INSIDE THE TRIBE

THE GAME

William & Mary will conclude the season on Saturday when it travels to Richmond for the Capital Cup presented by C&F Bank. Kickoff is scheduled for noon. The game will be broadcast regionally on MASN and streamed on ESPN+, with a live audio broadcast available locally on The Tide at 92.3 FM and 107.9 FM and online at TideRadio.com.

ABOUT THE TRIBE

After closing out its home slate with a convincing 41-24 victory against Bucknell at Zable Stadium last weekend, W&M enters Saturday's game with a 4-7 overall record and a 2-6 mark in conference play. The Tribe posted its best offensive performance of the season in last week's win, as running backs Andrew King (152 yds, TD) and Jah'Kei Chavis (104 yds, TD) highlighted a group of four W&M standouts who scored rushing touchdowns and helped the squad total 294 rushing yards. Additionally, running back Brayden Smalls posted a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown en route to being honored as the CAA Special Teams Player of the Week.

SCOUTING THE SPIDERS

Currently on a three-game losing streak, and having dropped four of its last five games, Richmond enters the weekend with a 6-5 overall record and a 4-4 mark in conference play. Although the Spiders are averaging just 17.7 points per game, they rank sixth nationally in sacks per game (3.0). Defensive lineman Camden Byrd has provided much of that production with 10.0 sacks and ranks sixth nationally with 0.91 sacks per game.

ABOUT THE SERIES

Saturday's game between W&M and UR will mark the 137th meeting between the two schools in what has been traditionally called the "Oldest Rivalry in the South" – but may be more accurately described as the most PLAYED rivalry in the South. UR owns a 67-64-5 edge in the series. The teams first met in 1898, when Richmond blanked W&M, 15-0.

■ TEAM NOTES

LAST MEETING

W&M concluded its 2025 season with a 28-21 setback against Richmond in the Capital Cup Game presented by C&F Bank at Zable Stadium. UR quarterback Ashten Snelsire scored the game-winning touchdown on a 14-yard run with 1:56 remaining in the fourth quarter. W&M had an opportunity to tie the game but was unable to pick up a first down on its ensuing drive and turned the ball over on downs. The loss snapped W&M's three-game winning streak and was its first home defeat in 2025 as it finished with a 5-1 record at Zable Stadium.

WE'VE MET BEFORE

Just three other Division I series have a longer history than W&M vs. UR.

Rivalry	Games	First Met
Lafayette-Lehigh	161	1884
Yale-Princeton	148	1873
Yale-Harvard	141	1875
W&M-Richmond	135	1898

A KEY TO VICTORY

W&M's ability to run the ball successfully against Richmond has been a key to its last five victories in the series. In those games, the Tribe has averaged 225.2 rushing yards per game (1,126 yards).

Conversely, it has averaged just 94.2 rushing yards per game during its last 17 losses in the series (1,602 yards).

W&M-UR CONNECTIONS

In addition to winning a national championship as head coach at Richmond in 2008, W&M Head Coach Mike London was also a standout defensive back for the Spiders (1979-82) and served as a team captain as a senior. Additionally, he spent two stints as an assistant at UR.

W&M Offensive Coordinator Winston October was a four-time all-conference standout and team captain as a defensive back at UR and served as the Spiders' offensive coordinator before joining the Tribe's staff prior to the 2025 season.

On the UR sidelines, Head Coach Russ Huesman worked as an assistant at W&M from 1985-97 and served as the defensive coordinator his final two seasons. Additionally, former W&M wide receivers coach Jerry Taylor (2018) now coaches the same position at UR.

CLIMBING THE CHARTS

In just eight seasons as head coach at W&M, Coach London already ranks second on the program's all-time wins list (47) and trails only Jimmye Laycock (249).

W&M Head Coach Mike London earned his 100th career victory with the Tribe's 34-7 win against Charleston Southern last season. In addition to the victories at W&M, London also accumulated wins as the head coach at Richmond, Virginia and Howard.

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE

During the last nine seasons, W&M is 32-6 when it commits fewer turnovers than its opponents, while it is 6-22 when it loses the turnover battle during the recent stretch.

20 IS THE MAGIC NUMBER

W&M owns an 50-17 record during the last nine seasons in games in which it scored more than 20 points.

During the last six seasons, W&M is 39-14 in such contests.

EARLY LEADS

Dating back to the 2014 season, the Tribe has won 47 of its last 58 games when leading at halftime.

HOLDING ON TO LEADS

Dating back to the start of the 2013 season, W&M owns a 66-8 record when leading after three quarters.

SUCCESS vs. FCS IN NON-CONFERENCE

With victories against both its non-conference FCS opponents this fall, W&M has now won 47 of its last 50 games against non-conference FCS opponents during the regular season. The only losses during that span are Lafayette (2012), Colgate (2018) and Furman (2025).

Additionally W&M owns a 50-4 record vs. FCS non-conference teams during the regular season dating back through the 2002 season.

VOICE OF THE TRIBE

Longtime voice of the Tribe Jay Colley recently reached a remarkable milestone, as he broadcast his 500th W&M football game at Duke. Since securing the mic in 1982, Colley has missed just three games (and both bowl games played in Japan).

COMEBACK FOR THE AGES

W&M earned one of its most remarkable comeback victories in the program's 133-year history in the season-opening win at then-No. 8/7 Villanova. The Tribe scored 13 points in the final 0:53 to rally back from a 10-point deficit in the final minute. Kicker Max Lipinski connected on a career-long 45-yard field goal as time expired after safety Cade Ellis set up the game-winning score with his second interception of the contest. Following a successful onside kick by Sam Braidwood (recovered by Jackson Blee), quarterback Winston Watkins connected on a 37-yard touchdown pass to Kai Austin with 0:22 remaining to even the score.

SECOND HALF COMEBACKS

W&M's comeback win at Villanova marked the fourth time during the last two seasons that the Tribe has rallied back from a double-digit second half deficit.

NATIONAL ATTENTION

Numerous national media outlets took notice of W&M's Patriot League debut and highlighted the Tribe's season-opening win at No. 8/7 Villanova.

In addition to earning more than 4 million views on SportsCenter's X account, the game generated an audience of 43.5 million online impressions on various media outlets, including ESPN, The New York Times, CNN and Yahoo.

■ TRIBE BY THE NUMBERS

2

W&M running backs who surpassed 100 yards on the ground in last week's win against Bucknell – Andrew King (152) and Jah'Kei Chavis (104). The duo helped W&M total a season-high 294 rushing yards, while they highlighted a group of for Tribe players who posted rushing touchdowns in the victory.

3

Touchbacks needed by kicker Sam Braidwood to equal W&M's single-season record (34).

10

Games this season in which W&M has recorded a play of at least 50 yards.

14

Receiving yards needed by Sean McElwain to become just the second tight end in the program's history to total 1,000 career receiving yards.

99

Yards covered by running back Brayden Smalls during his kickoff return for a touchdown in last week's win against Bucknell. The return was the second longest in program history and helped him win Patriot League Special Teams Player of the Week honors.

NATIONAL HONORS

A trio of Tribe standouts earned weekly honors after posting tremendous season-opening performances in the win at No. 8/7 Villanova. Kicker Max Lipinski was honored as the Stats Perform FCS National Special Teams Player of the Week and the Patriot League Special Teams Player of the Week. Safety Cade Ellis was honored as the Patriot League Defensive Player of the Week and Rookie of the Week, while he also earned Stats Perform FCS National Rookie of the Week honorable mention distinction. Quarterback Winston Watkins earned Patriot League Offensive Player of the Week honorable mention accolades.

PRESEASON ALL-PATRIOT LEAGUE

Four W&M standouts earned preseason all-conference honors this year, as TE Sean McElwain, DL Davin Dzidzienyo, DB Bryce Barnes and special teams non-specialist Stephon Hicks earned the distinction.

The Patriot League's preseason poll was also announced and the Tribe was picked to finish tied for third. Both the preseason all-conference team and preseason poll were selected based on a vote by the league's 10 head coaches.

COACHING CONTINUITY

In addition to building a winning culture and piling up the victories, Head Coach Mike London has also built extraordinary continuity among his coaching staff as all 10 of his full-time assistants from last season returned this fall.

WINNING FOOTBALL

After posting a 7-5 record in 2025, W&M secured its fifth consecutive winning season.

The Tribe's last stretch of at least five straight winning campaigns came from 1992-99 when it recorded eight consecutive winning seasons.

CAPTAINS

Serving as team captains this season are three standouts - DL Davin Dzidzienyo, TE Sean McElwain and LB Harrison Johnson. Dzidzienyo is a two-time team captain.

ESPN+

Tribe football fans have an exciting new way to follow the action this season as 11 W&M games are scheduled to be broadcast on ESPN+. In addition to all nine of W&M's Patriot League contests, the Tribe's non-conference matchups versus Delaware State and NC Central will also air on the platform.

TRIBE IN THE NFL

Six former Tribe standouts were in NFL preseason camps this year - OL Charles Grant (Las Vegas Raiders), LB Nate Lynn (New York Jets), OL Bill Murray (Los Angeles Rams), all-pro long snapper Luke Rhodes (Indianapolis Colts), OL Colby Sorsdal (Detroit Lions) and RB Owen Wright (Houston Texans). Grant, Murray and Rhodes made the initial 53-man rosters, while Lynn signed to the Jets practice squad.

In addition to the impressive list of active players, a number of former W&M student-athletes and assistant coaches are also currently on NFL coaching staffs, highlighted by Buffalo Bills Head Coach Joe Brady '13.

A pair of NFL head coaches last season – Mike Tomlin '95 (Pittsburgh Steelers) and Sean McDermott '98 (Buffalo Bills) – played football at W&M, while current Washington Commanders head coach Dan Quinn was an assistant with the Tribe in 1994 and former New York Giants head coach Brian Daboll was an assistant on W&M's staff in 1997.

Also noteworthy is a pair of former W&M head coaches who went on to have extraordinary Hall of Fame careers - Marv Levy and Lou Holtz. Levy served as W&M's head coach from 1964-68 and was followed by Holtz from 1969-71.

OVERTIME SUCCESS

W&M'S 30-27 overtime victory against Campbell last season marked the Tribe's fourth consecutive win in OT. Overall, W&M has posted a 10-4 record in overtime.

■ TEAM OFFENSIVE NOTES

QUICK STRIKE OFFENSE

Fourteen of W&M's 28 touchdown drives this season have lasted less than 2 minutes, while nine have taken less than a minute.

Eight of the Tribe's touchdowns have come on plays longer than 50 yards.

BIG PLAYS

A key to the Tribe's offensive success this season has been its ability to produce big plays, as it has recorded a gain of at least 50 yards on at least one play in 10 of 11 games.

In addition to Brayden Smalls' 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in last week's win against Bucknell, W&M also produced four additional plays of at least 40 yards versus the Bison.

BIG NUMBERS ON SENIOR DAY

In addition to the big plays in last Saturday's win against Bucknell, W&M totaled a season highs in points (41), total yards (444) and rushing yards (294).

Running backs Andrew King (152 rushing yards) and Jah'Kei Chavis (104 rushing yards) provided much of the production, as both standouts surpassed 100 yards on the ground.

Additionally, four different players scored a rushing touchdown - King, Chavis, and quarterbacks Winston Watkins and Carter Carroll.

BIG PLAY THREAT

Standout freshman wide receiver Khylil Johnson currently ranks seventh nationally in yards per catch (20.07).

W&M's single-season yards per catch record is currently held by Mike Tomlin, who averaged 25.5 yards per reception in 1992.

The Pittsburgh, Pa., native has recorded a catch of at least 40 yards in seven games this season.

Additionally, he currently ranks seventh in the conference in receiving yards per game (49.3).

IMMEDIATE IMPACT

After transferring to W&M from Richmond prior to this season, running back Andrew King has made an immediate impact. The Falls Church, Va., native currently ranks third in the Patriot League in rushing with 79.4 yards per game on the ground.

He has been especially productive down the stretch this season and is averaging 103.75 rushing yards per game during the last four contests.

BREAKOUT SOPHOMORE SEASON

After totaling just three receptions for 10 yards as a freshman last season, sophomore wide receiver Kai Austin has been one of W&M's top pass catchers this year with 38 receptions for 434 yards and three touchdowns.

GROUND GAME PRODUCTION IS KEY

Since 1993, W&M has rushed for at least 200 yards 115 times and posted a 102-13 record in those contests.

Additionally, W&M is 62-13 when out-rushing the opposition since 2013.

3 SCORES IN 53 SECONDS

En route to securing its thrilling comeback win in the season opener at Villanova, W&M accomplished a rare feat - scoring three times in the final 53 seconds. A 40-yard field goal by Max Lipinski got things started, and after Jackson Blee recovered Sam Braidwood's ensuing onside kick, QB Winston Watkins connected with Kai Austin on a 37-yard touchdown pass with just 0:22 remaining. Moments later safety Cade Ellis recorded his second interception of the contest, returning it 24 yards to set up Lipinski's game-winning, career-long 45-yard field goal as time expired.

IMPRESSIVE DEBUT

Quarterback Winston Watkins was outstanding in his W&M debut in the season-opening win at Villanova, as the junior completed 19-of-33 passes for 254 yards with two touchdowns in his first-career start. Additionally, he rushed for a team-high 72 yards with a touchdown en route to earning Patriot League Offensive Player of the Week honorable mention distinction.

DYNAMIC DUO AT TIGHT END

W&M boasts perhaps the best tight end duo in the country, as all-conference standouts Sean McElwain and Jackson Blee return this season.

During the preseason, HERO Sports ranked McElwain as the nation's sixth-best tight end and Blee as the 10th-best.

FOOTBALL FAMILY

W&M's offense features three sets of siblings this season – all of whom have contributed this fall: all-conference TE Sean McElwain and starting OL Matt McElwain; all-conference TE Jackson Blee and QB/ATH Patrick Blee; TE Haven Mullins and WR Jacob Mullins.

■ TEAM DEFENSIVE NOTES

AMONG THE BEST

W&M currently ranks 22nd nationally and tied for first in the Patriot League in forced turnovers (19) - 10 interceptions / nine fumble recoveries.

BALL HAWKS

Dating back to 2024, W&M has forced at least one turnover in 28 of the last 33 games.

FOURTH DOWN STOPS

W&M currently ranks 13th nationally in fourth down conversion percentage defense (.353).

BLOCKING PUNTS

With three blocked punts, W&M currently ranks tied for fourth nationally.

Conversely, the Tribe has not allowed a blocked punt this season.

BUILDING DEPTH

Twenty-five different W&M defensive players have earned starts this season. Twelve of those standouts recorded their first career starts this season.

SCORING WITH DEFENSE & SPECIAL TEAMS

Dating back to 2007, the Tribe has generated 56 non-offensive touchdowns. Two of those scores came this season, as Brayden Smalls returned a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown in the win against Bucknell and Jack Reuter returned a punt blocked by Ryan Vail 10 yards for a touchdown in the victory at NC Central. Both players were honored as the Patriot League Special Teams Player of the Week.

TOUGH TO SCORE THROUGH THE AIR

Since the start of the start of the 2016 season, a span of 115 games, just 42 opponents have scored more than one passing touchdown against W&M.

SHUTTING DOWN THE PASS

Since the start of the 2007 season, a span of 216 games, the Tribe has allowed more than 300 passing yards just 17 times.

▪ Led the CAA by pinning opponents inside their own 20-yard line with 41.3 percent of his punts

▪ Pinned opponents inside their own 20-yard line 19 times, which was just one shy of tying for first in the CAA

HEAD COACH

After leading the William & Mary football team to five consecutive winning campaigns for the first time in nearly three decades, Head Coach Mike London returns for his eighth season at the helm of the Tribe.

In just seven seasons, London has already established himself as one of the most successful head coaches in the program's 132-year history. In addition to ranking as the third-winningest head coach at W&M (43) and earning 105 career victories, he has helped the Tribe break into the national rankings four of the past five seasons. Additionally, W&M ascended into the nation's top 10 three of the last four years.

During the recent stretch of success, which includes an appearance in the 2022 NCAA Quarterfinals, London has helped Tribe standouts garner 55 All-CAA honors during the last five seasons, highlighted by 21 first-team selections. Additionally, 22 W&M players have combined to earn 81 All-America honors during London's tenure.

In addition to the numerous accolades, London has overseen the development of six former Tribe standouts who have signed NFL contracts – Charles Grant (Raiders), Nate Lynn (Lions), Colby Sorsdal (Lions), Owen Wright (Ravens), Andrew Trainer (Chargers) and Bill Murray (Patriots).

Numerous achievements highlighted the Tribe's most recent campaign last fall. In addition to extending the program's streak of winning seasons and securing his 100th career victory as a head coach in the triumph against Charleston Southern, six W&M standouts combined to earn 16 All-America honors – highlighted by a pair of finalists for the Buch Buchanan Award, Jalen Jones and Luke Banbury, who earned NFL Rookie minicamp invites with the Commanders and Ravens, respectively. The duo was also among a group of 11 Tribe players who earned All-CAA accolades, including four first-team selections.

Collectively, W&M led the nation in fewest turnovers (6) in 2025 and ranked among the country's top 10 in fewest penalties per game and fewest penalty yards per game.

The 2024 campaign marked W&M's fourth consecutive winning season. Five Tribe standouts combined to earn 20 All-America honors – highlighted by offensive lineman Charles Grant, who was a consensus first-team honoree and a third-round draft pick by the Las Vegas Raiders. In addition to Grant, three other standouts earned NFL rookie minicamp invites – Hollis Mathis (Steelers), Marcus Barnes (Bengals) and Matthew Akuchie (Colts) – while 12 members of the Tribe garnered All-CAA accolades.

W&M also continued its tradition of boasting one of the nation's top rushing attacks as it ranked fourth in the country in yards per game on the ground (232.8). Additionally, it marked the second time in the last three seasons W&M ranked among the nation's top four and the fourth-straight year in which it ranked among the top 17.

London was honored for the tremendous success on and off the field with the prestigious W&M Plumeri Award following the 2024 season, as the honor recognizes and rewards the core values that distinguish outstanding faculty members and coaches who define excellence.

Following a successful 2023 campaign five W&M standouts combined to earn 13 All-America honors, while 10 members of the Tribe garnered All-CAA accolades. Highlighting the impressive group was All-America defensive end Nate Lynn, who signed a free agent contract with the Detroit Lions.

One of the country's top teams defensively, W&M ranked 10th nationally in total defense (303.8), 12th in scoring defense (18.5) and fourth in passing defense (153.5).

Under London's leadership, W&M catapulted to the national forefront in 2022 as it secured a share of the CAA title, earned a No. 5 seed in the NCAA Playoffs and advanced to the NCAA Quarterfinals. Additionally, W&M equaled a school record for wins (11) and posted program records for regular season victories (10) and road triumphs (6). Highlighting the wins were three victories against nationally ranked opponents and a lopsided season-opening triumph at FBS opponent Charlotte.

W&M's success was recognized at the national level, as London was selected as a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award, which honors the FCS National Coach of the Year, and finished fourth in the final voting. Additionally, London was selected as the Bobby Ross Coach of the Year by the Touchdown Club of Richmond and the VaSID (Virginia Sports Information Directors) Coach of the Year.

In addition to the team's success, a number of Tribe standouts were recognized with national honors for their outstanding individual contributions. Highlighting an impressive group of six players who earned All-America recognition were linebacker John Pius, offensive lineman Colby Sorsdal and cornerback Jalen Jones. Pius was a finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award (FCS National Defensive Player of the Year) and finished second in the final voting, while Jones was a finalist for the Jerry Rice Award (FCS Freshman of the Year). Sorsdal garnered consensus All-America distinction and was invited to the East-West Shrine Bowl before being selected by the Detroit Lions in the fifth round of the 2023 NFL Draft.

Additionally, 13 Tribe standouts combined to earn 15 all-conference honors, highlighted by a school-record tying seven first-team selections, including the CAA Defensive Player of the Year, John Pius, and the CAA Defensive Rookie of the Year, Jalen Jones.

W&M also rewrote its record book in 2022, as it set single-season school records for rushing yards (3,455), rushing yards per game (265.8) and rushing yards per carry (5.9). Additionally, the Tribe's points per game (33.5), rushing touchdowns (35) and total yards per game (448.8) all ranked among the program's top five. Defensively, W&M's 33 sacks also ranked as the seventh-best total in school history.

London, a former assistant under longtime Tribe head coach Jimmye Laycock, returned to Williamsburg with an impressive list of accomplishments as a head coach that includes winning a national title at the University of Richmond (2008) and earning Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year distinction at the University of Virginia (2011).
