EDWARDS FAMILY ATHLETICS CENTER

ABOUT THE EDWARDS FAMILY ATHLETICS CENTER

The Edwards Family Athletics Center is a comprehensive academic, strength and conditioning, sports medicine, and team facility. The more than 50,000-square-foot project, designed by Gensler and built by AECOM Hunt, will provide a new hub for Aggie student-athletes. As the exclusive provider of health care services to student-athletes, UC Davis Health will also serve students, faculty, staff and the Davis community from within the building's footprint with a new out-patient sports medicine clinic.

EDWARDS FAMILY ATHLETICS CENTER TIMELINE

November 15, 2018 – The Student-Athlete Performance Center (now Edwards Family Athletics Center) project was announced with initial renderings and press conference.

August 20, 2019 – UC Davis Health announces a naming rights deal with UC Davis Athletics for Aggie Stadium (now UC Davis Health Stadium). The agreement includes UC Davis Health as a tenant in the new Edwards Family Athletics Center, pushing the size of the project to 52,000 square feet.

October 20, 2019 – The Bob Biggs Practice Field is completed as the first component of the project. The all-grass facility was named for Bob Biggs, retired head football coach from 1994-2012, after a group of alumni, friends, and teammates of Bob successfully raised $1M to name the space.

May 5, 2020 – Site prep begins at center construction site, and web-cams are installed for people to follow along with progress.

June 24, 2020 – The Edwards Family Athletics Center officially broke ground at the corner of Hutchison Blvd and La Rue Road. The event was live-streamed online and featured prominent donors to the project.

March 10, 2021 – A major construction milestone (placement of last structural steel beam) was celebrated with a traditional "Topping Out" ceremony.

September 12, 2022 – Aggie student-athletes set foot in the Edwards Family Athletics Center for the first time as the weight room became available for use.

September 24, 2022 – Building officially opens with Grand Opening and Dedication Ceremony prior to UC Davis vs. Weber State Football game.
