SCOUTING THE WILDCATS

- Villanova is coming off a 2025 campaign that ended in the FCS semifinals after going 12-3 and winning seven straight conference games during the program's final season in the CAA.
- Villanova was selected to finish atop the now-10-team Patriot League, earning 79 total points and seven of the first place votes. VU is picked just ahead of Lehigh, who the Wildcats toppled in the playoffs' second round last year, while former CAA rivals Richmond and William & Mary tied for third place.

• A quintet of Wildcats was selected to the Preseason All-Patriot League Football Team while Villanova was named the conference frontrunner for their first campaign as associate members of the league. Junior Ja'briel Mace was chosen as both an RB and RS, joined on the offense by junior OL Chris McCullers and sophomore WR Braden Reed. Sophomore LB Omari Bursey and senior DL Capri Martin.

• Pat McQuaide, a grad transfer from Nicholls State, has completed 60.4% of his passes, totaling 877 yards and five TDs through five games. McQuaide is averaging 219.3 passing yards per game and has thrown just two interceptions. He enters the Morgan State matchup following a 12-of-23, 192-yard, 2 TD performance against Colgate.

• Sophomore WRs Braden Reed and Brandon Binkowski have been reliable targets so far this season. The pair has combined for 42 catches thru the first five games. Reed has 24 catches for 288 yards, including three TDs, and Binkowski has 18 receptions for 259 yards and a TD.

• RB/KR Ja'briel Mace, who was already selected as a Stats Perform First Team Preseason All-American as well as a Walter Payton Award Preseason Watch List member. Last season Mace ranked fifth nationally with 1,882 all-purpose yards, leading VU in rushing at 946 yards and becoming the second player in Villanova history to average more than 30 yards on kickoff returns for a full season. He ranked second in the FCS in kickoff returns, becoming the first player in the country last year to return two kickoffs for touchdowns.

• Sophomore LB Omari Bursey has emerged as one of the top defensive players in the FCS this season. He leads the Wildcats with 54 tackles (33 solo), 5.5 tackles for loss, a sack, and a forced fumble. Junior LB Christian Caballero has added 30 stops and 3.5 tackles for loss.

Villanova QB Pat McQuaide

LAST TIME vs. VILLANOVA

- Oct. 25, 2014 -- Morgan State's game against No. 4 Villanova was expected to be a measuring stick for the Bears program. And for the first 30 minutes, Lee Hull's team was more than up for the task in front of Villanova's Homecoming Weekend crowd of 7,821.

- However, the second half proved to be the Bears' undoing as the Wildcats exploded for 27 unanswered points coming out of halftime to pull away from the Bears 48-28.

- Redshirt-junior quarterback Moses Skillon started as the Bears signal-caller for the first time this season. In fact, his first career start came around the same time last year, when he started at Howard's homecoming on Oct. 27th, 2013. Skillon completed 23-of-38 passes for 204 yards, including a 33-yard TD pass to Thomas Martin that tied the game at 7-7. Skillon also led the Bears ground attack with 77 yards and scored a pair of touchdowns.

FORMER BEARS ON COACHING STAFF

Two of Damon Wilson's coaching staff are former Morgan players and coaches.

• Harold 'Sport' Benton - was a fixture in Morgan athletics. The veteran coach served 19 years at Morgan State in a pair of capacities, including 13 as the special teams coordinator/tight ends coach. He also served six years as the linebackers coach for Morgan beginning in 1998.

• Melvin Coleman - was named Black College All-American in 2000 and earned his Bachelor of Science degree in 2001.

BEARS NAME TEAM CAPTAINS

Morgan State head coach Damon Wilson has announced that four veteran student-athletes have been selected to serve as team captains for the 2026 Bears football season. Quarterback Cameron Edge, linebacker Arturo Mattocks, defensive back Aki Harvey, and running back Randall Nauden will lead the program both on and off the field.

Coach Wilson shared his thoughts on the group's leadership and impact within the program.

"The coaches and I had conversations about who should serve as captains, and for the most part, there was a strong consensus. A few other names came up as well, which is a positive sign—we know we have several leaders on this team, even if they don't carry the official title of captain. However, these four have been with the program; they embody the qualities you want in leaders, and I'm excited to have these four student-athletes lead our program this 2026 season.

NOTE THE WILSON QUOTE

"He's a seasoned veteran. He's a guy that finds the open receiver. He has a couple of safety blankets, but he also has two good running backs that can balance it off. So, you have to be in balanced defense against their attack, and you have to account for him in all phases of the game."

MEDIA AVAILABILITY

Damon Wilson will be available to the media via the MEAC's weekly teleconference every Tuesday beginning at 10:03 a.m. (EST). To gather more information on the availability of coach Wilson or student-athletes please notify the Office of Media Relations of your intent, please call (443) 885-3831.

THE SHARPEST EDGE

Cameron Edge (6-2, 230) brings experience, athleticism and veteran leadership to the Bears' quarterback room as Morgan State prepares for the 2026 season.

- The 6-foot-2, 230-pound quarterback joined Morgan State through the transfer portal after spending the 2025 season at Eastern Michigan. The Clayton, Del., native began his collegiate career at Maryland.
- Edge impressed Morgan State coaches during spring practice with his poise, decision-making and command of the offense, quickly establishing himself as a veteran presence under center.
- Edge's experience and ability to make plays inside and outside the pocket give the Bears added versatility and another dimension in the passing game.
- Edge was a four-star recruit coming out of Smyrna High School in Delaware, according to ESPN. As a junior in 2021, he passed for 2,990 yards and 27 touchdowns, earning Delaware 3A Offensive Player of the Year honors.
- Following his standout prep career, Edge drew scholarship interest from several major programs, including Penn State, LSU, Michigan State, Tennessee and Oregon. He reclassified to graduate early and enrolled at Maryland in 2022.
- Although his playing time was limited during his three seasons at Maryland, Edge made a memorable appearance in the 2023 Music City Bowl, throwing his first collegiate touchdown in Maryland's 31-13 victory over Auburn.
- With a strong spring under his belt and experience at multiple levels of college football, Edge enters the season with the opportunity to provide the Bears with stability, playmaking ability and leadership at quarterback.

JET PERRY

Justin Perry is ready to take flight as one of the Bears' top young offensive playmakers in 2026.

- The 6-foot, 200-pound sophomore WR from Amelia, Va., emerged as a reliable target in Morgan State's passing attack while displaying the ability to make explosive plays downfield.
- Perry surpassed 100 receiving yards at Georgetown, earning MEAC Rookie of the Week honors. He followed that performance with a game-high 76 receiving yards in MSU's Homecoming rout of Virginia-Lynchburg.
- Perry finished the 2025 season with 25 receptions for 464 yards and five touchdowns, ranking eighth in the MEAC in receiving yards.
- His 18.6 yards per catch ranked No. 24 nationally among FCS players, highlighting his big-play potential and ability to stretch opposing defenses.
- With his experience and proven explosiveness, Perry enters his sophomore season positioned for an even larger role in the Bears' offense and could emerge as one of Morgan State's premier playmakers.

THE NAUTILUS

Running back Randall Nauden is a key piece in the Bears' ground game.

- The redshirt sophomore transferred to Morgan State from Army prior to the 2025 season and quickly established himself as one of the Bears' top offensive weapons.
- Nauden led the team in rushing with 608 yards on 124 carries and six touchdowns.
- A physical runner who is difficult to bring down on first contact, Nauden consistently gains tough yards and keeps the Bears' ground attack moving.
- He also contributed as a receiver, recording seven receptions for 68 yards.
- Nauden earned MEAC Rookie of the Week honors three times during the 2025 season (Sept. 1, Sept. 22 and Nov. 10).

THE LEATHERBURY EFFECT

Malique Leatherbury enters the 2026 season as one of the MEAC's more productive returning receivers, bringing veteran reliability to the passing game.

- In 2025, he totaled 33 receptions for 320 yards and two touchdowns.
- He also emerged as one of the top return specialists in FCS football, finishing with 19.9-yard average on punt returns, ranking second nationally.
- He also paced the Bears in kickoff returns, averaging 23.5 yards on 16 attempts (No. 31 nationally), consistently providing favorable field position and game-changing potential.
- The Salisbury, Md. native joined the Bears as a walk-on in 2023.
- As a standout at Wicomico HS, he was a two-time Bayside Conference Special Teams Player of the Year (2022, 2023).

THE RETURN OF TURO

Arturo Mattocks returns as a proven playmaker for a reloaded Bears' defensive unit.

- The Preseason All-MEAC First Team selection returns as the centerpiece of the linebacker unit after an injury-shortened 2025 season that ended in the opener at South Alabama (Aug. 30, 2025).
- When healthy, he established himself as one of the most productive and versatile defenders on the roster.
- In 12 games during the 2024 campaign, Mattocks recorded 68 total tackles, including 35 solo stops, along with three tackles for loss. He also showcased his ability to create turnovers with an interception, a forced fumble, and a fumble recovery.
- Now fully healthy, Mattocks (6-0, 205) is expected to be one of the premier linebackers in the conference.
- Mattocks graduated in May with an applied liberal arts studies degree and was recognized to the 2026 NFF Hampshire Honor Society.

MORE MOYER

Donovan Moyer is poised to be a disruptive force on the Bears' defensive front in 2026.

- The 6-foot-3, 255-pound Silver Spring, Md., product brings size, physicality and versatility to Morgan State's defensive line.
- As a true freshman last season, Moyer recorded 17 tackles, 5.5 tackles for loss and two fumble recoveries, showcasing his ability to make plays behind the line of scrimmage.
- Moyer is rapidly becoming a cornerstone of the Bears' defense. This emergence is particularly crucial as the team looks to effectively fill the significant void created by the departure of defensive standouts Dashawn Fields and Blanche Gold.
- With another year of development under his belt, Moyer enters the season positioned for an expanded role and the opportunity to become one of the Bears' premier defensive playmakers.

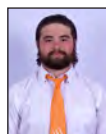

HARVEY'S HOUSE

Senior Aki Harvey is expected to take on an expanded leadership role in the defensive backfield. With former standout Jadon Carter moving on, Harvey enters the season

- as a primary piece to anchor the secondary.
- The Columbia, Md. native was recognized to the 2026 Preseason All-MEAC First Team.
- Standing 6-3, 190-pounds, his length, physical presence, and familiarity with the system give the Bears a reliable option in coverage, while the coaching staff will look for him to provide stability across the backend.
- He recorded 24 tackles (16 solo) with a fumble recovery, including a 69-yard interception return last season.
- He transferred to Morgan State from Central Georgia Technical College where he earned an Associate of Arts degree in 2024.

COWBOY PUNTER

Senior punter Shane Messenger returns after missing the 2025 season due to injury, bringing back one of the MEAC's more consistent punting options from the 2024 campaign.

- As a sophomore, Messenger solidified his reputation as one of the MEAC's top punters. The Alexandria, Va. native averaged 37.5 yards on 51 punts, totaling 1,914 yards for the season. His precision stood out—13 of his punts pinned opponents inside the 20, while 19 resulted in fair catches. He also demonstrated impressive leg strength with four punts soaring over 50 yards.
- Messenger averaged 38 yards on 21 punts, including a 50-yard long, before being sidelined due to injury.
- The coaching staff expects Messenger to regain form quickly and provide stability in the field-position game.
- The 6-foot, 200-pounder wears a cowboy hat before every home and away game.

MORGAN STATE SET TO HONOR 1976 MEAC CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

Morgan State University honored its 1976 MEAC Championship football team during the Bears' matchup against Virginia University of Lynchburg on Sept. 12.

- The special recognition celebrated the legacy of the 1976 Bears, who ultimately captured a share of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference championship and then travel halfway around the world to face legendary Grambling State in the inaugural Pioneer Bowl in Tokyo.

DOODA'S LAST RIDE

Redshirt senior Keith Jenkins Jr. enters his final season determined to leave his mark and make his last ride in Orange & Blue one to remember.

- Jenkins, a 6-foot, 195-pound native of Gainesville, Va., was selected to the 2026 Preseason All-MEAC Second Team.
- In 2025, he appeared in eight games, recording 25 carries for 98 yards and a touchdown, while adding five catches for 58 yards.
- Jenkins was also one of the Bears' most explosive weapons in the return game, averaging 22.1 yards on 15 kickoff returns. His big-play ability gives MSU a dangerous weapon capable of flipping field position in an instant.
- Jenkins burst onto the scene as a freshman in 2022, earning All-MEAC First Team honors as a return specialist and establishing himself as one of the top return threats in the FCS.
- His impressive freshman campaign earned him HERO Sports FCS Freshman All-America honors, Phil Steele All-MEAC First Team recognition, BOXTOROW All-America Team honors and Blue Bloods All-MEAC First Team honors.
- Jenkins finished the 2022 season with two kickoff returns for touchdowns, tied for second-most in the FCS, showcasing the explosiveness that has made him a constant threat every time he touches the football.
- Now, with his collegiate career entering its final chapter, Jenkins looks to bring experience, explosiveness and veteran leadership to the Bears in 2026.

GRIZZLY WALK

Every home football game the Morgan State football team arrives at campus near Hill Field House on the roundabout (circle) where they unload from charter buses. The group then collectively walks from the roundabout past the Student Center to Legend's Plaza, site of Morgan's legendary coaches Edward P. Hurt and Earl C. Bank. The group then conducts a group prayer before entering the stadium. The official name of the activity is the "The Grizzly Walk".

////// DAMON WILSON HEAD COACH

Damon Wilson is a 25-year coaching veteran, having begun his coaching journey immediately after hanging up his cleats as an All-CIAA Conference tight end at Bowie State University. There, he started his collegiate coaching career as a running back coach and special teams coordinator. That experience, paired with his exposure to coaching Pop Warner as a teen alongside his father and uncle, fueled his passion for coaching the game. Even as a teenager, he was driven to develop young men on and off the field. He continues to take pride in seeing his players graduate and succeed in life after football.

In 2004, he had the opportunity to develop his career in Division I FCS football in the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) for five years in Texas, first at Texas Southern University and later at Prairie View A&M University. The Panthers of Prairie View finished the 2008 season with a 9-1 record and ranked 23rd nationally in Division I-AA football polls. As the running backs coach, Wilson helped lead the Panthers' offense to their most successful season ever. Under Wilson's guidance, they led the SWAC in rushing and broke the University's all-time record.

In 2009, Wilson had the unique opportunity to begin his head coaching era at his Alma Mater, Bowie State University. In his inaugural season, he broke the school record for Most Offensive Yards in a game, had eight (8) players receive All-CIAA Conference honors, and four (4) players selected to the CIAA All-Rookie Team. Wilson closed his 1st season as the 2009 Eastern Division Champs and had the #1 ranked defense in the country.

Coach Wilson's professional accolades include:

- AFCA DII National Coach of the Year 2021
- AFCA DII Super Region 2 Coach of the Year 2021
- AFCA Final Ranking #6 in DII Football, 2021
- Division II Quarterfinalist (Elite 8) 2021

2026 FOOTBALL HEAD COACH

The 2018 season was memorable for Bowie State football as the Bulldogs claimed the school's first-ever CIAA Championship, defeating Fayetteville State by a score of 30-10. The victory allowed the Bulldogs to host the first round of the NCAA Super Region 2 Playoffs for the second consecutive season. In the opening round game, Bowie State took down West Alabama 41-35 in a true battle on the gridiron that advanced the Bulldogs to the Second Round of Super Region 2 for the first-time in school history.

Bowie State's 2019 season was even more remarkable as the Bulldogs recorded the school's first-ever undefeated regular season and became Back-to-Back CIAA Champions. In 2020, COVID-19 put a pause on the record-breaking Bulldogs' reign due to the cancellation of the season. However, Damon Wilson and the Bowie State Bulldogs returned to claim the Northern Division Title and the CIAA Championship for a third year in a row in 2021. They hosted two (2) NCAA playoff games and closed their season, setting yet another BSU record by earning a spot in the NCAA Elite 8. They were ranked #6 in the country. Coach Wilson's coaching season did not end there. He was named Co-Head Coach in the Inaugural HBCU Legacy Bowl in 2022. Alongside four of his assistant coaches, four of his senior players, and a host of coaches and players from the CIAA and the MEAC Conferences, they won the 1st ever HBCU Legacy Bowl. Earning Coach Wilson two (2) championships in one season.

Wilson closed out a historic championship season by being named the 2021 AFCA Division II National Coach of the Year.

The award was the first for Bowie State and the conference, as he became the first CIAA coach to win this prestigious award.

Throughout his time at Bowie State, Coach Wilson had tremendous success not only breaking and resetting school records, but was recognized nationally for his ability to not only win but to cultivate athletes and coaches to move on to the next level. Coach Wilson has had four (4) players and two (2) coaches in the National Football League (NFL), one (1) player in the Arena Football League (AFL), and several players in numerous professional leagues around the world.

In June of 2022, Coach Wilson was named the 23rd head football coach at Morgan State University. He began his era at

Morgan State with the goal of bringing the football program up to the standards of the academic program and restoring its storied sports legacy. In his first season, Wilson and the Morgan State Bears captured eleven (11) All-MEAC honors and an FCS Freshman All-American recognition. Off the field, twenty (20) student athletes earned academic All-MEAC honors.

In 2023, he guided the Bears to an impressive upset victory over No. 18 Richmond, earning them the FedEx Ground National Team of the Week title. The team's resilience was further showcased in a last-second heartbreaking loss against FBS member Akron. The Bears would go on to finish the season with seven (7) All-MEAC Conference honors, and two players who received FCS All-American recognition.

In addition to these individual achievements, the Bears also celebrated the recognition of one of their players as the BOXTOROW Impact Player of the Year.

Beyond their on-field achievements, the Bears also excelled academically, with twenty-nine (29) student-athletes earning Academic All-MEAC Conference honors.

The 2024 season saw Morgan State meet and, in some ways, exceed the preseason expectations. Predicted to finish third in the MEAC preseason poll, the Bears lived up to that billing, holding onto the third spot with a solid 3-2 record in conference play. More importantly, the team concluded the year with a 6-6 overall record, a significant milestone that represents the most victories for the program since its MEAC Co-Championship winning season of 2014.

Further bolstering the team's success, Morgan State garnered significant individual accolades, earning four All-MEAC Conference honors, including the prestigious MEAC Defensive Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year awards. The season's triumphs were capped off with the recognition of both a consensus All-American and a Freshman All-American, highlighting the exceptional talent and potential within the Bears' roster.

The 2025 season marked another step in Morgan State's continued progression under head coach Damon Wilson, as the Bears met their preseason expectation of a third-place finish in the MEAC while navigating a challenging overall schedule. Morgan State finished 4-8 overall, but the record did not fully reflect a team that remained competitive in multiple close games and continued to build its identity. Defensively, the Bears again stood out as a strength, consistently ranking among the MEAC's better units in disruptive plays and physicality, anchored by standout linebacker Erick "E40" Hunter.

Damon is married to Allison (Dunn), and they have one son, Dylan. Coach Wilson is a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. In his spare time, he enjoys spending time with his family, working with children, fishing, and attending sporting events.

BEARS TO FACE ALABAMA STATE IN 2027 CRICKET MEAC/SWAC CHALLENGE KICKOFF

Morgan State will open the 2027 season on one of the biggest stages in HBCU football as the Bears have been selected to compete in the 2027 Cricket MEAC/SWAC Challenge Kickoff against Alabama State.

- The nationally recognized season-opening showcase is scheduled for Saturday, Aug. 28, 2027, at Center Parc Stadium in Atlanta, Georgia. Morgan State will represent the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) against the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) champion, the Alabama State Hornets, in the annual Week Zero classic.

- The matchup replaces the previously announced contest featuring South Carolina State and Alabama State and marks another significant national opportunity for the Bears program.

- "We're excited to represent Morgan State University and the MEAC on one of college football's premier opening-weekend stages," said head coach Damon Wilson. "The MEAC/SWAC Challenge is a celebration of HBCU football, and we're looking forward to competing against an outstanding Alabama State program in front of a national audience."

- Since its inception, the Cricket MEAC/SWAC Challenge Kickoff has become one of the signature events in HBCU football, annually showcasing premier programs from the MEAC and SWAC while launching the college football season during Week Zero.

- ESPN Events announced new multi-year agreements with both conferences, extending the Cricket MEAC/SWAC Challenge Kickoff and the Cricket Celebration Bowl through the 2030-31 season, further strengthening the partnership and national exposure for HBCU football.

- Morgan State's appearance in the Challenge adds another milestone for a program that continues to build momentum under Wilson's leadership while expanding its national profile through high-level non-conference competition and nationally televised appearances.

- Game time, television designation, ticket information, and additional event details for the 2027 Cricket MEAC/SWAC Challenge Kickoff will be announced at a later date by ESPN Events.

SIMPLY AKI

Senior defensive back Aki Harvey has earned national recognition after being named to the 2026 Aeneas Williams Award Watch List, announced by the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame.

- Harvey is among 16 of the nation's top defensive backs from Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) selected to the prestigious preseason watch list. The list is selected by a screening committee in partnership with DraftHBCUPlayers and the Paycom Jim Thorpe Award.
- A Preseason All-MEAC First Team selection, Harvey enters his senior season as one of the anchors of the Bears' secondary. The reliable cornerback appeared in all 12 games for Morgan State during the 2025 season, recording 24 tackles, including 16 solo stops, along with a fumble recovery and an interception return of 69 yards.
- With another year of experience under his belt, Harvey enters the 2026 season with elevated expectations and an opportunity to establish himself as one of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference's premier defensive backs.

BIG FRAME. BIG EXPECTATIONS.

Eastern Michigan transfer Cameron Edge stands 6-foot-2 and weighs 230 pounds, placing him in the same big-bodied quarterback mold as one of the most memorable signal-callers in Morgan State history: Bradshaw Littlejohn.

- Known as "The Big Show," Littlejohn stood 6-foot-3 and weighed 258 pounds when he arrived at Morgan State as a transfer from Michigan State. Originally recruited by the Spartans as a linebacker, the Gaffney, South Carolina, native was converted to quarterback by then-Morgan State head coach Donald Hill-Eley—and the move proved to be a game-changer.
- As a senior in 2004, Littlejohn dominated the MEAC, leading the conference in passing yards per game (240.3), total offense (310.3), passing touchdowns (18) and rushing touchdowns (18). His 2,643 passing yards established a Morgan State single-season record, while his 18 passing touchdowns also set a school record. His 18 rushing touchdowns ranked second in school history for a single season.
- His remarkable campaign earned Littlejohn MEAC Offensive Player of the Year honors, making him only the second Morgan State quarterback and just the second player in program history at the time to receive the award. He joined Bears great Darrell Coulter, who captured the honor in 1979.
- Littlejohn's impact remains evident in the Morgan State record book. He ranks fourth in career passing yards with 4,556 from 2001-04 and remains the program's all-time leader in career touchdown passes with 33.
- Edge arrives at Morgan State after spending the 2025 season at Eastern Michigan, where he continued his development at the FBS level. The athletic, strong-armed quarterback brings a combination of size, mobility, and experience that gives the Bears another dynamic option under center. His ability to make plays with both his arm and his legs adds another dimension to a Morgan State offense preparing for the 2026 season.
- Now, more than two decades after Littlejohn's memorable run in Orange and Blue, Edge has an opportunity to write his own chapter in the Bears' storied quarterback history. The comparison to "The Big Show" is not about duplicating what Littlejohn accomplished. Instead, it highlights the potential of another big, athletic quarterback capable of making an impact through the air and on the ground. For Edge, the challenge now is to turn that potential into production—and perhaps begin building a legacy of his own at Morgan State.

TWO BEARS SELECTED TO DEACON JONES PLAYER OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST

Morgan State football standouts Arturo Mattocks and Alex Simmons have been named to the 2026 Deacon Jones Player of the Year Watch List, as announced by the Black College Football Hall of Fame in Atlanta, Georgia.

- The Deacon Jones Trophy is presented annually to the most outstanding football player from a Historically Black College or University (HBCU). The prestigious award recognizes excellence, leadership, and impact on the field; past winners include Tarik Cohen of North Carolina A&T (2016) and Chris Rowland of Tennessee State (2019). Virginia Union running back Curtis Allen was selected as the 2025 recipient.
- The recognition adds to an impressive preseason résumé for both Bears, who were each selected to the 2026 Preseason All-MEAC First Team.
- Mattocks, a graduate linebacker from Montgomery Village, Md., returns as a key leader and playmaker for a Morgan State defense looking to make a significant impact in 2026. The 6-foot-1, 205-pound veteran missed much of the 2025 season after suffering an injury in the season opener at South Alabama. Still, his previous production established him as one of the Bears' most dependable defensive playmakers.
- During the 2024 season, Mattocks appeared in all 12 games and recorded 68 total tackles, including 35 solo stops, while adding three tackles for loss. He also demonstrated his ability to create turnovers, recording an interception, a forced fumble, and a fumble recovery.
- Mattocks enters the 2026 campaign healthy and poised to anchor a veteran linebacker corps while providing leadership to a Bears defense that will face a challenging schedule.
- Simmons, a 6-foot-3, 230-pound junior tight end from Brooklyn, N.Y., also enters the season as one of Morgan State's top offensive weapons. A Preseason All-MEAC First Team selection, Simmons finished the 2025 season with nine receptions for 94 yards and is expected to play an increased role in the Bears' passing attack in 2026.
- With size and physicality, Simmons gives Morgan State a dynamic target on the perimeter and will be a key component of an offense looking to build on its 2025 production.

HUNTER EARNS SPOT ON NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS; 53-MAN ROSTER

Former Morgan State linebacker Erick Hunter has earned a spot on the New England Patriots' 53-man roster, marking the latest milestone in the standout defensive player's journey from Morgan State to the National Football League.

- The Patriots announced Tuesday that they have signed Hunter to their 53-man roster. The 23-year-old linebacker originally signed with the Detroit Lions as an undrafted rookie free agent on May 12, 2026, following his standout career at Morgan State. Detroit released Hunter on Aug. 30 before he quickly found a new opportunity with New England.

- A native of Capitol Heights, Md., Hunter finished his Morgan State career as one of the most productive defensive players in program history, ranking second all-time with 298 total tackles in 45 games.

- Hunter capped his collegiate career with a dominant 2025 campaign. The preseason MEAC Defensive Player of the Year started all 12 games and led the conference with 102 total tackles, including 53 solo stops. He also recorded 14 tackles for loss, four sacks, five quarterback hurries, four forced fumbles, and one interception.

- His performance earned Hunter numerous postseason accolades. He was named All-
MEAC First Team and earned Stats Perform FCS Second-Team All-America, Phil Steele FCS Third-Team All-America, and FCS Football Central All-American recognition. He was also a Buck Buchanan Award finalist, earned BOXTOROW HBCU All-America honors, and accepted an invitation to participate in the inaugural American Bowl.

- Hunter's impact extended beyond the field as well. He was recognized as the 2025-26 MEAC Male Student-Athlete of the Year, further highlighting his accomplishments during his time at Morgan State.

- He becomes the second Morgan State linebacker to join the New England Patriots, following former Bear Elandon Roberts. Roberts was selected by New England in the sixth round of the 2016 NFL Draft after beginning his collegiate career at Morgan State before transferring to the University of Houston. He went on to become a key contributor for the Patriots, including helping New England capture Super Bowl LI.

- Hunter also joins former Morgan State teammate Elijah Williams, who currently plays for the Minnesota Vikings. Williams and Hunter were teammates in Baltimore, where they helped anchor the Bears' defense before taking their talents to the professional level.
