MEET WEEK

OSU makes their 48th-straight regional appearance on Friday when the Beavs take on LSU, Georgia and Nebraska in the afternoon session at 1 p.m. PT. Michigan, Denver, Minnesota and the winner of day one will battle in the night session on Friday.

The top two teams from each second-round session will advance to the Regional Final at 4 p.m. PT on Sunday, April 2.

START STRONG, FINISH STRONGER

No. 8 in the country on the event, OSU opens on floor to start the regional. It marks the first time this season that the Beavs start on floor, opening the door for the No. 4 beam squad in the country to close out the meet.

BEAVS IN THE RANKINGS

The Beavs stay put at No. 11 in the final poll, after a fourth place finish at the Pac-12 Championships. OSU ranks in the top 10 on beam (4th) and floor (8th), while the vault group ranks 16th and bars sits at No. 21.

LEADERS OF THE PAC

The trio of Jade Carey, Madi Dagen and Sydney Gonzales were all honored by the Pac-12 office, taking home eight different honors for their accomplishments during the regular season.

Carey led the way with six selections, earning her second-straight Pac-12 Gymnast of the Year award, while being named All-Pac-12 First Team in the all-around and on all four apparatus. JC finished the regular season ranked first in the nation in the all-around and on floor, second on beam and vault and tied for fourth on bars.

Dagen closed the year on a tear to earn All-Pac-12 Floor Honorable Mention, including a career-high 9.950 on three different occasions. Mad Dawg now has six All-Pac-12 honors in her career, and ranks in the top 50 in the nation on floor (T-37) and on beam (T-40).

Gonzales dazzled on the beam all season to earn All-Pac-12 Beam Honorable Mention with six routines of 9.900 or better, including a career-high 9.975 at Arizona State. Syd just missed Regular Season All-American honors, finishing tied for 18th on beam, while ranking tied for 44th on vault.

SLAM THE DAM DOOR

Jade Carey became just the 13th NCAA gymnast to complete the Gym Slam with her first-career perfect score on beam at Arizona State earlier this season. Carey's 10th perfect score of her career joined her in elite NCAA company as one of 13 total gymnasts and sixth Pac-12 gymnasts to record a 10.000 on vault, bars, beam and floor.

FIRST TEAM ALL-EVERYTHING

Sophomore Jade Carey earned five WCGA Regular Season All-America honors for the second-straight season and now has 13 All-American honors in two years at Oregon State, taking home NCAA All-America honors in the all-around, bars and floor in 2022.

Carey is one of three gymnasts in the country to collect honors in every event, including the all-around this season, and the only one to be First Team on all five.

Carey is the first gymnast since 2020 to take home First Team honors on all four events, plus the all-around.

The Phoenix-native now holds the 14 highest all-around scores in program history, breaking her own record twice this year with a pair of 39.875s.

198 CLUB

For the first time in program history, OSU went over the coveted 198 mark, recording a 198.075 against Stanford to break the previous record of 197.850. OSU has put up three of the six highest score in program history this season.

BACK-TO-BACK

An Oregon State win over Utah created a four-way share of the regular season title between Oregon State, Cal, UCLA and Utah.

The Gym Beavs also won a share of the 2022 Pac-12 Regular Season Championship. This is the fourth season the conference has crowned a regular season champion, beginning the tradition in 2020.

FAB FOUR

The 2023 freshmen class of Francesca Caso, Jenn McMillan, Savannah Miller and Ellie Weaver had all made an instant impact for OSU with the quartet making up over 50 percent of the Beavs bar routines this season. Three freshmen recorded career highs in the Beavs win over No. 4 Utah with McMillan capturing her first event title with a 9.950, Weaver going 9.925 and Caso hit 9.900 for the first time in her career.

Miller entered the bar lineup at Stanford hitting all four of her routines this season, while putting up seven routines of 9.875 or higher on floor, including a career-high 9.900 on four different occasions.

OREGON STATE BEAVERS BEAMERS

The Oregon State beam lineup hasn't seen a single change, as the group of Kiki Peterson, Jenna Domingo, Lauren Letzsch, Sydney Gonzales, Madi Dagen and Jade Carey have hit 70 of 72 routines this season.

OSU joined elite company as a unit on beam against ASU, becoming just the third program in NCAA history to go over 49.625 in three-straight meets with a 49.625, tying the second-best mark in school history.

The beam team has put together five of the highest scores in program history this year with the 49.650 at Stanford setting the program record, the 49.625s tying for second, the 49.550 against Utah standing alone at sixth all-time and the 49.525 at the Beaver Quad meet tying for seventh all-time.

DR. BIRD

Senior Kayla Bird has contributed routines across all four events throughout her time with the program with over 80 hit routines, including a career-high 9.925 on floor during her sophomore campaign. Bird has been named a WCGA Scholastic All-American all four year she's been on campus.

A perfect 4.0 student and an executive team member of the NCAA Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, Bird will continue her studies in clinical psychology, having already been accepted to the doctoral program at the University of Alabama this fall.

CC THE SCIENTIST

Sophomore bars specialist Carley Beeman is an honors student in the College of Science, majoring in Chemistry with a focus on Advanced Biochemistry at OSU. She has served in the leadoff spot on bars at every meet, scoring 9.825 or higher on four occasions during her second year with the program.

Beeman has been accepted to the prestigious ASPET Institutional Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowship, where she will conduct 10 weeks of research with the Pharmacology department at the University of Michigan Medical School beginning in May.

MAD DAWG'S MAKING MOVES

Super senior Madi Dagen is heating up at the right time for OSU. Dagen has recorded nine scores of 9.900 or better over her last 15 routines, including seven of 9.925 or better. The Pac-12 Scholar Athlete of the Year recorded season-highs on all three events she competes, with a career-high 9.950 on floor on three separate occasions.

CONSISTENCY IS KI(KI)

Fifth-year senior Kristina Peterson has served as a steady piece at the top of the beam lineup, hitting every routine this season. Peterson has scored a 9.800 or better at nine of 12 meets, including scores of 9.850 or higher in four of the last five.

CAN WE GET DÉJÀ VU?

OSU last reached Nationals following the 2019 Corvallis Regional that featured the Beavs and Denver, while Arizona was in the play-in. OSU is hoping to book its ticket back to Fort Worth in 2023, facing the same trio of opponents in a new location.
