GAME NOTES

OPENING DRIVE: Tennessee State remains at Nissan Stadium for Homecoming when it hosts Morgan State on Saturday at 5:30 p.m. CT. The Tigers produced season highs with 376 passing yards, four touchdown passes and 391 yards of total offense against UT Martin, but two turnovers returned for touchdowns helped the Skyhawks overcome TSU leads of 14-0 and 21-7. Daylin Lee threw all four TSU touchdowns, including three to Cam Bulluck, who finished with 191 receiving yards. Morgan State enters Nashville 5-1 and riding a four-game winning streak following a 28-27 comeback victory over Robert Morris. The matchup also closes the nonconference portion of the Tigers' schedule before five consecutive OVC games.

SERIES INFORMATION: Saturday marks the fifth meeting between Tennessee State and Morgan State and the first since Oct. 24, 1987. TSU has won all four previous meetings, outscoring the Bears 124-27. Each victory has come by at least 14 points.

A CLASSIC BEGINNING: Tennessee State opened the series with a 14-0 victory in the 1972 Atlanta Ebony Classic at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium. It remains the only meeting between the programs played at a neutral site.

BACK-TO-BACK SHUTOUTS: TSU did not allow a point during the first two games of the series. The Tigers followed the 1972 victory with a 21-0 shutout at Vanderbilt Stadium in 1985, giving TSU a combined 35-0 advantage through the first two meetings.

EIGHTIES OUTBURST: Tennessee State scored 89 points during consecutive victories over Morgan State in 1986 and 1987. The Tigers won 52-10 in Baltimore before earning a 37-17 victory at Hale Stadium the following season.

HOME-AND-HOME RENEWAL: Saturday begins a two-game renewal between the programs. Morgan State will host the return game in Baltimore during the 2027 season. The 2026 matchup will be the first between the teams at Nissan Stadium.

TSU HOMECOMING BY THE YEARS

HOMECOMING HISTORY: Tennessee State owns a 73-16-5 record across 94 recorded Homecoming games. Saturday's matchup against Morgan State will be the 95th Homecoming game in program history.

SEVEN STRAIGHT: TSU has won seven consecutive Homecoming games since 2018. The Tigers have outscored their opponents 224-117 during the streak, averaging 32 points per game.

RECENT SUCCESS: Tennessee State is 8-2 over its past 10 Homecoming games. The Tigers' only losses during that span came against Eastern Illinois in 2015 and Austin Peay in 2017.

BARLOW AT HOMECOMING: Reggie Barlow won his first TSU Homecoming game as head coach with a 24-7 victory over Howard in 2025. The Tigers held the Bison to 183 total yards, recorded four sacks and forced two turnovers.

MORGAN COMES HOME: Morgan State will serve as Tennessee State's Homecoming opponent for the second time. The Tigers defeated the Bears 21-0 on Oct. 26, 1985, at Vanderbilt Stadium. TSU and Morgan State also met in 1986 and 1987, making Saturday their first overall matchup in 39 years but their first Homecoming meeting since 1985.

AN UNBEATEN GENERATION: Tennessee State went unbeaten in 24 consecutive Homecoming games from 1962 through 1986, posting 22 victories and two ties. The run ended with a loss to Grambling in 1987.

SINCE 1999: Tennessee State is 20-6 in Homecoming games since the 1999 season. The Tigers have won 12 of their past 16 during that stretch.

WHERE IT STARTED: TSU's first recorded Homecoming game came against Fisk in 1926 and ended in a 13-13 tie. The Tigers earned their first Homecoming victory in 1931 with a 41-0 win over Louisville Municipal.

A FAMILIAR GUEST: Kentucky State has appeared in more TSU Homecoming games than any other opponent. The programs have met 13 times during Homecoming, with Tennessee State holding an 11-1-1 record.

THE LARGEST MARGIN: Tennessee State's largest Homecoming victory was a 91-0 win over Rust in 1934. In the modern era, TSU defeated UT Martin 76-0 during the 1998 Homecoming game.

THREE TIMES 41: Tennessee State scored 41 points in three of its past seven Homecoming victories, defeating Tennessee Tech 41-14 in 2018, Bethune-Cookman 41-17 in 2022 and Eastern Illinois 41-17 in 2024.

WEEK 6 BY THE NUMBERS VS UT MARTIN

0.7: Tennessee State averaged 0.7 yards per rushing attempt, finishing with 15 yards on 21 carries.

2: UT Martin returned two TSU turnovers for touchdowns, scoring on a 97-yard fumble return and a 23-yard interception return.

4: Daylin Lee threw a season-high four touchdown passes, accounting for each of Tennessee State's touchdowns.

14: TSU twice held a 14-point advantage, leading 14-0 after the first quarter and 21-7 during the second.

99: Lee connected with Cam Bulluck for a 99-yard touchdown from the TSU 1-yard line, completing the longest possible passing play on a one-play drive.

191: Bulluck caught seven passes for a season-high 191 yards and three touchdowns. He averaged 27.3 yards per reception and accounted for more than half of TSU's passing yardage.

307: The Tennessee State defense held UT Martin to 307 total yards, including 114 through the air.

376: Lee passed for a season-high 376 yards, completing 20 of 39 attempts.

391: Tennessee State established a season high for total offense and outgained UT Martin 391-307.

PLAYER NOTES THROUGH WEEK 6

LEE'S SIX-TOUCHDOWN SURGE: Daylin Lee has thrown for 621 yards and six touchdowns over the past two games. His four touchdown passes and 376 passing yards against UT Martin were season highs. Lee has completed 113 of 209 passes for 1,394 yards and nine touchdowns while adding two rushing scores. He has accounted for 11 of TSU's 13 offensive touchdowns.

BULLUCK'S FIVE-SCORE RUN: Cam Bulluck has caught 12 passes for 245 yards and five touchdowns over the past two games. He recorded two touchdown receptions at Western Illinois before producing seven catches for 191 yards and three scores against UT Martin. Bulluck leads TSU with 32 receptions, 457 receiving yards, five touchdowns and 30 points.

MONTGOMERY FINDS HIS STRIDE: Brock Montgomery has accounted for 11 of his 13 receptions during the past two games, totaling 161 yards during that stretch. He followed a six-catch, 75-yard performance at Western Illinois with five receptions for 86 yards against UT Martin. Montgomery leads TSU players with multiple catches by averaging 16.8 yards per reception.

PAUL'S TWO-WAY VALUE: Brenton Paul leads Tennessee State with 227 rushing yards and ranks third with 286 yards from scrimmage. The freshman has scored twice on the ground and twice as a receiver, making him the only TSU player with both a rushing and receiving touchdown this season.

PRATTS STEPS FORWARD: Francisco Pratts III caught two passes for 37 yards against UT Martin, accounting for nearly half of his 82 receiving yards this season. Pratts has nine receptions and one touchdown, with a season-long catch of 23 yards.

DUNCAN DELIVERS: Aaron Duncan II caught a 21-yard touchdown pass to give Tennessee State its first score against UT Martin. Duncan has six receptions for 51 yards through six games, with the touchdown representing his longest catch of the season.

FAKAOSI SETS THE TACKLE PACE: Epoki Fakaosi leads Tennessee State with 29 tackles, including 16 solo stops. He also has two pass breakups and a forced fumble while appearing in all six games.

HALE'S FIVE-GAME IMPACT: Brendan Hale has collected 28 tackles in five appearances, averaging a team-high 5.6 stops per game. His three pass breakups rank third on the team.

BAKER LEADS THE SOLO COUNT: Kaiki Baker leads the Tigers with 22 solo tackles and is tied for second with 28 total stops. Baker has also forced a fumble, broken up a pass and blocked a kick.

PRICE APPLIES PRESSURE: Jaylon Price leads Tennessee State with 3.5 sacks and 3.5 tackles for loss. His seven-yard strip-sack against UT Martin ended an 11-play drive and was recovered by Matthew Wilson. Price has 25 tackles and a forced fumble through six games.

LABRANCHE CREATES CHANCES: Jalen LaBranche has produced 22 tackles, four pass breakups, a 61-yard interception return for a touchdown and a fumble recovery. His first-quarter recovery against UT Martin gave TSU possession at the Skyhawks' 37-yard line and led to the Tigers' opening touchdown.

WILSON FINDS THE FOOTBALL: Matthew Wilson has recorded 23 tackles, a quarterback hurry and a fumble recovery through six games. Wilson recovered the third-quarter fumble forced by Jaylon Price against UT Martin, ending a possession that had reached TSU territory.

CARTER CLOSES IN: DeShawn Carter leads Tennessee State with four quarterback hurries. He has also recorded a tackle for loss and assisted on a sack while appearing in five games.

HURLESS HANDLES THE POINTS: Preston Hurless has scored 19 points, connecting on 3 of 4 field-goal attempts and 10 of 11 extra points. His season-long field goal is 45 yards, and he converted all four PAT attempts against UT Martin.

TUMEY FLIPS THE FIELD: Truette Tumey is averaging 41 yards on 33 punts. Seven of his punts have traveled at least 50 yards, three have been placed inside the 20-yard line and his season-long effort covers 65 yards.

GASTON ADDS RETURN VALUE: Daion Gaston has generated 200 all-purpose yards in three appearances. He leads TSU with 136 kickoff-return yards and averages 22.7 yards per return, including a team-season-long return of 39 yards.

BACK TO NISSAN: Tennessee State returns to Nissan Stadium for the first time in 329 days when it hosts UT Martin on Oct. 10. The Tigers' previous appearance at the venue came against Gardner-Webb on Nov. 15, 2025. The 329-day absence spans exactly 47 weeks.

LONGEST NISSAN LAYOFF: The longest break between consecutive TSU games at Nissan Stadium was 700 days, or exactly 100 weeks. The Tigers defeated Austin Peay on Oct. 19, 2019, and did not return to the venue until a 41-7 victory over Kentucky State on Sept. 18, 2021. TSU played its pandemic-delayed 2020 season in spring 2021, with each of its home games held at Hale Stadium.

AN OCTOBER ARRIVAL: The Oct. 10 game will mark the latest calendar date of TSU's first Nissan Stadium appearance in a season since the Tigers began playing at the venue in 1999. It will not be the first time TSU has waited until October to play there. The Tigers' first Nissan Stadium game of the 2022 season came against Bethune-Cookman on Oct. 8.

POST BYE: Tennessee State is 11-14 in games following a scheduled bye since 2000. The Tigers won four consecutive post-bye games from 2005-08 but have dropped five straight following a 28-21 loss at Western Illinois. TSU is 3-9 following a bye since 2014, with its most recent victory coming in a 20-13 overtime win over Tennessee Tech in 2021. The Western Illinois game marked TSU's first post-bye contest under head coach Reggie Barlow.

PLAYER NOTES THROUGH FIVE GAMES

LEE OVER 1,000: Daylin Lee has completed 93 of 170 passes for 1,018 yards and five touchdowns while adding 50 rushing yards and two scores. Lee has surpassed 200 passing yards three times, throwing for 265 yards against Jackson State, 259 at Florida A&M and 245 at Western Illinois. He was responsible for multiple touchdowns in each of those games and has accounted for seven of TSU's nine offensive touchdowns this season.

PAUL PROVIDES THE PUNCH: Two-time OVC Rookie of the Week Brenton Paul leads TSU with 227 rushing yards and four touchdowns. He produced 55 yards from scrimmage and a touchdown in his collegiate debut against Jackson State before recording 128 yards from scrimmage and three scores at Florida A&M, including the game-winning 20-yard touchdown reception with 51 seconds remaining. Paul followed with 62 rushing yards at Western Illinois, highlighted by a team-season-long 34-yard run.

BULLUCK'S BREAKTHROUGH: Cam Bulluck has caught at least four passes in every game and has surpassed 50 receiving yards four times. He recorded seven receptions against Jackson State, produced a season-high 81 yards at Florida A&M and caught five passes for 54 yards and two touchdowns at Western Illinois. Bulluck leads TSU with 25 receptions and is second with 266 receiving yards.

MONTGOMERY DOES MORE: Brock Montgomery has recorded all eight of his receptions and all 133 of his receiving yards during TSU's past two games. His 42-yard reception at Florida A&M helped move the Tigers into scoring position during their game-winning drive. Montgomery followed with season highs of six receptions and 75 yards at Western Illinois and added a 31-yard kickoff return to finish with 106 all-purpose yards.

GUY SETS THE PACE: After finishing his freshman season with two receptions for 15 yards, Jayden Guy has emerged as TSU's leading receiver with 23 catches for 329 yards. He opened the season with career highs of nine receptions and 148 yards against Jackson State. Guy has caught exactly four passes in each of the past three games, totaling 171 yards during that stretch.

BAKER SETS THE TONE: Kaiki Baker is tied for the team lead with 25 tackles and leads the Tigers with 21 solo stops. He blocked an extra-point attempt in TSU's victory at Florida A&M and forced a fumble at Western Illinois. Baker has started all five games and also has a pass breakup.

HALE HOLDS THE LEAD: Brendan Hale remains tied for the team lead with 25 tackles despite appearing in four games. He opened the season with a team-high 10 tackles against Jackson State and has recorded three pass breakups. Hale is averaging 6.3 tackles per appearance.

FAKAOSI STAYS ACTIVE: Epoki Fakaosi ranks third on the team with 24 tackles, including 13 solo stops, through five games. He has recorded five tackles in each of TSU's past two contests and has added two pass breakups. Fakaosi has appeared in every game with three starts.

PRICE IN THE BACKFIELD: Jaylon Price leads Tennessee State with 2.5 sacks and ranks second with 2.5 tackles for loss. He recorded two sacks at Florida A&M and contributed to another against Jackson State. Price has 19 tackles while starting four of five games along the defensive front.

LABRANCHE TAKES IT BACK: Jalen LaBranche has recorded 17 tackles, three pass breakups and an interception through five games. His 61-yard interception return for a touchdown at Florida A&M gave TSU a 20-13 third-quarter lead. LaBranche's return accounts for 61 of the Tigers' 65 interception-return yards this season.

COLLINS CREATES PRESSURE: Brandon Collins leads TSU with three tackles for loss and has added one sack, two quarterback hurries and a forced fumble. He has recorded 14 tackles while starting all five games. Collins' forced fumble at Alabama A&M resulted in one of TSU's two defensive fumble recoveries this season.

REESE RISES: Joshua Reese has collected 15 tackles, an interception and two pass breakups in three appearances. He recorded his first interception at Alabama A&M before producing a team-high 10 tackles, including seven solo stops, and two pass breakups at Western Illinois. Reese has started two of the three games in which he has appeared.

MOSLEY MAKES HIS MOVE: Rymen Mosley made his first start of the season at Western Illinois and responded with six solo tackles, an interception and a pass breakup. His interception extended TSU's streak to three consecutive games with a takeaway through the air, following picks by Joshua Reese at Alabama A&M and Jalen LaBranche at Florida A&M. Mosley has 13 tackles, including 11 solo stops.

DAVIS BREAKS IT UP: Byron Davis leads Tennessee State with four pass breakups. He recorded one against Jackson State, another at Alabama A&M and two at Western Illinois. Davis has started four games and collected nine tackles, including seven solo stops.

HURLESS HITS FROM RANGE: Preston Hurless has made three of four field-goal attempts and ranks second on the team with 15 points. He is perfect on three attempts from at least 30 yards, including a season-long 45-yard field goal against Jackson State. Hurless made one field goal in each of TSU's first three games.

TUMEY FLIPS THE FIELD: Truette Tumey is averaging 41.3 yards on 30 punts, with six traveling at least 50 yards and three placed inside the 20-yard line. He recorded a season-long 65-yard punt at Georgia and averaged a season-best 44.4 yards at Alabama A&M. Tumey averaged 42 yards on six punts at Western Illinois.

GASTON MAKES THREE GAMES COUNT: Daion Gaston has accumulated 200 all-purpose yards despite appearing in three games. He has returned six kickoffs for 136 yards, caught four passes for 48 yards and added a 16-yard punt return. Gaston's 22.7-yard kickoff-return average leads TSU, and his season-long return of 39 yards came at Alabama A&M.

WILSON STEPS IN: Matthew Wilson has recorded 18 tackles, including 12 assisted stops, through five games. He produced a season-high seven tackles at Florida A&M and has started each of TSU's past three contests. Wilson has also contributed a half tackle for loss.

TAYLOR IN THE MIDDLE: Sammy Taylor has started four games and recorded 17 tackles, one sack and one fumble recovery. His 13-yard sack at Alabama A&M is TSU's longest of the season. Taylor has registered at least three tackles in four of the Tigers' five games.

GRAY BRINGS PRESSURE: Bryce Gray has collected 14 tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss and one sack in four appearances. He recorded a seven-yard sack at Alabama A&M and returned to the starting lineup at Western Illinois, where he finished with three tackles. Gray has started three games along the defensive front.

WEATHERTON EVERY WEEK: Vertonio Weatherton is one of five TSU defenders to start each of the first five games. He has recorded 13 tackles, one tackle for loss and one quarterback hurry. Eleven of his 13 stops have been assisted tackles.

CARTER CLOSES IN: DeShawn Carter leads Tennessee State with three quarterback hurries despite playing in a reserve role. He recorded two hurries at Western Illinois after registering one against Jackson State. Carter has also contributed a tackle for loss and a half sack in four appearances.

SAFEEULLAH FINDS THE END ZONE: Syncere Safeeullah provided one of TSU's biggest special-teams plays of the season when he returned Kaiki Baker's blocked extra point for a defensive two-point conversion at Florida A&M. Safeeullah has also recorded eight tackles and one pass breakup while appearing in four games with three starts.

FREEMAN FINDS THE FOOTBALL: Jakobe Freeman has recorded 10 tackles and one fumble recovery in four appearances. His recovery at the TSU 2-yard line against Western Illinois ended an 80-yard drive and kept the Leathernecks out of the end zone. Freeman has collected at least two tackles in each of his four games.

PRATTS PROVIDES A TARGET: Francisco Pratts III has recorded at least one reception in each of TSU's five games. He has seven catches for 45 yards and caught the Tigers' first touchdown pass of the season against Jackson State. Pratts has started four games at tight end.

PEARSON OFFERS OPTIONS: Trevor Pearson has contributed as a runner, receiver and kickoff returner. He has 40 rushing yards, 28 receiving yards and 37 kickoff-return yards for 105 all-purpose yards. Pearson recorded season highs of eight carries and 11 rushing yards at Western Illinois.

FIVE-GAME FOUNDATION: LaRodney McQueen, Steven Nelson and Joel Van-Tagoe are the only TSU offensive linemen to start each of the first five games. Carlos Pardo has made four starts at center, while Lookman Balogun became the fifth different offensive lineman to start for the Tigers when he entered the lineup at Western Illinois.

MOORE ANSWERS THE CALL: Davion Moore handled TSU's placement duties at Western Illinois and converted all three of his extra-point attempts. He has also contributed as a punter, recording a 34-yard punt during his three appearances.

WEEK 5 BY THE NUMBERS VS WESTERN ILLINOIS

2: Cam Bulluck caught both of Tennessee State's touchdown passes in the 28-21 loss at Western Illinois. He finished with five receptions for 54 yards, scoring from 25 and 2 yards.

3: All three of TSU's turnovers occurred in the fourth quarter. Western Illinois returned an interception 43 yards for a touchdown, recovered a fumble on TSU's next possession and intercepted a pass with 22 seconds remaining.

6: Brock Montgomery led Tennessee State with six receptions for 75 yards. He added a 31-yard kickoff return to finish with a team-high 106 all-purpose yards.

10: Joshua Reese led the TSU defense with 10 tackles, including seven solo stops. He also recorded two pass breakups.

18: Western Illinois scored 18 unanswered points during the fourth quarter, overcoming an 11-point deficit. The Leathernecks tied the game with a field goal and interception return before scoring the winning touchdown with 52 seconds remaining.

21: Tennessee State scored a touchdown in each of the first three quarters and carried a 21-10 lead into the fourth. TSU's final two touchdowns capped drives of 65 and 67 yards.

22: Daylin Lee completed 22 of 42 passes for 245 yards and two touchdowns. He also scored on a 4-yard run, accounting for all three TSU touchdowns.

62: Brenton Paul led the Tigers with 62 rushing yards on 12 carries. The freshman averaged 5.2 yards per attempt and produced a season-long 34-yard run.

111: Western Illinois was penalized 10 times for 111 yards. Three of TSU's 18 first downs came by penalty.

318: Tennessee State finished with 318 yards of offense, including 245 passing yards and 73 rushing yards.

PLAYER NOTES THROUGH WEEK 3

LEE-DING THE OFFENSE: Daylin Lee has completed 71 of 128 passes for 773 yards and three touchdowns through four games. He has added 50 rushing yards and one touchdown, giving him 823 yards of total offense and four scores. Lee completed 18 of 27 passes for 259 yards and two touchdowns without an interception at Florida A&M. He directed the nine-play, 75-yard drive that produced the winning touchdown with 51 seconds remaining.

PAUL DOES IT ALL: Freshman running back Brenton Paul leads TSU with 165 rushing yards and two touchdowns on 53 carries. He has added seven receptions for 57 yards and two scores, giving him 222 yards from scrimmage and a team-leading four touchdowns. Paul recorded season highs with 92 rushing yards, 36 receiving yards and three touchdowns at Florida A&M. He has twice been named OVC Rookie of the Week and earned Co-Offensive Player of the Week honors following the win in Tallahassee.

THAT GUY: Jayden Guy leads Tennessee State with 264 receiving yards and shares the team lead with 19 receptions. The sophomore averages 13.9 yards per catch and opened the season with career highs of nine receptions and 148 yards against Jackson State. Guy caught four passes for 62 yards at Florida A&M and added a 14-yard rush.

BULLUCK BREAKS LOOSE: Cam Bulluck shares the team lead with 19 receptions and ranks second with 215 receiving yards. He led TSU with 84 yards on four catches at Florida A&M, highlighted by a season-long 63-yard reception that helped set up Paul's 1-yard touchdown run. Bulluck is averaging 11.3 yards per reception.

HALE AND BAKER SET THE PACE: Brendan Hale leads the TSU defense with 25 tackles and shares the team lead with three pass breakups. He established a season high with 10 tackles against Jackson State. Kaiki Baker ranks second with 21 tackles and leads the Tigers with 17 solo stops.

CHAOS BY COLLINS: Brandon Collins leads Tennessee State with 3.5 tackles for loss and shares the team lead with 1.5 sacks. The defensive lineman has recorded 10 tackles, one forced fumble and one quarterback hurry. Collins registered a sack during the victory at Florida A&M.

LABRANCHE TO THE HOUSE: Jalen LaBranche has recorded 12 tackles, three pass breakups and one interception through four games. He returned his interception 61 yards for a touchdown at Florida A&M, giving TSU a 20-13 lead in the third quarter.

PLAYER NOTES THROUGH WEEK 1

CLEAN THROUGH TWO: Tennessee State has not committed a turnover through two games. Three quarterbacks have combined to complete 38 of 67 passes without an interception, and the Tigers have not lost a fumble. TSU has also committed only six penalties for 51 yards.

MOVING THE CHAINS: TSU has converted 18 of 36 third-down opportunities for a 50% success rate. The Tigers have averaged 32:17 in possession, a 4:34 advantage over their opponents, and have run 132 offensive plays compared with 124 by the opposition.

FOUR FOR FIVE: Tennessee State has scored on four of its five red-zone possessions. The Tigers have produced three touchdowns and one field goal on those trips, accounting for 24 of their 27 points.

PERFECT PLACEMENT: Preston Hurless has converted both field-goal attempts and all three extra-point attempts. Hurless leads TSU with nine points and owns a season-long field goal of 45 yards.

LEE LEADS THE OFFENSE: Daylin Lee has accounted for 361 of Tennessee State's 463 yards of total offense. Lee has completed 34 of 60 passes for 327 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions while rushing for 34 yards and one score. His production represents 78% of TSU's total offense.

SPREADING THE BALL: Tennessee State has completed passes to 11 players. Jayden Guy and Cam Bulluck share the team lead with 11 receptions apiece. Guy leads the Tigers with 158 receiving yards, while Bulluck has recorded 81 yards.

HALE SETS THE PACE: Brendan Hale leads Tennessee State with 16 tackles, including nine solo stops, and shares the team lead with two pass breakups. Hale has seven more tackles than the Tigers' next-closest defenders, Kaiki Baker and Epoki Fakaosi.

TUMEY FLIPS THE FIELD: Truette Tumey has punted 11 times for 473 yards and a 43.0-yard average. He has recorded three punts of at least 50 yards, placed two inside the 20-yard line and delivered a season-long 65-yarder.

TWO BIG STAGES: Tennessee State's first two games drew a combined 125,500 fans, an average of 62,750 per contest. The John A. Merritt Classic against Jackson State drew 32,467, while 93,033 attended TSU's game at Georgia.

WEEK 1 BY THE NUMBERS VS GEORGIA

0: Tennessee State finished without a turnover against Georgia. Three TSU quarterbacks combined to attempt 26 passes without an interception, and the Tigers did not record a fumble.

1: TSU was penalized only once for 10 yards. Georgia committed eight penalties for 85 yards.

3: Preston Hurless accounted for the Tigers' three points by converting a 37-yard field goal with 2:08 remaining in the second quarter.

4: Cam Bulluck led Tennessee State with four receptions and 28 receiving yards. He was targeted a team-high six times.

6: Brendan Hale led the TSU defense with six tackles, including a team-high five solo stops. He also recorded two pass breakups.

55: Tennessee State's scoring possession covered 55 yards in 14 plays and took 5:29 off the clock. The Tigers converted three third downs before Hurless completed the drive with his 37-yard field goal.

31:33: TSU held the ball for 31:33, more than three minutes longer than Georgia's possession time of 28:27. The Tigers possessed the ball for 16:56 in the second half.

44.0: Truette Tumey averaged 44 yards on eight punts, totaling 352 yards. His career-long 65-yard punt reached the Georgia 18-yard line, and he placed one punt inside the 20.

PLAYER NOTES THROUGH WEEK 0

PAUL EARNS OVC ROOKIE HONOR: Freshman running back Brenton Paul was named the OVC Rookie of the Week after producing 55 yards from scrimmage and a touchdown in his collegiate debut against Jackson State. The Denham Springs, Louisiana, native led TSU's running backs with 38 yards and a touchdown on nine carries while catching two passes for 17 yards. Paul contributed to each of the Tigers' three touchdown drives, including a nine-yard scoring run that completed a 13-play, 75-yard possession. He later accounted for 22 yards during TSU's go-ahead fourth-quarter touchdown drive.

32,467: The John A. Merritt Classic against Jackson State drew 32,467 fans to FirstBank Stadium, ranking fourth among Tennessee State's five most highly attended games since 2022. The group consists of one true road game, two Southern Heritage Classics in Memphis and two home games in Nashville—one at Nissan Stadium and one at FirstBank Stadium. The five crowds were 77,622 at Notre Dame on Sept. 2, 2023; 51,351 against Jackson State in Memphis on Sept. 10, 2022; 32,518 against Arkansas-Pine Bluff in Memphis on Sept. 9, 2023; 32,467 against Jackson State at FirstBank Stadium on Aug. 29, 2026; and 22,231 against Bethune-Cookman at Nissan Stadium on Oct. 8, 2022.

DECADE-BEST HOME CROWD: Tennessee State's game against Jackson State in the John A. Merritt Classic drew 32,467 fans to FirstBank Stadium, marking TSU's largest home crowd in the past 10 years. The Tigers' five most-attended home games during that span are Jackson State in 2026 (32,467), Bethune-Cookman in 2022 (22,231), Austin Peay in 2017 (21,127), Tennessee Tech in 2018 (17,283) and Austin Peay in 2019 (16,389). Four of the five were Homecoming games.

PRESEASON PLAYER NOTES

LEE TAKES THE KEYS: Daylin Lee takes over as Tennessee State's starting quarterback after spending three seasons at Winston-Salem State. Lee arrives with 55 career touchdown passes and 15 rushing scores after establishing himself as one of the most productive quarterbacks in Rams history. In 2025, he completed 149-of-238 passes for 2,046 yards and 23 touchdowns with seven interceptions, completing 62.6 percent of his attempts. He also rushed for 89 yards and five touchdowns. Lee threw multiple touchdown passes in eight games last season, including four-touchdown performances against Lincoln and Bowie State. He passed for a season-high 338 yards against Virginia State and accounted for four touchdowns and 326 yards of total offense against Virginia Union. Lee earned All-CIAA Second Team honors and CIAA Male Scholar of the Year recognition as a true freshman in 2023 before being named to the College Sports Communicators Academic All-District Team in 2024.

RB1 — Zach Simmons-Brown enters the 2026 season as Tennessee State's lead running back after appearing in all 12 games in 2025. He carried the ball 101 times for 456 yards and two touchdowns, averaging 4.5 yards per carry and 38.0 rushing yards per game. Simmons-Brown also caught 12 passes for 56 yards, finishing the season with 512 yards from scrimmage. Simmons-Brown recorded a season-high 98 rushing yards on 18 carries against Western Illinois, finishing the game with 124 yards from scrimmage. He rushed for 75 yards and a touchdown on nine carries against Alabama A&M and added 55 yards and a score at Southeast Missouri, highlighted by a season-long 50-yard run. Simmons-Brown closed the year with 60 yards on eight carries at Charleston Southern.

Z IS FOR ZONE BREAKER: Brock Montgomery slots as the starting Z-receiver after appearing in all 12 games with seven starts in 2025, catching 20 passes for 203 yards. He averaged 10.2 yards per reception and 16.9 receiving yards per game. Montgomery established season highs with three receptions and 40 receiving yards against Western Illinois, including a season-long 27-yard catch. He added three receptions for 29 yards against Lindenwood and closed the season with three catches for 32 yards at Charleston Southern.

MR. X: Cam Bulluck joins Tennessee State as the Tigers' new starting X receiver following a season at Murray State. Bulluck appeared in seven games for the Racers in 2025, catching 10 passes for 140 yards and two touchdowns while averaging 14.0 yards per reception. Bulluck delivered his best performance against Southeastern Louisiana, recording four receptions for 76 yards and a touchdown, including a season-long 37-yard catch. He added two receptions for 28 yards and a score at Youngstown State. Bulluck began his collegiate career at Faulkner in 2024, producing 23 receptions for 403 yards and five touchdowns as a freshman. He surpassed 100 receiving yards twice and averaged 17.5 yards per catch during his lone NAIA season.

TE III: Francisco Pratts III joins after four seasons at Maine, where he appeared in 26 games and contributed primarily on special teams. Pratts played in 10 games for the Black Bears in 2025 and recorded the first reception of his collegiate career with a five-yard catch at Georgia Southern. Pratts appeared in eight games in both 2023 and 2024 after sitting out the 2022 season. He contributed in the return game during his first year of action and recorded two rushing attempts against Monmouth in 2024. Pratts added another rushing attempt against Rhode Island during his final season at Maine.

BIG BUCK HUNTER: Jaylon Price will be the starting Buck defensive end after playing in all 12 games with eight starts in 2025. Price recorded 25 tackles, including 14 solo stops, with 6.0 tackles for loss, 3.0 sacks, three pass breakups and four quarterback hurries. Price registered at least one tackle for loss in seven games and posted a season-high five tackles at Southeast Missouri. He recorded a sack and two quarterback hurries in TSU's win over Howard before closing the season with three tackles and a sack at Charleston Southern.

TAYLOR-MADE FOR THE WILL: Nashville native and Ensworth School product Sammy Taylor returns as Tennessee State's starting Will linebacker after developing into a regular starter in 2025. Taylor appeared in all 12 games with eight starts and recorded 51 tackles, including 31 solo stops. He added 2.0 tackles for loss, one sack, one forced fumble, two quarterback hurries and one blocked kick. Taylor established a career high with 10 tackles and forced a fumble at UT Martin. He registered eight tackles at Eastern Illinois, blocked a kick in the win over Howard and recorded his first career sack during a five-tackle performance against Western Illinois.

LOCAL PRODUCT LEADS THE EDGE: Nashville native and Ensworth School product Brandon Collins enters the 2026 season as Tennessee State's starting left defensive end. Collins appeared in nine games with two starts in 2025, recording 13 tackles, including seven solo stops, with 1.0 tackle for loss and one quarterback hurry. Collins posted a season-high three tackles at Eastern Illinois before matching that total at Southeast Missouri and against Lindenwood. His performance at Southeast Missouri included his first tackle for loss of the season, while he added a quarterback hurry against Howard.

NO FLY ZONE WITH SAFEEULLAH: Syncere Safeeullah returns as Tennessee State's starting left cornerback after appearing in 11 games with six starts in 2025. Safeeullah recorded 17 tackles, including 12 solo stops, with 0.5 tackle for loss, one interception, three pass breakups and two fumble recoveries. Safeeullah opened the season with a season-high three solo tackles and two fumble recoveries against North Carolina A&T. He recorded his first career interception against Lindenwood and returned it 31 yards. Safeeullah also registered pass breakups against North Dakota State, Tennessee Tech and Southeast Missouri.

BACK ON THE BACK END: Kaiki Baker returns as Tennessee State's starting strong safety after playing in seven of the Tigers' 12 games in 2025. Despite missing a month because of injury, Baker recorded 42 tackles, including 35 solo stops, with 4.5 tackles for loss, two pass breakups, two forced fumbles and one quarterback hurry. Baker opened the season with nine tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss against North Carolina A&T. He established a career high with 11 tackles, including 10 solo stops and 2.0 tackles for loss, against Alabama A&M. Baker also forced fumbles against Tennessee Tech and Gardner-Webb and recorded seven tackles at Southeast Missouri.

McHALE's NAVY: Brendan Hale returns as the starting free safety after transferring from Southern Utah, where he spent three seasons. Hale appeared in six of the Tigers' 12 games in 2025, missing all of September and the latter part of November because of injury. Despite the limited action, he recorded 37 tackles, including 17 solo stops, with 1.0 tackle for loss, one interception and one pass breakup. Hale recorded nine tackles, an interception and a pass breakup at Southeast Missouri, returning the interception four yards. He matched his season high with nine tackles against Lindenwood before adding seven tackles and 0.5 tackle for loss at UT Martin.

LOCKS DOWN DAVIS: Byron Davis is slated to start at right cornerback after playing in all 12 games with 10 starts in 2025. Davis recorded 37 tackles, including 26 solo stops, with 3.5 tackles for loss, 1.0 sack, two interceptions, eight pass breakups, three quarterback hurries and one forced fumble. Davis opened the season with four tackles, a sack, a forced fumble and a quarterback hurry against North Carolina A&T before recording his first interception at North Dakota State. He added another interception at Southeast Missouri and posted a season-high six tackles with 1.0 tackle for loss against Lindenwood. Davis finished the season with a pass breakup in each of the final two games.

ALL-PURPOSE TAYLOR: Taylor appeared in 10 games in 2025 and totaled 149 all-purpose yards, including 75 receiving yards, 66 punt-return yards and eight rushing yards. He caught nine passes for an average of 8.3 yards per reception and returned 19 punts. Taylor recorded a season-long 18-yard punt return against North Carolina A&T and returned three punts for 20 yards against Gardner-Webb. Offensively, he caught a season-high three passes against Tennessee Tech and posted a season-best 29 receiving yards at Southeast Missouri, highlighted by a 23-yard reception.

FRESH VOICES, NEW ROLES FOR BARLOW'S STAFF: Head coach Reggie Barlow enters his second season at Tennessee State with five new on-field assistants and several returning coaches taking on expanded responsibilities. Matt Leone joins the Tigers as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach after directing one of the MEAC's most productive offenses at North Carolina Central. Macander Dieudonne, who coached alongside Leone at NCCU in 2025, takes over the offensive line.

The defensive additions include Jeremy Watkins as defensive line coach, Matt Brown as linebackers coach and former TSU defensive back Terell Bonds as cornerbacks coach. Watkins most recently coached the defensive line for the UFL's D.C. Defenders, while Brown arrives after serving as co-defensive coordinator for Albany State's 2025 NCAA Division II HBCU national championship team. Bonds returns to his alma mater following a professional career that included stops in the NFL, CFL, XFL, USFL, UFL and Alliance of American Football.

Cedric Thornton was elevated to associate head coach and defensive coordinator after coaching TSU's linebackers in 2025. Dexter Jackson was promoted to assistant head coach, defensive backs coach and passing game coordinator. Nick Andrews returns to oversee the wide receivers, Eddie Woods remains with the tight ends and Ryan Conway shifts to running backs after working as a defensive coaching assistant last season.

14: Tennessee State earned 14 spots on the 2026 OVC Preseason Players to Watch list, with representation across all three phases of the game. PRACTICES AND INTERVIEWS: All interviews and practice visits must be arranged through TSU Athletics Communications. Media members should not contact student-athletes directly to schedule interviews. Practice access is determined by the head coach and athletics administration and may be open, limited or closed. Athletics Communications coordinates postgame interviews in a designated area. Locker rooms are closed unless otherwise authorized.

WEEKLY MEDIA AVAILABILITY: Media availability is held Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons at 2:40 p.m. before practice. Contact TSU Athletics Communications in advance for approval.

Head coach Reggie Barlow is available for the OVC's weekly media Zoom on Tuesdays from 10:10-10:20 a.m. Interested media members should contact TSU Athletics Communications or the Ohio Valley Conference for access information.

Visiting television and radio outlets seeking interviews with Barlow or the coordinators may schedule phone or Zoom interviews on Thursdays from 8:30-9:30 a.m. Media members are responsible for coordinating and providing links for virtual interviews.

LIVE STATS: Live football statistics are available at TSUTigers.com/coverage

WE ARE TENNESSEE STATE: Please refer to the university as Tennessee State University, Tennessee State or TSU. The team nickname is the Tigers. For live broadcast scorebugs our three-letter abbreviation is TSU and our four-letter abbreviation is TNST.

MOBILE APP: The TSU Tigers app is available through the Apple App Store and Google Play. Download links are available on TSUTigers.com.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS: All requests must be submitted through Tennessee State's official credential application process. Single-game requests are due by noon two days before the game. Late requests will not be honored except under extraordinary circumstances as determined by TSU Athletics Media Relations.

Credentials are issued to working media on assignment for editorial coverage. Established digital outlets, podcasts and freelancers may be considered based on original reporting, editorial oversight and professional standards. Social media audience size alone does not establish eligibility.

A maximum of two working credentials may be allotted to a single media outlet for each game. Credential requests and access are reviewed and approved on a game-by-game basis. Submission does not guarantee approval, parking, field or sideline access, or access to a specific media working area. Credentials are issued to individuals and are non-transferable.

Season credentials are intended primarily for outlets providing regular coverage throughout the season. Approved recipients should coordinate pickup with Athletics Communications.

Please review the Tennessee State Athletics Media Credential & Access Policy and access the credential request form at www.tsutigers.com/media.

NISSAN STADIUM MEDIA PARKING: Media parking requires separate approval and is not guaranteed with a credential. Approved media members will receive a digital parking pass through Ticketmaster for access at Gate M. Those without an approved parking pass are responsible for alternate arrangements and any associated fees.

PRESS BOX SERVICES: The Nissan Stadium press box opens 90 minutes before kickoff. A light media meal is available 45 minutes before kickoff on a first-come, first-served basis. Quantities are limited; please be considerate of fellow media members when serving yourself.

SCOUTING PASSES: Scouts seeking credentials must contact TSU Football Operations and the chief of staff for approval.

SIDELINE AND PHOTO ACCESS: Only credentials specifically designated for field access permit entry to the sideline. Photographers and videographers must remain in designated working areas, stay outside team bench areas and comply with TSU, conference, NCAA and venue requirements. A general media or press box credential does not authorize sideline access.

REGGIE BARLOW
HEAD COACH

Tennessee State University named Reggie Barlow the 23rd head football coach in program history on March 23, 2025. A proven leader with extensive coaching experience and a championship pedigree, Barlow brought a history of success at the professional and collegiate levels to Nashville.

Barlow enters his second season at Tennessee State in 2026 as he continues building the Tigers through a combination of returning talent, experienced transfers and a restructured coaching staff.

In his first season at TSU, Barlow guided the Tigers to a 2-10 overall record. He earned his first victory in his TSU debut, leading the Tigers to a 24-21 win over North Carolina A&T in the John A. Merritt Classic. The victory marked Tennessee State's third consecutive win in the annual Classic. The Tigers also produced a 24-7 homecoming victory over Howard.

Barlow's first TSU team produced three OVC-Big South postseason honorees. Linebacker James Stewart earned first-team honors after recording 68 tackles, 17.5 tackles for loss, six sacks, three forced fumbles and four pass breakups. Offensive lineman Veguer Jean-Jumeau and running back and all-purpose standout Kendric Rhymes received honorable mention recognition. Jean-Jumeau started all 12 games as a redshirt freshman, while Rhymes led the Tigers with 497 rushing yards and delivered a season-high 174 yards and two touchdowns in the John A. Merritt Classic.

Before arriving at Tennessee State, Barlow led the UFL's D.C. Defenders. In 2023, he guided the Defenders to a league-best 9-1 regular-season record and an appearance in the championship game, earning XFL Coach of the Year honors.

Under Barlow's direction, the Defenders produced seven All-XFL selections, including Offensive Player of the Year Jordan Ta'amu, the most of any team in the league. D.C. led the league with 1,490 rushing yards and 18 rushing touchdowns while ranking second with 29 sacks and first with four interceptions returned for touchdowns.

Before his success with the Defenders, Barlow spent six seasons as the head coach at Virginia State University. He led the Trojans to the first undefeated season in program history and a Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship in 2017, earning CIAA Coach of the Year honors.

Barlow began his collegiate coaching career at his alma mater, Alabama State University, serving two seasons as quarterbacks coach before spending eight seasons as head coach. He led the Hornets to a 49-42 record and three SWAC East Division titles while developing standout quarterbacks such as Super Bowl XLVII champion Tarvaris Jackson. Barlow's teams also excelled academically, producing an 80-percent graduation rate.

As a player, Barlow starred as a wide receiver and return specialist at Alabama State before the Jacksonville Jaguars selected him in the fourth round of the 1996 NFL Draft. He played for the Jaguars, Oakland Raiders and Tampa Bay Buccaneers during his NFL career. Barlow led the league in punt-return yards in 1998 and earned recognition as a Pro Bowl alternate. He won Super Bowl XXXVII with the Buccaneers following the 2002 season.

COORDINATORS

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH / DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Cedric Thornton enters his second season at Tennessee State and his first as defensive coordinator after serving as associate head coach and linebackers coach in 2025. Under his direction, TSU's linebackers produced the team's three leading tacklers: James Stewart (68), Micah Gay (61) and Sammy Taylor (51). Stewart recorded 17.5 tackles for loss and six sacks on his way to All-OVC-Big South First Team honors. Thornton brings more than 20 years of coaching experience to Tennessee State, including recent roles as defensive tackles coach and special teams coordinator at Alabama A&M and defensive coordinator at Grambling State and Alcorn State. At Alcorn, he helped lead the Braves to two SWAC championships and consecutive Celebration Bowl appearances, developing multiple all-conference and All-America players while overseeing nationally ranked defenses in sacks, tackles for loss and turnovers. At Grambling, Thornton mentored standout defensive end Sundiata Anderson and defensive lineman Keyshawn Johnson, a 2023 Stats Perform FCS Freshman All-American. He also served as defensive coordinator at Alabama State, where his 2014 unit ranked among the top 15 nationally in scoring defense, passing defense and takeaways while recording the program's first official shutout since 1994.

DEXTER JACKSON
ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / DEFENSIVE BACKS / PASS GAME

Dexter Jackson enters his second season at Tennessee State after being promoted from safeties coach. Under his leadership in 2025, TSU's secondary recorded six interceptions, 38 pass breakups and nine fumble recoveries. Kaiki Baker, Brendan Hale, Byron Davis and Syncere Safeeullah combined for 133 tackles, four interceptions, 14 pass breakups, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. Jackson brings 10 seasons of NFL experience to the Tigers' staff. Tampa Bay selected him in the fourth round of the 1999 NFL Draft, and he became the Buccaneers' starting free safety in 2001. Jackson helped anchor a 2002 defense that led the NFL in yards allowed, points allowed and interceptions before earning Super Bowl XXXVII MVP honors with two first-half interceptions in Tampa Bay's 48-21 victory over Oakland. Jackson appeared in 118 NFL games and recorded 17 interceptions, including a career-high six with Arizona in 2003. A two-time second-team All-ACC selection at Florida State, he finished his collegiate career with 194 tackles and seven interceptions.

MATT LEONE
CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / QB

Matt Leone enters his first season at Tennessee State after serving as offensive coordinator at North Carolina Central. In 2025, NCCU averaged 33.8 points and 420.9 yards per game while scoring at least 30 points eight times. Quarterback Walker Harris earned MEAC Offensive Player of the Year honors after setting a program record with 3,214 passing yards and throwing 24 touchdowns. Leone joined NCCU in 2020 and helped build one of the MEAC's most productive offenses. The Eagles led the conference in scoring in three consecutive seasons from 2022-24, highlighted by a 2022 campaign in which NCCU finished 10-2, shared the MEAC championship and earned a Cricket Celebration Bowl berth. Before NCCU, Leone spent four seasons at Southern, helping the Jaguars win consecutive SWAC West Division championships in 2018 and 2019. He began his coaching career at Webber International, his alma mater, where he spent nine seasons and served five years as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

COACHING STAFF

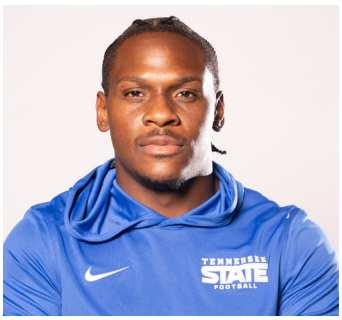

JEREMY WATKINS / DEFENSIVE LINE

Jeremy Watkins enters his first season as defensive line coach at Tennessee State University, bringing extensive experience across the collegiate and professional levels, including his most recent role as defensive line coach for the DC Defenders of the UFL (2024). He has also held coaching positions at Virginia State University and Alderson Broaddus University, during the program's inaugural spring football season, serving as defensive line coach. In that season, he guided two defensive linemen to All-Conference and All-Freshman Team honors. As a student-athlete, Watkins played at Alabama State University from 2002–2004, where he earned All-SWAC recognition and helped lead the program to a SWAC East Division Championship in 2003 and a SWAC Championship in 2004. He was a two-time letterwinner during his collegiate career.

MATT BROWN / LINEBACKERS

Matt Brown enters his first season as Linebackers Coach at Tennessee State University in 2026, bringing championship pedigree and a proven record of defensive success to the Tigers' football staff. Prior to joining TSU, Brown served as Co-Defensive Coordinator at Albany State University from 2023–25, helping build one of the most dominant defenses in NCAA Division II football. During the 2025 season, Albany State captured the NCAA Division II HBCU National Championship and the SIAC Championship while finishing with a program-record 12 wins (12–2) and an undefeated 10–0 conference record.

TERELL BONDS / CORNERBACKS

Terrell Bonds returns to Tennessee State in 2026 as the Tigers' cornerbacks coach following a professional playing career that included time in the NFL, CFL, XFL, USFL, UFL and Alliance of American Football. A four-year letterwinner and three-year starter at Tennessee State from 2014-17, Bonds appeared in 41 games and recorded 95 tackles, 10 interceptions, 20 pass breakups, two forced fumbles and two interception returns for touchdowns. As a senior, he led the Tigers with four interceptions in nine games, returning one 36 yards for a touchdown at Eastern Kentucky. Bonds started all 11 games as a junior in 2016, finishing with 30 tackles, three interceptions and a team-high nine pass breakups. He ranked 43rd nationally with 1.1 passes defended per game. Bonds added 28 tackles, an interception, seven pass breakups and a forced fumble as a sophomore. As a true freshman, he recorded 18 tackles, two interceptions and a forced fumble while helping TSU lead the OVC in passing defense.

CARLTON HARRIS / SPORTS PERFORMANCE

Carlton Harris serves as the Director of Player Performance for Tennessee State University Football, where he oversees all aspects of strength and conditioning, sports science, nutrition, and return-to-play protocols. Entering his role in 2026, Harris also contributes to special teams coordination, bringing a comprehensive approach to student-athlete performance and development. Harris joins TSU following a successful tenure in the United Football League (UFL), where he served as Head Player Performance Coach from 2023–25. During his time in the league, he worked with the Michigan Panthers, San Antonio Brahmas, and DC Defenders, helping guide teams to consecutive playoff and championship appearances in 2024 and 2025. His efforts culminated in a 2025 UFL Championship with the DC Defenders. Harris' programs consistently produced top-tier results, as his teams recorded the league's best regular season and playoff win percentages during his tenure.

NICK ANDREWS / WIDE RECEIVERS

Nick Andrews enters his second season as Tennessee State's wide receivers coach after helping several Tigers produce standout campaigns in 2025. Under Andrews' direction, DeVaughn Slaughter led TSU with 55 receptions and 551 receiving yards while catching three touchdowns. Snap Reed emerged as another top target, recording 35 receptions for 376 yards and a team-high four receiving touchdowns in nine games. Reed closed the season with a nine-catch, 107-yard, two-touchdown performance against Gardner-Webb. Brock Montgomery added 20 receptions for 203 yards, while Tyson Edwards averaged a team-best 16.0 yards per reception. A former Alabama State standout and two-time All-SWAC receiver, Andrews most recently served as defensive coordinator at Clay-Chalkville High School, one of Alabama's premier prep football programs, before joining Tennessee State.

EDDIE WOODS / TIGHT ENDS

Tennessee State alumnus Eddie Woods enters his second season as the Tigers' tight ends coach in 2026. Woods returned to his alma mater in 2025 following a successful career as one of Middle Tennessee's most accomplished high school football coaches. During his first season at TSU, Woods helped develop redshirt freshman Connor Ruth into a contributor at tight end. Ruth appeared in 10 games and recorded eight receptions for 60 yards and two touchdowns after not seeing game action the previous season. Before joining Tennessee State, Woods compiled a 77-30 record in nine seasons as head coach at Cane Ridge High School. Under his leadership, the Ravens became one of Nashville's most consistent programs, and Woods helped develop dozens of student-athletes who advanced to the NCAA Division I level.

MACANDER DIEUDONNE / OFFENSIVE LINE

Macander Dieudonne enters his first season as Offensive Line Coach at Tennessee State University in 2026, bringing a proven track record of developing physical, productive offensive lines across the FCS, Division II, and NAIA levels. Dieudonne joins TSU following the 2025 season at North Carolina Central University, where he served as Offensive Line Coach and helped guide one of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference's most productive offenses. Under his direction, the Eagles averaged 33.8 points per game and 449.5 yards of total offense, ranking second in the MEAC. The offensive line helped power five 450+ yard performances and produced First Team All-MEAC selection Trevon Humphrey. NCCU finished the season 8–4 overall with a 3–2 conference record. As a player, Dieudonne was a four-year starter on the offensive line at Webber International and helped lead the program to its first Sun Conference championship in 2014.

RYAN CONWAY, RUNNING BACKS / SPECIAL TEAMS

Ryan Conway enters the 2026 season as Tennessee State's special teams coordinator and running backs coach, bringing a diverse background in coaching, scouting and analytics across the collegiate and professional levels. Conway spent the 2025 season as the Tigers' assistant linebackers coach. He helped develop a group that produced TSU's three leading tacklers in James Stewart, Micah Gay and Sammy Taylor. Stewart earned All-OVC-Big South First Team honors after recording 68 tackles, 17.5 tackles for loss, six sacks, three forced fumbles and four pass breakups. Gay added 61 tackles and two interceptions, while Taylor finished with 51 tackles, one sack, one forced fumble and a blocked kick.
