include quarterback Trey Hedden (Furman), running backs TJ Washington Jr. (Iowa) and James Jones (Delaware State), wide receivers Myles Libman (Stanford) and Lyndon Ravare (Kennesaw State), safety Tayden Barnes (Cincinnati), cornerback De'Marcus Peters (Texas A&M-Kingsville) and defensive lineman Kaian Roberts-Day (UTSA) among others.

AGGIE THROUGH AND THROUGH
From student-athlete to head ball coach, Tony Sanchez has had crimson running through his veins since the day he transferred to NM State as a player. Now, Sanchez is one of just 15 coaches at the FBS level currently serving as the head coach at his alma mater.

Following two seasons at Laney College in Oakland, Calif., Sanchez began his Aggie playing career in 1994. During his time, Sanchez made 54 catches for 741 yards and five touchdowns to help the Aggies win seven games. His career was highlighted by a senior season in which he tallied 42 catches for 576 yards and four touchdowns.

Sanchez collected his first win as the Aggies' head coach on Aug. 31, 2024, when NM State defeated SEMO 23-16.

THE JOE FIELDS ERA
On September 29, 2025, New Mexico State University announced the hiring of Joe Fields as the institution's 24th Director of Athletics. Prior to being named the AD at NM State, Fields spent one year at Tulsa. His time in collegiate athletics also includes stops at his alma mater, Syracuse, as well as Texas A&M. Fields also competed as a student-athlete himself, playing safety at Syracuse (2004-07), where he earned All-Big East Conference honors. He also spent one year in the NFL with the Carolina Panthers.

WHERE ARE THEY FROM
This year's Aggie roster is made up of 105 players from 23 states and three countries. The largest percentage of the roster hails from Texas, with 25 Aggies coming from the Lone Star State, narrowly edging out a group of 24 from California. Additionally, 13 players are from Arizona and nine are from the Aggies' home state of New Mexico.

In addition to the United States, the NM State roster also features one player each from Australia and Canada.

TEAM CAPTAINS
Ahead of the season, NM State held a team vote to select its team captains for the 2026 campaign. This year, the Aggie captains are made up of three offensive players and three defensive players.

On the offensive side of the ball, the Aggies are led by quarterback Trey Hedden, offensive lineman Tyler Keinath and wide receiver TK King. Defensively, linebacker Sone Aupiu, safety Nick Session and defensive lineman Henry Davis III will also serve as team captains.

HISPANIC HEAD COACHES
The Aggies' leader, Tony Sanchez, is one of just five Hispanic head coaches at the FBS level. Sanchez, a second-generation American of Puerto Rican and English descent, is also joined in this group by Baylor's Dave Aranda, Miami's Mario Cristobal, Duke's Manny Diaz and West Virginia's Rich Rodriguez.

Additionally, Sanchez is the first NM State head coach of Hispanic descent. Sanchez leads the Aggie program, which is based in Las Cruces, a city with a Hispanic population of more than 60%.

2026 SENIOR DAY
This Saturday will serve as Senior Day for a total of 22 Aggies. The group includes Sone Aupiu, Joey Banegas, Roscoe Burton, Mark Chapman, Mark Chapman, RJ Chapman, Duke Frye, Hayden Harlan, Sioeli Helu, Bernock Iya, Josiah Jackson, James Jones, Tyler Keinath, TK King, Ma'Kyi Lee, De'Marcus Peters, Gabe Peterson, Brody Richter, Kaian Roberts-Day, Isaiah Rudison, Nick Session, Enzo-Pierre Tayou and Ilya Uvaydov.

WHERE TO WATCH THE AGGIES
After just three of the Aggies' 12 games were featured on national networks in 2025, the Aggies found themselves in the national spotlight seven times this season. This year, NM State played four games on ESPN2, two games on CBS Sports Network and one game on The CW.

The Aggies will be featured on ESPN+ for the remainder of the season, including this weekend when MJ Newsom (play-by-play) and Danny Knee (analyst) will be on the call.

WHERE TO LISTEN TO THE AGGIES
Once again, all games this season will air live on 99.5 FM KXPZ for those in Las Cruces and the surrounding areas. Radio broadcasts for all Aggie games will also be available to listen to nationwide via the TuneIn App. Radio play-by-play for Wednesday's game will be provided by Jeff Matthews, with analysis provided by Cory Lucas.

Additionally, all home games will be available in Spanish on 96.7 FM La Equis with the call provided by Darien Salayandia (play-by-play) and Jose Aragon (analyst).

TONY SANCHEZ

THIRD SEASON

On Saturday, Dec. 23, 2023, Sanchez was named the 36th head coach of the NM State program after serving as the Aggies wide receivers coach for two seasons. This is the second time that Sanchez undertakes the role of head coach of an FBS program after being at the helm of the UNLV program.

In 2025, Sanchez concluded his second season leading the Aggie squad and guided the team to a 4-8 record, improving on their win total by one from his first season.

After opening the season with wins over Bryant and Tulsa, the Aggies later earned a commanding win over Sam Houston and a victory over rival UTEP in a thrilling contest that came down to the final possession of the game.

Following the conclusion of the season, four Aggies garnered All-CUSA honors as tight end Gavin Harris and defensive lineman Ezra Christensen earned first team recognition, while wideout Donovan Faupel and safety Naeten Mitchell collected second team selections. Christensen also went on to be named a PFSN First Team All-American to become the first Aggie since 2018 to earn all-American honors from any publication.

In his first year, the Aggies finished 3-9, including going 2-6 in Conference USA play. Sanchez guided the Aggies to a season-opening win over SEMO, which marked the program's first season-opening victory since 2014. Additionally, Sanchez's first victory at his alma mater made him the first Aggie head coach since 1978 to secure a win in his debut with the program.

Year one also included a double overtime home win over LA Tech and a road victory over Middle Tennessee. In 2024, the Aggie offense finished the averaging 180.0 rushing yards per game to rank third in the league and 40th in the country.

During Sanchez's first season, the Aggies saw 11 individuals earn all-conference honors, including Second Team All-CUSA selections Seth McGowan (RB), Mike Washington (RB), AJ Vaipulu (OL), Tyler Martinez (LB), Abraham Montaño (K) and George Eberle (P).

With Sanchez leading the Aggie wideout group, the NM State receivers compiled over 4,000 receiving yards, including hauling in 31 of the Aggies' 46 receiving touchdowns during the 2022 and 2023 seasons. Following an appearance in the Isleta New Mexico Bowl, the Aggie passing attack ranked 20th in the nation in passing yards per completion (13.64) and was tied for 17th in the country in passing touchdowns.

Sanchez initially returned to the Land of Enchantment following a 2021 campaign in which he, Kill and a multitude of other member of the Aggies' coaching staff were at TCU in Fort Worth, Texas. There, Sanchez was an offensive analyst for the Horned Frogs and helped them pick up one victory over a nationally-ranked foe (#12 Baylor) through the team's 2021 campaign.

Prior to his time at TCU, Sanchez had a five-year run (2015-19) as the head coach at Mountain West institution UNLV. In Las Vegas, Sanchez totaled 20 wins at the helm of UNLV while also taking part in numerous fundraising effort which led to the construction of the $34 million Fertitta Football Complex. Sanchez remains fifth all-time in wins in program history.

During his tenure with the Rebels, Sanchez found early success and was responsible for one of only 17 five-win seasons for UNLV at the FBS level while also becoming one of only two UNLV coaches to win three or more games in his first season at the helm since 1999.
Sanchez also helped the Rebels increase their win totals in each of his first three seasons at UNLV to mark the first time that the program improved in the win column for three consecutive seasons.

With a 23-17 victory over Nevada in his first year as the UNLV leader, Sanchez is one of only four head coaches in the history of the program to defeat the Rebel's rival in his debut campaign and became the first coach in program history to do so on the road. Sanchez is also one of only two UNLV head coaches since 1981 to defeat Nevada more than once.

It was Sanchez's high-level success rate at the prep level that turned the most heads and allowed him to secure a head coaching job at the FBS level. Upon exiting the borderland following the 2003 season, Sanchez was installed as the head coach at California High School in Ramon, Calif., and began an 11-year run as one of the nation's best high school head coaches.

From 2004-08, Sanchez amassed 35 wins as California High School's head coach. Finishing at or above the .500 mark in all but one campaign, Sanchez successfully transformed the Fighting Grizzlies from a less-than-mediocre program to one that was a power in the East Bay Athletic League. Sanchez's best team at CHS was the 2007 edition which went 11-2, claimed an East Bay Athletic League championship and made a run to the CIF North Coast Section Finals.

Taking notice of Sanchez's success in the Golden State, Bishop Gorman High School in Las Vegas, Nev., came calling and hired Sanchez as its head football coach prior to the start of the 2009 season. What followed over a span of six season was nothing short of complete and total domination by Sanchez and his troops.

Bishop Gorman piled up an 85-5 record during Sanchez's tenure which ran from 2009-14. Ranked as the top prep football program in the nation by such publications as USA Today and MaxPreps.com, Bishop Gorman never failed to capture the Nevada Interscholastic Activities Association (NIAA) 4A state title in each of Sanchez's six seasons at the helm of the program. In 2014, Sanchez was named the USA Today High School Football Coach of the Year.

Sanchez spent a total of four seasons on staff at Oñate High School (now Organ Mountain High School) in Las Cruces, N.M. A wide receivers coach at that prep institution in 1998, he moved over to defensive backs coach in 2001 and 2002 before being named the defensive coordinator for the 2003 season. Irvin High School in El Paso, Texas, also employed Sanchez as its wide receivers coach in 2000.
Through his two-year tenure in an NM State uniform, Sanchez racked up 54 receptions for 741 yards and five touchdowns. Upon the conclusion of his collegiate career in the 1995 season, Sanchez served as an undergraduate assistant coach for the Aggies for their 1996 campaign.

A 1998 graduate of NM State, Sanchez possesses a bachelor's degree in family and consumer science. Five years later (2003), he secured a master's degree in special education. He is the father of a daughter, Alyssa, and a son, Jason.
