FROM THE PLATE:

- Ham moude leads the squad with nine homers but Abby Doerr sits just one longball behind with eight.
- Not only is Doerr good at hitting long balls, she's leading the team with 23 runners batted in.
- Messmer's bat has heated up against the always-tough Pac-12 opponents. The Cloverdale, B.C. product has hits in 11 of 12 league games and multiple hits in four.
- Kaiea Higa has been making quite the first-year impact for the offense. The Washingtonian is batting nearly .300 at .297.

FROM THE CIRCLE:

- Stepto leads the staff with 91 Ks - including a season-best of 10 against Cal in the series finale.

- In her two starts against the Ducks, Garcia allowed just three hits and fanned five.

- The Beavers welcomed 13 new student-athletes to Corvallis ahead of 2023. Chloe Moffitt (College of San Mateo), Aubree Seaney (Tulsa), Abby Doerr (Alabama), Carson Saabye (Florida State) and Ellie Garcia (Nevada) came to OSU via the transfer portal.
- Jenna Birch, Kali Blount, Kinzy Bowen, Madyson Clark, Kaiea Higa, Morgan Howey and Sydney Saenz all join the Beavers for their freshman seasons.

COACHING PROFILES:

- Head coach Berg hung up her cleats after nearly 20 years of playing softball and spent a year with the LAPD in 2010-11 before returning to the game as an assistant coach for the 2012 season at Oregon State.

HEAD COACH LAURA BERG

Laura BERG HC

10th Season

Laura Berg finished her ninth season at the helm of the OSU Softball program in 2021.

Berg joined the Beavers' staff as an assistant prior to the 2012 season after one of the most successful softball careers in NCAA and Team USA history. During the summer of 2012, she also served as an assistant coach for the U.S. Women's National Team in its run at the ISF XIII World Women's Championships in Whitehorse, Yukon, Canada, and has worked with Team USA in every summer since.

In her first year as head coach, Oregon State posted a 34-24 record, the most wins ever for a Beaver head coach in his or her first year. In the process, OSU secured its second straight season with at least 30 wins and an NCAA postseason berth. The Beavers tied a school record by batting .280 and also notched some big wins; including the school's first-ever sweep of nationally-ranked Arizona and a road shutout of No. 10 California, its first top-10 road victory since 2007.

Berg followed her inaugural season up with another strong offensive showing in 2014, as the Beavers set another school record by batting .287. Berg led the Beavers to a number of big victories in the 2014 campaign, including a series win over No. 5/7 Arizona State and Oregon State's first series win over Stanford since 2007.

Oregon State would continue to build on their strong offensive output in 2015, Berg's third season. Under her tutelage, the Beavers hit .298, the second-best total in school history. Oregon State also scored 300 runs, one shy of a school record, en route to a 26-26 season.

In 2016, Berg led the Beavers back to the NCAA Regional for her second time as head coach, while also reaching 30-wins. Oregon State also recorded its highest batting average in program history with a .306 mark. Berg led eight Beavers to earn Pac-12 postseason honors, including her fifth student-athlete to NFCA Pacific Region honors.

Berg again led the Beavers back to the NCAA Regional in 2017 for her third time as head coach and for the first time in back-to-back years since 2012-13. Oregon State posted some impressive wins over the Pac-12 Conference schedule, including winning its first game by run-rule over a top-10 league opponent. The Beavers run-ruled No. 8/9 UCLA for the first time in program history on April 13. The Beavers would go on to win the series for the first time ever after a walk-off homer by Natalie Hampton gave OSU the win. Oregon State also picked up a series win against No. 10/11 Utah. Senior pitcher, Taylor Cotton carried a no-hitter into the final out of game one, but could not finish it off.

2018 marked the fourth time Berg has led OSU to the NCAA Regional. The third-consecutive return trip also marked the longest post-season streak the Beavers have had since the team made a nine-year run from 1999-2007. Oregon State posted its third 30-win season under Berg, including a 4-3 win over No. 2 Oregon at the OSU Softball Season. This was the first win over Oregon since 2012. The Beavers also took down No. 7 Arizona State, 4-2, a week later after jumping out to an early lead. Oregon State finished sixth in the Pac-12 in 2018, the highest finish under Berg's tutelage.

In 2019, Berg led Oregon State to the best start of a season since 2003 when the team went 8-0 through the first eight games. The Beavers also opened Pac-12 play with a 5-2 victory over No. 17 Arizona State on Mar. 15. This was the first time OSU has opened Pac-12 play with a win since 2014. Another accomplishment was Oregon State sweeping Oregon for the first time since 2006. The three victories in Eugene also marked the first time OSU has won a game in Eugene since 2009. In her seventh season as head coach, the Beavers tied for Berg's highest finish in Pac-12 play finishing sixth. Berg finished the season by leading four Beavers to earn Pac-12 postseason honors, including her seventh and eighth student-athletes to NFCA Pacific Region honors. Berg also coached outfielder Jessica Garcia to make the top play on SportsCenter, the top NCAA Softball Play of the Week and top NCAA Softball Picture of the Week with a leaping catch over the left-field fence to rob a home run from Utah.

2020 saw a shortened season playing only 26 games. OSU finished with a 17-9 overall record and received votes in six consecutive USA Softball/ESPN.com polls. Under her direction, junior pitcher Mariah Mazon earned All-America Third Team honors from Softball America after throwing two no-hitters in back-to-back weekends and finishing the season with a 1.18 ERA. Mazon struck out 130 batters and posted four saves. Offensively, Mazon led the Beavers with a .377 batting average off 29 hits.

In 2021, Berg coached Frankie Hammoude to break the program record with 17 home runs in a single season. Playing 46 games, the Beavers finished with a 20-26 record. In its opening weekend, on the debut day of the newly named Kelly Field, OSU played a doubleheader against Sacramento State (Mar. 12) with pitchers Mariah Mazon notching a perfect game and Trystan Melancon following with a second no-hitter. Mazon finished the season with three no-hitters and 204 strikeouts. Offensively, Hammoude led the team with a .360 batting average off 49 hits. Mazon and Missy Nunes followed in her tracks with the trio sitting in the top-three of hits, runs, home runs, and RBI, as well as slugging percentage and on-base percentage. Mazon and Hammoude garnered Pac-12 Player of the Week honors with both pulling First Team All-Pac-12 awards following the conclusion of the season. To cap off the season, Hammoude (1st) and Mazon (2nd) were named All-Pacific Region by the NFCA.

The 2022 squad did something just one other team in program history did - make the Women's College World Series. Berg's team went the distance to Oklahoma City after defeating Tennessee in two do-or-die games in Knoxville before sweeping Stanford on The Farm to punch their ticket in the super regional. Hammoude's bat and the duo of Mazon and a freshman - Sarah Haendiges - led OSU to 39-22 mark.

Working mainly with the team's slappers and outfielders, Berg helped put Oregon State back among the nation's elite in 2012. The Beavers went 36-23 en route to their first NCAA Regional appearance since 2007. OSU batted .273, the fifth-best mark in program history, set team records for both RBI (269) and runs scored (301) and its 70 stolen bases tied for third all-time.

The Beavers' renaissance in 2012 saw the team re-enter the national polls for the first time since 2008, defeat a total of 10 ranked opponents and claim a number of defining wins, including an extra-innings upset of No. 3 Arizona State and a road victory over No. 14 UCLA in April. OSU defeated its opponent by at least 10 runs on five occasions and scored more than 10 runs eight times, the second-highest totals in those respective categories in the 38-year history of the program.

Berg also helped tutor Dani Gilmore into becoming one of the best center-fielders in the Pac-12, as the Beaver freshman batted .322 with nine home runs and 33 RBI while posting a nearly flawless .990 fielding percentage. Gilmore was named to the Pac-12 All-Freshman Team and was also tabbed All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention after her inaugural season in the Orange & Black.

Berg previously had two stints as an assistant coach at her alma mater, Fresno State, from 2000-03 and 2005-06, stepping down to train with the U.S. Women's National Team in the interim. Joining the national team in 1994 as a center-fielder, she is the most decorated USA Softball Olympic athlete in history, helping her nation to three golds (1996 - Atlanta, 2000 - Sydney, 2004 - Athens) and one silver (2008 - Beijing). She has won 11 total medals, 10 gold, while competing for the U.S. in the Olympic Games, the ISF Women's World Championship and the Pan American Games. Her eighth-inning hit in the gold medal game in the 2000 Sydney Olympics drove in the winning run to help the Stars and Stripes defeat Japan, 2-1. The 2004 team was inducted into the U.S. Olympic and Paralympic Hall of Fame Class of 2012.

Berg had served four years as an Assistant Coach for the Women's National Team Program before being named the Head Coach for the Junior Women's National Team in 2017. With the Women's National Team, Berg helped lead the Red, White and Blue to three Gold Medal finishes at the World Cup of Softball, a Gold Medal at the 2019 Lima Pan American Games, two WBSC World Championship Silver Medals and a Silver Medal at the Toronto 2015 Pan American Games. With the Junior Women's National Team, Berg first served as an Assistant Coach in 2013 where the team earned a Silver Medal at the WBSC Junior Women's World Championship.

On November 14, 2019, Berg was named as an assistant to the 2020 WNT Team's Coaching Staff. She will join the Stars and Stripes on staff in the pursuit of another Olympic Gold Medal at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics (to be played in the summer of 2021).

In her first year as Head Coach of the Junior Women's National Team, Berg helped lead one of the most dominant Junior Women's National Teams in USA Softball history. As a team, the U.S. broke the team home run record with 15 total throughout the banner event while Bubba Nickles established three world championship records, recording home runs (six), RBI (30) and a .690 batting average.

As a player for the Bulldogs in the mid-1990s, Berg was a four-time All-American whose collegiate career was highlighted by a NCAA Championship title in 1998. She led her squad to three Women's College World Series appearances, two Western Athletic Conference crowns and helped Fresno State to a 206-60 (.774) record in her four-year career.

Berg's name is scattered throughout the NCAA, WAC and Fresno State record books in a number of offensive categories. She is second all-time in career hits in NCAA history (396), is 12th in runs (245) and her 25 career triples tie her for 23rd. Berg finished her career with a .414 batting average and by the time her senior season ended in 1998, she ranked first in school history in triples, runs, hits and stolen bases, while also finishing as the WAC's career leader in triples, runs, hits, at bats, games played and total bases. She is the only Fresno State player to amass 300 or more career hits and also posted a 160-game defensive error-less streak in the field.

A native of Santa Fe Springs, Calif., she received her bachelor's degree in commercial recreation from Fresno State in 1998.
