Bernard Clark, Jr., is in his ninth season as the head coach of the Robert Morris University football program in 2026. A native of Tampa, Florida, he was named the third head coach in program history on December 19, 2017.

The 2025 season culminated in eight players being named to the NEC All-Conference Team. A standout moment of the season was the emergence of freshman wide receiver Jaqai Carter, who became a national finalist for the prestigious 2025 Jerry Rice Award. This honor recognizes the top freshman player in the NCAA FCS subdivision. Carter's achievement made him the first Colonial to be a finalist for the award since 2018.

Clark led the Colonials back into the Northeast Conference (NEC) in 2024, where they had a successful campaign with a 7-5 overall record and a 4-2 mark in conference play. The team won their last six home games and was undefeated at 3-0 against NEC teams at Joe Walton Stadium. Nine student-athletes were named to the All-NEC teams, and 15 were selected for Phil Steele's All-NEC Team. Individually, Luke Beltavski was named the NEC Football Fall Scholar-Athlete of the Year and was selected to both the Football Championship Subdivision Athletics Directors Association (FCS ADA) 27th Annual Academic All-Star Team and the College Sports Communicators (CSC) Academic All-District team.

This return to the NEC marked a notable turnaround for the program, reminiscent of their 2019 season, the last time they played in the conference. That year, Clark presided over one of the best seasons in program history. The Colonials won seven of their final nine games to achieve their first winning season since 2010, finishing 7-5 overall and 6-1 in NEC play, which secured their highest league finish in nine seasons. For his efforts, Clark was named the 2019 NEC Co-Coach of the Year and was also a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award, given annually to the NCAA FCS Coach of the Year. The team also received the 2019 NEC Sportsmanship Award, a first in program history. A total of eight Colonials earned All-NEC honors under Clark's leadership in 2019, the most since nine were honored in 2013, and a significant increase from the three All-NEC selections in his first year.

Among the talent he coached was Matthew Gonzalez, who became the first player in program history to earn consecutive NCAA FCS All-American accolades, being named to the 2019 STATS FCS All-American Third Team after a 2018 Associated Press FCS All-American Second Team selection.

During their time in the Big South Conference, Clark continued to make an impact. Over four seasons, nine student-athletes earned All-Big South honors. Under his leadership, the team also received the 2021 Big South Team Sportsmanship Award. In 2022, former defensive back Tavin Harville became the eighth Colonial to sign an NFL deal and the first under Clark when he signed a free agent contract with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Before joining Robert Morris, Clark spent four years at the University at Albany (2014-17). He began as the assistant head coach and linebackers coach and was promoted to associate head coach, defensive coordinator, and linebackers coach in 2015. While there, his defense ranked ninth in the NCAA FCS and was in the top 20 in eight different categories in 2017. In his first season, Clark's defense led the nation in turnover margin (+1.25) and fumble recoveries (20).

Clark's collegiate coaching career began in 1998 at James Madison, where he coached defensive ends for two seasons. He then spent four years at Liberty (2000-03), coaching linebackers and special teams.

In 2004, Clark had his first of two stints at Florida International (FIU), serving as defensive coordinator for two seasons. He then joined the South Florida coaching staff in 2006, where he coached the defensive line.

Clark returned to FIU as a defensive assistant from 2007-08 and later served as defensive coordinator at Hampton University in 2009 and linebackers coach at Pitt in 2010. While with the Panthers, Clark helped the defense finish in the top 10 of the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS). He also coached linebackers at Colorado State in 2011 before returning to Hampton in 2013 as the defensive line coach and then defensive coordinator/linebackers coach in 2014.

As a player, Clark was a key linebacker for the University of Miami, contributing to their national championships in 1987 and 1989. As a sophomore, he was named the MVP of the 1988 Orange Bowl after a 20-14 victory over Oklahoma that secured the national title. Clark finished the game with 14 tackles, including 12 solo. Notably, that game featured opposing head coaches Jimmy Johnson (Miami) and Barry Switzer (Oklahoma), both of whom later won the Super Bowl with the Dallas Cowboys.

A third-round pick by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 1990 NFL Draft, Clark played two seasons with the Bengals and one with the Seattle Seahawks. He also spent time in the Arena Football League (AFL) with the Orlando Predators.

In 2022, Clark was inducted into the Orange Bowl Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2022. That same year, his first book, Ascension: A Coach's Guide to Becoming a Better Man, Father, and Husband, was published.

Clark and his wife, Tammy, reside in Clinton, Pa.

GAME PREVIEW

A historic rivalry is back as the Colonials (4-5, 2-2 NEC) head down the Parkway to take on Duquesne (4-4, 3-1 NEC) in Pittsburgh on Saturday. Kick off is scheduled for 12:00 p.m. from Rooney Field.

GAME INFORMATION

The matchup can be streamed live on NEC Front Row and SportsNet Pittsburgh. Fans can listen live on the RMU Athletics Gameday App as Spencer Witt and Damen McDermott bring you all the action. The app is your one-stop location to access exclusive content such as audio streaming, podcasts, and fan guides. It will also feature promotional offers for fans from various sponsors of RMU athletics. Fans can download the RMU Athletics Gameday App (search "RMU Colonials") from both the App Store and Google Play. Live stats will also be available through SIDEARM.

ALL-TIME SERIES

In a series that started in 1994, the Dukes currently lead the all-time series 15-8. On the road against Duquesne, the Colonials are 2-10 with their last road win against the Dukes coming in 1996 when RMU defeated Duquesne 28-26.

LAST WHISTLE

Last season in Moon Township, the Colonials suffered a 20-17 setback on Nov. 11, 2025 against the Dukes. A 33-yard game-winning field goal as time expired lifted Duquesne to the 20-17 victory. Offensively, the Colonials produced 259 offensive yards, with 178 coming through the passing game. On the other side of the ball, Duquesne recorded 421 total yards on a balance approach that included 214 passing yards and 207 rushing yards. RMU quarterback Cooper Panteck was 14-for-33 with 178 yards with a touchdown and one interception in the loss.

SCOUTING DUQUESNE

The Dukes (4-4, 3-1 NEC) are defending the Bluff on a three game win streak, with their most recent win coming at New Haven Saturday when Duquesne defeated the Chargers 41-14.

Quarterback Carson Camp accounted for all six touchdowns in the Dukes win, throwing for three scores and rushing for three more, to earn NEC Offensive Player of the Week honors and honorable mention recognition for Stats Perform FCS National Offensive Player of the Week.

Camp set a career high with three rushing touchdowns and tied his career best with three passig scores. His six touchdowns responsible for are the most in a game by an NEC player this season. Duquesne has now produced the NEC Offensive Player of the Week in back-to-back weeks after scoring 40-plus points in consecutive conference games.

RMU LATELY

The Colonials are coming off a tough loss to league-leader Central Connecticuit State, as RMU fell to the Blue Devils 49-14 in New Britain last Saturday.

RMU finished with 319 yards of total offense, including 328 yards thourgh the air, while the Colonials were held to -9 yards rushing.

Haggard completed 20-of-33 passes for 227 yards and a touchdown, while Panteck finished 5-of-9 for 101 yards and a score. Noah Schaerli led the RMU receiving coprs with 88 yards and two touchdowns on four receptions, highlighted by his 68-yard score in the fourth quarter.

On the defensive end, Noel Roach and Jake Lopinto paced the Colonials with seven tackles apiece. Amanuel Dickson, Tahseen Howard and John Gayer each recorded six stops, while Gayer also registered two quarterback hurries.

2K FOR CARSON

Carson Haggard eclipsed the 2,000 passing yard mark in the loss against Central Connecticut State, becoming the first NEC player to eclipse the milestone this season. Haggard is averaging 239.9 yards per game and has accounted for 19 passing touchdowns which leads the league. On the season, Haggard is 161-for-280 with 2,159 yards and just seven interceptions. Haggard's 2,159 yards are ranked 19th best in the FCS.

CHASING 100

Junior linebacker Amanuel Dickson is nearing 100 tackles on the season after recording six stops at Central Connecticut State to bring his season total up to 97. Dickson is ranked fourth in the FCS in total tackles, averaging 10.8 tackles per game to lead the Colonials.

Earlier this season, Dickson set a new RMU season record with 21 tackles in a single game in the Colonials 26-15 setback against New Haven. The Tennessee native recorded 11 solo stops and 10 assisted tackles, surpassing the previous school record of 20 held by Reggie Chambers and Jordan Howard. Dickson also added a career-high 3.0 tackles for loss totaling eight yards, along with a quarterback hurry.

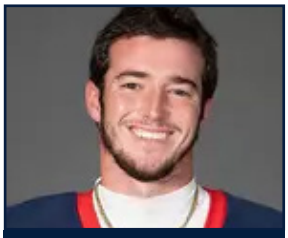

THE ROAD AHEAD

RMU will return back home next Saturday to take on Stonehill at Joe Walton Stadium. Kick off is scheduled for 12:00 p.m. in Moon Township. Saturday's contest will also be RMU's Salute to Service and Stars of Honor Game to honor the brave men and women who serve our country and community.
