INSIDE THE TRIBE

THE GAME

W&M will return to its conference slate when it hosts Holy Cross at Zable Stadium on Saturday at 3:30 p.m. The game will be broadcast on ESPN+, while fans can also listen to a live audio broadcast over the airwaves locally on The Tide 92.3 FM and 107.9 FM and via the Internet at TideRadio.com. In addition to being a White Out in which fans are encouraged to wear white, the contest will be W&M's annual National Marrow Donor Program (NMDP) Game.

ABOUT THE TRIBE

W&M enters Saturday's conference matchup with a 2-3 overall record and a 1-2 mark in league play. The Tribe has scored at least 20 points in 13 of its last 14 games dating back to last season and ranks second in the Patriot League in scoring (22.2). Quarterback Winston Watkins currently leads the Patriot League in passing efficiency (150.1) and ranks third in total offense (205.8), while wide receiver Khyllil Johnson ranks sixth nationally in yards per catch (22.21). Defensively, linebacker Harrison Johnson ranks 13th nationally with 9.8 tackles per game.

SCOUTING THE CRUSADERS

After opening its season with four consecutive losses, Holy Cross got into the win column with a 38-30 victory at Lafayette last Saturday. Despite its 1-4 record, all four losses have come against quality opponents who either compete at the FBS level or have been nationally ranked in the FCS this season. The Crusaders are led by quarterback David Lynch, who is averaging 218.4 passing yards per game and has thrown four touchdowns. Joseph Williams leads the rushing attack and is averaging 53.2 yards per game on the ground, while Lincoln Fisher has totaled 16 receptions for 274 yards with four touchdowns. Defensively, Adam Due has recorded a team-high 50 tackles with 2.0 sacks, 6.0 TFL and an interception.

ABOUT THE SERIES

Saturday's game will mark just the third meeting between the Tribe and Holy Cross, as the teams played in 1986 and 1987 when the Crusaders were led by head coach Mark Duffner, who was a defensive lineman at W&M (1972-74) and inducted into W&M's Hall of Fame in 1990.

■ TEAM NOTES

NMDP GAME

Saturday's contest versus Holy Cross will be W&M's annual National Marrow Donor Program (NMDP) Game. A longtime advocate and supporter of the program, W&M has helped register thousands of potential donors through the years.

In addition to Coach London, who in 2003 was a live-saving donor match for his daughter, Ticynn, four W&M football players have been donors during the last 12 years - John Carpenter, Corey Parker, Mark Williamsbon and Charles Grant.

CLIMBING THE CHARTS

In just eight seasons as head coach at W&M, Coach London already ranks third on the program's all-times wins list (45) and trails only Rube McCray (46) and Jimmye Laycock (249).

W&M Head Coach Mike London earned his 100th career victory with the Tribe's 34-7 win against Charleston Southern last season. In additions to the victories at W&M, London also accumulated wins as the head coach at Richmond, Virginia and Howard.

SUCCESS AT HOME

W&M has now won 18 of its last 23 games at Zable Stadium during the last five seasons.

THE DUFFNER CONNECTION

Former W&M defensive lineman Mark Duffner (1972-74), who was inducted into W&M's Hall of Fame in 1990, was the Holy Cross head coach from 1986-91 after serving as the Crusaders' defensive coordinator from 1981-95. In addition to winning five Patriot League titles, he led HC to a No. 1 FCS national ranking in 1987 and was honored as the PL Coach of the Year four times and National Coach of the Year twice (1987, 1991).

TURNOVER MARGIN

W&M currently ranks fifth nationally in turnover margin (+5) and seventh in caused turnovers (11).

The impressive figures continue a trend that began last season when the Tribe ranked 18th in turnover margin (+6).

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE

During the last nine seasons, W&M is 31-5 when it commits fewer turnovers than its opponents, while it is 5-20 when it loses the turnover battle during the recent stretch.

20 IS THE MAGIC NUMBER

W&M owns an 49-16 record during the last nine seasons in games in which it scored more than 20 points.

During the last six seasons, W&M is 38-13 in such contests.

EARLY LEADS

Dating back to the 2014 season, the Tribe has won 46 of its last 56 games when leading at halftime.

HOLDING ON TO LEADS

Dating back to the start of the 2013 season, W&M owns a 65-7 record when leading after three quarters.

VOICE OF THE TRIBE

Longtime voice of the Tribe Jay Colley recently reached a remarkable milestone, as he broadcast his 500th W&M football game at Duke. Since securing the mic in 1982, Colley has missed just three games (and both bowl games played in Japan).

SUCCESS vs. FCS IN NON-CONFERENCE

W&M has won 46 of its last 49 games against non-conference FCS opponents during the regular season. The only losses during that span are Lafayette (2012), Colgate (2018) and Furman (2025).

Additionally W&M owns a 49-4 record vs. FCS non-conference teams during the regular season dating back through the 2002 season.

COMEBACK FOR THE AGES

W&M earned one of its most remarkable comeback victories in the program's 133 history in the season-opening win at then-No. 8/7 Villanova. The Tribe scored 13 points in the final 0:53 to rally back from a 10-point deficit in the final minute. Kicker Max Lipinski connected on a career-long 45-yard field goal as time expired after safety Cade Ellis set up the game-winning score with his second interception of the contest. Following a successful onside kick by Sam Braidwood (recovered by Jackson Blee), quarterback Winston Watkins connected on a 37-yard touchdown pass to Kai Austin with 0:22 remaining to even the score.

SECOND HALF COMEBACKS

W&M's comeback win at Villanova marked the fourth time during the last two seasons that the Tribe has rallied back from a double-digit second half deficit.

NATIONAL ATTENTION

Numerous national media outlets took notice of W&M's Patriot League debut and highlighted the Tribe's season-opening win at No. 8/7 Villanova.

In addition to earning more than 4 million views on SportsCenter X account, the game generated an audience of 43.5 million online impressions on various media outlets, including ESPN, The New York Times, CNN and Yahoo.

NATIONAL HONORS

A trio of Tribe standouts earned weekly honors after posting tremendous season-opening performances in the win at No. 8/7 Villanova. Kicker Max Lipinski was honored as the Stats Perform FCS National Special Teams Player of the Week and the Patriot League Special Teams Player of the Week. Safety Cade Ellis was honored as the Patriot League Defensive Player of the Week and Rookie of the Week, while he also earned Stats Perform FCS National Rookie of the Week honorable mention distinction. Quarterback Winston Watkins earned Patriot League Offensive Player of the Week honorable mention accolades.

PRESEASON ALL-PATRIOT LEAGUE

Four W&M standouts earned preseason all-conference honors this year, as TE Sean McElwain, DL Davin Dzidzienyo, DB Bryce Barnes and special teams non-specialist Stephon Hicks earned the distinction.

The Patriot League's preseason poll was also announced and the Tribe was picked to finish tied for third. Both the preseason all-conference team and preseason poll were selected based on a vote by the league's 10 head coaches.

COACHING CONTINUITY

In addition to building a winning culture and piling up the victories, Head Coach Mike London has also built extraordinary continuity among his coaching staff as all 10 of his full-time assistants from last season returned this fall.

WINNING FOOTBALL

After posting a 7-5 record in 2025, W&M secured its fifth consecutive winning season.

The Tribe's last stretch of at least five straight winning campaigns came from 1992-99 when it recorded eight consecutive winning seasons.

CAPTAINS

Serving as team captains this season are three standouts - DL Davin Dzidzienyo, TE Sean McElwain and LB Harrison Johnson. Dzidzienyo is a two-time team captain.

ESPN+

Tribe football fans have an exciting new way to follow the action this season as 11 W&M games are scheduled to be broadcast on ESPN+. In addition to all nine of W&M's Patriot League contests, the Tribe's non-conference matchups versus Delaware State and NC Central will also air on the platform.

TRIBE IN THE NFL

Six former Tribe standouts were in NFL preseason camps this year - OL Charles Grant (Las Vegas Raiders), LB Nate Lynn (New York Jets), OL Bill Murray (Los Angeles Rams), all-pro long snapper Luke Rhodes (Indianapolis Colts), OL Colby Sorsdal (Detroit Lions) and RB Owen Wright (Houston Texans). Grant, Murray and Rhodes made the initial 53-man rosters, while Lynn signed to the Jets practice squad.

In addition to the impressive list of active players, a number of former W&M student-athletes and assistant coaches are also currently on NFL coaching staffs, highlighted by Buffalo Bills Head Coach Joe Brady '13.

A pair of NFL head coaches last season - Mike Tomlin '95 (Pittsburgh Steelers) and Sean McDermott '98 (Buffalo Bills) - played football at W&M, while current Washington Commanders head coach Dan Quinn was an assistant with the Tribe in 1994 and former New York Giants head coach Brian Daboll was an assistant on W&M's staff in 1997.

Also noteworthy is a pair of former W&M head coaches who went on to have extraordinary Hall of Fame careers - Marv Levy and Lou Holtz. Levy served as W&M's head coach from 1964-68 and was followed by Holtz from 1969-71.

OVERTIME SUCCESS

W&M'S 30-27 overtime victory against Campbell last season marked the Tribe's fourth consecutive win in OT. Overall, W&M has posted a 10-4 record in overtime.

TEAM OFFENSIVE NOTES

CONSISTENT PRODUCTION

Dating back to last season, W&M has scored at least 20 points in 13 of the last 14 games.

W&M currently ranks third in the Patriot League in scoring (22.2).

BIG PLAYS

A key to the Tribe's offensive success this season has been its ability to produce big plays, as it has recorded a gain of at least 50 yards on at least one play in all five games.

BIG PLAY THREAT

Standout freshman wide receiver Khyliil Johnson currently leads the Patriot League and ranks sixth nationally in yards per catch (22.21).

The Pittsburgh, Pa., native has recorded a catch of at least 40 yards in four games this season.

Additionally, he currently ranks third in the conference in receiving yards per game (62.2).

PASSING EFFICIENCY

Quarterback Winston Watkins currently leads the Patriot League and ranks 23rd nationally in passing efficiency (150.1).

He was especially accurate at Lehigh, where he entered the game after halftime and completed 18-of-22 passes for 164 yards.

The completion percentage at Lehigh was among the best in school history, as Steve Cluley set the record versus Towson in 2015 (21-of-23).

Watkins also ranks third in the conference in total offense (205.8).

BREAKOUT SOPHOMORE SEASON

After totaling just three receptions for 10 yards as a freshman last season, sophomore wide receiver Kai Austin has been one of W&M's top pass catchers this year with 22 receptions for 257 yards and two touchdowns. En route to totaling the impressive figures, he has recorded at least 75 receiving yards in three games.

TRENDING UPWARDS

Although he missed last week's game at Duke, during his last three appearances running back Andrew King is averaging 91.0 rushing yards per contest with three touchdowns.

BALANCED RUSHING ATTACK

W&M's scoring distribution on the ground has been evenly split this season, as a trio of standouts - Andrew King (3), Jah'Kei Chavis (2) and Winston Watkins (2) - all have recorded multiple rushing touchdowns apiece.

GROUND GAME PRODUCTION IS KEY

Since 1993, W&M has rushed for at least 200 yards 113 times and posted an 101-12 record in those contests.

Additionally, W&M is 61-12 when out-rushing the opposition since 2013.

3 SCORES IN 53 SECONDS

En route to securing its thrilling comeback win in the season opener at Villanova, W&M accomplished a rare feat - scoring three times in the final 53 seconds. A 40-yard field goal by Max Lipinski got things started, and after Jackson Blee recovered Sam Braidwood's ensuing onside kick, QB Winston Watkins connected with Kai Austin on a 37-yard touchdown pass with just 0:22 remaining. Moments later safety Cade Ellis recorded his second interception of the contest, returning it 24 yards to set up Lipinski's game-winning, career-long 45-yard field goal as time expired.

IMPRESSIVE DEBUT

Quarterback Winston Watkins was outstanding in his W&M debut in the season-opening win at Villanova, as the junior completed 19-of-33 passes for 254 yards with two touchdowns in his first-career start. Additionally, he rushed for a team-high 72 yards with a touchdown en route to earning Patriot League Offensive Player of the Week honorable mention distinction.

DYNAMIC DUO AT TIGHT END

W&M boasts perhaps the best tight end duo in the country, as all-conference standouts Sean McElwain and Jackson Blee return this season. During the preseason, HERO Sports ranked McElwain as the nation's sixth-best tight end and Blee as the 10th-best.

FOOTBALL FAMILY

W&M's offense features three sets of siblings this season - all of whom have contributed this fall: all-conference TE Sean McElwain and starting OL Matt McElwain; all-conference TE Jackson Blee and QB/ATH Patrick Blee; TE Haven Mullins and WR Jacob Mullins. Jacob and Patrick both scored TDs last week.

TEAM DEFENSIVE NOTES

AMONG THE BEST

In addition to ranking seventh nationally (FCS) in forced turnovers (11), W&M ranks 13th in interceptions (6) and ninth in recovered fumbles (5).

BALL HAWKS

Dating back to 2024, W&M has forced at least one turnover in 23 of the last 27 games.

BUILDING DEPTH

Twenty different W&M defensive players have earned starts this season. Nine of those standouts recorded their first career starts this season.

THIRD QUARTER DEFENSE

Through the first five games, W&M has allowed just 20 points during the third quarter.

TOUGH TO SCORE THROUGH THE AIR

Since the start of the start of the 2016 season, a span of 110 games, just 38 opponents have scored more than one passing touchdown against W&M.

SHUTTING DOWN THE PASS

After leading the William & Mary football team to five consecutive winning campaigns for the first time in nearly three decades, Head Coach Mike London returns for his eighth season at the helm of the Tribe.

In just seven seasons, London has already established himself as one of the most successful head coaches in the program's 132-year history. In addition to ranking as the third-winningest head coach at W&M (43) and earning 105 career victories, he has helped the Tribe break into the national rankings four of the past five seasons. Additionally, W&M ascended into the nation's top 10 three of the last four years.

During the recent stretch of success, which includes an appearance in the 2022 NCAA Quarterfinals, London has helped Tribe standouts garner 55 All-CAA honors during the last five seasons, highlighted by 21 first-team selections. Additionally, 22 W&M players have combined to earn 81 All-America honors during London's tenure.

In addition to the numerous accolades, London has overseen the development of six former Tribe standouts who have signed NFL contracts – Charles Grant (Raiders), Nate Lynn (Lions), Colby Sorsdal (Lions), Owen Wright (Ravens), Andrew Trainer (Chargers) and Bill Murray (Patriots).

Numerous achievements highlighted the Tribe's most recent campaign last fall. In addition to extending the program's streak of winning seasons and securing his 100th career victory as a head coach in the triumph against Charleston Southern, six W&M standouts combined to earn 16 All-America honors – highlighted by a pair of finalists for the Buck Buchanan Award, Jalen Jones and Luke Banbury, who earned NFL Rookie minicamp invites with the Commanders and Ravens, respectively. The duo was also among a group of 11 Tribe players who earned All-CAA accolades, including four first-team selections.

Collectively, W&M led the nation in fewest turnovers (6) in 2025 and ranked among the country's top 10 in fewest penalties per game and fewest penalty yards per game.

The 2024 campaign marked W&M's fourth consecutive winning season. Five Tribe standouts combined to earn 20 All-America honors – highlighted by offensive lineman Charles Grant, who was a consensus first-team honoree and a third-round draft pick by the Las Vegas Raiders. In addition to Grant, three other standouts earned NFL rookie minicamp invites – Hollis Mathis (Steelers), Marcus Barnes (Bengals) and Matthew Akuchie (Colts) – while 12 members of the Tribe garnered All-CAA accolades.

W&M also continued its tradition of boasting one of the nation's top rushing attacks as it ranked fourth in the country in yards per game on the ground (232.8). Additionally, it marked the second time in the last three seasons W&M ranked among the nation's top four and the fourth-straight year in which it ranked among the top 17.

London was honored for the tremendous success on and off the field with the prestigious W&M Plumeri Award following the 2024 season, as the honor recognizes and rewards the core values that distinguish outstanding faculty members and coaches who define excellence.

Following a successful 2023 campaign five W&M standouts combined to earn 13 All-America honors, while 10 members of the Tribe garnered All-CAA accolades. Highlighting the impressive group was All-America defensive end Nate Lynn, who signed a free agent contract with the Detroit Lions.

One of the country's top teams defensively, W&M ranked 10th nationally in total defense (303.8), 12th in scoring defense (18.5) and fourth in passing defense (153.5).

Under London's leadership, W&M catapulted to the national forefront in 2022 as it secured a share of the CAA title, earned a No. 5 seed in the NCAA Playoffs and advanced to the NCAA Quarterfinals. Additionally, W&M equaled a school record for wins (11) and posted program records for regular season victories (10) and road triumphs (6). Highlighting the wins were three victories against nationally ranked opponents and a lopsided season-opening triumph at FBS opponent Charlotte.

W&M's success was recognized at the national level, as London was selected as a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award, which honors the FCS National Coach of the Year, and finished fourth in the final voting. Additionally, London was selected as the Bobby Ross Coach of the Year by the Touchdown Club of Richmond and the VaSID (Virginia Sports Information Directors) Coach of the Year.

In addition to the team's success, a number of Tribe standouts were recognized with national honors for their outstanding individual contributions. Highlighting an impressive group of six players who earned All-America recognition were linebacker John Pius, offensive lineman Colby Sorsdal and cornerback Jalen Jones. Pius was a finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award (FCS National Defensive Player of the Year) and finished second in the final voting, while Jones was a finalist for the Jerry Rice Award (FCS Freshman of the Year). Sorsdal garnered consensus All-America distinction and was invited to the East-West Shrine Bowl before being selected by the Detroit Lions in the fifth round of the 2023 NFL Draft.

Additionally, 13 Tribe standouts combined to earn 15 all-conference honors, highlighted by a school-record tying seven first-team selections, including the CAA Defensive Player of the Year, John Pius, and the CAA Defensive Rookie of the Year, Jalen Jones.

W&M also rewrote its record book in 2022, as it set single-season school records for rushing yards (3,455), rushing yards per game (265.8) and rushing yards per carry (5.9). Additionally, the Tribe's points per game (33.5), rushing touchdowns (35) and total yards per game (448.8) all ranked among the program's top five. Defensively, W&M's 33 sacks also ranked as the seventh-best total in school history.

London, a former assistant under longtime Tribe head coach Jimmie Laycock, returned to Williamsburg with an impressive list of accomplishments as a head coach that includes winning a national title at the University of Richmond (2008) and earning Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year distinction at the University of Virginia (2011).
