THE MAN IN CHARGE

NM State enters the 2026-27 season with the 13th Head Coach in program history, Adeniyi Amadou, leading the way. Joining the Crimson & White following seven seasons on staff at Rhode Island, Coach Amadou brings a respected level of commitment to the game of basketball, as well as being a prominent recruiter.

With the Rams, Coach Amadou helped the program reached new heights in 2026 - notching a new program record in wins (28), while securing its second-ever regular season A10 title and first A10 Tournament championship - along with URI's first NCAA tournament appearance in 30 years.

Ahead of his time in Kingston, Amadou served as an assistant coach at multiple 'Power Four' programs, including the Orange of Syracuse and the Wildcats of Kentucky. Across five seasons with the two programs, the teams made five NCAA Tournament appearances, including a run to the 2016 NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 with the Wildcats.

Coach Amadou began his assistant coaching career at Dayton, working under Head Coach Jim Jaber. Over four seasons with the Flyers, the team achieved their first-ever A-10 Tournament title, making four NCAA appearances in that time - including their highest seeding ever (No.6) in 2014.

On Friday, the Aggies knocked off Southern Utah despite leading for just two seconds - the final two ticks of the contest - to secure a 64-63 victory, the first under Head Coach Amadou.

MEET THE STAFF

Joining head coach Amadou is a talented mix of coaches, including Associate Head Coach and Recruiting Coordinator Asami Morita. Morita was most recently the head coach at Westminster University, a DII program in Salt Lake City, Utah. Upon her hiring at Westminster, Morita made history as the first Japanese-born head coach in collegiate basketball and as the first person of full Japanese nationality to be named the head coach of an NCAA basketball program, men's or women's.

Associate Head Coach Vonn Read leads the NM State defense, adding to the Aggie staff following a season with the Memphis Tigers, and previous experience as an associate head coach at Houston. In his lone year with the program, Memphis experienced one of the biggest defensive turnarounds in the country. The Tigers' overall defensive efficiency ranking improved from 341st in the nation to 86th in just one season.

Assistant Coach Adeola Okomolafe enters her first season as an assistant coach following a pair of seasons on staff with the TCU Horned Frogs. She was a key figure in the Horned Frogs' ability to sign the nation's most touted transfer portal classes, including 2025 Big 12 Player of the Year Hailey Van Lith, fellow All-Americans Olivia Miles, Sedona Prince, Marta Suarez and 2025 WNBA Draft pick Madison Conner.

THE LATVIAN LASER

Junior guard Raina Tomasicka arrived in Las Cruces this season, transferring in from South Florida and has provided an instant impact for the Aggies.

In NM State's 2026-27 opener, Tomasicka tallied a career-high 24 points - the most by an Aggie in her debut since at least 2014. Against Southern Utah, she tallied 16 points along with a career best seven rebounds.

The Jekabpils, Latvia, native leads Conference USA in points per game (20.0), total points (40), ranking second in free throws made (12). She also ranks third in 3-pointers made (4), fifth in made field goals (12), sixth in free throw percentage (92.3%) and 19th in rebounds per game (5.5).

ALLEZ, STACY!
Freshman and first-year Aggie Stacy Chovino has been a versatile piece on both sides of the ball for the Crimson & White to begin her collegiate career. The Paris, France, native made her first appearance in a collegiate basketball game and her first start on Nov. 2 against San Diego, posting six points, nine rebounds, two steals, one assist and one block in 31 minutes.

Chovino would follow up with an astounding performance against Southern Utah, tallying a career-high 25 points - including 12 in the fourth quarter, along with the game-winning basket with just two seconds remaining - while adding eight rebounds and two steals.

For her efforts, she was named Conference USA Freshman of the Week on Monday. Chovino holds the most points scored in a single game by a CUSA student-athlete this season (25), while also ranking as the lone CUSA student-athlete to tally 10 or more field goals in a game this season (12).

She currently paces the conference in field goals made (15), while ranking fourth in rebounds (8.5 per game), fifth in field goal percentage (.500), sixth in total points (31) and seventh in both points per game (17.5) and blocks per game (1.0). Chovino also ranks 20th in steals per game, averaging 2.0 per contest.

RHODE TRIPPIN'
A trio of Aggies made the move from Kingston, Rhode Island, to Las Cruces, with Eva Agba, Lily Fontcha and Aimeé Michel set to represent the Crimson & White in 2026-27.

Agba is the longest tenured member of the Rams' transfers, spending a pair of seasons with Rhode Island, making 10 appearances last season - including the Ram's NCAA Tournament game against Alabama.

Fontcha and Michel recorded one season in Kingston.

Fontcha also spent time at INSEP, the National Institute of Sport, Expertise, and Performance (Institut national du sport, de l'expertise et de la performance), with notable alumnus including four-time NBA Champion Tony Parker, Evan Fournier, Boris Diaw and Clint Capela.

THINKIN' WITH PORTAL
With new head coach Adeniyi Amadou's recruiting connections, NM State dipped into the transfer portal and secured a trio of Divison I transfers into the Aggie program. Talia Kavoka makes the move from College Station to the City of Crosses after spending one season at Texas A&M.

Junior guard Raina Tomasicka brings a valuable scoring touch to the Aggies, with a career best of 21 points against LSU New Orelans - subsiquentally earning her AAC Player of the Week honors. She has previously represented Latvia on numerous occasions, including at the 2024 FIBA Women's EuroBasket, averaging 16.3 points, 4.5 rebounds and 3.0 assists per game.

Jana Vesic travels from the West Coast to the Southwest, adding to the NM State guard lineup from Seattle of the West Coast Conference. In her lone season with the Redhawks, she made 30 appearances and 14 starts, leading the team with 75 assists - the most by an individual in a single-season since the 2023-24 campaign.

FIRST-YEAR AGGIES
The Aggies bring in 14 first-year Aggies including nine who are set to make their collegiate debuts: Eva Hamlil, Justine Mouyokolo, Imane Loubibet, Stacy Chovino, Aissatou Keita Cissoko, Fanta Keita, Sena Sert, Julia Saillard.

NM TRUE
The lone returner from the 2025-26 roster, senior guard Emma Christiano is a Las Cruces native, playing her high school ball for Las Cruces High School. Spending her first two seasons at NM Highlands, Christiano returned to the City of Crosses last season, making her presence felt over the duration of the 2025-26 season. Playing in all 30 contests, Christiano made 18 starts, leading the team in assists (2.7 per game; 12th in CUSA).

YEAR FOUR IN STORE
Joining Conference USA in July of 2023, NM State enters its fourth season as members of CUSA. Following the additions of Delaware and Missouri State in 2025-26, the conference continues to see change for the 2026-27 sesaon with the departures of LA Tech and UTEP.

CONFERENCE ROUNDUP
On Oct. 8, CUSA announced its Women's Basketball Preseason Awards, where senior guard Kaemyn Bekermeier of Missouri State was selected as the Preseason Player of the Year following a season in which she led the sixth-seeded Lady Bears to their 18th NCAA Tournament appearance and first under Head Coach Beth Cunningham.

The 10-team league will see an 18-game conference schedule, culminating in the 2027 Air National Guard Conference USA Championships, held at Propst Arena in Huntsville, Ala., from March 9-13th.

Missouri State was selected as the preseason favorite, earning eight of a possible 10 first-place votes and 90 total points. MTSU finished second with 84 points (one first-place vote) and Liberty was tabbed third (83 points, one first-place vote).

The Aggies were selected eighth, with 31 total points.

SCOUTING THE MINERS
UTEP begins its first season in the Mountain West Conference, making the move following a stint in Conference USA that lasted from 2005-2026. Follwing home contests with Division II Western New Mexico and UIW, the Miners are 2-0.

Head Coach Keitha Adams returns to the sidelines in El Paso for her 20th season at the helm, sporting a record of 322-264 with the Miners. Overall, she is 402-357 in 26 seasons as a head coach.

Clarendon College transfer Zainab Olalekan leads the Miner offense, averaging 13.0 points per contest. The center from Ibadan, Nigeria, also averages 6.5 rebounds per game.

Senior guard Imani Warren transferred from NM State to the Miners ahead of the 2026-27 season. An All-CUSA Honorable Mention last year, she currently leads UTEP in steals per game (3.0).

HEAD COACH • ADENIYI AMADOU
FIRST SEASON • INDIANA UNVIERSITY (PA) '08

On March 11, NM State announced the hiring of Adeniyi Amadou as the 13th head coach in program history. The first-time head coach brings with him over 15 years of experience at the Division I level, with stops at Rhode Island, Syracuse, Kentucky and Dayton. This also represents the first head coach hiring for NM State Director of Athletics Joe Fields.

"We are proud to announce Adeniyi Amadou as our new head coach," said Director of Athletics Joe Fields. "I had the opportunity to meet him at Syracuse University during his time working with the women's basketball team, and it didn't take long to see the kind of person he is. Adeniyi is a tremendous teacher of the game and is widely regarded as the best recruiter in college basketball. He truly cares about developing student-athletes both on and off the court. He's a tremendous leader, and I know Aggie Nation and our student-athletes are going to love him."

"I am honored and truly grateful for the opportunity to lead the women's basketball program at New Mexico State University." said Coach Amadou. "I want to thank Joe Fields and the university leadership for the trust they have placed in me and for believing in the vision we share for this program. This opportunity is deeply aligned with my values, my passion for developing student-athletes and my belief in what a strong culture can build over time.

I'm excited to join the Aggie community and to build the program defined by hard work and discipline, relationships, and the constant pursuit of improvement.

Our team and our staff, all together, we will work relentlessly, every single day, to be the pride of this university and the city of Las Cruces."

Adeniyi Amadou

EXPERIENCE

NM State Experience	1st Season
NM State Record	1-1
NM State CUSA Record	0-0
Collegiate Experience	1st Season
Collegiate Record	1-1
Alma Mater	Indiana University (PA), '08

Rhode Island | 2019-26 | Associate Head Coach
Spending seven seasons on staff with the Rams, the 2025-26 season saw Coach Amadou and URI achieve one of their most successful seasons in program history - a program-record 28 wins, the second-ever regular season championship and the first confrence tournament title, along with Rhode Island's first appearance in the NCAA tournament in 30 years. The team's 28-5 record was the fourth 20+ win season for the Rams under Head Coach Tammi Reiss, all with Amadou on staff. For the first time in program history, Rhode Island was represnted on the A10 First Team, Second Team, Third Team, Defensive Team, Rookie Team and Academic Team, as well as winning Coach of the Year (Reiss), and Sixth Woman of the Year (Vanessa Harris).

Syracuse | 2016-19 | Assistant Coach
Beginning his coaching career as an assistant DOBO and video coordinator under Head Coach Quenton Hillsman, Amadou would return to Syracuse as an assistant coach on Hillsman's staff in 2016. In his first season back with the Orange, the team tallied a 22-11 record, advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament before falling to UCONN. The following year, a 22-9 record saw the Orange return to the NCAA Tournament. The Orange's best season with Amadou on staff came in 2019, when the team reached the ACC Tournament semifinals and advance to their third straight NCAA Tournament, finishing with a 25-9 record.

Kentucky | 2014-16 | Assistant Coach
After continued success at Dayton, Amadou would make the jump from the A10 to the SEC, adding to Head Coach Matthew Mitchell's staff at Kentucky. A 25-10 record in year one included a trip to the NCAA Tournament and a win over Tennessee State, while the team achieved a trip to the 2016 NCAA Tournament Sweet Sixteen.

Dayton | 2010-14 | Asisstant Coach
Coach Amadou took his first assistant coaching job under legendary Head Coach Jim Jabir at Dayton. In each of his four seasons with the Flyers, the team made the NCAA Tournament, winning at least 21 games across four seasons - with a program record of 28 wins in 2012-13, reaching as high as No. 11 in both the AP and USA Today Coaches Polls. This would earn the Flyers their highest seed in the NCAA Tournament (No. 6) - their fifth consecutive NCAA Tournament berth.

Syracuse | 2009-10 | Assistant Director of Basketball Operations/Video Coordinator
Following a collegiate career of basketball with the United States Military Academy at West Point and Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Amadou would join the Orange of Syracuse as an assistant Director of Basketball Operations and Video Coordinator. That season, the Orange posted a 25-11 overall record, which included a trip to the WNIT quarterfinals - the furthest the program had advanced in postseason play in its history to that point.

Personal Life
A native of Paris, France, Amadou started his collegiate career playing for the Black Knights of the United States Military Academy at West Point. He transferred to Indiana University of Pennsylvania and led his team in offensive rebounding his senior year.

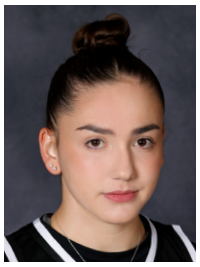

He received a bachelor's degree in journalism and political science from IUP and earned a master's degree from the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse.
