WEEK NINE NOTES

THIS WEEK
The Western Michigan welcomes Bowling Green for a Mid-American Conference showdown on Saturday at 12 p.m. The game can be watched live on CBS Sports Network and heard live on the Bronco Media Network.

THE SERIES
Saturday is the 59th meeting between the Broncos and the Falcons. BGSU holds the all-time series lead at 35-20-3 and have won each of the last three meetings. The previous meeting was on Nov. 11, 2024 in Bowling Green, a 31-13 win by the Falcons. WMU head coach Lance Taylor is 0-2 against BGSU, while Falcon's head coach Eddie George has yet to play against them.

SCOUTING THE FALCONS
Bowling Green (2-6) is under the second season of head coach Eddie George and have already matched its MAC win total from last season. The Falcons opened conference play with wins at Miami and at home against Sacramento State. Since then, BGSU has dropped two tight games against Ball State (32-31, OT) and at Buffalo (31-24).

Bowling Green's offense averages 18.8 points per game and 287.8 yards per game. Jay Kastantin earned the starting quarterback job out of camp and has started every game this season. The former Assumption University (DII) transfer ranks second in the MAC in completion percentage at 67 percent. Kanstatin has throw for 1,418 yards and 10 touchdowns and has also rushed for 126 yards and a touchdown. Austyn Dendy has a team-high 371 yards rushing and four touchdowns. The Falcons have four different receivers with at least 20 catches, led by tight end Jeremiah Scoby's 27. Wide receiver Winn Sharp leads the team with 305 yards.

BGSU defensive end Myles Brady is fourth in the nation in sacks per game at 1.0 and his 8.0 total sacks also ranks fourth, while leading the MAC in both categories. Defensive end Eriq George, son of Eddie, was a preseason All-MAC selection by several publications and was the OVC Freshman of the Year at Tennessee State before transferring. He has 3.5 sacks, 36 tackles and 8.0 tackles for loss. With its troublesome pass rush, the Falcons have the top passing defense in the MAC and allow just 168.4 yards per game through the air.

NOTES ON LAST WEEK
- Senior defensive back Joshua Franklin's 92-yard kick off return for a touchdown was the first since Sean Tyler returned one 90 yards at San Jose State on Sept. 24, 2022.
- WMU's defense allowed a season-high 595 yards of total offense.
- Aveion Chenault had a career-high 105 yards receiving and his second career 100 yard receiving game of his career. Both have come this season.
- Austin Alexander had a career-high 2.5 sacks in the loss.
- Baylin Brooks caught his fourth touchdown of the season. He has 19 receptions this season, with 21 percent of those going for touchdowns.

CELEBRATING SENIORS
Prior to the start of Saturday's game, Western Michigan will honor its 18 seniors. Blair Alexander, Jori Benson, Jalen Buckley, Kouri Crump, Palmer Domschke, DeJuan Echoles Jr., Dakari Frazier, Joshua Franklin, Will Gerig, AJ Green, Nate Levicki, Domanick Moon, Dillon Moore, Chad Schuster, Jarvarius Sims, Brandon Smith, Jordan Thomas and Hunter Whitenack will all be celebrated. WMU will also recognize senior equipment assistant Hannah Bunker and video assistant Chad Goodrich.

LANCE TAYLOR

HEAD COACH • FOURTH SEASON • ALABAMA '02

Lance Taylor was named the head coach of the Western Michigan Football program on Dec. 8, 2022, becoming the 17th head coach in program history.

In his first season, the Broncos produced the MAC Freshman of the Year in running back Jalen Buckley. Buckley rushed for 1,003 yards and 10 touchdowns and was also named a Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America and The Athletic. Taylor's offense also produced the MAC's leading receiver in Kenneth Womack, who had 76 receptions for 691 yards and one touchdown. In total, the Broncos had two First Team All-MAC selections in Womack and center Jacob Gideon, second team All-MAC defensive end Marshawn Kneeland, and Third Team All-MAC selections in Buckley, guard Addison West and wide receiver Anthony Sambucci. In the classroom, WMU continued its academic excellence with 16 Broncos being named Academic All-MAC. Taylor and the team also had a strong presence in the community, racking up 390 community service hours from Dec. 9, 2022 to Dec. 31, 2023. Kneeland was later selected in the second round of the 2024 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

In his second season, Taylor led the Broncos to their 12th bowl game in program history after finishing the regular season with a 6-6 record and going 5-3 in MAC play. WMU was selected to the IS4S Salute to Veterans Bowl, falling to South Alabama, 30-23. Taylor produced a first in program history after Addison West was named the first Consensus First Team All-American in Western Michigan History. Jacob Gideon also earned All-American Honors, with both earning First Team All-MAC honors along with running back Jaden Nixon. Safety Tate Hallock was named Second Team All-MAC, while tight end Blake Bosma and linebacker Donald Willis earned Third Team All-MAC honors. The academic success continued under Taylor, with WMU posting 20 Academic All-MAC selections and a program-best 12 named to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society. Senior cornerback Bilahl Kone became the second alum to be drafted under Taylor, going in the sixth round to the Baltimore Ravens.

The third season saw Taylor lead the Broncos to the program's fourth MAC Championship and third bowl victory after a win in the Myrtle Beach Bowl over Conference USA Champions, Kennesaw State. The Broncos had one of the top scoring defenses in the nation, finishing the season ranked ninth. WMU also became the first program to win the MAC Coach of the Year Award, MAC Offensive MVP (Broc Lowry), MAC Defensive MVP (Nadame Tucker) and the Verne Smith Award (Tucker). After leading the nation in sacks, Tucker went on to become first Bronco defensive player to earn All-American Honors from the Walter Camp Foundation after being selected to the Second Team. In all, seven Broncos earned All-MAC honors led by First Team selections Lowry, center Raheem Anderson, offensive tackle Chad Schuster and Tucker. Safety Tate Hallock was named Second Team All-MAC, while running back Jalen Buckley and cornerback Joshua Franklin both earned Third Team selections. WMU continued its academic excellence under Taylor, with 11 Broncos being named Academic All-MAC, seven earning CSC Academic All-District honors and nine earning National FootballL Foundation Hampshire Honor Society accolades. Fans flocked to Stafford-Smith Field at Waldo Stadium to cheer on Taylor and the Broncos, with WMU averaging over 20,000 fans a game.

Taylor arrived in Kalamazoo after spending the 2022 season as the offensive coordinator at the University of Louisville. Prior to his time with the Cardinals, Taylor spent three seasons as the running backs coach and run game coordinator at the University of Notre Dame, guiding the Fighting Irish to a College Football Playoff appearance in 2022 and a New Year's Six Fiesta Bowl appearance in 2021.

During those three seasons with the Irish, Taylor guided running back Kyren Williams to a pair of 1,000-yard seasons in 2020 and 2021. Williams rushed for 1,002 yards and 14 touchdowns last season. As a redshirt freshman in 2020, he produced 1,125 yards and 13 scores to earn Freshman All-American accolades and was a finalist for Freshman of the Year.

Taylor had two coaching stints with the Carolina Panthers, where he coached Wide Receivers. In 2013 the Panthers finished 12-4, winning the NFC South.

In between his two coaching stops with the Carolina Panthers, Taylor coached running backs at Stanford, where he coached and mentored Heisman Trophy runner-up Christian McCaffery and recruited a second Heisman runner-up in Bryce Love. McCaffery and Love hold three of the top five rushing seasons in Stanford history. While with the Cardinal, Taylor won a Pac-12 Championship, a Rose Bowl and was named the 2015 FootballScoop.com Running Backs Coach of the Year.

LANCE TAYLOR

HEAD COACH • FOURTH SEASON • ALABAMA '02

Taylor spent the 2010 – 2012 seasons with the New York Jets as an offensive quality control coach and assistant tight ends coach. During the 2010 season, the Jets won their wild card game and divisional playoff game against the New England Patriots and appeared in the AFC Championship game.

In 2009, he coached wide receivers at Appalachian State, where under his guidance the Mountaineers set school records with 284 receptions and 3,621 receiving yards. The team finished 11-3, won the Southern Conference title and advanced to the Football Championship Subdivision semifinals.

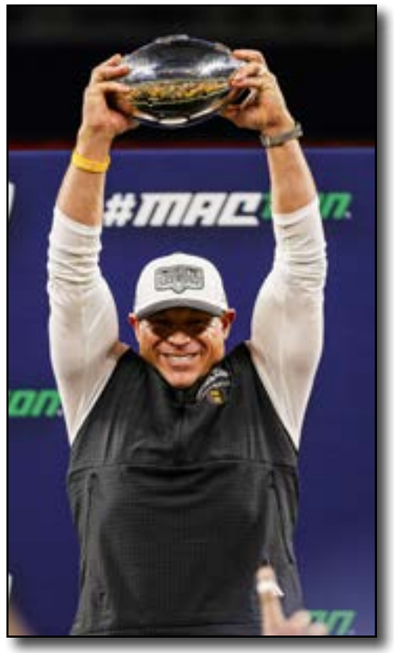

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for Nick Saban at his alma mater, Alabama, from 2007-08.

A walk-on at Alabama before earning a scholarship, Taylor played in 38 consecutive games at wide receiver from 1999-2003 for the Crimson Tide. As a senior, he served as a special team's captain for (then) coach Mike Shula.

Taylor played professionally for the Colorado Crush and Columbus Destroyers of the Arena Football League, and AF2's Green Bay Blizzard and Louisville Fire from 2004-06.

Taylor graduated from Alabama in 2003 with a degree in management. Taylor's father, James, also attended Alabama and played running back under legendary head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant.

A native of Mt. Vernon, Alabama, Taylor's family includes his wife Jamie, son Jet, and daughter Jemma.

Head Coach Lance Taylor holds up the MAC Championship Trophy after a 23-13 win over Miami (OH) at Ford Field in Detroit, Mich. Dec. 6, 2025.

What They're Saying About Lance Taylor

Director of Athletics at Notre Dame, Jack Swarbrick
"Lance is one of the best young coaches in the country. He has a great knowledge of the game but what really separates him is the quality of his relationship with the student-athletes he coaches."

Current San Francisco 49er, Former Stanford Cardinal, 2017 8th Overall NFL Draft Pick and Heisman Finalist, Christian McCaffery
"Coach Taylor was instrumental in my development as a running back and as a football player. He helped me in so many ways in college and in the NFL during my time at the Panthers. A great football mind and an even better person."

LSU Head Football Coach, Brian Kelly
"I have known Lance to be extremely well organized, has a strong work ethic, creates strong respectful relationships with staff and is trusted by his players. He possesses an innovative football intelligence and can see the big picture when it comes to program culture. Lance has a wonderful family that shares in his pursuit of being a Head Coach and without question would be a great addition to any University looking for Leadership in its Football Program."

Former Notre Dame Running Back, 2020 ACC Freshman of the Year, and 2022 NFL Draft Pick, Kyren Williams
"From the day Coach Taylor arrived at Notre Dame, he trusted me and in my dreams. He challenged me in a way that ultimately made me better in football and every other aspect of my life, for which I will forever be grateful. Western Michigan is lucky to have Coach Taylor as their head coach because like he did with us running backs at Notre Dame, he is only going to make the team, the program, and culture better for the players to excel and live out their dreams."

Former Stanford Cardinal, Heisman Finalist, and 2019 NFL Draft Pick, Bryce Love
"Coach is one of the major reasons I ended up at Stanford. I'll always be thankful for everything he did to allow me to grow not only as a player but as a person."

Former WMU Bronco, 2x MAC Defensive Player of the Year, 2004 27th Overall NFL Draft Pick by Houston Texans, and 2X Pro Bowl Selection, Jason Babin
"Welcome to the Brotherhood Lance. We are lucky to have a man like Coach Taylor to lead our Bronco football program."

Head Coach Lance Taylor talks with ESPN reporter Taylor Smith after a 23-13 win in the MAC Championship Game over Miami (OH) at Ford Field in Detroit, Mich. Dec. 6, 2025.
