TONIGHT

#6/6 WMU will host #12/13 Colorado College in its first NCHC home game of the 2026-27 campaign. This is the Tigers' first trip to Lawson Arena since being swept last season in the NCHC Quarterfinals. Puck drop is set for 7 p.m. ET.

LAST TIME OUT

Western Michigan earned two points from its first NCHC series of the season, tying #10/10 North Dakota 2-2 on Friday and winning the shootout 1-0 on senior forward William Whitelaw's goal before falling 4-1 on Saturday. Sophomore goaltender Quentin Miller made 24 saves in Saturday's loss.

QUICK HITS

- The next Bronco win is No. 950 in program history; WMU enters the weekend at 949.
- WMU is 4-0-0 at home this season.
- Zaccharya Wisdom has seen this series from both sides: three goals against WMU as a Tiger, then a goal and an assist against CC as a Bronco on Feb. 21, 2026. He is one goal from 40 for his career.
- Ty Henricks and William Whitelaw have each recorded a point in two straight games against CC. All four of Henricks' career points in the series are assists, and Whitelaw's run includes the game-winning goal on March 6.
- Lawson Arena has been a difficult trip for Colorado College. Western Michigan is 16-7-2 against the Tigers in Kalamazoo, and CC has not won at Lawson since Jan. 27, 2024. The Broncos are unbeaten in four straight meetings overall (3-0-1) and have won three straight in the series.

ALL YOU CAN EAT

Western Michigan's scoring has come from everywhere this season. A total of 21 Broncos have recorded at least one point, tied for the second-most in Division I, and only Lindenwood, with 22, has more players on the scoresheet.

PAT FERSCHWEILER

HEAD COACH // SIXTH SEASON // WESTERN MICHIGAN '93

Pat Ferschweiler was named Western Michigan head hockey coach on Aug. 3, 2021 after spending two seasons as an associate head coach with the program (2019-21). It was his second stint with the Broncos after he spent four years as an assistant coach for the Detroit Red Wings under former WMU head coach Jeff Blashill. Prior to entering the professional coaching ranks, Ferschweiler was an assistant coach/associate head coach for WMU from 2010-2014.

He also has extensive international coaching experience, winning a gold medal as the head coach of the US U-17 Team at the Five Nations Tournament in 2017. He served as an assistant coach with the US U-18 Team at the Hlinka Gretzky Cup in 2018 and then served as the team's head coach for the 2019 Tournament. He was also an assistant coach for the United States at the 2023 IIHF World Junior Championship, earning a bronze medal with the team.

In his time as WMU's head coach, Ferschweiler has accumulated 137 wins, including 75 victories in conference play. In five seasons, he has coached four All-Americans, 15 All-Conference players, 12 NCHC individual award winners, two national goal leaders and one Hobey Baker Finalist. Off the ice, Ferschweiler has seen the Broncos amass 114 NCHC Academic All-Conference honors and 73 NCHC Distinguished Scholar Athletes. The Broncos had a program-high 21 players earn NCHC Academic All-Conference honors in 2021-22. Nationally, 11 players have secured All-American Scholar status. In terms of development, 41 players have gone on to sign professional contracts during his time with the program.

The 2025-26 campaign delivered more notable achievements for the Brown and Gold, as they earned 27 overall wins and 16 in NCHC play. WMU made its fifth straight NCAA Tournament and finished the season ranked No. 6 in the country. During the season, the Broncos won the Kwik Trip Holiday Faceoff and saw six players sign professional deals.

With all of the success, Ferschweiler saw three Broncos earn All-NCHC accolades (Hampton Slukynsky, Grant Slukynsky and Samuel Sjolund). Hampton Slukynsky was also named the NCHC Three Stars Award winner, becoming just the second Bronco to secure that honor. As a team, the Brown and Gold finished top 10 in the nation in faceoff win percentage, penalty kill percentage, scoring margin, scoring offense, assists, points and winning percentage.

Ferschweiler took the Broncos to new heights in 2024-25, leading the program to its first ever National Championship. The Broncos defeated Boston University 6-2 in the title game on April 12 in St. Louis, Mo. The Broncos beat Denver (3-2 2OT), UMass (2-1) and Minnesota State (2-1 2OT) in the NCAA Tournament during the run to the championship. Along with that, Ferschweiler guided the Brown and Gold to a program record 34 victories, including 10 in a row to end the season.

The Rochester, Minn. native also helped Western Michigan claim its first ever Penrose Cup and NCHC Frozen Faceoff championship. WMU secured the regular season title with a 6-4 win over North Dakota on Feb. 28 and beat Denver 4-3 in double overtime on March 22 to claim the conference tournament title. The Broncos went 19-4-1 in NCHC play, losing just once in regulation throughout the league season.

For his efforts, Ferschweiler was named the Spencer Penrose Award winner, which is given annually to the Division 1 National Coach of the Year. He was also named the College Hockey News and USCHO Coach of the Year. The NCHC selected him as the league's Coach of the Year for the second time in the last three seasons. The Broncos had four All-NCHC standouts (Alex Bump, Hampton Slukynsky, Joona Väisänen and Cameron Rowe) and three individual award winners. To close out the season, Alex Bump was named a First Team All-American by the American Hockey Coaches Association.

Ferschweiler and the Broncos were ranked No. 1 in the final poll of the season, receiving every first-place vote available. It marked the second time in program history that the Brown and Gold reached No. 1 in the polls, with the other happening earlier in the 2024-25 campaign. Western Michigan led the nation in goals per game (3.98), scoring margin (+1.93) and winning percentage (.821).

During the 2023-24 season, Ferschweiler guided the Broncos to a third consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance for the first time in program history. The Brown and Gold finished the season with 21 wins, which included going unbeaten in non-conference play. With another strong season, WMU was ranked in the USCHO and USA Hockey top 20 throughout the entire season.

Along with that, Ferschweiler helped Luke Grainger and Sam Colangelo earn All-NCHC honors to go along with Alex Bump's All-Rookie Team status. Grainger would go on to be named the NCHC's Senior Scholar Athlete Award winner at the league's annual awards banquet in St. Paul. Following the season, eight players signed professional contracts.

In 2022-23, Ferschweiler coached the Broncos to a historic season, as the team won 23 overall games, including 15 in conference play. WMU's 15 NCHC wins helped secure a second-place league finish, which is the highest NCHC finish in program history. Additionally, Western Michigan made its eighth appearance in the NCAA Tournament and second consecutive trip to the big dance.

The Broncos' leader was named the NCHC's Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the National Coach of the Year award. Under his tutelage, Jason Polin was able to shine in his senior season, earning NCHC Player of the Year and Forward of the Year honors. Polin went on to break the single-season NCHC scoring record and led the nation with 30 goals. He was a finalist for the Hobey Baker Award and was tabbed as an All-American following the season.

Ryan McAllister joined Polin as an All-NCHC performer and was a near unanimous choice for the All-Rookie Team. Western Michigan's top line of Polin, McAllister and Max Sasson produced 138 points on 58 goals and 80 assists. All three signed NHL entry-level contracts at the end of the season.

In his first season as head coach (2021-22), Ferschweiler helped the Broncos pick up 26 wins, which was the most victories in a season since the 1995-96 campaign. Western Michigan would go on to make its first NCHC Frozen Faceoff Championship appearance and earned a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

In just his first season as the head coach, Ferschweiler helped WMU pick up its first ever NCAA Tournament victory. The Broncos defeated Northeastern, 2-1, in the Worcester Regional Semifinals. Luke Grainger notched the game-winning goal in overtime.

The Brown and Gold had four All-Conference performers in Ethen Frank (First Team), Ronnie Attard (First Team), Drew Worrad (Second Team) and Michael Joyaux (Honorable Mention). Attard would go on to win the NCHC's Offensive Defenseman of the Year award, while Worrad claimed the league's Senior Scholar Athlete Award. Attard and Frank were named All-Americans following the season. Frank led the nation in goals, while Attard was one of the top scoring defensemen in the country.

As a player Ferschweiler suited up for the Brown & Gold in 116 total games and amassed 95 points on 30 goals and 65 assists. He was awarded the Rob Hodge Most Valuable Player for the 1992-93 season in which he tallied 35 points including a career-best 15 goals. He was also named the CCHA's Best Defensive Forward for the 1991-92 season. Ferschweiler played professionally for 11 seasons, five of which came with the Kansas City Blades of the International Hockey League, back when the IHL was one of the top minor-pro leagues in the nation. He received a bachelor's degree in finance from Western Michigan University in 1993.
