GAME NOTES

OPENING TIP: Tennessee State takes a two-game winning streak into its first true road game of the regular season Friday against No. 11/9 Tennessee at Food City Center. The Tigers (2-1) scored 250 points in their first two home games, beating East-West 127-61 and Fisk 123-73. All five starters reached double figures against Fisk, led by Aaron Bradshaw's 23 points, and Ty-Laur Johnson finished with 11 points and 12 assists. TSU totaled 56 assists against 18 turnovers in the two wins.

Friday pairs a Tennessee State team averaging 104.7 points through three games with a Tennessee defense allowing 53.0 through two. The Volunteers (2-0) beat Wofford 90-59 and Radford 70-47 to open the season. Terrence Hill Jr. scored 17 and 18 points in those wins, respectively. Tennessee is coming off its third consecutive Elite Eight appearance.

SERIES INFORMATION: Friday marks the eighth meeting between the programs. Tennessee leads 7-0, with all seven previous games played in Knoxville. The series began Nov. 23, 1990, with a 91-75 Tennessee win. The schools met in three consecutive seasons from 2013-14 through 2015-16, then went nearly 10 years before meeting again in November 2025.

THE CLOSEST CALL: Tennessee State led 43-36 at halftime on Dec. 29, 2015, in the tightest game of the series. Wayne Martin had 19 points and nine rebounds for the Tigers, and Keron DeShields added 13. Tennessee used a late 9-0 run to come back for a 74-69 victory in Rick Barnes' first season with the Vols.

Head Coach

• Nolan Smith enters his second season as Tennessee State's head men's basketball coach in 2026-27 after leading the Tigers to Ohio Valley Conference regular-season and tournament championships and their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1994.

• In his debut season, Smith guided TSU to a 23-10 overall record and a 15-5 conference mark. The 23 victories established a program record for the NCAA Division I era, while the Tigers earned a share of their first OVC regular-season championship since 1994-95.

• Smith was named the 2026 OVC Co-Coach of the Year and BOXTOROW HBCU National Coach of the Year. He also earned finalist recognition for the Joe B. Hall, Ben Jobe and Hugh Durham national coaching awards.

• Smith became the 12th first-year head coach in OVC history to earn Coach of the Year honors and the seventh to receive the award while winning at least a share of the regular-season championship.

• The top-seeded Tigers defeated UT Martin in the OVC Tournament semifinals before beating Morehead State, 93-67, in the championship game. TSU set OVC championship-game records for points scored and margin of victory while securing the program's third OVC Tournament title and third NCAA Division I Tournament appearance.

• Smith coached three All-OVC selections in 2025-26. Aaron Nkrumah was named OVC Player of the Year and joined Travis Harper II on the All-OVC First Team, while Dante Harris earned All-OVC Second Team and All-Newcomer Team honors.

• Following his first season, Smith agreed to a contract extension through the 2031 season.

• Smith joined TSU after serving as an assistant coach at Memphis under Penny Hardaway during the 2024-25 season, where he played a key role in player development and recruiting.

• Before Memphis, Smith spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Louisville (2022-24) and six years on the coaching staff at his alma mater, Duke University, where he helped guide the Blue Devils to multiple NCAA Tournament appearances, including a 2022 Final Four.

• At Duke, Smith worked closely with NBA stars such as Zion Williamson, Jayson Tatum, RJ Barrett and Paolo Banchero. In total, 25 players he worked with during his time on Duke's staff advanced to the NBA.

• As a player, Smith helped lead Duke to the 2010 NCAA national championship. He was named the 2011 ACC Player of the Year, ACC Tournament MVP and a consensus first-team All-American.

• Smith averaged 20.6 points per game as a senior, leading the ACC in scoring, and finished his college career with 1,911 points.

• He was selected 21st overall in the 2011 NBA Draft by the Portland Trail Blazers, playing two NBA seasons before continuing his professional career in the NBA G League and overseas.

• Off the court, Smith is known for his activism and community engagement, serving on the board of The Brotherhood, a Durham-based nonprofit supporting mentorship and education for young men of color. He is also an advocate for mental health awareness and racial equity in college athletics.

• The son of the late Derek Smith, a former NBA player and coach, Nolan carries on his father's legacy both on and off the court. He and his wife, Cheyna, have three children: Camryn, Derek "Deuce," and Kai.

NOTES

LAST MEETING: Tennessee won 89-60 on Nov. 20, 2025. Aaron Nkrumah led TSU with 19 points, five assists and three steals. Travis Harper II scored 17, and Antoine Lorick III added 12 off the bench. The Tigers forced 17 turnovers, grabbed 12 offensive rebounds and scored 39 points after halftime. Kavien Jones, the only player on this season's TSU roster who appeared in that game for the Tigers, had two points and three rebounds in 10 minutes.

SMITH AND BARNES HAVE MARCH HISTORY: Nolan Smith faced a Rick Barnes team as a Duke sophomore in the 2009 NCAA Tournament. Smith scored 11 points off the bench, handed out three assists and made all four of his free throws as Duke beat Barnes' Texas team 74-69 in the second round in Greensboro, N.C.

TWO TIGERS HAVE FACED THE VOLS ELSEWHERE: Bradshaw played in both Kentucky-Tennessee games in 2023-24. He grabbed six rebounds, three on the offensive glass, in the Lexington meeting and also appeared in Kentucky's win in Knoxville. Morris scored five points for Texas at Tennessee on Jan. 28, 2023, including a 3-pointer that tied the game at 17 in the first half.

MCCLAIN'S CONNECTIONS TO TAYLOR AND MORRIS: Tennessee assistant Steve McClain has ties to both the TSU bench and backcourt. Vince Taylor was an assistant on McClain's first Wyoming staff in 1998-99, when the Cowboys reached the NIT. More than two decades later, McClain was a special assistant at Texas during Arterio Morris' freshman season in 2022-23. Both were with the Longhorns when Morris scored five points against Tennessee in Knoxville.

LOCKRIDGE PLAYED IN THE SERIES: TSU assistant coach Brandon Lockridge came off the bench for the Tigers in Tennessee's 81-56 win in Knoxville on Nov. 28, 2003. Friday will mark his second straight game in the series as a TSU assistant.

PATTERSON'S KNOXVILLE TIES: Knoxville native Presley Patterson played 1:09 for Rice against Tennessee at Food City Center on Nov. 17, 2025, three days before TSU visited the Vols. Patterson also scored a team-high 15 points in Knoxville Catholic's 2020 state championship win alongside future Vol B.J. Edwards, who scored 14. They beat a Briarcrest Christian team that featured another future Vol, Kennedy Chandler.

HILL WAS ON THE BENCH FOR A NO. 1 UPSET: TSU associate head coach Dalonte Hill was on Kansas State's staff when the 10th-ranked Wildcats beat Rick Barnes' No. 1 Texas team 71-62 on Jan. 18, 2010. Kansas State went 4-2 against Barnes' Longhorns during Hill's five seasons on staff, including a 73-72 win in Austin in 2007.

SMITH AND GRANT MET IN THE ACC: TSU head coach Nolan Smith was a Duke assistant when the Blue Devils beat Boston College 72-61 on Feb. 12, 2022. Earl Grant, now a Tennessee assistant, was in his first season as Boston College's head coach. Paolo Banchero had 16 points and 14 rebounds for Duke.

BY THE NUMBERS — FISK

12: Assists by Ty-Laur Johnson. He had seven by the time he set up Christian Alston's layup that capped TSU's 11-0 run to open the second half.

20: Tennessee State steals, including 13 after halftime. Arterio Morris had all five of his steals in the second half.

31: Assists on 49 made baskets. Johnson and Morris accounted for 21, and Aaron Bradshaw and Presley Patterson added three apiece.

42: Second-half points in the paint. TSU finished with an 80-34 advantage inside and scored more points in the paint than Fisk scored overall.

45: Points off turnovers. TSU also scored 45 fast-break points and got 45 points from its bench.

59.8: Tennessee State's field-goal percentage, its best through three games. The Tigers shot 58.1 percent in the first half and 61.5 percent in the second.

123: Points scored by TSU, four days after it put up 127 against East-West. Kavien Jones took the Tigers over 100 with a putback at the 5:32 mark, and TSU closed the game on a 24-7 run.

BRADSHAW LEADS AT BOTH ENDS: Aaron Bradshaw leads TSU in scoring (14.3), rebounding (6.7) and blocks (3.0). He scored 17 of his 23 points against Fisk before halftime and blocked three shots in the opening half. His nine blocks through three games account for more than a third of TSU's 26.

LINDSEY RETURNS TO KNOXVILLE: Knoxville native Deondrea Lindsey has scored 10, 12 and 16 points in his first three collegiate games. He went 8-of-11 against Fisk and enters Friday at 56.0 percent from the floor. Lindsey began his high school career at Knoxville Catholic, where teammate Presley Patterson also played.

MORRIS PICKS UP THE PRESSURE: Arterio Morris has handed out 18 assists against seven turnovers through three starts. He has eight steals over the last two games, including five in 11:23 of second-half action against Fisk.

JOHNSON CREATES IN TRANSITION: Ty-Laur Johnson has 15 assists over his last two games and leads TSU with 19 on the season. Against Fisk, he assisted on two baskets during the 11-0 run that opened the second half. He also leads the Tigers with nine steals through three games.

ALSTON FINISHES THE BREAK: Christian Alston scored 13 points against Fisk on six field goals, all from inside the arc. His layup gave TSU a 29-point lead less than two minutes into the second half. Alston has six steals through three starts, including two against Fisk.

JAYDEN JONES HELPS ON THE GLASS: Jayden Jones has grabbed at least four rebounds in every game and has 14 through three outings, including 10 on the defensive end. The sophomore is also shooting 65.0 percent from the field on 13-of-20 shooting.

KAVIEN JONES RETURNS TO FOOD CITY CENTER: Kavien Jones is shooting 66.7 percent through three games and has made seven of his last nine shots. He led TSU with eight rebounds against Fisk and scored the putback that took the Tigers past 100. Jones grabbed three rebounds in 10 minutes in last year's visit to Knoxville.

SIMMONS GIVES TSU A SCORING LIFT: Ajayi Simmons has scored 25 points on 8-of-11 shooting in TSU's two wins and has grabbed 14 rebounds in those games. He also has seven offensive boards on the season, tied with Kavien Jones for second on the team.

VIEIRA-TUCK MAKES THE MOST OF HIS MINUTES: Daniel Vieira-Tuck scored all 11 of his points against Fisk in the final 7:56, shooting 4-of-5 and adding two steals and a block. He has made seven of his last 10 shots and all four of his free throws over the last two games.

PATTERSON ADDS PLAYMAKING: Knoxville native Presley Patterson has five assists in TSU's two wins, including three in just over eight minutes against Fisk. He also hit the final 3-pointer against the Bulldogs, giving him four makes from beyond the arc through three games.

BODENHAMER KEEPS POSSESSIONS ALIVE: Maddux Bodenhamer has six assists against one turnover through three games. He added four points, two rebounds, an assist and a steal in under nine minutes against Fisk.

BY THE NUMBERS — EAST-WEST

12: Blocks by Tennessee State. Bradshaw led the way with four, while Jayden Jones and Arterio Morris added two apiece.

21: Consecutive points by TSU after East-West tied the game at 14. Morris capped the run with a basket to make it 35-14 with 6:07 left in the first half.

26: Offensive rebounds for the Tigers, including 10 from Bradshaw. East-West collected 35 total rebounds.

43: Second-chance points for TSU, which outscored East-West 43-15 in that category.

47: Fast-break points for Tennessee State, compared with six for East-West.

63: Points off the bench, nearly half of TSU's 127. Simmons and Maddux Bodenhamer combined for 24.

82: Points in the paint for the Tigers, who scored 34 in the first half and 48 after halftime.

BRADSHAW CREATES EXTRA POSSESSIONS: Aaron Bradshaw grabbed 10 offensive rebounds against East-West, more than any other Tiger had total rebounds. Seven came in the first half. The 7-foot-1 center enters the Fisk game averaging 10.0 points and a team-high 8.0 rebounds.

SIMMONS SCORES 14 IN NINE SECOND-HALF MINUTES: Ajayi Simmons scored all 14 of his points in 9:27 after halftime against East-West. He went 4-of-4 from the field, including a 3-pointer, and 5-of-5 at the line. Simmons also grabbed eight of his nine rebounds in the second half.

JAYDEN JONES STARTS FAST: Jayden Jones has made 10 of 14 shots through two games, good for 71.4 percent. He scored 17 points against East-West after scoring six in the opener, giving him 23 points this season. He totaled seven points in four appearances last season.

LINDSEY PERFECT AT THE LINE: Deondrea Lindsey has made all 10 of his free throws through two games, going 4-of-4 against Murray State and 6-of-6 against East-West. He has scored in double figures in both games and is averaging 11.0 points.

BODENHAMER TAKES CARE OF THE BALL: Maddux Bodenhamer delivered five assists without a turnover in 18:57 off the bench against East-West. He also scored 10 points and made both of his 3-point attempts. Four of his five assists came after halftime.

MORRIS LEADS THE TIGERS IN ASSISTS: Arterio Morris has nine assists through two games, two more than Ty-Laur Johnson. Morris followed a four-assist opener with five assists against East-West, adding 14 points, five rebounds, three steals and two blocks.

ALSTON FILLS THE STAT SHEET: Christian Alston has posted eight points and five rebounds in each game. Against East-West, he doubled his assist total from the opener with four and matched the team lead with three steals.

JOHNSON PRODUCES OFF THE BENCH: Ty-Laur Johnson scored nine points and handed out three assists without a turnover in 13:14 against East-West. He leads TSU at 12.0 points per game and has two steals in each of the first two games.

NOTES

KAVIEN JONES FINISHES INSIDE: Kavien Jones went 4-of-5 from the field for eight points against East-West. He is shooting 63.6 percent through two games and has grabbed five of his nine rebounds on the offensive end.

SHELTON MAKES HIS DEBUT: Freshman Garrett Shelton made a 3-pointer, handed out two assists and recorded a steal in 5:05 in his collegiate debut against East-West.

BY THE NUMBERS — MURRAY STATE

5: Different Tigers made a 3-pointer: Aaron Bradshaw, Christian Alston, Ty-Laur Johnson, Presley Patterson and Kavien Jones.

8: Combined assists from Johnson and Arterio Morris, accounting for 72.7 percent of Tennessee State's 11 assists.

13: Offensive rebounds collected by TSU, including three apiece from Alston and Kavien Jones.

15: Bench points supplied by returning players Jayden Jones, Kavien Jones and Maddux Bodenhamer. The trio accounted for 15 of TSU's 18 bench points.

17: Murray State turnovers forced by the Tigers, producing 15 points.

25: Made free throws for Tennessee State. The Tigers scored 39.1 percent of their points at the line.

JOHNSON PUTS PRESSURE ON THE DEFENSE: Ty-Laur Johnson scored eight of his team-high 15 points at the free-throw line against Murray State, finishing 8-of-10. Johnson accounted for 32 percent of TSU's made free throws while adding four rebounds, four assists and two steals.

EIGHT ASSISTS FROM 300: Johnson enters the home opener with 292 collegiate career assists, eight shy of 300. His four assists against Murray State matched Arterio Morris for the team lead.

JAYDEN'S EXPANDED ROLE: Jayden Jones scored six points and collected four rebounds in 24:09 against Murray State. His six points were one shy of his seven-point total across four appearances last season, while his four rebounds exceeded his previous season total of one.

ALSTON PASSES 100 CAREER REBOUNDS: Christian Alston's team-high five rebounds against Murray State pushed his collegiate career total to 101. Three came on the offensive end, accounting for 60 percent of his rebounding total. Alston also supplied eight points, two assists and a steal in 16:19.

KAVIEN ADDS AN OUTSIDE DIMENSION: Kavien Jones connected on his third career 3-pointer in the opener, finishing 1-of-2 from beyond the arc. Jones made three of his six field-goal attempts for seven points and collected four rebounds, including three offensive boards.

MORRIS SHARES THE PLAYMAKING LOAD: Arterio Morris and Ty-Laur Johnson each recorded four assists against Murray State, combining for eight of the Tigers' 11. Morris also scored six points at the free-throw line and recorded one of TSU's two blocked shots.

LINDSEY MAKES HIS COLLEGIATE DEBUT: Deondrea Lindsey scored 10 points in 29:59 in his first collegiate appearance. Lindsey made all four free throws and contributed a steal and a blocked shot. He was one of two Tigers to reach double figures in the opener.

BRADSHAW GETS THE SEASON STARTED: Aaron Bradshaw scored Tennessee State's first points of the season with a 3-pointer at the 19:00 mark of the first half against Murray State. Bradshaw finished with seven points and four rebounds, with all four boards coming on the defensive end.

SIMMONS FINDS THE GLASS: Ajayi Simmons collected three rebounds in 3:42 off the bench in his TSU debut. Two came on the offensive end, making him one of three Tigers with multiple offensive rebounds against Murray State.

PATTERSON CONTRIBUTES AT BOTH ENDS: Presley Patterson made a 3-pointer and recorded a steal in 13:39 against Murray State. Patterson was one of five Tigers to connect from beyond the arc and one of five to register a steal.

RETURNERS SUPPLY THE BENCH SCORING: Kavien Jones, Jayden Jones and Maddux Bodenhamer combined for 15 points against Murray State, accounting for 83.3 percent of Tennessee State's bench production. Kavien scored seven, Jayden added six and Bodenhamer made both free throws for two points.

THE PRESEASON PICK: Tennessee State enters 2026-27 selected to finish first in the Ohio Valley Conference by three preseason forecasts — the official OVC poll, Blue Ribbon College Basketball Yearbook and Athlon Sports. The Tigers received 13 of 18 first-place votes and 125 points in the league's poll of head coaches and athletics communications directors, finishing 18 points ahead of second-place Southeast Missouri. The expectations follow TSU's sweep of the OVC regular-season and tournament championships in Nolan Smith's first season.

CHAMPIONS ENTER YEAR TWO: Tennessee State enters Nolan Smith's second season after finishing 23-10, sharing the Ohio Valley Conference regular-season championship and winning the OVC Tournament in 2025-26. The Tigers' 23 victories were the most in the program's Division I era. Smith earned OVC Co-Coach of the Year honors after guiding TSU to a 15-5 conference record.

A TITLE GAME FOR THE RECORD BOOK: TSU ended its 32-year OVC Tournament championship drought with a 93-67 victory over Morehead State. The Tigers established championship-game records for points scored and margin of victory. The title joined TSU's 1993 and 1994 tournament championships and sent the Tigers to their third NCAA Division I Tournament.

FAMILIAR FACES, NEW OPPORTUNITIES: Maddux Bodenhamer, Damon Howard Jr., Jayden Jones and Kavien Jones return from last season's roster. Kavien Jones, Howard and Jayden Jones combined for 55 appearances in 2025-26, all in reserve roles. With none of last season's five players who started at least 24 games appearing on the current roster, the Tigers enter the season with opportunities throughout the lineup.

TWO McDONALD'S ALL-AMERICANS: Bradshaw and Arterio Morris give the Tigers two former McDonald's All-Americans. Morris played in 38 games during Texas' 2023 Elite Eight season and scored 25 points on 9-of-11 shooting against Louisiana. He comes to TSU from Bethune-Cookman, where he averaged 11.2 points, 3.8 rebounds and 2.6 assists in 27 games last season. Morris opened that season with 20 points and 10 rebounds at Auburn.

BRADSHAW BRINGS SIZE AND SCORING: At 7-foot-1, Aaron Bradshaw is the tallest player on Tennessee State's roster. He arrives after averaging career highs of 8.6 points and 4.6 rebounds at Memphis, where he started 22 of his 29 appearances and shot 55.6% from the field. Bradshaw showed his range with a career-high 21 points at Florida Atlantic, making all three of his 3-point attempts. His college career also includes stops at Kentucky and Ohio State.

JOHNSON AND SMITH REUNITE: Ty-Laur Johnson reunites with Nolan Smith after playing at Louisville while Smith was an assistant coach in 2023-24. Johnson led the Cardinals in assists and steals that season and recorded 27 points and 11 assists against Florida State. He arrives at TSU following a season at San Diego in which he averaged 14.6 points, 4.3 assists and 2.3 steals. Johnson scored at least 20 points eight times, including a career-high 28 in a win over Washington State.

MARCH EXPERIENCE: Tennessee State's newcomers bring experience from deep NCAA Tournament runs. Arterio Morris played on Texas' 2023 Elite Eight team, while Presley Patterson was a member of Auburn's 2025 Final Four squad. Aaron Bradshaw also saw NCAA Tournament action with Kentucky in 2024, recording three points and three rebounds against Oakland in the first round.

RIVERA HAS DELIVERED LATE: Josh Rivera brings experience making decisive shots. At Fordham in 2024-25, he hit a game-winning 3-pointer with six seconds remaining against Bryant and another game-winning 3 against Duquesne. Rivera averaged 10.7 points and 4.3 rebounds that season before moving to Seton Hall, where he appeared in 30 games in 2025-26. His college career began at Lafayette, where he earned Patriot League All-Rookie honors and helped the Leopards reach the conference tournament championship game.

KAVIEN'S EFFICIENCY: Kavien Jones brings the most 2025-26 game experience among TSU's returning players who recorded statistics last season. The Franklin, Tennessee, native appeared in 30 games and shot 58.7% from the field. Of his 71 rebounds, 30 came on the offensive glass — 42.3% of his total. Jones averaged 2.7 points and 2.4 rebounds in 10.5 minutes per game.

HOWARD'S NEXT STEP: Damon Howard Jr. enters his sophomore season after appearing in 21 games as a freshman. The Indianapolis native recorded 18 assists against seven turnovers, an assist-to-turnover ratio of 2.57. Howard moves from No. 1 to No. 11 this season.

THE FINISH SET THE STANDARD: Tennessee State won eight consecutive games before its NCAA Tournament appearance, closing the regular season with six straight victories before sweeping its two games in Evansville. The Tigers held their final four opponents before the NCAA Tournament to 58.8 points per game, including a 67-42 road win at UT Martin and a 68-55 tournament semifinal victory over the Skyhawks.

KNICKS IN 5 CONNECTION: Aaron Bradshaw and Tennessee State director of player development Sam Serata share a connection to Rick Brunson's Camden High School program. Bradshaw played for Brunson while Serata served as an assistant coach during the Panthers' 2021-22 season. Camden finished 31-3, captured the New Jersey Group 2 state championship and advanced to the NJSIAA Tournament of Champions final. The two reunite at TSU in 2026-27, with Bradshaw joining the Tigers' frontcourt and Serata working in player development.

ALSTON RETURNS TO TENNESSEE: Memphis native Christian Alston returns to his home state after appearing in 51 games over two seasons at Abilene Christian. The 6-foot-7 guard scored more than 1,000 points at Bartlett High School before beginning his college career in Texas. Alston averaged 4.7 points and 1.9 rebounds last season, scoring a career-high 18 points at Utah Valley. He also recorded three steals in games at Arizona and Utah Valley.

LINDSEY'S HOME-STATE OPPORTUNITY: Deondrea Lindsey returns to Tennessee after a season at Iona in which he did not see game action. The Knoxville native began his high school career at Knoxville Catholic before spending two years at Oak Hill Academy in Virginia. A national top-150 prospect, Lindsey helped Knoxville Catholic finish 20-8 as a sophomore. The 6-foot-8 forward joins a TSU roster that also includes fellow Knoxville Catholic product Presley Patterson.

PATTERSON'S CHAMPIONSHIP SHOT: Presley Patterson helped Knoxville Catholic win its first boys basketball state championship in 2020, earning championship-game MVP honors after scoring 15 points on five 3-pointers in seven attempts. He later joined Auburn as a walk-on and appeared in the 2024 SEC Tournament championship game. The Knoxville native arrives at TSU after a season at Rice, bringing college experience in both the SEC and American Athletic Conference.

SIMMONS DOUBLED HIS PRODUCTION: Ajayi Simmons doubled his scoring average between his two seasons at North Idaho College, improving from 5.7 points as a freshman to 11.4 as a sophomore. The 6-foot-8 guard/forward also averaged 6.4 rebounds last season. Across 58 games at North Idaho, Simmons made 64 3-pointers and shot 36.2% from beyond the arc. His sophomore highlights included 25 points on 11-of-13 shooting against Central Arizona and 20 points with nine rebounds against Utah State Eastern.

VIEIRA-TUCK'S INTERNATIONAL ROUTE: Daniel Vieira-Tuck brings a background that includes basketball in Portugal, Overtime Elite and Texas A&M–Texarkana. He represented Portugal at the 2023 FIBA U20 European Championship Division B and later played for Overtime Elite's Diamond Doves. In seven appearances at Texas A&M–Texarkana last season, the 6-foot-5 guard made six starts and averaged 13.4 points, 4.1 rebounds and 1.9 assists. He scored in double figures five times, including 20 points against LSU Shreveport.

STEWART KNOWS THE OPENING HOME OPPONENT: Isaiah Stewart recorded his season-high five points against East-West University last season at Northern Illinois, adding six rebounds and two assists. East-West is also TSU's scheduled opponent for its 2026-27 home opener. Stewart appeared in 13 games for Northern Illinois after a prep career that produced 2,004 points. The 6-foot-6 guard/forward averaged 11.1 points, 4.7 rebounds and 4.0 assists during his time at BigTyme Prep.

SHELTON BRINGS A CHAMPIONSHIP BACKGROUND: Garrett Shelton helped Frisco Heritage win the 2025 Texas Class 5A Division I state championship, the first boys basketball state title in school history. The Tigers' lone freshman led his high school team in assists, steals and deflections during his senior season while averaging 3.7 assists and 1.8 steals. Shelton also made 42 3-pointers and recorded 22 points, nine rebounds and five assists against The Colony.

TENNESSEE ROOTS: Six of the Tigers' 15 players list Tennessee hometowns: Christian Alston, Maddux Bodenhamer, Jayden Jones, Kavien Jones, Deondrea Lindsey and Presley Patterson

BANNERS GO UP AGAINST FISK: Tennessee State will celebrate its 2025-26 championship season by raising its OVC championship and NCAA Tournament banners when the Tigers host Jefferson Street neighbor Fisk at the Gentry Center. TSU captured a share of the OVC regular-season title and its first OVC Tournament championship since 1994, earning its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 32 years.

A TESTED NONCONFERENCE SLATE: Tennessee State's seven Division I nonconference opponents combined for a 137-99 record last season, a .581 winning percentage. Four reached the 20-win mark, and four earned NCAA Tournament or NIT berths. Tennessee and South Florida played in the NCAA Tournament, while Murray State and Oklahoma State participated in the NIT.

BACK-TO-BACK NCAA TOURNAMENT OPPONENTS: The Tigers' November road schedule includes consecutive games against 2026 NCAA Tournament participants Tennessee and South Florida. The Bulls finished 25-9 and captured the American Conference Tournament championship before falling 83-79 to Louisville in the NCAA first round. Tennessee and South Florida each won 25 games last season.

ELITE EIGHT EXPERIENCE ON THE SCHEDULE: Tennessee made the deepest postseason run among TSU's nonconference opponents, reaching the 2026 NCAA Tournament Elite Eight. The Volunteers defeated Miami (Ohio), Virginia and Iowa State before falling to eventual national champion Michigan. Tennessee finished 25-12, giving TSU a November road matchup against a team that won three NCAA Tournament games last season.

ANOTHER 20-WIN OPPONENT IN STILLWATER: Oklahoma State gives TSU its fourth Division I nonconference opponent coming off a 20-win season. The Cowboys finished 20-15 and reached the second round of the NIT before falling to Wichita State. Oklahoma State went 15-6 at home last season.

TIGERS TAKE THE NBA ALL-STAR STAGE: Tennessee State will make its first appearance in the NBA HBCU Classic presented by AT&T when it faces Howard on Saturday, Feb. 20, during NBA All-Star 2027 in Phoenix. Tipoff is scheduled for 1 p.m. Central on ESPN and NBA TV at Hardwood Central inside the Phoenix Convention Center. Howard returns for its second appearance after winning the inaugural Classic in 2022. As part of the event, the NBA and AT&T will jointly contribute $50,000 to each university.

THREE EVENTS, THREE NATIONAL STAGES: Tennessee State's 2026-27 schedule features three regular-season showcase events, up from two in each of the previous two seasons. The Tigers also competed in three events in 1988-89 and 1995-96.

* 2026-27: TSU faces Murray State in the Field of 68 Marathon in Sioux Falls, South Dakota; Grambling State and Florida A&M at the Toyota Chris Paul HBCU Classic in Washington, D.C.; and Howard in the NBA HBCU Classic during NBA All-Star weekend in Phoenix. The three events account for four regular-season games.

* 1995-96: The Tigers finished 2-2 across three events. TSU lost to Iowa State, 75-67, and defeated Texas-Pan American, 74-68, at the Cyclone Classic in Ames, Iowa. The Tigers fell to Mississippi Valley State, 86-70, at the HBCU Classic in Dallas before defeating Southern, 84-79, at a separate HBCU Classic in Memphis.

* 1988-89: TSU played six games across three events. The Tigers lost to Florida A&M, 70-57, and U.S. International, 94-85, at the Ball State Tournament in Muncie, Indiana; Northern Illinois, 75-65, and Morgan State, 81-61, at the John McLendon Classic in Chicago; and Chattanooga, 86-79 in overtime, and UAB, 86-56, at the Coca-Cola Classic in Chattanooga.

SIX HBCU MATCHUPS: Tennessee State will face six HBCU opponents during the 2026-27 regular season, with games in Nashville, Washington, D.C., and Phoenix. The Tigers host Jefferson Street neighbor Fisk, Oakwood and Alabama A&M at the Gentry Center, meet Grambling State and Florida A&M at the Toyota Chris Paul HBCU Classic in Washington, and face Howard in the NBA HBCU Classic during NBA All-Star weekend in Phoenix.

A FEBRUARY NONCONFERENCE SHOWCASE: Tennessee State steps outside OVC play on Feb. 20 to face Howard in the NBA HBCU Classic during NBA All-Star weekend in Phoenix. The Tigers have previously played nonconference games this late in the regular season, hosting Loyola Maryland on Feb. 23, 2013, in BracketBusters. TSU also hosted Arkansas State on March 2, 1985, during its years as an independent.

ONCE ON OPPOSITE BENCHES: Nolan Smith and Vince Taylor were on opposing staffs during the 2019 NCAA Tournament matchup between Duke and UCF. Smith worked on Mike Krzyzewski's Duke staff, while Taylor served as an assistant under Johnny Dawkins at UCF. The Blue Devils edged the Knights, 77-76, to advance to the Sweet 16. Both former Duke players now work together at Tennessee State.

FROM DUKE TO THE NBA: Nolan Smith worked with future NBA standouts Jayson Tatum, Zion Williamson, RJ Barrett and Paolo Banchero during his six seasons on Duke's staff. His time in Durham included the 2022 Final Four, when Banchero helped lead the Blue Devils through Krzyzewski's final season.

GARNETT TO TACKO: Vince Taylor's frontcourt development experience includes working with Kevin Garnett during his two seasons with the Minnesota Timberwolves in 2005-06 and 2006-07. Taylor later mentored Tacko Fall at UCF, helping the 7-foot-6 center earn all-conference recognition during the Knights' breakthrough 2018-19 season.

HILL'S NBA RECRUITING ROOTS: Dalonte Hill helped recruit future NBA players Michael Beasley and Bill Walker to Kansas State. Hill served as associate head coach during their shared 2007-08 season, when Beasley earned Big 12 Player of the Year and national freshman of the year honors. Their arrival helped fuel the Wildcats' return to the NCAA Tournament.

THE HUGGINS CONNECTION: Dalonte Hill and DerMarr Johnson both worked under Bob Huggins before joining Tennessee State. Hill served on Huggins' Kansas State staff in 2006-07, while Johnson played for Huggins at Cincinnati in 1999-2000 and later joined his West Virginia staff in January 2023. Johnson's Cincinnati team finished 29-4 and held the nation's No. 1 ranking for 12 weeks.

COLLEGE TEAMMATES, NBA TEAMMATES: DerMarr Johnson and Kenyon Martin shared the court at Cincinnati in 1999-2000 before becoming top-six selections in the 2000 NBA Draft. Martin went No. 1 overall and Johnson was selected sixth, marking the first time Cincinnati produced two top-10 picks in the same draft. They later reunited with the Denver Nuggets, where Johnson also played alongside Carmelo Anthony and Allen Iverson.

A CHAMPIONSHIP ANNIVERSARY SEASON: The 2026-27 campaign culminates in the 70th anniversary of Tennessee State's first NAIA national championship in 1957. Led by John McLendon, Tennessee A&I became the first historically Black college to win a national collegiate basketball championship. The Tigers followed with titles in 1958 and 1959, establishing the three-year championship run that remains central to the program's identity.

JOHNSON SCORES 15 AS MEN'S BASKETBALL FALLS TO MURRAY STATE IN SEASON OPENER

SIOUX FALLS, S.D. — Ty-Laur Johnson scored 15 points and Deondrea Lindsey added 10, but Tennessee State fell to Murray State 94-64 Monday at the Sanford Pentagon in the Field of 68 Opening Day Marathon.

The Tigers (0-1) trailed by 11 at halftime before Murray State shot 66.7 percent from the field in the second half to pull away.

Johnson added four rebounds, four assists and two steals while going 8-of-10 at the free-throw line. Lindsey made all four of his free throws and recorded a steal and a block in his Tennessee State debut.

Christian Alston finished with eight points and a team-high five rebounds. Aaron Bradshaw and Kavien Jones scored seven points apiece and each collected four rebounds. Jayden Jones added six points and four rebounds off the bench, while Arterio Morris contributed six points and four assists.

Tennessee State finished with 11 assists on 17 field goals but shot 30.9 percent overall and committed 26 turnovers. Murray State converted those turnovers into 26 points and held a 50-22 advantage in points in the paint.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Bradshaw knocked down a 3-pointer for Tennessee State's first basket of the season, giving the Tigers an early 3-2 lead. Johnson later connected from beyond the arc to put TSU ahead 6-5.

The teams were tied at 12 before Murray State used a 10-0 run to build a 22-12 advantage with 11:36 remaining in the first half. Tennessee State made four first-half 3-pointers and shot 42.3 percent from the field, but the Racers carried a 46-35 lead into the break.

Murray State extended its advantage after halftime, making 16 of its 24 second-half field-goal attempts. Tennessee State was limited to six field goals in the period.

Trailing 84-54, the Tigers put together a 6-0 run to cut the deficit to 84-60 with 5:25 remaining. The Racers closed the game by outscoring TSU 10-4.

Roman Domon led Murray State (1-0) with 22 points, while Kaden Magwood added 15 off the bench.

SEVEN TIGERS SCORE IN DOUBLE FIGURES AS MEN'S BASKETBALL BEATS FISK 123-73

NASHVILLE — All five Tennessee State starters scored in double figures as the Tigers defeated Fisk 123-73 in the Battle of Jefferson Street on Monday night at the Gentry Center. The game capped Banner & Ring Night, which honored TSU's 2025-26 OVC championship and NCAA Tournament team before tipoff.

Aaron Bradshaw led seven Tigers in double figures with a game-high 23 points on 10-of-15 shooting and added five blocks. Deondrea Lindsey scored 16 points, Arterio Morris added 15 points, nine assists and five steals, and Christian Alston finished with 13 points. Ty-Laur Johnson recorded a double-double with 11 points and 12 assists to go with six rebounds and five steals.

Tennessee State (2-1) shot 59.8 percent from the field and assisted on 31 of its 49 baskets. The Tigers recorded 20 steals, forced 27 turnovers and converted those takeaways into 45 points while committing just 10 turnovers of their own.

HOW IT HAPPENED

With Tennessee State ahead 12-9, Lindsey started a 14-0 run with a layup at the 15:37 mark. Ajayi Simmons capped the run with a 3-pointer at 12:30 to put the Tigers ahead 26-9. Bradshaw scored 17 points on 8-of-12 shooting and blocked three shots in the first half. The Tigers scored 38 points in the paint before halftime and took a 54-36 lead into the break.

The Tigers opened the second half with 11 unanswered points. Alston finished the run with a layup off Johnson's assist to make it 65-36 with 18:05 remaining. Kavien Jones pushed TSU past 100 with a putback at the 5:32 mark, and Daniel Vieira-Tuck followed with a block, a defensive rebound and a fast-break dunk on the next sequence. Vieira-Tuck scored all 11 of his points in the final 7:56, shooting 4-of-5 from the field and adding two steals. The Tigers scored 69 points after halftime, including 42 in the paint.

GAME NOTES

- Tennessee State never trailed and reached 100 points for the second straight game.
- All five starters scored in double figures, and Simmons and Vieira-Tuck each added 11 points off the bench. TSU's reserves combined for 45 points.
- Johnson and Morris combined for 21 of TSU's 31 assists and 10 of its 20 steals.
- Bradshaw blocked five shots, leading a Tennessee State defense that recorded 12 blocks and held Fisk to 37.1 percent shooting.
- Kavien Jones grabbed a team-high eight rebounds as the Tigers edged Fisk 43-42 on the glass.
- Tennessee State outscored Fisk 80-34 in the paint and 45-14 in fast-break points.
