WHAT'S NEW

• NM State recently began its 17th year as a program, and fourth as a member of Conference USA. NM State advanced to the CUSA Championship for the first time since the 2024 season, earning the fifth seed and a first round matchup with FIU.
• On July 1, NM State athletics entered a new era, moving to adidas as the official footwear, uniform, apparel and sideline sponsor. The move marks a reunion between the Aggies and adidas, who served as the Aggies' apparel company from 2005-15.
• In 2026, Conference USA will play as a 10-member league, with eight conference matchups during the regular season ahead of the 2026 Conference USA Soccer Championship, held Nov. 8-13 in Newark, Delaware. The Aggies made a title game appearance in their CUSA debut season in 2023, with a semifinal run in 2024.
• A revamped roster takes to the NM State Soccer Complex pitch, with 17 newcomers joined by 14 returners. Of the 17 first-year Aggies, seven transferred in, with nine freshmen adding to the squad.
• This soccer season kicks off the 2026-27 athletics season and serves as the first full year the programs are under the leadership of Director of Athletics Joe Fields, who was appointed on Oct. 8, 2025.

SCOUTING THE PANTHERS

• The Aggies and Panthers will meet for the second time on the pitch this season. On Sept. 27, NM State opened CUSA play in a home bout with the Panthers - taking a 1-0 victory.
• Head Coach Matt Dunn commands the Panthers in his second season at the helm. In 16 seasons as a head coach (14 at Keiser University [NAIA]), Dunn sports a career record of 258-54-26.
• The Panthers tallied a 6-6-5 mark in 2026, including a 3-3-2 record in conference action to claim the fourth seed.
• Forward Mariana Barreto and defender Madeline Oliver earned Second Team All-CUSA selections for the Panthers, with Oliver also notching a spot on the CUSA All-Freshman Team.

KAROLANNE YOU BELIEVE IT

• Taking over the starting role in 2026, senior goalkeeper Karolanne Lafortune has played a huge role for the NM State defense.
• On Sept. 29, the Montreal native earned Conference USA Goalkeeper of the Week honors, following her second shutout of the season, holding FIU scoreless in a 1-0 home victory while tallying five saves against 13 shots.
• She currently ranks second in CUSA in saves with 77, while also second in in saves per game (5.50) and fifth in save percentage (.786).
• On Aug. 20, Lafortune tallied 11 total saves while denying not one but two Abilene Christian penalty kicks in the final ten minutes of action, including one with just six ticks left.
• Her 11 saves are now tied for seventh-most in a single match in program history, and serve as the second-most saves in a single contest by any CUSA goalkeeper this season.

HEADLINES

• On Friday, Conference USA announced their 2026 Postseason Awards, where the Aggies earned a pair of selections on the All-Freshman Team in Filucca Daugaard and Zoey Gist.
• Filucca Daugaard turned in an impressive first year in Las Cruces, providing an instant impact for head coach Rob Baarts.
• The Horsens, Denmark, native made appearances in all 18 contests for the Crimson & White, making 16 starts.
• Recording the sixth-most minutes by an NM State student-athlete this season (1,232), Daugaard was one of eight different Aggies to tally a goal on the year - putting in her first collegiate goal in a 1-1 draw with Missouri State.
• She also finished fourth on the team in shots (14), notching a trio of shots on goal.
• Freshman forward Zoey Gist was also a vital spark for the NM State offense in her debut season, totaling 1,126 minutes with 15 starts (18 games played).
• The Tucson, Ariz., native finished second on the team in shots (16) and shots on goal (12).

BAARTS THE BUILDER
• Beginning year nine in charge of the Aggie program, Head Coach Rob Baarts has already carved out an impressive legacy in Las Cruces. Hired on to head the program in 2017, Baarts guided a turnaround that saw the Aggies improve from just two wins in 2018 to a school-record 13-win campaign in 2022, culminating in a WAC Tournament Championship and the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.
• That season also saw the Vancouver, Canada, native set the program record for all-time wins, set with a victory over Tarleton State on Sept. 30, 2022, while the team secured its most victories in conference play (7).
• In 2023, Baarts' squad set another first, making the move to Conference USA and earning the program's first regular season title, going undefeated in regular season play (6-0-2) – becoming the first CUSA member to finish their inaugural campaign without a loss.
• The following season, a win over Middle Tennessee on Sept. 29 saw Baarts achieve 50 career victories – a first for NM State Soccer.
• In the Aggies' regular season finale, Baarts led the Aggies to a 2-1 victory over Jax State – his 60th career win.

NEW ROLES, SAME GOALS
• With just 14 returners, the Aggies look to replace a lot of production between new faces and returning veterans.
• In total, NM State retains 15.4% of their offensive production (goals) and 17.1% of its points production.
• Valerie Guha graduated in the spring of 2026 and subsequently signed a professional contract with RB Salzburg in Austria, taking with her 52 appearances and nearly 4500 minutes played.
• Karolanne Lafortune is the lone Aggie returner in the net, amassing 11 matches (7 starts) in a trio of seasons in Las Cruces. As a freshman, the Canada native notched a pair of shutout victories, swiftly placing her into the school's all-time top-10 list.
• The Aggies bring back just two of their top 11 in minutes played in 2025 – defenders Marlee Cavitt and Kennedy Herrera. Esme Arenas, Milly Eyrich, Rachel Haan and Ainsleigh Thomson served as key rotational pieces for the Crimson & White, combining for 53 appearances and 20 starts last season.
• Fifth-year forward and one of four Aggie captains this season, Sydnee Johnson returned to action on Aug. 12, for the first time since October 2024 after recovering from injury. Named to the Starting XI, Johnson played 69 minutes.

LAND OF ENCHANTMENT
• A quartet of Aggies calls New Mexico home, with Las Cruces natives Kennedy Herrera and Joselyn Fierro joined by freshman Riley Erickson of Albuquerque (La Cueva HS) and Angeline Montoya of Rio Rancho (Cleveland HS).
• Herrera is a product of nearby Centennial High School, while Fierro played at Organ Mountain High School.

BORDERLAND'S BEST
• The Aggies began 2026 with a host of student-athletes from the Borderland, as eight call either Las Cruces or El Paso home.
• Seniors Azalie Floriano and Emma O'Neill represent the longest-tenured Aggies of the bunch, with 51 matches played between them, while Senior Joselyn Fierro is a first-year addition to the program.
• In her first three seasons with the Aggies, Kennedy Herrera tallied 40 appearances (19 starts), including all 18 matches in 2025.
• The final fourth year from the Borderland, Bella Morgas began her first season with the program after transferring in from Southern Nazarene. In high school, Morgas was a star for El Paso's Andress High School, while earning back-to-back GAC Offensive MVP awards in college, tallying 30 goals and six assists in three seasons.
• Junior Daniela Portillo, and sophomores Arleth Arroyo, Ainsleigh Thomson and Dolce Escorza round out the NM State local products.

HOME IS WHERE THE HEART IS
• Since joining Conference USA in July 2023, NM State has put together an impressive resume against conference counterparts, especially at the NM State Soccer Complex.
• In their debut season, the Aggies went 6-0-2 against CUSA opponents, starting 6-0 before recording draws in the last two contests of the season. This didn't stop the Crimson & White from raising the regular-season championship – the first in program history.
• Going 6-0-2 in year one (including a 2-0-2 mark at home), NM State returned in 2024 to post a 5-2-2 conference record, with a 4-0-1 mark in Las Cruces.
• In 2026, the Aggies finished with a 3-4-1 record, tallying 10 points and claiming the fifth seed in the 2026 Conference USA Championship - with a 2-1-1 record in Las Cruces.
• NM State is 15-9-9 (.591) in four seasons against Conference USA foes, and 8-3-6 (.647) from the friendly confines of the NM State Soccer Complex.

SAY HEY, SHAY
• On August 5th, NM State Head Coach Rob Baarts announced the hiring of Shayna Whieldon, the newest Aggie assistant coach.
• Whieldon joins the Crimson & White after a pair of seasons working as a graduate assistant at UTEP.
• The Norco, Calif., native played collegiately for Washington State, making the NCAA Tournament for three straight seasons, including a trip to the 2019 College Cup Final Four.
• As a midfielder, she was a four-year letterwinner with the Cougars, making 64 appearences and 19 starts.

INTERNATIONAL AGGIES
• The Aggie roster features an international look in 2026, with seven student-athletes hailing from outside the United States – from seven different countries.
• Karolanne Lafortune (Canada) and Yayu Wu (Taiwan) are the sole international veterans on the team. Gabi Hislop (New Zealand), Yuliana Negrete (Mexico) and Maria Satizabal Riascos (Colombia) enter as transfers, while Filucca Daugaard (Denmark) and Thalia Smith (England) join as true freshmen.
• This international aspect extends to the NM State coaching staff as well, as Head Coach Rob Baarts calls Canada home, while Associate Head Coach Stacie Owers hopped the pond from England.

YOUTH MOVEMENT
• True freshman Angeline Montoya made her first official appearance for the Crimson & White on Aug. 12 against Arizona State - scoring her first goal only three minutes after entering just before halftime.
• This became the first goal of the season for the Aggies.
• Sophomore Esme Arenas has made two PK goals for NM State this season, most recently in a 1-1 draw with rival New Mexico.
• Freshman Thalia Smith tabbed her first collegiate goal in a Senior Day matchup with UTEP on Sept. 17.
• Junior Milly Eyrich became the first upperclassmen to score in 2026, putting in the game-winning goal against FIU on Sept. 27.
• On the year, 45.5% of NM State's goals have come from underclassmen - last season, this number was just 23%.

ROB BAARTS

HEAD COACH
NINTH SEASON ▪ UNIVERSITY OF PORTLAND ('90)

NM State Head Coach Rob Baarts is set to begin his ninth season with the Aggies. He is the longest tenured and winningest coach in program history, amassing 56 victories since his arrival in 2018, while leading the program to their first regular season (2023) and conference tournament (2022) titles.

In 2024, the Aggies finished with an 11-6-3 record, including a 7-1-2 record at home - where the Aggies notched their first non-losing result against a 'Power Four' opponent (No. 23 USC), as well as their first victory over a 'Power Four' program (Oregon, Aug. 22). In conference play, the Aggies finished 5-2-2, earning the No. 3 seed in the 2024 CUSA Conference Tournament. Six Aggies earned All-CUSA honors in 2024, including Loma McNeese (Second Team), Andrea Alvarenga, Valerie Guha, Jena Johannes and Brooke Schultz (Third Team) and Ariana Ellison (All-Freshman Team).

This continued the Aggies' streak of non-losses in home conference games, extending it to 15 games - beginning in October 2021 as members of the WAC.

A historic 2023 campaign saw the squad secure their first regular season conference title in the program's first season as members of Conference USA. Alongside this achievement, the Aggies posted their first undefeated record in conference play (6-0-2), becoming just the tenth CUSA program to achieve this feat and the first in their first season as conference members.

Baarts was named CUSA Coach of the Year, a first for the NM State program, while coaching Loma McNeese to the program's first player of the year award, while also garnering CUSA Offensive Player of the Year. Xitlaly Hernandez was named CUSA Defensive Player of the Year, while a total of seven Aggies garnered all-conference selections.

The Crimson & White advanced to their second consecutive conference title game, facing off with the Liberty Flames at the CUSA Championships in Ruston, La.

In 2022, Baarts led the Aggies to their most wins in program history with a 13-5-3 record, culminating in the program's first-ever conference title after three shutout victories in the WAC Tournament.

Last season's championship run also led to the program's first postseason appearance – a game where the Aggies nearly pulled off an upset over seven-seeded Mississippi State, ultimately falling 2-1 to the Bulldogs in Starkville.

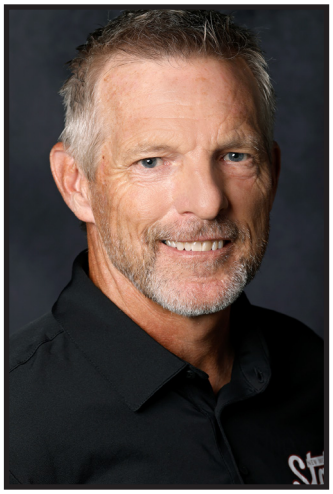

With those 13 wins on the season, Baarts stands alone as the winningest coach in program history, with an overall record of 33-56-7. Baarts secured this accomplishment with a win over Tarleton State (9/30/22) in shutout fashion (4-0), surpassing Freddy Delgado (24) for the most wins as an Aggie head coach.

Under Baarts, the Aggies were also able to secure the most conference wins (7) in program history while also featuring the school's first undefeated season at home, going 7-0-2 when playing in Las Cruces.

In total, seven Aggies secured All-WAC recognition – the most in a single season – with Loma McNeese (first team), Makenna Gottschalk (second team), Landy Williams (second team), Xitlaly Hernandez (second team), Jena Johannes (freshman team), Sofia Beerworth (freshman team) and Sydnee Johnson (freshman team) all earning a spot on the WAC's yearly awards lists.

In addition, five of Baarts' players made the WAC's All-Tournament Team following the programs win over Utah Valley (1-0) in the WAC Championship: Loma McNeese, Sofia Beerworth, Xitlaly Hernandez, Tati Jerman and Makenna Gottschalk all secured a spot on the list with Gottschalk earning Tournament MVP – the first Aggie to do so.

Baarts picked up his first win as a head coach in a 3-0 victory over Northern Illinois on Aug. 31, 2018, and his first conference win, 2-1, over Chicago State on Nov. 14, 2018. Under Baarts' guidance, senior Aileen Garcia became NM State's all-time leading goal scorer with a goal versus Albany on Aug. 19. The Aggies also posted nine Academic All-WAC award winners in Baarts' first season at the helm.

Baarts joined NM State after spending two seasons at San José State, where he led the Spartans to their first Mountain West Conference regular-season title in 2017 with a 12-6-2 overall record and 9-1-1 league mark as an assistant.

The regular-season championship was just SJSU's third title since the program started in 1995. The other two titles came during the 2009-10 seasons when San José State won it back-to-back years while in the Western Athletic Conference.

During his time with the Spartans, Baarts guided 12 players to all-league honors – including the 2017 MWC Player of the Year in Darriell Franklin and MWC Newcomer of the Year Jamilecxth Becerra.

"I am very much looking forward to getting started as the next head coach of the New Mexico State women's soccer program," Baarts remarked. "My experience in being a part of multiple Division I Final Four teams in my career as a player, and as a coach I believe will serve the program well in what it will take to become a national contender."

Prior to his tenure at SJSU, Baarts spent 12 seasons as an assistant coach for both the men's and women's soccer programs at his alma mater, the University of Portland. His time with the Pilots was highlighted by a national championships in 2005 with the women's program that finished the year 23-0-2.

While with Portland, Baarts helped guide the both the men and women's teams into postseason play in 2009. That year was also the women's fourth-consecutive trip to the NCAA Quarterfinals.

Baarts was in charge of all recruiting activities during his time with the Pilots. In addition, he also oversaw scouting and preparations for opponents along with team travel. Both the men's and women's teams for Portland had a 96-percent graduation rate during a seven-year span under his supervision.

Over a dozen Pilots that played under Baarts went on to play professionally on soccer's biggest stage – including Megan Rapinoe (U.S.A.), Stephanie Lopez (U.S.A.), Sophie Schmidt (Canada) and Christine Sinclair (Canada).

No stranger to success himself, Baarts was a four-year letter winner with the Pilots from 1987-90 where he guided Portland to three-consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament. As a sophomore, Baarts captained the 1988 team to an undefeated regular-season as well as the program's first semifinal appearance in the NCAA Tournament and finished with a 21-1-0 overall mark and perfect 5-0-0 mark in West Coast Conference play.

To this day, Baarts' 13 game-winning goals still stands at second all-time in program history. He is still the single-season record holder with eight game-winning goals during the historic 1988 season.

After his collegiate career, the Vancouver, British Columbia, native spent eight seasons playing professionally with the Portland Pride, Portland Pythons and Utah Freezz.

Baarts' coaching career started with the Portland City United youth team before leading the Sunset High School boys' varsity team from 1991-2003, and won back-to-back coach of the year honors in 2001-02.

An active member of the United States Soccer Federation, Baarts is an "A" license holder, and has coached multiple youth soccer age divisions for the FC Portland Academy since 2004.

Baarts is married to his wife Jen and have four sons, Tyler, Carter, Tanner and Jaxson and one daughter, Nina.
