OPENING TIP

UC Davis closes its season-opening three-game homestand on Wednesday, Nov. 11, when the Aggies host Incarnate Word (0-3) at the University Credit Union Center (11:11 a.m., MW+). It is the first meeting between the programs, and no current Aggie has played against the Cardinals. UC Davis visits Sacramento State in the Causeway Classic on Saturday, Nov. 14.

LAST TIME OUT

Ben Abosi posted his first career double-double with career highs of 18 points and 10 rebounds in Thursday's 65-52 win over Menlo, UC Davis' first win as a member of the Mountain West. Abosi scored 15 of his points after halftime, and Omer Suljanovic added eight points and 10 rebounds. The Aggies closed the first half on a 5-0 run for a 26-24 lead and pulled away with a 9-0 second-half run that stretched a 46-43 lead to 55-43. UC Davis held Menlo to 29.8 percent shooting (17-for-57), outrebounded the Oaks 47-41 and scored 18 points off 15 Menlo turnovers. Brayden Fagbemi had seven points, seven assists and five rebounds, and Chase Rawlins, Connor Sevilla and Jalen Stokes scored eight points apiece.

CONTINUITY IN THE NEW NORMAL

In a sport where only about 10 percent of Division I programs bring back half of their minutes from one season to the next, UC Davis returns 53 percent of its 2025-26 minutes (3,509 of 6,650), one of 36 Division I teams at 50 percent or more. Six of the seven returners played last season and combined for 1,244 points, nearly half of the Aggies' scoring, and Connor Sevilla and Isaiah Chappell started at least half the games. That carryover, paired with a coaching staff whose top four have worked together since 2016-17, is the foundation the program takes into its first Mountain West season.

SCOUTING INCARNATE WORD

Incarnate Word, a Southland Conference member from San Antonio, is 0-3 after losses at Oklahoma State (91-60), vs. Chicago State (66-54) and at Mountain West member UTEP (79-60) on Sunday. Godswill Erheriene leads the Cardinals in scoring (12.3 points per game) and rebounding (6.3) and is shooting .586 from the field, and Mekhi Connor averages 11.5 points. Incarnate Word ranks 69th nationally in blocks (5.3 per game) and is averaging 18.3 turnovers. Shane Heirman is in his fourth season, and 14 of the Cardinals' 15 players are new to the program (10 transfers and four freshmen); guard Drew Barbee is the lone returner from last season's 12-19 team. Incarnate Word was picked 11th in the Southland preseason poll. Later this month, the Cardinals visit Mountain West members Hawai'i (Nov. 25) and Grand Canyon (Nov. 29).

A DIVISION I-ERA RECORD HOME SLATE

UC Davis plays 17 regular-season home games in 2026-27, the most in the program's Division I era, including eight nonconference home dates. The Aggies went 12-4 on Hamilton Court last season and are 442-228 (.660) at the University Credit Union Center since the building opened in 1977.

GUARD PLAY AND THE DEFENSIVE IDENTITY

UC Davis has forced 31 turnovers in two games (15.5 per game), with 10 steals in each game, and has scored 39 points off turnovers. The Aggies forced 14.9 turnovers per game in 2025-26, 12th nationally, and finished top three in the Big West in free-throw percentage, steals and turnover margin. Connor Sevilla led the league at the line (.903, 12th nationally), and Brayden Fagbemi led the Big West in steals (2.0 per game) and ranked second in assists per game (4.3; 133 total) while starting only three games. Fagbemi leads the Aggies with 12 assists and five steals through two games.

NATIONAL RANKINGS

Through games of Nov. 8, UC Davis ranks 38th nationally in free-throw attempts per game (31.0; fourth in the MW), 63rd in free throws made per game (20.0), 70th in steals per game (10.0; fourth in the MW), 97th in field-goal percentage defense (38.0 percent; fourth in the MW) and 100th in turnovers forced (15.5 per game). Ben Abosi ranks 10th nationally and first in the MW in offensive rebounds per game (5.0) and 88th nationally and second in the MW in rebounds per game (8.5). Brayden Fagbemi ranks 53rd nationally and second in the MW in assists per game (6.0) and 77th nationally and fourth in the MW in steals per game (2.5).

MILESTONE WATCH

Connor Sevilla is 165-for-183 (.902) at the free throw line for his career. The program career record is .871 (Ken Stevenson, 1961-64, minimum 200 attempts); Sevilla needs 17 more attempts to qualify. He has 748 career points (252 from 1,000) and 135 career 3-pointers (65 from 200).

Brayden Fagbemi's 62 steals last season rank sixth on the program's single-season list and third in the Division I era, behind TY Johnson (72, 2024-25) and TJ Shorts II (63, 2017-18); the program record is 93 (Chris Familetti, 1991-92). He has 67 steals in 33 games at UC Davis and 953 career points at three programs, 47 from 1,000.

Jim Les has 384 career wins (230 at UC Davis), 16 from 400. He reached 300 career wins on Nov. 12, 2021, and 200 UC Davis wins on Dec. 7, 2024.

Program firsts: UC Davis earned its first win as a Mountain West member on Nov. 5 vs. Menlo. Still ahead are the first Mountain West win and first Mountain West home win (Jan. 2 vs. Grand Canyon) and the first Mountain West road win (Jan. 9 at New Mexico). A win Wednesday would be No. 443 at the University Credit Union Center.

STAFF CONTINUITY AND ADDITIONS

UC Davis maintains one of the most stable staffs in Division I. Head coach Jim Les, associate head coaches Kevin Nosek and Kyle Vogt and assistant coach Jonathan Metzger-Jones have worked together since 2016-17, the longest-tenured coaching quartet in Division I men's basketball, and Les, Nosek and Vogt have coached together at UC Davis since 2012-13. Nosek is in his 25th year with the program. Mike Kosich is in his second season as assistant coach and chief of staff after roles at San Diego State and South Alabama, and Jay Flores (Chico State '12) joined the staff on Sept. 4 after 10 seasons at Montana that included three NCAA Tournament trips. The program also added Alex Pritchard (video and data analytics, a former Dallas Mavericks intern), Brian Holloway (program operations) and Noah Groom (creative media).

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE AND FAMILY CONNECTIONS

UC Davis features one of the most globally connected rosters in Division I. Eight of the 15 Aggies are international, representing Austria (Nnadalu Noble, Omer Suljanovic), France (Clarence Massamba, Ylan Esso-Essis), Australia (Koby Moir), Germany (Aleks Szymczyk), Greece (Ben Abosi) and Poland (Julian Dabrowski), and Isaiah Chappell played for New Zealand's U18 national team. Athletics run in the family for several Aggies: Suljanovic is the son of longtime professional player and coach Ramiz Suljanovic, and his brother Imran, a St. John's freshman last season, now plays at Mountain West rival New Mexico; Chappell's father, Mike, won an NCAA championship at Michigan State and played professionally in Australia's NBL; Fagbemi's brother Blake plays at Illinois; and Stokes' father, Eric, played football at Northern Michigan.

EXCELLENCE IN THE CLASSROOM

UC Davis men's basketball continues to set the academic standard. The program took home the Lysle Leach Award at the 2026 Aggie Awards after posting a 3.31 cumulative team GPA, the highest of any men's program at UC Davis, and earned the NABC Team Academic Excellence Award for the second consecutive year, an honor given to programs that finish the academic year with a team GPA of 3.0 or higher. Brayden Fagbemi, Niko Rocak and Connor Sevilla landed on the NABC Honors Court, which recognizes junior, senior and graduate players with a cumulative GPA of 3.2 or higher; Fagbemi, Sevilla, Rocak and Nils Cooper earned College Sports Communicators Academic All-District honors, Sevilla made the Big West All-Academic Team and 11 Aggies were named to the Big West Commissioner's Honor Roll. The roster's declared majors span psychology, human development, communication, economics, managerial economics and sociology (organizational studies), with Julian Margrave and Aleks Szymczyk in the Master of Management program.

TEAM IMPACT: WELCOME, ANDREW

The Aggies welcomed their newest teammate this year: Andrew Drazil, an 11-year-old from Elk Grove who joined the program through Team IMPACT, the national nonprofit that matches children facing serious illness with college teams. Andrew loves pizza, Fortnite, basketball and singing and performing in theater, and he is part of the Aggie family at practices and games all season. Andrew signed with the team this fall.

WHERE THEY WENT

Niko Rocak, who finished his career tied for the program record with 154 blocks, graduated and represented Switzerland's senior national team at FIBA World Cup qualifiers this summer. Marcus Wilson transferred to Sacramento State, the Aggies' Causeway Classic opponent on Nov. 14; Nils Cooper transferred to UC Irvine; and Carl Daughtery Jr. graduated and is playing another season at Kansas City.

FROM PAST TO PRESENT TO FUTURE

UC Davis' conference affiliations: Mountain West (2026-present), Big West (2007-26), Division I independent (2004-07), California Collegiate Athletic Association (1998-2004), Northern California Athletic Conference (1982-98) and Far Western Conference (1925-82). The Aggies are in their 117th year of basketball.

PROGRAM LEGACY AND SUCCESS

UC Davis men's basketball has built a lasting tradition of success across eras. The Aggies captured the 1998 NCAA Division II national championship, made 12 NCAA regional appearances and have since risen to become a consistent Division I contender. UC Davis has won two Big West regular-season titles (2015, 2018), a Big West Tournament championship (2017) and earned NCAA Tournament (2017) and NIT appearances (2015, 2018). The 2014-15 squad set the Division I program record with 25 victories, while the 2017 team delivered UC Davis' first Division I NCAA Tournament win by defeating North Carolina Central in the First Four. Signature wins include Utah State, California, Oregon State, Washington State and Grand Canyon, a 75-68 road victory that snapped the Lopes' 18-game home winning streak.

Professional success stories include TJ Shorts II (2023 Basketball Champions League MVP and 2024 EuroCup MVP), Chima Moneke (2022 Basketball Champions League MVP and a former Sacramento King), Elijah Pepper (Perth Wildcats, NBL), Brynton Lemar, Ezra Manjon, A.J. John, TY Johnson, a 2025 First Team All-Big West pick who signed a summer league contract with the Los Angeles Lakers, and Niko Rocak, who went from the 2026 Aggies to Switzerland's senior national team. Beyond the court, notable Aggie alumni include Corey Hawkins (assistant coach and senior director of player development, UCF), Joe Harden (founder, Salty Goats Winery), Mark Payne (vice president, Morgan Stanley), Ryan Howley (vice president, Bessemer Trust) and entrepreneurs Ryan Sypkens and Justin Dueck. UC Davis basketball has proven itself as a program built to win, graduate and prepare players for success in every stage of life.

Since Jim Les became the 23rd head coach in UC Davis' history on May 5, 2011, the Aggies posted their best records as a Division I program, won every game played on Hamilton Court twice within a three-year time span, captured their first Big West Conference championship, Big West Tournament championship, and in 2017 earned the program's first NCAA Division I Tournament berth. Les enters his 16th season at the helm of the Aggies in 2026-27, a period during which the program has experienced unprecedented stability, and will lead UC Davis into its first season as a member of the Mountain West Conference. Les, associate head coaches Kevin Nosek and Kyle Vogt and assistant coach Jonathan Metzger-Jones enter their 11th season together while Les, Nosek and Vogt have coached together at UC Davis since the 2012-13 season. Les achieved his 300th career win on Nov. 12, 2021, in an 84-76 home win over Eastern Washington and enters 2026-27 with 383 career victories (229 at UC Davis).

In 2025-26, Les guided UC Davis to a 19-14 record and an 11-9 mark in the program's final Big West campaign, including a 12-4 record at University Credit Union Center. The Aggies added a 79-73 victory over UC Santa Barbara in the Big West Championship First Round, a road win at Mountain West rival Nevada, and a home win over eventual No. 1 seed UC Irvine. Three Aggies (Marcus Wilson, Niko Rocak and Connor Sevilla) earned All-Big West honorable mention recognition, with Wilson adding a Big West Player of the Week award in February and Rocak closing his career tied for the program's all-time blocks record with 154. In the classroom, the program captured the NABC Team Academic Excellence Award for the second consecutive year, with Brayden Fagbemi, Rocak and Sevilla each named to the NABC Honors Court and 11 Aggies in all earning spots on the Big West Commissioner's Honor Roll.

Les' program has become known for its defensive discipline and efficiency. The Aggies have consistently ranked among national leaders in free-throw percentage and turnovers forced, while also maintaining one of the best home-court advantages on the West Coast. Between 2015 and 2019, no mainland Division I team collected more home wins than UC Davis.

A proven winner and teacher, Les owns over three decades of coaching and playing experience. Before arriving in Davis, he guided Bradley University to the 2006 NCAA Sweet 16 and multiple postseason appearances. As a player, he spent seven seasons in the NBA and led the league in 3-point percentage (.461) in 1990-91.
