In 2025-26, Vormelker guided the Tomcats to six victories, the program's most in a season since 2019. Thiel also recorded four road wins, its most in a campaign since 2012. Vormelker earned her first career head coaching victory on Nov. 12, 2025, with an 82-67 win at Penn State Shenango. She also mentored All-PAC guard Issy Green.

Prior to returning to Thiel, Vormelker spent two seasons (2021-23) as an assistant coach at Allegheny. In addition to her coaching responsibilities, she served as an advisor for the college's SAAC and FCA.

Vormelker began her collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Waynesburg (2019-21), learning from Yellow Jackets veteran head coach Sam Jones.

One of the most decorated players in Thiel women's basketball history, Vormelker finished her collegiate career ranked third in program history in points (1,681) and points per game (16.8). She is 1 of 16 players in program history to surpass 1,000 career points and ranks among the top 10 in seven major career statistical categories.

Vormelker holds program records for career three-pointers made (248) and attempted (837), single-season three-pointers made (80) and attempted (251), and single-game three-pointers made (nine).

As a senior in 2018-19, Vormelker was named the PAC Player of the Year, earned D3hoops.com All-Region Second Team honors and received D3hoops.com All-America Honorable Mention recognition. She was also a D3hoops.com All-Region Third Team selection in 2018 and a four-time All-PAC honoree.

Vormelker earned her bachelor's degree in early childhood and special education from Thiel in 2019 before completing a master's degree in special education at Waynesburg.
