RAMS REVIEW

A10 OPENER - VCU and SLU open A10 competition on Saturday as the Rams search for their first victory on the season after an 0-5-3 non-conference start. In conference openers, VCU has won three straight 1-0 shutouts and has a five-game unbeaten streak in its A10 openers, going 4-0-1 since the 2021 season.

HEATING UP - The Rams have scored four goals over the previous two games, more than doubling their season total. In just two matches, VCU's four goals were more than it scored in its first six combined. Each pair of goals came in a window of 11 minutes or fewer, scoring two unanswered goals 4:38 apart to draw at East Carolina.

COX IS COOKING - Freshman forward Alexis Cox has assisted on three of the Rams' last four goals, including logging an assist on both of the goals at ECU in her first two-point game.

CREATING CHANCES - At East Carolina, VCU posted its highest shot total of the season (19) and outshot its opponent for the second time in eight matches to earn its second-straight draw. The Rams made 10 shot attempts in the first half and placed seven shots on goal in the second half alone, sparking their two goals in the final 11 minutes.

DOUBLED UP - Freshman forward Monique McEnhimer leads the Rams with two goals, scoring the first goal of VCU's season in her collegiate debut and then logged the game-tying goal in the Rams' most recent contest at William & Mary.

FIRST CAREER CELLY - With Jess Gotshall's goal at William & Mary, three of VCU's goals have marked career firsts for Rams. Gotshall, Shiori Shintaku and McEnhimer each scored their first Division I goals in the Rams' non-conference slate. In Head Coach Lauryn Hutchinson's first season in 2025, eight of VCU's 11 goal scorers marked their first career tally.

VCU AT EAST CAROLINA (SEPT. 10) - VCU picked up its second-straight draw, scoring a pair of unanswered goals in the final 11 minutes at East Carolina to tie, 2-2. Separated by just 4:38, Isabelle Franklin and Jazmin Jackson each found the back of the net. Alexis Cox logged an assist on each goal and Franklin tallied an assist on Jackson's game-tying strike. VCU outshot the Pirates 19 (10) to 9 (3) on the match.

A BLAZING DEBUT - Luciana Gonzalez made her VCU debut at William & Mary in the starting lineup, placing two shots on goal in three attempts. She played a career-high 59 minutes in a start at ECU.

TURNAROUND BREWING - VCU remains searching for its first victory of 2026, but has battled to three draws in its previous four matches. VCU came from behind to tie against UNCW, William & Mary and East Carolina with game-tying goals by Shiori Shinkaku, Jess Gotshall, and Jazmin Jackson, respectively.

In its last two matches, VCU has made 33 shots and placed 18 on net, scoring four goals and logging five assists.

SHIORI'S STRIKE - Shintaku, junior college transfer from Peninsula College, earned her first NCAA goal on Thursday, August 27, in her first start with VCU, netting the Rams' game-tying goal in the 25th minute. The midfielder from Japan is one of three international student-athletes that makes up VCU's roster.

SHARP SHOOTERS - VCU has a .525 shot on goal percentage through its first eight matches. The Rams had a season-high 10 shots on goal at Delaware, with their highest SOG% in a game coming at #2 Duke (.750).

A season ago, VCU finished third in the A10 in SOG%, shooting on target at a .481 clip to achieve the Rams' best mark since 2016.

CUTTING CORNERS - VCU has only allowed its opponents to convert on corner kicks once in 63 attempts on the season, below a .016 conversion rate. A year ago, VCU gave up four goals from 115 corner kicks, allowing teams to convert just 3.5% of the time.

BETWEEN THE POSTS - The Rams have 50 saves in eight games, with the team's 7.00 saves per game ranking No. 25 in the nation and leading Atlantic 10 opponents.

Cameryn Nunn set her Division I career high in saves at eight against NC State earlier in the season. Her 31 total saves rank No. 45 in the nation and second in the Atlantic 10. Mia Pongratz matched her career-high eight saves in each of her starts this season, at UNCW and #2 Duke.

BACK LINE ANCHOR - Cierra Collins, graduate transfer from Syracuse, has played 710 minutes for the Rams, leading the team. At Delaware, she recorded her first collegiate point with an assist.

GOALAZO - Jensyn Lins, the Rams' leading goal-scorer from 2025, scored her first goal of the season at Delaware, which was tabbed one of TopDrawerSoccer's top five goals of the week. A long ball-in from Cierra Collins at centerfield was redirected by Ishpreen Marwah and Lins looped it over the head of the Delaware keeper on the finish.

GOING INTERNATIONAL - Jayla Walton (Puerto Rico) and Jazmin Jackson (Dominican Republic) were called up to compete in the 2026 Caribbean and Central American Games in July-August 2026 for their respective Senior National Teams. Walton's call-up was her first to the senior-level national team.

Luciana Gonzalez has represented the Costa Rica Senior Women's National Team and Ameerah Maamry was called up to the Morocco U-20 Women's National Team in September during the second leg of the U20 World Cup qualifiers.

KEY DEPARTURES - A season ago, VCU graduated multiple fourth-year mainstays of its lineup. On the back line, Stella Castro—who started every game—along with Jordyn Hall and Ava Pustover, who made 16 and 12 starts, respectively, concluded their VCU careers. Offensively, Kendyl Sarver, Y-Van Nguyen and Keira Connolly combined for six goals and totaled 21 points.

FRESH FACES - The Rams added a strong class of six transfers, including five from Division I programs. VCU's freshman class of seven dynamic athletes is made up of three Virginia natives and talent from Maryland, New Jersey, Florida and Costa Rica.

Luciana Gonzalez hails from San Jose, Costa Rica and was named to TopDrawerSoccer's International Freshmen to Watch List in the preseason.

Alexis Cox was a standout multi-sport athlete at Hayfield Secondary School in Alexandria, Virginia, and arrives at VCU with as decorated a trophy case as any.

HEAD COACH

LAURYN HUTCHINSON

Laurnyn Hutchinson enters her second year as head coach of the VCU women's soccer program after leading the Rams to their winningest season since 2022 in her first year at the helm of her alma mater.

In 2025, Hutchinson led VCU to a 7-10-3 record while increasing every shooting statistic and more than doubling team assists. VCU saw 11 unique goal scorers with eight Rams tallying their first career goals. The team's 23 goals were the most since 2022, and the Rams' .471 shot on goal percentage was the best mark since 2016. Junior goalkeeper Mia Pongratz etched her 2025 season into the record book with 82 saves, the eighth-most in program history.

Hutchinson is a UEFA A and B licensed coach who brings a wealth of knowledge and experience in coaching and player development, all the way up to the semi-professional level, in her return to VCU for her first Division I head coaching role.

Hutchinson served as head coach of UNKNWN Football Club, a Women's Premier Soccer League team, preparing athletes for professional football through competition with professional clubs and personal development opportunities. In addition to technical coaching, Hutchinson notably focuses on talent identification and recruitment.

Hutchinson is also currently part of the USL PPR Program with USL League One's Richmond Kickers, an initiative that supports BIPOC and women coaches in achieving professional aspirations through a structured, pro-level environment. In her role, Hutchinson provides an immersive experience and real-world training to high-performing coaches.

For nearly five years, Hutchinson has served as head technical director and coach for UNKNWN Athlete (UK F.C.) as its founder and CEO, overseeing the observation, evaluation, and coaching of players as well as instructing coaches on strategies for college and professional-level play and training.

Since 2016, Hutchinson has worked as an international professional trainer. The extensive list of athletes directly impacted by Hutchinson includes youth national players from multiple countries, as well as men's and women's athletes from Champions League teams, and players in MLS, USL Championship, USL League One for men, as well as high-caliber NWSL players

Prior to her work as a professional trainer, Hutchinson served as a coach at the youth level, developing high school, travel soccer and futsal players ranging from ages eight to 19. She worked with multiple organizations in Virginia, building both young athletes and the foundation for her coaching career alike.

The defender played with the Trinidad & Tobago Senior National Team from 2011 through 2022, where she competed at the highest levels for twelve years, amassing 37 caps and scoring five goals. Her distinguished career includes two Pan American Games, three CONCACAF World Cup Qualifiers, two Olympic Qualifiers, and recognition on the Starting XI Team of the Decade.

Hutchinson played for VCU women's soccer for four years under former USWNT player and World Cup gold medalist Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak and Tim Sahaydak from 2009-2012.

Compiling over 1300 minutes of playing time and making 53 career appearances and 20 starts, Hutchinson also split her time playing for the Trinidad and Tobago national team. In the final year of her collegiate career, the defender helped lead VCU to its second consecutive conference tournament championship game and a 12-5-5 record, going 6-2-1 against Atlantic 10 opponents.

A Sterling, Va., native, Hutchinson was a standout multi-sport athlete at Dominion High School, captaining her soccer team as a senior and making school history as the only freshman girl to earn a spot on both the varsity soccer and varsity basketball squads.
