MEET THE COACHING STAFF

NICOLE WOODS
HEAD COACH
FOURTH SEASON
GASTONIA, N.C.
BELMONT ABBEY '06

Nicole Woods, an experienced collegiate coach and tireless recruiter, was named the 12th head coach in UNCW women's basketball history by Director of Athletics Michael Oblinger on April 13, 2023.

Woods, a native of Gastonia, North Carolina, begins her fourth season at the helm for UNCW in 2026-27. Most recently, Woods spent 10 years on the coaching staff at Charlotte. Woods was an associate coach with the 49ers under Cara Consuegra (currently the head coach at Marquette).

In her second season at UNCW, Woods revitalized the program during the 2024-25 campaign. The Seahawks won 14 games, improving their win total from 2023-24 by nine to reach the second round of the Coastal Athletic Association tournament. Woods also navigated the Seahawks to a perfect 4-0 record in overtime games and is 5-0 all-time in overtime as a head coach.

UNCW won eight conference games during the 2024-25 season, matching the previous total from the past four seasons combined, including a 65-57 win against Stony Brook, the defending regular season champions, and a 67-61 victory in the CAA opener against Campbell, the runner-up at the 2025 CAA Tournament.

Woods led the program's resurgence, showcasing her strong ability to recruit and build relationships with student-athletes. She recruited the CAA's 2023-24 Sixth Player of the Year, Jania Hall, who reached the 1,000-point milestone as a graduate student on Feb. 23, 2025 at Towson, and four-star recruit Ali Zelaya (North Carolina), among others. Woods also recruited Tia Dobson, who led all freshmen in the CAA with 65 assists.

In 2024-25, Woods guided Zelaya to three major CAA accolades. Zelaya was the second player in the program's 40-year history in the conference to be named the CAA Defensive Player of the Year, and the first in 22 years. Zelaya was also the program's first CAA first-team selection in a decade and the 10th overall in team history. She was just the eighth player in team history selected to the league's all-defensive team.

Zelaya became the second player in program history to be named USBWA Ann Meyers Drysdale National Player of the Week following two dominant double-double performances in wins against Hofstra on Jan. 31 and Stony Brook on Feb. 2.

Under Woods' leadership, Zelaya broke the program's 25-year single-season blocks record in 2024-25 with 81 rejections, finishing eighth all-time in program history in 32 games as a Seahawk.

Zelaya was seventh in the nation in blocks (81), ninth in blocks per game (2.53), 13th in defensive rebounds per game (7.6), 37th in rebounds (295), 45th in double-doubles (11) and 51st in rebounds (9.2), leading the CAA in each category at the end of UNCW's season.

Evan Miller rewrote the UNCW record book, finishing the last two seasons of her career with Woods. Miller broke the 14-year program record for career games played on Feb. 7, at Delaware and finished her career with 136 games played. Miller ended her career fourth in career minutes played (3,378), fifth in career 3-point attempts (413), seventh all-time in career 3-pointers made (124) and 10th in career field goal attempts (993).

Miller also became the first Seahawk under Woods to sign a professional contract, inking a deal with A.D. Sanjoanense in São Joao, Portugal in June 2025.

With Woods leading the way, the Seahawks made significant leaps in multiple statistical categories. Woods' efforts in uniting the Wilmington community paid off as UNCW jumped from 11th to fourth in home attendance, with an extra 2,000+ fans entering Trask Coliseum during the 2024-25 season, including the highest attended conference game for the program in the last five seasons. The program also finished the spring semester with a 3.825 GPA, the highest for any team on campus.

The Seahawks' academic success during the 2024-25 academic year paid off as the team earned the 2024-25 CAA Team Academic Excellence Award with a 3.764 GPA.

AT CHARLOTTE

Woods was the recruiting coordinator for the 49ers over the last six seasons and helped Charlotte pile up four WNIT berths (2014, 2016, 2019, 2021) and one NCAA Tournament appearance. The 49ers captured the 2022 Conference USA Championship.

Charlotte racked up five winning seasons and four 20-win campaigns in the Queen City with Woods on the staff. The 49ers recorded a C-USA winning percentage of .500 or better in nine straight seasons from 2013-22, capped by a 15-3 conference mark in the 2022 championship season.

Woods primarily worked with Charlotte's backcourt, helping numerous players run the team's high-octane offense while contributing on the defensive end. She mentored several All-Conference performers, including Syracuse transfer Jade Phillips, a 2020 C-USA first-team and C-USA All-Defensive selection who averaged 14.1 points and 8.7 rebounds per game over two seasons.

in addition to Phillips, Woods headed up the recruiting efforts for three-time All-Conference selections Jada McMillan and Octavia Jett-Wilson. McMillan started 117 games and collected 120 steals. Jett-Wilson was the 2022 C-USA Player of the Year and is Charlotte's all-time leader in games played (143), games started (123) and minutes played (4,157). She ranks second in free throws made (490) and third on the school's all-time scoring list (1,812).

Woods' recruiting acumen has extended from the state of North Carolina to the national level. The 49ers featured their first all-North Carolina freshman class in 2018-19, and Charlotte has added several Power Five transfers in recent years.

AT STETSON

Woods worked as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Stetson (2011-13) after beginning her coaching career as a graduate assistant at SIU Carbondale (2009-11). At Stetson, Woods played a key role when the Hatters and coach Lynn Bria cranked out a school record 23 victories and the program's first WNIT berth in 2012. Woods and the Hatters captured the 2013 Atlantic Sun Championship, earning an first-round matchup vs. UCLA, the No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Woods arrived at Stetson following two years as a graduate assistant coach at SIU Carbondale, where she worked under Missy Tiber, who coached Woods during her playing days at Belmont Abbey. Woods was responsible for team travel, video exchange, gameday operations, and oversaw the team managers. Woods assisted with film breakdown, scouting, and community relations, graduating in 2011 with a master's degree in public administration.

Woods recruited Stetson's all-time leading scorer, Brianti Saunders, who scored 1,975 points for the Hatters. Saunders joined Victoria McGowan, Jama Sharp, and Sasha Sims as former players for Woods who made the ASUN Conference's All-Decade Team. McGowan was inducted into the ASUN Hall of Fame in 2025.

Saunders ranks fourth all-time in ASUN history for career points and earned three all-conference and nine player of the week selections.

McGowan was named 2012 ASUN Player of the Year and earned tournament MVP honors in 2011 after helping Stetson capture the ASUN title. McGowan is being inducted into the ASUN Hall of Fame in 2025.

Sharp racked up two first-team All-ASUN selections during her career in DeLand. Sims earned postseason honors each year in Deland, being named to the all-conference team from 2012-14 and to the ASUN All-Freshman Team in 2011.

COLLEGIATE/PROFESSIONAL PLAYING CAREER

Woods played four seasons at Belmont Abbey (2002-06), where she blossomed into an NCAA Division II Bulletin Second-Team All-American, averaging 24.1 ppg, less than .01 ppg behind the national leader. Woods was also selected Carolina-Virginia Athletic Conference (now Conference Carolinas) Player of the Year after averaging 7.7 rebounds and 3.3 assists during her senior campaign.

Woods earned degrees in Accounting and Business Management at Belmont-Abbey and graduated in 2006 as the school's fourth all-time leading scorer with 1,641 points. Her 676 points scored in 2005-06 remain a school record for a single season.

Woods was inducted into the Gaston Sports Hall of Fame in 2022 and played professionally in England for the Nottingham Wildcats in 2007-08, leading the team in assists and ranking second in scoring.

CHERIE LEA
ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
BLANCH, N.C.
UNCW '04

Cherie Lea, a UNCW Athletics Hall of Famer who spearheaded a resurgence in UNCW women's basketball in the early 2000s, will begin her fourth season at her alma mater in 2026-27 as the associate head coach under head coach Nicole Woods.

Lea became Woods' top lieutenant in 2023-24 after serving in the same capacity at Duquesne for the 2022-23 season. The 2004 UNCW graduate spent eight seasons on the Duquesne staff under Dan Burt, a former Seahawk assistant from 2001-04.

As UNCW's defensive coordinator, Lea was instrumental in developing graduate transfer for ward Ali Zelaya during the 2024-25 season. Zelaya became the Seahawks' first All-CAA First-Team selection in 10 seasons and the 10th player in program history to achieve the feat. Zelaya joined Lea's former teammate, Rachael Friesen-Norwood, as the second player in program history to be named CAA Defensive Player of the Year. Zelaya became the first UNCW forward to win the award and was the eighth player in program history to be named to the CAA All-Defensive Team. Zelaya also broke the program's 25-year single-season blocks record with 81 blocks, the seventh-most in the NCAA. She also ranked eighth in the nation with 2.53 blocks per game.

She also coached her sixth career 1,000-point scorer as Jania Hall reached the feat in a 72-63 win for the Seahawks at Towson on Feb. 23, 2025. In her first season at UNCW in 2023-24, Lea played a key role in helping Taylor Henderson land a spot on the CAA All-Rookie Team.

Lea began her coaching career as the director of basketball operations for Duquesne in 2013. She was named an assistant coach in 2016 and was elevated to associate head coach for the 2022-23 season. With Lea in Pittsburgh, the Dukes compiled a 137-102 record, including 69 Atlantic-10 Conference wins.

Duquesne secured three WNIT berths (2014, 2017, 2018) with Lea on the staff and advanced to the Sweet 16 of the Women's Basketball National Invitational Tournament in 2018. The 2019-20 Dukes were also a projected WNIT squad before the cancellation of the postseason tournament.

She helped develop standout guard Megan McConnell for three seasons. McConnell is the Dukes' all-time leader in assists and steals and ranks second in scoring. McConnell was recently named the 2025 Atlantic 10 Defensive Player of the Year. At Duquesne, Lea also guided Kadri-Ann Lass to a spot on the Atlantic 10's All-Defensive Team in 2018 and 2019. During the 2017-18 campaign, Lass led the league with 97 blocks and finished ninth in the nation. She also broke the program's previous record of 76.

Before turning to coaching, Lea dominated on the hardwood. A transfer from North Carolina, Lea joined the Seahawks for the 2002-03 women's basketball season and made an immediate impact with the team. The point guard powered the Seahawks to a 37-19 record over two seasons, earning first-team All-CAA and team MVP recognition both years.

The Blanch, North Carolina product scored 884 points (14.7 PPG), grabbed 301 rebounds (5.4 RPG), and dished out 165 assists (2.9 APG) in 56 appearances for the Seahawks. She started 55 of those contests and is the only two-time first-team All-CAA pick in UNCW women's hoops history. She was honored as a Colonial Athletic Association legend in 2005.

Lea also excelled in the classroom. She was a two-time selection to the CAA's All-Academic Team and was tabbed as the CAA's Women's Basket ball Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2003-04. Following her senior year, Lea was named the recipient of the prestigious Dean Ehlers Award from the CAA.

Lea earned her Bachelor of Science Degree in Mathematics from UNCW in 2004. Lea became the sixth women's basketball member of the UNCW Athletics Hall of Fame when she was inducted on Feb. 25, 2023.

Following graduation, Lea enjoyed an outstanding professional career overseas. She played in Luxembourg and Holland, where she was the two-time MVP of the Dutch League and a participant in four All-Star Games. Lea won a pair of Dutch titles during her time in The Netherlands.

JAMA SHARP

JAMA SHARP
ASSISTANT COACH
FIRST SEASON
MOORSEVILLE, IND.
STETSON '15

Jama Sharp enters her first season with the UNCW women's basketball staff in 2026-27. Sharp arrives in Wilmington after serving as the head coach at the University of Indianapolis for the past two seasons. Before that ,she spent five seasons on the coaching staff at her alma mater, Stetson University.

A native of Moorseville, Indiana, Sharp has built a reputation as an energetic recruiter, player-development coach, and relationship-driven leader with experience across multiple Power Five programs and championship-level mid-major basketball.

During her time at Stetson, Sharp helped guide the Hatters to multiple postseason appearances while playing a major role in recruiting, guard development, scouting, and offensive and defensive strategy. She was recognized as the program's Assistant Coach of the Year in 2022 and earned her MBA from the university during her tenure.

Before returning to Stetson, Sharp gained valuable experience at several nationally recognized programs, including the University of Virginia, University of Texas, and University of Florida, where she worked in scouting, video coordination, recruiting operations, and player development roles.

As a student-athlete at Stetson, Sharp was a three-time team captain, two-time Atlantic Sun All-Conference selection, and the university's 2015 Female Athlete of the Year. She finished her career with more than 1,200 points while ranking among the program's all-time leaders in assists and steals. Sharp was named to the A-Sun All-Decade Team in 2020 and inducted into the Stetson Athletics Hall of Fame and the Mooresville High School Hall of Fame in 2022.

LA'KARIS SALTER
ASSISTANT COACH/RECRUTING COORD.
TALLAHASSE, FLA.
OLE MISS '19

La'Karis Salter enters her first season with the Seahawks in 2026-27, after most recently serving as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Missouri-Kansas City. She also has coaching experience at the Unviersiyt of Nebraska Omaha, Ferris State University and the University of Olivet.

During her time at UMKC, Salter coached Elauni Bennett to All-Summit League Second Team honors after she averaged 12.7 points and seven rebounds per game. Bennett shot 58.1% from the field, which ranked third in the Summit League and 18th nationally, while her four offensive rebounds per game ranked seventh in the country.

At Nebraska Omaha, Salter helped develop Aaliya Moore into a 2025 Summit League All-Newcomer Team selection. Moore set the program's single-game rebounding record with 19 rebounds and recorded four double-doubles during the season.

Prior to Nebraska Omaha, Salter spent time at Ferris State, where she helped guide the Bulldogs to a 26-6 record and an NCAA Division II semifinal appearance. The team earned a No. 3 ranking in the final national poll while making the first Elite Eight appearance and second Sweet Sixteen appearance in program history.

While at Ferris State, Salter helped develop Kadyn Blanchard into a 1,000-point scorer and Ferris State's all-time leading scorer. Blanchard earned All-GLIAC First Team and NCAA All-Region First Team honors, as well as the GLIAC Academic Excellence Award in 2022-23.

At Olivet, Salter created the program's first Comet Club and launched elite and youth camps. She also helped raise more than $10,000 to support program equipment and other needs. Salter coached Rachel Swartz to the program's single-season blocks record in 2022.

Before beginning her coaching career, Salter was a highly regarded high school prospect in Tallahassee, Florida. She was ranked No. 89 nationally by ESPN and HoopGurlz and attended FAMU D.R.S., where she helped lead the program to back-to-back state championships in 2012 and 2013. Salter was a three-time Big Bend Player of the Year, a two-time 2A Dairy Farmers Player of the Year and a McDonald's All-American nominee.Salter went on to compete at three NCAA Division I institutions, playing at Mississippi State, Jacksonville University and Ole Miss.

JAKE SEIDEL

JAKE SEIDEL
DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPS.
THIRD SEASON
ROCK FALLS, ILL.
WICHITA STATE '19

Jake Seidel enters his third season with the UNCW women's basketball program in 2026-27. He joined the staff as special assistant to the head coach in November 2024 and was promoted to director of operations following the 2025-26 season.

In his first season as the program assistant at UNCW, Seidel worked extensively with the 2025 CAA Defensive Player of the Year and first-team selection Ali Zelaya. He also helped guide Evan Miller, who became the program's all-time leader in games played and signed a professional contract with A.D. Sanjoanense in Portugal after the season.

Seidel also worked with Kate Hollifield, who led the CAA shooting 43.5% from 3-point range in conference games during the 2024-25 season. He also coached Tia Dobson, who led all freshmen in the CAA during the 2024-25 campaign with 65 assists.

Seidel spent the 2023-24 season with the Lady Colonials at Robert Morris University in Moon Township, Pennsylvania. At Robert Morris, Seidel was an assistant coach with his primary duties including breakdown of practice and game film, coordinating team travel and logistics, producing scouting reports, and player development.

Before joining Robert Morris, Seidel was the director of basketball operations for the boys' national team at Sunrise Christian Academy in Bel Aire, Kansas. He was responsible for coordinating team travel and logistics, camp operations, game operations, marketing operations, and coordinating social media. During his tenure, he was a part of the 26-2 top-ranked team in the nation that ended the year as NIBC Champions and made two GEICO Nationals appearances.

Throughout two seasons at Sunrise, Seidel was also a part of the staff that developed three McDonald's All-Americans, 14 Division I signees, a Gatorade National Player of the Year and three NBA players: Matas Buzelis (Chicago Bulls), Gradey Dick (Toronto Raptors) and Bobi Klintman (Detroit Pistons).

Seidel served as a student assistant at Wichita State University in Wichita, Kansas, for the men's basketball team under head coach Gregg Marshall. During his tenure, Wichita State reached third in the national rankings, made appearances in the NCAA Tournament and reached the NIT Final Four. Wichita State produced 13 professional players, including two current NBA Players, Dexter Dennis (Dallas Mavericks) and Austin Reaves (Los Angeles Lakers), plus Landry Shamet, a 2018 NBA first-round draft pick.

He began his coaching career as a student assistant at Sauk Valley Community College in Dixon, Illinois. He was responsible for assisting in practice and was the video coordinator for the men's and women's games. Seidel was a part of the men's NJCAA Region IV championship team in 2016 and the women's NJCAA Region IV championship team in 2017.

Seidel has also gained professional experience with the Orlando Magic and the New York Knicks in Las Vegas, Nevada during the NBA Summer League. As a team assistant, Seidel was responsible for assisting in team drills in practice and attending to bench needs during games. Seidel remains active in the basketball community, as he has previously volunteered at USA Basketball events, Under Armour (UAA) events, and The Basketball Tournament (TBT), along with running a 3-on-3 basketball league during his time in Wichita.

A native of Rock Falls, Illinois, Seidel earned a bachelor's degree in Sport Management in 2019 and a master's degree in education in 2020 from Wichita State University.

OCTAVIA JETT-WILSON
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL
GREENBELT, MD.
UNC CHARLOTTE '22

Octavia Jett-Wilson joined the UNCW women's basketball staff as director of player personnel ahead of the 2026-27 season.

Jett-Wilson arrived in Wilmington following a decorated collegiate and professional playing career. She played five seasons at Charlotte from 2017-22, finishing as the program's all-time leader in games played (143), games started (123) and minutes played (4,157). She also ranks second in program history in free throws made (490) and third in career scoring with 1,812 points.

During her collegiate career, Jett-Wilson earned All-Conference USA First Team honors twice (2020-21, 2021-22) and was named the conference's Player of the Year in 2021-22. She also earned Conference USA Tournament MVP honors after leading the 49ers to the tournament championship and an NCAA Tournament appearance. That season, she started all 32 games and averaged 19.1 points per game, totaling 610 points, 148 rebounds, 49 assists, 37 steals and 15 blocks. She earned three Conference USA Player of the Week selections and was named to the NCAA Starting Five.

Jett-Wilson also enjoyed a standout 2020-21 campaign, earning ESPN.com National Player of the Week honors and a spot on the All-Conference USA First Team. She recorded a career-high 42 points twice during the season, against Old Dominion and Florida Atlantic, setting a Halton Arena scoring record against the Owls. She also became the 25th player in Charlotte history to reach 1,000 career points.

As a freshman in 2017-18, Jett-Wilson was named to the Conference USA All-Freshman Team and earned three Conference USA Freshman of the Week selections. She started 28 of 30 games and scored a season-high 21 points against Rutgers. She followed that performance with an All-Christmas City Classic Team selection as a sophomore in 2018-19.

Following her collegiate career, Jett-Wilson continued playing professionally overseas, competing for PAOK in Greece's A1 Division and FCL Feytiat Basket 87 in France's LF2. She averaged 16.0 points per game with PAOK during the 2022-23 season. Most recently, she helped lead the Baltimore Lady Wolves to the WABA National Championship and earned 2025 WABA Finals MVP honors after recording a championship-game record 55 points, 13 rebounds and three steals.

Before beginning her collegiate career, Jett-Wilson helped lead her high school team to a state championship as both a freshman and sophomore. She earned Washington Post All-Met First Team honors as a junior and senior and was named to the 2017 American Family Insurance All-USA Maryland Second Team. She also competed in the 2017 Maryland vs. Pennsylvania All-Star Game and was nominated for the McDonald's All-American Game.

Jett-Wilson earned her undergraduate degree in psychology and sociology in May 2021. She was born May 26, 1999, and is the daughter of Bernice and the late Gloria Jett-Wilson.
