THERESE HESSION HEAD COACH

23RD SEASON
SOUTHERN METHODIST '79

Head coach Therese Hession concluded her 22nd season heading the Ohio State women's golf program at the end of the 2012-13 season and has continued the strong Buckeye golf tradition, building it to even greater heights. Over her tenure, Hession has led the Buckeyes to seven Big Ten championships, including four of the last 10, and 13 NCAA championship appearances. Her squads have also competed in 20 NCAA regionals the past 21 years, including the last 19 in a row. For her efforts and impressive results, Hession has been named Big Ten Coach of the Year six times (1993, 1997, 1999, 2002, 2003 and 2005).

Hession has guided many of her student-athletes to prestigious individual awards on the course and in the classroom. During her tenure, Buckeye golfers have been honored with 10 All-America selections, 51 All-Big Ten selections, five Big Ten Player of the Year and six Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors. A strong proponent of education, Hession's players have earned numerous academic awards as well. She has coached 29 NGCA Scholar All-Americans, 94 Academic All-Big Ten selections and 137 OSU Scholar-Athletes.

The Buckeyes enjoyed perhaps their best season in school history in 2002-03. Hession guided the team to fourth place at the NCAA championships, the highest finish in the program's history. In addition, Ohio State captured its eighth overall and second-consecutive Big Ten championship. Three Buckeyes were honored with First Team All-Big Ten selections and Hession was named the conference's coach of the year. The season also marked the first time in school history Ohio State could boast two All-Americans in one season in Lindsay Knowlton and Kristen White.

Hession, a former LPGA Tour professional, became the seventh head coach in the program's history in 1991. In her inaugural season, she led the Buckeyes to a fourth-place finish in the Big Ten championships—three places better than the previous year. In just her second season, Hession struck gold, winning five regular season tournaments and claiming the 1993 conference title, Ohio State's first championship since 1988. The Buckeyes would go on to place fifth at the NCAA East Regional, advancing them to their first NCAA Championship appearance in five years.

A full-time professional golfer for 11 years, Hession competed in more than 250 LPGA tournaments during her illustrious career. She was among the Top 150 in all-time LPGA career money-winners when she concluded her career in 1991. Hession also willingly gave her time to charity during her playing career, participating in more than 150 pro-celebrity charitable events.

As a collegiate player for Southern Methodist University, Hession led the Mustangs to a national championship in 1979 while earning All-America laurels. She graduated with honors, acquiring a bachelor's degree in business administration. In January of 1980, after just three months on the Women's Professional Golf Tour, she earned her LPGA tour card.

An Indianapolis native, Hession is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes Golf Ministry advisory staff. An avid participant in charity programs, she was the recipient of the 1989 LPGA Tour Samaritan Award.

2012-13 YEAR IN REVIEW

Under the direction of 22-year head coach Therese Hession, the Ohio State women's golf team was selected to its 19th-straight NCAA Regional and concluded the season at the NCAA West Regional at Stanford. The Buckeyes finished the year with an 82-84-3 overall mark and had four Top 5 finishes throughout the season.

The Buckeyes were led by senior Amy Meier, who totaled seven Top 20 finishes on the year. The Rochester Hills, Mich., product had a team-best 74.32 stroke average and led the squad with nine rounds at even par. Meier finished first among the team in nine of the 12 tournaments. Classmate Susana Benavides finished second with a 76.38 stroke average, while junior Allison Harper was third at 77.61. The trio, along with sophomores Jan Chanpalangsri and Claudia Lim, competed in all 31 rounds.

Ohio State opened the fall campaign at the Branch Law Firm/Dick McGuire Invitational, tying for second overall. Following a rough Windy City Collegiate, the squad responded with a sixth-place finish at the Susie Maxwell Berning Classic in Norman, Okla., Oct. 15-17. The Buckeyes finished the fall season at the Landfall Tradition (Oct. 26) that was cut short because of Hurricane Sandy.

The Scarlet and Gray kicked off the spring at their own Northrop Grumman Regional Challenge in Palos Verdes, Calif., Feb. 11-13. After a shortened Allstate Sugar Bowl Intercollegiate (Feb. 24-26) in New Orleans, Ohio State enjoyed spring break in Hawai'i and finished second overall at the Dr. Donnis Thompson Invitational. The Buckeyes were powered by Meier's runner-up finish individually.

Ohio State continued its strong play, coming in third at the SMU/Dallas Athletic Club Invitational (April 5-7) and followed with a fourth-place finish its own Lady Buckeye Invitational (April 20-21). Meier continued to lead the squad, tying for fourth at SMU and taking second at the Lady Buckeye.

Postseason began with the 2013 Big Ten Championship April 26-28 in French Lick, Ind. The Buckeyes came in seventh at the always competitive conference tournament and Meier led the squad individually, tying for 12th overall. Ohio State earned an at-large bid to the NCAA postseason and tied for 15th at the NCAA West Regional (May 9-11).

WOMEN'S NATIONAL COLLEGIATE HISTORY MADE AT OHIO STATE

In 1940, Gladys Palmer was the head of the Health and Physical Education Department at The Ohio State University. She was a woman of tremendous vision for women's sports in general, but particularly for the game of golf. Meeting great resistance from many sides, she was determined to coordinate a women's national championship for golf. With the assistance of staff members, including Dr. Mary Yost, an outline for the formation of a national organization which would sponsor and control intercollegiate competition for women was compiled. The outcome of her efforts was the first national championship for all of women's collegiate sports, the 1941 Women's National Golf Championship on the OSU Scarlet Course.

Much credit for this first championship went to L.W. St. John, Director of Athletics, who completely supported Palmer and her staff. Each institution could be represented by a maximum of four players. Fees for the tournament were $5. This fee included transportation to and from the golf course and all green fees.

The national championship was held by various institutions until 1973 when the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) was formed. The AIAW conducted the National Championship through 1982 when dual championships were conducted. The final AIAW National Championship was hosted by Ohio State in 1982 and the first NCAA Championship was hosted that year at Stanford. The NCAA has conducted the annual championship since 1982.

OHIO STATE WOMEN'S NATIONAL COLLEGIATE TITLES:

1947, 1949, 1950, 1951, 1952

The teams consisted of two-person teams. The team winners were determined by the low two participant scores at the end of the first round of play.
